A river flows and flows upstream, as if driven by a tail wind, a wind that gets behind the fish…hear me…listen and see…a way is being made…a way is being opened…a way is being brought about. The fish begin to sense it and see it and fall in and follow into its flow. Here there is no bubble and froth, but a strong, clean and clear stream, jettisoning these fish forward…these fish are me and they are you, they are every Christian who lives and faces the struggles we all engage in and face, there is none strong, we are all weak.

As the fish, the salmon enter this stream, a new eagerness, verve and invigorating intensity engages as they sense and find their help…a way has been opened up…a resurgence of love, effort and hope oxygenates and fills and refills their gills. A catapulting forward occurs using the stream at the far banks side as its guiding strength. Whatever the obstacles, they now know they have a run at it, space and power that never existed this way in this place for them before.

So the ancient paths and ancient purposes, seem once more real and open to them to explore, to find and expand themselves once more, even more fully than ever before. That which is lost is found. That which was far away has become, nearer and clearer, that which was once seemingly unobtainable becomes more obtainable, more than ever before envisaged or imagined. Becoming more attuned towards the summation of their desires. That which was lost has been found and this to bring more completeness for evermore.

Our milt will not go to waste, but will be hand milked by the hand of God. The zeal of the Lord will accomplish this. Never (again) get tired of swimming upstream…God has found and is opening up a way.

How will we ever know that we will ever completely make this journey? Well it’s because the One we love and who loves us has made this journey before. Only where we faltered and failed…he succeeded…and by finding the same streaming current of love, we can get there too. Only He did it in perfection, we will do it in imperfection. Where we fail, He succeeds. Where we falter, He flies. Where we are weak, He is strong. When we won’t wait, He will. When we won’t hurry, He has. He has never and will never miss a season yet, as long as God is God and the seasons are seasons…he will yet, and already has sown into our season.

He has experienced all our eddies, flows and turbulences, faced…overcoming our obstacles and falls. Has come out on top despite experiencing our death at the bottom of the shallowness of our own streaming river…and despite the loss of all our energies...rose and gave life to us…and all our future seed. For he is there before our very beginning and will be there always at our very end…awaiting our final arrival home, within the halls and streams of the very Home of Life itself. And we arrived knowing that every step of the way, every swing and sway of our tail is generated by the indwelling Spirit of the procreator of our very creation, filling and covering every swim of our way. In Him, towards you is no anger, no determination in Him for you to enter any of His wrath…but to enter into , here, in life, with you, so that you may have and keep your perfect and complete rest.

I look and listen yet more closely…how is I think, that though you are there at our very beginning and you are there at our very end…and though you have swum, faced and overcome in our death, how is though that you can still help me now? I look and see and realize as I peer to the far bank that the current and form is not merely what I expected to see. It is not simply the bankside that directs the upward flow of the river at all…but rather the body of a man, inclined at an angle pointing in towards the centre of the stream…I realize that it is the body of Him, Jesus our Christ, Gods great fish, the progenitor of our species, that angles Himself, within the flow of our stream, so taking the force and the brunt of the violence of the streams downward torrent of flow, that he stills and silences the energies of the currents tow. He has placed Himself besides, alongside us and with us and has not forgotten us or left us to our fate. As I look into His face that was once…and still is Gods first fish, who experienced the failing and weakness of mans and mans' own strength. He shows us that he is still with us and for us and laying down Himself into our own stream …and plans to bring for us our perfect rest and place of peace…

…and with us and for us…changes the strength and direction of the eddies and currents that wage against, His and our flow…for He is Emmanuel, God with us…and God with us NOW…because He cares for us, because he loves us…He cares and knows what we are going through…we know through this…our own strength, never has and never ever will be enough.

Galatians 6:9:
[9] Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up….we will not lose heart, we will, we shall, reap even more once again a great harvest and a great rest. Stream, stream, streaming to you, look for my flow, streaming for you. I Am opening up a way; I Am opening up a way through for you, for all of you. Lord I am coming, I am coming to your flow, for you have opened up yourself to me, Lord I now open myself up to you, to the Love of your Flow.

I believe it is His intention to bring us through, it is my belief, despite what may happen, it is His intention to find and to make a way for this His small Kingdom, His little Britain, to bring it through and make it Great and United in Him, stronger and greater, bigger and wider than it has ever been seen to be before. Amen.

Unexpected Vision

Years ago when we were busy pastoring a great church we visited Kansas City. While we were there David had a very strategic vision. Please read and please pass on to Pastors, children's pastors, youth pastors, parents.

David's vision 17 years ago was of today's terrorists.

During the night David had a very vivid vision. He saw young boys, 8,9,10 years of age and up. They appeared to be Middle Eastern Muslim young boys. They were being trained in warfare with weapons. Guns, grenades, explosives. They were intent and very serious sand dedicated. Then he saw American church children and youth- goofing around, watching videos, playing games.

The Lord spoke to David, "The enemy is training his army and my church is entertaining her children."

Well guess who those young Muslim boys were? They were TODAY'S TERRORISTS.

Everyone, Including The Children And Youth Must Have Their Own Personal Revival

More churches today are training the young people instead of entertaining them. But, still there are many churches where the kids and youth don't have encounters with God, where the young people are not moving in the power of the Spirit, have not had a close encounter of the heavenly kind for themselves.

Every child and teen must have their own personal revival. Head knowledge and being able to give the right answers to the questions is not going to cut it when the rubber hits the road so to speak.

This is what God sees when He sees your children and youth, They don't have a Junior Holy Spirit. He wants to use them and equip them and give them a powerful experience of Himself.

God Sees The Kids And Youth Just The Same As Anyone Else.

Joseph "dreamed a dream" as a teenager (Gen 37:2-11) that overturned the status quo.

God called Samuel as a boy and spoke to him and gave him a judgment word for Eli (1 Sam.3:4-10)

Saul told David he was "but a youth" when he stepped up to fight Goliath (1 Sam. 17:33)

Jeremiah said he couldn't speak for he was "but a youth" (Jer.1:6-8).

Mary was around 14 years old when she conceived Jesus by the Holy Spirit (Luke 1:26-31).

Paul told Timothy, "Let no one despise your youth" (1 Tim 4:12).

Children And Youth In History

Jonathon Edwards, the famous New England Preacher, entered Yale University at 13 years of age, and graduated a Valedictorian at seventeen.

Catherine Booth, co founder of the Salvation Army, was a devout Christian and by the age of twelve she had read the Bible through eight times. She also wrote articles for magazines as a child

Frances Ridley Havergail, famous poet and Hymn writer could quote the whole of the New Testament and the book of Psalms at the age of four and read it in the Greek at the age of eight. In a letter to her mother, Miss. Havergal, referring to her extraordinary musical and lyrical ability, which she called "Curious musical visions" once wrote, "I hear strange and very beautiful chords, generally full, slow and grand, succeeding each other in most interesting sequences. I do not invent them, I could not; they pass before my mind, and I only listen."

Some of the great works of Shelley, Byron, Keats, Chopin, and Mozart were composed when they were teenagers. Hitler and Mussolini built their power on young people.

Charles Haddon Spurgeon, the 18th century pastor was known as the "Prince of Preachers." He was studying theology when he was 11 years old. He started preaching at 15 years of age. Became a pastor at 17 years of age and ended up having the largest church in London, England, preaching to 10.000 people when he was 19 years of age. By the time he was 21 years of age he was the most famous preacher in all the land.

Joan of Arc, (The maid) was called to lead the armies of France against the English at about 20-21 years old. She received revelation that she was to go to France, and heard the voice of the angels at thirteen years of age. When she was finally burned at the stake, the English were terrified because her heart refused to burn. An English Officer who detested her and vowed to personally carry a torch to light the pyre, saw a white dove descend and immediately repented.

David Glasgow Farragut born near Knoxville, Tennessee on July 6, 1801. The man who would eventually become the first Admiral of the United States Navy, went to sea at the age of eight and received his first Naval appointment as midshipman at large at the age of nine and a half. At age eleven he saw his first combat and commanded a vessel at age twelve!

John Quincy Adams was Ambassador to Katherine the Great of Russia when he was 14 years of age.

MANY POWERFUL INTERCESSORS HAVE BEEN RAISED UP in the last 10 years through out ministry and ministries like Esther Illinsky. Esther is raising up one million child intercessors all over the world.

Many children today are being used by God in very powerful ways. Some of the most powerful intercession meetings I have ever been in have been with children. During the Gulf war my secretary and I were praying with her two children and my own two girls.

Child's Open Vision During Desert Storm

The kids wanted to pray for the soldiers in the Desert. The anointing came on my daughter, Faith, and she knelt at the coffee table and started to draw. She drew an underground bunker (before they made mention of those on the TV news). She drew what was in every room, she drew what was on the top to disguise it. She pointed to one room. "They have a missile launcher there but it doesn't quite work right and we need to pray it wont." They did have one of those remember? and it always slightly missed the mark.

Then she had an open vision. "I see an American plane and it has been hit, the pilot is bailing out but he is coming down in the desert and there are enemy troops nearby. We must pray for him for somewhere to hide."

The four children started praying in the spirit. Then Faith said, "It's OK, he found somewhere."

Then she saw another American plane looking for him and the kids stated praying again. "It's OK" she said, they heard his beeper." The plane dangerously short of fuel - had to fly back and get more fuel-then fly over a 4 lane highway full of Iraqi tanks, but they made it miraculously and picked up the downed pilot.

Faith (13) saw the whole thing in the Spirit. As she saw, she spoke it out and the kids prayed. She saw him rescued. The pilot's testimony was in Readers Digest June 1991

Please pass on and encourage people to go to David's website "Raising a generation of Anointed Children and Youth. David will come and impart a vision to your church or ministry and bring the young people into the anointing. David uses the children and youth in his miracle services - every week he sees deaf ears open, broken bones instantly healed, all kinds of sickness and disease instantly healed. He calls it, "The laying on of sticky fingers."

I believe this is a call of God right now- it is very urgent and important. Pray for your church to get a vision, to stop putting the kids in another room and giving them a coloring book and a video instead of the encounters of God.

Check out our Illustrated Bible study books for kids. Get a copy of "Kids in Combat" for your pastor and children's pastor. DON'T LEAVE THE CHILDREN OUT -God is placing some of these children in the front row of His army- I have seen it in the Spirit. Remember that children and youth do not have a junior Holy Spirit

Undo These Rigid Structures

Christine Beadsworth

Precious saints
As we move fast towards the end of this year, I would like to share another two pictures the Lord has spoken to me from. Sometimes a picture is worth a thousand words and I pray the Lord would continue to unfold to you deeper and richer levels of meaning as He speaks to your spirit from these scenes. We are living in a time of much shaking and change and even some of the mindsets we've had about church that are not in line with His unchangeable Word will be addressed in these days. It is time to return to the simplicity of the gospel of Jesus Christ and, like Paul, be determined to preach nothing else but Christ and Him crucified for herein lies the power of God.

As I was praying with friends recently, I saw before me a young girl with calipers on her legs and she walked very clumsily. The Holy Spirit explained to me that this was the church who had had these rigid structures encased around her at a young age, soon after the church began in Acts. She believed that the structures were necessary to help her walk but the truth was that the calipers kept her legs in a weakened state and caused her to walk clumsily without grace in the earth. She was unable to run in the path of His commandments and the rigidity of these man-made aids chafed and caused discomfort and pressure. The Spirit said that the Lord was coming to undo these rigid structures and lead His Bride out of them and as she took her first faltering steps unaided but holding His hand, she would feel strength begin to return to her wasted limbs and would be again equipped to go into all the world and make disciples, free of the cumbersome unnecessary archaic support structures.

As I looked back, I saw that the calipers retained their rigid shape once the true church had stepped out of them but they lay, cast aside and lifeless for that which was inside them which moved the calipers forward in any direction had been taken out of them. The Holy Spirit said that in the same way, there would be a move out of and away from the restriction of ancient man-made structures by those who accepted the Lord's invitation to come out of them and these would be strengthened and invigorated as they began to flow and function the way God intended them to but the rigid religious structures would still retain their shape but be without life.

Jesus said to the Pharisees that they deprived the Word of God of its power by following the traditions of men. Let us go to the Holy Spirit and ask Him to begin to open our eyes to see what is of man and what is of God in our accepted ways of serving Him. Sometimes we do things a certain way just because its been done that way for as long as we can remember. Yet Jesus says we are weakened and crippled as the church by continuing to walk in these things. Come, Holy Spirit and deliver us into the full liberty of the sons of God!

The second picture I have to share has similarities to the first. The Lord had me mix and make a jelly (jello for my American readers) and pour it into a mold. Then after it had set, I turned it out onto a plate, ready to eat. The Holy Spirit began to minister to me that this was a picture of the church. There has been a mold and a structure that it has been poured into and now has set but the Lord is coming to turn it upside down and remove the rigid mold that has supported it to this point. That which was at the bottom will then be on top, in other words that which is considered of great importance to us as men will be found to be of least importance. It also alludes to the last being first and the first last.

Once released from the mold, the jelly still retained the shape of the mold but was much more flexible, maybe a little wobbley even, but without restriction and able to be served to waiting hungry tummies! In the same way, the church will still be the church but without the inhibiting walls containing it. The time of setting has come to an end. The time of waiting for release and usefulness in the kingdom is just about over.

We used to have an advertisement for jelly on South African television screens, which proclaimed that Royal Jelly was ‘alive with flavor’! In the same way, the church that the Lord will cause to emerge in coming days will be brimming with the resurrection life of God and provide nourishment to a world hungry for the reality of God. No longer will His Body have a form of godliness but deny the power thereof. Sadly, just as in the picture of the calipers, the jelly mold will retain its shape and structure but contain nothing to eat at all.

These are both sobering, yet encouraging, images to ponder on. Beloved, we are living in times when the Shepherd is calling His sheep. We, who know His voice, must yield to His every direction and follow where He leads.

John 10:3 He calls his own sheep by name and leads them out.   When he gets them all out, he leads them and they follow because they are familiar with his voice.

May the Lord watch over and lead you and yours in this month.
Blessings of peace be upon your house

Urgent Warning For North Israel
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Date: 07/22/05 12:01:13

This urgent warning I sent earlier last night about an attack to Israel in the north and Heidi Baker was one of the one's who prophesied destruction coming there....

I just awakened as I had a hard time sleeping again and as I did the words came to me...."when they say PEACE, PEACE....SUDDEN DESTRUCTION!!!!"

1 Thess 5:2-6 NKJV For you yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night. 3 For when they say, "Peace and safety!" then sudden destruction comes upon them, as labor pains upon a pregnant woman. And they shall not escape. 4 But you, brethren, are not in darkness, so that this Day should overtake you as a thief. 5 You are all sons of light and sons of the day. We are not of the night nor of darkness. 6 Therefore let us not sleep, as others do, but let us watch and be sober.

This came from Michaelle today and confirms many impressions and words the Lord has been giving. We need to really pray as it is not only Israel that is at risk...but whatever happens there is a sign to the CHURCH as well overall. So if they are planning this could be parallel to other attacks planned here. The good thing too, is that God has promised them glory being poured out in Israel as HE has spoken here in America to us...we are not to FEAR, He is NEAR to those who fear HIM. It is worldwide outpouring.

Love, Pris

Pris, This was forwarded to me from some messianic-intercessor friends of mine in TN.

Subject: important message from Israel

THIS IS AN EMAIL WE RECEIVED AND THOUGHT IT WAS WORTHY TO PASS ON. WHILE THE ATTENTION IS ON THE DISENGAGEMENT IN GAZA, SOMETHING ELSE COULD BE BREWING IN THE NORTH. PUT IT BEFORE GOD.

Dear Friends and fellow intercessors,
I'm resending a few sentences from our last update about Haifa plus words received by believers in Tiberias and Jerusalem concerning northern Israel:

HADAR (I HAVE JUST BEEN THERE DURING PASSOVER WEEK, MY FAMILIES GOOD FRIENDS, ISRAEL BAR-ON, LIVE RIGHT THERE, ... SO PLEASE READ ON AND PRAY) - On April 28 and several times since then, the L-rd spoke to me strongly about missles falling in northern Israel, specifically in Hadar, an area near downtown Haifa. This is not some far away place for us. We live in Haifa, about 15 minutes from Hadar, an Orthodox Jewish neighborhood.

And we visit friends in Tiberias often.

Lately I even had a picture of being in a place where the walls were caved in, speaking to people who were trapped. After several prayerwalks I received this from a friend:

"There are reports of lots of missiles aimed at Haifa with the chemical plants as the prime target. The goal of the terrorists is to spread gaseous fumes around northern Israel, particularly Haifa to create a huge number of causalities."

Devastation warnings given to Eric and Terri Morey, Kehilat Poriya In this month of May five warnings have come directly to us, and I feel very sure that it must be made into one letter and sent out for prayer. I do believe that God does nothing without warning his people first and with this severe warning, I am asking those that love us to pray for us.

The wind can shift, God controls that, and if we rally together as one body, we can expect that our God, the God of Israel will intervene and change the currents. The first report, was a confirmation to a sister in Jerusalem who had sense that a severe devastation was coming to the world. When she heard Heidi Baker's report which was given in her home, she felt it was the confirmation only it was much more specific.

It would be coming to the North of Israel.

This Saturday a prophetic woman of God who foresaw the 9/11 tragedy the day before it happened, has seen that we would experience a great earthquake, specifically in Tiberias.

On this same day that this prophetic warning was given, we heard in our living room, a word concerning us as lights of the world, we see how it all ties in with the word given by Heidi Baker.

Dates of warnings in May..

Ist warning to a sister 4th of May in Jerusalem of catastrophes coming to the world
2nd warning through Rick and Patti Riddings Ist week in May..pray for the North..
3nd warning through Heidi Baker, 12th of May . devastation coming to the North of Israel
4rh warning in Jerusalem Post, 27th of May 12,000 rockets capable of going into the North of Israel
5th warning, Saturday 28th of May, an earthquake of great magnitude coming to the city of Tiberias.

This is the report of Heidi Baker, given in the home of a friend of ours in Jerusalem:

She timidly talked about the darkness coming, and how we should not run from it, but be a light to our people in the midst of it. When she used the word devastation, I picked up on that, and finally shared with the group what the Lord has shown me for a long time, since last year -- that there would be trouble in the north of Israel. I have really sensed devastation.

Last week, Rick and Patti Ridings had been praying in the worship meetings about the disengagement, and the Lord stopped them, and told them to pray about the north. So, we realized in the gathering in our home that the Lord wants us to help the believers in the north because something serious is about to take place (regarding Iran, Hezbollah, and Syria).

Jerusalem Post ..27th of May, 2005

Hizbullah leader Sheikh Hassan Nasrallah threw down the gauntlet on Wednesday against the US and the UN over any attempts to disarm the extremist Iranian-backed Lebanese Shi'ite organization. He also issued a direct warning to Israel that the organization has more than 12,000 rockets that were capable of reaching all of northern Israel.

In His service,
Terri Morey

This comes from a believer in Jerusalem:

The sense about trouble in the north goes back to one year ago, when I asked the Lord about the disengagement. I asked Him if he was for it or against it And, the response was, the disengagement will look incidental compared to what's going to happen in the north. So, for a year now, I have held that word in my heart. For a year now, I have read the newspapers and reported on Iran, Hezbollah, and Syria. In an off-the record briefing with an Israeli general and a small public briefing with the former head of the Shin Bet, the general consensus has been that Israel is going to take steps to undo the terrorist infrastructure in Gaza before the disengagement from there begins. Israel is also going to take steps to neutralize the threat from Hezbollah in the north. Israel, with the help of the U.S. is going to take steps to neutralize the threat from Syria. And, Israel is not going to allow Iran to go nuclear, even if it means a battle ahead.

Israel, in a close strategic cooperation agreement with America, has already taken preparatory steps, including improvements in their defense military capabilities. Since last summer, they have tested anti-ballistic defense missiles off the coast of California and the Mediterranean. They have poured money into the Arrow and Patriot defense systems. Israel has acquired other military weapons this past year in preparation for a military confrontation.

I kept all this quiet until Heidi Baker was in our home. She talked about preparing for dark and troubling times. Then, briefly, in passing, she said the word, devastation. I had been sensing possible devastation in the north, but had not expressed this publicly. I picked up on that word when she mentioned it in passing. Then, I shared with the group in our home that I thought trouble was coming to the north of Israel and that we needed to pray and help the Body of believers in the north prepare for this.

Rick and Patti were in that meeting in our home. They said that a few days before, as they had been praying about the disengagement in the south of Israel, the Lord laid it on their hearts to stop, and begin praying for the north of Israel.

Since then, there have been several prophecies that have indicated the possibility of trouble in the north, with a focus on Haifa. In the meantime there have also been stepped up attacks from Hezbollah, as the terrorist group is trying to provoke Israel into a confrontation. Sheikh Nasrallah has threatened to fire his 12,000 missiles into northern Israel, especially warning that he has the ability to hit Haifa.

We are asking intercessors and friends to pray protection over Israel's citizens in the north, where at least one million people are in populated areas that could be reached by rockets launched into Israel from Lebanese or Syrian territory. If Israel confronts Iran, a harsh retaliatory response would also put Israeli citizens in the north in grave danger.

The good news is that there have also been prophetic words, lately, indicating that God is getting ready to pour out His Spirit upon the land!

The sense is that there will be a short season of a major outpouring with many souls coming to faith. So, where there is great darkness, there is even greater light! The greater light is coming! PTL!

Praying for peace and salvations

Demonstrations of MY GLORY
Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 20th, 2005

The Lord said “demonstrations of My Glory”

Ex 29:43 NKJV And there I will meet with the children of Israel, and the tabernacle shall be sanctified by My glory.

Ex 40:34-38 NKJV The Cloud and the Glory (Ex 13:21,22; Num 9:15-23)
Then the cloud covered the tabernacle of meeting, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. 35 And Moses was not able to enter the tabernacle of meeting, because the cloud rested above it, and the glory of the LORD filled the tabernacle. 36 Whenever the cloud was taken up from above the tabernacle, the children of Israel would go onward in all their journeys. 37 But if the cloud was not taken up, then they did not journey till the day that it was taken up. 38 For the cloud of the LORD was above the tabernacle by day, and fire was over it by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throughout all their journeys.

Isa 4:2-6 NKJV The Renewal of Zion
In that day the Branch of the LORD shall be beautiful and glorious; And the fruit of the earth shall be excellent and appealing for those of Israel who have escaped. 3 And it shall come to pass that he who is left in Zion and remains in Jerusalem will be called holy — everyone who is recorded among the living in Jerusalem. 4 When the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and purged the blood of Jerusalem from her midst, by the spirit of judgment and by the spirit of burning, then the LORD will create above every dwelling place of Mount Zion, and above her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night. For over all the glory there will be a covering. 6 And there will be a tabernacle for shade in the daytime from the heat, for a place of refuge, and for a shelter from storm and rain.

“ I AM to be highly sought after. I AM a pearl of great price. I AM a PILLAR of FIRE in your midst. I AM the cloudy haze of glory in the presence of WORSHIP to My Beloveds. I AM the Beginning and the End. I change NOT. I AM the same, yesterday, today and forever in eternity! I AM Your great Hope! I AM the EVERLASTING FATHER. I AM the All Consuming FIRE. There is nothing hidden that will not be revealed in My presence! You will no longer be able to hide from ME soon! THE EARTH WILL BE FILLED WITH THE GLORY OF THE LORD.”

Isa 9:2-7 NKJV The people who walked in darkness Have seen a great light; Those who dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, Upon them a light has shined. 3 You have multiplied the nation and increased its joy; They rejoice before You According to the joy of harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil. 4 For You have broken the yoke of his burden and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, as in the day of Midian.
5 For every warrior's sandal from the noisy battle, and garments rolled in blood, will be used for burning and fuel of fire.
6 For unto us a Child is born, Unto us a Son is given; And the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
7 Of the increase of His government and peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David and over His kingdom, to order it and establish it with judgment and justice From that time forward, even forever. The zeal of the Lord of hosts will perform this.

“MY ZEAL will accomplish what is in My Word. MY ZEAL – not man’s zeal! YOU CAN DO NOTHING APART FROM ME. WHAT I DO WILL NOT BE CREDITED TO MAN WITHOUT CONSEQUENCE! I WILL NOT ALLOW ANYONE TO TOUCH MY GLORY! Some have the idea that that means literally. But I mean it figuratively. You are not to take credit for anything in your life when it is I Who have orchestrated your creation and all that you are and it is I Who give you the grace to do anything!!!!! It is I WHO created you, and it is I AM WHO says who shall live and who shall die. Who I AM is not clear yet to many who call themselves by My name.”

James 4:13-17 NIV Now listen, you who say, "Today or tomorrow we will go to this or that city, spend a year there, carry on business and make money." 14 Why, you do not even know what will happen tomorrow. What is your life? You are a mist that appears for a little while and then vanishes. 15 Instead, you ought to say, "If it is the Lord's will, we will live and do this or that." 16 As it is, you boast and brag. All such boasting is evil. 17 Anyone, then, who knows the good he ought to do and doesn't do it, sins.
“Great GRACE and GREAT GLORY are coming to earth in this hour. GREAT and PERILOUS TIMES as well. Many of you are confused by all this. Many have not been prepared, nor do they know My WORD. My WORD is unalterable. IT STANDS and does not change. You cannot change MY plans. But I will most certainly change the plans of evil men and women. I will most certainly change the plans of those who are doing their own plans and what their own heart desires. If you but YIELD to what I want…YOU WILL BE A SUCCESS! Success is not measured by what you store up on earth, but by what you store up in heaven.”

" Do not lay up for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and rust destroy and where thieves break in and steal; 20 but lay up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor rust destroys and where thieves do not break in and steal. 21 For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also."

Ps 37:4 NKJV Delight yourself also in the LORD, And He shall give you the desires of your heart.
Ps 145:19 NKJV He will fulfill the desire of those who fear Him; He also will hear their cry and save them.
Prov 10:3 NKJV The LORD will not allow the righteous soul to famish, But He casts away the desire of the wicked.
John 15:7-8 NKJV If you abide in Me, and My words abide in you, you will ask what you desire, and it shall be done for you.

"I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man that I should change My mind. I AM bringing My glory in much greater measure than what you have seen and it will shock people into submission to My will and MANY will be commissioned for harvesting My fields. This is an hour of great turmoil, but also great EXPLOITS that will be done in My name! I will fulfill the desires of your hearts. As you abide in ME, I will abide in you! I AM doing something that no man will take credit for. The FEAR OF THE LORD will fill My temple and I will sanctify My temples, WHICH YOU ARE, with MY GLORY! So lift your voices in PRAISE AND ADORATION! SHOUT aloud to the GOD OF YOUR SALVATION! Lift up a banner in the name of the Lord and do not back down. Do not shut down. If you can do nothing else but to lie down with ME and put on the worship, then do that! If you have been too busy, you can lie and RECEIVE as you rest in My presence! I am healing and I am delivering, and I WILL CONFOUND the wisdom of the wise in their own opinions!

My Holy Spirit will not be withdrawn till I have accomplished MY WILL in the earth. I LOVE MY CREATION. I have loved you with an everlasting love, and I have not given up, and will not give up till every chance has been given and every nook and corner of the earth is reached with My glory.
Many of you will go to unreached peoples. Many will die on foreign ground!
Many will pay a great price for the freedom of others. But know this: NO ONE will die before their time, once I come with My glory. Just as JOHN the Beloved was not able to be boiled in oil, neither can the evil one take you from this earth. The keys to death and hell belong to My SON JESUS. A NEW ERA of GREATER GRACE has begun. MY LOVE is ETERNAL and unending. NOTHING is impossible with GOD. ASK ME for discernment on who you pray for, for who you do for , or give to and I will give it to you.

The religious spirit never changes. THERE will always be those who are jealous and carnal, and unchanging in their ways, and unrepentant, but they are not of ME. There will be great persecution. But nothing will happen to you apart from MY WILL. CONFORM YOUR WILL TO MY WILL and nothing will be able to touch you until I SAY! YIELD YOUR RIGHTS to ME.
HAVE I NOT GIVEN YOU A TRUSTWORTHY HUSBAND? AM I not the GOD of the impossible? Is there anything that is too hard for ME? LOOK to ME throughout your days and nights for direction. Yield to ME as KING and LORD, as ADONAI – your Lord and Master! I am a loving Master Who only does what is best for you. Yet many are walking in unbelief of My love for you and it has cost you – this unbelief. CAST OFF the entrapment of unbelief and doubt and skepticism about my love for you! THEN you can be My mouthpiece!"

Jer 15:18-20 AMP Why is my pain perpetual and my wound incurable, refusing to be healed? Will you indeed be to me like a deceitful brook, like waters that fail and are uncertain?
19 Therefore thus says the Lord [to Jeremiah]: If you return [and give up this mistaken tone of distrust and despair], then I will give you again a settled place of quiet and safety, and you will be My minister; and if you separate the precious from the vile [cleansing your own heart from unworthy and unwarranted suspicions concerning God's faithfulness], you shall be My mouthpiece. [But do not yield to them.] Let them return to you--not you to [the people].
20 And I will make you to this people a fortified, bronze wall; they will fight against you, but they will not prevail over you, for I am with you to save and deliver you, says the Lord. 21 And I will deliver you out of the hands of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the palms of the terrible and ruthless tyrants.

“I gave to the midwives who feared ME, secure homes. I gave to Jeremiah land and home in the midst of invading armies! What is there that I am too impotent to do, IF YOU HUMBLE YOURSELVES? For I resist the proud, but give grace to the HUMBLE among men! Be not conformed to THIS WORLD, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind so you know what My will is! Have I not said that if you think yourselves more highly than you ought that you walk contrary to My will? Associate with the humble and you will do well. Avoid men of strife and anger, lusts and bitterness. Do not conform yourselves to the ways of this world and the enemy of your soul.
Love YOUR ENEMIES. BE GOOD TO THOSE WHO HATE YOU AND PRAY FOR THOSE WHO SPITEFULLY USE YOU. I said the whole of the law was contained in the two greatest commandments! Love the Lord Your God with your whole heart, soul, spirit and strength and love your neighbor as yourself! If you are able to do this, you do well! And who is your neighbor I ask you? He who is created in the image and likeness of GOD!”

Isa 57:15 AMP For thus says the high and lofty one--He Who inhabits eternity, Whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, but with him also who is of a thoroughly penitent and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble and to revive the heart of the thoroughly penitent [bruised with sorrow for sin]. [Matt 5:3.]

Lev 9:5-7 NKJV Then Moses said, "This is the thing which the LORD commanded you to do, and the glory of the LORD will appear to you."

Lev 9:22-24 NKJV And Moses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of meeting, and came out and blessed the people. Then the glory of the LORD appeared to all the people, 24 and fire came out from before the LORD and consumed the burnt offering and the fat on the altar. When all the people saw it, they shouted and fell on their faces.

Num 14:20-21 NKJV Then the LORD said: "I have pardoned, according to your word; 21 but truly, as I live, all the earth shall be filled with the glory of the LORD

Num 8:17-18 NKJV For all the firstborn among the children of Israel are Mine, both man and beast; on the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt I sanctified them to Myself.

Num 3:13 NKJV because all the firstborn are Mine. On the day that I struck all the firstborn in the land of Egypt, I sanctified to Myself all the firstborn in Israel, both man and beast. They shall be Mine: I am the LORD."

Ex 19:14-15 NKJV So Moses went down from the mountain to the people and sanctified the people, and they washed their clothes.

Jer 1:4-5 NKJV The Prophet Is Called
Then the word of the LORD came to me, saying: 5 "Before I formed you in the womb I knew you;
Before you were born I sanctified you; I ordained you a prophet to the nations."

Isa 6:1-4 NKJV Isaiah Called to Be a Prophet (cf. Ezek 1:4-28)
In the year that King Uzziah died, I saw the Lord sitting on a throne, high and lifted up, and the train of His robe filled the temple. 2 Above it stood seraphim; each one had six wings: with two he covered his face, with two he covered his feet, and with two he flew. 3 And one cried to another and said:
"Holy, holy, holy is the LORD of hosts;
The whole earth is full of His glory!"
4 And the posts of the door were shaken by the voice of him who cried out, and the house was filled with smoke.

2 Chron 7:1-3 NKJV Solomon Dedicates the Temple (1 Kings 8:62-66)
When Solomon had finished praying, fire came down from heaven and consumed the burnt offering and the sacrifices; and the glory of the LORD filled the temple. 2 And the priests could not enter the house of the LORD, because the glory of the LORD had filled the LORD's house. 3 When all the children of Israel saw how the fire came down, and the glory of the LORD on the temple, they bowed their faces to the ground on the pavement, and worshiped and praised the LORD, saying: "For He is good, For His mercy endures forever."

Tribute
Priscilla Van Sutphin

July 24th, 2004

Ps 93:3-4 NKJV
The floods have lifted up, O LORD, The floods have lifted up their voice; The floods lift up their waves. The LORD on high is mightier than the noise of many waters, than the mighty waves of the sea.

TRIBUTE : Function: noun
Etymology: Middle English tribut, from Latin tributum, from neuter of tributus, past participle of tribuere to allot, bestow, grant, pay, from tribus tribe
1 a : a payment by one ruler or nation to another in acknowledgment of submission or as the price of protection; also : the tax levied for such a payment b (1) : an excessive tax, rental, or tariff imposed by a government, sovereign, lord, or landlord (2) : an exorbitant charge levied by a person or group having the power of coercion c : the liability to pay tribute
2 a : something given or contributed voluntarily as due or deserved; especially : a gift or service showing respect, gratitude, or affection <floral tribute> b : something (as material evidence or a formal attestation) that indicates the worth, virtue, or effectiveness of the one in question <the product is a tribute to their ingenuity>

“What is the motivation of your heart My beloveds? Why do you seek ME? Why do you want My favor? Why are you fearful and unbelieving of My protection and why do you not pay tribute to ME, above tribute to men or women, boys or girls? What is it that you seek? Are you seeking Me out of your love and gratitude of heart? Or are you seeking Me for favor that you will live without troubles? Do you want My affection or do you want My wealth? Am I like a wealthy husband whose wife only cares for his money and the things he can give her. Or do you love Me because I am beautiful to you, because I am the great LOVE of your life?

I have been uncovering your own heart so that you could see the areas that still need healing. I am not uncovering it for you to condemn yourself and to walk in shame and distant from ME. I have not uncovered it so I can belittle you or shame you into obedience. I bring conviction of heart that you may see the TRUTH of your sinfulness compared to My holiness. I bring it that you might repent and try again to go forward in TRUTH…that you might ask ME for deliverance and healing and seek MY FACE, and not just My hand! One can get used to living in poverty or wealth and both can lose their first love.

I want you to KNOW ME! To truly KNOW the depth, length, breadth and width of the love I have for you! If you know that, then you will love Me for who I am…just as in the earthly realm, when you get to know people for who they really are…love grows and blooms in greater depth of spirit, soul and body. You offer yourself willingly to someone who adores you, do you not?
Are you not willing to do something for the one who cares earnestly for you?
So when you REALLY KNOW ME, you will serve me without resentment, without regret, without unholy expectations, and wrong motives of heart! This is why you need to know the TRUTH of My Word and understanding of the character of your GOD. I am not willing that any man should perish. I LOVE LIVES. I love people way more than things. I love My creation. But above all, I made MAN in Our image so that love would consummated, and not just thought about. If you love someone, you want to do the very best for them.

Some of you have been so pummeled by others and life, that your expectations are so low, and you live in a false concept of Who I AM. I told you to come BOLDLY before the throne of GRACE. But SO many still walk in shame from everyday sins that weigh them down as they do not KNOW ME. They do not know the depth of My love and forgiveness and give in to condemnation and guilt that the enemy puts on them. Of course I do not want heartless lovers.
But neither do I want you groveling in the dirt acting like a worm squirming to find sunlight! I am NOT the HARSH TASKMASTER! I reward those who diligently seek ME.

Heb 11:6 NKJV But without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is, and that He is a rewarder of those who diligently seek Him.

I need you to understand these things because in the days ahead you will need to really KNOW ME, and not just know of ME. You need to know that I love you for EVERYTHING around you, devils, people, circumstances will try to convince you otherwise. Remember the suffering of the apostles and how they went to foreign lands to spread the gospel. When they went, they never lacked anything truly needed. There was supernatural multiplication when needed. There was even supernatural transportation if needed. They endured great hardships of beatings and attacks of the evil one for WHO THEY WERE. But they went through JOYFULLY and EAGERLY knowing they were but STRANGERS in this world. I want you to be CONFIDENT IN MY LOVE even in the face of all kinds of perils, like Paul was. You have become satiated with a life of comfort, so I have for many removed much of the comfort to stretch your faith that you might trust ME more than YOURSELF EFFORT – that you would trust ME MORE THAN others, and that you would trust ME MORE THAN ANY MAN in authority even within the church that is called by My name.

Honor those in positions of power and authority as you honor ME. Do not fight for your rights! When Paul argued for Roman law, it was not so he could get his own way! It was so he could stand before kings and rulers and share the gospel! YOU ARE BOUGHT AND PAID FOR WITH THE BLOOD OF MY SON WHOSE BLOOD WAS MOST PRECIOUSLY SPILLED ON THE CROSS. You need to understand western BRIDE the COST of discipleship…the COST for glory.

Many look for glory but don’t want to bear the reproach! What am I to do with you? What am I to do with a bride who REFUSES to bear her cross as I told her to? Will you be like the children of Israel in the desert who complained and tried ME till I stuffed their mouths with meat? For indeed it takes STRONG MEAT to get your attention. You are pulled away by so many distractions. Entertainment and busyness, and working till you drop. WILL you learn to put THE KINGDOM FIRST? WILL YOU LEARN TO MAKE ME YOUR FIRST LOVE OVER YOUR HUSBAND, YOUR WIFE, YOUR CHILDREN, YOUR HOUSE, YOUR CARS, YOUR TV SET, YOUR COMPULSIONS, THE WORK OF YOUR HANDS AND ALL OTHER IDOLS?

Will you listen eagerly for the sound of My voice as you listen to your many earthly lovers My bride?

I am filled with longing for you and I will come and push back the distraction and make you to long for ME as no other. I am pulling the rug out from under many who are caught up in wrong affections and adulteries. I will not be satisfied until I make you into the fullness of what I want you to be! So do not kick at the goads, but instead WORSHIP ME and come to me in confidence and in humility and recognition of who you are in CHRIST. Being humble means recognizing you cannot do it all by yourself. Being humble means casting ALL YOUR CARES ON ME FOR YOU KNOW THAT I WILL CARE FOR YOU!

HONOR ME and I will honor you. Honor MY WILL above your own will, and I will give you the desires of your heart. Yield to My sword and I will put it in your hand to destroy the ramparts of the enemy over peoples lives, over neighborhoods, cities, and nations. Humble yourselves in the sight of your LORD and I will lift you up. Do not SEEK AFTER RECOGNITION. After all, the prophets who were recognized were killed. If you seek after this idol, you will most certainly be destroyed by it! Seek ME. I AM YOUR EXCEEDINGLY GREAT REWARD. I AM THE BREAD OF LIFE. I AM THE RESOURCE OF ALL YOU NEED. I WILL RELEASE YOU AS YOU LET GO OF THE THINGS YOU ARE HOLDING

ONTO SO TIGHTLY!"

Ps 66:2 NKJV Sing out the honor of His name; Make His praise glorious.

John 5:41-45 NKJV "I do not receive honor from men. 42 But I know you, that you do not have the love of God in you. 43 I have come in My Father's name, and you do not receive Me; if another comes in his own name, him you will receive. 44 How can you believe, who receive honor from one another, and do not seek the honor that comes from the only God?

Rom 13:1-8 KJV
1 Let every soul be subject unto the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained of God. 2 Whosoever therefore resisteth the power, resisteth the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation. 3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wilt thou then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and thou shalt have praise of the same: 4 For he is the minister of God to thee for good. But if thou do that which is evil, be afraid; for he beareth not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that doeth evil.

5 Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. 6 For this cause pay ye tribute also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing. 7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honour to whom honour. 8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law.

NT:5411 phoros (for'-os); from NT:5342; a load (as borne), i.e. (figuratively) a tax (properly, an individual assessment on persons or property; whereas NT:5056 is usually a general toll on goods or travel): KJV - tribute.
NT:5342 phero (fer'-o); a primary verb (for which other and apparently not cognate ones are used in certain tenses only; namely, oio (oy'-o); and enegko (en-eng'-ko); to "bear" or carry (in a very wide application, literally and figuratively, as follows):KJV - be, bear, bring (forth), carry, come, let her drive, be driven, endure, go on, lay, lead, move, reach, rushing, uphold.

Ezra 6:8 AMP Moreover, I make a decree as to what you shall do for these elders of the Jews for the rebuilding of this house of God: the cost is to be paid in full to these men at once from the king's revenue, the tribute of the province [west of] the River, that they may not be hindered.
OT:4061 middah (Aramaic) (mid-daw') or mindah (Aramaic) (min-daw'); corresponding to OT:4060; tribute in money: KJV - toll, tribute.

Neh 5:4-5 NIV Still others were saying, "We have had to borrow money to pay the king's tax on our fields and vineyards. 5 Although we are of the same flesh and blood as our countrymen and though our sons are as good as theirs, yet we have to subject our sons and daughters to slavery. Some of our daughters have already been enslaved, but we are powerless, because our fields and our vineyards belong to others."
OT:4060 middah (mid-daw'); feminine of OT:4055; properly, extension, i.e. height or breadth; also a measure (including its standard); hence a portion (as measured) or a vestment; specifically, tribute (as measured): KJV - garment, measure (-ing, meteyard, piece, size, (great) stature, tribute, wide.

Matt 17:24-27 AMP When they arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the half shekel [the temple tax] went up to Peter and said, Does not your Teacher pay the half shekel? [Ex 30:13; 38:26.]
25 He answered, Yes. And when he came home, Jesus spoke to him [about it] first, saying, What do you think, Simon? From whom do earthly rulers collect duties or tribute--from their own sons or from others not of their own family? 26 And when Peter said, From other people not of their own family, Jesus said to him, Then the sons are exempt.
27 However, in order not to give offense and cause them to stumble [that is, to cause them to judge unfavorably and unjustly] go down to the sea and throw in a hook. Take the first fish that comes up, and when you open its mouth you will find there a shekel. Take it and give it to them to pay the temple tax for Me and for yourself.

Matt 22:17-21 KJV Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not? 18 But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites? 19 Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny. 20 And he saith unto them, Whose is this image and superscription? 21 They say unto him, Caesar's. Then saith he unto them, Render therefore unto Caesar the things which are Caesar's; and unto God the things that are God's.
NT:2778 kensos (kane'-sos); of Latin origin; properly, an enrollment ("census"), i.e. (by implication) a tax: KJV - tribute.

Use What I've Given To You To Benefit The Body

Stephen Hanson

June 4, 2005

[16]In addition to all this, take up the shield of faith, with which you can extinguish all the flaming arrows of the evil one. [17]Take the helmet of salvation and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God. [18]And pray in the Spirit on all occasions with all kinds of prayers and requests. With this in mind, be alert and always keep on praying for all the saints. Eph. 6:16-18
But in fact God has arranged the parts in the body, every one of them, just as he wanted them to be. [19]If they were all one part, where would the body be? [20]As it is, there are many parts, but one body. I Co. 12:18-20

"I tell you that many have waited for my arrival to come to them. I tell you that visitations of my spirit will be on the increase. For my spirit will raise other ones up to postions of leadership in this hour. Those who wield the sword against the enemy will be given a sharper blade. For I tell you, the enemy will be on the rise. For he knows that I have chosen certain men and women for the battle, but he does not know how they are armed and what they wield."

"I tell you that the gifts that I have given to men and women are to be used for the body of Christ. Some have hoarded these gifts and have kept them for themselves. They have been given to benefit others. I tell you that when one suffers, all suffer. When one rises, then you all rise. Use what you have to benefit the body. Then what I have given to you will not dry up and blow away."

Unto You That Fear My Name

Clo DiPilato

> But unto you that fear my name shall the sun of righteousness rise with healing in his wings; and ye shall go forth, and grow up as calves of the stall. Malachi 4:2

I preface this article with MUCH foundation, but I trust you'll read through it in order to get to a very significant revelation, and understanding I believe the Lord is presently imparting to me regarding healing, and walking in divine health.

If you don't have time to read it in one setting, simply save it, and continue reading when you have the time to do so. If ever I've written anything that I believe will truly HELP the people of God to obtain His great and precious promises, especially as it pertains to health and wholeness, I believe it's found through the principles shared in this article!! So, as the Lord's servant who truly does care for you and has had enough suffering in my own life to genuinely want to walk in a true spirit of consolation toward you, my prayer is that you will read!!!

This is an article for those that fear His Name. I love the Name of Jesus. I love it when someone sings about it. "Sing me a song about Jesus, for I am a BIG Jesus fan!!" I love it when someone preaches about it. I love it when someone prays in the Name of Jesus. I love it when someone baptizes in water in that Name. The Name of Jesus truly thrills me through and through. I never tire of hearing the Name of the One who gave His all for me. JESUS, JESUS, JESUS, JESUS, JESUS!!

But if I want to see the "sun of righteousness rise with healing in His wings" , then I also need to know what it means to "fear His Name". The word "fear" in the Bible is often speaking of having a reverence. It is not speaking of being intimidated by something or someone. To reverence the Name of the Lord, means to honor and respect Him as God.

The word "name" is not just referring to a collection of letters that form the sound that comes out of your mouth to identify a certain person, place, or thing. The word "Name" is not talking about a label, but rather about His Nature that is identified by that Name. Jesus has the Nature of God. Whatever God is, that is what Jesus IS because He IS God.
Since it's not talking about some magical sound that comes forth from you when you speak His Name, but rather an identity with His Nature, the Name "JESUS", is no more powerful spoken in Hebrew than it is spoken in Zulu!! Read all of Acts 10, if you need proof on what I am saying to you.
Think of how our scripture of interest calls Him the "Sun of Righteousness", and then remind yourself also of the following scripture, which basically tells us that Jesus put a face on God:

Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high: Hebrews 1:2

When we learn to reverence Him as God, then we will see Him, this SUN of righteousness, in all the brightness of His glory, rise with "healing in His wings". When you have a reverential fear of someone, you respect their position and authority and you keep your behavior in check. You don't just act any old way in the presence of that person. There is something in you that automatically brings yourself into proper alignment to show honor to the one whom you reverence.

I have been grieving in my spirit because I see that people are erring in believing that the "new thing" God is doing is giving room to tolerate a disrespect and irreverence not only for God's servants, but for His house. I know much is being said about the doing away with "church" as we know it. In fact, I've even prophesied it myself to some degree.

But in any place, whether it's a tent on the side of a country road, or a little clapboard church in the "wildwood", or a cathedral with stained glass windows, OR your living room....... where His Name is truly being honored, and exalted, and there are men and women of God who are earnestly waiting on

Him that there might be "meat in due season" for the people of God, I am sure I'm hearing from the Lord we ought to be treating those atmospheres with the same reverence we'd give to the castle of the Queen of England.

When you come into God's Presence and into HIS house, you are coming into the Presence of Royalty!! Not only is Jesus a KING, but He is the KING of kings, and the LORD of Lords!! And we are KINGS and PRIESTS unto God.
The Lord is causing me to understand the subject of reverence in a new light, and how 'irreverence' is a mark of an anti-christ spirit.

The book of 1st John speaks of many false prophets being unleashed into the world, and these have an "antichrist spirit".

1 John 4:1 ¶Beloved, believe not every spirit, but try the spirits whether they are of God: because many false prophets are gone out into the world.
2 Hereby know ye the Spirit of God: Every spirit that confesseth that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is of God:
3 And every spirit that confesseth not that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh is not of God: and this is that spirit of antichrist, whereof ye have heard that it should come; and even now already is it in the world.

We know that Christ means "the ANOINTED one". When someone is "anti-Christ", they are AGAINST the ANOINTING. That is no new revelation. Basically any truly Spirit-filled Christian realizes that the anti-Christ spirit, opposes the true anointing of God.
But I wish for you to consider something prophesied by Isaiah, and then repeated by the Lord in the 4th Chapter of Luke, just to get a better understanding of how important it is to reverence the anointing.

Isaiah 61:1 ¶The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon me; because the LORD hath anointed me to preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;
2 To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;
3 To appoint unto them that mourn in Zion, to give unto them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they might be called trees of righteousness, the planting of the LORD, that he might be glorified.

We must remember that Old Testament prophets were in a context of prophesying during a time when people knew what it meant to be in subjection to a Sovereign, or subject to the rule of a king. Every king had his special time of being "anointed" for the throne, right from that very first meeting between Samuel and Saul when he was chosen to be first king of Israel, and Samuel poured the vial of oil upon his head. 1 Sam. 10:1.

The "anointed" king's rule was law, whether for the good of the people, or to their peril.
During Isaiah's stead as prophet, there were four kings to Israel: Uzziah, Jothan, Ahaz, and Hezekiah. When we go to the book of 2nd Chronicles, we can quickly get the rundown on God's opinion of whether these kings did that which was "right" in the sight of the Lord, or that which was "evil" in the sight of the Lord.
Despite some serious problems toward the end of Uzziah's reign found in 2 Chronicles 26:16-21, we find that three of the kings were righteous, and one was evil. That evil one was Ahaz.

If Isaiah was prophesying in a church service, the OT congregants understood that "anointing" was an act usually performed by a prophet to signify God's blessing, approval, and authority conferred upon one who was chosen by Him for a certain sacred office, whether it be a prophet, a priest or a king. To have an "anti-christ" spirit would mean that one is opposing or not truly reverencing God's approval of a person in a vocation divinely chosen for them !
(David understood the importance of the anointing, and never opposed Saul, no matter how difficult things got for him. This was not a blind obedience, for if it was David would have stayed and submitted himself to everything Saul did, but instead, behaving himself wisely, he removed himself from the attacks of Saul, and was careful not to sin with his lips.

True submission is never blind obedience, and true reverence is never total silence in the face of wrong-doing. Even the servants were bold enough to speak up to Saul to let him know that when he was in the wrong. This can be very clearly seen in 1 Samuel 14:24-46.)

So, when Isaiah prophesied of our Lord that the Spirit of the Lord would anoint the Coming Messiah to

"preach good tidings unto the meek; he hath sent me to bind up the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;"

there is no doubt that both Isaiah and his hearers understood this in the context of the authority given to one who was marked by God to be bestowed with special authority, and ability to be able to do such a thing! They related "anointing" to being a prophet, a priest, or a king WITH GOD-GIVEN AUTHORITY to carry out whatever that "anointing" permitted them BY GOD to do.

Here we see that all three come into focus in the life of the Lord Jesus Christ:
As a prophet, He would have authority to "preach good tidings unto the meek, preach the acceptable year of the Lord, and to declare the day of God's vengeance.

As a priest, He would have authority to "bind up the brokenhearted, and comfort all those that mourn. He would be able to appoint unto those that mourn in Zion, beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, and the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness! (Oh what a blessing it is to be under the care of a true shepherd who walks in such a priestly anointing as described here!)

As a king, He would have authority to "proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison doors to all those who are bound."

Now, if we could get inside the hearts and minds of those original hearers of the Word, and get the impact of how those ones would have received such a prophetic word if they were to receive it as a present word of the Lord for their time, it would have the ability to strongly affect our understanding of the connection between anointing and reverence.

In their minds and thinking, they would have been relating things spoken by the prophet Isaiah to those kings, prophets, or priests that they had been dealing with during the his prophetic tenure. One can read about the horrendously wicked reign of King Ahaz in the 28th chapter of 2nd Chronicles.

There was no end to the mourning, grief, captivity, suffering that this wicked king caused. If this particular prophecy was given during the time of the reign of King Ahaz, to hear a word about a king who would open prison doors , set captives free, give beauty for ashes , the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness, would have indeed been of great comfort to those souls wearied and distressed beneath his heavy hand.

How they must have yearned for that Messianic prophecy to be a "word near at hand", rather than afar off!!

In the full context of the Messianic prophecies given by Isaiah, it surely would have been that there was a great longing for the Christ, the Messiah, the Anointed One to come forth. And yet when He did come, the descendants of the very ones who heard those words of Isaiah, neither reverenced Him, nor recognized Him as their Messiah.

John declares,
He came unto His own, and His own received Him not. John 1: 11.
If we read the Old Testament being ever aware of the high level of respect given to those in authority because it was an anointed position held by someone who actually was given power by God to effect change according to the will of God, and we see that those positions were honored even to fear of death if they were dishonored, it puts new light on what it means to "reverence, or fear the Name of the Lord".

The principle of reverencing the Name, the Anointing, the Authority, the Position of a king is seen again and again throughout the Old Testament in the lives of those who were subject to such authority.

Consider how Esther knew she would perish for approaching the king, if he did not extend his sceptre to her: Esther 4:16-5:2.

Consider how the king had to reverence his own laws in casting Daniel into the lion's den when he really favored Daniel, and would have chosen to spare him: Daniel 6:11-28.

Consider how the children of captivity were immediately free to rebuild the temple without hindrance when they had release from the king to do so, after much opposition. (Read Ezra 5 through 8).

When Isaiah prophesied the words of the first couple of verses of Isaiah 61:1, he was speaking to a people who were trained to reverence the anointing, but even before Jesus could come as God manifested in the flesh, a religious antichrist spirit was already at work in the world!! They did not recognize that JESUS CHRIST is come IN THE FLESH. They could not accept that this was truly GOD- incarnate!

Why have I given all this Old Testament foundation for what I'm saying? Because all things that happened "in the natural" in the Old Testament, are lessons to be learned to benefit us in our spiritual lives.

As they were inclined to reverence God through natural obeisance and attentiveness to law and ritual, so are we, as the circumcision which "worship God in the Spirit, and have NO confidence in the flesh" to have an inner spiritual striving toward pressing toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus. (Read all of Phillipians 3.) And however the Spirit shows me that I must reverence Him in order to receive that prize, I do not want to fall short in any way!!

Isn't it your heartfelt prayer that with everything within YOUR being you PRESS toward the mark…?? Those hearers of the Word who were inclined to be so respectful and live in such fear of "the anointed" , missed it when it came to their Messiah. They who knew such religious reverence, missed God when it came to that One who should have truly been the sum of all their desires!!

If there is any groundwork laid by the above paragraphs, let it be an understanding that Jesus is surely in the succession of kings to Israel, and His Anointing as Prophet, Priest and King is to be reverenced and honored, and not taken lightly, lest we receive the same antichrist spirit those who rejected Him received so that they could not see the Lord when He came to them!!

Now, beloved, I hope I can communicate to you what I am understanding by the Spirit in 1 John 1:1 and 2. For years, I have found great comfort in the idea that I don't have an "anti-christ spirit" because I've got all the bases covered on this one!!

I believe that Jesus Christ is come "in the flesh", meaning that I believe that Jesus was a literal historical figure who walked around in a flesh and blood body just as surely as did Moses, Martin Luther, or Abraham Lincoln. Jesus truly was alive upon this earth as a human flesh being, a citizen on planet earth in the course of history!!

I also believe that Jesus Christ is manifested in OUR flesh, Christ in YOU the "hope of glory"!! I believe that the same Spirit that raised up Jesus from the dead will fill our vessels, our flesh when we receive the baptism in the Holy Ghost. (See Romans 8, Acts 2, and Colossians 1:27)
I believe that when Jesus "came unto His own, and they received Him not", that immediately the following verse went into effect:

12 But as many as received him, to them gave he power to become the sons of God, even to them that believe on his name: John 1:12

So, Jesus being rejected by His own, effected His coming "in the flesh" of every true believer in Jesus Christ.
I still hold fast to these truths, but I'm seeing a new aspect of 1 John 4: 1 and 2.
John is encouraging his readers to believe not every SPIRIT , but to try THE SPIRITS whether they are of God. He said SPIRITS will either recognize that Jesus Christ is come in the flesh, signifying they are of God, or they do NOT recognize His coming "in the flesh", signifying they are of an anti-christ spirit.

It would seem easy enough for any spirit to lie in order to deceive a person into believing they are the "real thing". All a spirit needs to do is read this 4th chapter of 1st John, and be instantly intelligent in deception! So, how is there any proof such a thing is not being done??

It's because these verses are speaking about an issue in the spirit realm. There were some spirits or angels that "left their first estate" (see Jude 6), and were not privy to that marked event in time when the One who received His Name by inheritance would invade time and space to born to a virgin in the city of Bethlehem!! Beloved, if you receive your name "by inheritance", it means someone had that name before you did!!

"Being made so much better than the angels, as he hath by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they. For unto which of the angels said he at any time, Thou art my Son, this day have I begotten thee? And again, I will be to Him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?" And again, when he bringeth in the first begotten into the world, he saith, let all the angels of God worship him. And of the angels he saith, Who maketh his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire. But unto the Son he saith, Thy throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a sceptre of righteousness is the sceptre of thy kingdom.Thou hast loved righteousness, and hated iniquity, therefore God, even thy God, hath anointed thee with the oil of gladness above thy fellows." Hebrews 1:4-9.

Those spirits could not recognize that Jesus Christ is "come in the flesh" because they lost access to a realm of heavenly knowledge, and they were not part of the "angels of God who worship Him". They did not recognize Him as being the "anointed one". These antichrist spirits themselves do not reverence Jesus as God because they cannot perceive He is anointed with the "oil of gladness" above his fellows.

What are "his fellows"?? In context, I would say it's speaking of theangelic spirits that he kept company with in eternity, whom He was exalted above, and preferred over as the Son of God.

John 1:1 ¶In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. 2 The same was in the beginning with God. 3 All things were made by him; and without him was not any thing made that was made. 4 In him was life; and the life was the light of men. 5 ¶And the light shineth in darkness; and the darkness comprehended it not.

The spirits know Jesus Christ as the Word in His eternal estate because He is recognized by them as Creator, as at one time they were part of the heavenly hosts. They do not know Him as God-in-the-flesh, God-incarnate because when in their rebellion, they were cast out in 'everlasting chains under darkness' they lost their ability of perception. (See Jude verse 6.)

Darkness may mean a place where there is a physical lack of light. But darkness also means to be without the light of any revelation knowledge. Those who don't recognize that Jesus Christ is God, are without revelation knowledge.

Consider how Jesus called the Pharisees "blind leaders of the blind". Consider how he called them of their father the devil. Consider how they crucified the Lord of Glory. They did not REVERENCE HIM AS GOD. They did not FEAR HIS NAME. They had an "ANTI-CHRIST" Spirit.

Three terms in Scripture are almost virtually synonymous: Christ, Messiah, Anointed One. "Anti-christ will also be "anti-Messiah", and "anti-Anointed One", or opposed to the anointing!!

John tells us not to believe every spirit, but to try the spirits.
But there was another man of God whose understanding and faith transcended that of John's. While John told us of antichrist spirits who would not recognize or know that Jesus Christ had truly come "in the flesh", the Apostle Paul tells us that we could enter into a fellowship with the Lord Jesus Christ with the very intention that principalities and powers would be come very acquainted with this truth that Jesus Christ is INDEED "come in the flesh" because BY US, by the Church, those principalities and powers are going to know the manifold wisdom of God!!

9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world hath been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:10 To the intent that now unto the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God, Ephesians 3:9 and 10.

Beloved, we have been given a charge to inform the devil operating at any and every level in the heavenly places of exactly who Jesus Christ is, and what He effected in His Cross!!

In our reverence for His Name, we have authority to push back the powers of darkness operating through every anti-christ Spirit. It's those spirits working against the Lord Jesus Christ in His anointed role as Prophet, Priest and King.

It's an anti-christ spirit that opposes the captives being set free, the prison doors being opened, the broken-hearted being healed, blind eyes being opened, etc!! It's an anti-christ spirit that doesn't recognize or reverence His authority to do these things through His people, through those whom He has chosen to use to manifest His manifold wisdom to even principalities and powers!!

When John saw this part of his heavenly vision, I wonder if he got fresh insight into the authority God has given the church over every anti-christ spirit that would rear it's ugly head to oppose the true servant of the Lord:

13 And he was clothed with a vesture dipped in blood: and his name is called The Word of God.
14 And the armies which were in heaven followed him upon white horses, clothed in fine linen, white and clean.
15 And out of his mouth goeth a sharp sword, that with it he should smite the nations: and he shall rule them with a rod of iron: and he treadeth the winepress of the fierceness and wrath of Almighty God.
16 And he hath on his vesture and on his thigh a name written, KING OF KINGS, AND LORD OF LORDS. Revelation 19: 13-16.

How can we read such a scripture, and not be filled with desire to reverence God??

Beloved, when we come into the presence of Jesus, we are coming into the Presence of One who has His "vesture dipped in blood". This is the blood that was shed to pay the price for our redemption so that we could keep company and have fellowship with Him!! Notice the garb of the heavenly armies. They are dressed in fine linen, white and clean. Of course, we know that speaks of the righteousness of saints. Someday, we will be in that glorious number. REVERENCE for God acknowledges things the way He likes them done, and then makes the adjustments!!

There is REVERENCE in heaven!! It shows up in everything "they" do up there...whether it's angelic hosts, or the armies of the redeemed. There is a reverence and an order in heaven. Beloved, the NEW THING God is doing is going to make us MORE LIKE heaven, and not MORE LIKE the world!!! He truly is "KING OF KINGS and LORD OF LORDS!!" When I come into His Presence, I am coming to the one whose vesture is dipped in blood, with the label, "King of Kings and Lord of Lords".

Remember YOU are a "king", too!! He is KING of kings, and LORD of Lords!!!

I want to remind you that I'm laying a foundation for you to experience the Sun of Righteousness rising with HEALING in His wings in your life!! True REVERENCE for HIS NAME will lead to healing!! It's an ANTI-CHRIST spirit that works against REVERENCE.

I am not going to give you a list of do's and don'ts on how to reverence God.
We all need to be sensitive to the Spirit, and aware of what offends the holy dove of the Spirit of God, whether it be in our speech, our dress, our attitude. If you've got the Holy Ghost, you know when you're under conviction whether it's about a place you go, a dress you wear, a movie you see, or a word you say! No one needs to preach those things to you. You know whether or not you are walking and living in the reverential fear of God, and His great Name!! We all know whether we've got a testimony that's going to "cause the Sun of Righteousness to rise with healing in His wings!"

Beloved, fearing His Name, reverencing His Name, and what it stands for, the very Nature of God, comes with PROMISE. And what is that "promise"??

It is that when we truly FEAR HIS NAME.........come into the place of true reverence, THE SUN OF RIGHTEOUSNESS WILL RISE WITH HEALING IN HIS WINGS!!

Reverence and healing go hand in hand!! This is a promise from God, and a principle IN God, and I have found that those whom the Lord uses strongly in healing ministry seem to have revelation into reverence that releases healing.

We should never mistake religious posturing in certain outward appearances of piety to be mistaken for true reverence. They are NOT one and the same!! True reverence comes from a heart that recognizes Jesus as GOD, and desires to honor and fear Him in His Kingship and Lordship with the same attentiveness and sobriety of spirit someone would give to any Dignitary ruling upon this earth. It causes us to have activated within our spirits, the same diligent attentiveness and respect to the "Father of Spirits", that the Old Testament flock of Israel understood in their subjection to the potentates of their time!

I've tried to lay a bit of a foundation on the subject of reverence because I know it's one of the secrets of experiencing healing, and will even lead to Divine Health. And I believe the Lord allowed me to personally "walk out" this revelation for the purposes of imparting truth to His people in the months of January and February, and here is that prophetic testimony.

I experienced an unusual manifestation of the Lord in healing power in the month of January. I had a very tangible visitation of the Spirit of God which caused me to walk in a level of divine health and strength such as I have never experienced in my life. I am a person who has always known good days and bad days as far as physical stamina.

But I had two solid months of divine health, and I know it was because God wanted to impart to me an understanding that there is a realm above the earthly that we can partake of in living our lives by the Spirit that no matter WHAT is going on "in the flesh", we are experiencing what is called the "redemption of the body", and are even now partaking of immortality rather than having to wait til we die and go to heaven to get it!!

(Let me insert there that I know that some have gone for many years without taking so much as an aspirin for a headache because of their great faith in God, and to boast about "two solid months" sounds a bit silly!!! But, if you understand that since childhood, I've had a pattern of good days and bad days when it comes to physical stamina, you'd know for me personally this was like a MAJOR MOVE OF GOD in my life!!!)

For my "two solid good months", I actually felt like I had been completely ushered into the place of living by the "law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus, which makes me free from the law of sin and death". (See Romans 7)

Beloved, that visitation started because something within me determined to honor the Lord and His Name, and reverence it ABOVE anything of sickness and disease that was going on in my body, and believe me, there was plenty. I was given medical reports on anemia, cysts and tumors, high blood pressure, and a few other things. But the Spirit began to cause me to know I had to REVERENCE JESUS AS GOD, above every evil report about sickness or disease in my body!!

I am not going to keep company with any antichrist spirit that doesn't recognize that Jesus Christ, the Lord of Glory is come IN THE FLESH, and has ALL dominion, power, and authority over every other spirit that might try to hold sway!

There was a deep work done in my spirit that caused me to know in the fear of the Lord, I had better NOT give my tongue to agreement with the reports from any doctor's office that made my symptoms seem bigger or more powerful than God Almighty.

I am not talking about some mental ascent to some "name it and claim it'" teaching, not that I am AGAINST such a thing...this simply was not "that".

I am talking about a fear of God that filled my being that made me to know to the very core of my "innards" I needed to be very careful to watch the words of my mouth that they not in ANY WAY give ANYTHING in my life a higher or more powerful place than the Lord Jesus Christ!!

We need to very carefully REVERENCE GOD with our lips!! Again, this is not mental gymnastics to actively keep ourselves confessing scripture to claim our healing. Those things may be very good, but this was an inward work of the Spirit that changed my thinking on the inside of me so that I would not DARE to violate it because I would come under the conviction of the Holy Spirit!!!

This was such a powerful visitation to me personally, that I honestly thought I would never experience another moment of weakness or sickness in my life. And some of my closer friends can well remember me complaining about the incredible bouts of weakness and fatigue I experienced.

A dear sister in the Lord whose name you would all recognize even had an intercessory burden for me regarding it. I had been visiting with her in Chicago, and she got struck with a weakness that she knew did not belong to her. The Lord had given her a burden to pray for me, and so He allowed her to experience what I had been going through, so she would "know the feeling", and be able to pray for me more effectively.

And then in January by the Holy Spirit, I experienced totally the OPPOSITE........a sense of divine health such as I have NEVER experienced in my life. Why am I not continuing to walk in it as I was in the months of January and February?? I am not quite sure, but I know I've had a foretaste of something that I believe is absolutely to be the portion of the saints of God. God gave me a little taste of this so I would contend for it, because through it, I did learn a few things about the nature of God, and divine healing and I know that REVERENCE brings it into the realm of REALITY!!

This visitation changed my thoughts about divine healing, and I care nothing about continuously getting prayer against symptoms in my body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body, and we can actually live our lives from the SPIRITUAL body so that no matter what is going on in our flesh, it doesn't matter. Your spirit man can truly be stronger and more in control of your life, and how you FEEL than your flesh!!! Beloved, I have had a taste of this realm, and know what I'm talking about, even if I am having difficulty explaining it.

On Sunday afternoon, April 17th, the Lord gave me a revelation about the "Sun of righteousness rising with healing in his wings", and I feel this revelation has been the Spirit explaining to me what He allowed me to experience in the earlier months of this year.

How does that "healing in His wings" get from HIM to YOU?? When a bird ascends in flight, it's not on the ground, and the immediately up in the air. NO, that bird needs to make his ascent into the sky. In order to make his ascent into the sky, the bird needs to be able to spread his wings.

Now, if I were to catch a bird, and then I tucked something into his wings, and then released him so he could fly, what would happen?? As that bird began to flap it's wings to fly, whatever was tucked in those wings would fall to the earth below landing on that which was beneath him. JESUS has "HEALING" in His wings!!

As He is REVERENCED, glorified and lifted up, His wings begin to spread, and the healing that is in his wings, drops to the earth below to cover and minister healing to those who under His wing! Beloved, when we are under the wings of God, we are going to experience His healing provision being released to us!! But we need to exalt Him, and lift Him up in order for it to be released. We need to reverence His Name, for the Bible says that to you who FEAR HIS NAME, shall the sun of righteousness arise with healing in His wings!!

There are two Psalms that mention being under the protective covering of His wings. One is Psalm 61, and the other is Psalm 91. The wings of God signify protection from the enemy. Sickness and disease is an attack of the enemy. When you're sick, God can teach you plenty simply because you're in bed and too miserable to do anything else, so He can get your attention. So, God can certainly use a time of sickness for His purposes. But sickness is not in heaven, so it's not the will of God.

If it's the will of God for you to be sick, then you are wrong to call a preacher to pray for you or to take any medicine at all because if you want to be in the will of God, then you should just stay sick, and not try to get better!!

Sickness has NO place of refuge under the wings of God! Beloved, when we get under His wings.....which the full spread of His wing span occurs as we worship, praise and EXALT HIM to the HIGHEST PLACE, we are living in the realm of not only healing, but of divine health!

Think back to your Old Testament Bible Stories. Who were the ones who were promised "none of the diseases of the Egyptians would be upon them?

Exodus 15:26 And said, If thou wilt diligently hearken to the voice of the LORD thy God, and wilt do that which is right in his sight, and wilt give ear to his commandments, and keep all his statutes, I will put none of these diseases upon thee, which I have brought upon the Egyptians: for I am the LORD that healeth thee.

It was promised to those who would reverence the Lord with obedience to His voice.

We are living in the days that we NEED to be in such a place with God!! Physical health is not going to just be a luxury but because of things that are going to be coming against us as His people, I truly believe it will be OF NECESSITY that we are a healed and whole and physically well people! Consider this poignant scripture describing the Lord's care for the children of Israel in their wilderness wanderings,

He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye. 11 As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings: 12 So the LORD alone did lead him, and there was no strange god with him.

We who reverence His Name, who will allow no "strange god" no "antichrist spirit" to influence us as His holy remnant, are also going to have to be able to know what it means to be caught in the very wings of God with Him "in flight" so that we are truly having our lives ruled by the Spirit because there simply won't be time or provision to pay attention to the ailments and complaints we've had in the past. It is a whole new order when it comes to healing!!

It's not going to be about one person struggling and striving to pray through to a great gift in God, and then popping his anointed hands on the heads of thousands so they might get a touch from God. Being healed and healthy is the children's bread, and that means it's to be the WAY OF LIFE!! And what is that "way of life", it's to be under His wing where healing continuously is realized by those who are abiding under the shadow of His wings!

Dearest Friends, I want to live UP to the Name of Jesus, and I want to LIFT UP the Name of Jesus!! I want to show all due reverence to His glorious Name! I want it to be my way of life so that I can truly be a vessel who experiences health, wholeness, divine healing and the ministration of such unto others. Won't you join me in a new and glorious commission to honor and exalt and reverence His Name as never before so we can be unto others, what He is truly desiring to be unto us: The Sun of Righteousness rising with HEALING in His wings!!

Always in the Love of Jesus,

Visitation To Habitation

Todd Bentley

March 16, 2005
In this teaching titled Visitation to Habitation*, we'll examine what it means to have a visitation from the Lord and we'll take a look at some of the ways the Lord visits us. As well, we'll discover that it's the Lord's desire not only to visit us with His presence, but better still, His desire is to have a resting place among us, like a place of habitation.*

Before we begin this week's teaching titled Visitation to Habitation, I want to invite you to join with me in prayer.
Father, I'm asking You to come to us today with such a wave of Your presence and Your fire that a new spirit of prayer and a new spirit of hunger are created inside of us. Spirit of God, I know that the ingredient for revival in our lives individually, before we can ever see revival in our church and revival in a nation, is hunger and prayer. I pray that You would create such a hunger and holy desperation in the hearts of Your people that they would pursue You with a fire and a zeal like never before. Thank you, Father. In Jesus' name. Amen.

GOD IS LOOKING FOR A RESTING PLACE

God is watching the nations of the earth in this hour; He's looking for a resting place (Isaiah 66:1). He is searching for individuals and a community of believers who will welcome Him to come and stay, who will make Him a place where He can rest. He wants to find a habitation, not just a place to visit, where He can manifest His presence and His glory. As well, God wants to find a habitation and a resting place for His presence in the corporate church setting. And so I want to talk about us being a habitation for God and a resting place for the Spirit of God. As I describe several encounters and visitations of God, I'm going to talk about the price and cost of the anointing and the price and cost of revival.

VISITATIONS COME FIRST

When God's presence comes, at times it feels uncomfortable and inconvenient to us. God takes us out of our comfort zone! But having said that, it's always a privilege any time God allows us to be a part of an outpouring of His presence. He has an outpouring and a visitation and fresh encounter for us today, in this hour. However, God wants us to encounter His presence beyond a momentary touch. He wants to come and stay, to have a resting place with us. When we understand what pleases the Lord and what it takes so that we become a habitation for His presence, then our whole lifestyle will be affected. Where God finds a resting place for His presence, I believe there will be a continual outpouring of His presence.

But before God has a place of habitation with us, we need to appreciate that He usually begins by visiting us at special times, first. For instance, a few years ago in meetings in northern British Columbia we had 21 consecutive services and we couldn't even count the number of people that would walk into the building and get blasted by God's presence. We had a visitation of God! We heard testimonies of people stepping into the church and the glory of the Lord was already there on a corporate level, waiting for them. Everyone would leave at 1 a.m. and when they came back the next night, the glory was still there. That same presence stayed with us until the last night.

Another time when we held a 16-night revival in the Fraser Valley, BC, God began to come and manifest the cloud of His glory to the point that people would see a mist in the building. There was such a heavy weight of His presence that people wouldn't be able to move or speak. They just wanted to soak and bask in His presence for hours! People would drive into the city and come over the bridge toward where the conference was being held and they would get filled with the Spirit of God in the car driving over the bridge! When God came like this, His presence didn't wane, it stayed consistently strong for the 16 days and nights. I've been blessed with visitations like this for three days, a week, and just about a month. At times I couldn't move. It was inconvenient and at times uncomfortable. It stretched me!

DESPERATE TO PURSUE GOD

But it all began just after God got a hold of me and set me free from drugs, prison, violence, and rage. Right away I had a fire inside of me to win souls and plunder hell! From the moment I met Christ -- I'd only been saved three or four months -- I had such a hunger inside of me to know God and to witness the resurrection power of Jesus. I wanted to see the things that I meditated on in the Bible become a reality, so I would spend sometimes between four to eight hours a day, as a brand new Christian, waiting on the presence of the Lord, meditating on His word day and night. I am sharing this just to give you an understanding of how hungry and passionate I was, and continue to be, about God's presence. I became a God chaser!

Instantly, through a work of His Spirit, there was a fire, a hunger, and a spirit of prayer that was released in me. I'd seek God's face (even to this day), in extended times up to 12 hours lying on the carpet. It was then that God called me and said: This is what I want you to do in the church. I want you to make My church desperate. I want you to make them hungry. I want you to make them jealous for the glory. I want you to cause a hunger, a spirit of prayer and a fire to seek My face, to be released into My church.

So, basically, that's what I do -- as a revivalist does. I stir up the church to be desperate and to step up into another level in the way that they pursue God. (I've spoken about Jesus and shared the gospel in little fast food places, parks, the streets, churches, conferences, and crusades. Sometimes I've held up to 40 meetings in a month. It costs to be away from my family. At times I've ministered in a community for three weeks, night after night, with two or three services a day, seeing people come into revival, receiving Jesus, and getting healed and delivered.)

There have been times when God has visited me and I've had to ask Him to lift His hand off of me because I wasn't able to function. I've had days where the glory of the Lord would come and it would stay for several days. One time His glory stayed for a week; from the moment I woke up, to the moment I went to bed, I encountered the manifest presence of God. I could hardly function. My wife barely even saw me. I was on my carpet. It was a visitation from God.

WHAT WILL IT TAKE TO BRING THE CHURCH BEYOND A VISITATION TO A HABITATION?

Also, there was a season a few years ago, before I was released into international ministry, when I had waited on God four to twelve hours a day for three months. In that three-month encounter, I experienced the glory from the moment I woke up to the moment I went to bed. I was in prayer. I was hungry to touch heaven to change earth. Are we willing to take any opportunity that we can to wait on the Lord until He visits us with His presence?

You know, God is looking for those who are going to be radical in their devotion -- who will abandon themselves to Jesus and the call that has come out of heaven on their lives. They will truly touch heaven and change earth. God is raising up in this hour a whole generation of what we call radicals or revivalists. I am an evangelist, but really evangelists are revivalists that stir up the church. That's what we do. God is raising up a whole new breed of evangelists today who will submit to pastors and work together with churches and apostolic teams to serve and see the kingdom of God expand.

And so I want to ask us a question: What will it take to bring the church beyond a visitation to a habitation? Before we answer this question, let's take a look at some of the different ways that God will manifest His presence during a visitation.

A VISITATION IS A VISIT!

When we visit a friend, we're coming and then we're going. We're not living with them day after day. In like manner, God will come and visit us, His friends, but when He comes His visitation is a visit, not a permanent residency! One of the ways God visits us is when we have a conference. A special guest speaker comes and there's an excitement and enthusiasm in the air that doesn't seem to be there when we have a regular church service. People who wouldn't normally come to a church meeting fill the building.

Whether the conference is for a weekend or for a week, God comes in a special way to meet the corporate hunger for His presence. There is an encounter, a visitation of God's presence at the conference that isn't normally there. Often, when an evangelist comes, it's like God's presence intensifies, just for that weekend or for that conference, to the point that miracles happen that maybe weren't happening before.

It's not hard to know when a visitation of God's presence happens, because when He comes down, He interrupts our church service! There's such a weight of His glory and a sense of His presence that worship will continue for hours before the pastor has preached the message. Or there's such a great level of glory that the pastor doesn't even preach because God has come. God will interrupt the way that we thought the service was going to be on a Sunday morning. The usual agenda gets blown out the window! I've had God come like that. I've been asked to speak in conferences, but never did speak because God came in such a great wave of His presence that I was taken out of the way. That's great though. I was interrupted by the glory of the Lord!

So, when God's visitation comes, it disrupts the way that church usually is. People might be lying prostrate on their face and there might be weeping and repenting . . . or there's dancing. Sometimes there's complete chaos and there doesn't seem to be the kind of order that we're used to. We're like, "Man, wow! That was a 'suddenly.' That was awesome! That was God!" But if we want a habitation for God, we need to be ready to have a visitation from God, first. That's going to mess up our programs and agendas. And some of the people might be offended!

SOMETIMES GOD IS THERE WAITING

Here's a familiar scenario: We wake up at our usual time to be with the Lord and we go about seeking God and His glory for our one hour. We're pretty set in our ways about that hour. Not one minute after and not one minute before, and we can't be in His presence without at least having our daily devotion and reading our chapter from the Bible. BUT, then all of a sudden when we get into our prayer closet, and before we even open the door, HE IS THERE! Listen - There are times when I'll say, "Shonna, I am going to pray," and when I open up the bedroom door, I'm under the glory. There's no need to pray or worship. There is no need to bring God down, speaking in tongues and doing all the things I usually do to get God's attention. I just walk in the room and I'm in the glory. It's like words aren't necessary. Many of us have been in that place in God's presence when there's not a word that we can speak to convey what's in our heart and what we sense by the Spirit of God.

I've experienced this again and again -- God waiting for me before I can even get to Him. What do we do when we open up that closet to get into prayer and the glory is already there waiting? What I've noticed is we usually quench a visitation like this because we're so used to the structure or the way that we would normally seek God -- our 15 minutes in tongues, our 15 minutes of intercession and worship, and then our 15 minutes of talking to God about the things that we have need of.

For most of the church, things have become duty and mundane when it comes to having time with God outside of Sunday services. Some Christians are fortunate if they've had 15 minutes with God in the last week. God wants to put a fire and a hunger inside of His church again to the point that we have to be pried out of our prayer closet so that we can get to our jobs!
Probably most of us have had moments when God has visited us -- we saw His face and thought: Man, that was a special time. That was a special touch. There was a special edge about the way that God came. Those are visitations. When God is there waiting for us, that's an incredible visitation!

KEYS TO WELCOMING A VISITATION

We're prepared for a visitation from God when we allow God to come the way He wants to. It's quite possible that He wants to break the lines of protocol and tradition. Maybe He wants to overthrow our "program" mentality. If we're stubborn and we're not willing to let go of the comfort of something familiar, then I believe that we'll grieve the Holy Spirit and quench a visitation from God. I know that we need to have structure, but there has to be a way to experience church so that when God wants to come and He says, "Let Me just remove those rigid structures," that we give Him freedom to do so. Can we allow God to interrupt us with His glory?

Also, God's glory has great potential to come upon us when we fast and pray. When we're fasting we usually pray and read our Bibles a whole lot more. There's a heightened awareness of God's presence and a greater ability to see and hear God and to receive revelation. When we die to our flesh and move distractions out of our way, devoting ourselves to spend extra time in the glory, God releases direction to us. We'll have a heightened awareness of the spiritual realm. We'll have a visitation. But having said that, God wants to bring His church beyond an encounter and a visitation to habitation.

As well, if we'll make up our minds not to get hung up on having everything always neat and tidy, we'll be in a good position to sustain a visitation from God. The Bible declares that where there is no oxen the trough is clean (Proverbs 14:4). I find that believers today are very concerned about a clean trough and organized Christianity because when our trough begins to get messy, there will be accusations, there will be offense, and people will leave our church.
Where there is no oxen, where there is no strength, where there is no harvest, where there is no producing, you'll find that the trough is clean. But if we're going to have a visitation first, and then a habitation and a move of God, we better be ready to have a messy trough. If we want to have wheat, we better be ready to have some tares as well, because we'll never have wheat without the tares (Matthew 13:25-40). We better be careful that when God comes with the wheat and a move of God begins to happen and we try to pull out all those things that we think are tares, that we don't pull out some of the wheat. We're going to have to just let the wheat and the tares grow together and let the Spirit of God bring a separation.

Listen! If we're going to have a move of God and we want a habitation of God and we want it in our lives, our churches, and in our ministries, then we better be ready to acknowledge that with much increase there will be a mess that comes with it. Let's be ready to have a mess!

CONSTRAINING THE LORD TO STAY

Do you know that every time God visits us, it's not His desire to pass on? Every time we have an encounter with God and He comes and touches us in a special way, He is hoping we will constrain Him to stay. [Constrain means: to restrain, to compel (Webster's New World Dictionary)] As He indicates to us that He is moving on and the visitation is over, He is hoping that we will constrain Him to stay longer. Every time that the Holy Spirit comes -- every touch, visitation, encounter, an interruption that comes to us with God's glory -- is an opportunity for us to have an outpouring. But it's sad when God comes and He blows out the agenda for a service, that when we come to church the following week, we so easily go back to the way we were doing things before He interrupted us.

We don't seem to realize that He wants us to wait on Him, minister to Him, and out of that, the flow of His Spirit will continue. We're so used to the way that we do church -- to the set format -- that often we totally miss God's plan to visit us in an outpouring of His Spirit. He's hoping we'll constrain Him to stay so that He can bring a revival, but, when He comes, do we know how to minister to Him, first? Do we understand the sacrifice and the cost that comes with the visitation of His glory?

The patriarch Abraham understood the sacrifice and the cost that comes with a visitation of the Lord. (Patriarch means: the father and head of a family or tribe; a man of great age and dignity.) He wasn't afraid to constrain the Lord to stay awhile with him. So let's take a look at this biblical account in Genesis 18:1-10. What's described in this passage is Abraham's visitation. He had an encounter with the Lord and two angels.
In verse 1 it declares, "Then the Lord appeared to him by the terebinth trees of Mamre, as he was sitting in the tent door in the heat of the day . . . "
"Then the Lord appeared unto him . . . " Most of us have had a visitation. We've had the Lord come to us in those extra special ways, what we would call "mountain top" times. But when the Lord appeared to Abraham, there was a hunger in his heart. He had a desire for more than just a visitation or a mountain top experience, because he said to the Lord, "My Lord, if I have now found favor in Your sight, do not pass on by Your servant" (v.3).

He was constraining the Lord and the two others to stay a while. It's like he was saying: I want the Lord to stay. I want the manifestation of God to linger. You know why I want You to stay? I want You to stay so that I can be a servant. I want You to stay so I can make You bread, bring You some water and wash Your feet. I want You to stay so I can minister to You.

I'll tell you -- when God appeared to Abraham, he didn't want God to stay because of anything that he could get out of Him by staying. He wanted the Lord to stay because he wanted to serve Him. He wanted to minister to Him and to wash His feet.

"STAY BECAUSE I NEED YOUR PRESENCE"

Many ministries, churches, and individuals are only having a momentary encounter because the first thing that happens when we get into God's presence is that we talk to God about the things we have need of. When God comes with His face we don't appreciate it. Instead we ask, "Where is His hand?" God comes to show us the beauty and glory of His presence and we're just trying to get a hold of what is in His pocket book because of what we have need of! In fact, someone had a vision of a dove that came out of heaven. It began to rest on the church and as soon as the dove landed, many hands went up trying to grab the dove.

The church today is only having a visitation and not a habitation because we haven't really learned what it means to seek His face and not His hand; what it really means to minister to Him, to worship Him, to entertain Him. Another reason why God isn't staying and He's passing on is because the minute that God comes, we want to get a hold of that presence for what it can do for our ministry, for the speaking engagements that it can open up, and for the church exposure it can give us. In light of all this, it's very kind of the Lord to even come and visit us!

It's like the Lord is asking us: Does anybody want Me to stay because they want to make bread for Me and wash My feet? Does anybody want to minister to Me and wait on Me? Abraham's heart welcomed the Lord to stay. He wanted to minister to the Lord. His heart expressed this: Don't stay because I need a blessing. Stay because I need Your presence. Oh! We need to have the same heart as Abraham: I want You to stay so I can make you bread.

"WHERE IS THE PLACE OF MY REST?"

Now, if you go on a little further in this passage of scripture, we find that one of the first things that happened to Abraham (Genesis 18:7) after the Lord consented to stay was that he had several revelations. He realized that it wasn't enough just to have a desire for God to stay, nor was it enough just to have a passion for Him. Abraham did something!
"And Abraham ran to the herd, took a tender and good calf, gave it to a young man, and he hastened to prepare (sacrifice) it" (v. 7).

Just when Abraham realized that with habitation there comes a price, simultaneously the Lord saw into his heart -- that he was willing not only to sacrifice his choicest calf, but in the future he would be willing to sacrifice his one and only son, Isaac. And so Abraham received the undivided attention of the Lord.
You know, there's something that the Lord is looking for -- something that must satisfy His heart before He is compelled or constrained to linger and rest among us. If we, like Abraham, ask the Lord not to pass us by, will the Lord see that we have a heart like Abraham, or not? It isn't enough for us just to be hungry for God and to say, "I need you" over and over again. It isn't enough to sing 45 minutes of worship songs over and over again. We must be willing to sacrifice something that we love, even the most precious thing that the Lord has given us. In the process of surrender and sacrifice, our hearts are purified and cleansed and we put God first, above anything else.

Let's close this week's teaching with the words of the prophet Isaiah ringing in our ears:
"Thus says the Lord: 'Heaven is My throne, and earth is My footstool. Where is the house that you will build Me? And where is the place of My rest?'" Isaiah 66:1
Let's quiet ourselves before the Lord and prepare ourselves for the desire of His heart -- a place where He can rest, a place of habitation.

The King And The Priest
Todd Bentley

In this teaching titled The King and the Priest*, we will discuss three promises that are released when the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, Jesus Christ, roars. Then we will examine the government of God, focusing on positional and experiential truth and how the life of King David pictures both truths. We'll examine King David's perseverance in the wilderness and how we can follow his example and contend for our destiny.*

I have a burning awareness that it's time for us to put away childish things so that we come to maturity and advance as kings and priests bearing the authority that the Lord intends for us to possess (I Corinthians 13:11). I hear a loud roaring in the heavenlies from the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, Jesus Christ. He's roaring against His enemies, pushing them back, so that Christians will have greater freedom to rise up into their destiny as kings and priests. God's plan is that we march as a mighty army in these last days.

Before we discuss in greater depth the kingly, priestly anointing, I want to invite you to join with me in prayer that we would soak up every ounce of revelation the Holy Spirit has for us in this teaching.

Heavenly Father, I thank you for what you are opening before us by your Spirit. I want to ask you right now for the Spirit of Wisdom and Revelation to come upon us. I want to pray today for complete liberty in the Spirit in the Church and in our lives, so that we're free to come into a deeper revelation concerning your plans and purposes for each of us as kings and priests. Please help us to be like sponges that soak up everything you want us to retain. In the name of Jesus, I thank you for it. Amen.

THE LION OF THE TRIBE OF JUDAH ROARS

The other morning, early, about 1 a.m., I began to speak with the Holy Spirit. "God, I'm going to go to bed and I would like to wake up in the morning with a Holy Spirit download of what you want me to do at the conference tonight. I want to sense in my heart the theme You want to release and the prophetic sense that goes hand and hand with it."
When I closed my eyes, immediately I had a vision of Jesus Christ wearing scarlet-blue, kingly robes that represented His authority, His royalty, and His righteousness. I knew in my spirit that Jesus was clothed with great authority. I also saw a crown in His hand. As I looked at Him more closely, I realized He had the face of a lion and, in an instant, three revelations struck me.
I thought: Oh, it's the Lion of a tribe of Judah. It's an increase in the level of authority. Oh Hallelujah, it's the kingly anointing! In this vision the Lion roared!

So, I want to speak about three things that happen -- prophetic promises -- when the Lion of the tribe of Judah roars. [I believe that there's going to come an impartation of an anointing for a release of the roar of the Lion of the tribe of Judah in our spirit today.]

1. His Roar Sets the Captives Free

When the Lion of the tribe of Judah roars it actually sets the captives free. In the Spirit, there is a release for those who sit in darkness to come forth into freedom in Christ. The prophet Hosea prophesied that Ephraim (symbolizing our prodigal sons and daughters [Hosea 11:8-9]) would walk after the Lord and follow His ways after the lion roars.

"'They shall walk after the Lord. He will roar like a lion. When He roars, then His sons shall come trembling from the west; they shall come trembling like a bird from Egypt, like a dove from the land of Assyria. And I will let them dwell in their houses,' says the Lord." Hosea 11:10-11, NKJV

When there is a release of the roar in Zion, not only is there a release of the captive sons and daughters, but there is actually a planting of destiny. They come and they dwell in the house of the Lord, and there is a rooting that takes place when the lion roars. Wouldn't you like the Lion to roar over your family and just shake the darkness loose? I believe this roar is being released even today on behalf of the prodigals. So I want you to receive that as a prophetic promise.

2. His Roar Pronounces Judgment On Our Enemies

When the Lion of the tribe of Judah roars there is a pronouncement of judgment on our enemies. The prophet Joel prophesied about a war when many nations would come to the valley of Jehoshaphat where God will sit to judge all the surrounding nations (Joel 3:12). Then he speaks about the Lord roaring from Zion against Israel's enemies, but the Lord will be a shelter for His people:

"The LORD also will roar from Zion, and utter His voice from Jerusalem; the heavens and earth will shake; but the Lord will be a shelter for His people, and the strength of the children of Israel." Joel 3:16, NKJV

Yes, there is a judgment that comes against our enemies when the Lion roars from Zion, but we need to keep in mind that we'll find shelter in the time of judgment only when we're walking in humility with complete devotion to the Lord. I want to ask you to ponder this and prepare your hearts.

3. His Roar Calls and Stirs Us To Violence and War Against The Enemy

When the Lion of the tribe of Judah roars, there is a call and stirring of violence and war. The prophet Isaiah prophesied concerning this when he says that the Lord will come down and fight for Mt. Zion and for its hill:

"For thus the Lord has spoken to me, 'As a Lion roars, and a young lion over his prey (when a multitude of shepherds is summoned against him he will not be afraid of their voice, nor be disturbed by their noise), so the Lord of hosts will come down to fight for Mount Zion and for its hill.'" Isaiah 31:4, NKJV

This passage of Scripture speaks of aggression and stirs within us a response to the call for the mighty warriors to rise up. In the natural, when the lion roars, the prey is frozen with fear so the lioness can go in and take the prey. Let's get a revelation about this because it's a strategy in warfare.
The roar of the lion paralyzes and causes fear and dread in the enemy's camp so that we, the lioness (the Church and the Bride of Christ), can take our prey. God is going to release in our spirit an increase in the level of authority in aggressive spiritual warfare that will immobilize the enemy's plans.

THE NEVER-ENDING INCREASE OF GOD'S GOVERNMENT

The prophet Isaiah prophesied about a never-ending increase! He said, "Of the increase of His government and peace there will be no end . . . " (Isaiah 9:7a, NKJV). As well, Isaiah said that the government of God rests upon His shoulders (Isaiah 9:6). God bears the burden of shouldering this immense responsibility of governing, but He invites us to co-labor with Him in the administration of His government in the earth and He gives us a kingly, priestly anointing to carry this through.

The government of God is coming and it's already happening, all at the same time! This means that positional truth (coming) is connecting to experiential truth (happening). Likewise, when we receive by faith the truth of what the Bible says about us and the supernatural provision available to fully serve the Lord -- that's positional truth. Our faith at this point causes action. (Faith without works is dead [James 2:17]) And so when we act on and have grown in what the Bible says about us and how we can fully serve the Lord -- that's experiential truth.
Both positional and experiential truth work simultaneously. In fact, there is a principle here. Our destinies are established in the heavenlies already (positional), but we must contend for our destinies and cooperate with God to bring them into existence in our everyday lives (experiential).

The prophet Isaiah connects the never-ending increase of God's government with the throne of David (Isaiah 9:7b), so let's take a look at King David's life. He experienced many circumstances that are great examples of positional and experiential truth.

TRUE KINGS RECEIVE TRAINING IN THE WILDERNESS

God chose David to be the king of Israel when he was just a young man (I Samuel 16:1-13). Here's how he was identified: The Lord told Samuel the prophet to go to the house of Jesse because He had selected one of Jesse's sons to be King over Israel. And so Samuel did as he was told. But the seven sons who came before him, even though each one looked like a possible contender, they didn't have the goods and were eliminated by the Lord.
So, Samuel asked Jesse if he had any more children. He must have been relieved to learn that there was one son left, the youngest, who wasn't at home. And so the remaining son, David, was summoned from tending the sheep. Immediately, when Samuel laid his eyes on David, the Lord said, "Arise, anoint him; for this is the one" (I Samuel 16:12, NKJV). The positional truth lies here -- the prophet poured the oil on David and he was anointed as king, long before he experienced the full manifestation of living as a king.

David was chosen and called by God. In the midst of all his brothers, there was favor. The Bible also says, "The Spirit of the Lord came upon him from that day forward" (I Samuel 16:13).
He was the king of Israel because the ministry of God came to him. However, after being anointed King, David finds himself thrust into several life and death experiences (I Samuel 17-19).

"ADVERSITY WAS HAVING ITS PERFECT WORK"

He encounters great favor with King Saul for a season, but this favor changes into deadly disfavor to the point that David becomes an outlaw. He's forced to run like a dog into the wilderness, hiding in the caves and strongholds of Adullam. While he's hiding out in the caves, 400 disgruntled guys come to his side (I Samuel 22:2). They're all distressed and in debt. These guys are angry -- "bitter in soul." They came to David when he was having a difficult time.

You know, when hard times come, we find out who our friends are. David's new friends weren't attracted to his posh home and financial prosperity! At this point in David's life, his great wealth was his reputation -- a bold warrior and a man of great character. He single handedly slew Goliath (I Samuel 17) and he didn't retaliate when Saul tried to kill him (I Samuel 19:10).
These disgruntled guys saw something emerging in David that marked him as a great leader and this drew them to his side. Yes, they were angry outcasts who were somewhat bitter, but they had discernment. They knew a good leader when they saw one.

How many of us have heard great things about our destiny, too, just like King David? Big God. Big stuff. Big dreams. "How long Lord? When Lord?" Some of us have been waiting for many years for the fulfillment of what we know the Lord has purposed for our lives. And we're having an experience like David had after he was anointed as king.
It appears that he received everything from God to fulfill the call on his life, but for years he didn't have the full manifestation of ruling the kingdom yet. David was in training, and adversity was having its perfect work; he wasn't rebelling against it. David was proving to be a true king, one trained in the wilderness -- experiential truth.

THE WILDERNESS BRINGS WARFARE

David's wilderness experience was pretty rough. He was probably thinking: I don't look like a king and I don't feel like a king. What kind of kingdom is this? But, he begins to take the rejects and trains their hands for war in the wilderness.
He's an outcast; like a dog on the run. Saul wants to kill him. He's thinking: How am I ever going to get from point A to point B? How am I ever going to be King? Life goes on like that for a few more years! He experiences a lot of warfare in the wilderness.

We see in Psalm 63 the intensity of wilderness-warfare. "O God, You are my God; early will I seek You; my soul thirsts for You; my flesh longs for You in a dry and thirsty land where there is no water" (v. 1, NKJV). Seeking God early, being thirsty for His presence when it's dry, not giving up when all outward signs seem to indicate defeat -- this describes wilderness-warfare. There isn't a hint of revival; no special meetings and no sense of the presence of God.

Do you know what water is in the Bible? Water is the Holy Ghost.
"I will open rivers in desolate heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water." Isaiah 41:18, NKJV
Devils don't like the water, and they leave us alone when we get wet in the Holy Ghost! They like the dry places. Remember the story of the demoniac guy who lived in the country of the Gadarenes. The head demon that possessed him asked Jesus if he and all the other demons could be sent into the pigs rather than being sent out of the country (Mark 5:12). Jesus allowed this because He knew that when the hoard entered the pigs, they would rush down the hill, into the sea -- into the water -- the very place demons hate. One day they will be in the LAKE of fire!

THERE'S GRACE IN THE WILDERNESS

Not only is Jesus an expert when it comes to dealing with demons, He provides for us in the wilderness when it's dry and there's no water. " . . . I will even make a road in the wilderness and rivers in the desert" (Isaiah 43:19, NKJV).
Did you know that, sometimes, a river isn't just flowing with water, it's flowing with grace? If we'll receive grace, God will pour it on us like a river of blessing: "Thus says the Lord, 'The people who survived the sword found grace in the wilderness -- Israel, when it went to find its rest'" (Jeremiah 31:2, NASB).

Sometimes, when we're in the wilderness, it's tempting to rebel and throw in the towel. Even when God comes and makes us an offer of grace, we just don't like it at all! We don't want grace in the wilderness. We want OUT of there, like YESTERDAY!
David's lifestyle proves that he received a big dose of grace from the Holy Spirit. His attitude can be ours as we take a look at what his thought-life was probably like: I've got these 400 outcasts around me. God, I'm so hungry for You! God, I'm so hungry for Your glory! I'm so hungry for Your power! Even in a dry and thirsty land where there's no water. I'm going to dig diligently! I am not going to let up or shut up! I'm not going give up in this wilderness!

PERSEVERANCE PROVES OUR CHARACTER

David persevered in the wilderness. This proved his character and pictures what Paul the apostle taught when he said: "And not only that, but we also glory in tribulations, knowing that tribulation produces perseverance and perseverance, proven character; and proven character, hope" (Romans 5:3,4).
When God saw David's character maturing steadily, producing great fruit, He decided to do some pruning. "And every branch that bears fruit, He prunes it so that it may bear more fruit" (John 15:2b, NASB).
And so, after a long season of pruning -- fighting, training his men, and running from Saul -- David is led by the Lord to Hebron (II Samuel 2:1) where he is anointed King over the house of Judah (II Samuel 2:4); and then later he's anointed King over Israel (II Samuel 5:3).

It's in Hebron where David begins to experience more of the manifestation of the kingly anointing. It's like God is saying: I'm trusting you with more in this next season. Now you're going to go from the wilderness with trained men, rather than discontented bums and outcasts. You trained their hands for war! You were faithful. I am going to bring an increase of authority upon your life and it's going to intensify in Hebron.

KEEP CONTENDING FOR YOUR DESTINY!

Do you know what Hebron is? Hebron means the city of four and "seat of association." Even to this day, Hebron is a city struggling with a lot of spiritual warfare.
Historically, when the 12 spies went into Canaan, they eventually came into the Negev region to Hebron where the descendants of Anak lived: Ahiman, Sheshai and Talmai whose father was Anakim (Numbers 13:22).
Anak means to choke, strangle, and struggle with death. Ahiman means to block or hinder. Sheshai means to whiten or whitewash. These sons were giants in the land.

After the children of Israel wandered in the wilderness for 40 years, when they finally came into their inheritance under Joshua's leadership, Caleb asked for Hebron as his inheritance. Caleb said that with the Lord's help he would drive out the giants, the sons of Anakim. And he did just that! (Joshua 15:14). Caleb was 85 years old then, and as strong as an ox! Throughout the Scriptures we see the children of Israel having to deal with demonic powers similar to the ones in Anakim's three sons.

Just like King David had to persevere through the caves and wilderness and overcome different giants, so do we. God will use all the difficulties He allows in our lives as resistance to build our spiritual muscles. When the enemy tries to choke us to death and hinder us from moving ahead, when he tries to whitewash everything so we just settle for less, we need to rise up and fight back with God's strategy! We need to contend for our destinies.

"THE VIOLENT TAKE IT BY FORCE"

When the enemy tries to whitewash something, it's like our vision isn't clear and we don't see things on the outside as they really are. (Think about the Pharisees and the whitewashed tombs [Matthew 23:27]).
To whitewash means: settle for it, it looks good, take your lot in life, or grin and bear it! This description points to "complacency Christianity" that just lies down and says, "I'm not going to get involved. I know they're dying over there from war, famine, and disease, but it doesn't concern me. Oh, God, I want you to bless those hungry children, but we better turn the channel quickly because I don't want to see that." We have got this complacent, settle for it, "aw, it's out there and it doesn't affect me so that's good enough," mentality.

Listen! There's got to be a manifestation of aggression. There has to be a rising up. There's got to be this spiritual violence. The violent take it by force (Matthew 11:12). We need to change our mindset: I'm going to press in and I'm going to set the standard! I'm going to get a breakthrough! When it's hard and dry, I'm going to worship and cry out to God all the more. When the blessing isn't manifesting and the oil isn't here, You are still worthy, Lord! I will keep contending for my destiny!

KEEP GOING - YOU WILL BEAR MUCH FRUIT!

In my own life, after preaching on the streets for four hours a day, anointed and called as an evangelist, I had dreams of stadiums filled with hungry people -- a stadium mindset. But it all began by preaching in the skateboard parks as a new Christian when I had been saved just two months. I preached in the coffee shops and McDonalds. I also went outside into the parks to preach, and I took teams into the streets every week to give away cokes and hotdogs.

When I was a new Christian, a prophet had a word of knowledge for me: "Todd, you're going to do crusades and reach the kind of people that Billy Graham reached. You're going to see stadiums." Later, I began to receive visitations of the Lord concerning miracles, healings, and crusades in stadiums. Today, outside of North America, we do crusades where we'll reach a quarter of a million people in five days. I asked God for a million souls this year!

My whole attitude can be summed up like this: "I'm going to serve God! I'm going to be a radical, extravagant lover of God!" I had a vision from God when I was a new believer concerning what Fresh Fire Ministries would look like. But, after receiving the vision, I found myself on a journey through the wilderness. I was in the ditches -- the coffee shops, down town in the inner city of Vancouver with the prostitutes and drug addicts ministering. No one knew me. I hadn't been to Bible school, only saved four years. But I knew a big God that could do big stuff and I had big dreams even while I experienced the dry places.

David was in the wilderness; all true kings need to go there. Later, when God promoted David by sending him to Hebron, he would experience even more of the pruning process so that he could bear much fruit as the king of Israel. It was like the Lord said to David, "I am going to increase your metron. You passed the test! Go to Hebron!" There, in that place, David would rise even higher as a trusted leader, contending for his kingly anointing.

Vision To Rebuild

Jan 28, 2005

Ask Me, says the Lord. Ask Me for a plan, for your plan of release. I want to give you a road map of how to rebuild your life. I want to rebuild you body, soul and spirit. I want you to prosper and become the head and not the tail. I want you to be so rich in My good gifts that you become My living light and resource to all those who are dying around you. I want your life to be so well constructed that you will be My rock and My refuge for those who are caught in the storms of the world. I want you to be so full of My abundant life that My Presence through you literally rebuilds your neighborhood, your church, your work place, your town, your city, your country and your nation into a tabernacle of My Presence. Take back your land people, take it back.

First ask Me for My plan for your own personal life. Then ask Me for ears to hear that plan when I send it. Ask Me for the heart to receive that plan. Ask Me for confirmations after I send it. Ask Me that the plan will become planted deeply into the sifted and plowed soil of your faith. Ask Me for these things. And then when your plan comes, you will know it is from Me and will be given the grace to walk it out.

Prov 29:18 KJV
Where there is no vision, the people perish: but he that keepeth the law, happy is he.

Ps 2:7-8 NKJV
I will declare the decree: The LORD has said to Me, 'You are My Child, today I have begotten You. Ask of Me, and I will give You the nations for Your inheritance, and the ends of the earth for Your possession.

Make Room For Joseph

MAKE ROOM FOR JOSEPH
Like Joseph, you went into captivity when you shared your dream with your brethren. Your innocent trust was betrayed and you have suffered years because of this. Dear one, what the enemy intended for evil, I meant it for good. I allowed the circumstances in your life to train and prepare you for this day. Yes it is time. Walk out of captivity and share your wealth. The many gifts I have given you will make a way for you. You will have fellowship and replacement of what you have lost. All that you have will be cherished and no longer scorned. I shall honor you with My mantle, My delegated authority and glory. Go now and become the deliverer who I have promised you to be. Provide for and set My people free.

"A man's gift maketh room for him, and bringeth him before great men."

Gen 41:40-43 NKJV
"And Pharaoh said to Joseph, "See, I have set you over all the land of Egypt." Then Pharaoh took his signet ring off his hand and put it on Joseph's hand; and he clothed him in garments of fine linen and put a gold chain around his neck."

Rest In Your Work
Sandy Warner

Jan 27, 2005

REST IN YOUR WORK
You have been inundated with many task oriented activities that have demanded your time. I AM bringing you to a stopping place to help you find your priorities among them. Make a list and prioritize them, dear one. I want you back with Me, to put Me first. I have heard your prayer and want to confirm to you that it is indeed My heart's desire for you to return to your resting place in Me. Let no condemnation fall upon your heart, for I understand exactly what has been required of you in this last season. It is time to put away the burning of the candle at both ends and return to your resting place of faith.

Yes, you have so many details to juggle throughout your day, I understand that. I AM bringing you into a balancing act where you will learn how to balance the load. If you could watch and wait with Me just one hour, this would set your day in synch with My heart. When you line up with My heart, it sets every task in order and also opens your eyes and ears to hear My Words through your daily life, and brings the joy of revelation through the simplest details. As you bow your heart to hear My view in the tasks that you perform, your heart grows lighter with each step as I refresh you with our intimate communion. So, come now, and return to your resting place before My feet and rearrange your priorities. You will find that I will open ways to reap good harvests from even that for which you have not labored.

Ps 127:1-2 NLT
Unless the LORD builds a house, the work of the builders is useless. Unless the LORD protects a city, guarding it with sentries will do no good. It is useless for you to work so hard from early morning until late at night, anxiously working for food to eat; for God gives rest to his loved ones.

Joshua 24:13 NKJ
'I have given you a land for which you did not labor, and cities which you did not build, and you dwell in them; you eat of the vineyards and olive groves which you did not plant.'

Vision For Mexico

Mark Kaphaem

This morning while I was waiting on the Lord I saw, in the Spirit I saw Lightning in the sky. The sky was dark and the Lightning was lighting up the clouds as though they were speaking. I feel this was the Lord making a decree.

Next I saw a very tall sombrero. I have never seen such a tall sombrero. After looking at it for some time I saw a man underneath it. He looked at me and motioned for me to be quite. He rose up and cautiously walked over to a huge iron door. He pushed the door open and walked into utter darkness. I saw him walk deep into the house.

The next thing I saw was a flash of light and a huge pinyata being broken open and treasure flying everywhere.

I feel the tall sombrero speaks of authority. Authority that reaches into the heavens. I looked at the sombrero for some time before the man appeared under it. I believe the Lord was looking to and fro for someone who could where it.

I believe the man opening the iron door and walking into darkness speaks of him being given access and authority to go in and bind the strong man and steal his treasures from him. The breaking of the pinyata symbolizes this. Also with the symbols of the sombrero and the pinyata I believe this word is for Mexico.

At the end of the vision I saw gold being discovered.

Here is what I believe the decree of the Lord is.

I am releasing authority to bind the strong man of Mexico. The oppression and poverty over the Mexican people will be broken and the people will be free to enjoy the resources I have for them.

One other note. I looked up Pinyata on the internet to make sure I was spelling it correctly. The first site I came to was "ThePartyPeople.com. They were advertising the "Hulk Pinyata". This Pinyata is 92 cm in height. I felt led to look up Psalms 92. I have included the Message version of Psalm 92 below.

Psalm 92 (The Message) The Message (MSG)

Copyright © 1993, 1994, 1995, 1996, 2000, 2001, 2002 by Eugene H. Peterson

Psalm 92
1 What a beautiful thing, GOD, to give thanks, to sing an anthem to you, the High God!
2 To announce your love each daybreak, sing your faithful presence all through the night,
3 Accompanied by dulcimer and harp, the full-bodied music of strings.
4 You made me so happy, GOD. I saw your work and I shouted for joy.
5 How magnificent your work, GOD! How profound your thoughts!
6 Dullards never notice what you do; fools never do get it.
7 When the wicked popped up like weeds and all the evil men and women took over, You mowed them down, finished them off once and for all.
8 You, GOD, are High and Eternal.
9 Look at your enemies, GOD! Look at your enemies--ruined! Scattered to the winds, all those hirelings of evil!
10 But you've made me strong as a charging bison, you've honored me with a festive parade.
11 The sight of my critics going down is still fresh, the rout of my malicious detractors. My ears are filled with the sounds of promise:
12 "Good people will prosper like palm trees, Grow tall like Lebanon cedars;
13 transplanted to GOD's courtyard, They'll grow tall in the presence of God,
14 lithe and green, virile still in old age."
15 Such witnesses to upright GOD! My Mountain, my huge, holy Mountain!

One other note of interest. Last night while I was worshiping with some friends, I began to sing of the mantel of the Lord coming down. The chorus that came with it was "Who will die that they may rise up in the Mantel of the Lord". I saw the Lord looking to and fro and releasing Angels who hovered over the Earth looking for those who could rise up in the Mantel of the Lord. The Lord is desiring to release His authority on this Earth. Will He find those who will choose to die so that they can be raised up to wear the Mantel of the Lord.

Violent Earthquake Dreams 2 and 3

Judy Bauman

Rivermistlighthouse1@comcast.net

The first dream can be found at http://www.etpv.org/2005/veic.html

Inner and Outer Shaking

This dream took place in my childhood church. I didn't recognize anyone sitting there. My pastor and his (spiritual) father were up giving announcements. When he began to talk his voice became like thunder. I was so shaken on the inside that I couldn't even hear what was being said. First my shoulders began to tremble, then my arms, and then my entire body shook violently. What he was saying was not anything of great consequence, only things going on at the church. At first I couldn't tell if it was a physical earthquake, a move of the Holy Spirit in the church, or something going on just inside of me. The shaking subsided and I looked around. I didn't see anything out of the ordinary. The congregation was sitting there listening to the announcements like we normally would. That is when I determined what was happening was taking place internally. I tried to sit back and relax. The pastor and his (spiritual) father were talking, and though they were talking in normal voices, the shaking in me began again just as it had before. The thunderous sounds I heard from their voices reverberated powerfully on me. I began to shake so hard I grabbed a hold of the pew in front of me, and cried out to the Lord. In a loud shaking voice I yelled out, "OHHHHH! JESUS!" Everyone was startled. They turned and looked disdainfully at me bewildered that I would just shout like that for no apparent reason. Deep within me I felt an impending doom approaching the earth – like a catastrophic earthquake. It was so overwhelming I couldn't help but to cry out!

It subsided again. While I was struggling to regain my composure so I could hear what was being said, I turned around and looked 'through' the huge church doors and saw mayhem taking place just outside. People were screaming and running for cover as buildings and rocks were falling on them. Inside the church we were all sitting there just listening to announcements; it was very calm. Outside it was pandemonium. End

Interpretation:

Childhood church – is a familiar place. My pastors being in my childhood church was very odd because their styles (denominations) are so different. Like opposites being congruent.

Pastor(s) – I believe the pastor and the spiritual father represent the leadership of Christ – specifically that of a pastor and an apostle. There seems to be a powerful resonance that reverberates in the spirit realm when the anointing of a pastor and the anointing of an apostle come together. It is a strength and a force that causes things to move.

The Shaking – this may sound strange, but it seemed like I was actually the earth and the pastor and his spiritual father's voice was that of the Lord. Like the shaking going on in me is what happens in the earth at the sound of the Lord's voice – even when He speaks something simple. Please do not misunderstand that I think my leaders speak as God. It is only a type and a shadow I suggest here. The pastors in the dream are not perfect. Christ is perfect. No others are. The word also tells us "a person standing alone can be attacked and defeated, but two can stand back-to-back and conquer. Three are even better, for a triple-braided cord is not easily broken." Ecclesiastes 4:12 NLT The shaking that took place in me at the sound of their voices would seem to symbolize the pastoral, apostolic, and prophetic anointing that coming together creates. See Matthew 18:20.

An odd thing for me personally was that every time the shaking in me stopped, I longed to feel it again. It was frightening because of the magnitude of it; however, because it was a shaking I received from God, it was also euphoric. See Psalms 97:5 and 114:7

The People Inside – though the people looked at me the way they did when I cried out, it wasn't an unusual response to my outburst. One thing I have noticed in dreams – as in real life is that something that is out of the ordinary isn't usually met with open arms. Even though I had to suffer their disapproving glances, I was still safer with them inside than outside the church with the mayhem. This was also shown to be true in the dream at http://www.etpv.org/2005/cltb.html This would tell me that though we may disagree in the Body of Christ, we have protection with each other. It's the 'safety in numbers' idea. The 3rd dream confirms this too.

The People Outside – were in chaos because they were outside of the protection of the shed blood of Jesus. See Daniel 12:4; Revelation 6:14-17 and 9:4. They were open to sudden and complete destruction. The people inside Christ (not necessarily inside the church, but those IN CHRIST) were at peace. That peace is symbolic of the security we have when we are in Christ – who are seated with Him. All who call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved. Inside Christ there is peace. He is our Strong Tower that none can knock down. He is our Rock and our Fortress, our Shield, our Very Present Help in times of trouble! See Proverbs 18:2; Psalm 31:3; Psalm 46:1; Psalm 62; and Psalm 91.

The Rock

I walked into a restaurant to get a bite to eat. It was the type of place where you would order at the counter and then take your tray of food to a table. As I was walking through the line, I noticed a group of people all sitting together in the back right corner. It was like a separate area from the main dining room, but it was still open to the main dining room, there was no door separating them. The way they were sitting struck me as odd. They were not sitting facing each other like you would normally do in that scenario. They were all sitting facing the same direction and they were intently watching something. I thought there was a TV sitting on the floor or something like that that they were looking at. They were really into it. Not being the bashful type, I walked over by them to find out what they were doing. They were not looking at a TV at all, but were gazing at an upright slab of white granite. While they were attentively watching the rock, an earthquake hit. Everyone outside and in the restaurant were running around distraught, but this group stayed right where they were and didn't budge or even look up. Ceiling tiles were falling in the restaurant but not where this group was sitting. I became aware of this fact when a tile hit the side of my arm. It was the only part of me that was outside of the area where they were sitting. Everyone else in the restaurant was panicking and trying to run away, but they couldn't get away from the falling debris. They were so terror-stricken that they didn't even notice this group who were sitting completely unruffled and uninjured by what was going on around them. I moved in closer and stayed with this alert and vigilant group watching the rock. End

Interpretation:

The Restaurant and People – These would seem to be symbolic of 'the world' – common everyday life.

The Rock – What puzzled me when I woke up was that the granite slab looked like a tombstone or monument, but somehow I knew that wasn't right. It wasn't like this physical slab of rock was a god or idol. Then I realized it was a ROCK. It was THE ROCK– Jesus Christ! It was symbolic of Christ.

The People watching The Rock – Representative of the people in the Body of Christ who are really and truly focused on Him and on His direction. They stayed totally alert to The Rock. The peace they had made this apparent. They were unmoved, unshaken, and undistracted by what was occurring around them. They watched and waited and didn't react to the terror and hysteria. They were not shaken by those things that traumatized everyone else because they knew where their help came from.

My Arm – it is interesting that the only part of me outside of the shelter of the group got hit with a ceiling time. As soon as I moved it inside their area I was safe. This would signify the safety found in fellowship.

I do believe there is a hard 'shaking' coming. It could possibly be war inside the United States of America; possibly terrible earth movements, possibly life-changing shaking in the heavenlies. Maybe all of them. I truly don't know, I can only report what the Lord has shown me. I love the saying, "I don't know what the future holds, but I know Who holds my future." I believe we need to "Go and make disciples," as the Lord commanded in Matthew 28:18-20. He will clearly take care of us if we are focused on Him.

> *Psalms 46:1 God is our refuge and strength, A very present help in trouble. 2 Therefore we will not fear, Even though the earth be removed, And though the mountains be carried into the midst of the sea; 3 Though its waters roar and be troubled, Though the mountains shake with its swelling. Selah 4 There is a river whose streams shall make glad the city of God, The holy place of the tabernacle of the Most High. 5 God is in the midst of her, she shall not be moved; God shall help her, just at the break of dawn. 6 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved; He uttered His voice, the earth melted. 7 The Lord of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah 8 Come, behold the works of the Lord, Who has made desolations in the earth. 9 He makes wars cease to the end of the earth; He breaks the bow and cuts the spear in two; He burns the chariot in the fire. 10 Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth! 11 The Lord of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge. Violent Earthquake In Colorado

1 of 3 Earthquake Dreams
Rivermistlighthouse1@comcast.net

For the record, I have not been in an earthquake or lived in an active area where this has been a major threat.

In this dream I was walking with my brother along the Cache La Poudre River northwest of our hometown of Fort Collins, Colorado. Since neither of us has lived there for years, it would seem we were there visiting at the same time. We were fondly talking about his grown son, Tom. As we spoke I couldn't help but notice how beautiful the scenery was. The dry mountain air was cool and crisp. The sky was an exquisite deep blue, the trees were bright green, the river's water was clear, and the tall granite cliffs were brown and red in color. It was breathtaking and looked exactly as I remember Northwestern Colorado in the early summer. There were many vacationers by the river who were picnicking and enjoying the beautiful warm weather. As we talked I was looking at the river and it dawned on me that I had never seen so much water in it before.

Suddenly, and without warning, the earth began to tremble. I saw the mountains shake and felt the earth move beneath my feet. Prior to this I hadn't even noticed all the people enjoying the beautiful day. They hadn't caught my attention until the earthquake hit. I became fully aware of them because they began to scream and run wild when the trembling began. Even with all the screaming and chaos happening all around us, I was totally at peace. My brother looked at me as if to ask what we should do. I reassured him that we would be alright if we dodged the rocks as we saw them roll down the mountain. We turned our attention to the high mountain cliff that was set back away from the river's edge where we stood. What we saw shook us to the core. Unexpectedly, huge sections of the rock wall were being shaken loose from the steep rim, and the fractured cliff walls began to topple! They quickly began to make their trek down the mountain straight toward us. We realized that there was no possible way we could avoid so many of them, so we took off running as fast as we could uphill towards the closer mountain cliffs. We hoped that if we could tuck into an overhang, the rolling boulders would bounce over and around us. We were sprinting up the mountain towards a tall rock ledge, but I knew I was not going to make it. Seeing that it was my only choice, I headed for a smaller but closer ridge hoping I could find an overhang to shield me. I turned to see if my brother would make it. I yelled, "MIKE! I LOVE YOU!" He yelled back, "I LOVE YOU TOO!" I felt we both knew that this catastrophic event was going to separate us, but we also knew we weren't going to be separated forever.

I continued to run for cover when out of the blue a huge boulder bounced right in front of me. Much to my surprise there was a young man riding on top it! He had harnessed it and was riding it down the mountain! He wore colorful safety gear - a red and white striped helmet and knee pads. Somehow I jumped up onto the boulder as it flew by, and stood behind him and rode it too. End

Interpretation:

Brother
My brother seems symbolic of loved ones, and not only family, but brethren in Christ. Though we may get separated we have assurance that we are seated together in Christ Jesus. See Ephesians 2:6.

Conversation
Talking about his son would seem to point to blessing future generations. See Genesis 9:12-17 and Psalm 78:1-7.

The Scenery
I believe this river's name is significant. The name, "Cache La Poudre" is French for "Stash the Powder". There is a local story that says the river got its name when some French travelers hid some gun powder in the canyon one winter because it had gotten too heavy to carry over the mountains. 'Dunamis' is Greek for 'Power'. It is where we get the word, "dynamite." So this river may have been chosen by the Holy Spirit in this dream to reveal God's hidden power (stashed gun powder) at work. See Psalm 46 and 97. Though dynamite and gun powder have different chemical compounds, they are both have explosive qualities. The deep blue sky is symbolic to me for heavenly revelation from the Lord. When I see blue in a dream I know I need to pay attention. The bright green foliage is evidence of new life budding forth. God has given us, who believe in our hearts that Jesus is the Lord, to know the hidden mysteries of His kingdom. The fact that it was early summer I think is significant. I believe the Lord is granting us a growing season like no other. It is a time for planting the Word into those around us who are lost. The brown and red rock seems to point to humanity* in need of *salvation. The river being fuller than I had seen it would point to the fullness of God's Living Water being poured out on the earth before His return. Clear water is common for Rocky Mountain rivers, but it is somewhat unusual to be so clear during heavy runoff. That would suggest that the runoff was consistent and maybe had been occurring for some time. This may be the flow of the prophetic. The clear fast moving water would seem symbolic of Jesus, The Living Water. The testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy. See Revelation 19:10 and John 4:10-14. God's word is CLEAR to us that His blood is what cleanses us from sin and all unrighteousness. The earthquake itself is both symbolic of the shaking going on in the earth both spiritual and physical. It is also prophetic of things to come. The Lord reveals this a number of times in the Gospels and the Revelation of John.

For a photo of Poudre Canyon you can click on http://www.ftcollins.com/Photos/Poudresnow.htm but it isn't exactly how I saw it in the dream. The rocks were further back from the river. It was a wide valley and there were more cliffs further up. There was no snow. However, it does give you an idea of the severity of the rocks coming down.

The Man on the Boulder

The "youthfulness" of the man standing on the boulder wasn't necessarily representative of his age. It may have been, but it seemed to point more toward his ability, agility and creative technique of leading. To me this symbolizes his ability to stand on The ROCK – Christ Jesus in times of crisis and to lead others to do the same. He was using what could have caused him destruction to keep from being destroyed. He harnessed the power of this cataclysmic event and rode it out. His youthfulness may have very well have been the anointing of the upcoming generation of men and women who are creative in there walk with the Lord and their willingness to give it all and to never bow to the enemy. See Daniel 3. His safety helmet was red and white which seem to be colors symbolic of salvation (the blood of the Lamb) and purity. Red also symbolizes fire – he would represent one who is zealous for the things of God. His knee pads would suggest he spends a lot of time on his knees in prayer. He wasn't controlling the boulder but was holding onto it with the reigns. This indicated that he reigns with Christ, the Rock of our salvation. I also got the impression that this man, who represents true leadership in Christ, is of the same spirit of the man in a different dream that saved a child from a mangy lion. This dream and its interpretation are found at http://www.etpv.org/2005/cltb.html .

This dream also reminds me of how eagles mount up on the thermal winds that approach before a storm, and uses that energy to soar above the storm until it has passed. It USES the destructive force of the storm to take it higher! Also see what Joseph said in Genesis 50:20 for another application.

Visions of Coming Calamities

Roxanne Brant

God has given me two visions in the past eight years that have changed my life and ministry. In these two visions, He has shown me events to come that will affect the lives of every man, woman and child in this nation, … as well as throughout the world.

Jesus said to me, “..My people need to be informed and prepared for the difficult times ahead,…I want My people to not only be informed, but to seriously and diligently devote themselves to the building up their faith and to seeking My guidance in every detail of their lives,… Some of the things which I have shown you have already come to pass, and it has taken some time for even these things to occur. In the same manner, the rest of the vision will come to pass, but it will take time for it to occur. I will bring all of the things which I have shown you to pass in THIS generation. … By My Spirit, I have shown you things to come that My people might be prepared. I want My people to be one step ahead of everything that will occur. … Tell My people that I will provide protection in danger, food in famine and faith in persecution. I will be true to My words and My Covenant with them. I will keep them in the coming difficult times and My hand shall be upon them in special ways, but they must do their part to seek Me and to cooperate with My Spirit by diligently nourishing themselves with My Word, building up their faith and seeking My guidance in every detail of their lives.”

The first vision came in Oct. '72, giving 14 months for 4 judgments. This has been fulfilled. The second vision came in Sept. '73, regarding which Roxanne says in My Vision:

“…About two weeks prior to the vision, God, moving in a very miraculous and powerful way, had commanded me to buy several acres of land in northern Florida. I went ahead and bought the land, but because I was so amazed at the strength and power behind His command, I asked Him, ‘Lord, why is that land so important to You? Why would You make us move from beautiful Naples up to the northern part of Florida?” He answered me more fully and powerfully than I could have anticipated--in a vision form.

Late one afternoon in early September I was relaxing after a hard day’s work, thinking about business details, when the Holy Spirit came upon me and opened my eyes to see what was to come in these next few years. First, I saw a very clear picture of Florida. The southern two-thirds of the state was baked dry in the sun and in a state of severe drought. But I saw clouds filled with rain move down and gently drop their moisture over the northeast corner of Florida, exactly in the location where I had bought the land. Then, I sensed that something awesome was about to happen to the southern half of Florida, and as I shifted my gaze southward, the most eerie and incredible thing I have ever witnessed then occurred. The ocean, like a giant monster rose silently and calmly and began to move across the land. It moved miles inland, flooding everything in its path. Later when it moved back, the drought continued and the sun baked the ocean salt into the land. I knew the area where I bought land in northern Florida would be protected and watered by God, and certain areas where God led other Christians to buy land and farm would also be protected. But most of the country and world would be under the supernatural siege of God with ever increasing and worsening droughts, flooding, earthquakes, storms, tornadoes, hurricanes, pestilence, etc. I knew that because of these natural judgments of God that many crops would fail and millions of people in different places of the United States and the world would be starving. It is not a pretty picture and is therefore very difficult for me to talk about, but I saw millions of people starving and trying to find edible roots and grasses to eat. I saw presidents of corporations reduced to nothing except their homes and the food in their cupboards. One man was trying to warm watery soup for his family on a fire in his backyard.

It seemed to me that many houses were very dark and cold which would signify that somehow there was a shortage of electricity and heat. Money was not much more valuable than paper. The only things worth having were land, food, seed, wood for fuel, a home that was not mortgaged, farming tools and machinery, and certain everyday products which were no longer available. Many people simply left their jobs and tried to grow enough food to live on. Many of our largest and most trusted corporations went bankrupt. Many valuable machines were setting idle because they lacked the one necessary part to fix them. Many people who were living beyond their means and who had mortgages on their homes were turned out into the streets. Insolvable problems presented themselves in every area, in politics, as well as economics and weather. There were so many quick changes, that by the time we had heard of one change, another change had already occurred. The church became heavily taxed and many of its activities were curbed by the government. Much persecution broke out against Christians who preached the gospel and witnessed. But in the midst of all these calamities, the (true) church of Jesus Christ waxed valiant and became stronger than ever…millions were swept into the kingdom.

So, in short, it would be good to begin to set our houses in order and prepare ourselves inwardly for His coming, and outwardly for the events that are coming. None of these will come upon us suddenly, but we can see the beginnings of everything I have mentioned already. These problems will just increase and cause some people to begin to seek God, for they will realize there is no other answer…

Whatever you do, DON'T RUN AHEAD OF GOD! Just use this as an incentive to spend more time with Him, praying and reading your Bible, and waiting upon Him so that HE CAN SPEAK TO YOU…

Norm & Kathleen Rasmussen - Summer of 2000

I have had but two visions in my lifetime. The first came to me in 1958, when a vision of God took me from a little town in Pennsylvania to New York City to work with teen gangs and drug addicts. That was not a false vision. [The beginning of Teen Challenge, insertion mine]. Now, years later, its reality is shown by the youth centers spread all around the world. Gangs and addicts have not only been converted, but many are even preaching the gospel as ministers and missionaries.

A second vision came to me this summer (1973). It is a vision of five tragic calamities coming upon the earth. I saw no blinding lights, I heard no audible voices, nor did I hear from an angel. While I was in prayer late one night, these visions of world calamities came over me with such impact that I could do nothing but kneel, transfixed, and take it all in.

At first I did not want to believe what I saw and heard. The message of the vision was too frightening, too apocalyptic, too discomforting to my materialist mind. But the vision came back to me, night after night. I couldn't shake it off. Deep in my heart I am convinced that this vision is from God, that it is true, and that it will come to pass.

Who wants to listen to a message of economic confusion in a time of great affluence? Who wants to be told judgment is coming when so many can't even cope with life as it is? Who will ever believe that the religious freedom we now enjoy will soon be threatened and that a Jesus revolution will turn into a Jesus revulsion movement?

Parts of this vision will come to pass in the very near future. Some of the events are more distant. But I believe all the events mentioned will happen in this generation!

Chapter 1 then begins addressing the first of the "five calamities." For sake of space, I'm only going to share certain key sentences to give you a "taste" of this book. The first sentence of Chapter 1 starts out with:

There is worldwide economic confusion just ahead. In my vision, this is the clearest thing I have seen. Not only is the American dollar headed for deep trouble, but so are all other world currencies. It is not really a depression I see coming – but a recession of such magnitude that it will affect the lifestyle of nearly every wage earner in America and around the world. Countries that now control huge amounts of Western currency are going to be in very deep trouble also. Arab countries will especially be hurt. The world's greatest economists will be at a loss to explain the confusion, and an international crisis of fear will develop.

I believe we are going to witness the bankruptcies of some of this nation’s major and most popular corporations. I see tremendous difficulty arising for credit corporations. There are going to be many people unable to pay off their heavy obligations to major credit card companies, causing near-chaos. Thousands of small businesses will also be forced into bankruptcies. Three, and possibly four of the major religious denominations will be forced to operate with a skeleton organization due to a lack of funds. More than a few churches are going to go bankrupt and a number of independent missionary societies and church organizations are going to have to pull back. All but a few of the radio and television ministries will have to be abandoned. Tight money will trigger a wave of uncertainty and fear. Those who have money will hold it in reserve.

The United States government is going to “overreact” to the confused economical developments. I see a flurry of near-panic decisions being made by various government agencies – but these hasty efforts to shore up the economy will backfire. Almost every economic indicator will be gloomy. It will be spotty at first, but will eventually affect nearly all industry.

It is not a time to go into debt. It is a time to prepare, a time to get clear and out from under heavy financial burdens.

Gold prices are soaring, but those who are investing in this commodity, hoping to find security, are in for a tragic surprise. The price of gold is going to rise astronomically, but it will not be sustained over a long period of time. Silver will also become a very precious metal, and its price will go wild. But neither silver nor gold will offer real security. The fluctuation and uncertain value of gold and silver will be a part of the total picture of economic confusion that grips the world.

Believe it or not – even gold will not hold its value. Gold hoarders are going to get hurt – badly. This is one of the most significant predictions in this book.

There will develop a call for revamping all world monetary systems into one uniform system. And even though the dollar will appear to be gaining strength just before the coming major recession, a new crisis will develop that will shake the entire financial world. . . .

Some kind of a world credit system will develop and nations will be able to utilize blocks of credit. Although a universal money system may be far off in the future, a world credit system between nations will soon develop, setting the framework for the future world monetary and trade system.

Be prepared to hear of world trade agreements “policed” by an international governing committee. Strict guidelines for international trade will develop and a “world market” will be closely monitored by big power interests.

To put it plainly – we will soon witness the development of a world trade policy, supervised by a super secretary invested with unprecedented powers by all nations involved in international trade.

I seem to see a picture of a partial and almost complete recovery from the coming recession – but the world economy will continue in confusion until the time of the Antichrist. From this day on, there will hang over the entire world a sense of fear and uncertainty about future economic conditions. Never again in the history of the world will there be a time of complete confidence and trust in world economies.

Elane Durham's Death-and-Back Vision of Coming Calamities and Triumph

The following account is taken from Elane's book, "I Stand All Amazed: Love and Healing from Higher Realms." Elane was clinically dead for an hour and was being prepped for the morgue when she came back from the dead. Meanwhile she was given a tour of heaven as well as a vision of what could happen on this planet given our current course.

A Changed North America

As the angel pointed in front of me a wide view of land and water opened up, so that at first I thought I was seeing two countries. Instantly it was made known to me that I was looking at a vastly changed portion of North America, which was completely divided by a large body of water, and which had lost a large part of both eastern and western shorelines. As I saw this I was given a total understanding of the natural and man-made disasters that would need to occur to make these changes, and I was informed that these might or might not come to pass according to our choices as a people -- according to my choices as an individual.

Great Destruction

In this scenario icebergs and polar icecaps were melting. Earthquakes had occurred and there had been hurricanes and fierce storms -- the whole country had been ravaged by these things. I could also see massive fires burning here and there -- not so much the flames as the smoke that was ascending toward me -- as huge areas of the country seemed to be burning or burned. There were also explosions in some areas, sort of like sheet lightning in a dark sky, that were doing great damage.

Where Washington and Oregon had been there were mostly islands, the water coming inland over most of California and Arizona and parts of Utah and Nevada. Yet there were also islands there, massive ones, so it wasn't like it was all ocean....

On the East Coast I saw that much of the eastern seaboard was gone, though the water did not come so far inland as it did on the West Coast. I was also aware that the southern half of Florida was under water.

I don't remember seeing anything like Central America or South America, for water surrounded what I was seeing, and I didn't really focus on what was beyond that water. Yet at the same time, I had the understanding that the waters had risen around the entire earth, and that everything had changed to one degree or another.

Two Separate Countries

The area of water in the middle of . . . the United States was massive, and was widest or most extensive in the north. There were no Great Lakes as I had known them, for all of them had come together into this huge sea that extended northeastward into the ocean. The inland sea also extended southward, filling most of the Mississippi an Missouri River valleys and widening by many, many miles the Mississippi River where it flows into what we know as the Gulf of Mexico. This sea was so vast that I knew it could not be bridged, and so in essence the United States had become as two separate countries.

A New Seat of Power

I was also aware that the seat of power, or patriotism, had moved away from Washington, D.C. There was so much turmoil and warfare on the eastern side of this body of water that no authority really existed there. I understood then that in the scenario I was being shown our country had come to the very edge of destruction -- to the brink of losing everything, because myself and hosts of others like me had chosen to seek worldly things rather than loving or serving others.

Additionally, we had refused to care for our precious natural resources. Because of our greed and selfishness our national government had lost most of its power, and could no longer completely govern or control. National laws were ignored, and there was no true nationwide governmental infrastructure left. What government there was seemed to be territorial, sort of like large tribes or groups of people who had banded together.

And I saw that because of the ramifications of these day-to-day choices the people, especially on the eastern side of this new body of water, lived in great danger and fear. There was tremendous anarchy and crime -- sort of like the Los Angeles riots spread nationwide. And the normal citizens kept themselves hidden away from all this, barricading themselves into their homes or wherever they had gathered together for security. Many children didn't go to school; commerce as we know it had pretty much ceased; many people were starving to death; there was terrible violence from people who seemed like roving gangs -- it was just an awful scene of confusion and turmoil.

Yet in this scenario there was less of that turmoil on the western portion of our country. There was even a certain amount of prosperity, and it was there that I could see the new seat of power, if that is what it could be called. This area, or city or whatever, while on the eastern edge or shore line of the western portion of land, was located in almost the exact center of the combination of both halves of the country. Later when I looked at a map of the United States, I realized that it would have been very near present-day Kansas City.

From this location I could see power radiating outward, almost like light flowing out to strengthen and stabilize other areas. This power was what I called patriotism or strong moral character or spirituality -- a true spiritual force that was the only real governing power over the whole land. This is why I called that area the seat of power.

But I must state this power was totally spiritual -- a true power of spirit such as the angel beside me was exhibiting, or that I had felt emanating from Christ while I had been in His presence.

The Native Americans

I also sensed that some of the Indians -- the Native Americans -- were partially responsible for the peacefulness that was on the western side of this water. Some of these Native American peoples had a knowledge of how to live from the land, or how to be in harmony with it so it would bring forth in abundance according to their needs. They were teaching this spiritual knowledge to the people around them, and all the people were starting to learn to live in harmony with each other. At the same time they were beginning again to prosper by becoming harmonious with nature, or the natural elements upon which they depended.

Vineyards

Tim Cook.

http://www.ourchurch.com/member/i/inspiredlight/

One of my most vivid dreams is of me lying drunk in a vineyard – as I look up I see that the grapes are massive – the size of plums. Also – I noticed large wasps about a foot long moving around the vines. Because they seemed as drowsy as me I didn't really fear them. Jesus stood and called to me from the path.

Recently I went into vision. I sat down tentatively at a table – opposite Jesus. I was nervous and unsure in the vision because of my recent wanderings and struggles. I felt grimy and, soiled and weary from the world. It was a white, outdoor kind of table. Jesus had black hair worn down to his collar, and a well-trimmed beard. When He smiled, His teeth were very white. There was a bottle of blood-red wine, and some of the wine was in a sparkling cut crystal glass on the table. Jesus smiled and raised the glass in welcome.

"Lord, what is the new wine, and the vineyards I have seen? The new wine will flow from intimacy with Me – and the deeper and longer that communion – the greater the quality of the wine. It is the new level of teaching and healing and ministry that is exactly what the present Church needs to be nourished. It is both My new teaching, and old teachings shared in a new way, and new teachings that will turn out to have been hidden in the Scriptures all along.""

He showed me the fields of vineyards – and some were quite vast – spread over gently rolling hillsides. I could see people harvesting the grapes and working (meditating) amongst the vines. Some vineyards were enclosed by walls. He showed me a room where it seemed the wine was made and stored in large vats and barrels.

"And the wasps, Lord? The walls and the wasps guard some of the higher vineyards – but I can put the wasps to sleep." I could imagine them swarming angrily around an intruder, and I had many more questions, but felt that this was not the time. "You see people picking, or soaking in, the grapes – some of these ministries you know on earth, or you are destined to meet. Some of the vineyards are prepared for certain times or certain people. The vines respond to the needs, the thirst or the wounds that they perceive on earth. Heaven produces exactly the wine that is needed for a given year or a given people group. Heaven then calls forth workers to pick the grapes, and soak in the wine, and pour it out to the Church. Some of the higher vineyards have a cost, and a calling, and a key, and the guardians – also timing is important, and the right preparation. But I need workers to work with Heaven – and to be teachers, or prophets or intercessors to the Church – and to be totally in step with the Holy Spirit – and release My Word in the right time."

"This particular vintage …" He thoughtfully swirled the wine around the glass and watched it sparkle in the sun, "…has been prepared for just this day and this generation. It is for those men in My Church who are addicted to pornography – and there are more than you might think." When He told me how many men were ensnared, and how many were likely to die in their sins I exclaimed, "Lord this is really bad, we must bring these numbers down somehow and set my brothers free! My sons need Me. When they bring their pain to the Cross and soak in My blood – with a genuine desire to be set free – this wine will be brought to them. They will become aware of the devices, the cages and the entrapments of Jezebel and Satan around their lives. They will see how she is draining their life-force, feeding poison into their stomachs, and pouring acid onto their eyes and mind. And then we shall dissolve all these things, and wash them in the Blood, and cleanse them with water so that the Jezebelic spirits fall away. Then they will look on Me with clean eyes, and on their wives with the fresh desire of innocence. And they will come to me and wait for Me to bring them their future partners. But they can't drink both my wine and hers, because each produces a hatred and distaste for the other."

“Galatians 5:16 – Live by the Spirit and you will not gratify the desires of the sinful nature. Rev. 2:22 – those who commit adultery with Jezebel will suffer intensely. Amen. I’m afraid there is no other way. My grace for this hour is to call my people to run to Me and cry on My shoulder – even when they’ve sinned. Then we shall heal them up – and move on to inherit the Kingdom of God – leaving behind the past. I have given you a particular burden for the single, the divorced, and those approaching divorce, those in loneliness. Many of those who share my Throne will have been broken in such ways. Theirs is a particular cross, and for them is a particular comfort.”

“Lord I want to please You with every thing I do and say.” He looked at me gravely, and said gently, “Well, we’ll work on that.” And I began to get up to leave, muttering, “I shouldn’t be here.” He put His hand on mine. “Don’t go, please – I miss you Tim.” As usual He was beginning to bring my tears. “Look, I’ve waited about 6000 years for you to reach this stage, and I miss all of My children who wander in places far from Me. Jesus – that’s billions of people – how can you bear the pain?” He smiled, “It’s not your problem – but mostly I see what they shall become when eventually they bow the knee.”

I had my head in my arms and was groaning, but Jesus had a robe of adoption and sonship draped over my shoulders, and was pouring the wine and oil of His presence over my soul. “Jesus – I feel that I am burning with the sins of my nation. True intercession is to identify completely with the sufferings of your people – and to bear this before the Throne – and be at peace – just being with Me like this means you are before the Throne. I carry My authority with Me wherever I go. There are also times when you will intercede before the Father. As to your pain – the mantle of Jezebel is made of acid, and her wine is poison. Having brought the needs of your people up to Me – I then send you back with My answer, My resources, My healing, My river. What you are doing has everything to do with guarding your nation’s heart and restoring its river of purity.”

He was standing next to me and blessing me. “This is the wine of Unity. It will bring unity within your own soul, and you will feel My love for your friends and enemies, and for strangers. Your inner wounds will heal. You will cease to be afraid of Me (smile …) I will make you like Me.” And He allowed the beautiful double meaning here to sink in for a while. “Jesus I want everything I say and do to be directly from your Mind. I appreciate your prayer … and I will form My character in you – but I don’t desire clones. I mean that I will not remove your individuality – your own words will be redeemed – but they will be yours – your own – part of the varied creativity that the Father has created on the earth. Other times you will indeed prophesy My very words.”

He was sitting again – looking at the wine, and at me. I sat under the healing of His presence, amid the wonderful aroma of His vineyards, listening to the distant murmur of the workers. And new life was rising in me – a fresh hope. I looked at Him, “I know this feeling … Your about to do something!” He stood abruptly with a laugh – drank the glass of wine - and grabbed my arm. “But why would You drink …?” But His eyes just sparkled at me – and He enthusiastically pulled me forward to new realms. “Come My friend – we have work to do!”

Volcanoes in New Zealand

I had the following picture in March 2005, but held off sharing wanting to pray more into it. Today I have just read the prophecy by Timothy Snodgrass of Oregon USA who speaks of his forthcoming Intercessory trip in the South Pacific and talks about similar seismic activity. His prophecy is noted on www.Elijah1.com

This is the picture I had:
It started with a feeling of a volcano erupting in New Zealand. The feeling did not go away, rather it increased and I believed it would be something that would be happening in the natural rather than a spiritual metaphor.

I saw a picture of a crocodile with it's cone shaped knobby body. Each cone shape represented a volcano and the crocodile represented New Zealand. I was left with a sense of which part of it's body would it lift and where would the volcano erupt?

The scripture II Chon 7:14 kept running through my mind "If my people who are called by my name will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land"

I believe as Intercessors it is a time to come before God in confession and repentance on behalf of our land and our government and whatever way God would lead us.

“But when a righteous man turns away from his righteousness and commits iniquity [sin], and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? All the righteousness which he has done shall not be remembered; because of the unfaithfulness of which he is guilty and the sin which he has committed, because of them he shall die.

“When a righteous man turns away from his righteousness, commits iniquity,
AND DIES IN IT, it is because of the iniquity which he has done that he dies.”

DREAM — March 3, 1999

I was in a large dark dungeon with light streaming down from a large rectangular window with bars that was close to the ceiling, which was about thirty feet high. A large clothes rack approximately twelve feet long stood in the center of the dungeon. The rack was filled with long white robes. I walked around the clothes rack, carefully inspecting the robes up close. They appeared to be fresh and clean. When I finished my full circle inspection, on the bright side of the clothes rack I now saw large black water roaches of about one and a half inch in length quickly crawling in and out of some of the clean white robes’ fabric folds. They apparently were trying to hide from the bright overhead light streaming down on the clothes rack. It was a disgusting and nauseating sight to see!

Curiously, I now looked at the wall leading up to the window and saw the same type of black roaches crawling half way up the wall toward the window.

Next, I instantly found myself suspended close to the ceiling. I was a few feet away from the window. I could see the black roaches continue to crawl up the wall toward the window. As they reached and attempted to crawl onto the window ledge, unexplainably they were struck off the ledge. They immediately fell back onto the dungeon ground. However, other black roaches continued climbing the wall.

I looked down at the clothes rack and observed an increasing number of black roaches crawling in and out of many of the robes. END

INTERPRETATION

The dungeon represents the imprisoned world of sin and darkness. The white robes represent the Church of Jesus Christ of Nazareth in the midst of the dark corrupt world. At first glance, they all appeared clean. However, upon a closer look it became startling obvious that some of the robes were polluted with vermin: sin.

[Definition: VERMIN Noxious or objectionable animals collectively, especially those of small size that appear commonly and are difficult to control such as flies, lice, cockroaches, and rats. — Source: Webster’s University College Dictionary]
~~~~~~~~~~

The color “black” symbolizes sin. The black roaches symbolize sin in the hearts of those Saints known to Lord Jesus which is SO transparent in many of the Saints’ deeds as well as their carnal behavior, manner of dress, the company they keep, and their worldly life styles among other things. Their compromising life styles with the world's standards and protocols are crucifying Lord Jesus all over again. (Please STUDY the following scripture.)

>> For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted the heavenly gift [of Eternal Life Jn. 3:16, 17], and have become partakers of the Holy Spirit [Mt. 3:11] and have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come, if they fall away, to renew them [gift of Eternal Life, baptism of the Holy Spirit, and knowledge of God's Word] again to repentance, seeing they CRUCIFY AGAIN for themselves THE SON OF GOD and put Him to an open shame (Heb. 4:4-6).
~~~~~~~~

The black roaches crawling up the dark wall symbolize the ongoing parade of many of the Saints' sinful lives before Lord Jesus, as symbolized by the Light coming through the window. Sin cannot stand or dwell in His presence, NOR will He dwell in polluted hearts. Throughout the Word it is declared that SIN DOES NOT GLORIFY GOD. Sin condemns one's soul to hell. GOD'S WORD IS TRUTH. (Jn. 17:17) To continue living in sin mocks God's grace as declared in the Word of God.

>> "I AM THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD. He who follows Me shall not walk in darkness, but have the LIGHT OF LIFE" (Jn. 8:12).

>> "And this is the condemnation, that light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than light, because their deeds were evil. For everyone who does evil hates the light, and does not come to the light, lest his deeds should be exposed. But he who does the truth comes to the light, that his deeds may be clearly seen, that they are done in God" (Jn. 3:19-21).

>> Do not be deceived, GOD IS NOT MOCKED, for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the [Holy} Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life. And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not loseheart (Gal. 6:7-9).

Through the world Satan tempts the Church and seeks to mock Lord Jesus. However, he is no longer able to enter into His presence to accuse the Saints because of Lord Jesus' glorious redemptive works at Calvary and the shedding of His Blood that conquered and triumphed over Satan, sin, death, the grave, and Hell. However, the enemy never sleeps, and goes around like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. (1Pet. 5:8)

>> Inasmuch then as the children [Saints of God] have partaken of flesh and blood, He Himself likewise shared in the same, that THROUGH DEATH HE MIGHT DESTROY HIM WHO HAD THE POWER OF DEATH, THAT IS, THE DEVIL, and release [set free] those who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage [sin]. … Therefore, in all things He had to be made like His brethren [like man], that He might be a merciful and faithful High Priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. For in that He Himself has suffered, being tempted, He is able to aid those who are tempted (Heb. 2:14, 15, 17, 18).

>> Whoever commits sin also commits lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. And you know that He was manifested to take away our sins, and in Him there is no sin. Whoever abides in Him does not sin. Whoever sins has neither seen Him nor known Him. Little children [Saints of God], let no one deceive you. He who practices righteousness is righteous, just as He is righteous. He who sins

[unrighteousness] is of the devil, for the devil has sinned from the beginning. FOR THIS PURPOSE THE SON OF GOD WAS MANIFESTED [sent into the world]*, THAT HE MIGHT DESTROY THE WORKS OF THE DEVIL. Whoever has been born of God [Jn. 3:3-7] does not sin, for His seed [Word of God Mat. 13:3-8] remains in him; and he cannot sin, because he has been born of God (1Jn. 3:4-9).

>> If we say that we have fellowship with Him, and walk in darkness, we lie and do not practice the truth. But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and THE BLOOD OF JESUS CHRIST HIS SON CLEANSES US FROM ALL SIN*. If we say that we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us.* IF WE CONFESS OUR SINS, HE IS FAITHFUL AND JUST TO FORGIVE US OUR SINS AND TO CLEANSE US FROM ALL UNRIGHTEOUSNESS. If we say that we have not sinned, we make Him a liar, and His word is not in us (1Jn. 1:6-10)

>> Through the Lord's mercies we are not consumed, because His compassions fail not. They [mercies] are new every morning: great is Your faithfulness (Lam. 3:22, 23).

>> "I am the door. IF ANYONE ENTERS BY ME, HE WILL BE SAVED, and will go in and out and find pasture. The thief [Satan] does not come except to steal, and to kill, and to destroy. I HAVE COME THAT [YOU] MIGHT HAVE LIFE, AND THAT [YOU] MAY HAVE IT MORE ABUNDANTLY. I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd gives His life for the sheep. … My sheep hear My voice, and I KNOW THEM, and they follow Me. AND I GIVE THEM ETERNAL LIFE, AND THEY SHALL NEVER PERISH*; neither shall anyone snatch them out of My hand. My Father, who has given them to Me, is greater than all; and no one is able to snatch them out of My Father's hand.* I and My Father are one*"* (Jn. 10:9-11, 27-30).

Vision Of A Higher Place

Judith Grobelny

I can feel the raw newness of what is ahead. It is raw, fresh, and edgy in a way we haven't felt for quite some time. It looks like bush/forest, wet from rain, when the sun comes out. You know it is beautiful but not comfortable. It is beautiful but still being viewed from a distance and not yet engaged.

I see the eagle swooping and dipping in the clear blue sky above all of this, seeing it's surface but not knowing what is hidden below the shining, glittering, surface. No space to land has appeared.

As the eagle swoops over the forest, many smaller birds begin to emerge and also fly around above the trees, as if they are being awakened to their ability to do so. Their numbers increase until there is much activity. "Cannot see the wood for the trees" comes to mind.

It seems something new has begun but it is not visible in the midst of our current life and circumstances. I see a very strong prophetic call being released to call people up higher. As they rise to this call and seek all that heaven offers them, they will move into a clear space and begin to see and move in the purposes of God in a fresh and new way. There is a clear distinction here – the call is to the purposes of God, not of man and this will not be found by man's direction, but by the leading of the Holy Spirit.

I felt to read Psalm 139 and is seems to give good direction for this journey which is INTO the Lord.

As I watch the flying eagle, smaller birds, and glistening treetops, the sun appears to shine continually brighter, and the sky becomes filled with golden light.

The scripture that seemed to cover what I was looking at is found in Ezekiel 43 v 2:
…and I saw the glory of the God of Israel coming from the east. His voice was like the roar of rushing waters, and the land was radiant with His glory.

There are many who are feeling the tug and pull of change right now, circumstances radically altered. I believe the Lord is beginning to do His building, and calling those who will come, wait on Him, and serve Him out of a place of His rest.

Vision Of California
Timothy Snodgrass

Last night I found myself in the Spirit walking in a residential area located among green hills somewhere in the state of California, and saw a change in the atmosphere take place in the region. As I was walking down the street in one area lined with a row of very expensive homes, the air was suddenly charged with the presence of the Holy Spirit. Cars were pulling up into parking lots, picking up people and escorting them to revival meetings which were taking place outside in open air meetings, because there was not enough room in the church. Many of the doors of the homes were unlocked, because crime had disappeared from the region as the anointing descended; everyone who entered the area knew that they were standing on holy ground and that angels were gathering over the area like a cloud of fire. End of dream.

Please intercede for our upcoming assignment to the United States between 7/7 - 7/30. We believe that not only is the veil of darkness about to be rent over California, but over many areas in America. Just as the epicenter of the recent 7.2 quake in California was centered west of Eureka (representing gold), we believe that in the midst of all these shakings God is about to release Spiritual Gold to America. Some of the targets of our upcoming trip to the US include: California, Alaska, Minnesota, Texas, Florida, etc. Meetings have been scheduled in only about half f the cities we will be visiting, and each point of contact is scheduled solely in obedience to the Holy Spirit, to intercede for revival and an open heaven, especially areas that are at high risk of judgment. Please join with us in interceding for America this summer and fall, that rivers of mercy would be released to the United States, and that the enemy's plans for this nation would be canceled. Pray for President Bush and the Congress this summer and fall, especially concerning matters involving the creation of a Palestinian State within Israel. We still have need of backing for this US mission, including the immediate need of provision for an international airline ticket from Manila to Los Angeles. We also have need of support during the intercessory journey across America (for motel rooms, transportation and so forth). Often during trips to the US our ministry income shuts down for that month, whereas people think we bring in a lot of money in meetings and don't need anything, when actually just the opposite is true. For many of the destinations we travel to NO meetings are scheduled, whereas we do not choose to travel to intercede for a city based upon money or meetings, but based upon obedience to the Holy Spirit. Please agree with us in prayer for a release of revival, healing, deliverance and mercy across the great cities of America in 2005. Blessings,

Prayer Alert
Timothy Snodgrass

06/26/05 PRAYER ALERT

Received a disturbing dream last night of security breach which took place in a major U.S. airport. I would recommend immediate prayer and administrative action to avoid the below scenario. What was disturbing about the dream was that the security breach took place within a security enforcement agency itself, and that three individuals, because of their uniforms (which were valid), were allowed to pass onto the airfield towards an aircraft being loaded. They were carrying an explosive device, perhaps 25 pounds in weight, which they intended to put on the plane. The reason these type of prophetic warnings are given, 99% of the time, is so that the Body of Christ can intercede, and the event be averted. Continue to pray that airlines would have a record safe year in 2005, and that all plans of the enemy would be exposed.

Blessings,

Shakings To Release Spiritual Gold

Recently while traveling through Auckland, New Zealand, I was shown a vision of an angel descending into the bowels of the earth into key fault lines and volcanic chambers in the South Pacific, working in behalf of the saints in Polynesia and the islands of the sea who have been in prayer and fasting, to stabilize and minimize seismic events in this region for the sake of the elect. Although large earthquakes are coming to this part of the world, angels are working behind the scenes to minimize magnitudes, tsunami and the affects of these events during the latter half of 2005. Earlier this year, we were shown that without angelic intervention, the South Pacific was due for a major seismic event which would produce tsunami in excess of 100 feet, affecting cities as far away as Seattle and Los Angeles. Does this mean that the U.S. West Coast is off the hook in 2005, and does not need to worry about tsunami or major seismic events in the latter half of this year? Unfortunately, I do not believe that is the case, and much intercession is needed for key areas along the U.S. West Coast between now and December.

As the veil of darkness is rent over various parts of America, there will be large earthquakes in various places; however, as the U.S. places herself in a lead position among nations in pressuring Israel to concede covenant land promised to her by God, she puts her own land at high risk of major setbacks. We have foreseen earthquakes in Alaska and the Aleutian Islands region in the 9.0-range, and earthquakes south of Alaska in the 7.0 to 8.0 range along the U.S. and Canadian West Coast during the latter half of 2005, unless there is angelic intervention. On the morning of June 15, I was shown a vision of Jesus with his feet standing above California, and the figure 8 was strongly impressed upon my mind. Although I am not certain whether this '8' represents a magnitude or a month (August), it is notable that within only a matter of hours after the vision a 7.2 quake shook Northern California, preceded by a 6.8 quake in the Aleutian Islands west of Alaska. Interestingly, the time of the California 7.2 quake was almost identical to the time of the October 16th Joshua Tree quake in 1999 – that is, only minutes before 3:00am. Most of our readers will recall my personal account of the 1999 quake, which occurred 7 hours after my plane arrived in Los Angeles from Manila. Exhausted from the flight, I fell asleep on the floor and was awakened only minutes before 3:00am by 3 angels which were standing over me, silently looking down at me. Thinking that perhaps it was a dream, I threw the covers over my face and tried to fall back asleep, when suddenly the room began to violently shake. Alarmed, I quickly jolted to my feet. The three angels had vanished, and our apartment was rocking back and forth as if we were standing in a boat being lashed by giant waves in the middle of the sea. It was definitely the most powerful earthquake I have ever experienced. When comparing the 7.2 quake of 10/16/99 to the 7.2 quake of 06/15/05, you will notice some very interesting similarities: both California quakes occurred at the same time (minutes before 3:00am), both were the same magnitude (7.2), and both were prophetic warnings of greater events yet to come.

When shall these greater events come to the U.S. West Coast? Since the early 1930's, prophets have been warning of a cataclysmic Alaska quake which would precede the Lords return, and have also warned of other large quakes south of Alaska. Over the last century, the United States has been extremely blessed as one cataclysmic seismic event has been averted after another, again and again by angelic forces in direct answer to prayer. However, we are entering into a very dangerous era as the United States continues to pressure Israel to give up covenant territories restored to her during the 1967 Six Day War. Israel did not start this war, but she finished it after she was mercilessly attacked by her enemies on every side without provocation. Six days later, Jerusalem and the Temple Mount were restored to Israel as a fulfillment of biblical prophecy. Today, almost 40 years later, it has become a 'politically correct' thing to jump on the band wagon and endorse the creation of a Palestinian State within God's covenant land, but certainly not 'biblically correct', and anyone who tries to divide this land will eventually have their own land divided. If you read the prophetic warning we published in our November, 2004 report (scroll down for transcript) – one month prior to the great Indonesia quake and tsunami – embedded in that prophecy is a strong warning to the United States if she continues on her current path with the Middle East 'Roadmap' to peace. (I Thessalonians 5:3)

Blessings,

Timothy Snodgrass

Prayer Target For 2005 – Pray for President Bush, for angelic direction and divine guidance in our relations with Israel. We need God's plan administered in the White House, not man's plan, which may include a gradual 'disengagement' from the Roadmap, and reformation from our current plans. Angelic covering, divine involvement to protect U.S. fault lines and volcanoes which are on the verge of destabilization, could be achieved simply by silence and a gradual disengagement from our present course, without making any radical public change in policy that would anger our enemies.

Ministry Update – This year has proved to be an extremely busy year in launching prophetic teams to intercede for strategic areas, especially regions which are vulnerable to seismic and volcanic events, whereas this year there is a great spiritual war taking place in the heavens, resulting in great shakings in the earth. We need to be diligent in interceding for lands which are at risk in 2005, for God is not willing that any should perish, and nothing is impossible for God. Just as the city of Eureka symbolizes gold, the 7.2 quake which occurred in California west of Eureka on 6/15 represents the spiritual gold which is now being released as the continents and islands begin to shake in anticipation of the Lord's soon return. In the midst of these shakings, God is releasing reformation and an unprecedented wave of healing and deliverance to the nations.

We have been extremely busy, just returning from New Zealand and Fiji, and next month I will be traveling along the U.S. West Coast, East Coast and Bahamas; then, off to Australia in October. For each of these missions launched into key nations and islands, finances are needed to fulfill the assignments. Please join with us in releasing revival, rivers of intercession and mercy among the coastlands this summer and fall, for our time to accomplish our goals is very short.

I will be posting our itinerary for the United States later this week on our website at www.Elijah1.com - and strongly believe that this year's ministry trip across America (in July) is perhaps the most important assignment I've had over the last decade, because of the extreme urgency of interceding for America over the next several months as we approach the fall. We are now getting down to a matter of weeks before my scheduled departure from Manila, and to date, I still do not have an airline ticket. Although this mission to America does not sound as glamorous as Fiji or some other destinations, I believe that the importance of raising up an 'army' of prayer warriors in the United States is absolutely critical over the next several months, and can mean the difference between life and death for many people, especially those who live along the coastlands. Please consider being a part of the prayer and support base for this U.S. mission between 07/07/05 -07/30/05, and plan on dropping by one of our meetings if you happen to be in a city where we will be ministering this summer (check our itinerary link on our website later this week).

Victory Over Death

Rick Joyner

Last week we discussed how the Jordan River, which represents death, overflowed all of its banks all the days of the harvest. This was a prophetic sign that during the harvest (the end of the age), we can expect death to be overflowing all of its banks. However, when the Ark and the people of Israel entered into the Jordan, it says that its waters were rolled back all the way to Adam. This speaks about how when the church follows the Lord into the crucified life where we die daily, no longer living for ourselves but for Him, it will turn back death all the way to Adam, or all that was caused by the fall of man.

Both Jesus and John baptized in the Jordan River because it emptied into the Dead Sea, and therefore symbolically represented death. Baptism is a ritual performed to emphasize an important spiritual reality. The bane of Christianity since the third century has been to substitute rituals for the realities that they were intended to illuminate. The ritual was meant to convey the commitment on the part of the one baptized that they would die to themselves to live to Christ. After the third century, one could be baptized in place of living the crucified life, removing the life and power of the cross from the church.

I do not want to belittle the importance of the ritual. A wedding ceremony is a ritual and not the marriage itself, but because marriage is so important it is right to make a big deal out of the ritual. Likewise, it is right to make a big deal out of baptism, communion, and the other important rituals handed down to us, but they must not be allowed to supplant the truths that they were given to us to illuminate.

You can dunk someone in the water all day and not have them partake of the death or resurrection of Jesus. There is nothing magical about the water. The power is in the crucified life. The baptism is performed as a commitment to live the crucified life in order that we might also be resurrected with Christ as we read in Romans 6:4-5:

Therefore we have been buried with Him through baptism into death, in order that as Christ was raised from the dead through the glory of the Father, so we too might walk in newness of life.

For we have become UNITED with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection (emphasis mine).

We must note here that in this text there is no mention of water! This is not speaking of water baptism, but of what water baptism represents—the crucified life. As Paul further conveyed in Romans 6:5: "For if we have become united with Him in the likeness of His death, certainly we shall also be in the likeness of His resurrection."

What did the Lord mean when He stated, "I have come to cast a fire upon the earth; and how I wish it were already kindled! But I have a baptism to undergo, and how distressed I am until it is accomplished!" (Luke 12:49-50)? Was the baptism that was distressing Him simply being immersed in water? Of course not. He was referring to His impending crucifixion. That crucifixion is also the meaning of our baptism.

Jesus was likewise referring to the baptism into His crucifixion when James and John asked to be seated on His right and left in the kingdom. He said, "You do not know what you are asking for. Are you able to drink of the cup that I drink, or to be baptized with the baptism with which I am baptized?" (Mark 10:38)

It is a basic spiritual principle that death is the path to life in Christ. We are called to live now by the power and authority of the resurrected life of Christ, but by its very definition one cannot experience a resurrection without first experiencing a death. To be baptized with His baptism is to be conformed to the purpose of His death, the laying down of our own lives for the sake of others.

When the church reduced the truth of the crucified (and thereby resurrected) life to a mere ritual has robbed the Lord of our consecration, the church of its salvation, and has stolen from the world the power of the gospel. There are many Scriptures that make the meaning of this very clear. The following are just a few of them, which I encourage you to read carefully as their importance is literally life and death:

For if we died with Him we shall also live with Him; if we endure we shall also reign with Him (II Timothy 2:11-12).

The Spirit Himself bears witness with our spirit that we are the children of God, and if children, heirs also, heirs of God and fellow heirs with Christ, IF INDEED WE SUFFER WITH HIM IN ORDER THAT we may also be glorified with Him. (Romans 8:16-17 emphasis mine).

That I may know Him, and the power of His resurrection and the FELLOWSHIP OF HIS SUFFERINGS, being conformed to His death IN ORDER THAT I may attain to the resurrection from the dead (Philippians 3:10-11 emphasis mine).

For to you it has been granted for Christ's sake, not only to believe in Him, but also to suffer for His sake (Philippians 1:29).

We ought always to give thanks to God for you, brethren, as is only fitting, because your faith is greatly enlarged, and the love of each one of you toward one another grows ever greater;

therefore, we ourselves speak proudly of you among the churches of God for your perseverance and faith in the midst of all your persecutions and afflictions which you endure.

This is a plain indication of God's righteous judgment so that you may be considered worthy of the kingdom of God, for which indeed you are suffering (II Thessalonians 1:3-5).

We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed; perplexed, but not despairing; persecuted, but not forsaken; struck down, but not destroyed;

ALWAYS carrying about in the body the dying of Jesus, that the life of Jesus also may be manifested in our body.

For we who live are constantly being delivered over to death for Jesus' sake, that the life of Jesus may be also manifested in our mortal flesh (II Corinthians 4:8-11).

The Lord made it clear in His Word; if we are to partake of His life we must also partake of His death "that they who live should no longer live for themselves, but for Him…" (II Corinthians 5:15). Any other teaching is a false gospel and an enemy of the cross. Death separates the things that are natural from the things that are spiritual. Again, to have a resurrection, there must first be a death. If we want to walk in the resurrection life of Jesus, we must be willing to lay down our lives for Him.

In the first century, some of the people thought that if they would circumcise their flesh they would be right with God, but He requires the circumcision of our hearts. There are those today that point to the day of their immersion as the day they died with Jesus and were resurrected. Every ritual of our faith is just that—a ritual that is meant to symbolize a commitment to the spiritual reality of which it speaks. In Christ we must die in order to live. The Lord Jesus Himself testified:

If anyone wishes to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.

For whoever wishes to save his life shall lose it; but whoever loses his life for My sake shall find it (Matthew 16:24-25).

There can be no question that the Lord intended our baptism to be the daily reality of a crucified life. However, as we discussed last week, such a life that dies to itself and its own selfish interests is the most free and powerful life of all. That is what the Lord will give to us in exchange for our life—the greatest freedom and the greatest power to do good that we could even know.

The Cross Will Set Us Free From All Fear
Rick Joyner

Recently we have discussed how the Jordan River, which represents death, overflowed all of its banks all of the days of the harvest. We also discussed how we are going to have to learn to deal with much death in our times, but keep on functioning and pursuing our purpose.

Death Is The Greatest Liberation

Israel had to cross the Jordan River to enter their Promised Land, which speaks of how we must enter into the baptism of the death of the cross before we can attain the promises. This is where the church has now come. We are at a crossing. If we will enter into the true baptism, the crucified life, which means that we live each day for Him and not just ourselves, we will start to possess all of the promises of God for His people.

We must also keep in mind that death is the greatest liberation that we can ever know. The devil uses fear to bind just as the Lord uses faith in the truth to set people free. What does a dead man fear? If we are dead to this world, there is nothing that the world can do to us. It is impossible for a dead man to have fears of failure, fears of rejection, or even fear of the dark. To the degree that any fear still has its grip on us, is to the degree that we have failed to go to the cross. The cross will set us free from all fear!

A dead man will not lust, covet, feel anger, seek revenge, or even feel lonely. There is no greater freedom than that which comes from dying to this world so as to be alive in Christ. This is what Israel learned from their first baptism - the crossing of the Red Sea, as we read in I Corinthians 10:1-2:

For I do not want you to be unaware, brethren, that our fathers were all under the cloud, and all passed through the sea; and all were baptized into Moses in the cloud and in the sea . . . "

A Second Baptism

When Israel entered into this baptism in the Red Sea, it resulted in the destruction of the enemies that had kept them in bondage for so long. Pharaoh and his army were a biblical model of Satan and his hordes, seeking to keep God's people in bondage. We see that baptism is the one place where they cannot follow us, which will result in their destruction. When Israel entered into that baptism, they were to never see those enemies again. Many of the things that have bound us for so long will likewise be destroyed when we enter the true baptism - the crucified life.

Does the Jordan River represent a second baptism? In a sense it does. Just as Deuteronomy means "a second law" and the book of Deuteronomy resulted from Moses reviewing everything that was required of Israel before they crossed over and possessed their Promised Land, there is a baptism that we must go through when we first begin to follow the Lord. A second commitment is usually required before we enter into our Promised Land because many drift away from their commitment to the crucified life during their wilderness years. That we are being drawn back to the cross in these times is a sign that we are about to cross over and start possessing all that we have been called to do.

There is a baptism when we leave Egypt and a baptism when we enter the Promised Land. This is a message that the cross is both the beginning and the end of our journey. The cross sets us free from the world (Egypt) and is the door to entering into our inheritance in Christ.

The wise are forever mindful that the cross is everything. However, the cross does not just represent death, but the door to resurrection life, which is represented by the Promised Land. We will cover this in much more depth in the coming studies. For now let us be reminded and keep in mind the degree to which we have died to this world is the degree to which we are free to really live. That is the point of dying to this world and to ourselves - so that we can walk in resurrection life and impart true life to others.

The True Heroes Of Liberty
Rick Joyner

If you believe the news media, the war in Iraq has been an unmitigated disaster. I disagree. In fact, I think it will prove to be one of the greatest victories for freedom and democracy since the fall of the Berlin Wall. It is also in Iraq that some of the greatest, most noble soldiers in the war for the liberation of the oppressed are now arising -- the citizens of Iraq who will soon risk their lives to vote.

America, the great seedbed and hope for freedom and democracy around the world, barely had a 60 percent turnout of voters in the recent elections. Rain in any region would have seriously depressed even these numbers. The Iraqis, who will vote in their upcoming elections, will actually risk their lives to do so, and yet it seems certain that they will have a greater percentage turnout than the U.S. elections. It is a marvel that they are not only willing to do this, but many have expressed that they consider voting one of the greatest privileges of their lifetime!

As one of the Iraqi candidates recently said when reminded that winning this election would make him an even bigger target for terrorists, his reply was: "It would be an honor to die as a soldier for democracy." I do not think a more noble statement has been made since Patrick Henry said, "Give me liberty or give me death." As a Christian who is fundamentally committed to the truth of the gospel of Jesus Christ without compromise, I take off my hat to these great souls who are arising from among the Muslims of Iraq. It is right to give them aid in any way that we can in their struggle.

Seeing From A Different Perspective

It is not likely that we will ever know the true story of what is happening in Iraq from our news media. However, as the recent elections in America made clear, in general the media is quite out of touch with reality. The cancer of cynicism has so blinded the overwhelming majority of modern, Western journalists that they can only see problems and mistakes, and seem almost completely blind to positive accomplishments. This is why they are now missing one of the important stories of our times. Their own credibility has now fallen below that of any other profession, including televangelists and lawyers.

Anyone who relies on the present news media for their information or perspective on just about anything will be deceived. It has not always been this way and hopefully it will change, but it is the present reality. One obvious indication that things in Iraq are not the way they are being portrayed by our media at home is the fact that 80 percent of the soldiers in Iraq, who know what is happening there better than anyone else, voted for President Bush because of his Iraq policy. Half of these were registered Democrats. In all of the emails that I have received from troops there, what is happening in Iraq is actually very different from what is being reported at home.

We must understand that almost everything now reported in our media is slanted toward a predetermined perspective. The deception is not just in the reports themselves, though this can be the case, but also in what is reported. News that does not support their perspective or agenda simply will not make the news, with but a few exceptions. This will change in time because more and more are awakening to the truth about the media every day. The increasing slide of media credibility is demanding change, if for no other reasons than economic ones.

WMD?

So was it worth it for America to invade Iraq? Yes. Even if the Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD) are never found it will have been worth it, but before addressing why, I want to say something about the WMD. Even though our government now seems to have abandoned even the search for these weapons, and I may now seem to be just about alone in this, I maintain, as I always have, that WMD were in Iraq, and I believe they may still be there. As I said before the war, the scariest thing in the world would be if we do not find them.

You may think that I am just refusing to admit that I am wrong, but that is not the case. Even if you discount the seemingly wrong intelligence about Saddam's WMD (I am still not convinced that it was wrong), it does not make sense that Saddam did not have them. Let me briefly explain.

We know Saddam had WMD because we gave them to him during the Iraqi war with Iran. That is the tragic truth, but it is true. We also know that he had them because he used them on the Kurds. The U.N. was given an inventory of these weapons as recently as 1998. Where did they go? Saddam never produced any evidence of their destruction. Also, why would Saddam risk the invasion by the Coalition if he was not hiding or protecting something?

So, If He Had Them, Why Didn't He Use Them During The Invasion?

That is a good question, but there is a logical answer to it. It was because of the brilliant Coalition war plan. Saddam was expecting at least a 30-day air war before the ground invasion because that was how we did it in the first Gulf War. However, the Coalition began the invasion with a lightning ground assault that kept the Iraqi forces reeling from the very first hour. They obviously tried to get protective gear for chemical and biological warfare to their front line troops so they could use them, but were never able to do this because there never was an identifiable front line until we were in the streets of Baghdad.

Enough chemical and biological WMD to destroy all life in the region, and maybe on the planet if placed strategically, could fit into the back of a couple of semi-trucks. Iraq is a very large territory; it would be easy to hide them so that they could never be found. So why would our Administration not maintain this and keep up the weapons search? There could be a very good reason for it, which no one is discussing, and it would be irresponsible to discuss such reasons at this time.

If this potential scenario is in fact the case, and in due time the true story can be made known, it will make our President one of the most courageous, noble, and brilliant men to have ever sat in that office. If this story can never be made public, which is possible, he will still have been such a President, but few will ever know it. I personally do not believe that President Bush cares as much about being known for this as he cares about protecting America and, indeed, much of the world, from a danger far worse than most can even imagine. In fact, it may be much better that most remain ignorant so they can go about their lives normally, without the kind of fear that such knowledge could generate.

The Greatest Factor: Divine Intervention

However, for those who pray, the dangers that the world is facing right now from terrorism are far worse than all but a very few are aware. It is also likely that not only the best defense, but the only defense we have against it, is a good offense that keeps them on the defensive. If the terrorists have a reprieve that is long enough, it is very likely that without Divine intervention, we will be hit far harder than we were on 9/11. However, Divine intervention is not only a factor, but the greatest factor. The Lord is presently protecting us. Anyone who really understands what is happening in the war on terror is well aware of this and has plenty of evidence that we have had Divine protection until now. Let us never take it for granted.

For this reason we need increasing prayer protection for our leaders, our soldiers, and our countries. As I have maintained for years, there is a lot of nuclear material missing from former Soviet stockpiles. Even if they do not presently have the sophistication to set off a nuclear bomb, a single dirty bomb could kill millions, as well as render large regions uninhabitable for decades. If they can release just one, they believe that they can hold the rest of the world hostage to do their will. We must not let down our guard. Prayer is by far the most effective weapon that we have in this war.

Because of this great threat, it is understandable that many will maintain that Iraq was a diversion from where we really needed to be concentrating our efforts. I am convinced that it was not, but was in fact necessary, and in due time I think we will understand why. Even if the WMD were not there, the Iraq war has not been a distraction, but a brilliant strategy and the benefits are considerable, greatly outweighing the cost. Let us briefly look at just a few.

The Advantages Of The Present Conflict

Like it or not, America has been raised up in this time to fight against some of the most diabolical evils of all time. These include Nazism, communism, terrorism, and other extreme "isms" that are the most desperate enemies of truth and freedom. Step back and think about what condition the world would be in today if America did not stand up to Nazism and communism. Terrorism is an even more sinister enemy, and the consequences of letting terrorism win would be even more intolerable. This is a noble cause. It is also one that we do not have any choice but to fight unless we want to be slaves to such as the Taliban.

This is not to imply that all Muslims, or even a large percentage, are like the Taliban, but it is the nature of the cult of terrorists. They have already proven this in the country where they gained political control -- Afghanistan. Finally, in Iraq, even with the continual attacks and short life expectancy of those who would join the police or military, Muslims are starting to fight back in increasing numbers. Believe the media or not, most Iraqis are very thankful for the help they have been given by America and her allies. They, too, want us to leave as soon as possible, which is understandable as no nation wants to be occupied, but they are thankful, and do count us as a true friend.

Those who are fighting against America and democracy in Iraq are the former oppressors of Iraq who have lost power. All who benefited from the Hussein regime greatly fear majority rule in Iraq and believe that they are now fighting for own their lives. However, we need to pray for a wise leadership to arise in Iraq, who, like Nelson Mandela in South Africa, will determine that there is no time for revenge and that any form of retaliation is not in anyone's best interest.

The others who are so desperate to defeat democracy in Iraq are the terrorists. Few seem to have noticed that since the war in Iraq began, terrorist attacks around the world have greatly decreased. There have been some, but not nearly on the scale as before the war. Iraq has been the flypaper for terrorists, and if we were not fighting them there, we would be fighting them in our own backyards. These terrorists have no choice but to fight there because if democracy gets a true foothold in the region, their form of extremism is doomed. Democracies may have disputes and argue with each other, but they do not go to war with each other.

FUTURE LEADERS OF AMERICA

Another great advantage of the war in Iraq is the training of the future leaders of America. This is not just military leaders, but as some articles have come out recently, corporations and other large organizations learned long ago that combat veterans make the best leaders. The prosperity we now enjoy is mostly owed to the World War II veterans who returned with a maturity, resolve, and endurance in numbers that were unprecedented in our history. It was inevitable that they would propel us to accomplishments that were unprecedented.

War is hell, it comes from hell, and no one in their right mind likes it. But if you are going to prevail in this present world, those who have been through its crucible will make the best leaders. From Vietnam, to the first Gulf War, to the recent and present conflicts, America is being salted with those who will prove to be some of our greatest leaders for a long time to come. This is a part of a Divine provision to preserve America for a long time to come, which will include some of the most difficult times the world has ever known.

I am thankful to live in a nation that values life so much that the loss of a single soldier is news and causes the nation to lament. However, just as no general could ever be successful if he were too concerned about casualties, America has to learn to accept the casualties we are now suffering as an acceptable price to pay in this war. We have, in fact, paid a very low price to date. Of course, many who have lost family members and friends may not feel this way, but it is a remarkable tribute to the character of the nation that so many of them do, and are very proud of their relatives and friends who paid the ultimate price for our sake.

FUTURE LEADERS FOR THE WORLD?

Iraq is a great nation with an extraordinary people, as is all of Biblical Assyria, Egypt, and their close cousin, Israel. Biblical Assyria includes all of the nations from present Iraq to the Sinai. Something remarkable in history is going to arise from that region, which is prophesied in Isaiah 19:19-25:

"In that day there will be an altar to the Lord in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar to the Lord near its border.

"And it will become a sign and a witness to the Lord of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they will cry to the Lord because of oppressors, and He will send them a Savior and a Champion, and He will deliver them.

"Thus the Lord will make Himself known to Egypt, and the Egyptians will know the Lord in that day. They will even worship with sacrifice and offering, and will make a vow to the Lord and perform it.

"And the Lord will strike Egypt, striking but healing; so they will return to the Lord, and He will respond to them and will heal them.

"In that day there will be a highway from Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrians will come into Egypt and the Egyptians into Assyria, and the Egyptians will worship with the Assyrians.

"In that day Israel will be the third party with Egypt and Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth, whom the Lord of hosts has blessed, saying, 'Blessed is Egypt My people, and Assyria the work of My hands, and Israel My inheritance.'" (NASB)

This is a Biblical prophecy which must be fulfilled and obviously has not yet been fulfilled. God is going to do something in this region that will be far beyond anything human diplomacy could ever accomplish and will cause the entire world to marvel. We cannot go into much detail now, but it is time for it to be fulfilled. As Daniel prayed when he recognized that it was time for the remnant to return from bondage to restore Jerusalem, let us begin to pray for it to now come to pass.

SUCH PEOPLE ARE WORTH FIGHTING FOR

Again, with all that they are facing, if the Iraqi people turn out to vote in as great numbers as it appears they will, they deserve to be acknowledged as the new heroes in the war against tyranny -- the true and courageous freedom fighters of the most noble kind who risked their lives to cast their vote. Such people are worth fighting for. PLEASE PRAY FOR THESE ELECTIONS AND THE NEW NATION THAT IS BEING BORN. IT COULD BE ONE OF THE MOST SIGNIFICANT EVENTS SINCE THE REBIRTH OF THE NATION OF ISRAEL. These great people are worth the cost. I live my life for the coming kingdom, but confess to being thankful to be a citizen of a nation that has such values. I am likewise thankful for the other courageous and noble nations of the Coalition that feel likewise.

Visions Of Devastation

Sue Love

"Then the Lord gave me a vision of his judgment on the earth. It was in the form of an earthquake in a land that was near a major water way, and what I saw was an explosion, fire falling, the earth opening up, people falling through the holes and getting buried alive, people crushed by rocks, men hanging from trees, and people being swept away to their deaths by rushing waters... Then, that night (November 26, 2004) at around 8:00 p.m. God gave me a vision of what he had previously shown me was going to happen, only this time it was as though it were really happening to my brother and all his family at that moment in time."

"Then, on December 25 at approximately 8:00 p.m. our time or 8:00 a.m. on December 26th at the Epicenter, God did just what he showed me in that vision, only not in the USA to my family members, but in Asia and impacting 12 countries and killing at least 150,000 people so far."

On Sunday, November 21st, after our Bible study that evening, a group of 14 of us from This Space Available Ministries marched around a set of buildings on Caldwell Street in downtown, Rock Hill, SC. God had led me to consider that set of buildings as our "Jericho," and I believed that if we marched around the buildings for seven days, kind of like the Israelites marched around their Jericho, that God would give us the land for us to possess. We need a building for our church, and as we prayer walked around those buildings, we believed God was going to provide us with a building. We had been praying for a building for four years. We had begun this process on the previous Monday and it ended on Sunday with us marching around the buildings seven times. On the seventh time around we shouted and we believed God was going to bring the walls down (figuratively speaking), though we did not really understand what that meant at that time.

During the week that followed, God opened his word to me in a way that I had never seen before, even though I have been a student of the Bible for fifty years. He was showing me all kinds of prophecies concerning End Times, and he was using me, my family, and those around me to illustrate for me what was going to happen in those final days. I have studied End Times before, but little of the particulars of it ever really stuck with me other than a very basic understanding of the events. So, I had few preconceived ideas concerning the events, the timing, or how it was all going to happen. What God was showing me was that marching around our "Jericho" was much bigger than just our little TSA group getting in a building. What he began showing me was that his coming is near and that the way we are to conquer our Jericho and our Canaan is by telling people that they need to repent and believe the Good News because the kingdom of God is near and Jesus is coming soon, and by being "Jesus" to the world around us in feeding the poor, providing for the needy, ministering to the hurting, the lonely, the imprisoned, etc.

Then the Lord gave me a vision of his judgment on the earth. It was in the form of an earthquake in a land that was near a major water way, and what I saw was an explosion, fire falling, the earth opening up, people falling through the holes and getting buried alive, people crushed by rocks, men hanging from trees, and people being swept away to their deaths by rushing waters. I had sensed that God was saying to me that something was going to take place on Thanksgiving Day that would open the way for us to go in and take possession of the land, and when nothing happened that day, I prayed about it, asking him to show me what I had missed. He then gave me the verse about a prophet praying for the sun to stand still for a day in order to win a battle, and he indicated to me that he had given me an extra day. The next morning, my brother Noel called me at 9:00 a.m. and his message said, "Happy Thanksgiving."

Then, that night at around 8:00 p.m. God gave me a vision of what he had previously shown me was going to happen, only this time it was as though it were really happening to my brother and all his family at that moment in time. The vision lasted around 40 minutes, I think. It was so real. I had never experienced anything like that before. I did not know if this had really taken place or if it was a vision of future events, but immediately after I had the vision, we celebrated our youngest son's 24th birthday. We celebrated it two days after his birthday. Our daughter had put the candles on the cake, but she forgot two of the candles, so after he had blown out his candles on the cake, she lit those separately and he blew those out. I felt this was significant at the time and that it was connected with the vision, but I did not know how. I thought perhaps God was telling me that this vision was going to be fulfilled in two years on our son's birthday, which will be the day after Thanksgiving in two years. And, I documented all of this in writing at the time in my journal and I shared all or parts of it with family members and with people in our Bible study group both verbally and in writing over the next several weeks.

Then, the Lord expanded the vision. He used the passage in Ezekiel 12, the book of Joshua and other OT passages in addition to the book of Revelation to give me a picture of what I believe he had in mind. He gave me a picture of him destroying a third of the earth and that he would leave survivors and that they would be exiles and that we would need to prepare cities of refuge for those exiles, one of which is to be in downtown Rock Hill, I believe. I felt he might be telling me that he wanted me to be a kind of Noah or a Joseph in preparing a storehouse of goods in preparation for when this destruction takes place so that the exiles have a place they can go and can have provisions for their needs. And, I believed I was also to be a type of Joshua in leading the children of God into the "Promised Land," though my thinking of what that meant was and is still incomplete.

I believe the Lord gave me a picture of being stranded on an "island" and that once God had removed the competition, he was going to use me as a leader in his church to see many people come to know Jesus. He used the story of the disciples fishing and not catching any fish and then Jesus showing them where to throw their nets and then them catching more fish than their boats could hold. I also read a story in "Sacred Romance," a book about our relationship with Jesus, that used the story of Forest Gump and Lt Dan on their shrimp boat and how they had not caught any fish and then a fierce storm came and wiped out all the competition and then they were able to catch lots of fish. I believed this was a picture of the beginning of the tribulation period after God pours out his judgment on the earth. I believe many people are going to repent of their sin and are going to turn to God during that time and that the "competition" that will be wiped out will be all those churches and religious leaders who are teaching a social gospel, so that the only gospel that will be preached at that time will be the gospel of repentance. And, I think this destruction is going to usher in the time of tribulation and the beginning of the rule of the Antichrist, though I don't think he is revealed to everyone until 3.5 years later.

Following those ten days of God flooding me with these visions of End Times, God woke me up early one morning with an urgency to go and tell people that the kingdom of God is near, that they need to repent and believe the Good News, because Jesus is coming soon. The events surrounding that are documented in another writing, so I will not repeat them here other than to state that God had me, an out of shape 55 year old woman, walk for 12 hours telling people everywhere I went that Good News of Jesus' second coming and of their need to repent. The 12 hour walk was grueling, and I faced a lot of ridicule and scorn along the way, and I have experienced the world hating me now in a way I had never known before, but all this was preparation for End Times.

My youngest son announced to us a couple of days later that he was getting married on December 23rd, which is my oldest brother's birthday (the brother in the vision). I felt at the time that there was something significant to this, as well. And, so I documented it. God had given me several visions connecting my brother to my youngest son, too, which for now I am just tucking away in my heart until God helps me to understand what they mean.

Then, on December 25 at approximately 8:00 p.m. our time or 8:00 a.m. on December 26th at the Epicenter, God did just what he showed me in that vision, only not in the USA to my family members, but in Asia and impacting 12 countries and killing at least 150,000 people so far. December 25th is two days after my brother's birthday, so perhaps in God connecting my son with my brother in the vision, God was telling me that the events in the vision were going to take place two days after my brother's birthday. My brother's name is Noel, which means Christmas. In my vision, I thought something was going to happen on November 25th (Thanksgiving Day), but in the vision God did what he had planned to do on November 26th at approximately 8:00 p.m. I find it interesting then that the earthquake in Asia took place on the 25th in our time zone and on the 26th at the Epicenter but the hour was the same, 8:00, just 12 hours apart. But, I also believe God was and is telling me "two years" for the USA during which time or before the time he pours out his judgment on us. He has given me that "two years" from many sources.

When I was led by God that day to go around the city and tell people that Jesus is coming soon, he told me to walk the length and the breadth of the land, but he did not provide a map and then he had me remove my glasses so that he would be my eyes, and later I traced on the map the path that he had me take and it was in the shape of an 8. Also, I read in an article that Jericho was in the shape of a pear, and the tracing on my map could also resemble a pear shape. I don't know what significance there is to the route he had me take on my walk or even if there is any other than I did walk the length of the land of Rock Hill and all the way to the east and part way to the west of Rock Hill. One thing else that I read was that Jericho was the city of Palms, and SC is the Palmetto State.

I had read in my quiet time just a couple of weeks ago the story of Gideon's call of God to save the Israelites from the hand of the Midianites. An angel of the Lord appeared to Gideon and said, "The LORD is with you, mighty warrior." Gideon's response was that if the Lord was with them then why were all these bad things happening to them. He felt abandoned by God. The LORD answered back, "Go in the strength you have and save Israel out of Midian's hand. Am I not sending you?" Gideon still questioned God as to how God would do this through them since they were so small in number and he was not important. The LORD answered, "I will be with you and you will strike down all the Midianites together." Then Gideon asked for a sign that it was really God talking to him, and God gave him a sign. I feel that God has now given me such a sign through the tragedy in Asia and through him showing me how this tragedy was a fulfillment or partial fulfillment of the vision that he gave to me. I, like Gideon, am not important and our numbers are even smaller than his, and in fact Gideon's army was cut back in size by God after that to an even smaller number, because God wanted to show that it was him doing it – he wanted to get the glory. God has been doing that same kind of sifting process in TSA, in removing those who lack faith in what he has promised, so that those that are left are the ones he can use to take this land for Jesus. And, our numbers are so small and we are so insignificant, that it will be obvious that it is God doing it and not us.

I have been teaching a series on "Taking the Land," based upon the events in the book of Joshua and paralleling them to the New Testament. Nonetheless, I did not realize until the evening of January 3, 2005, though, that it had been recorded in numerous documents that the fall of Jericho, the conquering of the Promised Land and Joshua leading the Israelites to the Promised Land were events foreshadowing End Times and God's judgment on the earth and Jesus taking us to the Promised Land. I was reading up on Jericho, the conquest of Canaan, and was trying to find something to show me the time that took place between the fall of Jericho and the rest God gave them from war and their possessing and dividing up the land, but I could not find anything that gave me the time frame. My point was going to be to our young adults that even though we marched around our Jericho a month ago, that does not mean that God is going to immediately give us the land. The Israelites had to go in and take the land and they had to fight battles and it says in the Bible that it took a "long time." I want them to understand that we have to show ourselves faithful to God in conquering the land for Jesus as God directs us prior to us getting to possess the land. But, in my preparation for this, God showed me so much more. God basically confirmed for me that what he had shown me a month ago was true and was from him and that our marching around our Jericho basically opened the way for his conquest, his judgment on the land, and that it will not end with Asia. Perhaps what took place in Asia is just a foreshadowing of what is going to take place in the USA in the near future, not a Tsunami, perhaps, but something of that magnitude or worse.

I believe God has shown me a lot that I don’t fully comprehend and that he is filling in the pieces to the puzzle a little bit at a time, but one thing I am most certain of is that he is coming soon, that we are entering the End Times, that his judgment is going to be poured out and is being poured out on the earth, that he is going to leave survivors and that there is going to be an exile and that we are to be getting people ready and getting supplies ready for a disaster in the USA far beyond anything we could possibly imagine. And, I believe that disaster is going to usher in the Tribulation period and the rise of the Antichrist to power. I don’t know with any certainty that this is going to happen in exactly two years, though I feel that is very possible, but I do know it is soon and we need to get the word out to as many as possible that they need to repent and believe the Good News. I remember watching a movie recently that was about the return of the Ice Age due to global warming. It had a lot of political statements in it, but one thing stood out to me. When the government finally accepted the prophecy concerning the destruction that was coming on the face of the earth and the reality that many lives would be lost, the advice that followed was “save as many as possible.” I think that is the advice God is giving us right now.

The Bible says we will not know the day or the hour of Christ’s return, but we will know when it is close at the door by the signs. Though God’s Word says that Jesus’ coming will be like a thief in the night for those who are not ready, it also says that it should not surprise us like a thief in the night, but that we should be expecting his return so much that we are looking to the sky expectantly. I believe the signs point to him coming soon! He wants us all to be ready and waiting for his return. Are you ready?

Vision of Florida

Vision

I found myself standing on a sandy beach. This beach was a large beach, unusual in it's width. It was as if the ocean were being pulled back, decreasing in size, and leaving more land as a result. This had not happened suddenly. This was a gradual, ongoing recession of the water from the land over time.

While I was on the beach, the wind began blowing. This wind was large and building in intensity. As it grew it was joined by another wind, becoming stronger, coming from the east. Yet another wind joined it from the north, increasing it even more in size and strength. From the south another wind joined in adding to it more. This wind was just off the beach, as if waiting. Then it began to move against the land, forcefully. Although this was occurring on a beach, there was no water or rain in this huge wind!!!

As this wind was blowing and blowing, it caused the dry land to increase. This dry land replaced large areas of land where grass and trees had been growing. As the wind increased, it was as if all I could see was a blur. Then, it moved, and left.

I saw the aftermath of the action of the wind. There was a great deal of destruction. People were crying out in fear, pain, and terror. There was loss of life of people and animals. Buildings and homes were destroyed. Fields and forests were destroyed.

Suddenly it was as if I was looking down on the land from just above the earth. The destruction was very widespread - for what seemed like hundreds of miles! This went beyond the beach to areas of land that had just before been rich in vegetation, plant life, wild life. Crops were totally destroyed. The impact of this wind was immense. No food was available. Rivers that had been sources of water were dammed up with debris; or blow dry. Because trees had been destroyed, lumber to build simple shelter was hard to find. The result of this wind was famine and disease.

Before this occurrence, many "great nations" had been struggling to survive. There were no "great nations" left to ask for help, or assistance.

I asked the Lord where this beach was. I heard simply "Florida".

When I shared this vision with a friend, they said I was the second person who saw winds coming against Florida. The other person specifically recognized the place the winds blew against as Ft. Lauderdale.

Immediately, out of my spirit came the words, "You know this will happen when the Roadmap Plan comes about, don't you?"

This is grievous to me. What I saw resulted in destruction beyond Ft. Lauderdale, and even the state of Florida. These winds did not gather just because of a happenchance. They were sent, from different directions, to join together as a mighty force. Again, there was no rain. This is not a major hurricane I am speaking of witnessing.

As I have prayed for an answer as to "why?", I began to cry. I had to repent! The Lord is jealous for us. We are people divided, in the U.S., in whom we serve. Our hearts are toward Him, and toward our pride. We are prideful in that which we have; and selfish in not sharing that which is most precious to us. He reminded me of Rachel hiding the family statues of gods from Laban's house under her as she rode to Jacob's home. That is how we are. We hide our gods of relying on other things, instead of G-d, because we don't trust G-d to provide us completely with what we need! We declare we are special to G-d because we are American Christians. Therefore, we do not need to worry about persecution. In the meantime, we judge those less blessed than we are. We judge others in our community, in our families, and even in our churches.

We declare our actions as a country to be righteous. We declare our prayers to be holy. This is pride. We will even go against G-d if we can convince ourselves that our actions will have a good result.

We must repent anew. Father G-d is waiting with loving arms to embrace us, and conviction to take us into His liberty. The liberty that puts others first. The liberty that leaves the role of G-d in His hands. The one that will not judge those less fortunate, but help. Not because of what man will see. We will do it because no man's sees it. We want our heavenly Father to be pleased with us.

Vision Of Gold and Fire

Judith Grobelny

April 18, 2005
This vision began with the fiery cloud of God that He has shown at other times. It was the fiery person of God, the Father being the outer covering, or creative head, over all.

The vast fire that is Jesus in the very heart of all of God’s creative redeeming love blazed and appeared almost a mixture of fire and blood, within the very heart of the cloud.

Extending from the cloud was a long arm of cloud that became as a finger that extended His life to all His creation – a finger gentle and yet powerful and precise – the Holy Spirit who continues to bring God’s personal touch to all He has created.

As I watched the fire began to erupt and flow, unstoppable, pouring upwards and outwards from this heart. It was like something erupting out of heaven and beginning to flow out high above the whole earth.

It began to rain down drops of gold and fire. Both gold and fire fell together into a great ocean (which I felt represented the ocean of humanity), and they were unchanged on contact with the sea. They continued moving, flowing, accomplishing God’s purpose as He continued to pour out of heaven without ceasing.

I understood as I watched that this outpouring would bring change to the very substance of all we know – nothing could remain untouched or unchanged except by deliberately erecting a barrier to it which would be extremely dangerous as it would leave deep darkness behind the barrier. There was a separation that became very distinct, fire or deep darkness.

Wherever the gold and fire touched, there was a turning around and a flow back towards the source of the eruption.

I felt the Lord quietly saying that this was shortly to come. That we should not be afraid or discouraged by what we saw but embrace the fire and gold and let it do it’s work in our lives.

The Lord reminded me that He had spoken of birth pangs and the signs that would be visible in this age and asked if He would have spoken in such a way if it were not true. I felt He was saying that there has been selective hearing and believing of His Word but all that He speaks is true. Men can not imagine what is to come.

Look around among the nations! For what you see will completely astound you! For what is going to be done in your days you will not believe, even when you are told.” Hab.1:5 (CJB)

I felt the Lord asking “Would you have things remain exactly as they are?” I felt that He was saying this was the time when He would move and many who have cried out and prayed will know that they have been heard.

I heard Him say there is yet another book to be written, and it will be The Book of Completion. All things will be brought to completion in the right way at the right time. I had a sense that it was going to be read in heaven; the book that contained the completion of all things He has ever spoken, and they will all have come to pass.

I will stand at my watch post; I will station myself on the rampart. I will look to see what God will say through me and what I will answer when I am reproved.
“Write down the vision clearly on tablets, so that even a runner can read it. For the vision is meant for its appointed time; it speaks of the end, and it does not lie. It may take a while, but wait for it; it will surely come, it will not delay.” Hab. 2:1-3 (CJB)

Vision Of The Father On The Throne

Susan Cummings

On 6-18-05,

I had an encounter with the Lord as we were driving back from a meeting in Syracuse, NY. I have not felt released until now to share this occurrence in a public forum. But the Father wants His People to know that it is time to rise up and be seated with Him in the heavenly places and to commune with Him. He has much to say to His People, but most don't take the time to be with Him.

-Susan

I was sitting in the passenger seat as Pastor Patrick O'Marra was driving back from the meeting. I then became aware that a cherubim was sitting between us as we rode. I usually see them as a fire, and a red/orange color. He remained that color for a minute or so, then changed to a green color. The same color as the emerald shekinah glory that is over the Throne. I then knew that we were about to be caught up.

I then found myself standing on a path or level of sorts. It was laid out ahead of me. I also knew by my standing there, that there were other levels above me, stacked up one upon another, in the Spirit, and that the Lord had chosen for me to walk upon this one. There were 12 levels in this realm.

The level was made of Spirit. Everything is made from the Father and of His Spirit. I knew this by the Fathers will. It was solid, but also moved as I walked on it. My steps made a glowing light on the level as I walked. Light shined up from under my feet as I stepped on the level. It looked almost like liquid.

I walked for a few moments and then I saw the Throne ahead of me. I saw the 7 burning ones that stand before the Throne, and they were facing me. I saw the Father through them.

The Father was seated upon His Throne, and the Glory that emanated from Him shone outwards in a ball or spherical shape as it emanated a fiery Light. As I watched, the Father began to change, and He began to show me more of Himself, and the colors of the Glory changed and pulsated. I watched, and He gave me understanding of His desire for me to know Him more. So He began to unfold a portion of Himself to me.

He said to me that the 7 burning ones were standing before Him, and they filtered the Glory through themselves to me, because I could not look upon Him, as He revealed more to me. So they deflected the power and the Glory, so I could learn. They were my filter through which I could view Him in this greater way.

Then, I began to feel His Heart. He was grieved.

He said to me, that He was grieved, that so few of His People came to Him, or desired to know Him. They say they love Him, but their hearts are far from Him. So few, care to come up higher in their understanding and learn of Him. It angered Him to see their lack of love and hardening hearts. So few want Him, but they pursue all their fleshly desires with abandon, and hardly give Him time or thought. So, He was not going to call those who did not desire Him or did not want to be with Him anymore. He was only coming to those who are His.

Then, the Lord said to me, that this was all I could take of His Glory and Presence for now. He told me I must leave and the vision faded before me.

Vision Of The King On His Throne

LaTonya Malinconico

My husband and I were praying for a friend, a prophet, affiliated with our group Secta 7 at one of our member's home in the Conroe area, just outside of Houston, TX and the Woodlands. She invited my husband to lay hands on our friend Simba for he had come a long way to Houston to be ministered to after having a rough time in his life.

Simba is a prophet like John the Baptist but people thought he was crazy because he would be preaching on the streets. So they locked him up in an asylum for a little while. But Simba was not crazy; he just spoke what God told him. Simba was talking to God and God spoke to him every day. Then he had this very rough period in his life and had gotten out of that tribulation and snare of Satan, he was sad because he did not hear God speak at all to him. Simba being used to hearing the voice of the Lord every day like anyone talking to you in the physically realm was very sadden about it and came to Houston, were his friends were to get encouragement.

While in Houston, our friend O.N.E. Miller took him to the church were she is the youth pastor and while church service was going on, the pastor laid hands on him. Later that night Simba had his first dream since the period of tribulation. In his dream my husband laid hands on him and he was better, nothing was wrong again. Simba said that his dream was so real that when he awoke, he thought that my husband was in the room so he got up to look for him around the house.

So O.N.E. called my husband the next day and told him about Simba's dream. A couple of days passed where my husband was so busy that he couldn't go see Simba especially since we live an hour away from O.N.E. So finally the opportunity came where my husband and I got to see Simba.

So we ate dinner at our friend's home and then we prayed for Simba. During this time I thought that I heard thunder outside. But it was not raining and was not suppose to rain. It was very cold outside and clear. While we were still praying for Simba the room became hot like the Holy Spirit landed on us and I heard thunder again. After my husband finished laying hands on Simba like his dream said he would, I asked everyone, "Hey did ya'll hear the thunder?" And they said no, that I always hear stuff when we pray so I was confused on if I actually did hear thunder. But as I continued to think, I just knew that I had heard thunder.

So then my husband asked if anyone else needed prayer and O.N.E. said "Do you mind anointing the house?" And my husband said ok. So we prayed over O.N.E. and her house in agreement with the things my husband spoke. Then all of a sudden my husband began to pray over me but I didn't remember him saying that they were praying for me next because I was slain in the spirit and laying on the floor. I guess we were praying for O.N.E. and then they moved toward me and I had been knocked out by the presence of the Holy Spirit.

I do remember that I was on the floor lying on my back, shaking when all of a sudden I saw the sky open. I was on the floor inside of our friend's home and there before me are clouds that slowly rolled back like the opening of a scroll. Once the cloud opened, I saw God sitting there on His throne in brilliant white/silver color with a crown on his head. Jesus was in his face at the same time He was standing on the Right side of God's throne. The throne was so huge that all I could see was a huge God sitting. I saw only his face smiling and his legs sitting and his feet. God was so big. So big I can't describe it. In his face was his face but Jesus was in it. It was so cool!!! Then on both sides of the throne there were angels. Tons of angels and they all were looking at me and they told me to laugh. Laugh and get the stress out and the fear out and the pain and hurt from years of feeling down and burdened from life. And then I saw a glimpse of my grandma and they all were ministering to me and worshiping God at the same time. The love of God and his mercy I saw and so I began to reach for God and I thought that it was my time to go and I kept on reaching for God and then it faded away and I saw that I was still laying on the floor and I was sad because I wanted to be with God so much. No pain, no hurt, just love and comfort. I was on the flooring shaking because although I was lying down, my spirit was standing and when God appeared, every knee shall bow and tongue confess that Christ is Lord; my stand bowed down at the awesomeness of God.

After the vision went away, I saw my husband and our friends and Simba said, "What did you see, was someone talking to you?" And I asked, "How did you know someone was talking to me and that I sent something?" And he said, "I just discerned it, I don't know." I described the vision to all present and they were like, "Whoa all of that happened?" And so I said, "Yeah. Cool isn't it."

Victory Over the Powers of Darkness

Mike Forest

I praise God because the fight that we are engaged in is "the good fight of faith". It is a good fight because the outcome has already been decided. Our Lord and savior, Jesus Christ has prevailed over the enemy, and we are standing in His victory. One of the reasons why many Christians are being greatly discouraged by the enemy is because they are fighting as those that are defeated ones that are trying to gain the victory. But we must see the truth that will set us free, that on the cross of Calvary, Jesus Christ stripped satan of his power and authority. Now, all power has been given to the One who sits on the throne, and He is waiting for His Church to exercise that authority on the earth.

"Who has delivered us from the power (authority) of darkness and translated us into the kingdom of His dear Son." (Colossians 1:13). The Lord is not going to deliver us, but He has already delivered us. This the standing of every child of God. Regardless of the spiritual state of the child of God whether in victory or defeat, the reality is that we are in Christ. The truths of our identification with Christ will bring us into victory in our actual every day experience. But as long as we are trying to fight the battle, then we will be greatly frustrated.

Every child of God has been crucified with Christ positionally. Romans 6:6 gives us this glorious truth: "Knowing this that our old man is crucified with Him that the body of sin might be destroyed, so that henceforth we would not serve sin." Every believer is in Christ, and when our Lord went to the cross and died, He not only bore our sins, but He also carried our sinful selves. So that the old man, which is everything in Adam that we were in ourselves has been crucified with Him. This is a wonderful fact that every born again Christian must embrace. We are not trying to crucify ourselves, because Christ has already done it. Now the practical working out of this crucifixion of the old man occurs as we reckon ourselves to be dead to sin but alive unto God. Our faith is on what Christ has already done for us, and the Holy Spirit is the one that makes this a reality in our every day lives. The devil can have no power over a crucified man. The old carnal nature or the flesh was the playground of the devil, but this ground of operation has been done away with in Christ. Just as the enemy had no place of operation in our Lord, our place of safety is to abide in Him.

Those that are in Christ Jesus have been made alive in Christ, have risen with Him, and are seated together with Him in the heavenly places. Again this speaks of our legal standing in Christ Jesus, and every believer has been put into a position of spiritual ascendancy. Christ is the Head and the Church is the Body, and because the enemy is under the feet of Christ, he is also under the feet of all those that are a part of that Body.

The enemy is always looking for a empty house to dwell in, so it is essential that every born again Christian would be filled with the Spirit. Overcoming the enemy is not merely a negative thing where we are all the time resisting the devil, but it is positive in that the things of God will always overcome the powers of darkness. Light always overcomes darkness. Life always overcomes death, and " whosoever is born of God overcomes the world. (1John 5:4) "The Law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made us free from the law of sin and death." (Romans 8:2). So the overcoming Christian is not just trying to hold his ground, but he is going forth as one that is more than a conqueror through Christ Jesus. He is partaking in the ministry of Jesus Christ, who was manifested to destroy the works of the devil. The army of God has been commissioned to deliver those that are in captivity to the enemy. Jesus said that when the enemy is cast out by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God was in manifestation. While the church is pre-occupied in a debate about whether or not a Christian can have a demon, the strongholds of the enemy remain in many lives of born again Christians.

Jesus Christ is our great commander in chief, and He has equipped His Church with everything that she needs to wage a successful warfare against the powers of darkness. "The weapons of our warfare are not of the flesh but are mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds." (2 Cor. 10:4).

The Word admonishes us that we are not to be ignorant of the devices and wiles of the devil, and there are many Christians that are defeated because either they do not believe that the enemy is a threat to them or they go to the other extreme in being pre-occupied with demonology. Our Lord and savior Jesus Christ is the One that always causes us to triumph, and our victory comes from knowing Him and keeping our eyes on Him, who is the author and finisher of our faith.

Vision of a Train Yard

David Davenport

February 05, 2005

I saw a massive Train Yard. In the middle of the train yard was a turntable that re-directed locomotives and boxcars. Surrounding the turntable were many different tracks—leading in every direction. Many locomotives would pull an enormous train of boxcars to the turntable, detach from the cars, drive onto the turntable, turn in a completely different direction, and then re-attach to a new trail of boxcars (train).

Some distance from the turntable, I saw many locomotives and boxcars that had sat stationary for some time. Though they had collected dust, they were very sound mechanically, as they were regularly serviced as they sat, that they would be ready at a moments' notice to be dispatched to any of the countless tracks heading in every direction.

Toward the end of the vision, I could hardly believe my eyes at the enormity of the train yard, as the expanse was beyond what the eyes and mind could fully comprehend.

It was during the vision that I realized the completed trains were churches and ministries. The turntable represented new relationships, new associations, new directions and new partnerships unfolding in the Body of Christ abroad.

I also understood the stationary or inactive locomotives and boxcars to represent saints who had been placed in "service bays," to be re-tuned as the result of long-overdue rest, restoration and healing. Many of these had, over time, very subtly drifted into nearly unshakable postures of sadness and despair, as they had faced many fiery trials in their previous courses. They had witnessed and experienced measures of warfare that left them deeply wounded, numb and despondent. For they had encountered false brethren, tares among the wheat, and wolves among sheep. They were disillusioned, as they had come to realize that the worst warfare they had faced to date was that within the Body of Christ. They had begun to doubt that they would ever again wish to re-engage their gifts and ministries. They had begun to doubt that they would ever see the truly Glorified Church, moving in authentic power and transforming entire cities and nations. However, these saints were rapidly approaching re-deployment. In fact, most of these "resting and healing" boxcars and locomotives were surprised, and caught off-guard, as they were unexpectedly called upon to deploy--suddenly. Though caught off-guard, they were yet ready for service, more ready than they realized, and they moved toward the turntable with strength, resolve and confidence—beyond any measure that they had walked in, previous.

As I looked toward the skyline in the closing moments of this vision, I saw a massive calendar. The heading of the calendar read, "8 – August." I new immediately that the activity I was seeing was to occur between now and the month of August.

As I have prayed about this vision over a period of a few weeks at this point, I have come to believe that over the next seven months, the Holy Spirit will be imparting specific direction, confirmation and affirmation to the steps of many of His saints, with respect to critical and vital relationships, partnerships and directions in ministry.

To those that are in a place where they are to plant-roots and delve deeper into the ministry or church that they are currently in, deeper relationships will occur. As well, new relationships will be birthed. New levels in gifting and anointing will be poured-out. Restructuring and repositioning of members of given ministries and churches will be quick, decisive and will be carried out with precision.

To those who have felt an impending change on the geographic horizon, vivid dreams will occur. Signs will be given; relationships will be birthed suddenly and unexpectedly, and will represent links to entirely new directions toward ministries and churches in different locales.

I was strongly impressed with Ephesians 4:16(b), "…the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, according to the effective working by which every part does its share, causes growth of the body…"

I believe the heightened activity level within this context, is that in preparation for the times ahead in 2006. I believe that events will unfold in 2006 that will require the Body of Christ to be planted decisively, and with unyielding resolve, in places and positions of service that are tailor-made for our individual gifts and callings. I believe that the key to seeing the signs and hearing the voice of the Holy Spirit in this hour, and specifically with respect to the next 7 months, will be that found within the practical and prayerful application of John 5:19 and John 5:30. In John 5:19, Jesus declared that He only did what He saw the Father doing. In John 5:30, Jesus declared that He only did what He heard the Father saying. In this context, I believe it is critical in this hour, and at this very moment, to adopt the prayer that asks for "the eyes to see" and "the ears to hear" what the Father is doing and saying to each of us, with respect to the massive turntable that many of us are rapidly approaching within this calendar year.

I have prayed that all who find receipt of this word would be quickened with a call to discern the rapid changes approaching each of us as the year unfolds.

A blanket of grace over each of you today, is my prayer.

In times of crisis I am there to swiftly come to the aid. But I tell you that there are even greater crisis's and events that are coming upon the horizon. For I have told some that Russia and China will invade this United States. Will you be ready for the onslaught? Will there be a preparedness in your government for this action? I tell you that there will be places of refuge set aside for that time. Woe to those prophets and apostles who speak of brighter days ahead. Woe to those who say that all will be well. For many of them are well-known among you. They have buried their heads in the sand. But to those who speak my truth, you will warn the people and some will take heed. "

Who Is Ready For These Days
Stephen Hanson

[43]But understand this: If the owner of the house had known at what time of night the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and would not have let his house be broken into. [44]So you also must be ready, because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him. Matt. 24:43-45

He said: "The LORD is my rock, my fortress and my deliverer; [3] my God is my rock, in whom I take refuge, my shield and the horn of my salvation. He is my stronghold, my refuge and my savior— from violent men you save me. [4] I call to the LORD, who is worthy of praise, and I am saved from my enemies. 2 Samuel 22:2-4

"I tell you that the time is quickly approaching when cities of refuge will be set aside for my people. For there will be a time of devastation that hits upon the United States. The cycle of the seasons will show this. For spring will give rise to summer, and summer will give rise to fall. I tell that great hordes are coming. An army of immense proportions will come upon your shores. Submarines and fleets will come to your coast. It will be at a time when your eyes are looking elsewhere. I tell you that the safety net has been lifted from your United States. No longer are you called the land of the free and the home of the brave; and yet I will reach out to those who are in need of Me. The great purging has begun, and the time of the great cleansing is coming. And yet, I will raise my sons and daughters up in this hour. Great manifestations of my spirit will happen. The lame will walk and the blind will see. Who is ready for the se days? Will you be ready and will you have your lamps trimmed and ready?"

Woe To The Inhabitants Of The Earth

Latonya Malinconico

August 9, 2005,
Interpreted October 12-13 & 18, 2005

The Judgment of the Houses

I dreamed that I was at my aunt's house and I was outside playing. The sky was dark and lightening was in the North. Then a great darkness arose and lightening struck the house in front of my aunt's and the house vanished by the power of the lightening.

With a house on both sides of that lot I asked of my aunt, "Where is the house?" Better yet the thought was "Was there ever a house there?" Because the infliction of the lightening had caused the earth to be untilled and abandoned, it looked as though nothing was every there; only grass and concrete.

This disturbed me because the thought that there never were a house stayed in my mind and I forgot that lightening had struck it and all that stayed with me was the fact that lightening was upon us and a great darkness was near. It reminded me of these words from the book of Isaiah:

Behold, Jehovah empties the land and makes it bare, and distorts its face, and scatters its inhabitants. (2) And as it is with the people, so it shall be with the priest; as with the servant, so with the master; as with the handmaid, so it is with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the lender, so with the borrower; as with the creditor, so with the debtor. (3) The land shall be completely emptied, and utterly stripped; for Jehovah has spoken this Word. (4) The earth mourns and languishes; the world droops and languishes; the proud people of the earth droop. (5) And the land is defiled under its people; because they have transgressed the laws, changed the ordinance, and have broken the everlasting covenant. (6) Therefore the curse has devoured the earth, and they who dwell in it are deserted; therefore the people of the earth are burned, and few men left. (Isaiah 24:1-6)

As soon as I thought this, I saw a thing in the sky and it came near and it was the image of a plane but it was not one, more like a spaceship from NASA mixed with the body of a plane and it was too low to the houses and a great fear entered my thoughts.

As soon as I turned to see where it was going it crashed with a great boom across the street of my aunt's house in that now vacant lot and a fire arose from it and the house that was gone appeared again burning in wild flames. The fire came towards my aunt's house and was on the roof of the porch. My aunt's house does not have a porch, but in the dream it did.

And I saw it and it grew hot and I ran inside and told my aunt of the fire. She went outside to make it stop spreading and I got something to put the fire out and went outside. Once outside, the fire had stopped and little damage was done to the front porch roof.

But across the street that house was warped and had a huge roof and a small house, like something stamped it with words that ran across the front side. It was as if someone took a waffle or pancake into a waffle maker and when done, there was a print in the pancake or waffle. Or when a cartoonist draws your picture and your head is big and the body is drawn smaller. This is what was done to the house.

Then I turned around and behind our house I saw a downtown structure and another plane was flying into it and it crashed and a big boom was heard and the earth shook a little. I turned on the news and no word was heard of it so I went back outside and once again another plane, the third plane, was flying and this time it was shaped funny. It was not a plane but rather an image of a closed book with colors on it. And it flew and ran into another house on the side of my aunt's and a great boom was heard. I saw that the house was warped into a different version of that house with something written on it. Then I went inside of my aunt's house.

Interpretation:

I believe that I saw the same message that Nita Johnson talks about in her book Prepare for the Winds of Change II, when an angel said to her:

“Judgment is coming to the lovers of the world. Those unrepentant and cripplers of the children, fear.” Then Nita wrote, “This he said as he touched the housetops with his large sword. Unlike the angel of war, this rider conquers through judgment… He was giving me the call of the watchman.

Son of man, speak to the sons of your people, and say to them: When I bring the sword on it, on a land, and take one man from the people of the land, of their borders, and set him for their watchman; if, when he sees the sword come on the land, he blows the trumpet and warns the people, then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet and does not take warning, if the sword does come and take him away, his blood shall be on his own head. (Ezekiel 33:2-4)

When is the watchman called? When he sees the sword coming upon the land….he is to cry the word of warning to the people- all the people.” Finally she added, “The second revelation I received… would be fully brought to an ultimate conclusion, yielding to the coming of the red horse.”

-Nita Johnson, Prepare for the Winds of Change II

I knew that God had called me to be a prophetess a few years ago. After that, I have had many dreams and visions and messages from Him to repent and about the end times. He was confirming this in the dream and letting me know that first, I am a watchman. Secondly, He was allowing me to see what will happen in the future when He begins to judge the saints and the nations. I will take this dream apart piece by piece for the interpretation. This is what the first part of my dream meant:

1. My aunt’s house is the place I grew up in. But it also represents a place of constant teaching, a familiar place when God takes me in my dreams to show me things. It is not a literally place for future events but a symbolic one in my dreams, one of teaching me the ways of God.
2. I was playing outside represents me getting ready for God to show me things. I am always playing basketball or something in the front yard in my dreams before the main events happen that God is showing me. Could be a preparation for me in my dreams. I also researched from biblical dream interpreters that the Front yard, porch, could mean outreach and evangelism to the church. And that playing could mean worship.
3. The sky was dark and lightening was in the North meant that judgment was about to begin. Lightening in another dream of mine and in this one represented God’s wrath or judgment. The North represented the place in which God was starting to come from with His wrath.
4. The darkness continued until the whole sky was dark meant that judgment was upon us and the lightening hitting the house in front of where I was represented the judgment of the Church, or those who claim to know God first. That although judgment was here, it would begin with those who know the Lord first.

For the time has come for the judgment to begin from the house of God. And if it first begins from us, what will be the end of those disobeying the gospel of God? And if the righteous one is scarcely saved, where shall the ungodly and the sinner appear? (1 Peter 4:17-18)

5. The house vanishing by the lightening could mean two things. One, like the scripture says that if the judgment began with us, what will be the end of those who are not saved? Because we know that we hope in Christ but all who are not saved are damned to hell. So if judgment starts with us, there will be some who call themselves Christians who barely escape hell, the vanishing of the house could mean that hardly no one is left who came out spotless after the judgment. Maybe a lot of people in the church were found by God to be hypocrites and lovers of the world, therefore destroyed.
6. The houses on both lots represent the three houses of the world. The church or saints of Jesus, the nation of Israel and the pagans or non-saved.
7. I asked of my aunt, “Where is the house?” Better yet the thought was “Was there ever a house there?” Because the infliction of the lightening had caused the earth to be untilled and abandoned and it looked as though nothing was every there; only grass and concrete. Just like the scripture from Isaiah, I was also reminded of this quote from the bible as well. This is what God was showing me when I began to ask questions of if the house was ever there because it was as if no house ever were there because of the desolation. As God showed me how it will be like the beginning of time in Genesis when the earth was void all over again during the time of His judgments.

For My people are foolish; they have not known Me; they are stupid sons, and they have no understanding. They are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge. (23) I looked on the earth, and, lo, it was without form and void; and the heavens, and they had no light. (24) I looked on the mountains, and, lo, they quaked; and all the hills were shaken. (25) I looked, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens had fled. (26) I looked, and, lo, the fruitful place was a wilderness, and all its cities were broken down before the face of Jehovah, before His fierce anger. (27) For so Jehovah has said, The whole land shall be desolate, yet I will not make a full end. (28) The earth shall mourn for this, and the heavens above shall be black, because I have spoken, I have purposed, and will not repent, nor will I turn back from it. (29) Every city shall flee from the sound of the horsemen and bowmen. They shall go into thickets and climb up among the rocks. All the city is abandoned, and not a man shall live in them. (30) And you, O desolate one, what will you do? Though you dress with crimson, though you put on ornaments of gold, though you make your eyes large with paint, you shall make yourself beautiful in vain; your lovers will despise you; they will seek your life. (31) For I have heard a voice as of a woman in labor, the anguish as one bearing her first child, the voice of Zion's daughter, gasping and spreading her hands, saying, Woe to me now! For my soul faints because of murderers. (Jeremiah 4:22-31)

8. The three planes represented the fullness of the trinity and three represents the coming together of the three houses.
9. The first plane that had the image of a plane mixed with a spaceship hit the house representing the church, and it spread fire. That fire was the Holy Spirit and represented revival. Since the church had been judged, it was now able to walk out of the fire purged and clean and made anew, able to preach with the power of God and anointing and fearlessness and boldness for the end times. No more denominations and dogmas and doctrines, only the word of God and His power. So the house was stamped and the roof was big and house was small because the roof represented God’s will, power and spirit, not man’s, who was represented by the bottom part of the house which had gotten small due to the judgments and the words stamped were a stamp of approval from God and a stamp which said it had been judged and those who came out clean were able to do God’s work and those who did not were turned away to depart from God because He did not know them. They had did God’s work for themselves and their own reputation. The fire of God’s spirit came towards my aunt’s house and was on the roof of the porch. This represented the fact that the heat was so hot from God’s spirit that it was spreading. A biblical dream interpreter said that the roof represented the mind; meditation; logic or natural; shield or covering of protection; heavenly revelation; prayer; declaration; complete overview; ability to see all, both good and evil. The fire of the spirit hit the roof and we, as humans did not know what to do at first so we tried to think of ways to put it out, but when we got outside, it was already out with no damage done. God was just showing me that change and revolution is sometimes not taken seriously or accepted by the church, but when the end time revival comes, it will spread anyway like it never has before and that we do not need to be afraid of the hot heat because it is the only thing that will separate the those who really love God from those who say that they do. Heat brings patience and longsuffering and kindness and all of the fruits of the spirit.
10. The second plane hit the city, which represented the world and the unsaved. This represented the judgment of the world. It happened so fast that the news did not have time to talk about it. I also saw the news because it is the only thing that unsaved people will listen to and watch in times like this instead of hearing God and praying, so when the news had nothing to offer them, they had no hope and no source of information to rely on.
11. And the third plane, whose image was a plane but really was a book with many colors on the front represented God hitting the nation of Israel with his spirit and truth. The book was the word and the knowledge of the Messiah, Jesus Christ was given to them along with the opportunity to accept Him as their savior. The 144,000, the 12 tribes of Israel, in which they believed the words of the New Testament, began to preach it on earth. I saw that the house was warped into a different version of that house with something written on it. This also represented the grafting of both the Church and the nation of Israel together to represent the closing of the fullness of the gentiles. One of the signs of the end times. The book, which was the word, had the names of all of His people in it, the Book of Life, which is also the word of God. Because the word is living and the word was with God and was God and that word was Jesus Christ and all who accept him are His and He, the shepherd knows His sheep.

Repent for the Kingdom of God is At Hand

While inside I began to tell my house about God and tried to tell my cousins and family to repent and come back to God because the end time was near. But they were troubled not in their heart, and only a few of them repented. Those that were not troubled longed for the things of this world, money and material wealth and thought nothing wrong with the world even as it was being destroyed. But the few that did heed to the words of God heard them well. And then the scene changed.

Now, then, fear Jehovah, and serve Him in sincerity and truth. And put away the gods which your fathers served on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt, and serve Jehovah. And if it seems evil to you to serve Jehovah, choose this day whom you will serve, whether the gods which your fathers served Beyond the River, or the gods of the Amorites in whose land you live. But as for me and my house, we will serve Jehovah.
(Joshua 24:14-15)

Say to them: As I live, says the Lord Jehovah, I have no delight in the death of the wicked, except in the turning of the wicked from his way, and so to live. Turn, turn from your evil ways; for why will you die, O house of Israel? (Ezekiel 33:11)

But unless you repent, you will all likewise perish. (Luke 13:5)

Then Peter said to them, Repent and be baptized, every one of you, in the name of Jesus Christ to remission of sins, and you shall receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. (Acts 2:38)

Therefore repent and convert so that your sins may be blotted out, when the times of refreshing shall come from the presence of the Lord. (Acts 3:19)

The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God draws near. Repent, and believe the gospel. (Mark 1:15)

Abomination of Desecration

Everyone was running on the freeways towards the west. Then they turned and went back east away from an unseen terror. My family that was with me, I do not remember who all was there, we watched the mass of people run back from which they came and a vision came to me in my dream of what they were running from. This was the open vision that I had in my dream:

There was a temple and it dark and powerful and inside of it was an image of a pig and a beast. And the beast was being worshiped and the pig slaughtered and great was the wrath of God in this that the whole world shook at the abomination of this deed.

But when you see the abomination of desolation, that spoken of by Daniel the prophet, standing where it ought not (let him who reads understand), then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains.
(15) And let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house. (16) And let him who is in the field not turn back again in order to take up his garment.
(17) But woe to those with babe in womb, and to those who give suck in those days! (18) And pray that your flight is not in the winter. (19) For in those days shall be affliction, such as has not been from the beginning of the creation which God created until now, and never shall be. (20) And unless the Lord had shortened those days, no flesh would be saved. But for the elect's sake, whom He has chosen, He has shortened the days. (Mark 13:14-20)

“…Jesus is referring to the book of Daniel. That is, "Let the reader understand the book of Daniel." For Daniel talks about a desolating sacrilege, an "abomination of desolation," which is to be set up in the temple and will defile and profane the temple. In Second Thessalonians the Apostle Paul evidently is referring to that very sacrilege when he speaks of the "man of sin" who is to appear, who will take his seat in the temple of God, proclaiming that he himself is God. This is the world-wide religion of the last days." -WATCH ! by Ray C. Stedman

Then the vision ended and I saw in my dream the people who fell afraid and ran in terror of both the beast and of God. And some hid in caves and under bridges from the might of God and some ran in fear of the beast and wished to repent but it was too late, for they forsook God a while back and in that most unforgivable sin, they took to a new master and heard his voice and took his mark, but when they saw the might of God, they wanted to leave the beast but could not. Everyone who hid was still destroyed from the mountains falling on top of them.

And a third angel followed them, saying with a great voice, If anyone worships the beast and its image, and receives a mark in his forehead or in his hand, he also will drink of the wine of the anger of God, having been mixed undiluted in the cup of His wrath. And he will be tormented by fire and brimstone before the holy angels, and in the presence of the Lamb. And the smoke of their torment goes up forever and ever. And they have no rest day or night, those who worship the beast and its image, and whoever receives the mark of its name. (Revelation 14:9-11)

And they shall begin to say to the mountains, Fall on us! And to the hills, Cover us! (Luke 23:30)

And the kings of the earth, and the great men, and the rich, and the chief captains, and the mighty men, and every bondman, and every freeman, hid themselves in the dens and in the rocks of the mountains. And they said to the mountains and rocks, Fall on us and hide us from the face of Him sitting on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; for the great day of His wrath has come, and who will be able to stand? (Revelation 6:15-17)

Sinners just rewards: the Great Woes upon the Earth

So others ran in fear and thinking that they would escape the beast by running from it, stood another judge in the east. And He slew those who ran from the beast, those who took his mark and now wanted to leave him. Among them stood unbelievers and many church goers who said in word that they believed God but in deed, their faith was dead. Carnal Christians and sinful ones, ones who played with God and in the eyes of others made the name of Christianity fall short of what it was meant to be, those among them who played with God but were yet lukewarm.

I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I would that you were cold or hot. So because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will vomit you out of My mouth. (Revelation 3:15-16)

For the love of money is a root of all evils, of which some having lusted after, they were seduced from the faith and pierced themselves through with many sorrows. (1 Timothy 6:10)

For men will be self-lovers, money-lovers, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy, (2 Timothy 3:2)

And because of this, God allowed them, by their own free will to forsake him in fear and because they were lukewarm, He devoured them with the host of his enemy. And Satan laughed at them without pity and he said to them that God removed their protection because they chose not to repent and where neither on his side fully or on Satan's side, therefore Satan had the right to destroy them.

And all that ran away from the beast were smote in ruins upon the land and great woes where then cast upon the earth.

Behold, I am throwing her into a bed, and those who commit adultery with her into great affliction, unless they repent of their deeds. (Revelation 2:22)

Remember then how you have received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. Therefore if you will not watch, I will come upon you as a thief, and you will not know what hour I will come upon you. (Revelation 3:3)

If you are willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the land; but if you refuse and rebel, you shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of Jehovah has spoken. (Isaiah 1:19-20)

Nita Johnson wrote in her book “So God is sending the sword of judgment, removing his protection from even the saints ‘who are lovers of this world’, thus allowing heavy enemy attack. Some will die under it; others will turn to vile sin as that is where their hearts are. Destruction will be the result.”
-Nita Johnson, Prepare for the Winds of Change II

And the rest of the men who were not killed by these plagues still did not repent of the works of their hands, that they should not worship demons, and golden, and silver, and bronze, and stone, and wooden idols (which neither can see, nor hear, nor walk). (Revelation 9:20)

And they did not repent of their murders, nor of their sorceries, nor of their fornication, nor of their thefts. (Revelation 9:21)

And men were burned with great heat. And they blasphemed the name of God, He having authority over these plagues. And they did not repent in order to give Him glory. (Revelation 16:9)

And they blasphemed the God of Heaven because of their pains and their sores. And they did not repent of their deeds. (Revelation 16:11)

“Remember that John says of certain individuals in First John 2:19, "They went out from us, but they were not of us; for if they had been of us, they would have continued with us; but they went out, that it might be plain that they all are not of us." Every age witnesses those seeming Christians who begin well, seem to be bright and happy and committed, but who begin to fade away under the pressures and tensions of the times. As those tensions and pressures increase, sometimes to the severing of the dearest family ties, there are many who turn back and thus reveal that they never really had life from Christ. This is why we have those passages such as that in Hebrews 6 warning us that we are to be sure that the life we have is real, genuine, founded in Jesus Christ. For he who endures to the end will be saved.” – taken from WATCH! By Ray C. Stedman

But some stood and watched who did not run away from the beast but went to make war with it. And as my family stood in what seemed to be the sidelines. We made a choice to make war with the beast. So we began to debate if we should go get our bibles from my aunt’s house. However:

And let him who is on the housetop not go down into the house, nor enter to take anything out of his house. (16) And let him who is in the field not turn back again in order to take up his garment. (17) But woe to those with babe in womb, and to those who give suck in those days! (Mark 13:15-17)

Now the party of us grew more and it seemed that not just my family but some others as well. And some said the journey might be to long and unwise while we needed to go in haste to the war. So we left those who were complaining and saying that the journey was unwise.

But that which was sown on the stony places is this: he who hears the Word and immediately receives it with joy. But he has no root in himself, and is temporary. For when tribulation or persecution arises on account of the Word, he immediately stumbles. (Matthew 13:20-21)

But we turned anyway to go get our bibles, suddenly a big one story building appeared and there was a line. I saw my father and step mother and sister in line for bibles. And the line was so long that although the workers sold bibles, they grew weary and longed to stop working to rest. So they stopped selling, (I can’t remember if they sold or gave them away) although they had enough bibles for the great host of us. And complaints went out that they stopped giving the bibles out. And some there were with fear because although they wanted to make war with the beast, they did not know the word of God fully to understand. Some people before that time where not devout to studying and so when the time came, they were not prepared. “A man works while it is still day, for when the night comes man can no longer work”.

Take heed, watch and pray, for you do not know when the time is. (34) As a man going away, leaving his house, and giving authority to his servants, and each man's work to him, and commanded the doorkeeper to watch. (35) Then you watch, for you do not know when the lord of the house is coming, at evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrowing, or early; (36) lest he come suddenly and find you sleeping. (37) And what I say to you, I say to all. Watch. (Mark 13:33-37)

Tim Rivers sent me an email from a great bible study on being prepared that said the following, “The sum of what He is saying through the above to you would seem to be to prepare the priesthood for the Parousia.” It is therefore done by:

"a. Live holy lives abiding in Christ (1 John2:28) and perfecting holiness in the fear of God. (2 Cor 7:1)
b. Rejoice in hope knowing that we have a Saviour who will certainly appear and all our work for Christ will not be in vain but abundantly rewarded. (1 Cor 15:58)
c. Be alert to the various deceptions that Satan will launch against the church in those days. (2 Thess 2:8,9; Matthew 24:11)
d. Engage in radical simplicity knowing that all our material possessions will be just fuel for the fire on that day. (1 John 2:15-17; 2 Peter 3:10-14,)
e. Be awake to God not "asleep in the light". (Matthew 25:1-13) This means we are to have a sense of perpetual readiness and anticipation and in constant spiritual growth. The attitude that "I will get right with God just before Jesus comes back is "foolishness" and imperils the joy that the believer can enter into.
f. Wait patiently for the coming of the Lord without giving in to skepticism about the apparent delay (James 5:7-8, 2 Peter 3:3-4) or alarmist panic (2 Thess 2:1,2) concluding that He has already come.
g. Hasten the day by engaging in Kingdom activity. (Matthew 6:33, 24:14, 2 Peter3:12)"

Great Masses of Witnesses go forth

And in my spirit a task was given to me from God instantly so I called Jamerson, my mentor and asked him to come to where we were to help. And he was with his own family and a mass of people because the same things were happening where he was and could not come to where I was. He had to do what he had to do where he was. And this Jamerson told me that I had to do the same, like all of the remnant of God had to do in these times.

And I wept because I did not want to part from Jamerson because I was raised in the word and spirit by him and I was saddened. And to this task I had to do alone. So I bid farewell to Jamerson and received his blessings as a son from his father, rather a daughter from her father like in the bible times. Then I went inside of the building where the bibles were being given out and great words from God entered me and called for the repentance of the workers and for them to turn from sin. Not just from withholding the bibles in vain but from their sins.

Take no thought beforehand what you should speak or think. But speak whatever shall be given to you in that hour. For it is not you who speaks, but the Holy Spirit. (Mark 13:11)

The Zealots

And as I walked out some asked why God was so mad and caused great woes to be unleashed and I told them that the temple was abominated. Some of them were so angry that they almost left God because of bitterness and war and so they became zealots, and hate for the enemy entered their hearts so strongly because they wanted to make war with the beast physically that they abandoned the word of God. Like the zealots in Jesus’ day who wanted a Hebrew King, the Messiah to overthrow the Roman government. These zealots knew not that we war against spirit and principalities and were not prepared spirituality for spiritual war, Satan was able to temp them to anger and sin so they went to war physically to a battle that they were about to loose.

Avenge not yourselves, beloved, but give place unto the wrath of God: for it is written, Vengeance belongeth unto me; I will recompense, saith the Lord. (Romans 12:19)

Put on the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. (12) For our wrestling is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, against the powers, against the world-rulers of this darkness, against the spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. (13) Wherefore take up the whole armor of God, that ye may be able to withstand in the evil day, and, having done all, to stand. (Ephesians 6:11-13)

I spoke to them to repent and come back. Some did and some did not. I heard no words of those that did not come back to God. Then I heard the masses whisper something and then someone told me that because of the words I spoke, the workers where in favor of me and would do what I asked. So I sent word to begin giving out the bibles again.

But once I done this, God then told me that this was the reason that we were to hide the word in our hearts so that when a time like this came when there were no bibles that we should not worry because the word was in us. It was said in my spirit. Then I started to go to make war with the beast and lead those that would follow. I then woke up, ending the dream.

Words For America

Tom Deckard

This nation has become a stench in the nostrils of G-d and it is too late to turn His judgment back. G-d's spirit will no longer strive with America and America is in for a long hard fall. I realize this is not what people want to hear, but this is what the L-rd is saying.

America prepare thyself to receive the judgments of your G-d. I gave thee of the fatness of the land and put strength within thee to overcome nations and kingdoms. But you now think that it was something that you have done within your selves to have accomplished these things.

Woe unto you and your mighty men of valor. For I the L-rd G-d shall bring to nought your strength and ability to overcome. It is I the L-rd G-d that does bring forth kings and nations and it is I that tears them down. You have become an abomination to me. Your priests and seers are as sleeping dogs that have refused to repent and seek me with a whole heart. They minister for their own gain. I the L-rd G-d will bring them to nought and turn them over to believe a lie.

I will cause the storms, earthquakes, and floods to become stronger and more frequent. I will send a sword through the land and will cause families to be at odds one to another, killing and being killed. Tumult will be throughout the land and your streets will run with blood. Famine will I send in the land and you will watch as your children die from hunger. I tried over and over again to reason with you O' nation, but you would have me not. We will now see as you have thought to have become your own god if you can deliver these people in their time of trouble. I will laugh at you and call you a foolish nation. You have forsaken the Living G-d and I have now forsaken you. You will know in the end that I am the G-d of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. I was in the beginning and so shall I be in the end.

These are not things that are going to take place overnight. It will transpire very slowly as it already has; seemingly as though there has been nothing take place. This nation has become accustomed to all the storms, earthquakes, fires, floods, and everything else that the L-rd has sent to try to get the attention of the church and this nation.

The days that lie ahead for the United States and the world are going to become very trying times. The church is slipping deeper and deeper into a coma from which, only a remnant will awaken. It is this remnant that will do the great exploits in these last days.

We must keep the faith and not be drawn into the snare that is now set for all mankind.

Wake Up America!...

G-d is saying: wake up America! I am not happy with what is now going on. I am not happy with the Church. I am not happy with the prophets that are saying peace; peace and causing my people to sleep instead of preparing. I am not happy with the government. I am not happy with the leadership of this country. I will judge this nation even further than I have in the past.

Could this be turned around, yes if we as a nation would repent. That would mean from our President right on down to the Governors of the states and to the citizens. Still it would take two generations to turn it completely around. There is no sign that it will ever happen.

Nuclear Explosions in this Country...

There will be "dirty bombs" used here in America. In the end this nation will receive a nuclear attack that will destroy thousands upon thousands of lives. All because this nation decided to go the ways of the world and not serve G-d as our fore fathers did.

The Church is going to have to prepare themselves. Many will in the end wish they had listened to the voices that are now crying out. "Repent ye, repent ye, for the Kingdom of our G-d is once again at hand."

Matthew 24:29-31 (KJV)

29 Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon shall not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:
30 And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory.
31 And he shall send his angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.

Notice that Jesus (Yeshua) is saying that "immediately after the tribulation." Not before but after the tribulation. There will be a Great Tribulation.

The article below was written in 1993 we can clearly see the insight that G-d has given Bro. Deckard. Twelve years later our nation has been terrorized and we no longer have the freedoms that we once enjoyed.

In Paul's first letter to Timothy, chapter 4, verses 1 and 2, he is speaking of things coming to the church in the latter day just prior to the returning of Jesus.

I Timothy4:2

2 Speaking lies in hypocrisy; having their conscience seared with a hot iron;

We are seeing this happening right before our very eyes. People today are for the most part, openly accepting abortion and homosexuality, as though these abominations had always been acceptable. The church has large numbers participating in this type of thinking.

Our nation was built, to the greater degree, of believing the Bible to be the Holy Word of G-d. A standard we watched over and tried to teach and live for many years. And now it seems that the truths we held so dearly to as a nation are now gone forever.

We have twisted the basic truths of our laws until I am sure they would look as day is to night to the ones who established them. You may, as many are doing, ask yourself, how could this ever have happened to this great nation?

It did not happen overnight, but through a long period of time. In I Timothy 4:7 we are told: "But refuse profane and old wives fables, and exercise thyself rather unto godliness." In other words, if it is not G-d's Word do not accept it and do not twist G-d's Word to man's standards.

This is what we have done. We have gotten away from godliness and have looked more like the world looks instead of looking like the church should look. The church is talking much about revival and that they are going to see a sweeping revival of godliness across the land.

In Proverbs 23:23 we are told "Buy the truth, and sell it not...".

In John 8:32 we are told "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free."

Truth of what, G-d's Holy Word. Today's world is calling us Bible Thumpers and not in tune with the reality of living in a world that calls for killing babies in their mother's womb, homosexuality and a number of other issues where we have departed from truth. When the equal rights issue was brought forth, I believe that was the beginning of taking G-d's Word, man's laws, and twisting them out of their original context.

I believe the scripture in Isaiah 59:1-15 is speaking of the way things will be in the last days.

Isaiah 59:1-15

1 Behold, the Lord's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:
2 But your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, that he will not hear.
3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue hath muttered perverseness.
4 None calleth for justice, nor any pleadeth for truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.
5 They hatch cockatrice' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eateth of their eggs dieth, and that which is crushed breaketh out into a viper.
6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.
7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; wasting and destruction are in their paths.
8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no judgment in their goings: they have made them crooked paths: whosoever goeth therein shall not know peace.
9 Therefore is judgment far from us, neither doth justice overtake us: we wait for light, but behold obscurity; for brightness, but we walk in darkness.
10 We grope for the wall like the blind, and we grope as if we had no eyes: we stumble at noon day as in the night; we are in desolate places as dead men.
11 We roar all like bears, and mourn sore like doves: we look for judgment, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.
12 For our transgressions are multiplied before thee, and our sins testify against us: for our transgressions are with us; and as for our iniquities, we know them;
13 In transgressing and lying against the Lord, and departing away from our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of false hood.
14 And judgment is turned away backward, and justice standeth afar off: for truth is fallen in the street, and equity cannot enter.
15 Yea, truth faileth; and he that departeth from evil maketh himself a prey: and the Lord saw it, and it displeased him that there was no judgment.

One can easily see the United States in these scriptures. The fourteenth verse says truth has fallen in the streets and the fifteenth verse says those of us who will not do evil will become prey to those who do.

In Deuteronomy 32:28 it says "For they are a nation void of counsel, neither is there any under standing in them." This again fits us like a glove.

In II Timothy 4:4 we are told: And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.

For the most part we as the church have lost sight of truth. I said after the [Nov 1992] election the church had voted. Truth for a fact is far from us as a whole and that will prove damaging to us in time.

The church has given the new agers a green light to precede their conquest into the local churches. Even at this writing there is a ministerial alliance of a city about to let a new ager in to speak to them.

Let those that have ears to hear, hear what the L-rd is saying to the church in these dangerous times. We must stand with the truth of G-d's Word and not lean left or right. To be steadfast is the key, but remember you are what is in your heart. For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth can and does speak. Study the Word and know truth, not man's opinion, but G-d's Word, and watch Him extend His hand to protect you and yours, to deliver you out of harms way. Amen.

We are at the door of great change, in the United States, the world, and the church. Our belief in Jesus and His doctrine is about to be put to a test. The sad part of it is that much of the church will never know it because the truth has been far from them for so long that they know it not.

Word for Australia
Lanna Perry

16th December, 2005

“A city on a hill cannot be hidden” – Matthew 5:14 - 16

I saw the nation of Australia and it was shining so brightly. The gold anointing and presence of the Holy Spirit was flooding over every part of the nation and encompassing every inch.

I believed that the Lord was saying that the Lord is going to fulfill the promise over the nation of Australia ‘The Great Southland Of The Holy Spirit’. 2006 will be key in this move of God.

The Lord has seen the work of His children within this nation, and is going to release His Spirit in greater ways through a great surrendering that the Lord is bringing upon Australia. The Lord is indeed allowing great trials to shake the nation of all of what it has known before.

There is almost a false peace that is being placed over Australia, that everything is okay. Spiritually, Australia is not in a great place. The Lord indeed in 2006 is wanting to usher forth this prophetic word that was spoken over the nation of Australia being the Great Southland Of The Holy Spirit.

The Lord is calling His churches to surrender the control and the false sense of peace portrayed by the government to Him. A great pride rests on Australia as a nation and the Lord is bringing about a shaking that will indeed break this pride and bring forth opportunity for the word of God to be accepted or rejected in many hearts through a great shaking. A shaking that will bring about questioning of values and life’s purpose for many.

Australia has not faced much shaking, but the Lord is going to allow a shaking to come. I see that the Lord is longing to pour out His Spirit in a greater way over Australia. That it may be a nation that will shine brightly with the Spirit of God. The Lord is building up Australia as a place where many will come to be fueled, trained, and equipped for the Kingdom of God. Many from other nations will journey to Australia and receive an impartation and anointing of the Spirit through this great place.

The Lord is then going to begin releasing many, many more from within Australia to go to the nations to minister for Him. Australia will be known as a place of equipping and strength in the Spirit if as a nation, the shaking and release of pride is welcomed.

I also see the Lord is raising up intercessors for the nation of Australia. Many within the nation of Australia, but also many that are in other nations. As these intercessors are faithful to intercede for Australia, the empowerment of His Spirit will be ushered forth in great ways.

I also see many mountains on the nation of Australia and believe that the Lord will be placing Australia on a mountaintop, like a city on a hill, for all the world to see the way the Glory of the Lord rests on this place.

I have also seen that not only in the physical, but in the spiritual, the land is very dry. The land is very dusty, and it’s almost like every part of the land is crying out for water. For rain. So is the spiritual state of Australia. In a sense Australia has settled for only a taste of God’s rain. God is longing to pour out His Spirit in a way over Australia like never before. To bring about an overflow that will be seen by many other nations of the world.

Australia has dangled its toes in the river of God, and the Lord is calling Australia to a deeper level of surrender which will then usher this nation deeply into the river of God in greater ways.

I see a shofar being blown over the nation of Australia. Time for war. Time for the saints of God to rise up and to enter a deeper level of surrender. To take back what the enemy has stolen and be even more committed to the prophetic proclamation of “Australia – The Great Land Of The Holy Spirit”.

Pick Up Your Swords

Many of you are facing situations and circumstances that have not been what you have believed for, what you have expected. I speak to each of you that I am in control.

I am calling My church to pick up their swords. Pick up your swords My warriors and stand firm in all that I have spoken to you. Hold onto the promises of My Word.

For many of you are feeling oppression and attack from various sources. Principalities and powers have begun their attacks upon strategic people within My Kingdom with the aim to crush and devour.

Many of you are feeling bent under the pressure of opposition but I speak to you, pick up your Sword and proclaim My words upon your situation and emotions. Do not allow the enemy to bring about condemnation.

In 2006 many of you will see the fruition of your spoken words. Many of you will see the fruit of what you have sowed. Many of you will see the power of the tongue. Many of you will see the power that I have given to each of you to speak out in authority and boldness.

The enemy has a sword, and the enemy is coming at many with this sword and trying to cut off the tongues of many of you that are called to speak out for Me. The enemy is coming in and attempting to silence many.

No matter the persecution, no matter the struggle, no matter the hardship do not be silenced. Do not allow the enemy to sever My voice within each of you.

For the Sword that I purchased for you at Calvary has My blood on it, and nothing stands against My blood. Nothing stands against the power of My name.

So pick up your swords My church. Sever the emotions, sever the circumstances, sever the lies, sever the bondage, sever all things not of Me using the Sword that I have purchased for each of you at Calvary.

My warriors – be warriors. For warriors do not move forward without their armour. Do not leave your armour behind My church. Pick it up.

Do not leave your swords on the ground, for if you do, you will surely be overcome.

Pick up your swords My church – let us together move forward bringing My kingdom to this earth through the power of My spoken Word. Through the power and anointing that I have placed upon each of you. Let nothing stop you from serving Me, seeking Me, and making me known. Move forward warriors. Together we will take back what the enemy has stolen from so many. Together we will shatter the kingdom of darkness. Only move as you hear Me tell you too.

As My Son Jesus did not do anything unless I told Him, then so it should be with you My church. Move only as I speak. Use your Sword and slay only as I say, as you walk in the empowerment of My Spirit in this way, you will see a great and mighty manifestation of My Spirit.

For you fight not against flesh and blood but principalities and powers of this world. Stand your ground in Me, and use your Sword at my leading, and nothing shall overcome you.

Word For The UK
Lanna Perry

I saw that the enemy has had a hold open the United Kingdom. A spirit of control that has been quenching a lot of breakthrough within this nation. A grip upon this nation that is not the Father’s heart.

Spiritually I saw a dry place, so desolate, a land without water, without trees, growth or life. I enquired of the Lord why things have taken so long to grow, and I believe the Lord said to me that the control has been allowed to remain within churches, and over the nation as a whole. It has been allowed to remain.

Then right before my eyes, I saw an angel, a warrior angel descend from heaven. He hit earth and was armed with a sword. He was being led by the Spirit and was going around and breaking and loosing many things that have been withheld for so long.

Much shaking and breaking was coming to the United Kingdom, the Lord is about to bring a great crumble to the UK. A crumble of structure and control that has withheld the great moves of God that many people have been interceding for and waiting for within their hearts.

There has been a great thirst within the United Kingdom, yet it is a thirst that has not been quenched and many have not realized what this thirst is for. Many within churches are continually thirsting in their seats, yet they are not being fulfilled.

The Lord has released these warrior angels upon the earth to loose that which has been withheld for so long. I saw that the Lord is also releasing many at this time with their swords, they are to be the ones to usher in this crumble and shaking that the Lord is bringing to the door of the UK.

The Lord is not bringing about this shaking and crumbling for punishment, but is bringing this about for repentance and growth. The Lord wants to grow the ministries and churches of the UK, without the control that has existed for so long.

London Bridge

I continued to hear in the Spirit, the song “London bridge is falling down, falling down, falling down”. The Lord is about to bring a new move to the UK which is a move that has not been seen before. A greater release of His Spirit. What has been seen as a ‘monument’ of the way God has moved in the past will fall, and the new move of God will rise up. The bridge that the Lord has used before, will no longer be the bridge that He will be using in the next year.

I do not know much about the London bridge, but I sensed very strongly the Lord saying that the water beneath this bridge was very dirty. Murky.

I then saw the Lord place His hand on these waters and the waters became clear and sparkled in a way I have never seen and many were being drawn to this water.

I believe that the Lord through the removing of the ‘old’ bridge and bringing forth the ‘new’ bridge, the new move of His Spirit throughout the UK, the Lord will bring a great purification to the UK.

The pollution that has settled within the churches, will be removed by embracing the new move of God and freedom that He will bring through this new move.

Revelation 2:17

The Lord continued to put 2 scriptures on my heart for the UK.

The first being Revelation 2:17 – “Those who have ears to hear, let him hear what the Spirit is saying to the churches”.

The Lord is rising up churches and individuals in the UK in a greater training and revelation of hearing His voice. The Lord is longing to breakthrough and speak to His church. Many are sitting within the churches, and not hearing the Lord for themselves. The Lord is drawing churches and individuals to a place they have not known, where they are being taught and trained to hear His voice.

Isaiah 62: 10, 12

“Go out through the gates! Prepare the highway for my people to return! Smooth out the road, pull out the boulders. Raise a flag for nations to see…….. They will be called “The Holy People” and “The People Ransomed by the Lord”.

Through this great shaking, and the purification coming to the UK, the Lord is going to release many from within the UK next year. Many will be released and the Lord calling them to walk through the gates of their destinies, They will have been trained by the Spirit alone to hear His voice, and embraced His heart within them.

They will move forth and prepare the highway for those who have fallen behind. They will show them they way of return. Control being removed.

The UK will stand strong from this season onwards more than ever before as a flag to all nations. A mighty move and change will come to the UK by the Spirit of God that will show other nations like never before that they are a holy people, a people ransomed by the Lord.
They will arise and shine, and the Glory of the Lord is about to rest on the UK in a way, the world has never seen, if they embrace this move of God that is on their doorstep.

The true north strong and free
From far and wide oh Canada we stand on guard for thee
God keep our land
Glorious and free

Truth in the Holy Spirit, brotherly love
I Agape you
My Sons Command you
Your righteous hearts are on Fire
I have seen YOU RISE
You are the Spiritual Promised Land
You are strong in the Lord and in the Power of His Might
You are Free in the Word

And then I heard it like a mighty rushing wind the purifying sounds of thunder across the plains and in the hills. The trumpet is blasting and Her enemies are Scattered for the Lord arises in the midst of her. On the hills He appears with his Sword in hand

" Fear Not oh Daughter of Freedom. For I have selected you and made covenant with you from sea to sea. I watch over my Word to perform it. My Word is written on your walls. I AM watching over it. I Perform it. I never slumber. Do not be dismayed at what you see for I will deliver you. I have a plan and soon you will see it. "

Warnings For My Children
Garth Soso

Hear ye, oh hear ye this day indeed. Oh yes this is a day of rejoicing for My children. Yes it is. This is a day of war in My house. Yes that’s right. A day of war. This is the day in which I slay the enemy of your soul. There is a fierce battle going on right now in the spiritual realm. Yes indeed. I have purposed to release more of My glory to My children who have prepared their hearts for my invasion. Yes indeed. War does not commence without an enemy. Glory is not released without opposition from the enemy. Do you have ears to hear and eyes to see?

Yes this war is spilling over into the natural realm. Many of My children are feeling somewhat unsettled in their spirits. Many are feeling fear and dread. Those whose eyes are upon their creator will pass through these high waves crashing against them with no ware and tear upon their lives. Yes many of you feel like you are lacking direction. Yes many of you are confused and without clarity. But that is the work of the enemy. This too shall pass My children. So gird up your loins for the mighty God is awaiting your advancement as you drudge through the waters. Lo I will be with you as the wave’s crash against you. Fear not My children because joy comes in the morning.

Consider My children whose eyes are not on me. Consider what the enemy is doing to their hearts. He is separating many of My children from their positions on the wall. The enemy is bringing much division within families and church buildings. Stand strong My children. Do not let the enemy derail your kingdom position of receiving the destinies I have for you. Stand strong I say in My mighty power to deliver you from everything that ensnares you. You are entering a new season of My power and glory and the enemy wants to stop you from receiving your inheritance.

Release all burdens and cares to Me. Don’t try to resolve issues that come into your lives in a whirlwind of confusion on your own. This is a very critical time My children. I need you free from the snares of the world. I need your eyes on Me and not on your circumstances. Stay focused on Me My friends. Even though if may seem as if you have lost your way, I will not let you fall. I am your way! Stay in prayer. Stay in worship. Stay in My word. Stay your mind on Me in thanks and praises. Yes indeed My children.

Love Garth J. Soso

Warning for Paris

Tammy Stalnaker

I had a dream a year ago on July 20, 2004. I have feel as though I should have posted this much sooner.
My journal reads as follows:

July 20, 2004 "This a.m. at around 4:45 a.m. I woke up from a dream. In my dream I was told to remember what I was seeing. I was told four times. What I saw was what looked like a headline in a newspaper. It said .... "The Great Flood and Fire of Paris 2006".

After this I hear that once we see this happen that it would be a sign to His people.

I also saw that this did not have to be if the people would repent.

I have searched the internet and have not seen anyone else with this dream or vision. I am praying that the Lord would confirm this dream with others, and if it is a warning to His people that there would be confirmation for them to believe and leave Paris.

Words for Some Nations

1:11 am looked at clock
Just a bit earlier as I was in the living room, I was thinking of my life, and how favor in my life has always been with foreigners and others who are different, even when in the medical field. I was thinking how much I longed to go back into the harvest and to bless those of other nations. As soon as I turned on the computer it read 1:11, so I waited and heard…

"Astonishing things about to happen. Development of new nuclear warheads in Persia are not alone what they have seemed. There is also development of nerve gas that will annihilate whole areas of people which they took from Sadaam. That is what they are up to!

Koreans will not be allowed to continue once China has wind of the truth of their design. Kim Jung Il is quite ambitious and tormented mentally.
There will be a new regime rise up due to the prayers of My sons and daughters for the situation there. The border will open and restoration of families and great harvest will ensue once Kim is removed from power. I am readying My warriors to go forth and proclaim victory. The people of North Korea will be liberated for the sake of harvesting of souls!

Meanwhile China is developing more and more of their own weaponry for their own designs on conquering. Greed fills the hearts of many in power.
But I will overthrow in this hour the futile plans of men and they will fight with each other as they fight for power!

There will be a nuclear attack before end of the year that will remove all complacency in this nation! But that will also lend fuel to nazism that has tried to make progress in this nation. People being beyond reason will blame Israel and Arabs and neither will be safe here after this. Many vigilante retaliations will occur as lawlessness becomes stronger! Fear will grip many hearts. The good part will be that many idols will be torn down by this event and there will be repentance from broken hearts this time, and HARVEST will ensue as I explode inside My people across the earth. ESCALATION will ensue also with fervor and there will be many storms and earthquakes and flooding and famine will increase again this coming year. Understand the enemy who is the prince of the air is trying to oppose My HARVEST so SPEAK TO THE STORMS, SPEAK TO THE EARTH and winds and do not just accept everything as MY will! Ask ME for instructions and I will speak to you!

India is about to undergo great change and My people there will experience MORE confrontation, but in that will be a great HARVEST of souls such as the world has not seen in ages past! I am longing to restore this ancient land from the hand of demons and I will also restore the lands of the east from the dragon of BUDDHISM. I will slay the dragons with My WORSHIP WARRIORS! I will send them into the lands of the east to proclaim the truth, and they will bring with them My very presence that will restore and heal and convict and slay. The dead will rise, and the crippled will walk, the blind will see and all manner of generational curses will be broken and the enemy disarmed. However he will not just sit there and take it! He will arise like fire to try to devour My people! This will be a very difficult time in the ages of the earth and the earth will GROAN and reel with each birth pangs.

Russia will experience GREAT HARVEST flooding all the areas of that nation and many will go forth and take other nations like a groom searching for a bride, will they go forth and proclaim liberty to the captives! They will DANCE with JOY inexpressible and overflowing and the enemy within their gates will be arrested. Again at the end of such a great harvesting mid rejoicing will come forth hatred against those who love ME and the hook will be placed in her jaw for My purposes to be fulfilled.

Israel is about to do some about facing! There will be archeological discovery that will humble the nations! There will be oil and a new paradigm of relationship with the world. Men who have bowed to idols will turn in that nation to bow to the One True GOD! They will be humbled to see what I do to RESTORE before the time changes. The time of the Gentiles is yet unfulfilled. Changes in America will cause many here to make Aliyah and help in building Israel up again. I will make nations JEALOUS for what I do. The prayers of saints in Israel are not ignored! They are working towards a greater glory!

Romania and her dark history will have a reversal of heart. I will destroy the ancient foundations and there will be a flooding of souls into My kingdom in that nation! She has been like a stepchild in Europe, but I will make her My adopted princess and there will be a new hunger for spiritual things as I release My glory in the earth!

Bulgaria, Hungary, and Turkey will have a new paradigm shift in their governments at My instigation that will allow for more freedom to spread the gospel of peace! New regimes will be raised up in many nations at the prayers of My beloveds! Worship Me in the beauty of holiness and wait on Me in My presence oh beloved ones for I will not disappoint you. I long for fellowship and I will heal the deep wounds in you and between you and restore dignity and peace for a time within your borders! New changes will come through much turbulence, but will usher in peace.

I am filled with longing for My bride all across the nations! I am hungry to see My love fulfilled for them. Will you come with Me on a great adventure and leave all the comforts of this world behind for the adventure of a lifetime? I will thrust you forth into the nations with great adventure and great power as I go with you!

Heartless Admonitions
Priscilla Van Sutphin

May 31st, 2005
Eph 6:4 AMP Fathers, do not irritate and provoke your children to anger [do not exasperate them to resentment], but rear them [tenderly] in the training and discipline and the counsel and admonition of the Lord.

Titus 3:10-11 NKJV Reject a divisive man after the first and second admonition, 11 knowing that such a person is warped and sinning, being self-condemned.

Admonition – Merriam Webster definition:
1 : gentle or friendly reproof
2 : counsel or warning against fault or oversight

“If I your heavenly Father, caution you with tenderness when I reprove you, then why is it that I see so many of My children given hearless admonitions and guidance that is lacking in compassion? A good father gives his children reproof and admonitions in LOVE, not in impatience and intolerance and frustration. But I see those who are called to shepherd My flocks giving harsh and demanding admonitions and warnings and responding to others in defensive pride and ardent dispisement! I am not like that. I am not resenting My own children. And if I have called you truly to care for those who are Mine, then surely you should not resent them!

1 Peter 5:2-4 NKJV Shepherd the flock of God which is among you, serving as overseers, not by compulsion but willingly, not for dishonest gain but eagerly; 3 nor as being lords over those entrusted to you, but being examples to the flock; 4 and when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the crown of glory that does not fade away.

Does a mother resent her own nursing child? How can you walk in love and hate your brother? And how can you as children, hate your fathers if I have called them to father or mother you? There is way too much intolerance in My church for each other. There is complaining and criticism and oversensitivity to the extreme. STRIFE is not my plan. Strife is not of ME. Yet there is division because the sons of God are mixed with the sons of lawlessness and selfishness. So strife is there in My church because there are those not called to shepherd, yet have done so without a true call and commissioning. There are many who have been led astray into various doctrines and temptations who are not fulfilling the call in earnest.

And there are many who are outright wolves in sheep's clothing. So there is a division in the church mirroring division in Israel, because of the times and because of the discrepancy in following. Some are following their own will. Some are following the enemy, and some are following ME. I am the JUDGE of the earth and I am purposing a division in this hour that divides sheep from goats – true followers vs. those who only care about self.

You cannot heal the breeches when there is division without ME. You cannot strive. You cannot make peace when peace is far from the goals of those in authority serving themselves. I AM THE HEAD OF THE CHURCH. It is I Who will resolve and mend the breeches in the church. It is I Who will pour out My Spirit in such a way that divides between true sheep and the goats.

So trust ME to do that! Do not despise the one who runs from a murderous spirit of jezebel in the church. And do not despise the one who stays and panders to the religious if you are on the outside walls in hiding. Do not use your sword brother against brother. You do not have to destroy another to be able to fulfill your call. There are many Sauls in the church, but it is NOT the time to bow to murderous hearts and cruel jealousy. David ran, and so have many run away to keep from being destroyed. They have found ME in the wilderness and been nurtured by ME for a season.

Others have run out of fears and immaturity. Do not judge them either. Allow ME to soothe their souls and rebuild trust. There are those who have stayed under domination and control misunderstanding My will in their lives.
And there are those who are there to intercede. There are also many good shepherds who have been crippled and bludgeoned by immature sheep. But for the most part, many are leaving the confines of the pews because I am driving them to discontentment with the status quo. Just as David gathered to himself the discontented, and those in debt and disenfranchised, so many have been drawn together who like David have been pursued by jezebel in the church. They have blessed and not cursed, yet have been hated and suffered cruelly at the hands of the jealous Saul's.

I will bring the sword against the Sauls in the land. I will be the JUDGE of who is for me and who is really against Me. I alone know what is in the heart of a man. So just pray that in that hour that I strike down the guilty, that those you know will be spared. Pray for release from the enemy in their lives. Renounce any resentments and come to ME and allow me to heal any hurts that are still in your hearts. I will hold you in My arms of love and heal every rejection and every knife in the back I will remove! I was despised and rejected of men, as you are. So do not be surprised and do not be dismayed. BEWARE when men speak well of you and when you are so well accepted for so they did to the prophets of old, then they murdered them!

TRUST ME in all that you do. Trust ME to be big enough to deal with all that is wrong in the church. But those of you in the church who are yet there on assignment, do not despise your brother who leaves. Bless them, and pray for them. I told you to love your enemies, to be good to those who hate you and to pray for those who spitefully use you! I've told you a dead man has no need to defend themselves! Unless a kernel of grain falls to the ground and dies, can it produce life! He who loves his life will lose it.
Cling to ME My beloveds! Ask ME for the wisdom you need and I will fill you with it! I have purpose as well to meeting outside the church. I see what is ahead. Know that persecution will come. And I am preparing the way. I am in control and many of you need to face the hour you are in. Many have not awaken from slumber. Many are not willing to give up anything and die, to what THEY want. So they will have to learn the hard way. I tell you that you must walk in MY ways, and to find those ways, you must seek My face!

He who is not willing to give up his life, will lose it in the end.

Matt 16:25-27 NKJV For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will find it. 26 For what profit is it to a man if he gains the whole world, and loses his own soul? Or what will a man give in exchange for his soul?

I have said, Come unto ME , you who are heavy laden for I am gently and lowly of heart. Many are burdened down with striving and performing while
I am trying to call them closer to My heart. I've told you that apart from ME, you can do nothing! I am the VINE, you are the branches! Unless you abide in ME, and I abide in you, you can do nothing of yourselves. So come unto ME. Get MY PLAN, and MY WISDOM, and MY OPINION before you go ahead and do what you think is wise! REST in ME, and let me guide you the way you should go . Speak tenderly to My bride, for I love and adore her. Recognize your own propensity for failure and your own areas of sin before trying to judge another. Let him who is without sin throw the first stone!"

1 Cor 10:5-11 NKJV
5 But with most of them God was not well pleased, for their bodies were scattered in the wilderness. 6 Now these things became our examples, to the intent that we should not lust after evil things as they also lusted. 7 And do not become idolaters as were some of them. As it is written, "The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play." 8 Nor let us commit sexual immorality, as some of them did, and in one day twenty-three thousand fell; 9 nor let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents; 10 nor complain, as some of them also complained, and were destroyed by the destroyer. 11 Now all these things happened to them as examples, and they were written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the ages have come.

Organized Reunion

Isa 60:1-2 NKJV The Gentiles Bless Zion
Arise, shine; For your light has come! And the glory of the LORD is risen upon you. For behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, And deep darkness the people; But the LORD will arise over you, and His glory will be seen upon you.

Joel 2:29-30 NKJV And also on My menservants and on My maidservants I will pour out My Spirit in those days. "And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: Blood and fire and pillars of smoke.

" I am organizing a reunion of sorts with you My beloveds! There was a time when man walked with me in the garden and we talked together and had sweet fellowship with one another. I sent My Son to die to restore your ability to commune with ME, but that communion has not been as full as I would like it to be. The locusts have devoured much truth in the Church of Jesus Christ. The rebellion of this age has drawn many away from the original purpose for which I died. But I AM COMING TO RESTORE a greater union with ME, and I will have a bride who will lay down her life that she might have all of ME!

Eph 3:16-19 NKJV that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height — to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God.

I will have a bride who knows how much I love her and who is CONFIDENT in that love. I will settle for nothing less. I am the All Consuming FIRE, I am the God Who is called Qanna! I am jealous for you! Just as a lover is jealous for his bride in the human way, I am jealous for time with you as well. I love you and I adore you…I am a jealous Lover over My creation. I earnestly desire to spend time with you, and do not tire of your company.

I enjoy spending time with you. Do you enjoy spending time with ME? Are you wanting this reunion? Will you come away with ME and spend some time with ME, that we might have sweet fellowship together? Will you lay down YOUR AGENDA and pick up Mine? My love for you is EVERLASTING. It cannot be robbed or stolen. I am not a philanderer. I will never leave you nor forsake you.

I speak softly to you, for I know all that you have been through. Yet there are much worse times coming. And I want you to be protected by My glory.
I want only what is BEST for you! I want you to understand how much I love you that you can be FILLED TO THE FULL WITH MY GLORY! I will break every chain that has bound you! I will destroy all that has come against you! Just as a husband defends his wife, I will defend My bride.

Isa 31:5 NKJV Like birds flying about, So will the LORD of hosts defend Jerusalem. Defending, He will also deliver it; Passing over, He will preserve it."

Though the world is perishing and passing away, and though there are storms on the horizon, yet will I protect My bride and sustain her through famine, and pestilence, war and persecution. I will not allow My turtledoves to be turned over to the wild beasts of the earth until the set time has come!
Yet in a time there will be more martyrdom and persecution than has ever been seen before. So I am wooing you to My side, that you may receive all you need to endure the times ahead. I will give you wisdom and strategies for the days ahead as you lie with Me and walk with Me, and talk with Me.
Do not be independent! Do not think you can do whatever you have been doing. For most of my church does NOT walk in dependence on ME. And with all that is ahead, I want you prepared. So come to me and fellowship with Me and I will give you wisdom and secrets, and I have many SURPRISES for My bride. All heaven awaits to see the sons of men manifested in the earth.

Do not allow the greed of this world, and the lusts of the flesh any room in your life. I said that without holiness, no one will see God! You cannot attain it without knowing the fullness of My love.
Heb 12:14 AMP Strive to live in peace with everybody and pursue that consecration and holiness without which no one will [ever] see the Lord.

Eph 4:23-24 NKJV and be renewed in the spirit of your mind, and that you put on the new man which was created according to God, in true righteousness and holiness.

1 Thess 3:12-13 AMP And may the Lord make you to increase and excel and overflow in love for one another and for all people, just as we also do for you, So that He may strengthen and confirm and establish your hearts faultlessly pure and unblamable in holiness in the sight of our God and Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah) with all His saints (the holy and glorified people of God)! Amen, (so be it)!

You only attain My love by being in My presence. My Holy Spirit pours out love in your hearts as you worship and spend time with Me. So it is is NEVER a waste of time to spend yourselves on ME. It is not wasteful to be filled with more and more of My presence. For in that Presence is all you need and require. That is why LOVE is the greatest! Knowing the fullness of MY LOVE WILL ENABLE YOU TO LOVE ME, TO LOVE YOURSELF, TO LOVE OTHERS WITH MY LOVE, because you will be filled with ME. So come aside as much as is possible in this hour and take communion alone and with each other. Keep the FAITH and walk in MY WAYS. Learn dependence on My wisdom and truly live!"

1 Cor 1:20-21,25 NKJV Where is the wise? Where is the scribe? Where is the disputer of this age? Has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world? For since, in the wisdom of God, the world through wisdom did not know God, it pleased God through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe. …Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men, and the weakness of God is stronger than men.

1 Cor 3:18-21 NKJV Avoid Worldly Wisdom
Let no one deceive himself. If anyone among you seems to be wise in this age, let him become a fool that he may become wise. 19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, "He catches the wise in their own craftiness"; 20 and again, "The LORD knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are futile." 21 Therefore let no one boast in men. For all things are yours:

James 1:5-8 NKJV If any of you lacks wisdom, let him ask of God, who gives to all liberally and without reproach, and it will be given to him. But let him ask in faith, with no doubting, for he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven and tossed by the wind. For let not that man suppose that he will receive anything from the Lord; he is a double-minded man, unstable in all his ways.

James 3:13-14,17 NKJV Heavenly Versus Demonic Wisdom
Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by good conduct that his works are done in the meekness of wisdom. But if you have bitter envy and self-seeking in your hearts, do not boast and lie against the truth.
17 But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

Col 4:5-6 NKJV Walk in wisdom toward those who are outside, redeeming the time. 6 Let your speech always be with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each one.

Untempered Mortar

untempered
OT:8602 II. noun [masculine] whitewash; -- applied to wall, in Ezekiel's vision Ezek 13:10,11,14,15; figurative of false prophet 22:28.
from Brown-Driver-Briggs Hebrew and English Lexicon

OT:8602 taphel (taw-fale'); from an unused root meaning to smear; plaster (as gummy) or slime; (figuratively) frivolity: KJV - foolish things, unsavoury, untempered. [Strong's]

Websters
1a lacking in moderation: intemperate, uncontrolled b: not made less extreme: unmodified
2 not brought to a proper consistency (~mortar): not hardened (~steel)

Ezek 13:13-19 NKJV Therefore thus says the Lord GOD: "I will cause a stormy wind to break forth in My fury; and there shall be a flooding rain in My anger, and great hailstones in fury to consume it. 14 So I will break down the wall you have plastered with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that its foundation will be uncovered; it will fall, and you shall be consumed in the midst of it. Then you shall know that I am the LORD.
15 "Thus will I accomplish My wrath on the wall and on those who have plastered it with untempered mortar; and I will say to you, 'The wall is no more, nor those who plastered it, 16 that is, the prophets of Israel who prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and who see visions of peace for her when there is no peace,'" says the Lord GOD.

17 "Likewise, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, who prophesy out of their own heart; prophesy against them, 18 and say, 'Thus says the Lord GOD: "Woe to the women who sew magic charms on their sleeves and make veils for the heads of people of every height to hunt souls! Will you hunt the souls of My people, and keep yourselves alive? 19 And will you profane Me among My people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, killing people who should not die, and keeping people alive who should not live, by your lying to My people who listen to lies?"

“ I AM the Masterbuilder, and any foundation not built on Me will fall in the days ahead. Many have been building whitewashed walls around their own lives, and in the church – living in whitewashed marriages, living in whitewashed lives – pretending to be one thing and yet entirely working for another. I will bring down the walls of pretense in My beloveds. I will root up every hidden thing. If you think you can run from a Faithful Father, you are mistaken. I see everything and I know every part of your hearts.

Every vessel has different uses. I will restore and uplift, and I will tear down and destroy. I will raise up and I will put down. I am the Lord and there is no other! I will tear down the idols in My church and in the world!
I am the God Who frustrates the signs of the babblers, and drives diviners mad; Who turns wise men backward and makes their knowledge foolishness;
Who confirms the word of His servants! [Isa 44:25-26]

I will have NO OTHER GODS BEFORE ME! You are the temple of the Holy Spirit and I am restoring this temple not made with human hands! I will restore and MY WILL will be executed in My way, in My house! I have much to restore in the Church but I have promised and I keep My promises. Once again, I will shake the heavens and the earth, and I will shake ALL NATIONS, and they will come to the Desire of all nations! Nothing is beyond My ability to perform it!

Isa 66:8-13 NKJV
8 Who has heard such a thing? Who has seen such things? Shall the earth be made to give birth in one day? Or shall a nation be born at once? For as soon as Zion was in labor, She gave birth to her children. 9 Shall I bring to the time of birth, and not cause delivery?" says the LORD. "Shall I who cause delivery shut up the womb?" says your God. 10 "Rejoice with Jerusalem, and be glad with her, all you who love her; Rejoice for joy with her, all you who mourn for her; 11 That you may feed and be satisfied With the consolation of her bosom, that you may drink deeply and be delighted With the abundance of her glory."
12 For thus says the LORD: "Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river,
And the glory of the Gentiles like a flowing stream. Then you shall feed;
On her sides shall you be carried, And be dandled on her knees. 13 As one whom his mother comforts, So I will comfort you; And you shall be comforted in Jerusalem."
I will ROAR over Zion and I will ROAR over My beloveds! The Lord Your GOD will ROAR out of Zion and the prophets shall go forth to the nations and apostolic power will be restored! I have not forgotten nor ignored the prayers of My people! I am not a man that I should lie, nor a son of man, that I should change My mind. I will RESTORE. I am a God of RESTORATION. But I will also come in fury upon those who are wicked and deceitful and who plan the demise of mankind to suit their whims and lustful desires. Be NOT AFRAID of them, for they will tremble when I do My glorious deed. They will tremble at the words of My prophets and apostles!

They will tremble when I execute My judgments! I will be with you in adversity and I will bring you through the fire without being burned! I AM
WITH YOU! I am working a turn around for all those who have thought they have the upper hand. You will see signs and wonders and be amazed at what I do in the days ahead. Be of GOOD COURAGE My beloveds! Do not give in to fear! RELEASE MY WORD from your mouths and sharpen your swords! SHARPEN THEM and USE THEM MIGHTILY in song and praise, and in speaking truth to one another and to the LOST.

SOUND THE TRUMPET in Zion! SOUND THE TRUMPET! For Your Lord is coming to you and I will explode inside you, destroying every work of the enemy. Come to ME while I may be found! Hold on , for I am coming shortly. Remain steadfast in FAITH! I AM STRETCHING YOUR FAITH so that you will remain steadfast in harsher times. Change is coming and you need endurance to run the race. You also need to change some of your heart attitudes which do not allow for kindness and love and unselfish servanthood.

You will have to learn to share and to consider the other person important. I am restoring servant's hearts in MY CHURCH! Let go of selfishness, self-will and coldness toward the poor and down and out! OPEN your hearts and let the King of GLORY come in, and I will change it for you!
Allow me to touch you and give you My heart of love for those around you!
If you do not help those around you, then what will you do when you need the help? I am knitting like hearts to each other that you may help each other.

“Lightening striking again” song came to mind. Lightening is a sign of God’s actions in the earth!

This is the second time He has said that to me!

Wisdom For The Hour
Susan Cummings

In order for us as the Remnant Body of Christ to stand in this hour, we need to understand what the Lord is currently saying and doing, that we may align ourselves with His Purposes. Also, not only will we stand, but we will step forwards into our destinies that we have been ordained to walk in. So, we desperately need the wisdom and revelation available to us from the throne to be found in the Lord's positions for each of us.

The following thoughts, dreams, visions, and words begin to form a prophetic picture pointing us towards that higher mark that we must attain to in this hour. I pray these things will further equip you for that journey.

Thoughts on the Season

Many people have contacted me concerning the events taking place, and what we are to be doing, and what God is doing in our midst.

I have been formulating some thoughts for you all, as to some of the things the Lord has shown me. I pray these will also bring further illumination to you as well, as we walk out our destinies.

Matthew 25

The Parable of the Wise and Foolish Virgins

1 "Then the kingdom of heaven shall be likened to ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom. 2 Now five of them were wise, and five were foolish. 3 Those who were foolish took their lamps and took no oil with them, 4 but the wise took oil in their vessels with their lamps. 5 But while the bridegroom was delayed, they all slumbered and slept.
6 "And at midnight a cry was heard: `Behold, the bridegroom is coming;[a] go out to meet him!' 7 Then all those virgins arose and trimmed their lamps. 8 And the foolish said to the wise, `Give us some of your oil, for our lamps are going out.' 9 But the wise answered, saying, `No, lest there should not be enough for us and you; but go rather to those who sell, and buy for yourselves.' 10
And while they went to buy, the bridegroom came, and those who were ready went in with him to the wedding; and the door was shut.
11 "Afterward the other virgins came also, saying, `Lord, Lord, open to us!' 12 But he answered and said, `Assuredly, I say to you, I do not know you.'
13 "Watch therefore, for you know neither the day nor the hour[b] in which the Son of Man is coming.

In this season, the Lord has been calling to His People to draw near to Him, to be cleansed and refined and purified. He has been dealing with us and challenging us to change. He has given us many years to do so, but this generation has slept on, like the virgins. We are a sleeping generational church. We have not tended to our lamps nor sought to be full of the life, light, and presence of God from within. We have little oil.

What you see happening in the natural also mirrors what God is doing in the Spiritual.

He is after the hearts of men. He is after the oil. He is after His Presence being fully formed and ignited within them.

What just got hit the most in our country? The oil.

What is needed the greatest in this midnight hour in the church? The Oil.

The criers are riding throughout the lands, crying, prepare ye the way of the Lord! But few listen, and most turn over and go back to sleep. The few that have prepared in this sleeping generation, have done so, and they cannot give to others, as each person is responsible for their own personal intimacy with Christ. Each must go out and purchase or pay the price of refining and purification and change, to obtain their own relationship. For most, the price of carrying our cross daily, is too high, and they settle in for compromise and comfort.

The Lord has also brought a breaking and a rending and a division of those who are His and those who are not. In every area, we see the separation beginning and increasing. Between families, friends, workers, and peoples. God will have a holy people who are fully given to Him. All that is not of Him is being exposed, judged, and dealt with.

This breaking open and rending is redemptive if we embrace Him in it. The Lord said to me many times, that he must break open the heart of America to get to the heart, for it was crusted over and hardened. He must rend it asunder to lance it, and open the sin, so He can bring healing.

The Lord also told me while ministering in NY recently, that we are more concerned with our W and E borders and either the security of our coasts, than we are watching the heartland. We are vulnerable, and the greatest damage will occur in the heartland, for we do not guard our heart. We also are more concerned about our image and might than our state of being. We compromise and lose our purity and eternal inheritance for a temporary morsel of carnal food.

This is seen as a natural event and a spiritual one.

The natural one being shown as the coming earthquake that will divide America down the middle, of which I have seen in dreams and visions 3 times now. The last time was the most terrifying and profound encounter. A literal breaking open to expose the heart will come if we don't repent and return to the Lord. If God can't get our attention, He will get louder.

The spiritual type as being the division and separation of the church, Namely, those who are truly His heart, mind and soul from those who say they are His, but their hearts are far from Him. God wants heart relationship and not lip service anymore. He is dividing the sheep from the sheep. The Remnant from the apostate church systems of men.

He will deal with both.

We are at the midnight hour. What will we be found with?

The events are only a wake up call so far. We haven't even begun to see the shaking of the heavens and the earth. Yet, the scriptures plainly tell us that men will not repent and their hearts will turn colder and harder, and they will curse God rather than turn to Him.

So, the earth will travail, the heavens will be altered, and we will walk through it all with our Lord, till He chooses the timing to bring us home.

The natural shows us what the Father is doing, if we have eyes to see.

Katrina means Purity. God desires Holiness in His House.

He is dealing with sin. He is breaking it open and fully disclosing it, and dealing with it head on. No more will we get by with our sins, big or little, for all is sin. All needs to be cleansed and atoned for.

None of us are exempt. Let us seek God.

Just as the coastal states have been hit hard and the worldliness and blatant degradation issue addressed. So it will also hit the church and many will fall also because of this same issue. The Church looks like the world, acts like the world, and there is no distinction of difference.

That will change. We will separate, and be clean and pure, and be holy and be full of His Truth and Light and Love or we will be utterly dark and lost without Him. Its our choice.

Our self sufficiency, independence, greed, and pride have caused us to love ourselves, our images, our works and accomplishments, and our positions. We have lost our first love and have gone after another. We have committed idolatry in this nation and serve many things.

We lust after power and control. But we deny the Lord. Our independence and strength is now being tested and our pride dealt with. We will be bound to the gods that we serve. We will be given over to that which we love the most.

We will either embrace the Truth and have illuminated minds and hearts full of His Light, or we will become fully reprobate and darkened. We will not stand in the days to come, apart from our utter returning to the Lord.

Lots of Images, and lots of Truth.

Hopefully we learn from our mistakes and we change and draw close to the Lord.

The days ahead will see greater shakings and chaos as the hearts of men are laid bare and they are dealt with, and choices are made.

May we humble ourselves and seek God, and make the right choices.

May we find ourselves awake and full of Oil.

The Transition:

In the above word, the Lord begins to show us several things:

1. The lack of light, or Truth, in the Body of Christ.

Psalm 15

A Psalm of David.1 LORD, who may abide in Your tabernacle?
Who may dwell in Your holy hill?
2 He who walks uprightly,
And works righteousness,
And speaks the truth in his heart;
3 He who does not backbite with his tongue,
Nor does evil to his neighbor,
Nor does he take up a reproach against his friend;
4 In whose eyes a vile person is despised,
But he honors those who fear the LORD;
He who swears to his own hurt and does not change;
5 He who does not put out his money at usury,
Nor does he take a bribe against the innocent.
He who does these things shall never be moved. We see the need for Truth in the inward parts of man. For the outworking demonstration of the inward working of the Cross. It is time for the Cross of Jesus Christ to be seen through vessels of purity and Truth again.

Psalm 43

Prayer to God in Time of Trouble1 Vindicate me, O God,
And plead my cause against an ungodly nation;
Oh, deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man!
2 For You are the God of my strength;
Why do You cast me off?
Why do I go mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
3 Oh, send out Your light and Your truth!
Let them lead me;
Let them bring me to Your holy hill
And to Your tabernacle.
4 Then I will go to the altar of God,
To God my exceeding joy; And on the harp I will praise You, O God, my God.
5 Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why are you disquieted within me?
Hope in God;
For I shall yet praise Him,
The help of my countenance and my God. As we, the Body, recognize our need for Light and Truth, within us, we will cry out to be filled and then we will be changed. We have to acknowledge our current conditions, and repent, and turn back to the Lord, and seek him till He sends the Light and Truth again.

Psalm 51

To the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David when Nathan the prophet went to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.1 Have mercy upon me, O God,
According to Your lovingkindness;
According to the multitude of Your tender mercies,
Blot out my transgressions.
2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity,
And cleanse me from my sin.
3 For I acknowledge my transgressions,
And my sin is always before me.
4 Against You, You only, have I sinned,
And done this evil in Your sight—
That You may be found just when You speak,

And blameless when You judge.
5 Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity,
And in sin my mother conceived me.
6 Behold, You desire truth in the inward parts,
And in the hidden part You will make me to know wisdom.
7 Purge me with hyssop, and I shall be clean;
Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
8 Make me hear joy and gladness,
That the bones You have broken may rejoice.
9 Hide Your face from my sins,
And blot out all my iniquities.
10 Create in me a clean heart, O God,
And renew a steadfast spirit within me.
11 Do not cast me away from Your presence,
And do not take Your Holy Spirit from me.
12 Restore to me the joy of Your salvation,
And uphold me by Your generous Spirit.
13 Then I will teach transgressors Your ways,
And sinners shall be converted to You.
14 Deliver me from the guilt of bloodshed, O God,
The God of my salvation,
And my tongue shall sing aloud of Your righteousness.

15 O Lord, open my lips,
And my mouth shall show forth Your praise.
16 For You do not desire sacrifice, or else I would give it;
You do not delight in burnt offering.
17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit,
A broken and a contrite heart—
These, O God, You will not despise.
18 Do good in Your good pleasure to Zion;
Build the walls of Jerusalem.
19 Then You shall be pleased with the sacrifices of righteousness,
With burnt offering and whole burnt offering;
Then they shall offer bulls on Your altar. So, we are transitioning from an empty church to a vibrant living house of God's Presence, as we acknowledge our need of change.

2. He also shows the lack of oil.

The lack of the oil is the Anointing, the Presence, and Life of Christ within the believers.

Psalm 23

A Psalm of David.1 The LORD is my shepherd;
I shall not want.
2 He makes me to lie down in green pastures;
He leads me beside the still waters.
3 He restores my soul;
He leads me in the paths of righteousness
For His name's sake.
4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death,
I will fear no evil;
For You are with me;
Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me.
5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies;
You anoint my head with oil;
My cup runs over.
6 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
All the days of my life;
And I will dwell[a] in the house of the LORD
Forever. The Lord desires those who walk intimately with Him, in all seasons of their lives. There is no ending or beginning of it, just an abiding. When we come to the place of true communion, then we can partake of the fullness of what the Lord has. Some of these things are:

Rest

Peace

Healing

Righteousness

Comfort

Joy

Protection

Provision

Goodness

Mercy

So we see that we have not yet attained to the place of learning to abide with Him. But in this season, we are beginning to find that Highway of Holiness, and we are beginning to walk upon it.

Psalm 45

To the Chief Musician. Set to "The Lilies." of the sons of Korah.
A Song of Love.

1 My heart is overflowing with a good theme;
I recite my composition concerning the King;
My tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
2 You are fairer than the sons of men;
Grace is poured upon Your lips;
Therefore God has blessed You forever.
3 Gird Your sword upon Your thigh, O Mighty One,
With Your glory and Your majesty.
4 And in Your majesty ride prosperously because of truth, humility, and righteousness;
And Your right hand shall teach You awesome things.
5 Your arrows are sharp in the heart of the King’s enemies; The peoples fall under You.
6 Your throne, O God, is forever and ever;
A scepter of righteousness is the scepter of Your kingdom.7 You love righteousness and hate wickedness;
Therefore God, Your God, has anointed You

With the oil of gladness more than Your companions.8 All Your garments are scented with myrrh and aloes and cassia,
Out of the ivory palaces, by which they have made You glad.
9 Kings’ daughters are among Your honorable women;
At Your right hand stands the queen in gold from Ophir.
10 Listen, O daughter,
Consider and incline your ear;
Forget your own people also, and your father’s house;
11 So the King will greatly desire your beauty;
Because He is your Lord, worship Him.
12 And the daughter of Tyre will come with a gift;
The rich among the people will seek your favor.
13 The royal daughter is all glorious within the palace;
Her clothing is woven with gold.
14 She shall be brought to the King in robes of many colors;
The virgins, her companions who follow her, shall be brought to You.
15 With gladness and rejoicing they shall be brought;
They shall enter the King’s palace.
16 Instead of Your fathers shall be Your sons,
Whom You shall make princes in all the earth.
17 I will make Your name to be remembered in all generations;

Therefore the people shall praise You forever and ever.There is a state of fullness that we are coming into, as we walk with the Lord upon this Highway of Holiness.

The Father is not only filling us with Himself, but is preparing us to be full of Him to be seen. He is going to release all that He has been placing within us, so that what is within us can bear fruit in this hour.

There is a need for Righteousness and Truth in the earth.

We are the salt and the light of the earth, if we do not release that which has been formed within us, then there will be no expression of God in the earth that will bring redemptive change.

Matthew 5

The Beatitudes1 And seeing the multitudes, He went up on a mountain, and when He was seated His disciples came to Him.

2 Then He opened His mouth and taught them, saying:
3 " Blessed are the poor in spirit, For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
4 Blessed are those who mourn, For they shall be comforted.
5 Blessed are the meek, For they shall inherit the earth.
6 Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness, For they shall be filled.
7 Blessed are the merciful, For they shall obtain mercy.
8 Blessed are the pure in heart, For they shall see God.
9 Blessed are the peacemakers, For they shall be called sons of God.
10 Blessed are those who are persecuted for righteousness' sake, For theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 "Blessed are you when they revile and persecute you, and say all kinds of evil against you falsely for My sake. 12 Rejoice and be exceedingly glad, for great is your reward in heaven, for so they persecuted the prophets who were before you. Believers Are Salt and Light

13 "You are the salt of the earth; but if the salt loses its flavor, how shall it be seasoned? It is then good for nothing but to be thrown out and trampled underfoot by men. 14 "You are the light of the world. A city that is set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15 Nor do they light a lamp and put it under a basket, but on a lampstand, and it gives light to all who are in the house. 16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works and glorify your Father in heaven.

Christ Fulfills the Law17 "Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets. I did not come to destroy but to fulfill. 18 For assuredly, I say to you, till heaven and earth pass away, one jot or one tittle will by no means pass from the law till all is fulfilled. 19 Whoever therefore breaks one of the least of these commandments, and teaches men so, shall be called least in the kingdom of heaven; but whoever does and teaches them, he shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20 For I say to you, that unless your righteousness exceeds the righteousness of the scribes and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven. It is time for the Remnant Body of Christ to arise, to put off all the things that so easily encumber us, and begin to run our races faithfully.

We are to release the measure of Christ that is formed within us, by the Holy Spirit, and be the message of God in the earth.

We are no longer just to be messengers with a message to deliver.

We are to be the message. Christ is now to be seen. It is a challenge that is extended to each of us. We all have a measure of faith given to us, so we all can respond. No measure is greater than the other, for each measure comes from the Lord. It is all the same Spirit.

When we say Yes, then the Holy Spirit has something which He can use. Until then, we tie His Hands, and the portion that we have is wasted and rots away.

What will we each do with the portion that God has given to us?

It's our choice.

Let's now move on to what the Lord is showing us that is to come:

Currents Of Change:

8-11-05 1:30 am

While I was at Jerry Mooneyham's house in Idaho, I had an angel come and stand in front of me in an open vision.

He was holding a scroll and it was open. He looked at me and began to read from it. He was speaking and saying, "Woe to those who say they are Mine and who are not. Woe to those who are quick to shed innocent blood. Woe to those who say they love Me and who do not. Woe to those who ...." over and over, down the list that he read. There were so many that he read that I can't remember all of them, and it happened so fast, but I will tell you, that it made me afraid. It sounded like you read pronouncements from Proverbs or Jeremiah.

The fear of the Lord washed over me and I felt each woe as he read them. Then he looked at me and rolled up the scroll and said, "and now comes the sword."

There are seasons of judgement that bring forth great travail but great birthing at the same time. When the Lord cuts something away, or prunes it back, then new life can spring forth from that which is dead.

God has been judging the church for awhile now, but the intensity of the season is increasing, for the Lord is bringing forth a Holy People. The birthing process will be greatly increased and accelerated, and also greatly visible as the process becomes more evident in the earth.

Much of the judgement of His House has been internal and within the hearts and lives of the people. But it is now maturing and coming forth to the external and dealing with the surroundings as well.

Our lives will be fully given to the Lord. Our words will match our walk.

The judgements released against the rebellious and the wicked will be severe for they refuse to acknowledge the truth and embrace the Lord in it, to be changed. So, we see the reaping of those decisions. It will be reaped personally, and corporately, for the individual, and for the nation.

But, in the midst of the reaping of those choices, a very glorious and visible remnant will begin to shine in new ways and in the glory of the Father, as a witness of the Truth they rejected.

Let us see what the difference will be for those who choose to embrace the Truth and those who do not:

The Darkness At Noonday

The Vision below takes place at my office while sitting at my desk.

As I am sitting here, I begin to see myself standing in a place of complete darkness. There is no light around anywhere. It seems like it was day and then it was night. There was no gradual darkening, just a sudden change.

I don’t feel any fear or even any anxiousness at the change, only the peace of the Lord. I know that I am in Him, and He has brought me here for a reason, so I wait for the Lord to show me what He wants me to see.

The darkness is total and it seems almost like a solid mass around me, and it does not have a beginning or an ending point, as you would expect if you drove into it or walked into it, as it is just there.

As I stand there, I also notice that there is no sounds. No sounds of life or wind, or air, or anything. It is like a vacuum. It is like a place of total isolation, kind of like being in a dark sound proof room. This must be what the absence of Gods Presence is like, I thought to myself.

"You are correct", the Lord then said to me. I knew the Lord was standing beside me, even though I could not see Him. "The darkness is the absence of My Presence and My Light, and it is the place of total separation from the Truth."

"When people reject Me, they embrace what they love. The darkness becomes their abode and their portion. It is a place of total spiritual poverty and no illumination. When the Truth is rejected, and men choose to believe a lie, then they give themselves over to a reprobate mind and the darkness then becomes complete."

"The famine of My Word has begun to greatly increase now, even amongst My House, for even those of My House are being tested and tried, and what they give their hearts to, will be what they will be bound to."

"My corporate church has lost their first love, and have given their hearts to many things, and have denied Me the reins of their lives. They want their own ways and to walk their own direction, and have strayed from the Truth. They do not love the Light, and have not applied the Word to their lives, and have given themselves over to the darkness. For they are not lovers of the Truth."

"What you see before you is the famine of the Word and the complete falling away of those who say they love Me, but deny Me, and who will not embrace Me. The darkness is real and they wander around in the light of day bound in total darkness. They hear, but do not perceive the Truth."

"They can read the Word and will not understand it, but it will be closed and be as a wall before them. They will see, but do not have eyes to see what I am doing, and they grope around looking for answers but they will never find them, for they rejected Me and My Word in their lives. They loved their pleasures more than My Holiness."

"The darkness is also fear. Those who do not know Me and walk in My Love, will walk in fear and be bound by it. The opposite of absolute faith is absolute fear. I have repeatedly commanded My people to come to Me, to know Me, to fully and completely trust in Me, and to have faith in Me.

But they continually stray away from Me, and feed upon everything that comes along, and are now filled with mixture, darkness, and do not have My Truth fully formed and established within them."

"I have been forming Myself within Mine, and have been purging them and preparing them to stand in this hour. But even amongst Mine own, many have chosen to attack, tear down, and come against what I am building. They forever resist the Truth and the Spirit of Grace that has been given for this hour. When My Grace is finally rejected, there is only wrath afterwards."

"Mine will abide in Me, and walk in total darkness and not be affected. They will not fear, nor be dismayed, nor want for anything, for I AM their portion. When you abide in Me, then you are as I AM. Do not grieve, for My Word has warned men for generations of the coming darkness and the famine. But few applied My Word and allowed me to change them. Men think it will not come, or happen to them, or that it is only a Truth and not a reality. Now, it is too late, for it is already done. Those who are Mine, will walk fully in the light as I am in the Light. For they loved me more than themselves."

"What is meant for slaughter is given to the slaughter."

"What is meant for the darkness, now will abide in it’s place."

"What is meant for the destroyer is already in it’s hand."

"What is meant for the storm is already in it, for few paid heed."

"What is Mine, is Mine, and will remain in Me."

"The spiritual darkness is complete and few see it, for it is still day in the earth, but it will soon be fully night and then no man will work."

"The darkness will work it’s work, and it will be given all that is not Mine. I am fully disclosing the darkness and the light. I am showing all men what both looks like, so no man will have an excuse and say to Me that they didn’t know or that they were taken unawares or were deceived, for all men will know."

"Both darkness and light will be seen and understood, and both will be inhabited and both will continue till the end, as I bring My House into it’s place."

Until then, the final race continues, and men will rise and fall, and nations will roar and the earth convulse as the darkness swallows it’s due."

"You are to stand in the darkness and show forth My Light. For nations are coming to the light, and the knowledge of Me will be shown, and men will choose, and determine their eternal destiny. The books are open, and many are writing their names in the books. Some to eternal damnation and some to eternal life. This is the Hour of Truth, and all men will stand in their places."

"Do not waver, but stand firm, and know that even in the darkness, you abide in Me. Do not look at the waves, the winds, or the storms, but remain fully abiding in Me, and know that you walk out your destiny in Me. Give no place to fear that will rule the masses, but yield to My Spirit, and follow Me. For I have given you My Truth, to light your path. Go to all who will gather, and speak the Truth to them, and show them the way to Me. For some will cleanse their garments through the dark hours ahead, as they see the Light and choose to come out of the darkness. Many will not. But you must continue on, and leave the men to Me, just walk forth knowing that I Am in the midst of all things."

"The Fear of the Lord will keep you in the Truth. Never allow the fear of men to divert you, but fear God more than men, and lead them on and through the storm. For it has only just begun, and the full force has yet to come. I have warned Mine to remain in Me, and now the Truth is plain to see, for all that are looking for Me, will find Me, even in the trials of fire to yet come."

"My Glory will illuminate you, fill you, and flow forth from you into the darkness, as you obey Me. Guard your heart and walk humbly in the earth, for it labors to fully give birth, and great will be the rending that will come. But you have all that you need with you, and so, walk on."

I stood there, allowing His Voice to flow through Me, strengthening me, and bringing me closer to Him. There is so much happening in the earth and in the heavens, and it pulls on you, and drains you at times. But we must come aside and be refreshed and strengthened and listen to our Lord. So, I await in the darkness, in Him.

He is our portion and refuge in the storms and our Standard in the midst.

Let us walk in the light, while there is light to work, and reach out to those who grope in the darkness at the noon hour. Let us press on to the mark and the high calling in Christ, and be found faithful in the end.

The separation of the Light from the darkness will be total as we finish this season that we have entered. There will be no mixture anymore.

I will add another vision that I had recently, to further bring understanding:

Mon Aug 29, 2005 3:54 pm

Vision of Jesus standing in the midst of America with a sword. He drives it deep into the heart of the US and thereby breaking open the land. Out of the slice that the sword made, came forth thick black ooze, foul things, smells, etc..... The Lord says that he must lance and purge the heart, before He can heal it.The Lord then says that the sin of America is "Idolatry"

He was bringing the natural and the spiritual into alignmentI also saw Jesus later standing in the earth, and he had reached down into the earth and grabbed with his hand a bunch of cords from the midst of the earth, and brought them outwards. he jerked them out and held them. He said these were the bloodlines. He was now sifting the many bloodlines. He was also repositioning many bloodlines for judgement.

Everything that can be shaken will be.

Everything that can be divided will be.

Everything that can be exposed will be.

Everything that can be purified will be.

While driving to Arkansas two weeks ago, the Lord began to speak to me regarding the heartland. He began to show me the current belt or the security that we place our faith, trust, and identity in is religion. We trust more in our forms and rituals than we do upon our relationship with Him.

A word from the Lord and a sign of our true condition:

The Bible Belt of America

The Heartland: Symbolic of the heart of the Corporate Church

It represents the state of the heart of the church- she has girded herself with the bible (religion) and needs to be girded about the waist and loins with Truth and Righteousness instead.

The Whole Armor of God

Ephesians 6:10 Finally, my brethren, be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might. 11 Put on the whole armor of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil. 12 For we do not wrestle against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this age,[c] against spiritual hosts of wickedness in the heavenly places. 13 Therefore take up the whole armor of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand. 14 Stand therefore, having girded your waist with truth, having put on the breastplate of righteousness, 15 and having shod your feet with the preparation of the gospel of peace; 16 above all, taking the shield of faith with which you will be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked one. 17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God; 18 praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, being watchful to this end with all perseverance and supplication for all the saints— 19 and for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly to make known the mystery of the gospel, 20 for which I am an ambassador in chains; that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.There must be a return and a stance of Truth coming from the people of God again. It must be brought forth from within us and from without us.Isaiah 11

The Reign of Jesse’s Offspring

1 There shall come forth a Rod from the stem of Jesse,
And a Branch shall grow out of his roots. 2 The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him,
The Spirit of wisdom and understanding,
The Spirit of counsel and might,
The Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD.
3 His delight is in the fear of the LORD,
And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes,
Nor decide by the hearing of His ears;
4 But with righteousness He shall judge the poor,
And decide with equity for the meek of the earth;
He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth, And with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked.
5 Righteousness shall be the belt of His loins,
And faithfulness the belt of His waist. 6 " The wolf also shall dwell with the lamb,
The leopard shall lie down with the young goat,
The calf and the young lion and the fatling together;
And a little child shall lead them.
7 The cow and the bear shall graze;
Their young ones shall lie down together;
And the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
8 The nursing child shall play by the cobra’s hole,
And the weaned child shall put his hand in the viper’s den.
9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all My holy mountain,

For the earth shall be full of the knowledge of the LORD
As the waters cover the sea.

The time has come for the people of God to know their God, and to be fully given to Him, so He can be formed within them, and through them, to begin to effect the earth with His Presence.

So, the currents of change are flowing.

We must allow the Holy Spirit to catch us up into what he is doing, and move with Him, if we are to effective in this hour. For the fullness of what God is doing will be visibly seen and understood in the earth by all men. Whether they accept it and embrace it, or reject it, is their choice. But through it all, everyone will choose.

So, let’s begin to now explore our purpose in this hour:

Ephesians 1

Greeting1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God,To the saints who are in Ephesus, and faithful in Christ Jesus: 2 Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ, 4 just as He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before Him in love, 5 having predestined us to adoption as sons by Jesus Christ to Himself, according to the good pleasure of His will, 6 to the praise of the glory of His grace, by which He made us accepted in the Beloved. 7 In Him we have redemption through His blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of His grace 8 which He made to abound toward us in all wisdom and prudence, 9 having made known to us the mystery of His will, according to His good pleasure which He purposed in Himself, 10 that in the dispensation of the fullness of the times He might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven and which are on earth—in Him. 11 In Him also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestined according to the purpose of Him who works all things according to the counsel of His will, 12 that we who first trusted in Christ should be to the praise of His glory. 13 In Him you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation; in whom also, having believed, you were sealed with the Holy Spirit of promise, 14 who[b] is the guarantee of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of His glory. Prayer for Spiritual Wisdom

15 Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus and your love for all the saints, 16 do not cease to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers: 17 that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him,

18 the eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, 19 and what is the exceeding greatness of His power toward us who believe, according to the working of His mighty power 20 which He worked in Christ when He raised Him from the dead and seated Him at His right hand in the heavenly places, 21 far above all principality and power and might and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this age but also in that which is to come. 22 And He put all things under His feet, and gave Him to be head over all things to the church, 23 which is His body, the fullness of Him who fills all in all.

Paul addresses 2 things in the above passages.

The need for wisdom and prudence in the times they were facing. He knew that the Father had reserved a portion of Truth for each generation to walk in, so he was praying that they would have their eyes opened to that which was theirs, so they could walk fully in it.

In the above portion, we see 4 things they needed to know:

1. The eyes of their understanding needed to be enlightened.

2. They might know the hope of His Calling.

3. To know the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints.

4. To know the exceeding greatness and the working of His Power.

He also saw a new position coming into our lives by which we could obtain those 4 things that we needed.

Ephesians 2

By Grace Through Faith1 And you He made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins, 2 in which you once walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit who now works in the sons of disobedience, 3 among whom also we all once conducted ourselves in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, just as the others.4 But God, who is rich in mercy, because of His great love with which He loved us, 5 even when we were dead in trespasses, made us alive together with Christ (by grace you have been saved), 6 and raised us up together, and made us sit together in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, 7 that in the ages to come He might show the exceeding riches of His grace in His kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. 8 For by grace you have been saved through faith, and that not of yourselves; it is the gift of God, 9 not of works, lest anyone should boast. 10 For we are His workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand that we should walk in them.

1. He is raising us up together

2. To be seated with Christ in the Heavenly Places

Unless we begin to see what Jesus sees and do what we see Jesus doing, we will have no effect and bring forth no fruit in the earth. We must be lifted up by the Father, and have a change of perspective, that will enable us to tap into His Power and Glory, and bring forth true revelation that is for this hour.

Ephesians 3

The Mystery Revealed1 For this reason I, Paul, the prisoner of Christ Jesus for you Gentiles— 2 if indeed you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which was given to me for you, 3 how that by revelation He made known to me the mystery (as I have briefly written already, 4 by which, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ), 5 which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it has now been revealed by the Spirit to His holy apostles and prophets: 6 that the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, of the same body, and partakers of His promise in Christ through the gospel, 7 of which I became a minister according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effective working of His power. The Purpose of the Mystery:

8 To me, who am less than the least of all the saints, this grace was given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ, 9 and to make all see what is the fellowship[a] of the mystery, which from the beginning of the ages has been hidden in God who created all things through Jesus Christ;[b] 10 to the intent that now the manifold wisdom of God might be made known by the church to the principalities and powers in the heavenly places, 11 according to the eternal purpose which He accomplished in Christ Jesus our Lord, 12 in whom we have boldness and access with confidence through faith in Him. 13 Therefore I ask that you do not lose heart at my tribulations for you, which is your glory. Appreciation of the Mystery

14 For this reason I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,[c] 15 from whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named, 16 that He would grant you, according to the riches of His glory, to be strengthened with might through His Spirit in the inner man, 17 that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love, 18 may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the width and length and depth and height— 19 to know the love of Christ which passes knowledge; that you may be filled with all the fullness of God. 20 Now to Him who is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us, 21 to Him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus to all generations, forever and ever. Amen.

There are four things Paul was keying in on in the above passages that are vital that we grasp so that we can achieve our places and purposes, and bring forth Christ out of us:

1. That we must be strengthened with might by His Spirit in our inner man.

2. That Christ may dwell in our hearts, being rooted and grounded in love.

3. That we may be able to fully comprehend the fullness of God in us.

4. That we would experientially know the love of Christ which causes us to be full of Him.

When we come fully into the knowledge of Him within us, then it can be birthed out of us. This is where we are at in the time line of Gods Purposes. Birthing.

This is bringing forth the Currents of Change.

The Lord has recently been speaking to me out of Nahum.

Nahum 1:

The burden

1.against Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.2 God is jealous, and the LORD avenges;
The LORD avenges and is furious.
The LORD will take vengeance on His adversaries,
And He reserves wrath for His enemies;
3 The LORD is slow to anger and great in power,
And will not at all acquit the wicked.
The LORD has His way
In the whirlwind and in the storm,
And the clouds are the dust of His feet.
4 He rebukes the sea and makes it dry,
And dries up all the rivers.
Bashan and Carmel wither,
And the flower of Lebanon wilts.
5 The mountains quake before Him,
The hills melt,
And the earth heaves at His presence,
Yes, the world and all who dwell in it.
6 Who can stand before His indignation?
And who can endure the fierceness of His anger?
His fury is poured out like fire,
And the rocks are thrown down by Him.
7 The LORD is good,
A stronghold in the day of trouble;
And He knows those who trust in Him.
8 But with an overflowing flood
He will make an utter end of its place,
And darkness will pursue His enemies.
9 What do you conspire against the LORD? He will make an utter end of it.
Affliction will not rise up a second time.
10 For while tangled like thorns,
And while drunken like drunkards,
They shall be devoured like stubble fully dried.
11 From you comes forth one
Who plots evil against the LORD,

A wicked counselor. 12 Thus says the LORD:
" Though they are safe, and likewise many,
Yet in this manner they will be cut down
When he passes through. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more;
13 For now I will break off his yoke from you,
And burst your bonds apart."
14 The LORD has given a command concerning you:
" Your name shall be perpetuated no longer.
Out of the house of your gods
I will cut off the carved image and the molded image.
I will dig your grave,
For you are vile."
15 Behold, on the mountains
The feet of him who brings good tidings,
Who proclaims peace!
O Judah, keep your appointed feasts,
Perform your vows.
For the wicked one shall no more pass through you;
He is utterly cut off.

The Purposes of the Lord in this season is to loose all who are bound, and to bring them into His House, all who will come to Him.

Ezekiel 23

Two Harlot Sisters1 The word of the LORD came again to me, saying:
2 " Son of man, there were two women,
The daughters of one mother.
3 They committed harlotry in Egypt,
They committed harlotry in their youth;
Their breasts were there embraced,
Their virgin bosom was there pressed.
4 Their names: Oholah[a] the elder and Oholibah[b] her sister;
They were Mine,
And they bore sons and daughters.
As for their names,
Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem is Oholibah.The Older Sister, Samaria

5 " Oholah played the harlot even though she was Mine;
And she lusted for her lovers, the neighboring Assyrians,
6 Who were clothed in purple,
Captains and rulers,
All of them desirable young men,
Horsemen riding on horses.
7 Thus she committed her harlotry with them,
All of them choice men of Assyria;
And with all for whom she lusted,
With all their idols, she defiled herself.
8 She has never given up her harlotry brought from Egypt,
For in her youth they had lain with her,
Pressed her virgin bosom,
And poured out their immorality upon her.
9 " Therefore I have delivered her
Into the hand of her lovers,
Into the hand of the Assyrians,
For whom she lusted.
10 They uncovered her nakedness,
Took away her sons and daughters,
And slew her with the sword;
She became a byword among women,

For they had executed judgment on her.

Let’s look for a moment at the two women he is addressing above:

Oholah means: "she who has a tent"

Oholibah means "a tent is in her"

I think we can see the difference between the two is the relationship. It is not enough to have a knowledge of God, but to have that knowledge formed within you, this makes you a true habitation of God. They both are the Lord’s, as with the ten virgins in our opening text. But one has the Life and Light of God formed within, and one does not.

So, we are coming full circle again. We must be full of Him, in order to stand.

This morning, I had a vision, and it will sum up where we are headed...9-4-05 9:33 am

I saw a sword flying downwards and it hit a place in America. It hit a plug that was situated in our land. The plug said on it, "United Brethren."
The Lord said, "I'm pulling the plug on religion, and am releasing the Love, so My People can come into unity and stand."

-Susan Cummings
Unless, we, the Body that is being formed into Christ’s workmanship, begin to walk in love for each other, then we will not stand.

We must come together, being fully knit together in love, and then work forth from that foundation, for all of the expressions of Christ work through Love.

This is what will release the explosion of Christ from within us, to affect the earth, as the salt and light that we were meant to be.

May this current teaching and the revelations given to me, bless you and strengthen you, and impart the vision of Christ within each of you, as you seek Him for your parts...

Blessings,

Word For The Remnant

Roy Resh

All over the world, My Remnant waits eagerly for My voice, says the Lord. My still, small voice is heard like the ringing of distant carillon bells played by one with music in his heart. Over false and misleading human cacophony, My voice creates a wondrous stirring of the spirit.

I know that your soul longs to be with Me, to ever live in My presence and leave earthly toil and affliction behind. Soon My beloved, very soon, I will come for you. In a just little while, even before My terrible Day of vengeance, I will return for all of you who are My Remnant.

I will seal you and then make you into a Bride fit for a King. You will remain on Earth to reveal My very nature during early preparations for My great Day. That’s when I will rule in glory, undisputed by spiritual enemies.

My time on earth was cut short in its flower by the merciful will of our Father. After you are sealed you will fulfill the last half of My 7-year ministry to this Earth. These Kingdom times of the Gentiles aren’t the time of Jacob’s trouble. That period begins as My Bride’s work ends.

Whether Jacob or Gentile, I AM calls you right now, My beloved Remnant. Turn fully to Me, even today, says your Lord, and receive the cleansing fire of My baptism. You will know the glory of my continual presence, and have every gift needed to minister My life to others.

I said that you would receive My baptism in the Holy Spirit and fire. Why have many made up substitute human baptisms? I am your baptizer. Before My earthly ministry began, wasn’t I sealed by the Holy Spirit at Jordan? Wasn’t I tested by the fire of satan’s temptations? The baptism of John fulfilled its mission.

Soon all of My Betrothed will know Me and My ways. All of this sealed Remnant will be cleansed by Holy Spirit fire. My Remnant submits to My voice and moves with unquestioning obedience. Unfettered by human pride, My Bride’s ways always reveal My presence. She loves being at My beck and call to reveal My glory.

Be ready, My Betrothal seal comes now. Trust not in man’s works to prepare you to be known as ‘faithful’ to Me. My Remnant mustn’t seek for another person to speak for her. That would spoil our Bridegroom/Bride relationship. Eagerly listen for My voice, and then practice obedience. Be ready. The Father will reveal the times.

Although wicked hands crucified Me, this act set Me free to choose a Bride of many. Those who've gone before you with true hearts for Me will be sealed first. Then My Remnant on earth will receive My Betrothal signet, my seal for all to see. Yes, I will make you stand out, My beloved Jew and Gentile Remnant. As I foretold, you are My two witnesses who minister My life, My blood, and yes, even judge each other and the world. Why will you not believe that My witnesses must be cleansed and prepared before I take them home?

None may speak for Me until I clothe them in sackcloth and ashes and release their voices. Those among you who claim to speak for Me, but do not, are about to reap the harvest of the rebellious. Bride, leave them and their works alone, or share in the judgment that I have promised for Babylon and its Chaldean fakers.

Don't believe that you probably have just a little more time to ignore My calling. The moment the last member of My Remnant is sealed, it will be too late to become My Bride. Then, I will say 'I never knew you' if you plead for more time to prepare. Buy your oil right now, keep your wedding lamps trimmed and ready. I will provide in the midst of apparent lack, as I did water in the desert. Trust Me. Love Me.

As any Bridegroom cherishes His Betrothed, I long to love on you and take you to My breast. Open your spiritual eyes. Your redemption is very soon, My beloved Remnant. You will truly be My glory on the earth.

Word For The True Church In England

Cindy Jacobs

While in Santa Rosa Beach, Florida on April 6th, speaking for Bishop Hamon and Christian International, I had an angelic visitation. During this visitation the Lord gave me a vision of England. The forces of darkness were coming from across the world upon that nation. This was not the first time that I had seen this darkness upon England in a vision.

The Lord spoke to me strongly about Prince Charles at that time. He said to me, "Prince Charles has been tried in the balance and found wanting."

Two days ago I read an article in the Arizona Republic newspaper while flying out of Phoenix that told of the controversy over Prince Charles wanting to build a mosque in a planned community that he is building. The people of the area were protesting and saying that there were hardly any Muslims in the area and that they did not want one to be built there. The article went on to say that the prince has a section in his garden dedicated to Islam.

There has been an uncovering of the nation to the spirit of Islam through the prince's actions. By aligning with the spirit of Islam, a vulnerability to judgment has been opened in the nation. This is not the full reason for the attack, but it is certainly an open door.

This is what the Lord is saying to the true church of England:

There is a warrior spirit in the heart and soul of the British people. The sleeping giant of the church is a rising and the battle for well-being of the nation is at stake. Arise and stand and fight the giant of Islam and terrorism that is in your very midst and I will shake even the monarchy and move righteousness into the land.

We Are At War
Victoria Boyson

We Must Wake Up From Our Slumber and Realize That We are at War. . ."

My daughter, Cassandra, had a dream; in the dream she was at a Christian campground. It was night time and everyone was asleep, except her. She was awake because she felt something was wrong. As she lay awake on her bed, she saw out her window a raging fire, and it was headed straight toward the campgrounds.

She ran to the camp official and frantically told him that he needed to get all the kids out of the camp because of the fire that was headed their way. But he did not believe her and told her she was crazy. She ran to a window and opened it; she screamed at him, wanting desperately to convince him, "Look, there is a fire out there!" But he just rolled his eyes at her and told her to go back to bed.

In the dream, Cassandra's friend heard her screaming and ran to see what was wrong. She showed her friend the fire; she believed her, and they ran to safety. The two girls were the only two who made it out of the camp alive; the rest of the people were burned while they slept in their beds.

Put on Your Armor of Light

When she shared this dream with me, I thought of how it reminded me of the Church at this time. How passively we endure the onslaught of our enemy, without really realizing we are at war with him. The enemy has sent a consuming fire to destroy us, and we remain asleep while the he advances.

In Romans 13:11-12 it says, "It is already the hour for you to awaken from sleep; for now salvation is nearer to us than when we believed. The night is almost gone, and the day is near. Therefore, let us lay aside the deeds of darkness and PUT ON THE ARMOR OF LIGHT." (emphasis mine)

The day the world has been in need of is upon us. The night is almost over, and the day is almost here when the Church will arise in power and devour her enemies. But we must wake up from our slumber and realize that we are at war and put on the armor of light.

The Lord is calling us from our slumber to battle in the heavenlies for the souls of men. He has declared war on principalities and powers that have held them in darkness. We must dust off the cobwebs of apathy and passivity and fight for His sake. We must take authority over the realms of darkness for His sake.

Plunder the Darkness

Everything God has fought for was for us. He has given us the keys to the kingdom of darkness and commanded us to "plunder it." Our faith without deeds is like having a gun, but not using it. It cannot be life as usual anymore; no, we must realize that we are at war and fight!

The day of our salvation is at hand, but it will not be acquired passively. We must fight and "through God we shall do valiantly, and it is He who will tread down our adversaries," (Psalm 60:12). God will give us the victory, but we must fight. We must throw off passivity and advance against our enemies in the name of the Lord.

We Have Authority

We have allowed Satan to deceive us; he has infiltrated our minds and conned us into thinking that we are at peace -- that all is well. And we have slept while the enemy has tried to destroy us. We have slept while our Churches have been pillaged. We questioned our authority in Christ while our children's hearts have been stolen away by the enemy.

Church, we have authority! God has given us authority over all demonic activity (Luke 9:1; Matthew 28:18-19). We must use it. Jesus said, "The work of God is this: to believe on the One He has sent," (John 6:29). Our job is to have faith -- to pray and believe.

"I say to you, if you have faith the size of a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there, and it will move; and nothing will be impossible for you." -- Matthew 17:20

You have mountain-moving faith inside of you! You must use it to bind Satan and take authority over him because God has given you authority over all things everywhere. We rule and reign with Christ! (2 Timothy 2:12; Psalm 103:19)
It is a new day Church! It is time to wake up from our slumber and rise up in battle and plunder our enemy's lair. This is the day of our salvation as a Church and for the millions who will be set free through this war. So, put on your armor of Light Church, put it on!

Trophies of Grace

November 7, 2005

"Therefore, if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new."* -- 2 Corinthians 5:17 KJV

You are God's trophy -- His masterpiece.

"God raised us up with Christ and seated us with Him in the heavenly realm in Christ Jesus, in order that in the coming ages He might show the incomparable riches of His grace."* -- Ephesians 2:6-7 NIV
God has raised you up to show off the power of His grace.

To walk in the power and authority of Jesus, we must not let our past keep us from fulfilling the call on our lives. We can do this by focusing on who we are in Christ, living in the realm of redemption, and seeing ourselves the way God sees us. Once we lived in darkness without hope, but God chose to bring us to Himself through Christ to be one with Him. He wanted to bring you near to Himself.

"But now in Christ Jesus you who once were far away have been brought near through the blood of Christ."* -- Ephesians 2:13 NIV
"He chose us in Him before the foundation of the world, that we would be holy and blameless before Him. . ."* (Ephesians 1:4), not by our works, but through Jesus. Through the grace of God, we are made holy and blameless, not for our glory, but for His.

In Christ Alone

When grace is given the opportunity to work in a life without the encumbrance of self-righteousness and self-justification, it is then you see what Paul meant when He said that God "might show the incomparable riches of His grace"* (Ephesians 2:7).

When I meet people who have lived in darkness away from God, yet now, quote the scriptures with the authority of the Son of God, I see they have become a trophy of God's grace. When I meet people who have every reason to hate themselves because of their past, yet do not, I also see people who have become a trophy of God's grace. They have not justified themselves by their good works, but they have placed their hope firmly in the redemption given to them by the cross of Jesus. They have truly believed in Jesus; they have believed that they could be made whole through the forgiveness of their sins. And they have grabbed with their whole hearts onto what God offered them.

Since their former lives were so dark, they must press on toward Jesus. Only in Him have they found the grace to become whole. They have no religious works to fall back on to make them feel good about themselves. They only have the blood of Jesus. With only darkness in their past, they move forward, toward the light they have found in Christ.

Our past failures can become a blessing to us if we will let them drive us into the arms of grace -- the arms of Christ -- and into God.

When the adversary comes to remind us of our past, we can agree with him. We can say, "Yes, devil, I am a failure. Yet, I am saved from your clutches. Not by my goodness, but I cling to the cross of Christ alone. For it is in Christ alone I place my hope; by His grace I am made righteous and 'IN HIM [I] live and move and have [my] being' (Acts 17:28)."

Failure

Satan will use any kind of personal failure to torment us and to try and stop us from fulfilling the call of God on our lives. But failure can also be used by the Holy Spirit to drive us into the arms of mercy, allowing the works of grace to be made manifest in us.

Peter was very close to Jesus and loved Him deeply. He had sworn to protect Jesus and defend Him, even with his own life if need be (see John 13:37). He truly wanted to serve Jesus. Peter really wanted to be a friend whom Jesus could depend on. He really meant it when he said, "Even if all fall away on account of you, I never will" (Matthew 26:33 NIV). That is what he wanted to do more than anything. Unfortunately, that is not what he did.

Indeed, Peter did not stand up for Jesus when He needed him. He did not stand strong by Jesus' side as he had longed to, but he crumbled in weakness and failed his dear friend (see John 18:15-27).

What indescribable agony he must have felt. What painful regret he must have suffered. He loved Jesus so much, yet he failed to do what he wanted so much to do. He suffered in anguish over his failure to his friend.

At the point of Peter's failure to Christ, what did he do? Did he walk away from Jesus, keeping his pride intact, yet live without Christ? Or would he humble himself, admitting he had failed and ask for forgiveness? He had to make a choice. He could live by self-justification, making excuses for his sin or accept the mercy of Christ, sanctified by the cross alone.

Peter had pride in his heart, but he proved his love for Jesus by humbling himself and receiving the forgiveness of Christ. He could not stand to be away from Christ, so he humbled himself and received His mercy.

Christ does not forgive excuses, only sin -- sin that we have acknowledged as sin and repented of -- sin that we have taken to the cross, clinging only to the cross for our righteousness. We must stop making excuses for our sin and simply repent of it. Repentance is a gift from God and through it we are freed from sin.

Sin will become the hammer that drives us into the grace of God if we will humble ourselves and run to Him and not away from Him.
"If my people, who are called by my name, will humble themselves and pray and seek my face and turn from their wicked ways, then will I hear from heaven and will forgive their sin and will heal their land."* -- 2 Chronicles 7:14 (NIV)

It is in heart-felt repentance that we find God's Merciful restoration for our souls.

Trophies of Grace

If we live by grace and not works, receiving Christ's sacrifice as our only justification from sin, we will become God's workmanship -- His masterpiece.

God's idea of a masterpiece is to take a life that has been trampled on by Satan -- locked in sin -- and then set them free, raising them up and empowering them to do His mighty works. They become His trophy, His work of art. He loves to show them off! He displays them to the world to show His amazing grace, mercy, and forgiveness to others.

If others can see what God's grace has done in you, they will be drawn to the Savior -- the giver of grace -- the one who restored your life. If they can see this "incomparable riches of His grace," they will be drawn to the God of grace and rescued from the darkness that surrounds them.

It is up to us to show them the Light of Christ that shines through grace. And by grace will they be saved, not that any should boast except God (see Ephesians 2:8-9). For it is His "boasting" that will make others hungry for what He has given us and what He has for them, as a free gift! For though they have failed and fallen into sin, they can find forgiveness through the cross. And He will raise them up like He did Peter (see Acts 2:14-41), causing them to stand secure in Christ alone; they will speak with the boldness of heaven.

There is nothing you have done that can keep you from God's love (see Romans 8:35). It is a free gift to all who will receive it, all who ask for it, and all who want it.

Open your heart and tell Him you want Him. He will restore your life and make you a trophy of His grace! For there is nothing lost that cannot be found in Him.

Love and blessings to you,

Waves And Wind

Vicki Camp

The Lord has been reminding me this week of this 3 years past vision I received, and I've felt to re share this in the hope it will speak to some of you, also ..
Jesus calls to the people….. a vision portion received on 2-01-02

“…..He causes His wind to blow, and the waters flow.” - Ps. 114:18b

Some pre: A few days previous to receiving this vision I had seen portions of an interesting educational show on TV, re: "waves" (as in ocean waves).. their origins and their power, etc. I seldom 'sit down’ to watch TV, but this one got my attentions and I sat to watch as they spoke about the small ocean waves originating in Antarctica (South. Pole).

In the Pacific Ocean, the little waves then become great rolling ocean swells as driven along and growing of the "wind". As they move out and north they finally hit the beaches of Hawaii, California, Alaska and elsewhere as the beautiful crashing white capped surfs. (Which surfers of the warmer climes truly love). The program also pointed out the destruction of the coastlands that can occur, because of these great waves, showing in example, a town in Scotland (Atlantic ocean) where the surf is literally washing away parts of a town which sits on an ocean bluff there.

As sometimes happens between The Lord and I, HE was really stirring much of this information in me over the next few days, and then Friday as I was praying and communing with HIM, I was given a vision.... this is one portion of it:

“The voice of The Lord is over the waters; The God of Glory thunders; The Lord is over many waters….” – Ps. 29:3

I was shown Jesus standing at the South Pole. He was larger than normal height. His arms were outstretched and He was turning slowly ... and with mouth open, Jesus' was calling to the North in all directions, as HE slowly turned, pausing with brief stops at different compass 'points' of direction..

Besides the awe of seeing Jesus, what really startled of this vision I was blessed to receive, was that I was shown and perceived the Voice/Sound coming from Jesus' Mouth as powerful musical sound waves, going out as wind over the ocean surface. (I apologize, but this is the best I can describe with written words, what I saw & heard).

It was a powerful calling to the nations/peoples..
And Jesus was singing this !!

The musical notes of Jesus' song were very limited in range (if this is the correct musical term to use) but absolutely beautiful and powerful and compelling. As an uninterrupted continuous long music note of Voice/Calling.. .with no words. Actually, I could liken it (somewhat only) to shofar's I have heard blown, but Jesus' voice was much lovelier and stronger. For as I was seeing this, I could also hear HIS song, but only dimly yet ....

Although I did not see this part fully in this vision - that is, the results; I'm quite sure from my "waves" and "wind" pondering with my Lord, that the oceans were being stirred indeed by Jesus' Voice, ...as the sound flowed out in all directions; Great Holy Spirit Voice/Wind of Jesus' calling song as it was sent forth into the immediate air just above these waters...

I know that oceans or sea's can speak in biblical type, of the vast array of humanity, God's creation - human beings en' mass. As per the TV show, the ocean water waves of this vision would be picking up strength and growing/swelling from this 'Wind' of Jesus' calling, Voice, Song.

"The Lord your God in the midst, The mighty One, will save; He will rejoice over you with gladness, He will quiet you with His love, He will rejoice over you with singing." - Zeph. 3:17

I understand why this vision was Jesus standing at the South Pole in the one respect, in that this theme is what I had been pondering on with my Lord... but also, the placement of Antarctica would lend to Jesus' song building and pushing all waves to the north... or the 'sides of the north' (Ps. 48:2) I've now looked up just a few scriptures on waves, and they do not usually speak to nice calm events, but rather stirring and turmoil ...

I sense of this vision, that Jesus' song will touch us, His own.... and be carried on and out by us then.

"Sing to the Lord a new song, and his praise from the ends of the earth, you who go down to the sea, and all that is in it; you coastlands and you inhabitants of them!." - Isa. 42:10

"And do not be drunk with wine, in which is dissipation; but be filled with The Spirit, speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to The Lord. Giving thanks always for all things to God the Father in the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ." ~ Eph. 5:18-2
I DO know one thing for sure after this vision/experience - HIS Voice and Calling going forth as song, and heard by me somewhat in this vision, is VERY LOVE and at the same time full of STRENGTH POWER, and .... His' Song will not leave us sedentary!

" ...It shall be like the shaking of an olive tree, like the gleaning of grapes when the vintage is done. They shall lift up their voice, they shall sing; For the majesty of The Lord they shall cry aloud from the sea. Therefore glorify the Lord in the dawning light, The Name of the Lord God of Israel in the coastlands of the sea. From the ends of the earth we have heard songs; "Glory to the righteous [One]!." " - Isa. 24:13b-16a

We Are Just Not Looking High Enough

Steve Shelley

Visions and Prophetic Words from Our Service Today in Jerusalem 02/26/2005

As we were worshiping the Lord just then I saw in vision a stone, a rock that was smooth on all sides, smooth around the edges, no jagged places.

But I saw it falling from the top of a great mountain. And I saw it beginning to roll down the mountain, even like Daniel saw in the Spirit. And I saw that stone as it began to roll down the mountain . . . A strange thing happened, almost like it would have been a snowball instead of a stone because it was getting larger and larger as it tumbled end to end.

It was growing in size and in strength . . . in speed as it began to accelerate itself down this mountain. And as it began to come toward the bottom of the mountain and began to roll out into a plain, I saw great towers that had been lifted up. Some of them seemed to be hand-carved from what looked like ivory. And I saw some that looked almost like the Eiffel Tower, something like the Eiffel Tower or the Leaning Tower of Pisa. I saw all of these different . . . even what appeared like the Washington Monument.

But I saw that this stone was striking these monuments or towers in the valley. It was striking each and every one of them. And to say it carnally, it was bowling them over, like a bowling ball against the pins.

And I heard that thought . . . A brother sung a song just a few services ago in Alabama that said, "I found that Stone that was hewn out of the mountainside. It came rolling down through Babylon, tearing down the kingdoms of this world."

And I just sensed in my spirit that this is the hour, this is the time, the season, when our Lord Yeshua is going to be that Stone that has been cut out of the mountainside - not by the hands of man. And yet It was so rounded and so smooth, not at all jagged but easy for rolling. I sense this is the hour that He is going to be magnified.

And He's not going to magnify Himself alone through His own power, although He certainly has the power to do that, but He's going to magnify Himself in us. We're going to be the mirror that reflects Him, the moon.

I've been watching the moon these last few days as it's getting rounder and fuller and all of the edges are becoming clearer and clearer. And as I see that moon, I am amazed because at home I don't often see the moon in the daylight. But here I've been seeing the moon, even in the day, even in the afternoon . . . early in the day I can see the moon. And maybe it was a couple nights ago as we were coming home from Mount Carmel, and I looked, and it seemed so reddish, so full of color.

And yet, I understand that the moon has no light of its own, not at all, but it's only a reflector to reflect the light of the sun. And in that sense, the moon represents the Bride of Yeshua, because we have no light to give. Amen? We don't have much to offer of ourselves, but we are a reflection of not the s-u-n, but the S-o-n. We are a reflection of the Son of God, the Messiah, Yeshua, our Lord.

And I just sense in my spirit that this is the day . . . Man is thinking, and he is planning, and he's making covenant and treaty . . . and a road map is still being talked about for the future of the world, but I've got a feeling that this is the hour that the Messiah . . . that Yeshua's going to begin to be magnified in us and that He is going to come like that little Stone, hewn out of the mountainside, rolling down through Babylon, tearing down the kingdoms of this world.

The only way for His Kingdom to be exalted above all others is that all others would have to crumble before Him. And I also see that man's wisdom and man's ivory towers and man's intellect, his religion, his denominational concepts of God . . . I am sensing that man has so confined God in a box . . . they've so placed Him in a little square pen, a little place, and said, "Now this is what we want You to do." Like the Scripture said, "You act like children, sitting in the marketplaces saying, I piped unto You, and You didn't dance.'"

But I see that God is getting ready to break out of man's box, the box that man has placed God in. He's getting ready to break out of that and manifest Himself to those who are hungry for Him.

And I see that the Lord is saying this morning that the Glory that we have known, the Presence that we have known and even the victory that we have known is just like the appetizer. It's like sitting down at a fine restaurant and having the different courses brought to you.

And what we've known in the Spirit is not the entree, it's not the fullness of the meal, but it's only that which would cause us to . . . our appetite to be stimulated and increased for more.

And I see that the Lord has us sometime in still places. And it feels a little bit like that in the Spirit. Although it's not a still time. It's a very busy time in the Spirit realm. But for some of us it feels like that this is a still time and a slow time.

And the Lord said that's like us sitting down at a restaurant . . . Maybe some of you have experienced this and if you haven't, you've probably at least heard about it. But sometimes in a very fancy restaurant . . . I have only been in a few in my whole life . . . between courses they bring out something like sorbet. And a lot of times it's citrus flavor. And they give you just a little bit of that sorbet. And they do it . . . they call it to cleanse your palette so that your mouth is clear of all the flavor of the last course, and it starts preparing you for the next course so that . . . (You can be seated if you want to.)

I just saw in the Spirit another illustration that I don't think I've used before, but sometimes in the States . . . We have traveled, and when we travel there are places that you can go and shop, and they call them outlet malls. And what they are is the different manufacturers will open stores and sell discounted things, sometimes second quality at lower prices.

And when you are among these discount stores in America, they have something called Perfumania. And it is a store where they discount all kinds of perfume and cologne and powder and all the things that go with these fragrances. And when you're in there, you can spray testers, you know, on little cards and smell the fragrance to see if you like it. But after a few tries, it all begins to smell the same because the fragrance gets caught in your nasal passages. And your sense of smell, it gets a little cloudy, a little hindered and not clear.

So you know what they do? They have little jars with coffee beans in them and little holes in the top. And they'll tell you to smell the coffee beans. And when you smell the coffee beans, it clears your nasal passages of all the other fragrances, and you can start again, just like the sorbet that clears your palette . . . Oh, this is strange.

But I feel like the Lord would have me to say that some of us are in that in-between course of the meal. We've had the appetizer, and we're desiring the entree - we're desiring the meat and the potatoes of what God has for us.

Now these fancy little appetizers are nice when you're so hungry, and it helps you, and it's nice, but it's not enough, it's not all we want. It's like going to the Arab restaurant and having this huge array of salads put out before you, and you love them, you enjoy the humus and all the different things, but if it's me, I'm waiting for the makluba, I'm waiting for the main course to come.

And I see that some of us here, and perhaps also those who are streaming on the computer, we're kind of in that in-between course in the meal. And we're, you know, not feeling so much direction. And it's not so very clear - like being in the fragrance shop and having all of the different fragrances kind of permeating the air at the same time. It's difficult to distinguish between the fragrances.

But thank God that He has the sorbet. He has the coffee beans. He has something . . . a reality check. Yes, He has a reality check that helps us to begin to clear our palettes, to clear out our nasal passages that when we get to the main course, there's nothing left of the appetizer, no flavor mingling in our mouth from the appetizer, but all of that is cleared out. It's all gone, and now we're beginning to taste, without any mingling of flavor, we're able to taste the entree that God has prepared.

Oh, I'm willing, Lord. If that's what this season is about in our lives - if it's to clear our minds and our spirits from all that we have had, getting ready for something meatier, something more substantial, something more filling, Lord, we're willing.

If you can understand this mixed up explanation, could you just lift your hand to the Lord with me and say, "Lord, I'm ready for You to clear my spiritual palette. I'm ready, Lord, for you to remove all of the mingling flavors of all the appetizers. That was great glory. It was great miracle, great wonderful things You've done for me in the past. But I'm ready, Lord. It's not that I don't want to remember it . . . I want to remember what You've done . . . but I don't want it hanging around to dilute what You're about to do. And so, Lord, we're willing for this still time, this moment between courses . . . Hallelujah. Glory to God. (tongues)

Prophecy:

For surely the Lord would say unto thee this day, I have called you, yes into that still place where it seems that almost My clock has stopped in your life.

But yea, I, the Lord thy God, would say unto thee, It is not stopped, it is not finished, but merely paused, saith the Lord.

And it is not because of disobedience, so you can quit asking Me if you have missed Me or if you have disobeyed Me.

For I say unto you, it is not because of disobedience, but it is because I'm getting ready to do something more, something more for you, saith the Lord. And I have called you to this place in Me to rest and to clear yourself of all the past.

And yea, the Lord would say unto thee, there has been some confusion in your mind of what I would have you to do.

And sometimes you would feel like that I would lead you to this and other times lead you to that. And so, I've seen those moments that you have been a little confused, wanting to know exactly what my will is.

And the Lord would say, that's what this season is about. Rest in Me. Look unto Me. And I will clear away all the worry of the past, all the flavor of the past, all the fragrance of the past, and I will begin to reveal My plan. And it'll be good, saith the Lord, for I have custom tailored it just for you . . . you in mind, saith the Lord. The things that you enjoy, the things that you are, all of you, I have custom designed My will for you, knowing you the way that I do. So, rest in Me.

For the Lord would say unto thee, I shall change directions, and things shall begin to be clearer, saith the Lord, if you'll wait on Me. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Bless Your Name.

And I didn't speak it out that way prophetically, but I began to see that for somebody here, a great change is coming around Pesach, around Pesach time this year a change is coming. And you're going to know that the Lord is doing it. Hallelujah.

I've never thought of it that way, but God's clearing our palettes. Go ahead, Lord. We've got mingling flavors.

I also see that we've got flavors from all the places we've been in the Spirit, all the places we've been in fellowship, all the churches, the ministries we've been through and under, and we've got a little taste of this from here and a little taste of that from there, a little taste of something else from over yonder. And I see that the Lord desires, not that it wasn't all good flavors, not that it all wasn't wonderful meals, but the Lord wants to clear us, He wants to get all those mingling, lingering flavors out of our mouth so that we can begin to eat.

Yes, I know that it's time for us to be weaned from the milk and eat the meat like we have never eaten it before. Oh, hallelujah. Blessed be the Name of the Lord. Could we worship Him just another moment?

I don't want to linger, drag out or tarry, but I'm awed right now by the Presence of the Lord. I'm awed right now by what He's speaking to us. Hallelujah. Oh, bless the Lord. Bless the Lord. Bless the Lord. Bless the Lord. Bless the Lord.

Yea, even at Pesach time you'll begin to know what I'm doing. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. Hallelujah. (tongues) Blessed be the Name of the Lord. We exalt You, O God of Israel. You are our God.

You have brought us together. We have seen ourselves in the sticks that are twisted together. We have seen ourselves in Judah and in Ephraim. We have seen ourselves there. Hallelujah. We know, Lord, that You're putting Your people together like never before, like never before, like never before. Hallelujah.

I just saw something else in the Spirit. I saw like . . . well, I'll give you this example. This isn't exactly how I saw it, but I'll give you this example.

A few days ago we were in a washroom, my sons and I, and they wanted to wash their hands, and so we washed our hands. And there were two little hand dryers, blow dryers for your hands in the washroom. And they had a large, round, button-looking thing on the front. And Benjamin, my oldest son, he just walked up and hit that button, what looked like a button. It really did, right on the front, big round thing. And he expected the air to begin to blow. And I said that didn't sound right, and it's not coming on. And I looked over there, and I realized that it was an automatic dryer. And it didn't require the pushing of a button - all you had to do was put your hands under it. And there's a sensor in there, a light sensor that knows when you've put your hands under there, and it triggers the air to begin to blow.

But what I saw in the Spirit was in America we have sometimes these handicapped doors that have these laser beams . . . you can't see them . . but they have little laser lights going across from one connection to another. And when you step into that, the door will open. It's like a trigger reaction. And I saw in the Spirit that we must not . . . I know the Lord deals with us like this often maybe . . . but we must not despise the day of small things. We must not despise these humble beginnings, these little things that God is doing. (Why don't you go ahead and be seated. It makes me feel bad for you to have to stand.)

We must not despise these little small things that the Lord is doing because what we don't know is sometimes they're like trigger reactions, they're like little laser lights that trigger something else. Does that make any sense to anybody? Like little mechanisms, you know, that opens another door, and you step in that door and it might be a little bigger, and when you step in that, it triggers another door.

Because if there's one thing the Lord has spoken to me while I've been here this time is . . . He spoke so plain, and He said, "I'm dwelling in your willingness. I'm dwelling in your willingness."

And I have a hard time sometime going back and forth between understanding willingness and obedience, because it's different. Willingness and obedience is a little bit different. Because the Bible said, "If ye be willing and obedient, you shall eat the good of the Land." Not just willing, but willing and obedient.

And it's my nature, this is me, it's my nature to place God in my obedience - that God will show up when I obey Him. You'd have to know my background. But I came from classical Pentecost. And in classical Pentecost there was a lot of emphasis on works and actions and deeds. And I believe that faith without works is dead. But there was more emphasis placed on action than faith.

And now we've grown up a little bit in the Spirit. But I still have a tendency to put God at that place of obedience. Where I obey God, He shows up. When I obey God, He shows up. That's my thought. But the Spirit of the Lord was dealing with me that He doesn't show up when I'm obedient, He shows up when I show willingness. When I show willingness, He shows up. Before I ever get to that place where I have to obey.

Remember Abraham, our father spiritually, he was not required by God that he should have to sacrifice his son, Isaac. And he went up on that mountain with faith that if it came to that point of sacrifice, that the God He served was more than willing to raise him from the dead. And that moved Abraham to be obedient. But God didn't show up after Abraham was obedient. It would have seemingly been a little late. He showed up when Abraham showed willingness.

I just implore you in the Name of the Lord, even though you may have heard these things a thousand times, please don't turn a deaf ear to what the Spirit would say to you. I just feel like saying that God is speaking to you. So, when we're close to one another, and we know one another's circumstances, sometimes we often think that Word is for so and so. I know who that's for. I know who that is for. But God wanted me to say, "It's for you." Not the one next to you - they've got to claim it for themselves. But it's for you.

And I keep hearing that driving of the Spirit, don't despise the day of small things. For He said, "I have chosen the foolish things of the world, those base things, to confound the wise." The wisdom of man is confounded and confused in God's tendency to use those little things. And that's why I said last week . . . it's been on my mind all week . . . more is being accomplished in the Land of Israel by little individual people who are praying and seeking the mind of God. More is being accomplished by those little individual people than by great organized effort. Because God can speak to us individually, and He dwells in our willingness.

Let's ask the Lord to help us to be even more willing, more bendable, more moldable, more pliable, that He might be able to use us in every situation.

Lord, we thank you that You're speaking to us by the Spirit, totally unrehearsed, unthought of things, things that have not been so pondering in our mind, but You just came. And we thank You that You have come. And, Lord, if it is for us, and You said it was, we want to apply it personally.

And we want to see you, Lord, in our willingness. When we're willing, we want You to be there. We want to know that You've shown up, and that You're going to lead us the rest of the way, because sometimes we don't have to carry out, we just have to be willing. Sometimes we don't have to give up everything, we just have to be willing. And sometimes we're just trading what we have now for what You're going to give us as we continue to walk by the Spirit.

Bless Your Name. Hallelujah. Hallelujah.

Comments On The Above Word

Gaylene Wolmack

As I was reading this (the below Word) the Lord spoke to me and said He has to remove the previous "taste" of the palates because there is a NEW thing coming and if we expect or try to use the things of past, it will hinder the new work of the Spirit. He is creative and wants to be left to be that way! We aren't to presuppose what He is going to do . . in other words, this is how He is going to do "it" because that is the way He did it previously! There's a fresh new outpouring of His Spirit for these last days. . . also, the time frame of Pesach is so right on . . . this is what the Holy Spirit has been showing me for weeks but just this week realized what He was saying. I kept seeing "3:33" so many times when I would look at a clock that I knew He MUST be trying to communicate something special to me. I just completed a "3" day fast this week and He spoke to me the following revelation. He had me look up the number "3" in the Gematria and it represents divine providence; divine perfection or completeness (in Christ); resurrection.

He has completed the preparations in some of us that needed to be done (mine took 20 years!) and now we have been completed (in Him of course) and it is time for our lives/calling to be resurrected. We had to die first so we could be resurrected!! I had trouble trying to find out when Passover, Feast of Firstfruits is because some on the web were stating it was April 4th. . my secular calendar shows April 24th. . . I haven't missed it!!! He says He's using the time frame of the secular calendar. Get ready for a mighty act of the Almighty!

Blessings,
Gaylene

Watch And Pray

Yolanda Ballard

I AM calling you to come up higher, but you must respond by drawing close to My side and seeking My face, enabling Me to speak clearly to you. For this is the day when many are starting to fall away as they chase after their lusts of the flesh rather than to chase after Me.

I tell you that if My people would turn from their wicked ways, then I will be able to heal their land, but if they continue to draw away, they will lose their inheritance in Me, and the enemy will be able to steal, to kill, and destroy everything that they have. Every trace of ever knowing Me will be gone, and they will be just like the world who are lost.

But where is the sacrifice for those who once knew Me, but then fall away? There is not any! For those who go back into the mire and begin to chase after their lusts, and lose interest in knowing Me and loving Me, there is nothing to draw them back for they will be lost forever.

So I tell you this day that you must watch and pray, for the spirit is willing but the flesh is weak, and you need My grace and the strength of My Spirit to carry you on in victory to the finish line. Don't think that you have it all together because you say that you know My name, but in your heart you are far from Me. You don't seek My face and draw close to Me in the secret place. You don't even draw close to Me in worship with others in My presence as before. You allow everything else to be more important than Me. You allow the cares of the world, your lusts of the flesh, and trials of life to quench what fire that you had in Me.

Cry out that I may pour out My fire to burn up the dross before it is too late. Cry out for My grace and mercy that you may return to Me, and dwell close to Me, and once again worship Me unceasingly. For I desire your fellowship, and I send out to you a warning that if you don't start to watch and pray, you will lose all that I called you out to do for Me.

For I have created you to worship Me, and to carry out the mission that I created for you to bear, and only you can do this specific type of work that I called you to. For My work for you is unique, and only you can fill this call and position. There are people out there that only you can reach. And there are people out there that only you can heal. And there are greater works that I have for only you to do with a special anointing that you must claim. And the blessing that I have for you, if you will carry out the calling on your life, will effect every area of your life.

Yes, you will prosper in every area of your life if you put Me and My will first. And you will walk in health, and My peace and joy will flood your life. But most of all you will have My love and My light and glory to radiate out from you.

So contemplate My calling upon you and restore your vision of why you are here. Don't lose out, My people, for this is the time and the hour for restoration and the time for jubilee. Yes, return unto Me. Cast off the lusts and independence, and humble yourself before Me, and I will lift you up. I will bless you and honor you and give you a long life if you live your life truly for Me. Don't just go by My name, but be My people, those who love Me and want to be with Me.

Worship Me and I will stir the gifts within you, and give you the zeal and the fire and the glory. You cannot make it on your own or you will be destroyed, for you must continue to be sensitive when I call you near, and you must be sensitive to hear My voice, but most of all you must follow the leading of My eye. Follow Me and trust Me to know My will, and receive for I give you My kingdom and My power and My glory forever and ever. Amen.

A Call Of Intimacy To The Bride
Yolanda Ballard

Jul 12, 2005
Come be intimate with Me, My bride. Come into My secret place and worship Me for this is the time and the hour to come apart from your worldly cares and abide in My presence. Come close to Me, My bride, and I will fill you to overflowing with My love and grace. I have come to heal the brokenhearted. Yes, I have come to heal all your inner wounds, but you first must come close and wait upon Me. Serve Me with a heart of thanksgiving and of rejoicing for it pleases Me when My bride shows that she has an abiding trust within her.

Why are you downhearted? Why do you not show that you trust Me by you coming and resting in My presence? Be still and know that I am God and that I am faithful to perform My word on your behalf. So come before Me and kneel at My feet and let Me bless you. For I come to bless you with My kingly anointing for you are a royal priesthood, and I will do mighty works through you on behalf of those I gave My life for. Yes, I will touch you and anoint you and send you forth to do mighty works in My name. For yes, this is the time and the hour that I will pour out My power. And yes, you have faithfully waited on Me, and you have trusted in My faithfulness to bring to past all that I have said I would do concerning My latter rain. For yes, I am the rain, and yes, I am the fire, and I am the wind. And I come to shower out upon you My glory.

You are My precious gems. You are My rubies. And I rejoice that you fill My crown with precious jewels. Yes, I wear you as My crown for you are so precious in My sight, My bride, My love. So know how much you mean to Me. Let Me touch you with the fire of My love that you will burn for Me even more. For I long for your intimate presence. I love to feast with you and to dance endlessly for this is the time of coming forth where I will present My bride at the Marriage Supper of the Lamb. Be ready. Yes, make your garments ready and rejoice. Look up for your redemption is drawing nigh for I will embrace you and catch you away into My everlasting arms of love. Yes, this is the time and the hour where I will pour out My power and the fire of My love, says your God.

War Coming Soon

David Kocurek

My Heart is Full and Heavy--So I Must Speak Plainly. To Speak the things The Lord has shown me.

Thru "Many" Dreams and Visions, The Lord keeps showing me this one thing coming to America. "WAR" I see War coming. I see War on Babylon --America.-- I see the Russian -n- Chinese alliance, Launching a surprise attack upon America. Destroying her Air Forces and Navy's Fleets. I see Invasion and a Long bloody land battle on US and Canadian soil. I see the Draft taking those between the ages of 12 to 65. Their will be no real winner in World War 3. Because it is not about conquest, But the Judgments from God and when the books of the Proghets and the book of Revelation will rapidly unfold. I see the enemy take much land before they are finally halted. I see the enemy having Air Superiority and Sea Superiority. Time is short. Soon it will all start. Not too many years hence. The enemy will have "NO" mercy on the women and children and prisoners of war. The invading Army's are "Ruthless." There are "NO" International rules of War, In World War 3. This will be a no holds bar fight, Anything goes. Nukes, Gas, Bio-Warfare the norm. No food No electricity No gas. Survival of the Ruthless. Anarchy and Carnage. No calling 911. Because they are not coming. Defend your self. Prepare an ambush. If you are taken prisoner, You wont be coming back. Never surrender to the enemy- If you do, You will die. Fight or Flight!!! I see Big Earth Quakes and Earth Changes in strange places.

But why you ask? This is being sent by God as Judgment on America, For her sins--- (But wait)--- It spreads to the whole World--All have sinned against God. The enemy suffers as well. Woe to China and Russia and all the Nations and Woe! Woe! to the Whole World. Hunger- War- Disease, These things know no boarders. Every Country effected. Go ahead and hide, But the Lord in his vengeance will find all the wicked. There is only one safe place in all the World. That my friend, Is in Jesus. He alone died on that Cross for us. For the remission of our sins. Your money wont save you, Your wisdom wont save you, Your power wont save you. Only Jesus can save you. "For with God all things are possible". So Please Pray.

Please, Please-- heed The Lords Warnings!!! That I have past on to you. Accept Jesus as your personal Lord and Savior today. God loved you so much, He sent his only begotten son Jesus. That who so ever believes in him, Would not perish but have ever lasting life. John 3:16

A prudent man foresees the troubles ahead and prepares. Wile the wicked do nothing and perish.

Please feel free to post and or forward this Warning message to any who has an ear to hear. Along with my name and e-mail address.

Warfare

Barbara Lynch

March 10, 2005; 5:27 am

This is just the beginning of sorrows for My people. There is much destruction on the horizon and My people are not prepared to meet this destruction. They have prayed and then laid back on their laurels and believe that nothing is going to happen, but the destruction is coming upon the land. Life will go on, but not the same as before. Many will be running to and fro and they will not be able to find peace, but My true church will be running to know Me as the center of peace and they will lead the others to the place of peace that only abides within Me. I have asked My people to come out from under the mundane and walk in the supernatural, but they are refusing to do so. Time will tell! Time will tell on those who would not heed My warnings and all will finally see that I truly did speak and warn My church, but to no avail. The time of great warfare is upon this land and you (church) must war as never before. You must come to the throne of grace as never before. You must stay at the altar of incense as never before and you must come out victorious on all sides. I have spoken and so shall it be, saith the Lord.

Warfare! Warfare! Warfare on all sides and only those who have been trained to walk in My circumference of safety will make it through this terrible hour of great warfare that has come upon this land.

Marshall law will now come into effect. You will see destruction on every side. Many suicides will occur at this given time. Many will walk in fear for their very lives. But I have warned and I have warned, but to no avail. Now My true church will emerge upon the scene with signs, wonders and miracles and they shall bring peace in the midst of this chaotic world. Be still and know that I am God and fight the good fight of faith and prevail at all cost.

We Are His Voice

Cyndee Pillow

April 12, 2005
I breathed out moans while in the spirit, exhaling breath in an airy voice. I heard in my ears the sound of water...many waters.......rushing out! I don't actually know how to describe this, but I just went with the spirit and every time I would exhale air that seemed to come from my belly, it would sound like water flowing upward to the throne.

I know the Spirit was carrying this, and it was changing things and doing something in the heavenlies that would affect the future. I felt...it was as if the Lord was using not only me, but many others all over the world that know the Lord. I felt it was to release King JESUS into the earth with a mighty demonstration that would bring Glory to Himself.

As I prayed this way, I never felt it was me alone doing this...but many others joining all at once, and....together our cry from the Spirit and our voices mingling was as mighty roaring , flowing waters rushing upwards to the throne. Not only that, but as it flowed upwards, I felt it would again flow downwards watering the earth with God's will for His people and blessings for them. I knew that according to the amount of this water flow, this would determine the amount flowing back down. Also, I knew it would shake the earth and the wicked. It is also a release that was making way for the King of Glory.

I believe that the Lord has a people (His People), that have come into unity all over the earth, like never before, for such a time as this. His people are releasing a cry from the deep! It is pouring forth unto the Lord by the Holy Spirit in us.

This united voice in the Spirit is flowing from the recently uncapped wells of water. This has come after the battle that came to try to stop the flow from every coming forth from us. Many have come out of the furnace of fire and many are still coming out that will join this voice.

The battle has been won over many hindrances in the flesh and now there is a flow that has joined with the Spirit as ONE Cry and ONE voice unto the Father. There will be others joining, even every second, every hour and every day, until it is completed. Join in the song of the Spirit, that brings God's will on earth as it is in Heaven.

WE are HIS voice!~~

"His feet glowed like burnished bronze as it is refined in a furnace, and His voice was like the sound of many waters." Rev. 1: 15

"His body also was like beryl, his face had the appearance of lightning, his eyes were like flaming torches, his arms and his feet like glowing burnished bronze, and the sound of his words was like the noise of a multitude." Daniel 10:6

HIS VOICE (His People) cry out~!

"Then I heard what sounded like a great multitude, like the roar of rushing waters and like loud pearls of thunder, shouting: Hallelujah! For our Lord God Almighty reigns." Rev. 19:6

Women Arise

Women, Arise and Claim Your Portion
J. Lee Grady
Oct 8, 2005

Women, Arise and Claim Your Portion God is calling women off the bench and out of the shadows. It is a special season for His daughters to walk in a new realm of spiritual authority.

God has placed a passion in my heart to see women take their full place in the church and society. Perhaps that's because I have four daughters of my own.
As soon as my first daughter, Margaret, was born 20 years ago, I realized that girls are special. So my wife and I kept having more. Meredith was born in 1987. Gloria arrived two years later. Charlotte came along in 1992. Four girls in seven years!

I tell people that I have been drowning in a sea of estrogen since the day we brought that first baby girl into our home. But I have no regrets. I know that the Father does not look at girls as inferior. He did not make them to serve as appendages to men. He created women with unique callings that must be released in full potential.

It is tragic that in many denominations in this country, women's spiritual gifts are not valued. While women in the secular realm are enjoying unprecedented opportunities in business, government and the media, many denominational leaders prefer that women in the church stay sidelined, muffled and relegated to supporting roles.

That's why we need to dust off our Bibles and relearn what the Holy Spirit teaches us from the book of Numbers. We need to understand the story of the daughters of Zelophehad.

We rarely hear sermons about these girls today, even though they are mentioned in the Bible three times (see Num. 27:1-7; 36:1-12; Josh. 17:1-6). Maybe this is because many church leaders simply don't want to empower women or are afraid to. But it is time we unlocked these women's secret for a new generation.

The story of these daughters—Mahlah, Noah, Hoglah, Milcah and Tirzah—is recorded in Scripture so that women will muster the courage to claim their inheritance. God's daughters must understand who they are, how their heavenly Father views them and what He has commissioned them to do in His kingdom. The daughters' portion must be claimed.

The Bible tells us that after Zelophehad's death, his daughters went to Moses and made a daring proposal: "Why should the name of our father be withdrawn from among his family because he had no son? Give us a possession among our father's brothers" (Num. 27:4, NASB).

We can't even begin to imagine how bold and audacious this request was. Women in Israel did not ask for rights. Yet the daughters of Zelophehad risked their reputations by approaching the leader of their nation to ask for something revolutionary.

What is most remarkable is that Moses took their request seriously and sought God about it. Most church leaders who restrict women's involvement in ministry don't pray about this issue at all. They simply consult their denominational policies and traditions: "No women in the pulpit. Women can't teach men. Women can't lead anything." And then they reinstate man-made rules that quench the Holy Spirit.

But Moses asked God, and God had a surprising reply: "The daughters of Zelophehad are right in their statements. You shall surely give them a hereditary possession among their father's brothers, and you shall transfer the inheritance of their father to them" (v. 7).

In that moment, God contradicted centuries of prejudice and wrong-headed tradition. He made it clear that in His kingdom, women are not afterthoughts. They have equal value with men and full rights to His benefits. When God looks at redeemed mankind through the blood of Jesus Christ, He does not limit women from full participation in His kingdom purposes.

You may have been told that women have only second-class status in the church, or that your role is limited because of your gender. You may even have been told that women are less valuable to God, or less useful. But the Bible contradicts this view.

Today, as we shift into a fresh season of the Holy Spirit's work, God's daughters must shake free from the old limitations and boldly claim their new assignments.

What Abba Said About Hurricane Katrina

Judy Curmi

8-29-2005

Isa. 66:1 Thus says the Lord: Heaven is my throne and the earth is my footstool; what is the house that you built for me? And what is the place of my rest? [NKJ]

Ps. 104:3 Who layest the beams of his chamber in the waters, who makest the clouds his chariot, who walkest upon the wings of the wind. [NKJ]

I copied a number of discussions, articles and news reports off the Internet to read about Hurricane Katrina. This was a category 5 hurricane that at one time had sustained winds of 175 mph and gusts over 200 mph. As I sat down to start reading this material the thought suddenly occurred to me, "What does ABBA have to say about this?" The following is what I then heard.

My child, virtually no one is inquiring of me. Everyone is running to their friends or to the "experts" and inquiring of them. Is this not a sad state of affairs? Even you have not thought to inquire of me, because you did not think that I would answer you. Do you not think that my ideas would be more valuable and more accurate than those of your friends or the "experts"?

I AM the same yesterday, today and forever. I change not, nor does my mode of operation change. I can still speak with a still small voice and I can still speak through a storm. I still "ride on the clouds" and the earth is still my footstool.

Man has mistakenly assumed that I am not a God who speaks today or even pays attention to what is happening on the earth. Nothing could be further from the truth. I know every step that every person takes and every thought and intention of each and every person’s heart.

I know those who do evil because it has been an easy habit to fall into. I know others who devise cunning plans for evil and are obsessed with carrying out their plans in the physical realm.

Some of these people can be rehabilitated. Others have given themselves over to evil with zeal and zest, for what they think they can get out of it. I have given them over to their sin and it "owns them". It is as I spoke through the Apostle Paul when Paul said God gave them up to their lusts and a reprobate mind. [Rom. 1:24-26]

You wonder, what does this have to do with a major hurricane that missed New Orleans by the merest breath of a few miles? I will tell you.

Mankind sits on the brink of great catastrophe. I have been cast aside and MAMMON has been installed as your God. Whether in the church or out of the church, this is what people are running after and this is what people are worshipping. This is the idol on the altar of their hearts.

The problem with this is that mammon is an evil taskmaster and its ruler is Satan. Therefore, if you are worshipping and chasing after mammon, you are heading in the opposite direction from where you need to be going to protect yourself.

When I speak softly no one listens because they have become so deaf. Therefore, I have begun to ROAR and the ROARING will continue to grow louder. The ROAR of a hurricane is very loud. The ROAR of a tornado is very loud, but even these are just the tip of the iceberg.

THE EARTH HAS REACHED THE "TIPPING POINT".* Various scientists have written commentaries about this subject. They just assume it is about the weather and that what is happening can be described in natural terms. They do not factor in my Son’s warnings about the days of Noah and the days of Sodom.

Luke 17:26-30 Just as it happened in the days of Noah, such will be the days of the Son of man. For they were eating and drinking, and marrying and giving in marriage, until the day when Noah entered the ark, and the flood came and destroyed every man.

And again, just as it happened in the days of Lot; they were eating and drinking, and buying and selling, and planting and building; But in the day that Lot went out of Sodom, the Lord sent down a rain of fire and sulfur from heaven, and destroyed them all. Such will it be when the Son of man appears.

They can not see to put the pieces together, although the Biblical warnings that were given for the "End Times" are both abundant and abundantly clear.

Men are going to run in vain in the days ahead trying to find funds to deal with "this catastrophe" and "that catastrophe". The earth desires to spew man out as animals that were programmed to vomit up something that was not supposed to be in their stomach.

Man had not obeyed my laws, nor has he been interested in my instructions. The result has been absolute chaos – not only for relationships between people, but also for the relationship between people and the earth (your environment).

The day is soon at hand – even at your door – when people will be absolutely reeling with the intensity of natural events occurring on the earth. An earthquake is a natural event. A pandemic is a "natural event". So are fires and all manner of storms - in all seasons of the year. These are just a few examples of that which I speak.

I WILL GET PEOPLES ATTENTION. I would have preferred to whisper. My favorite place is the Secret Place.  But when someone has become very deaf, it will take a very loud noise to wake them up. So be it.

The USA can count themselves lucky this time, but much more serious days lie ahead. The hurricanes and tornadoes will not always "jog" at the last moment. The terrorists will not always be held back. The evil plans made by man will go forth. Men think they can cast all constraints aside and worship what ever they please. They think they can do precisely as they desire.

This is my response to you O man, for MY kingdom is coming very, very soon.

Ps. 2 Why do the Gentiles rage and the peoples imagine vain things?
The kings of the earth and the rulers have conspired and have taken counsel together against the Lord and against his anointed, saying,
Let us break their bonds asunder, and let us cast away their yoke from us.
He that dwells in the heaven shall laugh, and the Lord shall mock at them.
Then he shall speak to them in his anger, and terrify them in his wrath and say,
I have appointed my king over Zion, my holy mountain,
To declare my promise; The Lord has said to me, You are my Son; this day I have begotten you.
Ask of me, and I shall give you the heathen for your inheritance and the uttermost parts of the earth for your dominion.
You shall shepherd them with a rod of iron; You shall break them in pieces like a potter’s vessel.

Be wise now, therefore, O kings; be instructed, O judges of the earth.
Serve the Lord with reverence, and uphold him with trembling.
Kiss the Son lest he be angry, and you perish from his way while his wrath is kindled but a little.
Blessed are all that put their trust in him.

Your ABBA

Tipping Point: This is a term created by scientists to describe a potential point in the process of global warming where the process becomes irreversible. According to an article in* The Guardian UK posted August 11, 2005, "It is a scenario climate scientists have feared since first identifying "tipping points" – delicate thresholds where such a slight rise in the earth's temperature can cause a dramatic change in the environment that itself triggers a far greater increase in global temperatures."

This process has come about by the melting of the permafrost in Siberia in an area now as big as Germany and France combined. The melting is causing the release into the air of huge quantities of methane that has been trapped in the frozen peat. Reports state that now billions of tons of methane are being released into the air from Siberia. Methane is 20 times more potent than carbon dioxide as a green house gas. The result will be "social, [political], economic and environmental devastation worldwide." For the full text of this article go to

You shall hide them in the secret place of your presence from the plots of man" You shall keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues. [NKJ]

I believe that the Lord is about to release wealth to the nation of Israel through the discovery of oil reserves in the land given by God.

I believe that as the Middle East has held the monopoly over the years, so the Lord is now releasing this treasure to the nation of Israel so that they will be self sufficient and will have an abundance that will amaze the oil corporations world wide.

They will find oil where the word says it is, and many will look and see that the word of God is true, there will be the opening of many eyes particularly the Jews as they see prophesy come to pass before their very eyes.

At a time when things look so bad world wide and coastlines are being battered by storms and winds, oil refineries and lines are being affected, the Lord will enable This new wealth of Israel touch those who have stood with this land.

The nations are crying out, for a saviour, for answers because the very thing they feared is now upon them. The Whole earth is groaning gasping for breath.

I believe that We are entering into a time of Job.

The following excerpts are taken from The Devotional Bible. Max lucado.

1. satan accused Job of having faith only because his life was easy so God let satan attack Job.

2. Job lost everything, yet did not curse God.

3. Jobs friends tried to reason out why such misfortune had fallen on him, assuming it must be something Job had done.

4. In the end, Job acknowledged God's wisdom and discretion as he had at the beginning.

Key verse
Even if God kills me, I have hope in Him; I will still defend my ways to His face (Job 13 v 15)

The book is so moving, in conclusion even though God owed Job nothing, he gave him everything, new health, new business, new family, and most of all, new insight.

God is God, He knows what He is doing, when you can't trace His hand, trust His heart.

The Time Of Job
Heather Butler

September 18th 2005.

In just one week I have had many people come to me and ask me the same sort of questions, and as I was washing up this morning and pondering I believe that the Lord spoke to me .

The questions are these :

“I have prayed with faith, I have claimed all the promises, I have stood on the word, and enquired of the lord, but still there is no reply.

I prayed healing but death came.

I cried out for peace, and I still live in chaos.

I prayed for The Lord to reveal His plans and purposes for my life but I am still waiting for a reply”.

It there has been a lot of discontent and restlessness within the Body of Christ of late, as we have seen disaster after disaster take place in front of our eyes .Many people seem to be in a time of not being able to get a response from the lord in prayer. This is what I believe the lord spoke to me.

“This is The Time of Job”

The Father needs for us to get to know Him better than we have ever done before, to persevere and to push on in through intimidation, fear, heartache, tears, even when we cannot hear His voice. We must continue to know that beyond a shadow of doubt the Lord is still in charge, is still hear with us, is still more than able to overcome every situation, that He changeth not, that His promises remain forever and can never be broken.

We are standing in the time of sorrows, and the enemy is ready to launch into his last throws on the earth. We have to be a people prepared and ready to stand even when we cannot comprehend , or understand.

We must become a people who know The Fathers heart, even though we are in a time of great sorrow and heartache. Many are asking “where is your God” we must not buckle at the knees, and start to panic, we have been taught how to approach the times that we knew would come, we are equipped to stand in these final hours, and must learn to manoeuvre into His will even when we would rather not. To tear down fear with faith, to turn our back on anxiety and worry and bind up unbelief so that the light of truth will blaze forth.

The Father is building within us an absolute trust and faith, that dares to believe that know matter what is happening within us or around about us that everything is alright in Him. A faith so violent and so strong in prayer and praise that the Father rends the heavens and sends His response upon the earth. Wild whirlwinds of the fire of God will encompass every act of the enemy, consuming his works, and releasing a strength and determination within the body of Christ like never witnessed before.

We already know the truth of the word, we have been given the strategy for these last days. It is now nearly the time to step into that plan. We will not be consumed or overcome if we know absolutely what the word has taught us and live in the reality of it in our lives.

I see a picture of a mobile phone, someone finding it difficult to hear what the commander on the other end is saying, they know that the commander is there, but the message is distorted because of the lack of a signal in the valley. That person knows that they have to get out of the valley and up onto the mountain top to receive that call and to hear clearly, but, time is short, and its imperative that they step out . Just as peter stepped out in the midst of the storm, so we must learn to step out into the depths and allow the holy Spirit to lead us into all truth.

We have been drilled about the battle over many years, we understand the scenario of what is about to take place, and we know that we are called to take our place to step out into the depths where there is no where to cling onto except to trust totally in Him. We know what it will take to overcome the enemy on every level, we know the cost of pushing through of holding our heads up in the depths of the deep things of God.

I believe that know matter how we are feeling right now, we need to learn to praise, and thank God in the Midst of the trials and tribulations, like Job we need to be a people who cry out “yet will I praise thee” even as others point, and stare, even as they scorn and mock, even as they take our land, our money, our health, nothing can stand in the way of the presence of the Lord in you, you are unshakable . Many of you have an understanding of the times, many have a wisdom and boldness like never before, I promise you that The Lord will not fail you.

To be a mighty man of valour you need to know that You may still feel the effects of fear, but, you step through that fear, valour is only fear stepped through, victory is on the other side. To be brave means that you entrust God with your life, and you don’t let circumstances dictate to you anymore because even though you don’t always have answered prayer or healing you know beyond a shadow of a doubt that God is God, and that what His word says will come to pass know matter what. God is faithful to His word, what it said in the very beginning it still speaks now all these years later, nothing in it has changed, only mans ideals have changed.

We must declare the truth over ourselves and our families every day,
“ Greater is Him that is in you than him that is in the world”

“I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me “.

Prepare ye the way of the lord, in the midst of the trial.

The way you handle these times will speak much to those around you. Remove the stones unbelief, of anxiousness, of tiredness, and step into the destiny that you were born for, you were born for this moment. Be radical, be bold, you are part of the greatest army the world has ever seen, you may not feel it some times, but it doesn’t stop that from being true.

With every blessing
That still small voice.

Water Crosser's

Vicki Camp

(a piece re: Jesus' close camp people and His five-fold ministers)

Pre: This portion of a vision I received was serious business for Lord and I, yet in that process it was also at times humorous as I watched and noted these diversely identified ministries, so a pre-warning that some parts may seem humorous for you as you read also, but I trust the main of this vision will not be.
Remembering that this is only a portion and one angle shown me in-part, I hope that this may be good for some of you In Christ, as it has been for myself.

2-21-05 Upon awakening the Lord took me into a vision. This is a part, which I'll attempt to abbreviate here …… I was outside and I saw many people on one side of some land which was divided by water. Whether this water was a river, lake, or sea? – I'm not really sure. On the other side of this body of water Jesus was standing very tall, on a knoll of ground, beckoning for the people to cross over that water and come to Him.

Amongst this large crowd of people being beckoned, I saw shepherd-pastors with their sheep-crooks gathering folks into groups, and giving the people drink from vessels they carried, also sharing loaves of bread produced out of fat stuffed backpacks which these shepherds wore.

I saw some teachers dressed in long green robes like fresh graduates or professors with the recognizable shaped hat-board with tassel on their heads. These teachers were talking and instructing the people as they gently lined the people up in a loose yet closely knit fashion – orderly and right(eously).

I saw some few who were apostles and these persons looked very much like elder Moses-father types, judicial Deborah-mother type's. These ones were dressed in biblical times garb - robes of various design. They stood erect and dignified in authority, yet they had the marks showing of many battles on their bodies and crinkle lined, care worn faces. The kindness of Christ just exuded out from these apostles, and that kindness and love attracted the people.

I saw a prophet dressed like a modern day baseball player (of my U.S. culture) wearing a dark royal blue baseball cap with white insignia and a matching satiny looking blue baseball jacket.

This blue dressed prophet then pointed dramatically to a bridge he had spotted (seer), and he excitedly ran to this bridge and crossed halfway to the top of that arched, wide foot-bridge, and there he stopped to turn and call to the people,,, in this fashion,

“Come,,,, come.. this is The Way to Jesus' side, to Jesus' camp … Today is the day……come everyone !...”

The apostles saw and heard the prophet first, and they few crossed over this bridge, nodding to the prophet a silent, ‘well done’, as they passed by him, crossing over and onto the ‘new ground’. They went and stood just below Jesus, and there they raised flags high on tall poles they held, that the people still across the other side might see and also come, cross over and rally to Jesus.

I watched the shepherds and teachers along with many people now also cross over this bridge…not all of the people crossed the water by this bridge, but many did …. And all the while the blue clad prophet stood in the middle of that bridge facing those crowds, and crying out to them to, 'Come this Way, … this is the day,,,,, come ' , but this prophet never did cross over fully himself.

On Jesus side, I saw the shepherds guiding people groups to what seemed to be assigned places around Jesus' camp and grounds, under His' various flags which the apostles held high. I saw the teachers standing also just below Jesus under oak trees, where many of the people came to sit in the tree shade to listen to these teachers teach.

All this while, the blue clad prophet still stood in the middle of that bridge calling to the people on the first land-side. A few of the people crossing had stopped and stood with him..... they also did not cross over. Finally, when the crowds crossing this bridge dwindled off, I watched in surprise as this prophet ran back to the original land side !

He then ran down the shoreline a distance with his now small group of followers running with him, until he spotted yet another bridge and I watched as the same scene seemed to replay over again …. First this prophet to the bridge middle, then the apostles crossing firstly, then the many people with the caring shepherds and teachers ….. crossing over the bridge to Jesus side,,, Jesus close camp.

There were now many people gathering to Jesus, to His side. The prophet in the midst of each bridge was so intent in 'calling directions to the people', that I noticed he never even looked over to Jesus' side, to see some of the fruit of his labor – His prophet message just seemed to be so strong in him,,, and so he continued on compelled of The Spirit, to the middle of each bridge which he newly discovered …

However, as I had watched this prophet run to find one of those first bridges he did pause long enough to look and notice an evangelist, as I did also !,, For you could not miss this evangelist who was singing loudly and wonderfully, crossing this body of water,,, walking on the water !!, leaving a wake of jumping fish following in his path. As this evangelist crossed over to Jesus side in this Way of Jesus' miraculous, many of the people followed the evangelist and they too walked on water, some of them after throwing crutches and medicines and etc. aside – for they were all healed as they first stepped out upon that water.

As I continued to watch, the blue clad prophets' small entourage grew a little each time he discovered and then worked a new bridge; Standing at the mid point of each arched foot-bridge, calling the people to 'Come this Way…..', and no matter what attempted to distract, he just kept on 'keeping on'.. sending a few members of his troop out to scout ahead, with each new foray they made.

At one point as I looked to Jesus camp-side again, the many people now there with Him, I saw that Jesus Himself was now preparing a huge long table with a most royal looking meal for all the people gathered and still gathering... This extremely long table was quite rustic like a slab table made from split tree log.

Then, I was lifted up higher over this whole scene and I saw that even while the people gathered and Jesus was still filling that long wooden table, there were thousands upon thousands of people still standing or waiting to cross to Jesus' side. I saw from this higher vantage that there were more prophets (both men and women) running, finding bridges, then taking their place and calling-out to the people; As I also saw more and more evangelist's demonstrating miraculous Way as they sung out Jesus' song .. beautifully. The evangelists would cross over the water with some of the people following, and then they would return back to the first side, to gather even more people ~ all the while walking on that water !

And those people from the crowds who waited and were attuned with ears to hear and eyes to see were hearing, seeing and moving out,,,,,, towards Jesus.

“You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies, thou anointest my head with oil; my cup runneth over.” - Ps. 23:5

“And the Spirit and the bride say, ‘Come', and let him that heareth say, 'Come’..... “ – Rev. 22:17a

As for that baseball clad prophet (?), I can only say, "Yes Lord, even as that American sport song, ‘Take me out to the ball game’ ! ; Even so, To Your side, Your grounds, that I / we might abide in Your close presence – even today and ongoing-ly........ And I hear,

"This piece I have shown you watcher is only the beginning, for there are many glory adventures, yes and the hard fought and won victories yet ahead - Let my people rightly joined and fitted come to Me, rest and eat each one of you, and then follow Me onward and outward, bearing My banner, many colors united under and In Me, your Christ and Lord.
I tell you even the dead will be raised once again; The enemy will tremble and loose his evil holding's, upon first hearing the song of our approach - this will be. See Me now as I am beckoning all who so will; Come into My close camp and partake of My Hands today; I remind you again, Our future is Glory; Partakers of My Body and Blood, Bearers of My erupting Spirit Oil, Bride united in My Name which is named upon you; Unto My Glory in earth even as in the heavenlies."

"And He (Jesus) said unto them (His disciples), When ye pray, say, Our Father which art in heaven, Hallowed be thy name. Thy kingdom come. Thy will be done, as in heaven, so in earth. ... " - Luke 11: 2 & Mt. 6:10

"So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and individually members of one another." - Rom 12:5

What Are These Hurricanes?
Dave Dreiling

I Asked The Lord. He Said, "Its About Slavery!" --David Dreiling

From Geoff Sadler / Jul 17, 2005

I hate to say I told you so but.......... I've been playing this game called Tradewinds this weekend which is about a ship trading in the Caribbean in the seventeen and eighteenth centuries. It has all kinds of things you can trade and pirates that attack you and so forth. What it doesn't have though is salves, which in one way is a good thing but in another could be symbolic of our convenience in FORGETTING the injustice that was done to a few generations of Africans. Many of you know I spent some time in the South and in Florida last year repenting of Liverpool's role in the slave trade. I'm currently writing a book about it but one incident comes to mind. In Annapolis, Maryland, I was on a beach praying and asking forgiveness when all of a sudden the tide suddenly turned. This is how I put it at the time.

We went to another part of the bay. As I was standing there I read the portion of scripture from

Jonah 1 v 4 "Then the Lord sent a great wind on the sea and there was a mighty tempest on the sea"

As I did the sea, which was calm up until then, started to become rough. It was as if the tide had turned right there and then and then stopped and became calm again. There were no boats around that were moving. At the same time, unknown to me, my colleague who was sitting in the van and couldn't see this, was led to pray for peace upon the waters. When I went back to the van we both were praying for peace to descend on all of those affected by the slave trade in this area and for peace and revival to come upon the cities of Liverpool and Annapolis. As we did this, a supernatural peace descended upon us and we were both unable to speak for a while. Even as I write this I can feel it happening again. "The presence of God is going to calm the waters of indifference and intolerance that has existed between people for centuries. I believe he, even now, is healing the wounds of the past and setting people free from oppression. This is only the beginning."

I believe what Dave Dreling says here is spot on and needs to be taken seriously by intercessors in the U.S and especially the South.

What Are These Hurricanes?
Dave Dreiling

Last Sunday, July 10th, on the day Hurricane Dennis made landfall I asked the L-rd, "What's with all these hurricanes?"

To my amazement He instantly responded to my question. He said, "It's all about Slavery".

"What?" I inquired?

The L-rd simply explained to me that the hurricanes in question all form off the west coast of Africa and wreak havoc only upon those territories that were originally built through the institution of slavery. It became clear to me that all the Caribbean islands and the states of the Deep South -- Florida, Georgia, and the Carolina's were all built on the backs and blood of West African slaves. I had never looked at things that way before.

Repentance for Devastation

I asked the L-rd what He wanted me to do with the information, and he told me to send out a trumpet call for the Church to repent for the devastation and brokenness wrought on African nations through slavery; and to call for our born-again national leaders to consider seriously our debt to the lives and manpower of African Nations and their forced contribution to our prosperity.

I prayed further about these things and asked the L-rd, "Why now?"

This is the same time frame that the G8 leaders were discussing the issue of African poverty in Scotland.

I realize that there has been much interracial repentance and reconciliation. Notwithstanding G-d was highlighting a completely different issue here. It is repentance from our nation to the nations and peoples currently in poverty and distress in Africa. It is owning up to our wrongdoing -- not just to Black people in America but to those who were left behind in Africa with shattered families and devastated communities.

It's NOT About Money

Make no mistake; this is not about money or the need of G-d Almighty to "extort" finances out of Western nations for Africa by hurricanes. Rather it is a spiritual dynamic that G-d is after and His plans and purposes for the revelation of His mercy in Africa still remain largely hidden, although it is clear that revival appears to be sweeping the continent.

Accordingly, I call out to the Church to take the lead and rise up in prayer to stand united in repentance before G-d, by declaring our sins in receiving and prospering off the lives and slaughter of the almost 50,000,000 slaves transported to the New World from Africa.

As a Jewish man, I repent of my Jewish brethren's role in not standing up in opposition to slavery but rather owning slaves and prospering from the horrible wasting of their lives.

I pray that this word would find its way into the hands and hearts of those to whom G-d has raised up in government and given authority to repent on behalf of our nation. I pray that those with G-d-given authority throughout the Caribbean nations would be so moved.

I believe that it is in G-d's heart that reparations be made at this time.

Africa is on G-d's heart.

In a time of judgment as evidenced by weather patterns, G-d is sending a word of wisdom for repentance.

The final thing G-d spoke to me that Sunday, was a promise that if our leaders will accept this place of repentance, He will stop the devastation wrought by the string of recent hurricanes.

Repentance is easy. It s amazing that with this simple heart attitude, by the stunning power of Yeshua's blood, so great an evil can be forgiven, and its effects on future generations broken.

G-d is good!

Where Are The Prophets

Randy Williams

I received an e-mail one day that was asking the question “Where are the prophets?” Below is my reply.

I’d like to respond to the e-mail from Sun, Nov 21st, 2004 entitled “Where are the prophets?” I give my apology up front because I am not a concise writer, but I do ask the readers to take their time and see if the Lord will speak anything to you through these words. Print it out, read some now, read some later, come back to it in a few weeks, see if the observations hold true. This is addressed to no one in particular so when you see “you” just check and see if the shoe fits.

I have to agree with the e-mail as far as we don’t seem to see true prophets functioning in churches today. I am talking about in local churches. And what we see in the glossy “mega church” world is shamelessly corrupt new age show business. I won’t even comment further on that except to say that I hope people have enough discernment to know that Elijah probably wouldn’t be charging $79 for you to come to his “conference” in some 5 star hotel. I sort of doubt he’d set up a line where people could wait for his autograph on his latest greatest book.

I am more interested in the local church scene. The supposedly “true” church. I’d like to give some insight into these things. In doing so I hope to spur people to think a little and also I hope to challenge any “leaders” who might read this. In the setup of today’s “churches” there are usually four or five men who solely determine the whole working environment of the church. In most churches this actually comes down to one man. Since they have put themselves in a place where everything is filtered through them, we must address them as we try to sort through these issues.

The question posed was “Where are the Prophets?”. I think the more appropriate question might be “Where are any biblical churches?”, or better yet, “If a true prophet were among us today, what church would allow him to function biblically?”.

There are prophets among us today just as there have always been prophets. Prophets are meant to be a functioning part of the “body of Christ”. I have to say “meant to be” because we do not see them actually functioning this way today. Why don’t we? There are a variety of reasons. Some of these reasons are deep seated and foundational. We can summarize it by saying “the churches today don’t follow a biblical model”.

Now I know we all think that our local church is biblical, after all we have attended there for thirty years and we got married there and we live right around the corner from it. So it must be biblical, right? Or, “our pastor has a good heart” so we must be biblical, right? Let’s look at a scripture or two and perhaps we can see how biblical we are.

There are many scriptures in the New Testament giving instructions and examples of how a church is supposed to function. It is funny how few of these we actually take literally. For example in Corinthians we read “let two or three prophets speak and let the others judge”. Now, that is not overly complicated. Actually it is very plain. Paul was establishing an orderly way to allow prophecy to function. According to Paul prophecy was one of the most important gifts. Yet the question is how many times do we see two or three prophets speak and then the other prophets judge what was said? Not very often. Instead we see anything BUT this biblical pattern.

In some churches we see no “prophecy” at all. In some churches we see things like “if you think you have a word from God, write it on a piece of paper and pass it to the 3rd assistant under shepherd, if he thinks it is what God is saying he will pass it to 2nd assistant under shepherd who then will see if he thinks it is what God is saying and then he will pass it to the 1st assistant under shepherd” and so on. So we have the prophet’s word being judged by men who aren’t prophets at all. This is just plainly and simply NOT what the bible instructs.

In some churches prophets are allowed to speak freely but then the pastor immediately judges the word from the pulpit. This is a little better because at LEAST we are following PART of the scripture by allowing prophets to speak but again we have a pastor judging that word. That’s sort of like having a plumber checking the transmission on your car. The guy may be a good plumber but that doesn’t make him a good mechanic. Also is the fact that the word is judged right away, without even allowing a few moments to ponder it. In our rush to stick to our tightly regimented agendas we miss God trying to speak to us.

In some churches the “prophecy” is very weak. It doesn't "move" or "stir" anyone and it is forgotten almost as soon as it is pronounced. For example you have a “dead” church of bored complacent saints and someone stands up and says “my sweet children, how I love you and want you to be free from any striving”. And no one speaks up either to confirm or reject the word given. And each week the same person stands up and gives the same type of flowery “feel good” word. If Elijah himself were there he’d be scratching his head saying “Striving? These people wouldn’t know how to strive if their life depended on it. Did she say striving or snoring?”

Sometimes the prophecy is "vague". You see this sometimes in the "mega churches". The "prophet" speaks and no one has a clue what he said. No one is moved to action. How could they be? For instance "The Lord is looking for a new sound. This sound will be produced when we fully enter the 3rd level of blah blah blah etc etc etc". These types of words are why I quit reading "The Elijah List" several years ago. Usually the guy has a book you can buy where he will "explain" what it means. Hehe. But since it is so unclear no one can judge it and no one knows if it came to pass or not. A prophetic word is fairly clear by definition. The guys who try to be mystical are "playing at it". A true prophetic word gets clearer as time passes. As time and events play out, that word will be proven true or false. The same can be said for this response that I am typing.

And there may in fact be a true prophet sitting there but he wouldn’t dare stand to question the validity of that word for that church because that sort of thing is “just not done”. Even though it is biblical it isn’t done. He has been there long enough to know that if he dared to confront a word that he would immediately be “overruled” from the pulpit and after the meeting he would get to have a nice little meeting with the pastor where he would be told to “stop being divisive”. If the prophet points to chapter and verse and says, “Pastor, I am just following the bibles instruction” he gets the “that’s not practical” line or maybe the classic “you’re too immature to understand”. Or he might hear “We tried that once and it was too confusing so we quit”. I wonder if those excuses will pull any weight with God on judgment day?

And here we get to the root of the problem. The biblical environment is just not there for prophets to operate. Why not? What’s the problem? To put it bluntly the vast majority of the churches are “one man shows”. This means the “pastor” is in charge of everything. He dominates and controls all aspects of the meetings. He sets the direction. He does 95% of the speaking. Everything has to “go through” him. Needless to say…THIS IS NOT REMOTELY BIBLICAL.

To be specific the bible calls for multiple elders. And we are talking about multiple equal elders as opposed to one guy on salary and 3 or 4 guys “under” him answering to him. One guy calling the shots with 4 “yes men” under him is NOT the biblical pattern. Notice that the Epistles aren’t written to the “pastor” of the church. The epistles are written to the church itself. Even in the case of the Corinthian church where there was a person in open sin, Paul didn’t address a secret letter to the “pastor” telling him to throw the guy out. The letter was written to the whole church. Can you IMAGINE this happening today? Obviously we have some other system in place than the churches that Paul wrote to.

We see that in the New Testament there was no clear separation between “clergy” and “laity”. Yet we have exactly that today. You say, “No, we are nondenominational, we don’t have a separation between clergy and laity like the Catholics do”. Really? So when was the last time someone from the congregation did the teaching? Does the same guy do the teaching every week? Does the same person lead worship every week? Are some people considered to be “in the ministry” while others are just part of the “congregation”? Does 99% of the “congregation” sit like knots on a log year after year? Does the “pastor” have the final say on everything? Thank you, that is the exact same separation of clergy and laity that we “charismatic” people make fun of in Catholics.

So we see that we aren’t biblical. We have “meetings” but not remotely like what is described in the bible. We are using a different recipe, so should we be surprised that we get a different outcome? The recipe we use is made to keep people pacified. In some churches the recipe is to keep them entertained. In most churches the recipe is just “keep doing what we’ve always done”. So instead of people who shake the world we have thirty-year veteran “Christians” who have no idea what their gift is. Well why should they know? After all, they never have to use it because the pastor does everything. Is this even remotely what God intends?

Now, back to the prophet. This “one man show” type church that 95% of us attend is not even vaguely what the Lord instructed. It is a creation of men. It’s nothing more than expediency. More of a business organization model than the living, breathing organism that Paul speaks of. This is stifling to the flow of the Holy Spirit to say the least. The gift that gets hurt the most is the prophetic gift. Of course, this is the gift the devil most wishes to shutdown. The prophet can see and recognize the devil creeping in, so the devil must do what he can to influence it so that the prophet is marginalized. The prophet can help keep the church functioning with a vision instead of floundering year after year. Can you say that the last three years in your church have been any different than the ten years before? How is the fruit looking? Has anything changed? How many new, burning with zeal, gift-using Christians has your church produced? Go ask your pastor where the world is going and how the church must change to fit into God’s plan. See what he says.

These pastor controlled churches function much like a dictatorship. Don't think so? Go up and question your pastor on the direction of the church or something. See what happens. The prophet’s words are looked upon as “dissent” and we know that dictators don’t take too kindly to dissent. But if you sit, be quiet, and pay your tithes, everything will be fine. Again, this is not the biblical model. The bible shows meetings where everyone can take part and specifically we have already seen that God intends for prophets to have freedom to speak and then to judge what the other prophets spoke. I am pretty sure God gave these instructions for a reason. So why then do pastors resist this? Why do pastors go to great lengths to “shut down” the prophets? Simple, it’s because these types of meetings and open prophecies seem “messy”. They are “alive”. They are not “scripted”. They don’t fit in well with our tightly controlled well-orchestrated agenda.

Think about it. Almost every meeting in your church is identical to the last meeting. I DARE you to disagree. Every week you know who is going to speak, you know who is going to sing. Same pace, same everything. And after a while you even know all of the pastor’s sayings. You know what verses he will read and what verses he won’t touch. You know them because he uses a “template” that he just fills in each week. He tries to force God into his little template to squeeze out his thirty-seven minute long “sermon” each week. That’s why it is “three S’s” or “three P’s” every week. You know, “patience, persistence, prayer” and next week “strength, safety, scripture”. It’s boring and controlled. I ask you, which part of the book of Acts was boring and controlled?

This is why we don’t see true prophets today. Simply put, they can’t function in this environment. A pastor-dominated church has that element of control. Whether it is actually stated or not it is communicated all the same. Pastors are terrified of someone “rocking the boat”. For instance I have heard pastors say things like “we have a lot of people running around today calling themselves prophets when really they just have a critical spirit”. Hehe, what sort of environment does that set? How about when they try to strictly set “prophecy” to be “non-negative”? In other words the “prophecies” have to be cheery tidings of joy. I promise you that in this scenario you wont see a true prophet. He will simply leave after a while since his gift is totally despised. And if you went through the bible and took out the so-called “negative” words of the prophets, or of Jesus, you would end up with a Swiss cheese bible.

The prophet is designed by the Lord to be the ‘eyes’ of the body. They are designed to be “watchmen”. Yet in our modern pastor-dominated churches the watchmen is not allowed to speak out on what he sees. Can you fathom the foolishness of this? Imagine a watchman in Israel on the wall. He sees the enemy approaching, he starts to yell out to warn the people, then someone says “brother, please don’t raise your voice, we don’t want to startle anyone.” So the people aren’t warned at all.

You would agree that this is absurdity, yet you sit in a church week in and week out that functions in exactly this manner.

If you are lucky you can sometimes hear a prophet speak in a home type gathering. But this is rare also because in general these people have been conditioned by sitting in a pastor-controlled church for 20-30 years. They have heard “let’s not strive”, “don’t be critical”, and “don’t be introspective” every week for years. When they do hear a prophet speak it seems as if he is “striving”, “being critical”, and being “introspective”. It is uncomfortable and one doesn’t know how to respond. The heart of the matter is that when a true prophet speaks there is tension in the air. He is speaking for a reason. His speaking is an “event” and it is NOT just passing along information. If you know a prophet and you hear him speak from the heart, it is meant to change you. It is calculated to affect a change in you. As I said he produces “tension” when he speaks. This is the same “tension” that was present when Jesus spoke or when Paul spoke. These were dangerous men. They spoke to affect change.

This is why a pastor who has succumbed to a controlling spirit can’t abide a prophet speaking freely. He takes the prophets words to be a threat. He takes the prophet’s words to be an indictment, and they usually are. I was speaking to a pastor once, he showed his insecurity and control by saying “What, so God only speaks to prophets?” (See Numbers 12:2) It’s not that the pastor is “bad” necessarily. He has just fallen into this false man-made church structure and it is producing false man-made results. The fact of the matter is that prophets are supposed to be FOUNDATIONAL to the church. For example Ephesians 2:20 speaks of the church being BUILT on the foundation of apostles and prophets with Jesus Himself being the chief cornerstone. Yet today we don’t even see prophets allowed to operate, let alone do we see them as being in any way foundational.

The word “prophet” or “prophets” is in the New Testament something like 163 times. The word “pastor” or “pastors” is in there ONCE. The word “shepherd” or “shepherds” is in the New Testament 19 times and most of those references are to the shepherds tending flock at the birth of Jesus. The only person referred to specifically as a spiritual shepherd is Jesus. How have we shut down the prophets who are referenced 163 times and built a whole system on “pastors” who are mentioned once? I have never understood this and it boggles my mind to this day. The verse that comes to mind is Jeremiah 2:13. “For My people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed out cisterns for themselves, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.” We have forsaken God’s pattern and we have substituted our own pattern and we are reaping the results. We have the privilege of being the first generation of churches that the world looked at and said “You are irrelevant”. This has happened on our watch.

In Ephesians 4 we see “speaking the truth in love” and “EACH PART working properly makes bodily growth and builds itself up in love”. This is EXACTLY what the prophet yearns to do. He simply wants to use his God given gift to build up the body. Yet because of the “tension” inevitably involved, the pastor usually disallows the prophets this chance. The environment is just not there at present for the prophet to use his gift. It is like going to a gym to lift weights and the pastor is right there saying, “don’t lift that weight, it is heavy, it might make you sweat”. And we wonder why our churches are so pathetic and weak?

Hence, the body drifts blindly. It has no eyes. Ask yourself, “In what direction is my church moving?” See, without a vision the people drift, then they perish. And the times we live in DEMAND that we see with clarity. We are nearing the culmination of all things yet we go on with “business as usual”. Even in churches where grievous internal sin ends up in the public eye we see “business as usual”. You would think the leaders would be burning up the phone lines looking for a prophetic word to help them out of their dilemma, but no. Instead they continue to “go it alone” and they have to set themselves up as victims to try to excuse the fact that “their” church is in such pitiful shape.

So, what’s the answer? Well we obviously need to function biblically. If we follow the bibles’ recipe we can get the bibles’ results. If we follow “some other” recipe we will get “some other” result. Yet we see that 95% of churches are “one man shows”. If you find yourself in such a “church” perhaps you need to gather your thoughts and speak to your pastor about these things. Say to him, “Pastor, I have heard the term ‘five fold ministry’. Do we follow that model? Who then are our prophets?” Chances are you don’t have any. If it has been that way for thirty years you might have to ask yourself if it is likely to change.

Personally I have had to face these facts and I have made a specific decision that I will no longer support these man made “organizations”. I would rather take a chance on having to answer to God for possibly “forsaking the gathering” than having Him ask me “Why did you continue to sit there giving silent assent to something you KNEW wasn’t of Me?” or “Why did you pay My money to prop up these man made organizations when they don’t allow My Spirit to operate?” But you say, “Brother, why not stay and try to change the church from the inside?” I have tried. Many have tried. It is a little difficult to affect changes when you have duct tape on your mouth labeled “do not prophesy”. The conclusion is that if the church is not founded on the proper biblical foundation then it CAN’T be “fixed”. When you have a man made business model setup with a core group of “leaders” off in the back room calling the shots, you have a static “un-fixable” non-biblical situation. The only vote you have to cast is the one where you refuse to continue propping that defunct man made system up.

My understanding is that as we near the end of this age the true Christians will have to definitely COME OUT of these man-made systems. The Christians will have to go “underground” more or less as they did in the first three centuries A.D. So why not just come out now? To be sure the “false” churches will continue to operate openly even into the reign of the Antichrist. Without any prophetic insight they wont even know that he IS the Antichrist. He will seem like a sensible leader to them since they are doing things man’s way already. The Antichrist will be the ultimate humanist so he will speak their language. These man made institutions will make the necessary compromises to keep their 501(c)3 statuses. Even to the point of agreeing to not read portions of the bible that the government labels as “hate speech”. Even to the point of allowing homosexuals to visit their pulpit from other 501(c)3 “churches”. Even to the point of taking “the mark”. Of course they won’t know it’s the mark because it won’t be called “the mark”. It will most likely be called your “government loyalty ID” or your “preferred citizen status ID”. They will continue to listen to CNN and FOX for advice instead of using God’s provision of the prophet. In these treacherous days the prophetic cry is needed more than ever, yet more than ever we see “business as usual”.

Where Are The Watchmen?

John Martin

Before I answer this question allow me to preface it with a bit of explanation.

When I say the Lord or the Spirit said this or that to me it is not as if you and I are having a conversation. Perhaps some people do have verbal and sometimes audible conversations with Him but more often it is by impression that carries far more weight than mere words. God communicates on a far higher plane than man and it is man that must come up to God (like a mountain sheep) for He said “My sheep know my voice”.

One does not necessarily approach Him by attaining spiritual heights in the prayer closet but rather by simple obedience in following Him and the true Shepherd will lead us to the place and moment of communication.

Now the sheep upon hearing the voice of the Master in supernatural form has the difficult task of relating what the Lord has revealed (if indeed it is for others) using only our limited and finite human forms of communication.

Therefore when I say, “The Lord has said” please do not think me more spiritual because God speaks to me in plain words, because in my entire life it has never occurred that way. That’s why He said, “My sheep know My voice”

No one else would even know anyone spoke because you must have “ears to hear”. Often in the Bible when God did speak in an audible voice, only the person He was speaking to understood the voice and others said it thundered.

A second point I wish to make in reference to my writing is that I do not write in a politically correct manner as is becoming the habit of many in the church. The Bible is not a politically correct document though some are trying to make it so through new translations. I believe every concession we make to secular pressure to conform in order not to offend we surrender a little more of the kingdom of God to our enemy. Therefore, I do not refer to gender if the Bible does not. Watchman means just that! I could clarify by saying watchperson and then I would need to follow that by saying he or she as the case may be and then everything gets so wordy that we lose the original purpose of the word. Watchman speaks of an assignment rather than a gender. Do you see how the enemy has used the smallest things to create offense among brethren (and sistern)?

Having said all that I will go on to report what I believe the Lord is saying.

One morning this week I was speaking to a friend and relating my frustration concerning a gifted person I know within a local Church. I was relating how he had been rendered ineffective through reassignment and redefinition of his duties and gifts. I was referring to a particular recognized ministry within the organized Church. Suddenly in the middle of my conversation I realized I had said something that did not come from my mind and it took only a moment to realize that the Holy Spirit had just transferred a lot of understanding that I did not previously have. What the Spirit said through me was that the person of whom I spoke and others just like him were “eunuch watchmen” rather than what they were acknowledged to be. Toward the end of this article I will reveal what that redefined ministry is.

First let me say that almost all, if not all the true watchmen have been redefined and made completely useless for the calling that God placed them in, and that explains in large part why the organized church is in such dreadful condition and simply not serving the purpose for which she was raised up. Even more importantly, the newly forming Church outside the walls may very well fall to the same deception because no one seems to have noticed the problem. There’s far too much attention and emphasis on the up front ministries and little or none on the behind the scenes ministries, which are the built in safeguards that God puts in place whether the leadership knows it or not.

It is a little noticed fact that God chooses and places ministries and it seems that there’s a lot of discrepancy between what God chooses and what man recognizes and promotes.

So what is a Watchman?

A watchman is someone who God puts into place in a particular setting to “watch and report what he sees”

Do not confuse the watchman with the prophet. Sometimes a watchman might prophesy but generally he is one who observes with eyes given by God and reports it if he sees anything out of order. The Old Testament watchman was stationed on the wall or watchtower, which was elevated in order for him to have a broader field of vision. He looked outwardly for anyone approaching from outside the walls, who might pose a danger to the city. He also had a unique vantage point to see what went on inside the city.

One example of a watchman never recognized as a watchman was a man called Mordecai who was uncle to Queen Esther. He overheard two of the king’s guards planning to assassinate the king and reported it and thereby prevented the premature death of the king. Not until much later did it come to light that he was responsible for saving the king’s life, and this is the way it is meant to be. A true watchman may do much good and never get credit for it and he may also cost many people their position and be hated for it. He will be hated by nearly everyone because he will only speak what he sees and not with eloquence. The watchman has but one duty and that is to watch and to sound the ALARM LOUDLY when he sees something that is endangering what God has set him there to watch over.

What makes him especially unacceptable to the typical leadership is that he was not chosen by them but by God and therefore, are often an embarrassment. Man would never put such a person in charge of anything if he could avoid it.

I truly believe that the true church could not have become the “institution” it has if the watchmen had not been rendered impotent.

Every group that is truly connected to the Vine has watchmen in their midst and simply either have not recognized them as a gift from God or misunderstood them and drove them out or redefined and reassigned them.

A watchman is a very intense person and may or may not seem to the casual observer to have a life that conforms to the usual Christian standards. In other words he may not seem as holy as you might like and definitely too strongly opinionated to be good leadership material. Independent thinking is a hallmark of the watchman and he will not rubber-stamp the desires and plans of the leadership. Non-conformist is a term often used to describe them as well as terms such as, not a team player, lone ranger or distant or even the sour apple.

Much of this could also describe the true prophet but there are major differences that we will deal with at another time. Suffice it to say that the watchman is seldom recognized as such and therefore is rendered ineffective.

Also the Watchman ministry is not a "glory ministry but a gory ministry".

A true watchman would never appoint himself to such a position for he soon discovers that it is a path of persecution, rejection and loneliness.

Most ministries today would not mind at all having a watchman on their wall looking outward for the enemy approaching but the part they do not like is that the wall upon which God has placed them has given them spiritual eyes and ears to discern what is going on inside the walls that will corrupt what God has begun.

The enemy need not stage a frontal attack and destroy everything as in battering down the walls and burning everything but need only to corrupt enough within to divert the stream of ministry that God is directing and the ministry becomes fraudulent even while appearing to grow and shine with her man designed accomplishments.

Ministry leaders do not like having non-professional people meddling in their internal affairs so it became necessary to make these people feel important and accepted and somehow curb their enthusiasm for exposing darkness. For clarity here let me say that darkness can be anything that is not of God in the ministry. Man made plans, programs, assignments and even many so-called good works are an offense to God because they were never part of His plan. Remember, He said "depart from Me you workers of iniquity for I never knew you". He's addressing anointed ministers who even did miracles in His name so if you think this article is a stretch you are already in jeopardy for you are hard of heart and hearing.

The ministry-fabricated name, which has replaced "The Watchman" is:

"Intercessor"

Now before you hasten to declare this a piece of garbage needing to be burned, I suggest you take time to digest it first.

Eight years ago, when I became a member of a world wide pastoral support organization (I have since resigned in disgust) one of the chief topics of discussion among pastors in meetings and conferences was the trouble they were having with people who came to be known as "Intercessors". Everyone had their fair share of this type of intense person who had the uncanny ability to discover just about everything that you would rather keep within the confines of the leadership. Remember that associate pastors and elders are most often hand picked by the pastor and he is only going to select the team player, otherwise we might not be able to pursue and accomplish our vision (not His).

To shorten this article and not weary the reader further, my point is, that over time the "Watchman was carefully trained to view themselves as a Prayer Warrior and gradually taught that their role was one of Intercession rather than one of Intervention. What you see or hear is solely for the purpose of taking the matter to God and let God handle it. This has effectively closed the mouth of many a Watchman that God put there to specifically speak into a situation and bring His warning. It is true that when intercessors pray that something may occur to expose the situation but only after God has had to send a 2nd or 3rd messenger and often by then it is too late. This has given the Watchman a sense of importance as well as a sense of security because if one only speaks to God about these things then one cannot get into trouble and lose friends. Cleverly the very people who they are sent to speak correction to have befriended them and even made them "My personal intercessor, who is privileged to go on my travels with me and keep the devil off my back". Reminds me of the saying "keep your friends close and your enemies even closer".

In conclusion let me say that in my recent experience among those who are now outside the walls*,* there is still the same unapproachable attitude that is present within the organization. If you do not have some special credentials or reputation that precedes you, then the same hardness of heart and hearing is present. When will there ever be an ability to recognize a true messenger of God on the basis of the anointing rather than outward appearance?

Why Are We Christians?

Judy Bauman

Is it by grace that we're saved or is it what we do?
Let us discover God's character and person NO MATTER WHAT!
Let us discover the truth, the way, the life – Jesus – NO MATTER WHAT!
As far as God is concerned – the pressure is off.
Why?
Is it because of His law?
Is it because of His Liberty?
Don't pursue the idol – pursue God!
GOD WANTS YOU – NO MATTER WHAT!

There is a fork in the road – which way do you want to go?

Old way -------- The Law of Linearity, pressure to do what you should be doing, live by rules, do things (read the Bible, pray, serve, etc…) to get results – to get God's attention and approval. Do things 'right' so you can be right in God's sight. This way looks for ways to get things from God. This way never delivers. You have to do A to get B. Draw near to seek God's hand not His presence. If you are looking for what you can get out of God – blessings – START OVER! This makes Christianity about what you do and not what God's done

New way------- Law of Liberty! Hope! It is a desire that values God's presence over His blessings. This way knows that it is Christ who set us free from the bondage of sin and the law. This is a 'come to God dirty and let Him clean you' invitation. This is a Father/Child relationship of trust and love and DEEP and RICH intimate knowledge of one another. On this road we draw near to God because we want to know His heart. This is a 'better hope' not necessarily a better life ($, fun, worldly gain). Having God in your life is what makes life better! Then we desire to do right because we KNOW the Father's heart and we want and desire what the Father wants and desires.

Let's ask ourselves:

Why am I a Christian?

What am I living for?

Are we really loving or are we trying to get our own way? (With God and/or man)

What must I do to be a better Christian?

> Hebrews 7: 18 For on the one hand there is an annulling of the former commandment because of its weakness and unprofitableness, 19 for the law made nothing perfect; on the other hand, there is the bringing in of a better hope, through which we draw near to God. NKJV
> 18 The former way of doing things, a system of commandments that never worked out the way it was supposed to, was set aside; 19 the law brought nothing to maturity. Another way - Jesus! - a way that does work, that brings us right into the presence of God, is put in its place.

MB

Drawing near to God is the better hope. Jesus is the better hope! The Galatians got into bondage by trying to get to God by obeying the Law of Moses – the Law of Doing and they were deceived. They hadn't even been raised in the law and yet they we corrected by Paul who said they had been bewitched! (See Galatians 3) The word tells us the law was weak and unprofitable. It was given to teach us that we needed Christ to save us because we can't save ourselves through obedience to the law. If we break only one little part we are guilty of breaking all of it!

Jesus fulfilled the Law and all its requirements. He writes His word on our hearts so that we will never separate from Him. So when we try to live by the Law of Moses we are saying to God that Jesus' sacrifice isn't enough and we need to fulfill it. You can see why Paul came down so hard on the Galatians! Romans 6 is a great chapter to read about this too. Here is a snip-it: 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you, for you are not under law but under grace. 15 What then? Shall we sin because we are not under law but under grace? Certainly not!

This is because Christ set us free from sin and to go back to it would be like placing yourself in jail! You would be placing yourself in the enemy's lair! To walk like that would be like going through life in a coma. We can't take both roads! We can't live with Christ and with rules of the law. We are used to being ruled, but we can't put new wine in old wineskins.

This will set you free!

> John 8:31 Then Jesus said to those Jews who believed Him, "If you abide in My word, you are My disciples indeed. 32 And you shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." 36 Therefore if the Son makes you free, you shall be free indeed."
> Galatians 5:1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty by which Christ has made us free, and do not be entangled again with a yoke of bondage.

We can come to God free! Jesus fulfilled the requirements. He did the work. The selfish life is behind us because we have been given the awesome gift of knowing God's heart! We can throw our checklists away and live a life of grace and peace and love in Christ Jesus!
Do people see grace and peace and love when they look inside of you?

This is a teaching that came from my notes taken over the past couple of Sundays along with some thoughts from me. I thought it would bless you and encourage you in your walk with Christ. In all that we do, may we do it to glorify God the Father. Be blessed as you are a blessing to me!
Love in Christ

Where Are Your Roosters
Danny Korakas

Mar 14, 2005

Who shall ascend the hill of the Lord?

"And the Lord said, 'Simon, Simon! Indeed, Satan has asked for you, that he may sift you as wheat. But I have prayed for you, that your faith should not fail; and when you have returned to Me, strengthen your brethren.' But he said to Him, 'Lord, I am ready to go with You, both to prison and to death.' Then He said, "I tell you, Peter, the rooster shall not crow this day before you will deny three times that you know Me." (Luke 22:31-34)

The first thing that we need to notice is that Jesus first addresses Peter's natural man, by calling him "Simon." This was the name of a fisherman who did not personally know Jesus Christ. It was the name of a man who had not yet come in contact or walked with the TRUTH. Quickly, we see that Jesus curiously changes the name and addresses "Peter" -- the spiritual man. "Peter" was a man who knew Jesus as his Lord and Savior and was thus given a new name by the Lord Himself. Jesus was addressing and confronting some issues in Peter's "spiritual" life – a life that was saved but still had some issues that needed to be addressed and healed. Peter and the disciples were walking with the truth as they walked with Jesus. But yet, something was in all of these men's hearts that would cause them to fall and deny Christ in His greatest time of need.

I can imagine that if the Lord Jesus (Truth) walked into your kitchen tomorrow morning and sat down next to you, I believe that it would shake up your life. I believe that everything in your life that was out of order would be addressed and exposed for the purpose of serving Him more effectively and conforming you to be the vessel that will carry His glory over the face of the earth. The church, you and I are the vehicle that is going to carry the glory of God throughout the earth. The Lord has always dictated that His presence be carried upon the shoulders of man created by His hands, rather than upon ox drawn carts made by the hands of man. Visual and intimate encounters with the Lord are going to happen with ever increasing frequency as we approach the days ahead and there is going to be a whole lot of shaking going on.

So what was in Peter's heart that would cause him to deny Christ? What was in this disciple of the Lord Jesus Christ who had previously proclaimed Him to be the Messiah? Peter seemed secure in his spiritual standing with the Lord. After all, in verses prior, "water-walking Peter" was arguing that he was the greatest spiritually among them all! (Luke 22:24-30) But yet, something was in Peter that would cause him to deny Christ and fall into sin.

The Bible says that Satan was cast out of the light, and into darkness, and has no place in the light. (paraphrased). Satan can only move or take up residence in darkness. Needless to say, the only place that Satan can reside or have influence in the life of a believer is in the dark areas of our own hearts. I realize that this may offend some people's theology. Some will say, "This doesn't apply to me. I"m born gain, covered in the blood, I'm a new creation, and have the mind of Christ…Ok.

How could Jesus look Peter in the eye and say "get behind me Satan?) Who was Jesus really addressing here? It certainly wasn't Peter. It was something that was inside and taken residence in Peter. What about the anger, jealousy, unforgiveness, judgments, criticism, gossip, pornography, and other various lusts that "believers" are burdened and oppressed with every day? Let's get real man, this stuff is in us. These issues have an originator and a place of origin. Everything starts or comes from somewhere. The originator of all our sinful issues is the devil (The Bible states that Satan is the father or the originator of lies). With this obvious fact, we must come to the conclusion and take responsibility that the sinful issues and thoughts within our own hearts were caused by an opening or a portal that WE allowed the devil access to.

Many have pondered why God would harden Pharaoh's heart. The Bible clearly states that God would harden Pharaoh's heart. But are we truly understanding the revelation of what the Lord would have us to see? Remarkably, both Moses and Pharaoh received the exact same word or commission from the Lord concerning His people – "Let my people go, that they may worship Me in the desert" (paraphrased). The difference in these two men's responses was that Moses had a heart like "wax" and when the fire of God's Word and truth from the burning bush touched his heart, it melted and became transparent. Wax regardless of its color – whether your black, white, brown, or yellow will become transparent when touched by the fire of God's Word.

On the other hand, Pharaoh had a heart like clay. (What happens when clay comes in contact with fire?) When the fire of God's Word and truth came through the prophet, Pharaoh's heart of clay became hard like stone. In reality the fire of God did harden Pharaoh's heart. However, it was the pre-condition of Pharaoh's heart that was the catalyst or what caused it to harden.

We read in Revelation 14-16 that an angel will appear before the men of the earth and asks how long they will continue in their sins. (God was still pleading with humanity to repent) Incredibly, the Bible says that FIRE (a bowl of wrath) came down from the heavens and scorched the flesh of mankind. Sores and boils covered their bodies and instead of repenting – their hearts were hardened and they cursed God. It seems bazaar to think that mankind would not only refuse to repent, but curse God even after having an angel warn them. It was the pre-condition of their hearts of clay.

If there is one thing that the Lord desires to do in this hour – it is to heal the heart condition of the church.

Something dark was buried in Peter's heart that the Lord had to deal with for Peter to be the man of God that he was called to be and who we read of in scripture. Because the call and destiny of Peter was great, (As it is for you reading this) the fire would have to get hot. Peter exercised a lot of spiritual pride in his opinion of how spiritually great and mature he was and the Lord would have to expose it. Sadly, EXPOSURE seems to be the only method that will bring spiritual pride to its knees or reveal a reprobate heart and mind.

The hardest people to bring correction and repentance for the purpose of healing, are those whose theology is right, but their heart is not. Many of us have grown up hearing the word "sanctification", but few have understood its meaning and process. Sanctification is simply allowing the Lord to take the dark areas and buried issues in our hearts and draw them to the surface. It is that simple. It is only when we are willing to allow God to expose of our hidden issues can the light of His healing love be cast upon them.

Now, on one hand, I am saying that we need to air all of our dirty laundry for others to inspect. If there is one quality or occupation that the church has excelled at, it is being outstanding "fruit inspectors." However, one the other hand, we must be willing to confess our sins to one another and more importantly, to expose ourselves before God who we truly are.

However, man from the very beginning has resisted sanctification, because of our fear of being exposed. We just don't want to be exposed. Many have wondered why Jesus cursed a fig tree for seemingly no reason. Do you really believe that Jesus was caught of guard or that He didn't know that there was fruit on this fig tree. He knew, He was God! Jesus cursed the fig tree because of an event that happened long ago. An event that forever affected His greatest love who was created by Him, for Him, through Him and in His image. Jesus was on His way to the cross to die a cruel death because a day came when He called for Adam and Eve (mankind) and He saw something that was completely out of order. He saw His beloved covered and hiding their shame and unwillingness to be exposed behind fruitless FIG leaves.

In our fear of being exposed, we have devised several defense mechanisms to justify our issues and areas of darkness. We have created a "defense team" or "spiritual attorneys" that will readily plead our innocence and proclaim our righteousness. Our spiritual attorneys will attempt to get us off on "technicalities." They will say, "not my client your honor." Danny is not nearly as bad as his neighbor. We all know what he is watching on his satellite dish and computer! The problem is that in my judgment and criticism of others, I have missed and avoided the Lord dealing with me on my R rated movies and entertainment choices.

Our lawyer loves to get us off on case by case "comparisons" to others or past case histories. Can't you hear the spiritual lawyer saying, "Did see how that lady just beat her kid in front of everybody? Many have no problem seeing what other parents are doing wrong, but are blind to their own negligent parenting in raising their children in the way of the Lord. Are the same efforts and expectations demanded of our children's spiritual education as it is their secular? The average father spends a total of 5 minutes of face to face contact with their children a day.

Our lawyers will object, "my client isn't that bad." "There are millions out there doing worse than my client, Mr. Korakas." But does God's standard and court of justice operate or grade on a curve on how or what others are doing?

Sometimes we will choose to represent ourselves in the halls of God's justice. Like Adam Eve, we like to point our finger at the devil or some other person for our problems and issues in life. God walking in the cool of the day asked, "Adam, Eve, where are you?" It didn't take long before Adam was blaming Eve for his situation. Eve in turn, blamed the serpent. We have a lot of finger-pointing. We have a lot of blame. We have a lot of shame, but no exposure and repentance. I believe things could have been a lot different for Adam and Eve, had they simply exposed themselves before a Father who is slow to anger, rich in love, and whose mercy abounds.

Look, nothing just slides or gets by God. Every trial and temptation in the life of a believer passes through the Son (We know this because He is interceding for you) and then passed to the Father, and then is ALLOWED to be a part and affect our lives for the purpose of bringing our dark areas to the surface and leading us to repentance and change.

It is not so much about that person who spitefully and unfairly makes us mad. Rather, it is God revealing the anger and unforgiveness in our heart. It is not so much that person who slanders and drags your name through the mud behind your back as much as it is God revealing that we are no better when we respond in a negative way and gossip in the same manner to justify ourselves. It is easy to be loving when everybody and everything around us is lovely. But who are you when others are not so lovely to you. It's easy to be submissive and humble when we are getting our way. But, who are we when we don't get our way?

We need to stop blaming the devil and others for our trials and tribulation. They have all been allowed for the purpose of revealing and doing a work in our lives. These times of adversity are our greatest opportunities for spiritual growth and promotion. As individuals and as the church, we have missed our greatest opportunities by how we view life and RESPOND to it. This in the proverbial nutshell sums up your true witness as a Christian – It is your visible response to the realities of everyday life that others witness. It is only when we are allowed to be bumped hard do we see what spills out of the depth of the real "me" or what is really in the core our soul. This is what others really pay attention to and see as well.

Look, it is easy to show up at church for a sense of security or duty. It is easy to put money in the plate. It is easy to a part of every church program and outreach available. But it is hard to respond to adversity in a godly manner. This is what truly stores up treasure in heaven and what leads people to Christ.

Peter came to a point in his life where he saw what he truly was. Peter was eaten up with spiritual PRIDE and God was exposing and doing a work in his life. Peter came to grips with his own individual strongholds and insecurities – the dark areas that were within him and embraced the sanctifying process rather than resisting and hiding from it behind fruitless fig leaves.

In just 50 short days, from the cross to Pentecost, something transpired in Peter's life that would take him from falling and denying Christ to walking up the Temple stairs and saying, "silver and gold I do not have...but in the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, arise and walk." The revelation and healing touch of God that transformed "denying" Simon to "anointed" Peter is what the church desperately needs today to be the witness that the Lord has called us to be.

In the last article we discussed the value of exposure and the hindrance to God's presence through the hiding or burying of our personal issues and areas of darkness. All of us from one degree to another have some issue(s) that the Lord is exposing for the purpose of serving Him more effectively and with confidence. Shame from the past or even the present is a primary emotion that the enemy prays upon in hindering God's best and purpose for our lives. It is vitally important that we understand that "shame" only has power over our lives to the degree that we hide it from God.

The areas of darkness (ex. anger, gossip, jealousy, laziness, greed, addictive behaviors, and various lusts within us have often-times been carried and formulated from childhood. In most cases, we have buried these hurts and issues so deep, that we fail to recognize that they are there until we explode with anger or implode into depression and self doubt. A good example is in chronic liars. The symptom of a chronic liar is the result of the root of REJECTION. These individuals are so starved for affirmation and self-deceived that they come to a point of believing their own lies. How do I know this? I have been there. Sadly, these individuals are always the last to find out that they are liars and have the respect and trust of nobody.

It is easy to recognize a chronic liar to the discerning believer. However, the greatest lie and liar of all, is portraying to be somebody whom we are not. This was me for years. I did not want others to know about my past and spent a great deal of my time trying to create a sterling spiritual image that others would admire and NEED. This was the real sin of Annanias and Sapphira. This sin was thought so serious to the health and future of the church that it supernaturally cost them their life. The money issue was just a symptom to a greater root issue of living a lie and pretending to be someone they were not.

God is calling us today to dismantle the issues and strongholds in our lives. We are being called as the church to dismantle and destroy our corrupt thoughts and vain imaginations. There are many reading this article who are struggling with masturbation. We are in a season where the Lord is addressing this hidden issue and it is not going away until we bring this weakness to the surface for healing. Many have tried to RATIONALIZE this, but masturbation is adultery and fornication according to scripture. It is a reflection of an undisciplined covenant life, both marital and in our relationship with the Lord. I believe that if your heart is right, the Lord is going to heal you of this today and restore a confidence in His purpose for your life.

"Now the serpent was more cunning than any beast of the field which the Lord God had made. (Notice that the serpent was a beast of the "FIELD" and not native to the "GARDEN." Adam was given dominion over every living creature. However, I believe the first sin of Adam (The sin of omission) was allowing the serpent into his domain and giving him access to his family.) And he said to the woman, "Has God indeed said, 'You shall not eat of every tree of the garden?" And the woman said to the serpent, "We may eat the fruit of the trees of the garden; but the fruit of the tree which is in the midst of the garden, God has said, 'You shall not eat it, nor shall you touch it, lest you die.'" Then the serpent said to the woman. "You will not surely die. For God knows that in the day you eat of it your eyes will be opened and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." (Genesis 3:1-5)

Did Eve at this time know what a lie was? Had Eve ever heard a lie before? Of course not. On one hand, God had told her not to eat the fruit of the tree in the midst of the Garden. On the other hand, the serpent told her it was fine to partake of the fruit. We could agree that Eve had two "perceived" truths since she did not know what a lie was. Eve FELL when she "rationalized" God's Word and Truth. The consummation of the fall was when she partook of the fruit.

A good illustration would be if I stepped off the roof of my home. I do not "fall" when I hit the ground. I fall as soon as leave the roof. The consummation and pain of the fall is when I hit the ground. Eve had already began to fall when she rationalized God's Word and Truth (Stepping off the roof). The partaking of the fruit was the consummating act (Hitting the ground).

The Bible says that Satan came to Jesus and "found nothing in Him." In essence, Satan passed the magnet of darkness over Jesus and there was nothing in Him that was sympathetic or drawn to the darkness. For us to fall there has to be something that is temptable in us or attracted to darkness. Satan will likewise come with the magnet of darkness and pass it over our lives. And all that it takes is the slightest movement or motion toward the darkness and we find ourselves quickly pulled and attached to it. Once attached, it is impossible to free ourselves without exposing ourselves in repentance to Christ's saving and delivering power.

Knowing our areas of vulnerability is the first step toward healing and becoming a vessel that carries the glory of God over the face of the earth. Many of us desire the anointing. We want the presence of God. We want the dreams, visions and prophecy. However, we fail to address the vessel that will contain it! This is what the trials and FIRE in our lives are all about. God will use the trials in our life, and if we respond correctly, we graduate as purified and refined by fire -- a vessel worthy of the glory and honor of God.

God has not promised us a life of comfort and ease. He has promised us process and God's process is a process of revealing TRUTH in our lives. (Areas of "revealing" are not "revelation" until we possess or walk in them. Revelation is a growing process of experiencing the presence of God. With that said, we have not received revelation until we walk in the Lord's Word and truth. Otherwise, it remains "information."

The Lord's sanctifying process may come as we mentioned earlier through trials and tribulation. (Jesus promised this for those who truly follow Him). Likewise, God's process of revealing truth in our lives may come through the devil. We must understand that the devil is in God's control and He will use him anyway He sees fit. The devil is allowed for one reason and purpose around the life of a believer – So that you would experience and have victory in your life. Imagine, looking back over the landscape of your life with no victories in it. God has called you to be more than a conqueror. And if God has called you to be more than a conqueror, then there must be something that needs to be conquered. And if there is something to be conquered, it is going to require a battle. There are no victories in life without a battle and you have been given the keys for absolute victory through Christ. We are overcomers by the blood of the Lamb and the word of our testimonies. Our testimony is the seizing and victory over adversity in our witness of Christ.

The refining process of the Lord may come through the correction of another person. This has been my greatest area of consternation and downfall. Honestly, I simply do not like being told what to do and if it does not line up with "my" way of doing things – I often seem to have a hard time with it. For me, it has been a very painful process of finally understanding that my relationship with others is a perfect reflection of my relationship with the Lord. My willingness to submit and humble myself before others is a mirror of how teachable and humble my spirit is before the Father.

When the TRUTH comes from another person to confront and expose an area of darkness in our life – this is when our past, unhealed rejection, self-righteousness and self-pity begins to surface, spill out, and pollute the world around us. Instead of filling the earth with the glory of God, we puke all over it. Speaking of puke…

Just a few weeks ago, my entire family was down with a stomach flu. I came home early to care for the kids as Carole was relegated to the couch. Well, that night, my son threw up on the carpet. As a child, I have always had an aversion to "stuff" in the carpet due to having to clean up "pet mess" as a 4 and 5 year old. After about the sixth or so time of missing the bucket, I yanked my son up off the floor with his feet flying in the air…running him back to the bathroom. His eyes were as big as saucers and frightened as I literally ran him back to the bathroom.

Like Peter denying Jesus, I denied my son in His greatest time of need by what was spilling out of me in my time of adversity...I truly missed a wonderful opportunity once again for my son to really see Christ in me.

This is when our spiritual "lawyer" loves to approach the bench to defend our darkness and proclaim our righteousness. He told me before writing this, "You don't want to confess that, they will think that you're a bad father." I would much rather expose my weakness and impatience to God and you than to let my beloved son down and once again deny him the love and patience of Christ. And you know, I believe that the Lord has healed me of this childhood aversion because I revealed my true condition before the Lord.

Many times when truth comes to confront us, it will come through our spouse. Many of us cannot recognize the Word and correction of the Lord because it looks too much like our spouse! Once again, our willingness to receive correction and differing viewpoints from our "covenant" partner is a reflection of a healthy covenant relationship with the Lord. It also confirms our faithfulness to God's Word to "submit to one another in the fear of the Lord." When you get right to it, this is why the church has the divorce rate as the world – It is eaten up with spiritual pride, self-righteousness and selfishness.

Lord willing, next week we will share on the origins of the various issues that hinder the Lord's best for our lives as we end this message "Where are your roosters." A season of breakthrough, victory, and jubilee is upon you!

Walking By Faith

Don Walker

"For in it the righteousness of God is revealed from faith to faith; as it is written, 'But the righteous man shall live by faith.'" (Romans 1:17)
When Paul says that the righteousness of God is revealed "from faith to faith" what is he referring to? I believe that Paul is speaking about the faith of Christ and our faith. As a man Jesus had perfect faith in the Father (Heb.2:13). He was given the Spirit without measure (John 3:34) which is why He had perfect faith. While we have only a measure of faith (Rom. 12:3), this was not true of Jesus. His faith is what lay behind His perfect obedience. He stood in our place not only in death, but also in life. He was our substitute. He believed perfectly on our behalf, which is why He was the only one who could fulfill the Law (Matt. 5:17). Our imperfect faith is covered by His righteousness – resulting from a perfect faith – which is put to our credit (Rom. 4:5) We are not required to produce a perfect faith to be saved, only faith in a perfect Savior.

The faith of Christ is of no value until it is ratified by our faith. Galatians 2:16 states: "Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ*, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ*." (The Greek phrase is pistis christou, which means the "faith of Christ," contrary to translations that choose to render it as "faith in Christ.") Paul uses the same phrase when he says in Galatians 2:20 that, "I live by the faith of the Son of God." (The KJV translates it correctly.) Paul is showing that he continues to trust not his own faith but that of Jesus. This perfect faith of Christ continues to the present because Jesus intercedes for us at God's right hand without doubt or unbelief. This is why Paul could make such a statement. He lived by the faith of Christ, demonstrated by His obedience during His earthly life, and His "intercessory faith" in heaven now. If Christ does not pray to the Father with a perfect faith, there is no hope for any of us. But Paul did not worry about Christ having less than perfect faith. He knew that Christ's faith was sufficient and complete – his faith was in Jesus' faith.

It is a daily choice to see God working in us and every situation. It's a daily choice to believe we are kings, priests, holy, accepted, loved, one Spirit with the Lord. We can choose to not believe God, and so focus on the stress, guilt, worry, anxiety and doubt. But what we take by faith takes us. If we take stress as the reality, it stays real to us and usually intensifies.

Our souls are imprinted with the pathways of our history of choices. These are ruts in our psychology, and when the chips are down we go into the old rut of self-pity, anger, rage, self-righteousness, or whatever apparently used to make us feel better. I'm finding that despite wrong choices, I'm to stand up again, thank God for the cleansing Blood of Jesus that has washed away all of my sins from God's consciousness, and start walking in faith again.

The story is told about a young man who went through the wedding ceremony, coming out of the chapel he turned to his new bride and said, "Honey, I don't feel married." To which his bride replied, "Dear, you had better adjust your feelings to fit the facts."

My contrary feelings give me the choice. When I feel guilt over a past, confessed sin, I stand on the Blood. I can walk as though I never committed the sin. If I sin against someone I first confess it to God, then go to the other person and ask for forgiveness. After that I am free; I can get walking again as if I'd never done it. This is a choice, an internal choice to believe 1John 1:9, "If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and cleanse us of all unrighteousness." And then I can believe Psalm 103:12, "As far as the east is from the west, so far has He removed our transgressions from us." My sins are literally right out of God's consciousness, so I can shove them out of mine in agreement with God, rather than be plagued by guilt. He sees me as a son, a pure, holy son who is on the path to deeper and better Christ-expression. This does not mean that there are not sometimes consequences to my sin, but in terms of my relationship to the Father, I am restored.

Faith is mostly about courage. It's about Moses being opposed by Pharaoh and not backing down. It's about Joshua and Caleb seeing the giants and fierce inhabitants of the Promised Land and pushing back fear, saying, "Let us go up and possess the land, for we are well able to overcome it" simply because God had promised them the Land. We see that courage in Abraham leaving his home because God said "Leave Haran and go to a land I will show thee." The same courage operated in David, who was persecuted and hunted by Saul and yet chose not to kill Saul when he had the perfect chance. He knew God would perform His promises to make David the king.

We have to face our Pharaohs, our giants, fierce inhabitants, our Sauls, within our own consciousness and without. And the answer is the same for us as it was for the biblical patriarchs from Adam and Eve all the way to the disciples of Jesus Christ. "Will I trust God, or will I trust my own feelings and thoughts?" That's where the rubber meets the road.

What Causes Barrenness In Church Life?

Graham Cooke

When we talk about putting down roots or laying foundations, we often think of staying put in one place. Our God is not a camper. The tent of meeting in the Old Testament was a simple structure designed to be easily erected and dismantled as His people followed the cloud of His Presence.

The more formal structure of the temple was designed to enable people to come to grips with the same phenomena. The presence of God was enshrined in mystery within the Holy of Holies. People waited with bated breath for the reemergence of the High Priest on the Day of Atonement. The smell and spectacle of the sacrifices added to the drama of coming into the very presence of God. People were brought to that place of awe-inspiring worship as they became involved with the ongoing pageantry of the manifest presence of God in their midst.

The supernatural was commonplace. Men and women both spoke with sharpness and clarity in their representation of God. Words were backed up with power and anointing that saved lives and brought deliverance from occult powers, famines, disasters, and human oppression.

The Dominating Theme of Scriptures

This essence of pure relationship and raw power between God and His people has been the dominating theme of the Scriptures. Only the form and style have changed throughout the generations from a handmade stone altar roughly put together with materials on hand by individual men such as Abraham, Jacob, and the prophets, to the designer places of worship expressed in the tabernacle and temple.

At times these places of worship were inspired by a revelation of God's grace, mercy, and calling, such as when Jacob-in-transition-to-Israel finally came to understand the desire that God had for relationship with him. In other times and places, altars were built upon the sites of intense spiritual warfare and upon battlefields as sacrifices were offered to God on the burning embers of false gods and idol worship. Mount Carmel and Gideon's hometown became places of cleansing and purification as the enemy was driven out and the name of the Lord revealed.

Continuity from the Old Covenant to the New was established in the person of Jesus, who became the temple of God wandering amongst a guilty and sin-ridden people. "Destroy this temple and God will raise it up in three days," He said, referring to Himself (see Jn. 2:19). Something had happened in the hearts of the people between times. A creeping institutionalism had given way to form without power, to style without substance, and to a performance mentality that elevated men, not God, in the presence of the people. People did things to be seen of others; rules of behavior governed the lives of many. Leaders had become blind guides, searching the Scriptures without prophetic insight. Those who most desired the coming of the Messiah missed Him because their interpretation of Scripture was not mingled with worship, the manifest presence of God, and prophetic wisdom.

The Cycle Continues

God walked among them, but they had not been trained to recognize His presence. All their teaching and distilled wisdom down through the years had left them without the faculty for discerning the glory of God. Even when they saw signs and wonders and Jesus graciously asked them to believe in those signs as part of their journey to a wider, deeper revelation of God's presence, they could not bring themselves to part from their institutional mind-sets.

So the early Church grew up next to a hidebound institution that continued thinking that it alone held the glorious tradition of the truth of God. The old persecuted the new, which in turn eventually came against the newer works, which in time grew to be the oppressors of new moves of God till the present day. The chronicles of the Church are littered with stories of new moves of God erupting in the earth through orthodox persecution and then settling back into conventional, narrow-minded religiosity.

Only the presence of God can prevent institutional Christianity from reducing truth to a set of rules and worship or to a meaningless time of singing without awe.

Only God's presence can enable believers to confront the enemy and the evils of mankind with a powerful expression of truth combined with supernatural power. Only God's presence is the glue that holds us all together through tensions, conflicts, and the violence of being on the front line of the battle against a depraved and intimidating foe.

The Mystery Fades

We have lost the glory, the majesty, and the mystery of all that God is within Himself. The temple gave way to the synagogue and the mystery began to fade. Word stopped leading us to worship, and in time the dynamic revelation of God became a rote to live by as we waited for God to come in final deliverance. Today's worship precedes the Word and in many places has become the platform for the teaching and the ministry of people. Our churches have lost the art of ministering to the Lord in worship and discerning the voice of the Lord in our midst (see Acts 13:1-2).

People went to the temple to participate in the mystery and the majesty of God. They went for three main reasons: to worship, to make an offering, and to pray. In the synagogue they went to hear the word of God (i.e., for teaching), to get their needs met, and to have fellowship. In the temple, the instruction and communication of God's word always led them into an experience with God. In the synagogue, it often led them into debate and discussion about God. Meetings became man-centered instead of revolving around the presence of God. Even today in many of the newer churches, if the meeting has a lot of content and activity, it is often the worship that gets squeezed. People go to church for good teaching or fellowship. Our society has created intense loneliness, and people are hungry for companionship. Accordingly, it is easy to justify making our meetings into a designer-style atmosphere to attract people.

I am not against this in principle. I think all our meetings should be aimed specifically at God's desire to do particular things and achieve specific objectives. I am against stereotypes that do not bring us into the creative presence of God. We must regain the capacity to live in the manifest presence of God. The teaching of the Word must lead people into an encounter of God Himself, not just into an experience of the church.

God Causes Breakthrough

God has always set people within the framework of tabernacle, temple, and church who would act as catalysts to cause breakthrough into the manifest presence of the Lord. When people look at us, they should see Jesus. They should observe His love in the way that we live together. The entrance of God's Word should produce hope, faith, life, and health to every part of our being. The presence of God is life to us. When we lose His presence or, even worse, if we have never grown up with the reality of His glory, it is inevitable that we would use the Word to relegate the supernatural to a future time of glory in Heaven rather than glory now.

God sits outside of time. He has never not been full of glory. He is altogether glorious. Everything He touches carries the fragrance and the passion of His manifest presence. He is wonderful, awe-inspiring, and magnificent. Our meetings must reflect the glory of His unchanging nature. I love to meditate on the nature and character of the Lord. For me, He has come to be the kindest person I have ever known. He is kindhearted, gracious, loving, good-natured, and benevolent. He is generous, cordial, approachable, and thoughtful. He is slow to anger and swift to bless. He sees the good, acknowledging the treasure and the worth in people. He inspires confidence, renews our self-worth, and puts a smile on our hearts. He is captivating, beautiful, and completely lovely. He is strong, powerful, a force to be reckoned with, a conqueror and overcomer. He is a paradox - a fierce and mighty warrior dressed as a lamb; the king of glory and a bruised reed; a son, a servant, a prophet, a priest, and a king. The fear of Him is the beginning of wisdom, yet His laughter makes us wriggle with pleasure. He continually brings us to points of vulnerability and weakness so that His sheer joy in Himself can be our source of strength.

Our meetings very often do not reflect His nature, but ours.

They focus on our needs instead of celebrating who He is in our midst. How many of our people take time out during the day to spend just a few minutes in silent worship and awe of God? Whatever God is, He is infinitely. It is impossible for God not to be everlasting, endless, and eternal. He is the greatest endless and eternal expression of goodness, kindness, and grace. He is everlastingly kind and merciful, eternally loving. He loves infinitely and without boundaries. There is no end to the kindness of God.

He is also totally perfect. He never does anything partway. He completes everything He starts. "He who has begun a good work in you will complete it [literally, perfect it] until the day of Jesus Christ" (Phil. 1:6). He does everything perfectly. He is infinitely and perfectly good. He has perfect love and grace. His love is complete, wholesome, and endlessly perfect! He is always loving because He is infinite and perfect.

He is immutable. He never changes. What God was, God is and God will be. There is no shadow of turning within Him. He is unchanging. What a relief! We all have experienced the fluctuating fortunes of human relationships and been both blessed and burned. I love the ongoing continuity of God's affection for me. He put me in the one place where I could relate to Him in all of my changeableness. He put me into Christ so that His unchanging, infinite, and perfect love could become a constant to me as I grew up in Him.

He is never indifferent. His silence is just His silence.

Never mistake His silence for detachment. He is never aloof and unresponsive. His silence is often a means to draw us into meditation, which becomes the prelude to worship and the entrance of revelation that then brings change to us. What changes us the most is the unchangeableness of God! Whenever I reflect on the unchangeable nature of God, I want to cry. His constancy and dependability always make me resolve to be like Him.

He brings peace to me by His constancy. I feel my heart settling down into Him in the turbulence of situations and events. In crises and conflicts I find myself wanting harmony and love rather than just resolution. To agree to disagree and remain loving friends is a sure sign that God is among us and that we are in love with Him.

God is endlessly enthusiastic about people. He has a boundless, unremitting energy. He never stops working, yet He exudes rest and peace. He rests in and through His work. I am never quite sure where my rest in Him gives way to His rest in me. (Oh, I love Him.) On the seventh day He rested from creating, but He never ceased from maintaining what He had made.

It is typical of God that man's first day of creation and life should coincide with God's rest. Our first day began with rest, and a prime part of our relationship with God is to enter His rest. One of my personal goals is to be one of the most restful, peaceful people on the planet. Since I have discovered rest as a major part of my relationship with the Lord, my output has increased significantly. Rest maintains worship, adoration, and focus. It promotes a God-consciousness by the Holy Spirit that increases productivity without detracting from fellowship. The more we rest, the more we get done. Time spent resting brings us into a place where God can do in seconds what we could not do in hours under the anointing.

The more we rest, the greater the power to break through.

The greater the rest, the more God prepares things around us by His hand. His wisdom increases as we sit and relax in His presence.

I once was sent a complicated brief on certain conflicts and situations in a particular church. This was followed up by a meeting with the leaders where I was expected to give some kind of godly perspective and Solomon-like wisdom. I never read their pages of problems. For some reason I spent several days resting and meditating though that and other work were piling up. On the day of the meeting, I discovered that they were coming to visit only when I looked in my diary. (I am not normally like this we run a very efficient office, though that is due more to Carole, my personal assistant, than myself.)

In the meeting with these guys it was clear there was a significant measure of conflict and tension. We can communicate peace only if we have it. I cannot remember what was said in that meeting only that peace, love, and understanding broke out amongst the brothers. Harmony precedes resolution. I remember saying to the Lord afterwards that I wished I had taped the meeting because some of the things I said were brilliant! He smiled. He knew that I knew that the wisdom was His and that I was content just to be a vessel and vehicle for His presence. He loves with a boundless consuming love. He hates with a terrible consuming fire. The anger of the Lord burns against unrighteousness and sinful activity. The mercy of the Lord in including us in Christ is eternally breathtaking and wonderful. To rest in the finished work of Calvary is a wonderful privilege. Lack of the presence of God is a major cause of barrenness.

We Cannot Run This World Without God

September 21, 2005

It is crucial that we learn all of the lessons that we can from the Katrina disaster, as fast as we can, because more are coming. We have not even finished counting the bodies from Katrina, and Hurricane Rita is churning in the Gulf, threatening Texas and Louisiana with even more destruction. It is likely, at the very least, to displace tens of thousands of more people, as well as further wreck the Gulf Coast oil industry.

One of the main lessons we need to learn from Katrina is that we must not continue to put our primary trust in the government. We must know the Lord as our Healer, Protector, and Provider. If we have built our houses upon the Rock by both hearing and obeying His words, we have nothing to fear from any storm. If we continue to place our hope in the government, or any human organization, we are building on shaky ground, and we will be shaken by what is coming.

The devastation that Katrina caused was primarily the result of where people built and how they built. This is something we all need to examine in relation to our own lives. One of the ultimate questions we need to ask at this time is: "Have we built our lives on the Rock?"

Love Your Government

When I say that we cannot continue to put our trust in the government, I say this with great appreciation and respect for our government. In spite of the controversy and blame-shifting going on, I remain very impressed by how well our government responded to the Katrina disaster. I am impressed because I expect the government to act like the government -- I didn't expect a zebra to start running like a thoroughbred just because there was an emergency.

No government on earth, even the greatest democracy, can handle what is coming upon the world, which is the result of man's foolishness. Katrina is a warning to us all. Anything built on this present world is going to fail us, even the best governments. We are coming to the time when everything that can be shaken will be shaken, and we must build our lives and our hope on the kingdom that cannot be shaken.

One report on the Katrina relief stated that it was estimated that the church and charities were several times more effective in helping to get resources into the hands of Katrina victims than the government. While most of the media and the world were understandably focused on just a few places in New Orleans, there were many other places that were in just as desperate a situation or worse. Thousands of churches, ministries, and individual Christians swarmed to the area with whatever they could carry and they helped many people. There were also many unbelievers, and those of other faiths, who did the same.

There were atrocities and glaring failures, but there were also countless heroes and successes. Few of the latter have made the news, but the government, including FEMA, also had heroes. Even so, there are many things that the church can and should do better than the government. Likewise, there are many things the government can do better than the church. We need to discern these and be ready to do our part.

For example, our teams in the area are now staying in a baseball stadium. They work all day to the point of exhaustion, and the National Guard provides security for them at night. By them doing their thing, we can better do ours.

After months of studies and debate about the failures of the government in the Katrina disaster, we may come to some good and helpful conclusions about needed changes in government agencies and policies. However, most of those who have been there working, already know what the mistakes were and what the continuing problems are. They can and should be fixed.
However, it may not be possible for such a government agency to change as much as many are wanting without the kind of leadership that simply has not arisen in our times -- one that will resolutely cut out the ridiculous and wasteful spending, cut out the unnecessary layers of regulations, and channel the resources to where they are truly needed with efficiency.

Avoid Blame-shifting

One thing you can count on is that the mistakes of the government were not rooted in racism or even political prejudice. They were simply the result of the government acting just like governments do -- trying to function and meet the needs, while struggling to do it with all of the red tape wrapped around it that has become inevitable for any government program. We can get mad about the red tape, but we need to understand that most of it exists because of our own demands for cutting down waste and fraud in government.

The government's attempts to cut down welfare fraud added so many layers of control and accountability that at one point it was estimated that less than 10 percent of the resources devoted to welfare were actually getting to those who needed it -- the rest was being devoured by bureaucratic administration. This is the direction that every government program and agency will go if someone does not have the courage and resolve to stop it. So far, in my lifetime, there does not seem to be anyone who has.

Even so, I would rather live in an inefficient democracy than an efficient dictatorship, but that does not mean we cannot have an efficient democracy. Presently, the only way that the government knows how to react to that pressure is to add regulations. These regulations will at the very least slow down the government's ability to function and react to situations, and will ultimately increase the waste through inefficiency.

Countless layers of regulations also resist any kind of initiative and creativity in leadership, which is crucial in a disaster. Our government itself needs disaster relief as it has become out of control in its waste and inefficiency. If the waste were cut out of government spending we could easily absorb the Katrina and many other disasters, likely even cutting the deficit. Politicians say this is impossible without raising taxes, but it is possible if there were true leadership in government.

This tendency to over-regulate can, and often does, get into churches or charities just as easily as it does governments. Studies done on some charities revealed that they have become about as inefficient as the government, with just a small percentage of money given to them actually getting to the needs of people. The rest is being consumed in administration. This tendency to fix all problems with a new regulation is a deadly enemy of efficiency and effectiveness in every organization.

Expect Glitches

One example of how government red tape hindered and slowed down relief was when fuel trucks from FEMA were sent to Slidell to provide for the local emergency vehicles. Because Slidell did not have FEMA approved containers for the fuel, the trucks turned around, refusing to offload the fuel that the local government emergency workers were desperate for. This also happened with water, food, and medical supplies in some situations.

It is likely that a good number of people needlessly died because of this kind of bureaucratic mentality. Those who witnessed it operating in this dire emergency were understandably shocked, and it is hard to believe that human beings could think like that. Those who have been conditioned to live in the present government bureaucracy do think that way. Do I blame FEMA? No. Again, I don't expect a zebra to become a racehorse just because there has been an emergency.

As soon as we saw this disaster unfolding, we immediately considered how we now own the largest hotel in the state of South Carolina. We asked the local government to waive a few of the unnecessary regulations to let us restore the hotel rooms faster so we would be able to house victims of Katrina. Their first response was human, and they said they would do whatever they could to help. Then a few days later the bureaucratic mentality set in again, and they wanted to impose the layers of unnecessary red tape for us to get this done. It was understandable, and expected, and we will still work as fast as we can to do this, but we will increase our prayer for true leaders to be raised up in government on every level too.

Does FEMA need changing? Yes, and radically. But so does government bureaucracy at its very foundation. However, as stated, there does not seem to be any leadership on the horizon with the courage, resolve, and wisdom to do what it is going to take to fix it. Therefore, we need to adjust our expectations, working with it the best we can, and guard our own churches and ministries from the same type of mentality. It is a desperate enemy of good leadership and good management.

We Should Align Ourselves with, Not Criticize, the Government

We need to also consider that much of this mentality, and red tape, is the result of people who swarm to disaster areas to bilk the government out of the very resources intended for victims. Lawlessness has increased at a dramatic rate in the last few decades. There are already multitudes of people who have swarmed to the affected area claiming to be Katrina victims in order to grab resources. There are stories about how many people, and even large corporations, made huge profits off of the 911 attack on the World Trade Center, taking money that was supposed to be going to victims. To help cut down on this, FEMA formulated many regulations that probably did help cut down such fraud, but at the same time these regulations often became a hindrance in a unique emergency like Katrina.

In praying for our churches, charities, and governments, we need to pray for the kind of leadership that will have the courage and resolve to cut this kind of cancer out of the body when it starts to grow. President Bush has the kind of leadership it takes, but he probably does not have enough time left in office to do much now. However, we should learn that when he became personally engaged in the Katrina relief, the bottlenecks were broken through, and the people who were really getting things done were located, identified, and the resources were put into their hands to get the job done. We need that same kind of leadership now throughout the government if it is going to survive the times ahead.

I appreciate President Bush's candor in accepting blame for the slow response of the government in the Katrina catastrophe, and he may have had some responsibility for this in the way FEMA was ineffectively organized that showed up in this disaster. There are many ways in which FEMA has done a great job when called on after other storms, but this one just seemed to overwhelm every system for a time. However, more disasters are coming, and we need to change!

We are in the times when all governments are going to be overwhelmed. We are coming to the time when all of creation is going to understand that we cannot run this world without God. Even so, those who have built their houses on the Rock are not going to be preserved to gloat about it, but in order to help those who didn't. Governments can be built on the Rock also. The United States government was to a large degree built on the Rock by the founding fathers. It was a godly foundation, and we must return to it. We need to pray for the kind of leadership that will do this.

Partnership Between the Church and Government

On another level, the problems that FEMA had during this disaster actually seem to highlight what President Bush has obviously all along sensed about some of the government's management problems, which gave birth to his "faith based initiative." He realized that there are some things that churches and charities will always be able to do much better than the government. This is one of the important lessons of Katrina.

I am not implying that the government needs to get out of the disaster relief business, but there is a partnership between the church and government that will be increasingly needed in the times to come. The knee jerk reaction to "the separation between church and state" can, and has, seriously hindered this relationship. That line was made quite clear by the founding fathers with remarkable wisdom and foresight, but has only been blurred in the last half century. It needs to be made clear again. It was not instituted to keep the church out of the government or culture, but to keep the government out of the church. There is an intended and needed partnership between the church and government.

The church must take up its mantle and responsibility as the light of the world, especially in relation to disaster relief, because this is the time that we are now in. We must be willing to do our part, and do it with increasing efficiency and excellence regardless of what the government does, and be willing to interface and join with the government in any way that gets the job done. For the times ahead, we must learn how to work better together. However, in due time the government's resources for disaster relief is going to fall short, and the government will be reduced to just trying to keep order. However, the church will be able to increasingly tap the resources of heaven, which can never run out.

There are significant and increasing troubles ahead. They are all great opportunities for the gospel and the kingdom. We need to view them with compassion and the resolve to help those affected by them. We need to learn all of the lessons we can from the Katrina disaster, and every other one to get better and better at helping people.

Discern The Hand of God at Work in Nature

Katrina was grace from God in many ways. Though I am sure that those affected by it do not feel like this, it is not only going to result in a major and important region of the country being changed for the good, but it also is highlighting many weaknesses in systems, agencies, as well as churches and ministries. We need to examine all of these, not to blame people, but to correct problems and be better prepared for what is to come. We are now entering the times that are spoken of in Isaiah 60:1-5:

"Arise, shine; for your light has come, and the glory of the LORD has risen upon you.

"For behold, darkness will cover the earth, and deep darkness the peoples, but the Lord will rise upon you, and His glory will appear upon you.

"And nations will come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.

"Lift up your eyes round about, and see; they all gather together, they come to you. Your sons will come from afar, and your daughters will be carried in the arms.

"Then you will see and be radiant, and your heart will thrill and rejoice; because the abundance of the sea will be turned to you, the wealth of the nations will come to you."

I love my country, and I deeply appreciate our government. I want to help them and support them in any way that I can, not undermine them or tear them down; they are not the kingdom of God. The kingdom is at hand, and as it arises, as we see in Daniel 2, the kingdoms of this world will start to crumble. The foundation of the kingdom of God is being laid by the Holy Spirit, who is "the Helper." It is the basic nature of the Holy Spirit to help, and those who are led by the Spirit have the same nature.

Church: Arise To Your Battle Station!

Disaster relief is going to become one of the biggest and most important ministries in the times ahead. As stated, the government will be spread too thin to deal with anything but some rescue and keeping order. That's okay because this is what the government is called to do, and the church can do the rest, because we are called to do it.

There is also one more factor in this equation -- business. The chord of three strands that will be the strongest is a partnership between the church, government, and business. We must learn how to both interface with these and stay out of each other's way in areas where we should.

As a ministry we are involved and committed to the Katrina relief, but we are using it to learn all that we can so we will have the most effective disaster relief teams on the planet. We want to prophetically foresee what is going to happen and be there to help when it does. We are praying for more resources for this than the U.S. government has -- we are praying for the resources of heaven to be at our disposal. We want to have resources to feed hundreds of thousands just through our own ministry, with cargo planes, ships, or whatever else is needed to get it to the point of need, as efficiently and as effectively as possible on this earth. Then we want the power to multiply the food and other resources when we are short. If we are faithful with what we are given by the Lord, He will give us much more to manage.

We are learning how to work with other churches, ministries, the government, and business. We are seeking relationships that are built on strong bridges of trust because we are proven to be trustworthy. I encourage every Christian leader, whether you are the leader of a mega church or a house church, to consider disaster relief as one of the most important missions that you can be a part of in this time. This is one mission that will grow, and you can also count on as something that the Lord is going to be building His kingdom through. The Holy Spirit is the Helper. Those who are in unity with Him are devoted to helping others, and this will be the cutting edge wave of the future.

Team "Cross Work"

Presently, the Red Cross is doing a great job and there are other charities that are very effective in disaster relief, but the church is going to surpass them all in efficiency and effectiveness in the near future. Consider donating to churches or ministries devoted to disaster relief in the future. Not only will they be more effective, but it will be an investment in the kingdom as well. However, churches and ministries need to be managed right, and have the kind of accountability that should be required of one trusted with our investment.

If your local church is engaged in disaster relief, I encourage you to give your time and financial support to it. If it is not, you are welcome to join us in our relief and rebuilding efforts. If you feel called to go to the area, you may want to join one of our teams. We do serious screening, not just to weed out tourists and high maintenance people who will have a negative impact on the mission, but to find out the gifts, skills, and even tools that you will be coming with so that your time and energy is not wasted, and the maximum help is provided for those in need.

You may also make donations to the Disaster Relief through MorningStar. One hundred percent of the donations designated for Disaster Relief will go to that effort. MorningStar does not keep a single cent for administration costs (one way that we fight the bureaucratic beast). We can also use materials such as trucks, buses, planes, tools such as chain saws, power saws, building materials, and other items that can be used to help in this effort.

To make a credit card donation, donate online -or- call 1-800-542-0278 and just say you want to make a donation for Disaster Relief. You may also mail your donation to the address below. Please mark your check "Disaster Relief Fund or DRF." This was formerly the Katrina Relief Fund but because other disasters are now looming, we want to be free to put it where it can best be used.

MorningStar already has teams there for immediate relief for those in the most desperate need, but we are also formulating a strategy for the long-term. We are going to be looking for victims that we can see through to a totally restored life, which is even better than they had before. For these we will be doing serious screening, but if you have information about those in which we could help in a long-term way like this, please also contact us through this website.

Thanks for the already very generous donations that have been sent for this effort. It is already being used, and we count every penny of it a sacred trust to be wisely used. Pray for revival to break out instead of disease!

What Does All This Mean?

Paul Keith Davis

December 24, 2005

There is one question we are asked most often in our ministry, "What does all this mean?" That is a good and valid question! We cannot afford to be blind to the signs of the times. There are events transpiring of biblical proportions throughout the earth. Storms, earthquakes, celestial phenomena, political and natural upheaval, and personal losses--all point to this mysterious season we presently live in.

Bob Jones recently told me that in his 40 years as a Christian, he had never seen so many good Christians going through so much. Clearly, there is a purpose behind all that we see taking place on a daily basis.

Something of great spiritual significance stands at the door. Our wisest counsel is to understand these times and position ourselves to cooperate with God in its release. Never before has there been a greater need for God's grace and favor essential to launch us into this generation's destiny.

The Capstone Generation

The Bible declares that when the "capstone generation" emerges, it will be with shouts of "grace, grace" (Zechariah 4:7). We are given the most profound promises of any age, yet we are incapable of achieving them in our own strength. That has been clearly demonstrated in recent days.

Throughout the Western Church, there are pockets of anointing and favor that some individuals and ministries are enjoying. Even so, on the whole, the Church has been in a heightened season of refinement and grooming. We have written on this subject often over the past years.

In fact, many may even feel it is somewhat like the oppression and bondage experienced by God's people in the land of Egypt. Nevertheless, it was with a mighty hand that God delivered His people of Egyptian slavery. Never before had such displays of grace and power been exemplified! That is our hope for this day as well. We need an unprecedented demonstration of God's grace. More than that, we must contend for it.

Signs of the Season

Great grace is about to be released from God's throne to liberate and empower His people. The natural winds that we have experienced are a prophetic forecast of the coming of this spiritual provision. The winds of God are also identified as the four spirits of God who stand before His Throne.

In the last week of November, I had a revelatory experience in which the Lord highlighted Zechariah 6:5, along with Hebrews 6:5.
"The angel replied to me, 'These are the four spirits of heaven, going forth after standing before the Lord of all the earth.'" - Zechariah 6:5
"And have tasted the good word of God and the powers of the age to come." - Hebrews 6:5
The Lord stressed to me that these two Scriptures are spiritually linked and identify what is eminently ahead. The four spirits of Heaven will facilitate the preparation of an overcoming body of saints who will taste the good word of God and the powers of the kingdom age. In modern Church history, only isolated few have touched this realm in God, but those who did changed their generation.

Natural winds have been blowing to indicate that the four winds of the Spirit are poised for release. The word used for "spirit" in Zechariah 6:5 is the Hebrew word ruwach, which means "wind or breath of God."

The four living creatures that surround God's throne are directly linked with the four winds prophesied through Zechariah and Ezekiel. Each of these living creatures provides symbolic language to identify God's attributes released to His people to empower them.

Heavenly Endowments

The spiritual attributes indicated by the lion, ox, man, and flying eagle are being imparted to those who "overcome." Following is a brief synopsis of their application:

1. The lion--an emblem of victory, authority and supremacy; symbol of kingship, royalty, and courage. The empowerment from God exemplified during the early apostolic age to gain great spiritual victories and sow the seed of God's kingdom on the earth.

2. The ox--an emblem of sacrifice, a beast of burden. This was the spiritual impartation granted to believers who lived during the dark ages. It empowered them to give themselves sacrificially. History records multiplied millions who were martyred during this age. It is written that many of these saints met their demise while singing hymns and rejoicing. They had a supernatural grace that enabled them to meet their destiny.

3. The man--this is the spirit of the reformers. Men and women were anointed with incredible wisdom and natural knowledge to re-establish the foundations of the faith lost during the dark ages. Christians were denied access to the Bible for many centuries. Martin Luther was the first to translate the Bible into the language of the common man and mass produce it. Many others followed in the great reformation leading up to the 20th-century.

4. The flying eagle--this is the spirit predominantly released in the present age. It is epitomized in Ephesians 1:17-18. The spirit of wisdom and revelation granted to God's people to access the treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden in Christ. It is the unfolding of the mysteries of God's kingdom manifested in a body of overcoming Christians. It is God's grace to live in the revelatory realm of Heaven.

Cultivate Humility

Great-grace exceeds "common grace," and God has promised to give this favor to the humble (1 Peter 5:5). Much of this season has been intended to cultivate humility in a body of people. These will be God's champions to whom notable mantels of revelation and power will be entrusted during the coming days.
The Lord is looking for the humble and contrite. As the prophet Isaiah recorded,
"Thus says the LORD, 'Heaven is My throne and the earth is My footstool. Where then is a house you could build for me? And where is a place that I may rest? For My hand made all these things, thus all these things came into being,' declares the LORD. 'But to this one I will look, to him who is humble and contrite of spirit, and who trembles at My word.'"
-Isaiah 66:1-2
The ones who are lowly and tremble at God's Word will begin to experience divine intervention from Heaven's host who are uniquely prepared for this specific hour in human history. It will literally be the fulfillment of Hebrews 1:7. God's ministers will be ignited as a flame of fire and fueled by angels who are winds.

Wholly Submitted

Part of the understanding we must embrace during this season of hardship is the need for our soul to be fully submitted to God. That is the example the Lord Jesus Himself provided. Only in that place of submission can we carry God's tremendous virtue needed for the harvest of the ages.

Kathryn Kuhlman was a forerunner who experienced this place in God. In her meetings, she often reiterated the wonderful experience of being filled with the Holy Spirit and experiencing His gifts. Then, she would go deeper and ask, "But do you know the experience of having yielded your will to the will of the Father?"

She identified the "secret place" in God and how it is accessed. It is through complete surrender. That is the ultimate example of spiritual humility.

To abandon our soul before God simply means to denounce, forsake, surrender, and relinquish our own thoughts and will to that of the Father. His thoughts and ways are much higher than our own. That does not mean that we eliminate our mind, but allow it to be transformed and renewed by the Spirit. To those who have found this place, great grace will be granted to experience Heaven's winds.

The Windows of Heaven

The windows of Heaven are being opened during this next season through which God's winds will blow. They will be the winds of:

1. Grace
2. Mercy
3. Deliverance
4. Wisdom

1. North Wind--Grace

The winds of grace will open spiritual windows and doors, granting access to the imperative spiritual provision needed in the harvest. It is God's grace and favor that will make us the beneficiaries of our spiritual inheritance and participants in God's end-time plan (Ephesians 3:3-4).

It was God's grace that launched the apostle Paul into his great apostolic ministry. It was his duty to initiate the revelation of the mysteries of God's Kingdom. Our responsibility is to continue that model in the same fashion as Paul. This comes by a revelation of Jesus Christ (Galatians 1:12).

The treasures of wisdom and knowledge hidden in Christ are poised for release in this age. Apostolic leaders in the order of Paul, who emulate his intimate walk with Christ, will emerge with power and revelatory clarity.

2. East Wind--Mercy

The East wind unleashes God's mercy. This results in the release of the Lord's compassion to cleanse and sanctify His people from the filth and corruption of this world. This wind will provide mercy to deliver us from our defilement. The revelation and application of the written Word imparts His spiritual DNA to rescue us from our carnal DNA (1 Corinthians 15:42-49). We are to bear the image of our Heavenly Adam.

God's long-suffering and indulgence with us is generally understood to be an act of kindness or compassion, born of love and directly related to the state or condition of the one to whom mercy is granted. The state of the one receiving mercy is generally depicted as one suffering and in great need. We are a needy people; God's great grace is our only antidote.

According to Matthew 5, mercy is also granted to those who have sown forgiveness. There is a divine economy and exchange that transpires, producing amplified dividends for those involved.

For I will be merciful to their iniquities, and I will remember their sins no more. When He said, "A new covenant, " He has made the first obsolete. But whatever is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to disappear (Hebrews 8:12 13 [emphasis mine]).

It is an incredible demonstration of mercy to be pardoned and cleansed of our unrighteous acts and nature. It is here demonstrated how superior our new covenant is over the old. How much more are our opportunities to display the revelation of His Kingdom, especially in this hour with the announcement of extraordinary mercy! Our iniquity is not only pardoned but also erased to be remembered no longer. That is good news.

3. South Wind- Deliverance

The South wind is the release of a deliverance wind. This deposit of His grace will set free those held in prison and captivity by this world's oppressions and snares. The enemy has imprisoned the body of Christ, but now, the Lord determines to bring deliverance. Many are captured by fear, lust, jealousy, anger, and no doubt, many other tormenting adversaries.

The unveiling of this wind will bring liberty and freedom to those willing to abandon their soul and yield their will to the will of the Father.
"The Spirit of the Lord is upon Me, because He anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim release to the captives, and recovery of sight to the blind, to set free those who are downtrodden, to proclaim the favorable year of the Lord." -Luke 4:18-19
The South wind is the spirit of deliverance generated to mark a people prepared to inherit the promises. Throughout the Scriptures, the term "deliverance" is most often associated with the concept of "drawing out" and "setting apart."

It is to rescue, recover, and cause God's people to escape enemy oppressions who embrace the freedom to worship God in Spirit and Truth.

Once delivered from the "net of the fowler," we are free to soar in the heavens to receive additional wisdom and revelation essential for our maturity and growth. It can also be associated with the concept of childbirth--to give new life to something that has been germinating in the spiritual womb of a body of people; unveiling kingdom purposes in the earth.

4. West Wind- Wisdom

The fourth wind freely un-harnessed is the west wind. This is the revelatory anointing that unveils God's heavenly wisdom. It represents God's counsel to release to us His plans, purposes, and strategy to accomplish His mandates for this exceptional time in human history.

Ephesians 1:17-18 emphasizes the right of every believer to be anointed with the spirit of wisdom and revelation. This form of wisdom is not merely the ability to mentally analyze a situation and make a good response. Rather, it is a spiritual endowment that allows a believer to go deep into God to perceive and understand His heart and the fullness of our redemptive rights.

Not only do we have the liberty to understand these mysteries but also the accompanying spirit of revelation that gives illumination and comprehension of their reality.
"The God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you a spirit of wisdom and of revelation in the knowledge of Him. I pray that the eyes of your heart may be enlightened, so that you will know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints, and what is the surpassing greatness of His power toward us who believe." -Ephesians 1:17-19
The spirit of wisdom is more clearly defined as a supernatural impartation of the Holy Spirit granting the ability to see and recognize the Lord Jesus with a spiritual knowledge and comprehension of His mysteries, plans, and purposes.

This heritage will reveal God's manifold and unsearchable secrets hidden in Christ. It relates to a deeper intimacy and awareness into the things of God and intimates a personal close encounter with the Lord.

The accompanying spirit of revelation grants a comprehension of God's mysteries and attributes. It involves an understanding and perception with our soul of these things revealed in the Spirit. It grants the ability to not only know the things of God but also to know the practical application of them in the earth and in our lives.

The Apostle Paul was anointed and flowed in this gift. This same spirit is essential for us in this generation to know the concealed secrets reserved for the last days and share in the hidden manna set aside for the end-time perfecting of the Bride (Daniel 12:4).

When we read these words in the Bible, our intellectual minds detect that there are great promises that have been provided. Even so, when anointed with the spirit of wisdom and revelation, we obtain an experiential comprehension of our redemptive birthright. It becomes living truth being given expression through consecrated vessels.

As the Scriptures point out,
"Eye has not seen, ear has not heard nor has it entered into the heart of man all the great blessings the Lord has provided for us." -1 Corinthians 2:9
Nevertheless, to a called and set-apart people, it has been granted to know the mysteries of God's kingdom. The spirit of wisdom and understanding provides the articulation and comprehension of His "glorious inheritance in the saints." This will be giving spiritual language to God's spiritual thoughts.

The promise of Jeremiah 33:3 is a "now" word to be apprehended. As we call upon God, the spirits of wisdom and revelation releases insight to us that we previously did not know. This is a tremendous responsibility requiring Godly character.

The revelatory light of this promise is so bright that it will demand God's great grace to appropriate these truths and remain in that place with longevity. Few people presently possess the purity of character needed to access this "wind" in its fullness. Nevertheless, the Bible predicts and promises that,
"Those who have insight will shine brightly like the brightness of the expanse of heaven, and those who lead the many to righteousness, like the stars forever and ever. But as for you, Daniel, conceal these words and seal up the book until the end of time; many will go back and forth, and knowledge will increase." -Daniel 12:3-4
The Lord is promising, through His divine grace, to prepare a body of people who will inherit these promises and begin to access the spiritual provisions portrayed in the spiritual winds illustrated here. Revelations 4:1 admonishes us to heed His voice as He beckons us to come up higher through the door standing open in Heaven that grants access to Him and the unveiling of His Kingdom.

War During Business Hours

Conrad Lampan

Wales
A CITY GOES TO WAR

In year 1005 there was this city-kingdom in Central Europe whose people were tired of their surrounding enemies raiding them and robbing them of their crops and the like. So they consulted with the leaders and then called a sort of national assembly to decide what to do. They met and made the decision that they needed to wage war against these intruders because after all they had the right and the power to do so. Actually they were more powerful than their enemies so they decided to stop their intrusion.

They made a big celebration the night they decided to declare war to proclaim their lack of fear and their serious intentions of getting rid of these pesky enemies. They ate and drank and sung and danced almost all night. The next morning they started gathering the army and soon when they were ready they marched on their enemy's city. They came in full marching power to the gates of their enemy's city and broke down the massive doors to declare with their actions that they were there and were not to tolerate them anymore: so this is it, this is war.

However after this mighty declaration of war they inexplicably turn back and went back home leaving their enemies to puzzle about this "war" declared on them. Once in their own city they held yet another celebration of war. They sung and told about their might and how they have torn out the doors of the enemy's city and how powerful they were; they were so focused on the declaration of war that they did not realize the their enemies had grouped and came to attack them in the middle of their celebration causing havoc because they were not aware nor prepared to defend their city.

A WORD FOR THE CHURCH TODAY

The above story is fictional, I just invented it to illustrate the word God has given me for His church in this day and for this time of war the church faces.

The church has been engaged for some years now in a kind of war very similar to the one I drew in my small fiction work. No army would actually do what the city in my story did; however the church has done and is doing exactly that. Why I am saying this?

When we pray for a move of God, when we pray for revival we are actually declaring war on the devil and his forces of death, and moreover praying for revival is a declaration of war on sin and darkness. Every prayer for revival pricks straight into the eyes of satan.

However, an awful lot of people in church do not seem to be aware of this fact! Every time we pray and cry out to God, and declare revival we are declaring war on the enemy and immediately after we just go about our business as usual. Our war seems to end with the declaration of war! Ok we seem to think, we met, we declared war, we can now go to sleep.

WAR ONLY DURING BUSINESS HOURS

The Lord says to His church: "Get ready for the biggest struggle of all your existence. The biggest revival ever is at hand, but do not think that it comes easy for it comes with war on all fronts. My Son has already secured the victory, but my people have to enforce the results of that victory. War is not only for business hours, or spare time; the enemy will not let you rest, the moment you sit down to contemplate the victory the enemy will charge against you. You have my power, I have told you it is not your power but My Spirit; but you need to use the power you have received."

"Because of my church not realizing the extent of the war many people are suffering, from within the ranks and from within the leadership. Have you ever thought why it is that when you start praying for revival everything seems to go wrong? Many churches have literally died when they started praying for revival! Why? Because they did pray and I was there to go with them to wage war, but most of my people went back to their comfort, their business, and their war celebrations. Many of my leaders are under attack, some by their own faults but quite a few others simply because my church first declared war and afterwards moved back to headquarters, leaving just a few leaders and people in the front line, exposed to the vicious attacks of the enemy"

DOORS ON THE MOVE

The Lord said in the Bible that He will build His church "and the gates of hell shall not prevail against her". Interesting how we have put things upside down. Waging war is an active thing, it implies action, it implies moving, it implies more than just declaring war or singing songs of war.

War is not to be waged on headquarters! We seem to have headquarters crammed with war declarers, but how many people are actually going? Why did the Lord say that "the gates of hell shall not prevail"? Did He mean that the forces of hell will attack the church using doors as weapons? If we are not really going and still we expect that the gates of hell shall not prevail we would be waiting for the devil to come attack us with doors! If the Lord said that the "gates of hell" shall not prevail against the church it simply means that the church has to go to the gates of hell to wage war and not expect the gates of hell to come to you!

Revival is serious business. It is a matter of life and death. It is a continual war in which there is not a "happily ever after" until we are all with Him in heaven. Until then there is war in the land. However God says to His church "Let's go together"

Why Does God Speak in Riddles
Scott Hicks?

The 'Riddle Nature' of God is Beginning to Flow!"

God is riddlistic in nature. He always has been. Jesus spoke and taught using parables -- so that those with ears could hear.

In my own personal relationship with our Lord, I sense that He still operates with riddles a lot of the time.
Some of the time, when we don't think He is speaking or teaching -- He really is; it is just in a riddlistic way. We just can't understand, thus, we don't hear and learn.

As I spend time with God, I sense that He has spoken to my heart from His to say that He is speaking and teaching more now than ever, and that the riddles will begin to come more and more -- for those that have ears to hear.

"Obtaining the Key to the Kingdom Starts with Having an Ear to Hear"

The Kingdom of God is at hand. We have been told to pray: "Thy Kingdom come on Earth as it is in Heaven. "

The Kingdom must be seen, then entered, then possessed, and then inherited . . .

The way to obtain the first step of being able to see the Kingdom is to know which way to look -- so that you can see it. Once you see it, then you can enter. The question is: "Do you have the key"?

When I use the word key, I am not referring to Jesus. Jesus is the door into His Kingdom. Obtaining the key to the Kingdom starts with having an ear to hear.

I prophetically proclaim that the Lord is going to begin using riddles more and more, as a way to separate the real from the fake, the goat from the sheep, etc . . . Just as Jesus used parables to allow those that had ears to hear, the ability to hear; and those that didn't have ears to hear, weren't able to hear His words that gave direction to the Kingdom.

I challenge you to seek God and ask Him for an ear to hear -- so that you may understand the riddles that are coming!

Enter In . . .
This era of the Spirit has to be entered so that His children know which direction to take their steps and produce "Thy will be done on earth, as it is in Heaven . . . "

The Lord has provided a riddle: The way to enter the riddle nature of God and to benefit from it.

"To enter this level of need
You need the key.
Not a key that was made by man's hand;
Only the key I can place in your hand, will be the key that causes you to understand.
The answer to this, is the way to receive direction that leads to the door (Jesus) -- of the promise land (Kingdom)."

He that hath ears let him hear.

What Do I See?

Rick Schmidt

1. God of Jacob arising: This is the ability of God to work divine destiny through men determined to work out their spiritual mandate by carnal efforts. Men are seeing things of greater value than themselves and choosing to wrestle with God for the true blessing. It is a confrontation with our base nature and exposure to the purest purposes of the Father in this hour.

2. Hour of the Joseph's anointing: This is not necessarily market place ministers so much as survivors of betrayal, abandonment, and rejection. They are remembering their dream and are anointed to minister reconciliation versus retribution in the greatest hour of the corporate anointing coming forth. These are tested men & women whose dreams of God's greater purpose and glory are coming to pass even as they steward among the spiritual, economic, and political pharaohs of this hour. These Joseph's are seeing the coming famine (exposure of spiritual destitution) and arising as master builders to create the vessels (hearts of men) that will be able to retain the bread of life and pour it out when all men's hearts are failing them for lack. This is the cross over-ministry from the singular man model of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, to the corporate model of the 12 tribes possessing the land. Joseph was the bridge model then and now. Egypt is more than a type of the world. It is a type of the worldly church that embraces truth for benefit then turns to enslave the very anointed channels of blessing.

3. Revival without mixture: Rapidly emerging are hungry, thirsty people willing to give and pay all to retain His presence. We have been seven years since the foretaste of revival in the 90's. That move largely exposed our feeble ability to retain and steward the Glory of God. For those who have waited in the desert for the next move, many things have been burned away. These will be the ones crying as it were, as a voice from the wilderness with the second great prophetic unction of Elijah. This is the announcement of the coming Lion of the Tribe of Judah. It will be an hour of great confrontation and supernatural demonstration of authority in a manner not unlike Elijah's earthly ministry.

This will not be an easy revival. Only passionate pursuit with hungering and thirsting after righteousness will yield results. Essentially lukewarm will not work anymore whether one knows they are or not. God is lifting the veil to expose the worthless from the precious. He will require Silver and Gold refined in the fire in order to move on. Where as in days past men have chosen to limit the wine to preserve their self-serving wineskins, this is the hour when the old will burst, with the wine seemingly lost. Our perception of loss is only to reveal that it is to God's glory that He is fashioning new vessels from mud made when the spilled wine dropped to the dust.

4. Apostolic reformation: Announced and authenticated by the prophets, this is to immediately precede and then administrate the saint’s movement. This will be the ultimate ministry to displace the present overall structure of the church and usher in the identity of the overcoming bride of Christ.

The greatest evidence of the coming reformation is the plethora of wanna- be, mixed –motive, self –appointed, and sometimes false apostles that we presently have on the horizon. God is establishing the co-dependent role of Apostles and Prophets to establish a more sure foundation for the church. Prophets will usher in the picture that God has for the fabric of the church. When the Apostles see it, they will arise in their function and produce the horizontal establishment of the vertical vision. Servant kings will choose to remain in relationship with and influenced by Godly prophets who assist them with not hiding from their own flesh. Even now, many are in the Cave of Adullam. The army of God’s nameless, faceless servants is about to break forth with incredible intensity and fervor. This will be nothing less than taking back the kingdom so that the Lord can come once again among his people to empower and authorize each and every one in the role and position granted to them by the victory on Calvary’s cross. This is the royal priesthood of the believers.

5. Judgment and repentance about America’s stewardship. The critical message from 91101 is that the hand of the Lord was removed to allow such an event. Fulfilling our role to the nations will stave off the judgment coming to our shores and produce the eternal rewards destined for our country. We are the greatest nation and great givers by comparison to other nations. But, in comparison to our own greatness, call, and destiny, our efforts are paltry and need improvement. We will either choose quickly to discount the value of our abundance to ourselves, or we will loose it all together or worse, continue to loose it more and more to aliens in our land.

Why Do The Heathen Rage

Yolanda Ballard

(roarnworship@netzero.net)

(A Word of Exhortation to the Bride)
Nov 10, 2005
Why do the heathen rage and prepare a vain thing against Me and My Son? For I AM preparing Me an army that will go out against My enemy, and all that they will use as their defense will be the shield of My glory for it will be as strong in penetration as the noon day son. And I will be their weapon of warfare, and I will come in such fury as lightning striking.

For this is surely the latter day, and you must take your place this day in My army. I tell you to stay in rank, and march forward taking all the land I promised you. And you must not fear what is in front of you for the power of it will surely dissolve as you speak forth My word and My will against it. Make your claim of My promises and march on taking the land.

I love you, My people, but you must make yourself ready in order for you to be able to stand. Put on your garment of Light which is My Son each day. Draw close to Him in intimate communion for it will be the only way that you will be able to make it through the power of the storm. Don't draw back into apathy and defeat caused by complacency.

Don't become busy in vain things for the only thing of importance to you is My presence. For I love when My bride draws close to Me and loses herself in My sweet embrace. For that is the only way I can strengthen her with My words of power and light. For when she listens I can speak, otherwise, I will stay still and wait until she draws near.

For I AM not a man who can lie or even a son of man who changes My mind. Whatever I speak forth I bring to pass. You can stand on My words of faithfulness to you. Yes, you can bet your life on them. Hold fast to My promises and escape the hold of the enemy upon you of deception. Don't look at the circumstances and say they are truth for if they don't line up to My word, then cast them down as lies from the enemy trying to rob you of My promises.

You are to prosper and be in health as your soul prospers. Yes, you have your part by drawing near to Me in the secret place under My wing. I love you and I AM calling you near. Be sensitive to My still small voice and worship Me, and I will raise you up a powerful army, My bride, and My beloved.

Don't allow your trials to bring defeat to you, but use them to build you up and cause you to draw near to Me. For I said that what the enemy uses as harm against you, I use to bring good to you out of it. If I AM for you, who can be against you?

Stand strong, My beloved, and use all things as building blocks into My glory. Yes, you have My favor. You will not be defeated, so march on! Let out a victory cry and rejoice for you do have the victory. No weapon formed against you will prosper. You are covered with My armor of light, and you have My shield of faith, and surely you have My sword.

Wait patiently upon Me for My perfect timing for I have precision in timing, and you cannot step out before Me. If you step out in the battle in your own strength, surely you will die. Stay under the shadow I cover you with, and walk in My light and I will protect you. You must join together in unity casting down vain imagination.

Keep your eye focused on Me as your Redeemer. I purchased you with the power of My own blood. You are Mine but you must obey Me, draw close to Me, and fear not. Now that you have My orders, rest in Me for I AM your Captain, and My love for you is pure and everlasting.

Where Did That Idea Come From

> Titus 3:2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

There is an idea floating around these days that a certain practices or behavior is inappropriate, i.e. just plain wrong. We have heard it so often and seen it written so much that it has become an accepted part of our thinking. Actually if you question it, it's easy to see the whole thing is bogus, a fraud.

What Idea? Well you hear it expressed in various ways concerning Lakeland, but it goes much farther back. Here are some examples.

A
They are seeking after signs and wonders, chasing after miracles instead of seeking God. They should return to focusing on Jesus.
People are chasing the supernatural and looking for phenomena when they should be seeking The Lord.
We should be seeking His Face and not his just hand.
Some are running to and fro seeking a touch from the Lord, when all they have to do is stay home and get into their 'prayer closet.'

Here's another one.
B
Signs and Wonders are supposed to follow after the preaching of the word. Where is the preaching?

C
These meetings have no reverence for God. Where is the decorum and etiquette? Where is the respect for the King of Kings?

D
A Real True Revival is not supposed to be like a carnival or circus. It should be like Azuza Street, Hebdrides, Cane Ridge or the Welsh Revival.

Where did these ideas come from? What's wrong with them? Let's keep it to short simple answers.

First and most importantly there is a strong element of scorn in each of these ideas. So they start of on the wrong foot.

> Proverbs 14:6 A scorner seeketh wisdom, and findeth it not: but knowledge is easy unto him that understandeth.

Now looking at each one, we see certain problems.

A
This objection sets up a false dichotomy or contrast to suggest that they are not really seeking God.

B
Signs and Wonders can also follow praise and worship. This can happen especially when the worship is more spirited than the preaching.

C
There is plenty of scripture to support God's people rejoicing.

D
The word Revival has multiple meanings. To lay stress true or real moves of God is just an underhanded way of agreeing with those calling something less, a false revival, when it's just something less. And while it is just a refreshing or a healing outpouring, it is also the beginning of something much greater to come. This is a day of small beginnings.

> Zechariah 4:10 For who hath despised the day of small things? for they shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel with those seven; they are the eyes of the LORD, which run to and fro through the whole earth.

How To Spot The Accuser

Bill Somers

> Luke 6:41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

Discernment
In this Civil War in the Church that we have been concentrating on we hear a constant cry for discernment. Many are majoring on discerning the mote in their brothers eye. Rather we should seek to discern the voice of the accuser of the brethren. Here are some things to look for.

What happens in this Civil War in the Church is that some people, for whatever reason, have yielded to a divisive spirit. This has directed them into becoming spokesmen for the enemy camp without realizing it. We need to pray for these people who are being used in this way. Remember this is a spiritual battle.

> Ephesians 6:12 For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.

Since the Lakeland Outpouring shifted into high gear around Passover, the accuser of the brethren has been working overtime. But even before that I received quite a few samples of his work as various people tried to sway me against it. Now after seeing even more of this kind of material, I have noticed that there is a pattern that most of these accusations follow.

Before launching into a series of accusations the accuser will try and set you up to accept what he is about to say. The process is like a confidence game. Once they get you to accept the messenger, you are likely to accept the message. Lot's of the tactics used are just variations on the argument from authority. Once they get you to believe they are speaking from some authority, then they really don't have to prove any thing they say. The whole idea is to get you thinking they have more spiritual authority than you do.

1. Such a person may offer Ministry history or credentials.
   Or they may give testimonies or examples to set themselves as some authority or mature voice.
   Some will imply that it has taken them much courage to say what they are about to say.
   While others will claim that they have been attacked for criticizing.
   This is a sympathy routine.

2. Expression of sorrow or regret that such warnings must be given.
   You will hear things like this:
   I'm not against such and so, but …
   It really grieves me to have to say these things.
   I simply have to speak out and warn people.
   I have been weeping over the sad state of things or deeply involved in tearful intercession.
   I am only writing this out of love for The Church.

3. They may claim to have some special revelation or inside knowledge that others don't have.
   Some will report having a dream or vision, or getting a prophecy to support their view.
   Others will claim to have absolute certainty, or cite someone else who is 'never wrong'.
   Or you will hear the claim that the Holy Spirit is instructing them to speak out.

4. Most common is the invoking the authority of the scriptures to support what they are about to say.
   After all, it's implied, who can argue with the bible. For example:
   The Word of God must be our standard.
   This is not just my opinion, it's what the bible teaches.
   The bible must be our basis of Judgment.
   Don't get mad a me, this is God's word.
   The bible clearly teaches that such and so.
   Next they will give their opinion of what the Bible 'clearly teaches.'

5. Then they may employ lengthy quotes from scripture regarding deception, false teachers, false prophets, false apostles, no private interpretation of scripture, wolves among the flock, hirelings, lying signs and wonders, great delusion, Satan as an angel of light and so on.
   The more scripture they quote, the more authoritative they will seem.
   This is where the fear tactic comes in.
   Please dear saints, don't let yourselves be deceived.

6. Then they proceed to judge someone after the Law, accusing them by name, usually with great scorn and ridicule.
   They may insist that their interpretation of a certain scripture is the only correct one.
   They will point to things happening that are not in the bible.
   or claim that this is not the way God operates.
   Or Jesus didn't do it that way.
   Many of their accusations will have no proof, only hearsay or opinion.
   They could claim there is no scripture to support someone's teachings. [This could be hard to prove, even if attempted. It would be a difficult matter to evaluate every possible interpretation of every scripture in the bible.]

7. But they will not cite any verses about tale bearers, strife among brethren, railing accusations, backbiting or slander.
   And especially they will never consider that the letter of the Law brings death, and only the Spirit brings life.

We mentioned that this accuser tries to get you to accept him, or her, as a messenger with some authority, so you will accept their message. The aim of the accusations is to get you to reject the accused person or persons, so you will reject their message.

And after all that, what if there is some real truth in all the accusations? Then it all boils down to one thing: Gossip. We are told to be afraid of deception, when all the while we are corrupting ourselves with slander and gossip.

> Titus 3:2 To speak evil of no man, to be no brawlers, but gentle, shewing all meekness unto all men.

And I’m Repenting Too
While going thru some old mail, I found that back on May 2, I had forwarded to some close correspondents, a message Re: Todd Bentley that contained a lot of accusations from some other ministries. I'm now very sorry for this and repent for ever circulating or forwarding any such accusations. And for ever saying any thing that could be considered criticism of any other ministry.

Now here is a verse from Ephesians that can be seen as a prophecy of the Church coming out of Civil War and into unity. It is the work of the Lord, to bring about a Christ like attitude.

> Ephesians 4:13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fulness of Christ:

And here are the results spoken of.

> Psalms 133:1-3
> 1 <A Song of degrees of David.> Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
> 2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;
> 3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.
> Isaiah 52:8 Thy watchmen shall lift up the voice; with the voice together shall they sing: for they shall see eye to eye, when the LORD shall bring again Zion.

Whosoever Denieth The Son

Cheryl McGrath

Jul 1, 2005
Who is a liar but he who denies that Jesus is the Christ? He is antichrist who denies the Father and the Son. Whoever denies the Son does not have the Father either; he who acknowledges the Son has the Father also. 1 John 2:22-23

Recently the Lord allowed me to experience the bitter taste of denial. I mean the kind of denial that He endures whenever those He deeply loves deny Him. My own taste of this came about when a dearly loved child in the Lord whom I had been mentoring and pouring myself into (at their own request), totally denied to another believer that they had any relationship with me. I was unprepared for the depth of personal grief I went through as a result of this experience. Even after the matter had been dealt with scripturally, resulting in full repentance, forgiveness and restoration of the damaged relationship, the shock and grief of the "denial" remained a heavy burden within, more than seemed reasonable in the circumstances. A crushing burden of inner anguish and unexplainable grief from which I could not emerge weighed down on me. After seven full days of this, the Lord spoke words of revelation and release, saying "I have allowed you to join Me for a short time in My experience of denial." Ah, Lord! Thank you for counting me worthy to fellowship with You in this place of Your own suffering!

I suspect denial of Christ is not something most believers have ever contemplated on a personal level for more than a few moments, if at all. After all it's not exactly subject matter that will fill a conference venue or ensure a number one best seller for any potential Christian author these days. If we do hear about it at all, it's usually in the context of Peter's denial of Jesus immediately after His arrest, but not something any genuine follower of Christ needs to be concerned about personally, right?

Well, no actually. The distressing truth is that hundreds of thousands, possibly millions, of so-called "Christians" are daily staking their eternal security on a "gospel of denial" that is not full, not complete and not safe. It is a gospel that says "I have believed that Jesus Christ came to die for me, rose again, and now lives. I have asked Him to take over my life. Therefore I have been saved and can get on with living." There is truth in that statement, but it is not ALL TRUTH. Remember that the Holy Spirit was sent to lead us into ALL TRUTH (John 16:13). He does not give us "partial truth", "renovated truth", or "just enough truth". His assignment is to bring each believer safely into the arena of ALL TRUTH. Any salvation doctrine less than all truth is incomplete and dangerous. That is what is so insidious and deadly about this half truth gospel that is so prevalent in these days. It is a gospel of the denial of CHRIST IN US. Do we realise that multitudes of people attending thousands of churches are believing a lie? The lie is that because they said a prayer presumably "receiving Christ", they can now return to normal life resting easy in the assurance that He will take over their lives, blessing all they plan and providing for every perceived need. Because of this half-truth gospel, there are many - far too many - trusting in a false security. Believing they are safe, they are actually living in a manner that places them in very real danger of never attaining true salvation at all. Having not received the gospel of "Christ crucified", they are unable to live a crucified life (1 Cor. 2:2).

This incomplete gospel, devoid of repentance, self-denial and the mystery of Christ's resurrected life in the believer, has spawned such widely held mindsets as "What Would Jesus Do?" - a phrase that has generated millions upon millions of dollars in "Christian" merchandise, and worse, holds countless young people captive to an impossible ideal. What is the only response we can give when asked What Would Jesus Do? It's "What, you mean, if He were actually HERE?" Friends, Jesus can only be imitated as He is lived. Please don't teach your children to ask "What would Jesus Do?" Teach them that He Himself will do what He wants to do as they surrender their lives to His (Matt. 16:25-26; Rom. 8: 18,19). Equip them with the truth of Christ IN us, not with cute, catchy phrases that fall short of a full and complete gospel. Our children will not survive the coming days by playing mind games - they will survive because they can testify that Christ lives in them and as He has overcome, so have they overcome IN Him (1 John 4:4; Rev. 12:11).

This powerless gospel of denial of Christ-life is so far from the gospel preached by Christ and the early apostles it would be unrecognisable to them. Nowhere in our New Testaments are we taught a gospel of redemption that does not demand radical reformation of our entire way of living. Are we redeemed by the Blood and the Cross of Christ? Absolutely! But what exactly has been redeemed? Nothing more than our right to live. However, our right to LIVE AS WE CHOOSE was not redeemed. Jesus is not the least bit interested in taking over our lives. His end purpose is to BE our life (Col. 3:4; John 5:39-40; John 6:53).

Christ's sacrifice secured for us who were already dead in sin, the right to life IN Him. We may look to the case of Barabbas to illustrate this point. When Pilate addressed the Jewish crowd asking them to choose between Jesus or Barabbas, they chose life for Barabbas, a thief and murderer (Mark 15:7-14). Jesus the innocent was crucified in place of Barabbas the guilty. Most of us understand the prophetic significance of this event in terms of Jesus dying in our place, thereby redeeming our lives from sin's death sentence. Barabbas may well have been deeply convicted that day about His own unworthiness to live while Jesus died; he may have even later believed on Jesus as the Son of God, been baptised, and renounced his former life of crime. However, unless Barabbas came to understand that the life that had been mercifully restored to him must in turn be crucified and replaced with the Life of Christ, he would merely have been changing his religion (Rom. 6:6; Gal. 5:24; Gal. 6:14).

For you died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God. (Colossians 3:3)

Friends, the gospel of all truth says we must be converted to Christ, not to Christianity. This may sound like a pedantic play on words to many, nevertheless the difference must be understood. Too many are preaching and receiving a gospel that denies the full New Testament doctrine of salvation that is founded on crucifixion of the flesh and new life in Christ. This is literally a matter of eternal life and eternal death. The full salvation gospel does not teach that we have been redeemed for the purpose of fulfilling our lives. It says that the only way to keep our life is to lose it. It does not say that our lives were given back to us, it says that the Life of Christ was given to us in place of ours. Our lives must be willingly surrendered for a spiritual death - that means every plan, every desire, every day, every night - every last breath! Christ did not die so that we could live our lives - He died so that we could live HIS life. That is why our lives are said to be hidden in Christ.

Listen, if you count yourself a believer but yet are not daily laying your life down on the altar so that He may live His Life in you, you are living on a precipice that may cost you eternity. I am not promoting a gospel of works over grace here. I am promoting a gospel of ALL TRUTH that does not deny the true cost of our redemption. What an insult to the Blood, what a slap in the Face of God, to believe that we may take the free gift of His Son, and go merrily on our way paying lip service while we continue to control and direct our own lives. How dare we tolerate any longer this false gospel in our midst!

It is not enough even to say, "Lord, please direct my life." Why? Because He doesn't want to direct OUR lives, He wants to crucify our lives! Realise that when we decided to live with Christ, we decided to die with Him. Realise that from that moment on we had absolutely no right to our lives - only to His Life! Is there not freedom in Christ? Yes, but only IN CHRIST. Did He not come to give us life abundant? Yes, but only IN CHRIST.

There is no life apart from Christ's life, and there is no holiness apart from Christ's holiness. We must receive a gospel that gives us to understand that God is not going to renovate, remake or renew our old Adam nature. He is not going to repair our former lives. He is giving us a new life, but it is His Son's life, in place of ours (Acts 5:20; Rom. 6:4). Our former lives are totally corrupt and unredeemable. We are fallen creatures whose flesh lives cannot be restored. The Cross is not about you and I being made right. The Cross is about you and I entering into the life of the First and the Last - Christ, the Firstborn from the dead and the last Adam (Col. 1:18; 1 Cor. 15:45). We are not able to be made holy in any way at all, except as we partake of Christ's holiness (Heb. 3:14).

When we come into THIS gospel, our lives will become all about Him instead of all about us. Even our language and the way we respond to the Lord will be different. Instead of saying "Lord, be with me today", we will be asking, "Lord, may I go with YOU, today!" Rather than "please bless what I'm doing today", we'll be crying out "Lord, how can I bless what You're doing today?"

A Cry for Repentance

Friends, this message is a plea for repentance. First corporately, because we, the church, all bear responsibility for tolerating and allowing this incomplete and demonically inspired gospel of denial of Christ's life in us to grow and prosper among us. In doing so we have born a false witness to the world - the very ones to whom we are to witness the Life of Christ. Second, we must repent individually, because we have each denied Him in ways we do not want to see or acknowledge. Let us not echo Peter who foolishly insisted "Even if I have to die with You, I will not deny You" (Matt. 26:35).

How is it that we deny Christ, and in the deceit of our hearts do not even recognise what we are doing to Him? Let me share with you a list He gave me personally, which I am now instructed by the Holy Spirit to present to the church. I encourage you to take time over what follows, in humility allowing the Holy Spirit to convict you to repentance wherever necessary. And let me assure you that I present this list as one "down among", and not as one "over and above". As the Lord led me through this list, He showed me that I had failed Him on each count except one. That was not a very encouraging revelation. However, it is God's goodness that leads us to repentance (Rom. 2:4).

As the Lord revealed His heart on this issue, He imparted the truth that denial springs from idolatry. Idolatry is simply the act of exalting something or someone other than Christ to the pre-eminent place of total Lordship and sovereignty that is rightfully His alone. By this I understood that the Lord considers it idolatry when we deny any aspect of Who He is in us.

1) When we judge our brother or sister by determining in mind or speech that brother or sister is unable to be changed, comparing them to others in whom we have perceived greater fruit - we DENY Him. This is denial of His Spirit, for we deny the power of His Spirit at work within that one to sanctify and conform them to the image of Christ. We are exalting human flesh above Him. First, we are exalting our own flesh to presume we understand His way of working in another. Second, we are exalting their flesh to presume it is stronger than His Spirit is.

Being confident of this very thing, that He who has begun a good work in you will complete it until the day of Jesus Christ. Phil: 1:6

2) When we judge ourselves by determining in mind or speech that we will never overcome a certain sin or destructive habit, we DENY Him. This is denial of His Blood, for we deny the power of the Blood to cleanse and heal us completely. We are exalting the power of sin and flesh above the complete sufficiency of His shed Blood to deliver us from sin's grip.

If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. 1 John 1:9

But if we walk in the light as He is in the light, we have fellowship with one another, and the blood of Jesus Christ His Son cleanses us from all sin. 1 John 1:7

How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God? Heb. 9:14

3) When we deem our own worth as less than what He deems it to be, that is, judge ourselves unworthy, a failure or unforgivable, we DENY Him. This is denial of His Cross, for we deny the power of His love to heal and deliver us. Again, we are exalting our essential "badness" (sin nature) above His essential goodness, which is an attribute of His Glory (see Ex. 33:19)

For it pleased the Father that in Him all the fullness should dwell, and by Him to reconcile all things to Himself, by Him, whether things on earth or things in heaven, having made peace through the blood of His cross. And you, who once were alienated and enemies in your mind by wicked works, yet now He has reconciled in the body of His flesh through death, to present you holy, and blameless, and above reproach in His sight-- if indeed you continue in the faith, grounded and steadfast, and are not moved away from the hope of the gospel which you heard. Col. 1:19-23

4) When we give Him the leftovers of ourselves instead of the first and best, we DENY Him. This is denial of His Lordship, for we deny Him His rightful pre-eminence. When we choose to pursue other activities, such as career, pleasure or Christian service, at the expense of seeking out His Presence, we exalt our love of self above Him. When we exalt "self" we deny Christ. When we exalt Christ, we deny "self". We cannot exalt both of them.

If anyone desires to come after Me, let him DENY HIMSELF, and take up his cross daily, and follow

Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it. Luke 9:23-24

Nevertheless I have this against you, that you have left your first love. Rev. 2:4

5) When we embrace another name more than His, we DENY Him, for we deny the power and glory of His Name. The early disciples of Christ were known only as "those who had been WITH Jesus" (Acts 4:13). How do we identify ourselves? Do we esteem the name of our nation, our denomination or even our family higher than His Name? When we fail to place all our other "identity tags" beneath the Name Above All Names, we exalt the world system above the Kingdom of Christ.

That the Name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in Him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ. 2 Thess. 1:12 I know your works. See, I have set before you an open door, and no one can shut it; for you have a little strength, have kept My word, and have not denied My Name. Rev. 3:8

And they shall see his face; and his Name shall be in their foreheads. Rev. 22:4

6) When we replace the Word of God with the commandments of men, we DENY Him, for we deny Christ the Living Word (John 1:1). When we replace worship in Spirit and truth with denominational tradition and ritual we DENY Him, for we exalt fleshly man-made religion above God Who is a Spirit (John 4:24). When we choose and appoint a priestly class, bestowing on them authority to govern our spiritual lives in place of the Holy Spirit, we deny Christ the Resurrection and Life (John 11:25), proclaiming to the world that mortal men must now head the church because He is not able to (Eph. 4:15).

This people honors Me with their lips, but their heart is far from Me. And in vain the worship Me, teaching as doctrines the commandments of men. Mark 7:7

.....making the Word of God of no effect through your tradition which you have handed down. And many such things you do. Mark 7:13

For he is not the God of the dead, but of the living: for all live to him. Luke 20:38

And with great power gave the apostles witness to the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all. Acts 4:33

Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to his abundant mercy has begotten us again to a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead. 1 Peter 1:3

7) When we choose to live the life we desire instead of surrendering to His Life in us, we DENY Him. This is denial of Christ, the Tree of Life, for we deny Him His right to Life in us. When we choose instead the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil by exalting our fleshly life above His Life in the Spirit, we claim that we have a right to life apart from Him. The truth is that we have no right to our lives at all. We only have a right to His Life. This is the ultimate denial for it is the denial Jesus experienced from Judas. Judas chose to eat from the Tree of the Knowledge of Good and Evil which represents the reasoning power of man, rather than feed from the Tree of Life, which is CHRIST IN US, our hope of glory (Col. 1:27). He reasoned that his betrayal of Jesus would save his own life, but his reasoning in turn betrayed him and this choice cost Judas his eternal life (John 17:12).

But the natural man does not receive the things of the Spirit of God, for they are foolishness to him; nor can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned. 1 Cor. 2:14

I have been crucified with Christ; it is no longer I who live, but Christ lives in me; and the life which I now live in the flesh I live by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave Himself for me. Gal. 2:20

Denial or Witness

Whatever else each of us may believe to be our calling, gifting, or function within the Body of Christ, the scriptures teach there is one fundamental and primary calling above all others that belongs to every man, woman and child in Christ. It is the calling to provide witness for Him on the earth. To be part of the "ecclesia", the called out ones of Christ, is literally a calling to walk this earth as witnesses of Christ's resurrection (Rom. 1:6). None of us have any higher calling than this. The church has been left upon the earth until the Father's appointed time to give witness of His Son's resurrection, to principalities and powers (Eph. 3:10), and to the world (Luke 24:46-48). That witness, above all other things, is why you and I are here. This is not a witness worked out through active evangelism alone, though evangelism is certainly one aspect of it. This witness we are called to is primarily expressed through Christ's life being manifested in and through us. There is no other living witness on the face of the earth to the truth that Christ lives but the faithful, Spirit-empowered Bridal company of believers. When we deny Christ in any manner whatsoever, we are walking as false witnesses before demonic powers, before the world we live in and before the Father Himself.

While Peter hid in the shadows of the courtyard, inside the High Priest's palace the religious authorities were busy presenting false witnesses against Jesus to discredit Him. Outside in the courtyard, warming himself near the fire, Peter was presented with the opportunity to give a true witness to Jesus, but failed (Mat. 26:57-75). We are all familiar with the story - three times he was asked was he with Jesus, and three times he denied that he even knew Him. We cringe at the thought of placing ourselves in Peter's shoes that night. We cringe even more painfully when we contemplate the scripture that states "And the Lord turned, and looked upon Peter" (Luke 22:61). In all of history, did ever a human being receive such a look? We don't like to think we could have done what Peter did. But the truth is, we have denied Him - again, and again.......

It would be easy for me to end this message with a prayer for forgiveness that we could all agree with and move on to other things more pleasant to our taste. How we love the prophetic message or the revelatory teaching that affirms and comforts us, but this is not such a message. This is a message that requires us to pause and come aside with our Beloved One, a message that demands a reckoning in the secret place of His grace and forgiveness. This message is a call to repentance, and my prayer is that we will humble ourselves to receive it. May we turn aside to Him and acknowledge the unspeakable. May the fear of the Lord return once again among His people. And when He comes, may He find us among a Bridal company of true witnesses who refuse to deny Him at any cost.

Why Do We Want The Holy Spirit

Elizabeth Roots

(Rootedinhim@Earthlink.Net)

In Luke 11:1-13 (NIV), Jesus gives his disciples a lesson on how to pray.

The lesson starts in verse 5. "Suppose one of you has a friend and he goes to him at midnight and says, "Friend, lend me three loaves of bread, because a friend of mine on a journey has come to me and I have nothing to set before him.'" The parable goes on to say that the man asked with much boldness and received what he needed for his friend.

"Ask and it shall be given, seek and you shall find, knock and the door shall be opened up to you." (Luke 11:9)

The lesson though ends with Jesus saying, "If you then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask? "

The man who was looking for bread was not seeking for himself, but for his traveling friend. He had nothing in his house to provide for another. He was both bold and diligent in his request to his neighbor so that his weary friends' needs would be met.

We need to realize here that God is saying that we need to be filled with the Holy Spirit for the sake of others more than for ourselves. We need to start seeking the Lord so that we have something to give away to others as they make life's journey.

While we do need to gather for ourselves, we also need to have bread to give away, spiritual bread, life giving bread, to sustain others as they travel in and out of our lives. Let's change our outlook, asking to be filled and renewed by the Holy Spirit, being transformed into the image of Christ, not for our sakes, but for the sake of others. This is the mind of Christ.

In my home, I lead worship for a small group of believers. It is my desire to lead them into the Holy of Holies where they can touch God and have their needs met. These weary ones need their feet washed, a cup of cold water, and some bread to eat. I may be weary as well. There may be no food in the (my) house.

I should be convicted if I offer these saints less than what the Lord would want to give them. It is my responsibility to be filled with the Holy Spirit, abiding in intimacy with Jesus, so that I can ask and then give something eternal and living to the pilgrims in my home. If I do not do this, I am giving an offering in my own strength.

I can 'function' in my ministry without the Holy Spirit. I can go through the motions of a good work. The gifts of God are without repentance.

Jesus warned in the gospels that when the judgment comes many will say, "Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in Your Name, and in Your Name cast out demons and perform many miracles?" The Lord was unimpressed with their list of works. He will reply to many, "I never knew you. Away from me, you evildoers." (Matthew 7:21,22)

We should find this disturbing and judge ourselves diligently: Am I working my ministry out of my own strength, ambition or vision? Or, am I giving away the eternal food birthed by the Holy Spirit within me?

Am I doing the purpose of the Holy Spirit? Am I really abiding in the vine and drawing on His power for the real task?

Let us return to the Lord, asking to be filled and filled again for the sake of the others, for the sake of the Kingdom of God.

Wedding Date

Bill Camp

On April 7th. I had an unusual prophetic dream; I dreamt I was a groom, a husband-to-be, going to be married.

My fiancé' said to me,

"Oh, I love you, I love you, and ...... I do want to marry you, but not now. At a more convenient time..... Later on."

All of my friends there who also heard her say this, then said to me,

"See how she loves you, hear how she speaks her love to you. She truly does love you."

But I knew in my heart that they were not receiving the 'full message' which my fiancé' was speaking. For what she said with her mouth, "I love you", was not truly in her heart, else she would have more than desired to marry me on the appointed wedding day.

While still asleep and in my dream I then realized this dream was not about me of course, but rather it was about our Lord Jesus, our Groom, and about His' espoused Bride-to-be whom is not yet fully committed. Even while She (us), His' Bride is saying, "Lord I love You," she (we) is/are not ready to commit fully for that set wedding date, and day.

And I felt some of our Lord's desire and His yearning for HIS' Bride to be, for her committal, through my receiving of this dream.

Later I remembered the parable Jesus told (-Mt 22); Of those invited by a king to his son's wedding, who gave excuses .... for their not being able to come.

Weeds and Seeds

Priscilla Van Sutphin

November 3rd, 2005

"I am the ultimate Gardener. I plant seeds and they grow into beautiful trees and flowers. I nurture them and give them all the sun, and rain, and nurturing they need. I send pollinators to cross pollinate them so that there will be even more plants that continue on bringing glory to My name. I prune, and I speak to them. I cut back the foliage so that new leaves will grow. I pamper and I prune, I cut and I weed. I fertilize and nurture all the plants in My garden of renown. I allow winds to blow away all the dead foliage and to uproot all the dead leaves around the base of the plants.

I see that the Son shines on them to make them grow, as they reach up for more of Him. I never neglect My garden. Oftentimes however, the enemy comes in trying to sow in wild seeds, and trying to scatter weeds among my plants that choke them, and steal from them. But I am a thorough Gardener. I weed, and I pull out the roots of weeds, without pulling up any of My plants. I am about to pull out some big weeds and assure that there is no more choking in the growth of My flowers and trees – especially the saplings and younger ones.

I am going to pour out revelation like a flood. I will have a prophetic generation that will sing the praises of their Beloved ! I will pour out blessing upon blessing , upon blessing on the garden of My love ! I will RESTORE My church that there will be a flow of revelation and wisdom released that will break every lie and ungodly yoke. I know that there will still be a division in those who call themselves Mine, as there are many Weeds still growing up in My garden. But all will culminate soon, so that that which has polluted and ensnared My beloveds will be removed. Those who remain in the TRUE church will no longer lack appreciation for the WORD of the Lord, whether Rhema or Logos.

I am loosing the spirit of Elijah to RESTORE what has been broken and breeched. I will RESTORE the hearts of those who had been rejected and torn. I will restore those hearts of children who saw their parents rejected and destroyed by those in the church full of pride and greed. I will RESTORE those who have been HURT by people in the church, who were unhealed and arrogant. I know the TRUTH about everyone. I know the hearts of everyone. I am not blind nor deaf to the words that have been spoken. My church has become a laughing stock in the eyes of the world because of the corruption and stink within.

But I am not incapable of RESTORATION. I specialize in impossibilities.
I treasure restoring that which is broken and maimed, crippled and destroyed. I AM THE REPAIRER OF THE BREECH, and I will RESTORE all that has been broken. I will breathe NEW LIFE into My people, and I will break the chains of bondage over the generation of youth and young adults. The world has blinded them, and humanism has sucked all the life out of them that was meant to be. It stole their minds and polluted their hearts, and for many of the youth of the nations, there is much hopelessness and despair. But the truth of MY LOVE and POWER will be a great BALM to their souls. I will SWEEP through nations and POUR out ABUNDANCE of My LOVE and POWER that will startle many into the Kingdom.

Do not despise the ways I have of cleaning up My church beloveds ! I am a Good FATHER Who gives good gifts to My children. And those who want the greater things, will receive an abundance of blessing. Walk the narrow path, and turn away from the world. For this world is perishing, and there will be nothing left of it soon. You are strangers here. DO NOT HOLD ON TO THE THINGS OF THE WORLD. IT IS PERISHING. EVERY SYSTEM OF MAN WILL FAIL FOR HE HAS GROWN PRIDEFUL AND ARROGANT IN HIS OWN ABILITY, rather than dependent on ME.

CAST your seed upon the waters and bring forth a great harvest ! I am coming to help you. I will pour out My Spirit in abundance that HARVEST may be brought in. Launch out and scatter the seeds of My love everywhere you go. I have ENOUGH. I always have more to give you, and will abundantly bless you as you bless others, instead of hording it for yourselves. So pour out, and pour out, and pour out. For I will make you as a drink offering in the hands of Your GOD ! I AM WITH YOU ! I will continue to fill you up, as you keep IN THE VINE. ABIDE IN ME, and I will ABIDE in you."

Isa 32:20 AMP Happy and fortunate are you who cast your seed upon all waters [when the river overflows its banks; for the seed will sink into the mud and when the waters subside, the plant will spring up; you will find it after many days and reap an abundant harvest], you who safely send forth the ox and the donkey [to range freely].

Matt 13:40-43 AMP   Just as the darnel (weeds resembling wheat) is gathered and burned with fire, so it will be at the close of the age. 41 The Son of Man will send forth His angels, and they will gather out of His kingdom all causes of offense [persons by whom others are drawn into error or sin] and all who do iniquity and act wickedly, 42 And will cast them into the furnace of fire; there will be weeping and wailing and grinding of teeth. 43 Then will the righteous (those who are upright and in right standing with God) shine forth like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let him who has ears [to hear] be listening, and let him consider and perceive and understand by hearing. [Dan 12:3.]

" I am Your Abba, and I do all things well for the benefit of My children. I am a Good Father Who gives good gifts to you. There is nothing I wouldn't do for My children, so long as it was of benefit to them. But not all things they ask of Me are of benefit. It is human nature to want what YOU want, to be comfortable, and to do things the easy way. And I don't want you to struggle either. I want you to YIELD to ME, so that the struggling is less. My yoke is easy and My burden is light !

But if you insist on going YOUR way instead of My way, then the road becomes far more difficult and though I may permit some requests, it doesn't mean that THAT is what I want for you, or what I see as best for you. STUBBORNESS is as IDOLATRY to ME. So I am urging you and admonishing you to YIELD to My will and My ways. I know what is best for you. Trust Me in this ! I KNOW WHAT YOU NEED before you ask ! I know all things. I see the coming attack of the enemy and even warn you ahead some of the time. I impart the strength you need if you ASK.

I know that these times you have been through much testing and trials have worn many of you down. So I am asking you to REST and be restored ! For it is in QUIETNESS and REST that you will be revived from your weariness.
You don't have to DO anything, but to just lay down with ME, and allow me to refresh your soul. Allow ME to lift the heavy burdens off, and to REVEAL MY PLAN for your life. MARTHA, MARTHA, you are too busy, I said to her. Many are not concerned with the things of God but of the things of the world, how you will eat, how you will drink, where you will live, how you'll survive. BUT HE WHO DWELLS IN THE SECRET PLACE, WILL ABIDE IN THE SHADOW OF THE ALMIGHTY I SAID.
Will you come with ME to the secret place, into My heart of love and receive all that I have for you ? Will you take the time to KNOW ME ? I warned you while on earth that many will come to me in that day, and say, I did this or that for you, I prophesied in Your name, but I will say to them…" I NEVER KNEW YOU !" So what do you want ? Why do you want it ? Are you interested in what I want ? – or only what YOU WANT ? This is the test of death to self. It is natural to have wants and desires, desire in itself is not evil. But this very thing wars with your members. You want and do not get, and you want and do not have and so you argue, connive, manipulate to get what you want. All such grasping is evil. It is not the 'new man', but the SELF life that does this. It is your FLESH.

I am coming to burn off all the FLESH. It is worthless. Boredom is merely a soulish thing. There is no boredom in heaven. The flesh fights and fights to have IT'S way. But I have called you to HIGHER purposes. I have called you to fight the good fight of FAITH, and to walk in GLORY. I want many of you to carry My GLORY to nations. I am coming to bring LIFE to the dead bones and to breathe on My church again and to transform it into what I WANT it to be. What I want is yieldedness to My will. IN THIS WAY YOU SHOW ME YOU LOVE ME, IF YOU OBEY ME.

Rebellion is not gone until you lay down ALL your agenda and pick up MINE.
RELEASE is coming to all whose hearts are desirous to be ONE with MINE.
I have made a covenant with you and I am a God of commitment and covenant. I KEEP MY PROMISES. I do not change My mind, and write people off. I am PATIENT and KIND, full of mercy and lovingkindness for those who are My own ! But you cannot keep asking ME to do YOUR WILL and expect me to go along with Your plans, when I am to be Your God and Master ! I WILL HAVE AN OBEDIENT BRIDE. How many Esthers are there out there who will listen to ME, and what I WANT ? How many GIDEONS are there who will tear down the idols in the Father's house ?

You will walk in perfect peace when you walk in agreement to MY WILL.
When you do that, I will corroborate what you speak from your mouth that is from ME. Many miracles and healings will erupt as you follow MY LEAD.
Come My Bride and come into MY HEART, and MY WILL, and MY MIND.
I bless obedience to My will, not stubbornness and rebellion to My will.

1 John 4:7-8 NKJV He who does not love does not know God, for God is love.

1 John 2:3-6 NKJV He who says, "I know Him," and does not keep His commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. 5 But whoever keeps His word, truly the love of God is perfected in him. By this we know that we are in Him. 6 He who says he abides in Him ought himself also to walk just as He walked.

1 John 2:15-17 NKJV Do Not Love the World
Do not love the world or the things in the world. If anyone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. 16 For all that is in the world — the lust of the flesh, the lust of the eyes, and the pride of life — is not of the Father but is of the world. 17 And the world is passing away, and the lust of it; but he who does the will of God abides forever.

1 John 2:28 NKJV The Children of God - And now, little children, abide in Him, that when He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming.

1 John 4:18 NKJV There is no fear in love; but perfect love casts out fear, because fear involves torment. But he who fears has not been made perfect in love.

1 John 4:20 NKJV Obedience by Faith - If someone says, "I love God," and hates his brother, he is a liar; for he who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen?

1 John 5:14 AMP And this is the confidence (the assurance, the privilege of boldness) which we have in Him: [we are sure] that if we ask anything (make any request) according to His will (in agreement with His own plan), He listens to and hears us.

Matt 26:28 AMP For this is My blood of the new covenant, which [ratifies the agreement and] is being poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins. [Ex 24:6-8.]

John 14:31 AMP But [Satan is coming and] I do as the Father has commanded Me, so that the world may know (be convinced) that I love the Father and that I do only what the Father has instructed Me to do. [I act in full agreement with His orders.] Rise, let us go away from here.

Rom 11:27-29 AMP And this will be My covenant (My agreement) with them when I shall take away their sins. [Isa 27:9; Jer 31:33.] 28 From the point of view of the Gospel (good news), they [the Jews, at present] are enemies [of God], which is for your advantage and benefit. But from the point of view of God's choice (of election, of divine selection), they are still the beloved (dear to Him) for the sake of their forefathers.

29 For God's gifts and His call are irrevocable. [He never withdraws them when once they are given, and He does not change His mind about those to whom He gives His grace or to whom He sends His call.]

2 Cor 6:16-17 AMP What agreement [can there be between] a temple of God and idols? For we are the temple of the living God; even as God said, I will dwell in and with and among them and will walk in and with and among them, and I will be their God, and they shall be My people. [Ex 25:8; 29:45; Lev 26:12; Jer 31:1; Ezek 37:27.]
17 So, come out from among [unbelievers], and separate (sever) yourselves from them, says the Lord, and touch not [any] unclean thing; then I will receive you kindly and treat you with favor, [Isa 52:11.]

Heb 7:22-25 AMP In keeping with [the oath's greater strength and force], Jesus has become the Guarantee of a better (stronger) agreement [a more excellent and more advantageous covenant]. 23 [Again, the former successive line of priests] was made up of many, because they were each prevented by death from continuing [perpetually in office]; 24 But He holds His priesthood unchangeably, because He lives on forever. 25 Therefore He is able also to save to the uttermost (completely, perfectly, finally, and for all time and eternity) those who come to God through Him, since He is always living to make petition to God and intercede with Him and intervene for them.

Heb 8:13 AMP When God speaks of a new [covenant or agreement], He makes the first one obsolete (out of use). And what is obsolete (out of use and annulled because of age) is ripe for disappearance and to be dispensed with altogether.

Heb 9:15 AMP [Christ, the Messiah] is therefore the Negotiator and Mediator of an [entirely] new agreement (TESTAMENT, covenant), so that those who are called and offered it may receive the fulfillment of the promised everlasting inheritance--since a death has taken place which rescues and delivers and redeems them from the transgressions committed under the [old] first agreement.

Heb 10:16-17 AMP This is the agreement (TESTAMENT, covenant) that I will set up and conclude with them after those days, says the Lord: I will imprint My laws upon their hearts, and I will inscribe them on their minds (on their inmost thoughts and understanding), 17 He then goes on to say, And their sins and their lawbreaking I will remember no more. [Jer 31:33,34.]

Heb 10:18 AMP Now where there is absolute remission (forgiveness and cancellation of the penalty) of these [sins and lawbreaking], there is no longer any offering made to atone for sin.

Wells Stopped Often By Enemies

Susan Vannice

http://tambourine.web-log.nl/
As posted by Catharina Schouten-Meijer of Tesjova www.tesjoeva.nl
tesjoeva@zonnet.nl

Women of God, it is time to stand up now! You are feeding each other while I tell you STOP! Go out with each other and feet MY FLOCK the lost souls........Do they see you here you.....do they see ME!!!! Where is MY ARMY!!!!!

The Father told me, Catharina, ponder on this study by Susan Vannice concerning Genesis 26:12-33. Often our wells are stopped by our enemies, but don't give up, keep digging anyway no matter how many times you have to do it, 70 times 7.

Now is the time to give My Word to the lost who have never heard the message, I Am The Message and you are the messenger. You have grown spiritually fat from the good of the Word. Now you must exercise and give the Word you have stored up! You are like Joseph, you can see the fatted cows and the famined cows, now is the time of plenty, soon there will be a time of famine, so go and give the Word, the message of My Love to the spiritually deprived and hungry souls on the brink of death.

I encourage you to take time to study Genesis 26 and read the study Susan has written. In the study, we see that if someone reaches the Well of Living Water, they are standing with Jesus.

The well is standing up with Jesus. If you are standing by the Well ready to receive in order to give, you will discover there will be some ugly things like quarreling, anger, jealousy and resentment from others. As you read Susan's study in Genesis 26, as soon as the Lord finds someone who has been healed in his/here spirit, soul, mind, and body and who have died to their own flesh by dying of one's self, then the Lord is ready to use you to minister to others. The same moment the Lord commissions you, the enemy is ready to use those to make you feel inadequate, not yet ready, you need more study, you are still wounded and need more time to heal, and or further improvements before you can be ready to minister according to their beliefs. Despite what others are saying to you, don't let their lack of belief or faith in you deter you from where I am is calling you. You already have all you need and that is HIM, Your Father! Stand up and come out of your boat and leave your comfort zone.

When Johan and I were in Israel, a dear friend, Paul Sherbow, told me it was time to get out of the boat, rise, stand up and go. Paul gave this illustration and as he did, the Lord spoke to me and said remember this and keep it in your mind and heart.

Paul told us, sometimes I go to the beach and catch some crabs, I bring along a bucket to put them in. There has been a moment that I saw something peculiar, in the bucket full of crabs, there was one crab on top, who could easily get out of the bucket it was just a moment away to total freedom, then the other crabs grab him by the claw and drag him to the bottom of the bucket instead of helping him out (out of the boat). This is what is happening today to the Body of Yeshua. There is one who finds the Well of Living Water and is standing up with confidence and finds freedom but as soon as this happens the others come and pull the person who is standing up, back to their past.

Let us first look at the well called ESEK, meaning quarreling.

You are standing up and enjoying that which the Lord has given you to do. Suddenly there are two types of spirits, which manifest themselves into those who come along to discourage you to keep you from bearing the fruit, which is appearing in your life.

This first type is the spirit of jealousy and bringing an environment of quarreling. The second type is just the opposite end of discouragement it is one of co dependency, you need being in order to be a success in God's Kingdom. This spirit will tell you that you are still wounded and need more healing before the Lord can use you.

What must we do? The Father spoke to me and said, "You try to defend yourself and you do not need to. You do not need to defend Me. Stand up and keep your focus on me, if you look at them you will fall". You are trying to be at peace with them but it isn't going to work. The Spirit of the Lord will bring a separation down to the marrow. We have a quote here in Holland, "If people want to hit a dog they can find a stick to hit the animal". There will be those waiting to hit you in the head and will find something to try to start a quarrel with you.

Although we try to keep peace, there are spirits finding fault with anything to discourage you and to get your eyes, your focus, off of Me. The Father says, "don't defend yourselves, keep digging and you will find the Well of Living Water. Keep digging and trusting in Jesus!"

The second well is Sitna, meaning anger.

So we keep digging and digging which means we are growing more and more in the Spirit. Now we find spirits not only are jealous but angry also because you are doing what the Lord is telling you and they see you are growing. Every time you get out of the boat, others are there to bring you back. Remember the story of the crabs!

The third well is Rehoboth, meaning space.

The Father will see in your heart because all of these things are happening because you are the one receiving the hurtful and discouraging comments. You let those words come into your heart and end up getting angry and sinning by not giving the anger to the Lord and tempted to go back to letting others stand allowing you back in their yoke or a yoke you have made for yourself. Don't let the enemy fool you by the tricks of patronizing you. Keep digging! Keep doing what Abba is telling you to do!

The choice is ours. If we do what we do for the Lord we will see it standing in Genesis 26-27. Those who thought you could not do it will be the first to see the Lord is with you if you remain standing, like Job. The Lord himself will take care of you, others will see He is blessing you if you are the one who keeps digging no matter the surroundings and circumstances look for Jesus in a deeper way.

In His own timing the first shall be last and the last shall be first. Humble yourself and dig. The lower you get the closer you get to Jesus. The wages for the work will be the same for the first as with the last. The first laborers complained they deserved more than those hired at the last hour. It doesn’t matter if you have been serving Him forty years of forty minutes the pay is the same.

The word of the Lord:

I Am who I Am, I make no difference and am no respecter of persons. I will choose who I choose. I love all My Children very much. Many of the problems seen in this study reveal the root in the heart if you are ministering for the sake of yourself and the fame of your own name. You will always be jealous of others. If you minister in My Name you will enjoy every one who stands ups too.

Are you looking through your own eyes of through My eyes seeing My vision? In my Father’s house there are many mansions if were not so I would have had no need to prepare a place for you.

Serve Me, not in your own name, your own ministry, I Am that I Am. The seed you sow, will come back to you, sow your name and you will get none, sow MY name and you will receive My blessings.

We Find Grace

Deuteronomy 32:9-11 KJV "(9) For the LORD'S portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance. (10) He found him in a desert land, and in the waste howling wilderness; he led him about, he instructed him, he kept him as the apple of his eye. (11) As an eagle stirreth up her nest, fluttereth over her young, spreadeth abroad her wings, taketh them, beareth them on her wings..."

GIVING INTO HIM

My time with the Lord seems to have taken a new direction! It seems as if everything has turned into a dry and weary land. My throat seems parched, there seems to have been no food...

Though it has seemed that I have been going through wilderness times, we always find grace in the wilderness. That's the only place it grows wild! I have felt that I may have grown lazy though in chasing, for the wilderness is the place where He chases you down and I become the catcher! It is as if He wants us to give up so we could rely solely upon Him.

PURIFIED, EMPOWERED, A LIGHT

The wilderness is a place of purification. Jesus went through this process. "Then Jesus was carried up into the wilderness by the Spirit to be tempted of the devil..." (Matthew 4:1 Darby) The Message reads it this way: "Next Jesus was taken into the wild by the Spirit for the Test. The Devil was ready to give it." God carries and takes us to the wild for the test. The wilderness is truly a test of character. Luke 4:2-13 ALT "...being tempted forty days by the Devil. And He did not eat anything in those days, and they having been completed, afterward He was hungry. (3) And the Devil said to Him, "Since You are God's Son, speak to this stone that it shall become bread." (4) And Jesus answered to him, saying, "It has been written, '{The} person will not live on bread only, _but_ on every word of God.'" [Deut 8:3] (5) And the Devil, having brought Him into a high mountain, showed to Him all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth in a moment of time. (6) And the Devil said to Him, "I will give to You all this authority and their glory, because it has been handed over to me, and I give it to whomever I shall be desiring. (7) "Therefore, if _You_ prostrate Yourself in worship before me all will be Yours." (8) And answering, Jesus said to him, "Get behind Me, Satan! It has been written, 'You will prostrate yourself in worship before the LORD your God, and Him only you will sacredly serve.'" [Deut 6:13] (9) And he brought Him to Jerusalem and set Him on the pinnacle of the temple and said to Him, "Since You are God's Son, throw Yourself down from here. (10) "For it has been written, 'To His angels He will give orders concerning You, to guard over You,' (11) and, 'They will lift You up on [their] hands, lest You strike Your foot against a stone.'" [Psalm 91:11,12] (12) And answering, Jesus said to him, "It has been said, 'You will not put the LORD your God to the test.'" [Deut 6:16] (13) And having completed every temptation, the Devil departed from Him until an [opportune] time." God sends us out into the wasteland to see what our response will be. Have we become like Him, or are we still the old man? Psalms 17:15 speaks to us, "As for me, I will behold thy face in righteousness: I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with thy likeness." Have we been purified enough that we will awaken in the likeness of God? Have we sought first the Kingdom of God and His righteousness enough? It said that we would be able to see His face whenever we have entered into His righteousness. Jesus was there for forty days, and was tempted three times. What was His response going to be? Was it going to be one of giving into the desires of the flesh, or was it going to be a response that speaks to God that we have been tested, tried, and found true. We have been made pure before Him. Of course as we read above, Jesus passed through the wilderness experience just fine. But will we? Gold in it's purest form is clear, it is see through. Have we been purified in the wilderness enough to find that we are transparent? If we truly have Jesus on the inside, and we have become transparent on the outside, will people see Jesus through you?

Matthew 4:11 BBE "Then the Evil One went away from him, and angels came and took care of him." Often when in the wilderness we become weary. Galatians tells us not to grow weary in well doing. In other words, "Don't worry, be happy!" He gives His angels charge over us. They are ministering spirits. We will come out ok. And we will come out in power!

Luke 4:14 KJV "And Jesus returned in the power of the Spirit into Galilee: and there went out a fame of him through all the region round about." The wilderness empowers us. The Bible said that I must decrease so He may increase! When we have been tested, tried, and proven true. When we have been purified, He empowers us with Holy Spirit and FIRE! This is where we can move on in our lives and ministries and see God work through us. We become lights. Matthew 4:16 "The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up."

FINDING GRACE AND GOD'S VOICE THERE....

The wilderness is so extreme and hard, yet the easiest place to be. Revelation is much harder to find, so you must fight to find it in this dry and weary land. But you press through, and then He finds you and holds you and loves you and molds you, you get all the revelation to last you through. He still speaks in these seasons, but it is not in the audible voice that you may get used to. In fact, do you remember the story of Elijah finding God? He looked in the earthquake, and God wasn't there. He looked in the whirlwind and God wasn't there. He looked in the Great Fires, yet God still wasn't there. Please note that Elijah was on this mountain in the middle of the wilderness. It wasn't until Elijah became still, a place where God can catch you, that he was able to hear the still small voice. Its coming to the place where you stop looking for the water and become still, and then you know He is God, and then He begins to whisper something so majestic, and you know that He has caught you.

It is so glorious, so glorious to know you have been caught up into the one you love. Something of the sort from Song of Songs, the Voice of My Beloved, behold here He comes, He comes and He says to me, "Rise up My love, My fair one, and come away with Me." O that He would say that to someone like me. Dry and thirsty. Dirty because the dust has covered my body. Yet he lets me know that dark am I, but lovely in His eyes! O the wilderness is the place you hate, yet the place you love because of the greatness of intimacy for the times that He catches you! HO! The wilderness is the place where love grows, His character in me grows, we become one, and greatness of communion increases.

THE PLACE OF DIVINE LOVE

Sometimes we are obstinate, we run and won't allow God to catch us. We become Israelites and become complainers and murmurers! This only increases heartache, pain, and the dryness. This only increases our anger to God for sending us there. This only increases our time here. We will never be whisked away until we begin to conform. We will never be whisked away until we can get through all the stuff that brings us here, until we can say that even through all the midst of heartache and pain that we are going through, He is still God, He still cares, and He wants to hold me and love me forever and ever. This is all apart of our learning experience. Yet we must look forward. For we know... One of these times that He catches me He is going to take me away to a greater place that I have never known. A place that is Heaven on earth. Where I can freely move up and down Jacob's ladder and can see His face whenever I want. Isn't that glorious. I know it is the place all true Divine Lovers long to be.

Warning From The Lord

Dream: 10/20/05

I am with my husband at a place where there are many people and much activity is occurring. My husband and I are observing the people there. The place is like as University at first but then changes into an Industry like setting. There are many people striving, ambitious, competitive, and argumentative. I notice where the people are sitting in very narrow areas and each desk has a computer for them.

Suddenly, the CEO or President of this place calls me, my husband and another young man to sit down in a room that has 3 chairs in front of a rectangular table. This CEO sits directly across from us. He has a long narrow book. The cover of this book is sky-blue. The inside pages are yellowish in color as you would expect a very old book would be. The man is very serious. He opens this book and the various sections are numbered. He then says to us “Read section 6## out loud”. I hesitate for a moment. Neither myself, nor my husband read it but the other young man seated besides me reads it. This article describes how scientists are experimenting with gravity to see if they can control and harness the energy to bring a comet close to the earth to study it. In shock, I realize that this comet would hit the earth because of man’s desire to manipulate the natural and physical laws of nature using scientific technology. These scientists can not control this experiment, just like other ones. I am told it is not God who pulls this comet to hit the earth; but rather it is man’s experiment that goes wrong. (So now man reaps their reward –judgments for wanting to be like God.) I am then shown Revelation 8:6-12 and each of those judgments are a result of man’s direct doing. God is Love and it is not His desire that this comet striking the earth should happen. I then realized that it is lie that God desires to hurt mankind with these judgments. Instead each judgment is a direct result of man’ sin. Man brings each of these judgments upon himself. I am greatly shocked of this revelation. The meeting ends. The CEO says nothing to us afterwards.

We go outside this room, I see my children sitting on a bench and I wonder if I should tell them know.

In the next scene, I am with my husband in our bedroom. I am standing and he is standing in front of a large bay window across our bed. I ask him, “Why do you think the CEO wanted us to know this information?” Then he answered, so we could prepare ourselves. The elite already know this, and they are getting themselves ready. But because we are common folk, and are not highly ranked like the leaders here, we were given favor to know this and to do something about it! I awoke at 6:30 a.m. from this dream in awe. We need to pray!

We Gotta Go On

Mark Kaphem

The other night I heard one of those quiet whispers from the Lord as we were gathered in worship.

I believe I heard the Lord say that "Desperate people will be ready for a desperate time, but just how desperate will those times have to get, before my people see their desperate need of Me".

Many of you feel a desperate cry rising up within you. You also are hearing whispers and receiving glimpses of the wonderful and terrifying times coming upon this Earth. At the same time, many of you are struggling with hopelessness and depression.

You feel a desperate cry rising up within you but are afraid to let it out. The cry is so needy, so raw, so powerful. You do not know where such a cry will take you.

I hear the Lord saying that "Desperateness is coming upon MY Body like a sword. For those who will embrace the sword it will free them from all hope and ties in this world. And allow them to rise up into the things of My Kingdom".

I see a fork in the road ahead. One path leads up with a focus on the things of Heaven. The other leads down with a focus on the things of this world. We can not walk both paths. For our focus (faith) will be the key to walking into the things the Father has for us in these times.

The Lord spoke to me that much of the Church is at John 6:68-69.

"But Simon Peter answered Him, “Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. Also we have come to believe and know that You are the Christ, the Son of the living God.”

This has always been a favorite verses because so many of us can relate to it. But it is not enough to just know that we have no place else to go. This will not get us through the days coming upon this Earth. We must enter into the relationship that Christ was speaking of prior to this verse. We must eat of His flesh and drink of His blood. Enter into a total dependency and abiding in the work of Christ.

Watching the devastation in New Orleans the verse kept coming to mind that "men’s hearts will fail them for fear in the days to come". Many in this world believe they have a choice in things. People were mad at the Government about the recent hurricanes. It's like they were saying "Shouldn't the Government have been able to protect us from these hurricanes". "No person in our modern world should have to be subjected to such a thing". However we know that the world does not have a choice. We do not have a choice. We gotta go on.

This is a time to be hidden in Christ. Not a time to hide from Him. The way ahead will be difficult. But we do not have a choice in the matter. We do not get a vote. We can not take a time out. We are not our own, but have been purchased with a price. We have to trust Him. There is no choice in the matter. He is our only hope. We must enter into the perfect love that casts out all fear.

I started out this year with the theme "It's not about me". I asked Holy Spirit to show me all the places in my life where I was all about me, so that I could turn my focus to be all about Him. Let me tell you, this has been a painful year. For I have seen that in everything I do, that I have been all about me. And with me in the way, it is really hard to see Jesus. But with the little progress I have made I have discovered a beautiful truth, a wonderful mystery. I have discovered that I do not have to be all about me. For there is another, the lover of my soul, who carries my every need and care in the wounds of His side, hands and feet. That just as I lay down my life and make Him my sole focus, that He also laid down His life and now carries me before the very heart of the Father. That I am not my own. I belong to Him. That I am His and He is mine. The beautiful mystery that Paul speaks of in Ephesians. That we are His bride and He is our Groom. That the door has been opened to enter into oneness with the creator of the universe.

So let not your heart be troubled. It is true that we are in desperate times that we can not escape. But we are also in the hands of a merciful God who is desperately in love with us. Whose glorious Son has defeated all our enemies and gone to prepare a place for us where we will enter into His love for eternity. Our hope in this time is to know that no matter what happens, that it is all motivated by His great love for us. That when we release out desperate cry that it is heard by one who loves us, and has chosen us to spend eternity in oneness with Him.

In Him,
Mark

Who Are The 144,000?

Don Hawley

January 6, 2005

In the book of Revelation we read about a very special people around the throne of God.

"Then I saw the Lamb standing on Mount Zion, and with him were 144,000 who had his name and his Father's name written on their foreheads. And I heard a sound from heaven like the roaring of a great waterfall or the rolling of mighty thunder. It was like the sound of many harpists playing together.

This great choir sang a wonderful new song in front of the throne of God and before the four living beings and the twenty-four elders. And no one could learn this song except those 144,000 who had been redeemed from the earth. For they are spiritually undefiled, pure as virgins, following the Lamb wherever he goes. They have been purchased from among the people on the earth as a special offering to God and to the Lamb. No falsehood can be charged against them; they are blameless." Rev. 14:1-5.

For centuries Christians have been debating as to who might belong to this select group, and the resulting concepts certainly are varied. Today I would like to suggest some insights concerning this group that perhaps you have not previously considered.

Let us begin by gleaning a few pertinent facts from the above text.

1. They are from earth, having been purchased by the Lamb.

2. They are so special that they form an honor guard to accompany the Lamb wherever he goes.

3. Most of the multitudes that inhabit heaven will have been redeemed from the grave or from death; the 144,000 are redeemed directly "from the earth." I believe they are a group translated without seeing death.

4. They are "spiritually undefiled, pure as virgins . . . No falsehood can be charged against them. They are blameless." Only Jesus was spiritually undefiled from birth; all others have been corrupted through sin. But this text talks of the 144,000's virginity, as though they had been devoid of sin from birth. That must point to some unique time of purification in their lives, something that completely canceled out their past record. We are speaking of something beyond the mere imputation of righteousness. More on this later.

5. Their distinguishing mark is the name of the Father and the Son written on the forehead. I believe this means they accepted into their life the character of the Godhead in some unique way.

6. They comprise a great choir singing a wonderful new song that no one else is able to learn. The reason is that this is a song of experience, and only they have lived their particular experience. Having been redeemed from the earth, it was there that they had the unique experience that set them apart from all others.

7. That experience on earth had to do with their spirituality. They are "spiritually undefiled" or holy in some way that cannot be applied to anyone else in the human race.

Now that we've established the honored position of the 144,000 in heaven, let's look back to earth to determine what made them such a special group.

The 144,000 Determined

Revelation chapter seven is a parenthetical interlude to the recording of the seven seals outlined in chapters six and eight.

"Then I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds from blowing upon the earth. Not a leaf rustled in the trees, and the sea became as smooth as glass. And I saw another angel coming from the east, carrying the seal of the living God. And he shouted out to those four angels who had been given power to injure land and sea, 'Wait! Don't hurt the land or the sea or the trees until we have placed the seal of God on the foreheads of his servants.'

"And I heard how many were marked with the seal of God. There were 144,000 who were sealed from all the tribes of Israel:
from Judah.....12,000 from Reuben.....12,000 from Gad.....12,000 from Asher.....12,000 from Naphtali.....12,000 from Manasseh.....12,000 from Simeon.....12,000 from Levi.....12,000 from Issachar.....12,000 from Zebulun.....12,000 from Joseph.....12,000 from Benjamin.....12,000"
Rev. 7:1-8

Before we examine the above text in detail, let's note the abrupt change of focus that begins with the very next verse.

"After this I saw a vast crowd, too great to count, from every nation and tribe and people and language, standing in front of the throne and before the Lamb. They were clothed in white and held palm branches in their hands. And they were shouting with a mighty shout, 'Salvation comes from our God on the throne and from the Lamb!'" Vs. 9, 10.

Many Christians worship a tiny God. They acknowledge that the Creator's original plan was for earth to be the eternal dwelling place of happy, healthy, and holy human beings. But since the devil came in to derail that plan, they overestimate his prowess. They believe that eventually God will win--but just barely. The home of the redeemed largely will be a vacuum with only a modest few people rattling around.

That is not the picture painted by the above text. I'm glad there is going to be a "vast crowd, too great to count" around the throne. The reason so many have a faulty concept of the redeemed is that they have misunderstood the dynamics of salvation. I talk of that matter in detail in my book THE FINAL TEST--For the Final Generation in the chapter titled "God is Going to Win Big!" There you will find reason for a hope of salvation for yourself, your loved ones, and friends, that may be much greater than what you dared believe before.

Now let's direct our attention back to verses one through eight, dealing specifically with the 144,000. The fact that they are set apart in opening this chapter indicates once again what a unique and special group they are.

They Are Israelites

Let's think about the composition of the 144,000; they are from "all the tribes of Israel." First of all, the number has to be symbolic rather than a literal number. To think otherwise is to accuse God of being arbitrary about our salvation. I believe one of the most diabolic teachings ever is that God is behind some great cosmic game of charades, that some are determined from birth to be eternally saved, and others pre-selected to burn.

I believe Joshua spoke for God when he said:

"Honor the Lord and serve him wholeheartedly . . . But if you are unwilling to serve the Lord, then choose today whom you will serve . . . As for me and my family, we will serve the Lord." Josh. 24:14, 15.

Those who gain eternal life at last will be those who deliberately chose the wonderful salvation offered through Jesus Christ.

But here in the last book of the New Testament, why are we dealing with the ancient tribes of Israel found the Old Testament? I offer a full explanation in the chapter of THE FINAL TEST titled "Who is Israel Today?" Here, I'll deal with the matter only briefly.

The Fate of Israel as a People was Conditional

I don't comprehend what part of the little word "if" is so hard for people to understand, but millions do just that. God made very clear to Israel what their choices would be.

"Be careful to obey all the commands I give you; show love to the Lord your God by walking in his ways and clinging to him. Then the Lord will drive out all the nations in your land, though they are much greater and stronger than you. Wherever you set your feet, the land will be yours. Your frontiers will stretch from the wilderness in the south to Lebanon in the north, and from the Euphrates River in the east to the Mediterranean Sea in the west. No one will be able to stand against you, for the Lord your God will send fear and dread ahead of you, as he promised you, wherever you go in the whole land.

"Today I am giving you the choice between a blessing and a curse! You will be blessed if you obey the commands of the Lord your God that I am giving you today. You will receive a curse if you reject the commands of the Lord your God and turn from his way by worshiping foreign gods." Deut. 11:22-28.

The Old Testament again and again tells how Israel refused to obey the commands of God, and in so doing they chose his cursing instead of his blessing. Eventually the Lord had to give them up as a people.

"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, the city that kills the prophets and stones God's messengers! How often I have wanted to gather your children together as a hen protects her chicks beneath her wings, but you wouldn't let me. And now look, your house is left to you, empty and desolate." Matt. 23:37, 38.

When the veil of the temple was rent at Christ's death upon the cross, the Jewish nation's privileged status with God ended.

"Therefore I tell you that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you and given to a people who will produce its fruit." Matt. 21:43.

The kingdom was taken from literal Israel, and given to a new nation, the church of Jesus Christ.

"You are not a real Jew just because you were born of Jewish parents or because you have gone through the Jewish initiation ceremony of circumcision. No, a real Jew is anyone whose heart is right with God. For God is not looking for those who cut their bodies in actual body circumcision, but he is looking for those with changed hearts and minds. Rom 2:28, 29.

"Now that we are Christ's we are the true descendants of Abraham, and all of God's promises to him belong to us. Gal. 3:29.

Peter also bore this testimony when he wrote to fellow Christians:

"You are a chosen people, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people belonging to God, that you may declare the praises of him who called you out of darkness into his wonderful light. Once you were not a people, but now you are the people of God." 1 Peter 2:9, 10.

Now anyone who serves the Lord is an Israelite, whether Jew or Gentile by race. My Jewish brother can stand before God's throne in the same manner as I do----a sinner saved by grace.

"Now all of us, both Jews and Gentiles, may come to the Father through the same Holy Spirit because of what Christ has done for us. Eph. 2:16-22.

I trust the Bible verses we have quoted make it clear that the 144,000 of Revelation seven represent the spiritual Israel of God today, rather than the literal ancient tribes of Israel. The 144,000 are a very special, last-day group of Lamb followers, whether Jew or Gentile by birth.

The fact that there are 12,000 "from each tribe" simply points out, symbolically, that this select group is made up of people from every nation, race, language, or station in life. Now let's note how the 144,000 are selected.

Selecting the 144,000

Here we begin the most important part of our study, one that I believe has special import for those of us alive just now. Perhaps it would be well to repeat these few verses.

"Then I saw four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds from blowing upon the earth. Not a leaf rustled in the trees, and the sea became as smooth as glass. And I saw another angel coming from the east, carrying the seal of the living God. And he shouted out to those four angels who had been given power to injure land and sea, 'Wait! Don't hurt the land or the sea or the trees until we have placed the seal of God on the foreheads of his servants.'"
Rev. 7:1-3.

Since these verses have to do with angel activity, I also would like to refer to some angel doings in another place.

"Then the sixth angel blew his trumpet, and I heard a voice speaking from the four horns of the gold altar that stands in the presence of God. And the voice spoke to the sixth angel who held the trumpet: 'Release the four angels who are bound at the great Euphrates River.' And the four angels who had been prepared for this hour and day and month and year were turned loose to kill one-third of all the people on earth." Rev. 9:13-15.

I am really concerned when I hear people referring to terrible natural catastrophes as "acts of God." This is naive blasphemy. It is the devil who has a murderous heart, not the Father who gave his Son to die for our sins. It is Satan, the prince of the power of the air, who takes great joy in snuffing out the lives of innocent victims. Except for the restraining hand of God, the devil would have completely wiped out the human race long, long ago.

When we hear the word "angel," we usually think of those holy beings who do the work of God. However, when Satan was cast out of heaven he took with him a large number of powerful angel beings who live only to do his evil bidding. Let us keep in focus the two invisible warring factions of the great controversy between the forces of light and the forces of darkness.

I believe that in the last text quoted we see a mighty angel of God (in heaven) holding back four mighty angels of Satan (on earth). The latter are impatiently waiting their release so they can inflict unimaginable, unprecedented death upon mankind.

Note that these evil angel leaders are bound "at the great Euphrates River." I don't want to digress to deal with this fact in any detail, but it certainly is of interest in passing. The Euphrates River runs through the heart of Iraq, and that is where the attention of the world is drawn today. It is here that the Garden of Eden was located, and where the great rebellion of the Tower of Babel took place. Should we be surprised if this area also plays a heavy role in the closing events of mankind?

Along with many others, I sense that for some time humanity has been experiencing a God-induced holding pattern--and I believe that is what has just been described in our text. Thinking people know that certain catastrophic events are certain to take place, but somehow they seem to be overdue. There is no obvious reason why these anticipated calamities haven't already occurred.

The real question then is, "When will God allow the gates of hell to open wider than ever before? What is God waiting for?" The answer is found in the beginning of Revelation seven quoted above.

The Why of the Holding Pattern

We begin with a vision of four angels standing at the four corners of the earth, holding back the four winds from blowing upon the earth. Here we note a divinely determined holding time. Again, I believe we are living in that moment right now. See how it is depicted.

"Not a leaf rustled in the trees, and the sea became as smooth as glass." Rev. 7:1.

It may seem that with all that is taking place today this description is overdone. However, compared with what will take place when the winds are released, it is acceptable. We certainly have many Christians today who are in the "peace and safety" mode.

"Winds" in the Bible often portray significant devastation, and that is the case in the book of Revelation.

Since the four angels stand at the four corners of the earth, we know that final events will involve every part of the world. These angels have been given power to injure "land and sea," and the "trees." The words land and sea signify that every force of nature will be unleashed. The word "trees" in the Word of God sometimes is used to depict people, and I think that usage can be applied here. All humanity will be involved.

As I write these words, the body count for the great tsunami that struck Asia and Africa is still rising. That terrible catastrophe should be taken as merely a preview of events to come. The major winds are still being held back. When they converge from all four points of the compass, one can only imagine the turmoil that will result.

We read that the four angels in Revelation 9:15 are intent on murdering millions of members of the human race, which would imply they are evil angels. What we see here in Revelation 7, therefore, may be one powerful angel of God holding back the destructive might of four angels from the forces of darkness.

The four angels "had been given power to injure," and they are eager to be about their killing, but the command from the godly messenger is "Wait! Until . . ." Something vital must be accomplished before the destruction begins.

The Mark of the Beast

From our reading of Revelation we determine that every person on earth will be sorted into one of two groups; the first will be identified with a "mark" and the latter with a "seal." First the mark. In Revelation 14 an angel of God delivers a solemn warning.

"If any man worship the beast and his image, and receive his mark in his forehead, or in his hand, the same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God." Rev. 14:9, 10.

We certainly don't want to experience the wrath of God, so it is all-important that we do not receive the "mark" that incurs his wrath.

As with so much of Revelation, this mark is symbolic in nature. Forget the fanciful suggestions that it might be some kind of tattoo, or implanted electronic chip. It is more than just skin deep. This mark is willingly accepting into one's soul the very nature or imprint of the character of Satan.

It is important to note that it doesn't make any difference whether this mark is received in the forehead or in the hand. In other words, it is immaterial whether it is a heartfelt acceptance, or merely going along in order to avoid apparent difficulty. Whatever is gained by temporarily sidestepping some earthly trouble, can hardly be compared to the resulting wrath of God.

So the differentiation between the forehead or the hand may be a matter of deliberate choice or simply reception by default. The devil is not going to be picky. What I mean by that will soon be evident.

The Seal of the Living God

Ezekiel saw the glory of the God of Israel appearing from the east, and it is from the east that this commanding angel of Revelation seven appears. He is on a mission, and in his hand he carries "the seal of the living God."

I believe that to take the seal of God is to receive into our spirit the very imprint of the nature or character of Christ. It is a process that begins with accepting Christ as our personal Savior, and it is the indwelling Holy Spirit that makes identification with the divine a reality.

"Grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption." Eph. 4:30.

So to receive the seal of God is to allow the Holy Spirit to direct our inner spirit. Another translation says:

"Do not bring sorrow to God's Holy Spirit by the way you live. Remember, he is the one who has identified you as his own, guaranteeing that you will be saved on the day of redemption." Eph. 4:30.

While the Holy Spirit is our "guarantee" of redemption, this is not an endorsement of the "once saved, always saved" teaching.

"With great power gave the apostles witness of the resurrection of the Lord Jesus: and great grace was upon them all." Acts 4:33.

In spite of their saving relationship with Christ, some of those early believers fell away from grace by deliberately making wrong choices. Ananias and his wife were among those who did so.

"Then Peter said, 'Ananias, why has Satan filled your heart? You lied to the Holy Spirit, and you kept some of the money for yourself . . .' As soon as Ananias heard these words, he fell to the floor and died." Acts. 5:3, 5.

Our salvation in Christ is based on a continuing walk with him. That is why Paul writes:

"It is God who gives us, along with you, the ability to stand firm for Christ. He has commissioned us, and he has identified us as his own by placing the Holy Spirit in our hearts as the first installment of everything he will give us." 2 Corin. 1:21, 22.

Once we have made our commitment to Christ, we need to "stand firm" in him through the power of the Holy Spirit. God has identified us as his own, and the placement of the Holy Spirit in our lives is the "first installment" of all that will become our eternal possession if we so desire.

So now, let's read about the final installment of our eternal life in Christ!

The Final Sealing

Our text in Revelation seven describes that wonderful sealing for eternity.

"And I saw another angel coming from the east, carrying the seal of the living God. And he shouted out to those four angels who had been given power to injure land and sea, 'Wait! Don't hurt the land or the sea or the trees until we have placed the seal of God on the foreheads of his servants.'" Rev. 7:1-3.

This sealing in Revelation seven is the "final installment" of the work of the Holy Spirit in the lives of those who have so chosen. I believe it is described by John in the last book of the Bible. Note that it is an event that takes place in the end of time shortly before the return of Christ. The angel instructed John:

"Do not seal up the prophetic words you have written, for the time is near. Let the one who is doing wrong continue to do wrong; the one who is vile, continue to be vile; the one who is good, continue to do good; and the one who is holy, continue in holiness.

"'See, I am coming soon, and my reward is with me, to repay all according to their deeds. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the First and the Last, the Beginning and the End.'" Rev. 22:10-13.

I'm not sure just how this finally sealed life operates in the Spirit, but it is what is bestowed on the 144,000. All others receive the mark of the beast, as we shall soon see.

Now let's be specific about who constitutes the 144,000. Could we possibly become members of that select group?

The Human Race Divided

This concluding section largely is taken from the final chapter of my book THE FINAL TEST--For the Final Generation.

Jesus noted what thought permeates the mind of an unfaithful servant.

"My master won't be back for awhile." Matt. 24:48.

That attitude certainly is descriptive of most Christians today. It is unusual to find a church member who really believes that the return of the Lord is imminent.

I think the main reason for that attitude is due to arrogance. We set up our little boundaries for Almighty God, and then dare tell him what he can and cannot do. We know his coming has to be some distance in the future because:

* Everyone on earth deserves a series of Bible studies--by our own denomination of course.
* Every village on earth must have at least one Christian church.
* Every ethnic or language group in the world must have a "Christian presence."
* Our interpretation of biblical prophecies demands a certain passage of time.
* Many are praying for a delay of the Lord's return until all their relatives are safely in the Christian fold.

And the list goes on. No matter when Christ returns he'll be interrupting the unfinished business of millions. But God is going to short-circuit our little end-time plans.

"He will finish the work and cut it short in righteousness, because the Lord will make a short work upon the earth." Rom. 9:28.

Does anyone dare challenge God, and say that he can't finish his own work if he so chooses? The Bible declares he plans to do just that. Let's just be sure we don't get in his way.

We've been dawdling around for 2,000 years without getting the job done. But that doesn't mean it will take God several millenniums once he sets his mind to the task. When omnipotent deity says "short," we'd do well to consider he might mean just what he says. I'd like to suggest that God's idea of short will be breathtakingly brief.

God isn't safely contained in our little denominational boxes; he's on the loose. Jesus is the Lion of the Tribe of Judah, and he isn't a tame lion. Look out!

The Final Harvest

The church is always dreaming of mounting a massive global evangelistic thrust--someday. The sealing, however, is a sovereign act of God through the Holy Spirit, devoid of any human instrumentality. God is going to finish his own work in his own way; we must begin to consider the harvest in a new light.

To fully comprehend what's going to take place, we must understand that the generation that actually sees Christ return will--by that very fact--differ from any other generation in history. This time we can't, as we have previously, determine what to expect in the present or future by looking at the past. Ours will be a unique situation never experienced by others. I say "ours" because I'm firmly convinced that the generation now living is the one that will see the Second Coming.

Notice Paul's admonition when speaking to the people of Athens.

"God overlooked people's former ignorance about these things, but now he commands everyone everywhere to turn away from idols and turn to him. For he has set a day for judging the world with justice by the man he has appointed, and he proved to everyone who this is by raising him from the dead." Acts 17:30, 31.

God has "winked" at people's ignorance for millenniums, but such behavior won't be acceptable in the last generation. A final determination must be based on knowledge, not ignorance.

Matthew portrays the most solemn event ever involving the human race. Note the first thing Christ does upon his return to earth.
"But when the Son of Man comes in his glory, and all the angels with him, then he will sit upon his glorious throne. All the nations will be gathered in his presence, and he will separate them as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats. He will place the sheep at his right hand and the goats at his left. Then the King will say to those on the right, 'Come, you who are blessed by my Father, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you from the foundation of the world. For I was hungry, and you fed me. I was thirsty, and you gave me drink. I was a stranger, and you invited me into your home. I was naked, and you gave me clothing. I was sick, and you care for me. I was in prison, and you visited me.'

"Then these righteous ones will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry and feed you? Or thirsty and give you something to drink? Or a stranger and show you hospitality? Or naked and give you clothing? When did we ever see you sick or in prison, and visit you?' And the King will tell them, 'I assure you, when you did it to one of the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were doing it to me!'

"Then the King will turn to those on the left and say, 'Away with you, you cursed ones, into the eternal fire prepared for the Devil and his demons! For I was hungry, and you didn't feed me. I was thirsty, and you didn't give me anything to drink. I was a stranger, and you didn't invite me into your home. I was naked, and you gave me no clothing. I was sick and in prison, and you didn't visit me.'

"Then they will reply, 'Lord, when did we ever see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison, and not help you?' And he will answer, 'I assure you, when you refused to help the least of these my brothers and sisters, you were refusing to help me.' And they will go away into eternal punishment, but the righteous will go into eternal life." Matt.

To some, this sorting process may sound like salvation by works. But we've already learned that our works are merely the visible outgrowth of what we really are. It's the relationship that Christ is recognizing.

"Not all people who sound religious are really godly. They refer to me as 'Lord,' but they still won't enter the Kingdom of Heaven. The decisive issue is whether they obey my Father in heaven. On judgment day many will tell me, 'Lord, Lord, we prophesied in your name and cast out demons in your name and performed many miracles in your name.' But I will reply, 'I never knew you. Go away; the things you did were unauthorized.'" Matt. 7:21-23.

These professed Christians have done mighty works in the name of the Lord; they consider themselves among his favorites. What a chill will strike their hearts when Jesus says sadly, "I don't even know you."

The Separating Factor, the Seal of God, and the 144,000

We see that when the Lord returns, the fate of each member of the final generation already has been determined. The physical process of separating them into two eternal camps is a mere formality.

We must then ask, how was the outcome determined? Did God flip a celestial coin? Was there a heavenly lottery to decide who gets the mansions? No, a just God will have allowed each person to make his own unhampered decision.

What a solemn affair! No two of earth's billions of people are alike. There are so many factors to consider: place of birth, heredity, health, family rapport, exposure to Scripture, intelligence, and cultural milieu. Only an all-wise God would know how to give each member of the last generation a fair opportunity.

For this process to be effective, it will be necessary to gain the full and undivided attention of each living person. With all the distractions and barriers in place, how can that ever be? It's certain that no mortal, or combination of mortals, could accomplish such a thing. It is a God-sized task.

The God I worship can do anything he wants. He can, anytime he so desires, demand the immediate and total attention of every person on earth. This can be accomplished through the ministry of the Holy Spirit, who is everywhere present.

Some people seem so loosely put together that no one can get their attention, but this time even they will be perfectly focused. What will the Father say to each of us.? I don't know, except that it will be such a full revelation of the Son that, regardless of experience, we'll be able to make an informed and intelligent choice.

But won't such a powerful revelation so stun people that they automatically will choose the Lord? No, in the midst of blinding light, Lucifer didn't. Some of the Pharisees were convicted that Jesus was the Son of God, and yet they turned away. Free choice is just that, free choice.

We can't fully comprehend something of such magnitude, but we can be sure it will work out so that each one will have had a just and fair opportunity to spend eternity with God.

From our study perhaps we can conclude the following:

CONCLUSION

1. Today the world is in the holding pattern of Rev. 7:1-8.
2. The holding is not likely to last much longer, only until the sealing of the 144,000 is accomplished.
3. Soon the Holy Spirit will interact with each person living on earth to bring about a decision for eternity.
4. Some will accept God's final offer and be sealed for eternity.

5. To refuse the sealing will be to accept the mark of the beast.
6. Then the powers of darkness will be given almost unbridled control; only the 144,000 will be safe from the devil's onslaught.
7. The destruction will be so vast that Christ will intervene to keep the human race from being wiped out.
8. The 144,000 assume an honorary position to accompany the Lamb wherever he goes.
9. You and I will be given an opportunity to be part of the 144,000.

Where Have The Pillars Gone?

Stephen Hanson

Oct. 29, 2005

James, Peter and John, those reputed to be pillars, gave me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship when they recognized the grace given to me. Galatians 2.9

In him the whole building is joined together and rises to become a holy temple in the Lord. Ephesians 2:21

"This is the day. This is the day to come forth as pillars in my kingdom. For too long the building has been without support. In ancient times there have been pillars in many of the structures that have been built. They performed a necessary function, but I tell you that over the centuries many of the structures have changed. Man decided that a different format was needed. They decided that no longer were pillars needed. They replaced them with walls. I tell you that the original design of my building has gone long enough without them. I tell you that for too long pastors and teachers have taken on the responsibilities of apostles and prophets. Stay with the function that I've called you to do. And then, a glorious building will rise in the last days."

"I tell you that truly, I am the Chief Cornerstone, but where have I been placed in your building? Am I just a marker that marks the spot? Truly, there are places where you have allowed Me to be that Chief Cornerstone, but I tell you, the stones and the materials of the building are deteriorating. Let Me polish the stones so that again, it will be a healthy building. Then my building will rise and will be what it is called to be."

Whirling Wheels

Catharina Schouten and Dorine Visser:

Netherlands
My sister in faith Dorine and I were independently reminded of the whirling wheels.

Thus saith the Lord:
Behold, the whirling wheels!

"This is the season of the turnabout! Teshuva!

I am leading My children to the birth of maturity!
Walls are being pulled down, manmade structures will be no more and at last I will be able to blow with the mighty wind of My Spirit!

Restoration!

Restoration I will bring to those who really, truly trust Me!
I will bedew them with My Spirit!
My glory will be over them!
They will be like whirlwheels! In these wheels I will reveal Myself as the Lion of Judah, the Redeemer, the I AM!
They will go wherever I send them, without even once deviating from their path!
They will rightly divide the word of truth! Angels will gird up their loins and they will be seen arising from the four corners of the world to magnify MY NAME and announce MYsoon Return!"

Catharina Schouten.

Next section by Dorine Visser:

It is good to see how the Lord miraculously supplies the materials of the building (or at least shows them form afar) and how He builds in His own inimitable way. In quietness, by taking refuge in Jehovah, waiting and watching, we allow Him the room to build. Watching it happening, giving thanks and prayerfully coaching side by side with the Spirit – such is our rightful posture.
As slowly as it may seem to our five senses that only register how much time it takes the building to become visible in our factual reality, as quickly is God working with His angels in the Spirit realm, building His house with meticulous care, with unsurpassable wisdom and eye for each detail. The real building bricks, the stones that can be laid in the perfect spot with the mortar of His Love, by the trowel (His Hand) of Grace, are those who willingly yield to Him Who leads, guides, molds, sends and puts them into position! More and more building stones make themselves available to be made ready for use by way of His divine procedure. Still it is a matter of time to see which stone will be fit in where, in His timing. It is a mighty scene to behold, an awesome, fascinating work of Him, a privilege to experience.

Seven years have gone by since Solomon was instructed "to build a house for the sanctuary, to be strong, and do it" (1 Chronicles 28) and already the building activitities have commenced.

God works in accelerated speed. In the spirit I was once again transported on His Glory Wagon (Ezechiel) and it felt to me that I was allowed to stand in the back of this holy vehicle with in my hand an immense white flag.
The Glory Wagon, made up of heavenly bodies…, wheels composed of angels – Awesome!
And they NEVER ride backwards! They turn around to subsequently head off in the opposite direction, but they ALWAYS move forwards: such an encouragement to us !!!
I sense that this glory wagon shoots like a rocket through the spiritual realm. There where darkness reigns, the wagon only briefly touches the line of darkness to subsequently turn around and shoot further until the next obstacle. So it goes on and on and along the way more and more space is being created by and for the Holy Spirit.
Sometimes I am granted the privilege to see very clearly how the networks lie branched out in the spiritual dimension, the golden lines just as well as the dark lines with in between a more or less bright haze or atmosphere.
Each line that is being touched by the glory wagon instantly dissolves. In other words, every touch of the wheels makes more room for the Holy Spirit!

Important footnote to the Whirling Wheels word of November 22nd

A loving sister in the Lord alerted us to a difference between the wagon as described by Dorine Visser and the passage of the book Ezekiel that is referred to in the same word.

Thanks to our sister we are able to add the following footnote:

2 Timothy 2:24 (I want to have a teachable spirit)
Addition to the word : The Whirling Wheels.

Dorine wants to let you know the following:

I am learning to step out in the things that the Lord puts on my heart. I do my best to give an accurate description of what I am allowed to see and receive in the spirit. I must say that this is not always an easy thing to do when you are confronted with such an abundance of impressions…..
I have described my dream with much enthusiasm and it has never been my intention to put my dream/vision on the same footing as the book of Ezekiel, but all the same it did match on a number of points…..
Nevertheless, when you go through the book of Ezekiel, you will find similarities as well as differences with my description of the glory wagon on which I stood (i.e. saw myself standing)
Once again: I am learning to interpret, put to words and share the things that I see and receive in the spirit and there is still a road to travel, a learning process...

I want to thank my sister for pointing out some inconsistencies. I see this as a matter of stepping out together as one Body. The one has a word, the other a vision and together we get to the point of what the Lord is saying about BEING ONE BODY WITH MANY MEMBERS…

In closing I (Catharina) would like to add the following: we know in part, and we prophesy in part (1 Corinthians 13:9)
We need one another. We need to submit to this learning process, with a servant's attitude, 'in lowliness of mind each counting other better than himself' (Philippians 2:3)
Esther was being nourished and prepared before she was allowed to appear before the King....

The Lord instructs me as to the words I should share. Often these messages somehow focus on the theme of Teshuva (TURNABOUT), pertaining to a return to God as well as to situations that are being turned around for the good by the grace of the Lord.

The whirling wheels as described in Ezekiel are actually meant to destroy....
The word the Lord reminded me of in this connection is as follows: He is turning the destruction around into blessing in order to employ us as His whirling wheels.... girded by Him, like Eagles, floating along on the thermal of His Spirit, eagle - eyed whirling wheels through which He reveals Himself as the Lion of Judah. Whirling wheels, girded about by angels…

The sister who pointed out the difference between Dorine's description of the glory wagon and what is written in Ezekiel, wanted to serve us and help us...
To those who wish to see this in a different light and feel inclined to foster judgmental thoughts on this matter I would like to say:
Please read the following word that the Heavenly Father reminded me of…

"Teach one another in an attitude of grace, and not out of a critical spirit.
Do not despise the small beginnings, neither in ministries nor in the gifts that I bestow on My children,
Do not condemn, but build up one another and do not be held back by anything whatsoever!
Surely I say to you that I Am restoring My Body and you must know that this will be accompanied by labour pains.*
Do not give up! He is faithful that promised!"

Zachariah 4:10 "Who hath despised the day of small things?......"
1 Kings 18:44 "Make ready thy chariot, and get thee down, that the rain stop thee not."

Concluding statement

I consider myself responsible for whatever is being sent out via the Teshuva Site.
If someone has to be blamed for inaccuracies at all, then the culprit would have to be myself.
Maybe I could have added a footnote before this Whirl Wheels Word was being sent anyway.

In this connection I would like to send out the following invitation:
If you have anything on your heart regarding us – a point of concern, a word of advice or an admonition – then please don't hesitate to phone, mail or write me!

I am open for teaching and admonition and anything whatsoever that is necessary for me to be more and more conformed to His image.
Please feel free to pray for and with me, if you deem it necessary. After all we are knit together in Him.

Together we are learning to understand Him, to step out, to become ever more mature....
Exhortation to my understanding is to build up and assist one another!

A sister in the Lord and a serving child of the Heavenly Father,

With kind regards,
Catharina Schouten

What Have We Learned In 2008

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

December 3, 2008

> Mark 3:25 And if a house be divided against itself, that house cannot stand.

Just in case we didn't realize it before, we learned that we are a House Divided Against Itself.

This applies to America, Israel and to the Church as a whole, world wide.

If you paid any attention to the controversy of the Lakeland Outpouring, Political strife in Israel, or the American Electoral Process, this should be clear.

God's people are deeply divided. And we are divided in multiple ways. Doctrinal divisions, sects and denominations, political aims, culture and race.

We are not the church that Jesus is building. We are not walking in the spirit of holiness. We are not the kingdom of God that we claim to be. We are not come into unity; Nor are we dwelling on Mt. Zion under a new covenant of grace.

We are saying to ourselves, I am rich, and increased with goods, and have need of nothing; but really we are wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked: [Revelation 3:17]

That's what we have learned this year, right?

Why You Can't Ever Agree

Bill Somers

In my early years as a Christian, I heard the following challenge during a bible discussion. "If the bible says that the Holy Spirit will lead you into all truth, and you people claim to have the Holy Spirit, why is it that you can't ever agree on anything?"

Now this question, however critical in spirit, does point out a real problem, division and disagreement in the church. It also reflects the attitude of the lost world that looks for answers, but finds only hypocrisy in today's Christianity.

You hear people say things like: Well there are so many different bibles, how do you know which translation to believe. Or they say: It all depends on your interpretation, every church teaches something different, so how are you supposed to know who's right?

The scripture reference is this.

> John 16:13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come.

Here we have a promise in the bible that tells us the Holy Spirit will lead us into all truth and show us things to come.

And yet here we have all these pastors, scholars, teachers and prophets all saying something different. What's wrong with this picture?

We hear talk of the simplicity of the gospel so why is the bible so hard to understand.

A clue to an answer is found here in first Corinthians.

> 1Co 2:9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.
> 10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.
> 11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.
> 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.
> 13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
> 14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
> 15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.
> 16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Here God is telling us that man cannot know or learn the meaning of spiritual things i.e. the bible. That is natural man, on his own, cannot. The Holy Spirit knows these things and teaches them to the spiritual man.

So who is the natural man and who is the spiritual man? The natural man is one with out the Holy Spirit to guide him, who must rely on the teaching of man's wisdom. The spiritual man has the Holy Spirit to guide him and is taught by God himself.

To the ordinary person, the bible is long and boring. It's deliberately vague, confusing and open to multiple interpretations.

Some parts are plain and simple, others are seemingly meaningless and some are outright mind boggling. Yet in it, God is telling us some interesting things about how to approach his Word.

> 2Ti 3:16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

I like to break this down and analyze it this way.

A. All scripture is given by inspiration of God. This inspiration is the Holy Spirit. The words spirit and inspiration are closely related. So we ask, given to whom?

Well first off, it's given by inspiration to the writer of the book, Moses, Jeremiah, Malachi, John or whomever. Secondly it's given by inspiration to the reader. That is, you and I are given insight into the meaning and application by God and not man's wisdom. [You can see here that even the plain and simple parts are open to multiple interpretations.]

B. All scripture is profitable [for various uses]. This tells me that the entire bible has some meaning, even the boring and confusing parts. But that we need to hear from the Spirit to understand that meaning.

Now this brings me back to our original question.

> "If the bible says that the Holy Spirit will lead you into all truth, and you people claim to have the Holy Spirit, why is it that you can't ever agree on anything?"

My first answer to this has always been that it takes time. Leading someone into the truth is a process. It won't happen all at once. In Isaiah 28 we read:

> Isa 28:9 Whom shall he teach knowledge? and whom shall he make to understand doctrine? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.
> 10 For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

Here we are speaking about teaching knowledge and understanding doctrine and it is the Lord doing the teaching. First he says in effect, that you have to be past the baby stage where the word is likened to milk.

> 1Pe 2:2 As newborn babes, desire the sincere milk of the word, that ye may grow thereby:

The milk of the word is those plain and simple parts that are easy to understand and get you going on your way to knowing the Lord. The meat comes later with some maturity.

> Heb 5:12 For when for the time ye ought to be teachers, ye have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and are become such as have need of milk, and not of strong meat.
> 13 For every one that useth milk is unskilful in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.
> 14 But strong meat belongeth to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

And in Isaiah, God is telling us that it has to come a little at a time. That deeper knowledge of him and his word comes gradually. It is built up a little at a time, each revelation you get can be the foundation of a further revelation to come.

So what we're saying here is that the Spirit does not lead us into all truth all at once, but gradually. Now that's pretty clear but it still does not answer the question of why is it that you can't ever agree on anything?

We said earlier that scripture is given by inspiration to the reader [or listener]. This means that a certain understanding is granted by the Spirit of God to the conscientious student of his Word. Then when this student begins to teach others what he has learned, the Spirit is needed to allow the others to also understand. And here comes a problem.

What one person has learned line by line may not always be received by another. There are often attitudes and traditions and doctrines standing in the way of the one trying to share revelation knowledge.

Secondly what one person learns from the Spirit about the meaning of a portion of scripture may not line up with what another one has learned by the same Spirit because the Lord may reveal differing interpretations and applications of the same scripture. This is to say that not only are there differing interpretations of the same scripture according to 'man's wisdom' but there can often be differing correct interpretations of scripture given by God.

You may recall the famous parable of the blind men and the elephant. Each blind man examined the elephant by his senses of touch and smell and came away with a different report. The thing is that each one was correct in so far as they were able to tell. Yet they could never agree on what the elephant was! They had forgotten something. They forgot they were blind!

The church is in the same position. For we know in part, and we prophesy in part. And we can never agree on anything because we have forgotten something.

If we look back at our original question:

> "If the bible says that the Holy Spirit will lead you into all truth, and you people claim to have the Holy Spirit, why is it that you can't ever agree on anything?"

We can recall that it refers to a certain scripture:

> John 16:13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come.

And in looking carefully at this verse there is an alternate explanation of why is it that you can't ever agree on anything. The verse says when he, the Spirit of truth, is come he will etc. This is your basic if, then statement. If and when the Spirit is come, then such and such will take place. For example: If the light is green you can go; this is a basic if, then statement. So if you can't go, then clearly the light is not green yet! Likewise if we can't ever agree on the truth, then the Spirit has not yet come! Now some might get upset at this conclusion but it should be obvious. And it's clearly obvious to an unbelieving world.

This is what the church has forgotten. This passage from first Corinthians talks about the same problem and uses terms like when, and now and then to indicate a before and after condition.

> 1Co 13:9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
> 10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
> 11 When I was a child, I spake as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but > when I became a man, I put away childish things.*

> 12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.

We have forgotten that we are still in the before stage of this transition. Everyone is claiming to have the Holy Spirit but show me the money!

We have forgotten that what Holy Spirit we have is only a partial fulfillment of the promise. In my article on the Feast of Tabernacles I discussed this partial fulfillment and gave four arguments to illustrate what I meant. I am going to repeat them here because of their importance. They are the analysis of fulfilled prophecy in Acts 2, the word picture of tongues of fire, the word study on baptism, illustrated by the pickle recipe, and the word study on earnest of the spirit.

Acts Chapter 2
In the second chapter of Acts, the Holy Spirit comes upon the assembled group of disciples.

> Ac 2:1 And when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.
> 2 And suddenly there came a sound from heaven as of a rushing mighty wind, and it filled all the house where they were sitting.
> 3 And there appeared unto them cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them.

This is generally regarded as the beginning of the church, the giving of the Spirit and the start of the New Covenant. This is partly true. It was a partial fulfillment for the building of the church, a partial fulfillment of the giving of the Holy Spirit, and a partial fulfillment of the New Covenant. These three ideas here are all roughly synonymous ways of looking at the same thing.

Verse 1 above says "they were all with one accord in one place." The idea here is unity of the brethren. So clearly, this is also partial fulfilling of Psalms 133, which speaks of the End time revival in terms of the anointing coming upon the head and body of Aaron. It typifies the proper assembly of the head and body of Christ, for Jesus is our High Priest and in him is our place of unity. There we see the blessing come. That blessing is the Spirit, the presence and glory of God, life eternal. It is dwelling in the secret place of the most high as in Psalms 91, who is the way, the truth and the life.

> Ps 133:1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
> 2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;
> 3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

In The Last Days
We said the giving of the Holy Spirit in Acts 2 is a partial fulfillment. Peter in his sermon that day makes mention of the prophecy of Joel. He is telling the people that what they are experiencing that day is a fulfillment of Joel's prophecy.

> Ac 2:14 But Peter, standing up with the eleven, lifted up his voice, and said unto them, Ye men of Judaea, and all ye that dwell at Jerusalem, be this known unto you, and hearken to my words:
> 15 For these are not drunken, as ye suppose, seeing it is but the third hour of the day.
> 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;
> 17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
> 18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; > and they shall prophesy:

This is a reference to Joel Chapter 2:28-29.

We know it's only a partial fulfillment because the rest of what Joel has to say there still awaits fulfillment in the last days. Look at verses 30-31.

> Joel 30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.
> 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

A Measure of the Spirit

The description of the coming of the Holy Spirit as cloven tongues like as of fire, and it sat upon each of them also indicates a partial fulfillment. It shows that each one received a measure of the Spirit. The had a small flame rest on them. The complete fulfillment will be intensely greater. It will be the Spirit without measure.

> Heb 12:29 For our God is a consuming fire.

The Pickle Recipe

A good way to explain this comes from a word study on baptism, as we are looking at the baptism of the Holy Spirit.

Some time back I copied the following definitions from the On Line Bible program. This definition of baptism came with a very interesting word study that illustrates what God is about to do in the Church. There are two words closely related to baptism; Bapto and Baptizo.

> Baptizo {bap-tid'-zo}
> 1) to dip repeatedly, to immerse, to submerge (of vessels sunk)
> 2) to cleanse by dipping or submerging, to wash, to make clean with water, to wash one's self, bathe
> Bapto {bap'-to}
> 1) to dip, dip in, immerse
> 2) to dip into dye, to dye, color
> Not to be confused with baptizo. The clearest example that shows the meaning of baptizo is a text from the Greek poet and physician Nicander, who lived about 200 B.C. It is a recipe for making pickles and is helpful because it uses both words. Nicander says that in order to make a pickle, the vegetable should first be 'dipped' (bapto) into boiling water and then 'baptised' (baptizo) in the vinegar solution. Both verbs concern the immersing of vegetables in a solution. But the first is temporary. The second, the act of baptising the vegetable, produces a permanent change.
> When used in the New Testament, this word more often refers to our union and identification with Christ than to our water baptism. E.g. Mark 16:16. 'He that believes and is baptised shall be saved'. Christ is saying that mere intellectual assent is not enough. There must be a union with him, a real change, like the vegetable to the pickle! Bible Study Magazine, James Montgomery Boice, May 1989.

The interesting idea here is that union with Christ is what He requires and when this is real, and not just a positive confession, there will come a real, permanent change in us. Like the vegetable is radically transformed, well so must we be transformed.

All the great moves of God in the past, including the book of Acts, have just been bapto's, temporary changes. The revivals of the past have had long term permanent effects of course but the awesome holiness, the irresistible power of the Lord has only lingered on for short periods.

Even this refreshing called the new wine or the river is just a bapto. A bapto is the ankle deep water of the river. The knee deep and waist deep, the chest deep water is still a bapto. At these levels, you can always get back out of the water. When it gets over your head, it's baptizo. See Ezekiel 47:1-5. When you can no longer go on your own way, it's baptizo. When you have to change from walking to swimming, never to go back it's baptizo. It's a permanent change. It's the kingdom of God come into your life and you entering into the kingdom. It's the manifesting of the sons of God.

Like the pickle is changed, we will take on the texture, the color, the taste and the aroma of the Lord God of Heaven. We will be like Him because we will see Him as He is. The world will forget what we were like before because they will see Jesus in us. That's what tabernacles is pointing us toward.

The Earnest of the Spirit

Another way to approach this is to look at what the scriptures say about the Giving of the Spirit.

In Ephesians, it tells about being sealed by the Holy Spirit using the word earnest.

> Eph 1:13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise, 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.
> Eph 4:30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby ye are sealed unto the day of redemption.

Second Corinthians also mentions the earnest of the Spirit.

> 2Co 1:21 Now he which stablisheth us with you in Christ, and hath anointed us, is God;
> 22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.
> 2Co 5:5 Now he that hath wrought us for the selfsame thing is God, who also hath given unto us the earnest of the Spirit.

So what exactly is an earnest anyway? Strong's lexicon gives this definition:

> Earnest - a pledge, i.e. part of the purchase-money or property given in advance as security for the rest.
> Microsoft Bookshelf [The American Heritage® Dictionary] gives this definition.
> Ear·nest (ûr^{1}nĭst) noun
> 1. Money paid in advance as part payment to bind a contract or bargain.
> 2. A token of something to come; a promise or an assurance.

In other words, an earnest is a down payment. It's only part of the payment. And the early church receiving this partial payment in Acts 2 means that it was a partial fulfillment.

The word for earnest is translated pledge in the Old Testament.

> Ge 38:18 And he said, What pledge shall I give thee? And she said, Thy signet, and thy bracelets, and thy staff that is in thine hand. And he gave it her, and came in unto her, and she conceived by him.

Easton's bible dictionary says this:

> The Spirit is the earnest of the believer's destined inheritance (2 Cor. 1:22; 5:5; Eph. 1:14). The word thus rendered is the same as that rendered "pledge" in Gen. 38:17-20; "indeed, the Hebrew word has simply passed into the Greek and Latin languages, probably through commercial dealings with the Phoenicians, the great trading people of ancient days. Originally it meant no more than a pledge; but in common usage it came to denote that particular kind of pledge which is a part of the full price of an article paid in advance; and as it is joined with the figure of a seal when applied to the Spirit, it seems to be used by Paul in this specific sense." The Spirit's gracious presence and working in believers is a foretaste to them of the blessedness of heaven. God is graciously pleased to give not only pledges but foretastes of future blessedness.

Ephesians 1:14 describes the Holy Spirit as the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession. As we are looking at the earnest meaning pledge or down payment, this tells us that the rest of the payment will come at the time of the redemption of the purchased possession. This is speaking of the redemption of the church by the full outpouring of the Spirit in the last days i.e. the End Times.

> Ac 20:28 Take heed therefore unto yourselves, and to all the flock, over the which the Holy Ghost hath made you overseers, to feed the church of God, which he hath purchased with his own blood

The Promise of the Spirit of Truth

> John 16:13 Howbeit when he, the Spirit of truth, is come, he will guide you into all truth: for he shall not speak of himself; but whatsoever he shall hear, that shall he speak: and he will show you things to come.

The Promised pouring out of the Spirit

> Joe 2:23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.
> 28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
> 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

The Promise of a New Covenant

> Jer 31:31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:
> 32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:
> 33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.
> 34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

This tells us of a new covenant that the Lord intends to make with his people. He will write his law in our hearts. And we shall all know Him. This is part of the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

Here is another description from Jeremiah 32.

> Jer 32:40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

Here we see that this new covenant will make it so that his people will not depart from him. Ezekiel explains it this way:

> Eze 36:26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.
> 27 And I will put my spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes*, and ye shall* keep my judgments*, and do them.*

So here are three promises spoken of in the bible which we have tended to view separately.
The Promise of the Spirit of Truth; The Promised pouring out of the Spirit; and The Promise of a New Covenant
But actually these promises are all speaking about the same thing, just phrasing things differently.

With that in mind, let's approach this question from another direction. We spoke earlier of the natural man and spiritual man. The natural man cannot know the deeper things of God because they are spiritual things and the Spirit of God must reveal them to him. The spiritual man however has ability to know these things because the Spirit leads him into knowledge of the truth. So today's born again Christian, especially those with those who call themselves spirit filled consider themselves spiritual men, able to understand the word. Yet they can't ever agree! They have forgotten something! Isaiah 8 tells us that the word is a sealed book even to the Christian.

> Isa 8:16 ¶ Bind up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.

The testimony or the law are synonyms for the word, and this tells us that it is a sealed book, even among the followers of the Lord.

Consider these verses which speak of a sealed book [the bible].

> Isa 29:11 And the vision of all is become unto you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray thee: and he saith, I cannot; for it is sealed:
> Da 12:4 But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.
> Da 12:9 And he said, Go thy way, Daniel: for the words are closed up and sealed till the time of the end.

The book is sealed till the time of the end, and you can find it in revelation 5 depicted as the book with seven seals.

> Re 5:1 And I saw in the right hand of him that sat on the throne a book written within and on the backside, sealed with seven seals.

So we are saying that the books, that is the books of the bible are sealed till the time of the end. And no wonder they are sealed! Since it requires the Spirit to understand the Bible, it requires the outpouring of the Spirit to unseal the books.

We know that in the end times, the spirit will be poured out and also that the book will be opened in that day. Let's make the obvious connection. We're talking about the same thing here, just using different wording. For now, we know in part and prophesy in part, because we have a part of the spirit. This image of the book in the right hand of him that sat on the throne, a book written within and on the backside, should tell us something similar. The only part of the book that can be read is the 'back side'; the rest is hidden. Likewise we can know only a small portion of the deeper meaning of the bible, without the full pouring out of the Spirit.

Now let's look at this from still another direction. Earlier, in speaking about the gift of the Spirit, we quoted from first Corinthians.

> 1 Co 2:9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.
> 10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.
> 11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.
> 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.
> 13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
> 14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
> 15 But he that is spiritual judgeth all things, yet he himself is judged of no man.
> 16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Now looking at the first two verses of that selection we read:

> 1 Co 2:9 But as it is written, Eye hath not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God hath prepared for them that love him.
> 10 But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

Are we at a place where we can honestly say that God has revealed the things he has prepared for us that love him? Look at the final verse quoted above:

> 16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Are we at a place where we can honestly say that we have the mind of Christ? If not then we must consider this passage of scripture to be unfulfilled. Even though all the verb tenses are past or present, it is written from a future viewpoint. The truths and attitudes expressed here can only come having already experienced the fulfillment of the promise. They apply to the end time church for whom the books are open and the understanding is granted.

Here is another passage which is written in the present tense yet actually speaks of a future occurrence, a promise yet unfulfilled.

> Romans 5:5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.

Once again this brings me back to our original question.

> "If the bible says that the Holy Spirit will lead you into all truth, and you people claim to have the Holy Spirit, why is it that you can't ever agree on anything?"

Have we managed to answer this in any way? We can note that the easiest thing for a Christian to do is find the speck in his brother's eye. We can say that our claim to the Holy Spirit is a bit exaggerated. It's like the juvenile son of a rich man, who only gets a small allowance till he reaches maturity, yet boasts of having the entire fortune at his disposal. If this is the case, there is another claim we need to make, and another fact we need to own up to.

The inability to agree, and the great confusion that results from that is of the nature of Babylon. In fact Babylon means confusion. What we need to own up to is exactly what Daniel prayed when he was in Babylon.

> Daniel 9:8 O Lord, to us belongeth confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against thee.

Who Is Able To Discern The Times And Seasons
Stephen Hanson

Oct. 15, 2005

32 men of Issachar, who understood the times and knew what Israel should do-200 chiefs, with all their relatives under their command; 1 Chronicles 12:31-33.

"I tell you that this is the beginning of the end. When have the winds blown as they have during the last ten years? When have governments toppled and rose again to take another form as they have before? When have families been torn apart as they have? When have wars and rumors of wars occurred? I tell you that the floods have come and the winds have blown. The earth has shook, and it will continue to shake until I return. Will there be a rebuilding of these things? I tell you that everything that can be rebuilt will be temporary. "

"After the onslaught of those days, I will come to rebuild my kingdom. Never again will the earth go through the turmoil that it is going through now again. The enemy will come to power, but he will be defeated. He will arise from the east, and he will persuade many with his smooth words. Woe to those who follow after him."

"But I will bring my people to places of safety. I will snatch them out of the hand of the enemy. I am gathering a great harvest until the end, and I am in the process of bringing that process to an end. For the end of days is at hand. Who is there who has been able to discern the times and seasons? Who is there who would stand upon the walls and warn the people? Behold, I am coming soon. Be warned and be ready for those things that are coming."

Stick To Foundational Issues
Stephen Hanson

Oct. 16, 2005

14Then we will no longer be infants, tossed back and forth by the waves, and blown here and there by every wind of teaching and by the cunning and craftiness of men in their deceitful scheming. Eph. 4

3As I urged you when I went into Macedonia, stay there in Ephesus so that you may command certain men not to teach false doctrines any longer 4nor to devote themselves to myths and endless genealogies. These promote controversies rather than God's work-which is by faith. 5The goal of this command is love, which comes from a pure heart and a good conscience and a sincere faith. 1 Timothy 1:3-5

"I tell you that there are some who scoff at the idea that we are living in the last days. There are some who say that these things are far off into the distant future. I tell you that the future is NOW. I tell you that these are the days that many of my prophets had looked into. They wanted to discern and understand the days that you are now living in. "

"There are many in my church that know and understand that these are the last days. They know and understand these things because they are plainly seen in the events that are taking place around them. But even so, they may not know Me as intimately as they should. While these things are important it is far more important to know Me. Who is there among you who knows Me and yet is preparing the people? "

"I also say that this is a time of great confusion for some within the body of Christ. For there are many among you who argue about controversial matters. You argue about "when" I am coming back and "how." Some of you split hairs about these doctrinal issues. I tell you my people, stick to foundational issues. Stick to those things that are rooted and grounded in Me. And then you will not be carried away with strange and unusual teachings."

My People Suffer For Lack Of Knowledge
Stephen Hanson

Oct. 10, 2005

(The Lord spoke this to me today because there seems to be a problem in this area of properly judging prophetic words. To be sure, there is a great need for "true discernment" during this time. However, we need to not only use the scriptures when we're doing this properly, but we also need to listen to His voice when discerning. We need to step into that chamber of His spirit so that we can judge rightly.)

My people are destroyed from lack of knowledge. "Because you have rejected knowledge, I also reject you as my priests; because you have ignored the law of your God, I also will ignore your children. Hosea 4:6

Therefore let us leave the elementary teachings about Christ and go on to maturity, not laying again the foundation of repentance from acts that lead to death, and of faith in God, Hebrews 6:1

22 Let a cry be heard from their houses when you suddenly bring invaders against them, for they have dug a pit to capture me and have hidden snares for my feet. Jeremiah 18:22

"My people suffer for lack of knowledge. My people suffer because they look to the ways of tradition. Very few know how to judge rightly. Very few received the words of Jeremiah when he was alive. Even those who think that they know how to judge are judging according to their own devices. Was Jeremiah received or was he thrown into a pit? There are many in this hour who speak words of edification and comfort, and that is well and good. But who is there among you who would judge those words that go beyond these parameters? It is well and good to judge according to my word, but when judging prophetic words that go beyond these, you must enter into that secret chamber with Me. You must listen to my still small voice. Many of you are like the Pharisees when you judge these things. For you follow the letter of the law; and then you say that if you cannot find this prophetic word in my scriptures then they are false. I tell you that you are judging by appearances. Am I saying that there is no need for discernment in this hour? I tell you that there is a great need. But when you are discerning these things you must step into communion with Me. Very few do this. You have your pet teachers and your pet prophets. You have your favorite books that you read. When the time comes, and it will, I will say that I never knew you. Would you go onto maturity or would you stay in your childish ways? "

Why I Am Not Praying For Obama

Bill Somers
Mount Gilead Ohio USA

November 9, 2008

> In the musical Fiddler On The Roof, there is a point where the village rabbi is asked to pray for the Russian Tsar, their oppressor. What he comes up with is a sort of politically correct bit of lip service and sarcasm. He says:
> May The Lord God bless and keep the Tsar - - - far from our village.

In the aftermath of this election, much of the leadership is calling us to pray for Obama as we are commanded to in the word. So how can I have a problem with that, you may ask?

I feel we must consider the whole counsel of God. In other words it also says in the word to pray the prayer of faith, and that without faith, it is impossible to please him.

It also says that the word must be mixed with faith to be profitable, and that faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word. The word I am hearing is to cry for mercy.

If I am praying dry legalistic prayers, and do not have unfeigned faith, then I'm just making a lot of noise. I am become as sounding brass or tinkling cymbal.
And whatever is not of faith is sin.

> James 5:15 And the prayer of faith shall save the sick, and the Lord shall raise him up; and if he have committed sins, they shall be forgiven him.
> Hebrews 11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that cometh to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.
> Hebrews 4:2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
> *Romans 10:17 So then faith cometh by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
>
> 1 Timothy 1:5 Now the end of the commandment is charity out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:
> *1 Corinthians 13:1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
> Romans 14:23 And he that doubteth is damned if he eat, because he eateth not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Summary

To be brutally honest, I am not walking in pure charity. And I do not have the faith to pray as we are being told it's our responsibility to pray for our rulers. So why should I pretend?

Wise Counsel

WISE COUNSEL
When I ask to be a part of your life, it is not intended to cause you strife. When I grant you My mirror of what I see, it is not meant to cause shame in thee. When I send you My wisdom of what could be better, it is not given for you to walk in law or letter.

The dots and tittles of your life are finely honed from My carving knife. Not for pain, not for gain, yet for Me, just the same. I want you to be, all that you can, as you stand in My image, and as a man.

I want to send you My helpers from men and angels. They will give wise counsel to keep you from danger. Trust Me to cover the places that are blind with team work and graces to help you refine. You were not meant to build all alone, but in harmony and blend of perfect tones. Your notes shall resound for greater impact. My provision will be plenty, you'll not suffer lack. Embrace My wisdom and counsel from afar, and you shall succeed in all that you are. As My builder and craftsman I will give you My tools, I shall set you on My rock with borders of jewels.

For what you have spent is planted in the sky, to rain upon the earth multiplied blessings in disguise. A harvest is prepared for these My children. And you shall rejoice as you see them win - the race that is set before them to run. Their destiny is waiting, their victory to be won.

So let My wisdom and counsel reign from above, as you humble yourself and receive from My dove. I have called you My own, chosen among many this day, to be My ensign, in My army to pray. To pull down and root out and build and repair. It's My kingdom on earth as you rule from your chair. The Spirit of Might is upon your shoulders. It bursts from within as you grow older. Let My power come forth from your mouth and your hands - as you speak My Word and issue commands. It's not in your strength to make things occur. Only in My blood will things be procured.

Let My kingdom rule take place in your heart, then My kingdom on earth is birthed as a start. It's not with observation to the naked eye, but as you yield to Me all that can die. You have done well My child, My chosen one. I give you My resurrection power, your work has begun.

Isa 11:2-5 2 NKJV
The Spirit of the LORD shall rest upon Him, The Spirit of wisdom and understanding, The Spirit of counsel and might, The Spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD. His delight is in the fear of the LORD, And He shall not judge by the sight of His eyes, Nor decide by the hearing of His ears; But with righteousness He shall judge the poor, And decide with equity for the meek of the earth; He shall strike the earth with the rod of His mouth , And with the breath of His lips He shall slay the wicked. Righteousness shall be the belt of His loins, And faithfulness the belt of His waist.

Duty Or Passion
Sandy Warner

DUTY OR PASSION
Long I have waited for a generation of lovers who would serve Me out of their passionate hearts, birthed from intimate and genuine two way relationship. My people know Me as Lord and Master. To serve so duty bound is to choose a life imprisoned in performance.

They have yet to know Me as Lover and Husband. How I long to connect and establish bridges of communications that cross their boundaries of fear and mind-sets and normalcy where all things are decently in order! True passion is rarely in order, dear ones. True passion breaks all boundaries of cultural decency. True passion only knows one way, get to what matters and die for it when necessary.

The passion I speak of is much deeper than an emotion of the moment. It comes from a fire deep inside where the truth burns and builds, ever stretching to find a way towards expression. It is in its expression that our mutual joy is known to the fullest. This brings the consummation of what you yearn for. I will have a people who will so love Me, their torches will so love Me nothing will stand in their way towards expression.

Duty leads to burn out. It always did, it always will. Passion leads to My never ending eternal flame.

Hos 2:14-16 NLT
"But then I will win her back once again. I will lead her out into the desert and speak tenderly to her there. I will return her vineyards to her and transform the Valley of Trouble into a gateway of hope. She will give herself to me there, as she did long ago when she was young, when I freed her from her captivity in Egypt. "In that coming day," says the LORD, "you will call me 'my husband ' instead of 'my master.'

Learn To Delegate

LEARN TO DELEGATE
I have sped up the time clock and am moving the pace forward. This is moving things more rapidly into place and My people are feeling the pinch of too much to do and not enough time to do them. Listen beloved ones, LEARN TO DELEGATE. Pray first and then delegate spiritual helpers to bear the load. You will find tasks get accomplished in less time when you have heaven's angelic helpers paving the way, bringing you details you overlooked and generally moving things into place. Then ask Me to draw your attention to tasks that people can do in your stead. Release them to do these things for you. They will receive promotion and reward and you will be released to prioritize your time as pleasing Me. It is time to get into a new synch with a new pace..

Eph 5:15-16 AMP
Look carefully then how you walk! Live purposefully and worthily and accurately, not as the unwise and witless, but as wise (sensible, intelligent people), Making the very most of the time [buying up each opportunity], because the days are evil.

Our Boundaries For Love

Our Boundaries For Love

You are the God that settles all accounts.
Not phased by degree or any amount.
There is nothing that You can not do.
When we yield and become dead too.

In time we will see Your justice and truth
Defend your bride who was sent uncouth.
Vessels of honor and vessels of shame
Are glory in Your house, used just the same.

It is only in the minds and hearts of man
To see a distinction between the span.
Men wash their cups and their platters.
Tis not the shell but the heart that matters.

These frames are weak and return to dust.
What matters to Him is absolutely a must.
He tests and measures our boundaries for love
Sending the dishonored as gifts from His dove.

We push and shove and wrestle with them
But when it is God we will not win.
Our mind-sets, offsets and all sets crumble
As He breaks our hearts to become humble.

And when it is over and the unlovely are removed,
Will we rejoice or will we be moved
To press in closer to remove the distance,
To knock on their door to gain entrance?

For when we are loved by the unlovely in deed.
We find our missing piece, we find what we need.
And when it is gone we are left alone.
To think and chew and spit out our bones.

Rom 9:19-21 NKJV
You will say to me then, "Why does He still find fault? For who has resisted His will?" But indeed, O man, who are you to reply against God? Will the thing formed say to him who formed it, "Why have you made me like this?" Does not the potter have power over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel for honor and another for dishonor?

2 Tim 2:20-21 NKJV
But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also of wood and clay, some for honor and some for dishonor. Therefore if anyone cleanses himself from the latter, he will be a vessel for honor, sanctified and useful for the Master, prepared for every good work.

The Missing Link In Belonging
Sandy Warner

Feb 23, 2005
THE MISSING LINK IN BELONGING
Dear ones as you seek to come into alignment with My purposes and will for your life, one vital piece is missing. There are those who are left outside in the dark and cold places, without understanding and purpose for they do not know their calling. There are those who have troubles in their family lives because they do not know how to keep their focus on Me and settle their differences as they line up with My purposes. There are generations of people who are struggling with discomfort and old wounds and have yet to find their places in My family of love.

One vital piece is missing to this puzzle. It is intercessory prayer. Pray, pray, pray. Ask Me to release the birthrights and callings over all your loved ones. Angels will be sent upon the requests and authority of your prayers. They will line up circumstances that will bring My family together and usher them into alignment and position to grow up into their callings and destinies. Come dear ones, and pray. It is My kingdom in heaven that must be birthed through your permission and authority on earth through prayer, declaration, faith, stand, worship and intercession. Release these in your stands of faith and I will dispatch the supernatural help to bring you into place.

1 Sam 1:27 NKJV
For this child I prayed, and the LORD has granted me my petition which I asked of Him.

Neh 4:13-14 NLT
So I placed armed guards behind the lowest parts of the wall in the exposed areas. I stationed the people to stand guard by families, armed with swords, spears, and bows. Then as I looked over the situation, I called together the leaders and the people and said to them, "Don't be afraid of the enemy! Remember the Lord, who is great and glorious, and fight for your friends, your families, and your homes!"

What Is Coming Will Astound Many

Sam Buick

Nov 15, 2002
(sbuick@vital.ca)

MUCH OF WHAT IS COMING WILL NOT FIT YOUR PRECONCEIVED BOXES!

"Beloved ones, do not be overcome with what is coming! Do not seek to figure it all out before embracing what My Spirit is doing in the earth!

Do not sit by the banks of the River while it flows right on by! Jump in and embrace what is happening! Willingly embrace what My Spirit is doing!

There is much coming that will not "fit" into your preconceived boxes and ways of thinking!

Come to Me and receive life for I desire to see life flowing in the Bride and to see the Church rise up and walk out the abundant life!

UPHEAVAL! UPHEAVAL! EVERYTHING IS IN UPHEAVAL!

THE SHAKING IS REMOVING ALL THAT IS NOT OF ME!

UPHEAVAL! UPHEAVAL IS NOW COME UPON THE CHURCH!

"Beloved, there is much, much upheaval in the earth!

The only thing that is not being shaken is that which belongs to the Lord!

All that flows from Him He sustains! All that He brings to existence He holds in the palm of His hand!

All that belong to Him, are refined and purified in the fire of His Love and they too are sheltered in His hand!

In the midst of great upheaval, those that are His will be kept secure!

The upheaval will uproot the very things which have beep overlaid on the original foundations of the church!

That which is of man is being torn down! That which has been influenced by the evil one is being thrown down!

That which has stood against the flow of the Spirit and of life is being cast aside!

THERE IS A MIGHTY UPROOTING TAKING PLACE!

YOU SHALL NOT RECOGNIZE THE CHURCH WHEN MY SPIRIT IS THROUGH SHAKING THE CHURCH TO ITS FOUNDATIONS!

"The uprooting of those things that seemed neutral to you, are not neutral in My sight!

That which is not clearly for Me is against Me!

That which is born from the flesh can only be sustained by the flesh!

Much of what is part of the church is as much a part of Ishmael!

Ishmael has taken what belongs to Isaac, and Isaac can only be born of the Spirit of God!

Only that birthed by the Spirit of God shall stand and last through this great shaking and upheaval!

All ministries and all things, even good things which men and women brought to existence through the arm of the flesh, these things shall come down!

They shall come down for no flesh will stand in the holy presence of the Lord!

Only that which has come from the Lord shall stand.

Many ministries and many people called of God shall need to get their houses in order, for the shaking is coming fast upon the Bride of Christ in this day!

It is a shaking that only that which is of the Lord will be able to endure to the end.

BUT THIS MIGHTY SHAKING IS A GOOD THING, FOR IT WILL RESTORE THE CHURCH TO IT'S APOSTOLIC AND PROPHETIC CALLING!

"Beloved, all this shaking is a good thing.

It is a move of the Spirit that will restore the Bride to her First Love!

It is movement that will restore the passion of the Bride for the Bridegroom!

It is a movement of the Spirit that will over-rule the spirit of man that has brought so much control over the life of the church.

This movement more than anything, this movement of the Spirit shall restore the functional ministries of the five fold ministries.

It is a relational restoration and functional restoration that is needed in order to restore the resurrection power that once flowed in the early church!

STRUCTURE AND FORM ALWAYS FOLLOW FUNCTION!

THE RENEWED FUNCTIONS OF APOSTOLIC AND PROPHETIC MINISTRY WILL UNLEASH GREAT CHANGES IN THE STRUCTURES AND FORMS OF MINISTRY!

"Beloved, form and structure always follow the function!

The relational aspect of church governance must be restored, and it will not be restored until the five fold and the priesthood of believers find their place within the renewed body life of the church.

When this happens, great change will come and will usher in great revival in the nations!

DO NOT TAKE OFFENCE AT WHAT IS COMING!

MUCH OF WHAT IS COMING WILL NOT FIT YOUR PRECONCEIVED BOXES!

EMBRACE ME AND EMBRACE MY SPIRIT!

AND, BELOVED, EMBRACE THE NEW EXPRESSION OF CHURCH AND BODY LIFE THAT IS NOW COMING FORTH!

GALATIANS 4:19

Why I Don't Do Conspiracies

Bill Somers

> Isaiah 53:1 Who hath believed our report? and to whom is the arm of the LORD revealed?

My approach on the End Time Prophetic Vision website is to focus on what God is doing and not what the enemy is up to. That’s why you will find little if any material on the identity of the anti-christ, or the mark of the beast. The same goes for the conspiracies: the new world order and the Illuminati and such. We also avoid occult topics and weird supernatural goings on like UFO's and the nephilim.

We feel that all this stuff is just the 'words of the strongman' who wants to put people in fear. Whose report will you believe? Believe not the 'evil report'. We will believe the report of the Lord, and he says Fear Not! Did you know that the exact phrase fear not is found is 63 verses in the KJV bible. And besides when we study the conspiracies to gain understanding of how to pray, isn’t this leaning on our own understanding?

Now let's look at what can happen to those who follow after the evil report.

> Numbers 13:30-32
> 30 And Caleb stilled the people before Moses, and said, Let us go up at once, and possess it; for we are well able to overcome it.
> 31 But the men that went up with him said, We be not able to go up against the people; for they are stronger than we.
> 32 And they brought up an evil report of the land which they had searched unto the children of Israel, saying, The land, through which we have gone to search it, is a land that eateth up the inhabitants thereof; and all the people that we saw in it are men of a great stature.
> Deuteronomy 1:27-30
> 27 And ye murmured in your tents, and said, Because the LORD hated us, he hath brought us forth out of the land of Egypt, to deliver us into the hand of the Amorites, to destroy us.
> 28 Whither shall we go up? our brethren have discouraged our heart*, saying, The people is greater and taller than we; the cities are great and walled up to heaven; and moreover we have seen the sons of the Anakims there.*
> 29 Then I said unto you, Dread not, neither be afraid of them.
> 30 The LORD your God which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he did for you in Egypt before your eyes;

Now the evil report may well seem to be true, but the report of the Lord is that He can make a way where there is no way, and we will trust in Him!

The Conspiracy Theory

A conspiracy theory takes the other approach and if you fall for it, your confession may well turn out to be: our brethren have discouraged our heart!

The Wikipedia says this:

> A conspiracy theory usually attributes the ultimate cause of an event or chain of events (usually political, social, pop cultural or historical events), or the concealment of such causes from public knowledge, to a secret, and often deceptive plot by a group of powerful or influential > people or organizations. Many conspiracy theories imply that major events in history have been dominated by conspirators who manipulate political happenings from behind the scenes.

A Look At The Conspiracy Artist

The conspiracy artist preaches to those who want to believe in the conspiracy, so he is relieved of the burden of proof. He can make any outrageous claim he feels like, and it is never questioned by his dedicated audience.

He operates in a spirit of pride, pride in knowing. Also he uses an appeal to the pride of his readers or listeners, letting them feel that the average person is just an ignorant or apathetic boob, while we who are aware of this conspiracy are really the only ones in the know. Implying that we are better than the average Joe. We have inside knowledge. We are special.

The bible warns us about pride that comes from knowing things, or from thinking we know things.

> 1 Corinthians 8:1 Now as touching things offered unto idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffeth up, but charity edifieth.

The conspiracy artist has a wide range of tools to use in his craft. For example, appeals to pride, and arrogance. He makes full use of: accusations, slander, exaggeration, innuendos or derogatory insinuations; rumors, misquotations, half truths, dubious statistics and outright lies. Logical fallacies such as invalid conclusions, jumping to conclusions and wild generalizations are his stock in trade. A common tactic is the 'argument from authority'. This is where you are told to accept someone's opinion because just they are an expert in some area. This is a way of bypassing the need to prove what you claim.

They will make long lists of items with even the remotest connection to their subject. The longer the better, so the reader is overwhelmed by what they claim to be a body of evidence. And if the reader thinks about checking the facts, it's hard to tell where to start, even if there were an easy way to verify what is being claimed. Great use is made of words with negative connotations: alleged, supposed, so-called and so on are used to imply falsehood. They ignore any contradictory data. Some of what they say will be true, but the level of mixture is usually pretty high.

Blaming It All On Them

Another tactic of the conspiracy artist is placing blame on some whipping boy, or large organization, or secret society. The oil companies are to blame for high energy costs for example. Frequently these boogie men are also accused of attempted secrecy. The conspiracy artist will make himself look and his readers are assured that he is presenting facts that 'they don't want you to know.' Or they will tell you that the government or news media is lying about something. But the last person they will blame is the devil.

All Eyes On Man

To get your eyes away from Jesus, every freak event in nature is somehow caused by man. One of the recent disaster movies made plain statement that 'Global Warming is not an act of God, it's caused by man!' They will find a way to blame even seismic events on man. Astronomical events are of course blamed on Planet X! God is never taken into consideration.

Finally, as you look into a number of conspiracy sites on the web, you will find a fair number of them are anti-semitic, blaming the conspiracy on the Jews. Here is what the Wikipedia says on this point.

> Anti-Semitism and conspiracy theories

> The contemporary form of anti-Semitism is identified in Britannica 1911 as a conspiracy theory serving the self-understanding of the European aristocracy, whose social power waned with the rise of bourgeois society.
> Antisemitic conspiracy theories have been conceived throughout history. According to Kenneth S. Stern,
> "Historically, Jews have not fared well around conspiracy theories. Such ideas fuel anti-Semitism. The myths that Jews killed Christ, or poisoned wells, or killed Christian children to bake matzo, or "made up" the Holocaust, or plot to control the world, do not succeed each other; rather, the list of anti-Semitic canards gets longer. The militia movement today believes in the conspiracy theory of the Protocols, even if some call it something else and never mention Jews. From the perspective of history, we know that this is the type of climate in which anti-Semitism can grow."

Some justify involvement with conspiracy theories by claiming that we need to know what is really going on in the world. But what is really going on in the world doesn't matter! What we really need to know is found in these verses:

> Matthew 8:24-26
> 24 And, behold, there arose a great tempest in the sea, insomuch that the ship was covered with the waves: but he was asleep.
> 25 And his disciples came to him, and awoke him, saying, Lord, save us: we perish.
> 26 And he saith unto them, Why are ye fearful, O ye of little faith? Then he arose, and rebuked the winds and the sea; and there was a great calm.
> Isaiah 26:3 Thou wilt keep him in perfect peace, whose mind is stayed on thee: because he trusteth in thee.
> Philippians 4:7-9
> 7 And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
> 8 Finally, brethren, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.
> 9 Those things, which ye have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.
> Romans 16:20 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.
>
> 2 Timothy 1:7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
>
> Ephesians 5:12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done of them in secret.
> Isaiah 8:11-13 “For the Lord spoke this to me with a strong hand, and he instructed me that I should not walk in the way of this people saying, “Do not say, “A conspiracy”, to all them to whom this people shall say, “A conspiracy”; neither fear you their fears, nor be afraid.” Sanctify the Lord of hosts himself; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.”

Walking in Eternal Life

Francis Frangipane

God's end-time people will "end time." What I mean is that, as we near the end of the age, we will increasingly learn how to walk in eternal life, abiding above the boundaries, constraints, and the pressures of the realm of time. We'll see what's coming and either avoid it or announce it, but we won't be limited by it.

Jesus taught that those who come to Him "have everlasting life" (John 3:16). Right now, we have eternal life in our spirits. Yet, how do we access the timeless place of God's presence? This is a serious question, for we have become more "time conscious" than "God conscious." Schedules, meetings, appointments, and deadlines all fuel our anxieties and compel us to live horizontally, instead of vertically in the Presence of God.

HOW DO WE ACCESS THE TIMELESS PLACE OF GOD'S PRESENCE?

The Lord seeks to deliver us from anxiety, but that can only happen if we truly learn to walk in the Holy Spirit. The sad fact is, most Christians fail to spend time with the Holy Spirit. We pray, even calling upon the Lord, but few are they who have cultivated moment by moment openness to the Spirit of God.

"But, when He, the Spirit of truth, comes, He will guide you into all the truth; for He will not speak on His own initiative, but whatever He hears, He will speak; and He will disclose to you what is to come." John 16:13 NASB

The Holy Spirit "will guide . . . He will speak . . . He will disclose" to us what we otherwise could never know or attain. To guide, speak, and reveal are forms of communication. Clearly, the Father sent the Holy Spirit to talk to us.

"THE SPIRIT OF REALITY"

The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of truth. There are issues in our hearts that the Holy Spirit alone can reveal and remove. Listen to Him; like Christ, He does not come to condemn but to save. His voice is Salvation speaking to us.

Jeremiah said that the heart is deceitful above all things. We cannot objectively know ourselves. Yet the Holy Spirit, who is the Spirit of Truth, sees and understands our ways. Trust Him, He cannot be deceived. Indeed, the ancient Greeks used the same word for truth as they did for "reality." Thus, we could accurately say that the Holy Spirit is the "Spirit of Reality." He shows us the reality of our need and the reality of God's answer. To hear Him is to hear the voice of eternal life.

Jesus lived in union with the Holy Spirit continually. The miracles He accomplished came through the power of the Holy Spirit. Through the Spirit He saw the things the Father was doing; He heard the words the Father was speaking.
Every strategy we may come up with pales in comparison to seeing God and doing what God does, and hearing God and saying what God says. You see, Jesus lived in the dimension of time, but was not limited by it. His consciousness was always aware of the eternal realm.

Even the urgent news of Lazarus' illness did not make Jesus move anxiously. As right as it seemed to rush to Lazarus' aid, Jesus was aware of another reality. He was conscious of the heavenly Father. Because He knew that the Father was about to raise Lazarus from the dead, He lived without hand-wringing or being driven by anxious thoughts or pressures.

Oh, how we need to walk in the Spirit today. In every situation, we would consciously be aware of God's involvement in our lives!

HE INVITES US TO ABIDE WITH HIM!

"For My thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways My ways," declares the Lord. "For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are My ways higher than your ways, and My thoughts than your thoughts." Isaiah 55:8-9 NASB

God has a system of thoughts and ways that are totally on another plane, yet He invites us to abide with Him!

Beloved, we are not mere human beings. We each are a temple for the Holy Spirit, but we must cultivate a listening heart if we will do the things that God is doing. A Christian is not just someone living out a natural life, hoping that God will bless him. No, God has more for us than that. Jesus set the standard, and He's given us the Holy Spirit so we can follow Him.

SPIRIT-FILLED?

When we are born again, we begin a journey with the Holy Spirit. The Spirit gives us gifts to help us grow; He baptizes us in power to increase our effectiveness. All of this is to lead us until we are actually filled with the Holy Spirit, where we think and act like Jesus.

Many of us think we are already filled with the Spirit, but we are not. We have three quarts of self and one quart of the Holy Spirit, and we think we have a gallon of God. There is still too much self ruling in our hearts.
In America, some pastors identify themselves as being Spirit-filled and say they pastor Spirit-filled churches. To be perfectly candid, I have never attended a church that is truly Spirit-filled. In the Book of Acts, we see a picture of a Spirit-filled church. The leaders met daily for prayer, and on the way to prayer, their shadows healed the sick! Their offerings went to feed the poor. Out of their sense of love and community, they held all things in common. In that atmosphere, the church grew exponentially.

I know some are thinking, "My church is getting close to this example." Oh, I forgot to mention, in a Spirit-filled church, if you lied, you died (see Acts).

You see, let's not accept that we are further along spiritually than we are. God desires to take us further, deeper into eternal life. Having a spiritual gift doesn't mean that you are filled with the Holy Spirit; being born again does not mean you are also Spirit-filled. I have never met a truly spiritually mature person who was anxious; no one who is nervous about time can truly be led by the Holy Spirit.

WHERE DO WE GO FROM HERE?

In our quest to walk in eternal life, we must allow the Holy Spirit to excavate our hearts of self. If we want to tune into the God channel, we must tune out the "self channel," where the anxieties, fears, and sins exist.

I want a heart that can hear God; I want perception that can see God. We are too much like the world. How do we break this? Spend time with the Holy Spirit. Ask Him to talk to your heart and then write down what you feel He is saying. If we want more of God, we must cultivate the awareness of His Presence, and especially listen for His voice.

We must also take faith and believe that the Spirit is here to help. Zechariah 4:6 teaches us that it's not by our might or power, but it is by the Spirit of the Lord that we succeed. Acts 2:17 tells us that in the last days God seeks to pour out His Spirit upon all flesh. I love the words "pour out." We must stop thinking "thimble" and think Niagara Falls!

It's time to step out of the box called "time," and live in the Spirit. I'm not suggesting that you become unreliable or are late for your appointments, but that you give yourself to learning how to hear God's voice and how to live in His presence. If you are one of God's end-time elect, then it's time to rise above the pressures of time and walk in the eternal life of God.

I Will Double You
Francis Frangipane

Much of the work God does guiding us to our destiny unfolds in our lives unnoticed until the time of its manifestation. Seemingly insignificant aspects of our lives suddenly bloom into profound realities, filling our consciousness with the fragrance of the Lord's presence. The natural is transformed by the supernatural, leaving us forever changed.

These "God-moments" reveal that the Lord has been intimately aware of us and, long before we recognized Him, He had been working in our lives. I've told the story before, but it's worth repeating. It was in the spring of 1971 when I had a most significant encounter with the Lord. It was at this time that He first spoke to me of my future. It began with a life-changing dream. In the midst of great darkness, the Lord revealed there would be a great outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The next morning, as I contemplated the vision, for the first time in my young Christian life I read Isaiah 60:1-3 and then Matthew 14. Both these texts confirmed in dramatic detail the truth of my night vision. The Isaiah text spoke of nations coming to Christ while Matthew's story chronicled Jesus feeding the multitudes with the bread and fish.

The God-moment peaked as I read that Jesus had blessed and broke the bread. Suddenly, it occurred to me that my last name, Frangipane, actually meant "to break bread." Throughout my life this long last name had been a nuisance. Yet now, coupled with the dream and the promise from Isaiah, the story of Christ taking "broken bread" to feed multitudes became a personal encouragement to me.

Later that morning, I related the vision and the Lord's promise from Isaiah 60 to my wife, Denise. I then told her about the feeding of the five thousand, mentioning that God would use us like Jesus used the loaves and fish to feed the multitudes. I also explained that Frangipane, in fact, meant "to break bread." Since she now had my last name, God had included her in my calling. In childlike wonder, she replied that this destiny would not only be about me. She then informed me of the meaning of her maiden name, Piscitelli. It meant "little fishes."

Those Whom He Foreknew

The fact that the Lord would quietly orchestrate our lives, and then confirm His promise in the very meaning of our names still fills our souls with awe. I imagine that a similar sense of awe struck King Josiah when, as a young man, he discovered his name in the scriptures. Indeed, his kingship had been foretold 350 years previously by a prophet in Israel; the man of God even described the actual tasks Josiah would fulfill (1 Kings 13:2). The revelation of having been foreknown by God caused Josiah to become, perhaps, the most zealous of all of Israel's kings.

This same awe must have struck King Cyrus of Persia when he discovered that the God of Israel had foretold of his leadership, by name, 150 years prior to his birth (Isaiah 44:28). The knowledge that we have been predestined by God to accomplish great things for Him, that He actually calls His sheep by name, adds great zeal to our souls.

Certainly, David must have felt this sense of awe when he wrote,

"O LORD, You have searched me and known me. You know when I sit down and when I rise up; You understand my thought from afar. You scrutinize my path and my lying down, and are intimately acquainted with all my ways . . . Behold, O LORD, You know it all. You have enclosed me behind and before, and laid Your hand upon me. Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; it is too high, I cannot attain to it" (Psalm 139:1-6).

Whether or not your name has a significant meaning in it, however, is not the issue. You are significant. God chose you in Christ before the foundation of the world; He has written your name in heaven (Eph 1:3; Rev 21:27). Even at this very moment the Holy Spirit continues to work in you His predetermined plan. At the proper time, the miracle of God's activity will emerge in your life like precision clockwork.

Recent Elections

As we approached elections in the USA, it struck me as inconceivable that the destiny of President Bush would not also have been foreordained by the Almighty. I noticed that he is often identified by his middle initial, "W." Yet, even as I listened to the President's supporters chant, "four more years," it occurred to me that the President's middle initial, "W," when spoken phonetically, actually says Double You, as in "I will double your time in office four more years."

Of course, the Lord didn't need a prophetic play on words to escort this President into office. Yet, with the re-election of President Bush, I've realized something else: he was given four more years on the strength of evangelical Christians. In fact, "moral values" was the leading reason people voted for President Bush! In the midst of a shaky economy and a difficult war in Iraq, the desire for righteousness determined the outcome of this nation!

Many politicians on both sides of the aisle have ignored the traditional values of faith and family. Sen. Dodd, D-Conn., admitted, "We have lost the ability to connect with people's value systems and we're going to have to work to get that back." Rep. Pomeroy, D-N.D., said "I think that the Democratic party nationally is perceived as being out of step with mainstream values. I want our party to do a better job of speaking to matters of faith and family."

I think it is vital that evangelical Christians divorce ourselves from gloating or any expression of self-righteousness. It is imperative that, while others are searching for answers, we truly represent Christ's heart. Let us speak with humility of our values and then, with wisdom, lead others to Jesus, our source of all virtue.

Beloved, both Republicans and Democrats, as well as the news and entertainment media, are all realizing that something powerful is awakening in America. They had a first glimpse when The Passion of the Christ came out; they were staggered by the effect of praying, voting Christians during this last election. Now, it is time to pray this advance forward.

As I've often said since January, 2004, we are in a year of release. The constrictions we been experiencing are not death throes, but birth pangs; they are not part of what restricts us, but releases us. Indeed, there is a destiny unfolding, not just for George W. Bush, but for the body of Christ in America. I believe that the Lord is in the process of answering our prayers and increasing our effectiveness. Concerning His anointing on our lives, He says, "I will double you

Ps 27:3-5 NKJV Though an army may encamp against me, my heart shall not fear; Though war may rise against me, in this I will be confident. 4 One thing I have desired of the LORD, that will I seek: That I may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, To behold the beauty of the LORD, and to inquire in His temple. 5 For in the time of trouble He shall hide me in His pavilion; In the secret place of His tabernacle He shall hide me; He shall set me high upon a rock.

"I heard shouts in the camp of " Prepare for War " says the Lord. But the WAR is here. It has been here for a long time, and it never ends till the LAMB is Ruling and Reigning forever and the enemy subdued.

I have poured out My gifts. I have poured into you Strength for the day of battle. But you say, " I feel so weak, Lord !" But that is when I CAN BE STRONG. That is when I will be PRE-EMINENT, and you will be only a vessel of MY glory ! But know that if you are weary, that I will come, and I will restore your fight. For I the LORD, am a Man of War, and I will no longer allow the enemy to overcome you. When I come, I will remove all his roots in your hearts, and you will fight with MY SPIRIT OF MIGHT. You will no longer doubt, or hesitate.

You will no longer hesitate or doubt, because you will KNOW MY LOVE FOR YOU. It will not be a theory in your mind, or a knowing in your heart, but will CONSUME all of you ! You will flow in My love and power because of the Consuming FIRE I AM will consume YOU and you will fight the way I fight. You will love the way I love. You will not draw back in unbelief anymore.

You will no longer resist My love, but receive ALL I have to give you. You will no longer be DISTRACTED by so many things because all the things of this world will pale in comparison to the manifested love of the FATHER.

FEAR NOT ! For Your King comes to you riding in GLORY and POWER and MAJESTY. Enter in My belovedenter in to My gates with PRAISE and My courts with WORSHIP and watch, and see what I DO for MY BELOVED !

A RESTORATION OF ALL THINGS IS COMING. COME IN, FOR I AM CALLING YOU ! COME IN, FOR I AM DRAWING YOU. LISTEN FOR THE STILL SMALL VOICE ! LISTEN ! DO YOU HEAR THE SOUND OF MY WHISPERING ? DO YOU HEAR THE SOUND OF MY LOVE SONNETS ?
DO YOU HEAR THE SONGS IN THE NIGHT ?
The Great LOVER of your souls is at the door and knocking and bidding you to come in ! Come in, for the day of My wrath is coming. You must hear My voice and listen to my secrets. Come away with Me My darling bride. Come and dance with me. I want to hold you in My arms of love.

Rainbows In The Sun

I heard "rainbows in the sun".

Then,..."I have not called you to depression, or destruction, or to fear. I have made many promises and I am calling you NOW to stand on these promises with expectation in your heart of them being fulfilled in this hour.

I see the beginning and the end. I see the battle before it comes. I see the end of that thing and what is coming afterwards. There is timing you have no idea of, in implementing MY plans. I know what it takes to produce warriors and kings. And I am forming and molding and making you to come forth as GOLD !

Now is the time to lift up your unsaved loved ones. Now is the time to reach out to your neighbors. I am answering the prayers of My children and I will encourage your hearts and pour out JOY and LOVE and PEACE, and HEALING. You know that I am the Resource of all you need, so keep coming.

Keep asking NOW. It is a time of RESTORATION and breathing LIFE, MY LIFE into situations, lives and conditions of this world. Come in FAITH and EXPECTATION. HOLD on to FAITH. For it is diminishing in the world. AND MY children should be an example of faith in a world that is dying. I AM Your REAR GUARD. I AM the LIGHT OF THE WORLD, and I HAVE MADE YOU TO BE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD. So do not hide it under a basket, but let it shine for all the world to see. They are desperate. They are hungry.

They are thirsty for what I have given you. Do not be like a miser who hoards it all to himself, selfishly counting what he has, but unwilling to share it with the poor and needy ! It is a FREE GIFT I have given you of My Spirit. It is a free gift, I have given you of my LOVE, JOY, PEACE in salvation and healing. Freely I have given so freely GIVE TO THOSE around you, all that I have given.

As you come to me daily, I will give you MY PLAN for the day if you ask. I will give you all you need to fulfill that plan. Arise and shine, for Your light is come and the GLORY of the LORD will be seen upon you ! REACH OUT YOUR HANDS in FAITH.

Just as the innkeeper opened the cave where cattle and sheep slept to My Son, and gave what he had available. I am asking YOU to give what you have. I am not asking you to give something you don't have. I am not asking the impossible. But I am asking you to move in the opposite spirit in this season of the APATHY and COMPLACENCY, and GREED of this world and to GIVE from what you do have.

I am asking you to give the greatest gift of all to those who are in great need. I see ALL their faces daily. I see all their needs daily. I see all their awful situations daily. THEY DO NOT KNOW THAT I AM THE SOLUTION. I will draw those to you whose hearts are prepared, if you will but ASK !

Keep building in your spirit, the TRUTH of the WORD. If you only read it, what good is that to you ? I have called you to ACT upon it, not just to read itbut for it to become alive in your hearts, that you may LIVE IT ! Keep your hearts free from the love of the world, for in this hour, I am bringing judgments that will turn men from the world to ME. Keep watching for I am about to sweep you off your feet and then some !

Be open to the NEW THING I am about to do in your hearts and lives. Do not disdain what you don't understand, but ask and you SHALL receive understanding and wisdom from above ! Come to me, and I will give you all you need !"

I saw a golden locomotive engine with billows of smoke coming out and surrounding it in glory. Upon the sides of the locomotive were angels with trumpets and they were blowing them loudly, as the train passed. It was weaving in and out of cities, and states, nations and flying across the ocean, not like a train that needed tracks, but did have a path to follow. As the trumpets blew people were drawn, as if to a siren and flying in the air, and entering the train in a most supernatural manner through it , like when Jesus walked through the walls to appear to the apostles.

As they entered the train, they sat in seats, and on the inside everything was pure gold. There were tables at some seats and people were reading the Bible and then they would be excited as if something amazing just happened and they were thinking now , how to share this with others, and Some had laptops and would type in things they were getting in revelation from the word and posting it on internet. Some were taking the revelation and writing it down. Then they would fly off in some direction and take this information and preach it/teach it to others in some far off land, then return to the train. And although the train may have moved, they always knew where it was, and flew back to ride some more. It was as if the Lord Himself was the train somehow, and this was the place of rest for in between assignments for His people.

Some were sleeping in births and listening to music, and some were playing music on instruments, and singing. They all seemed to know each other and to be able to communicate without any animosity or irritation. They seemed in harmony with each other.

A Song to My Beloveds
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Dec 2nd, 2005 2:20 am

I come to sing a song of love to My beloveds
A song of hope and glory, a song of pain and joy.
The time is coming to a close, and everybody knows
That joy and laughter, mirth and gladness
Flee in the depths of hate and darkness
Except in the hands of one who understands
That freedom is not abundance of things
But freedom is being in a state that sings
Of love and joy, of peace and of hope
Of lives healed and dead bodies raised
To linger on the earth in a glorious phase
For the sake of bearing glory for the Ancient of Days.

I come to sing a song of lament
For lives full of darkness and times not well spent.
I come to sing a tune of a dirge
For to the earth I am coming to purge
The work of demons, and foul things of the earth
The things that maim, and steal all mirth.
The things that kill the soul of a man
The one full of evil will not long stand
For the Glorious One Who holds the earth in His hands
Has come down to share in the battle, and to save the lands
Before all is destroyed by the father of lies
And before the bells ring, and the man of sin decries.

I come to sing a song of JOYS
For birthing is coming and a release to all the ploys
Of the enemy to keep My beloveds from their hope
For nothing can stop what I have in My scope.
I'm joy and I'm gladness, I'm love fully restored
I've treasures in darkness I want employed
To work for the King and to serve Him with might Truly their love will give satan a fright !
I'm coming down in the cool winter wind
Midst the storms and the clouds, his decrees I'll resind !
His spirit grows strong in the violence of earth
Lawlessness rushes in on the skirts of dirth

But I am not weak as some men suppose
To all the dirt and the muck I will give you a HOSE !
Power and glory descend now from above
On the gentle wings of the snow white Dove.

His power is much more than men have given Him credit
And to the mocking and scorning He will make a great debit.
For sons and daughters who've been far away
Will get revelation of the brand new day !
Their eyes will be opened and hearts renewed
I will come down and answer prayers accrued !
Suddenlies will break forth in the desert times now !
Miracles will come to raise the furrowed brow .

I will have My way midst the mayhem and storms
I will set the enemy running and the veils will be torn
That have blinded nations and blinded men and women alike
To the serpent of old will I give a good HIKE !
A price will be paid, about which you've read
For blood will be spilled in many a bed !
Many martyrs will speak out in the dread.
For in their death will I bring life instead.
Life and love to nations will I pour out in the valley of decision
The enemies will be left in the dust of the vale of derision.
Transformation is coming to the church which exalts ME.
So don't give in to sadness, but dance and sing with GLEE !

For in the end, the earth will finally be made FREE !
For all will come and worship ME.
From lowest to highest in the order of man
Will they come from near and far to express joy in the land
The King of Kings will rule in reign on the earth
And times will be so different, full of joy and mirth !
Even as the seasons change,
to all hearts will I rearrange.
Hearts will be filled to the full with My love
Hearts will skip and dance and enjoy all from above.
Men will be changed, and children will dance
There will be no end to the Divine Romance !

Why Islam Is Disrespected
Jeff Jacoby

By Jeff Jacoby, Globe Columnist | May 19, 2005
http://www.boston.com/news/globe/editorial_opinion/oped/articles/2005/05/19/why_islam_is_disrespected?mode=PF

IT WAS front-page news this week when Newsweek retracted a report claiming that a US interrogator in Guantanamo had flushed a copy of the Koran down a toilet. Everywhere it was noted that Newsweek's story had sparked widespread Muslim rioting, in which at least 17 people were killed. But there was no mention of deadly protests triggered in recent years by comparable acts of desecration against other religions.

No one recalled, for example, that American Catholics lashed out in violent rampages in 1989, after photographer Andres Serrano's "Piss Christ" -- a photograph of a crucifix submerged in urine -- was included in an exhibition subsidized by the National Endowment for the Arts. Or that they rioted in 1992 when singer Sinead O'Connor, appearing on "Saturday Night Live," ripped up a photograph of Pope John Paul II.

There was no reminder that Jewish communities erupted in lethal violence in 2000, after Arabs demolished Joseph's Tomb, torching the ancient shrine and murdering a young rabbi who tried to save a Torah. And nobody noted that Buddhists went on a killing spree in 2001 in response to the destruction of two priceless, 1,500-year-old statues of Buddha by the Taliban government in Afghanistan.

Of course, there was a good reason all these bloody protests went unremembered in the coverage of the Newsweek affair: They never occurred.

Christians, Jews, and Buddhists don't lash out in homicidal rage when their religion is insulted. They don't call for holy war and riot in the streets. It would be unthinkable for a mainstream priest, rabbi, or lama to demand that a blasphemer be slain. But when Reuters reported what Mohammad Hanif, the imam of a Muslim seminary in Pakistan, said about the alleged Koran-flushers -- "They should be hung. They should be killed in public so that no one can dare to insult Islam and its sacred symbols" -- was any reader surprised?

The Muslim riots should have been met by outrage and condemnation. >From every part of the civilized world should have come denunciations of those who would react to the supposed destruction of a book with brutal threats and the slaughter of 17 innocent people. But the chorus of condemnation was directed not at the killers and the fanatics who incited them, but at Newsweek.

>From the White House down, the magazine was slammed -- for running an item it should have known might prove incendiary, for relying on a shaky source, for its animus toward the military and the war.

Over and over, Newsweek was blamed for the riots' death toll. Conservative pundits in particular piled on. "Newsweek lied, people died" was the headline on Michelle Malkin's popular website. At NationalReview.com, Paul Marshall of Freedom House fumed: "What planet do these [Newsweek] people live on? . . . Anybody with a little knowledge could have told them it was likely that people would die as a result of the article." All of Marshall's choler was reserved for Newsweek; he had no criticism at all for the marauders in the Muslim street.

Then there was Secretary of State Condoleezza Rice, who announced at a Senate hearing that she had a message for "Muslims in America and throughout the world." And what was that message? That decent people do not resort to murder just because someone has offended their religious sensibilities? That the primitive bloodlust raging in Afghanistan and Pakistan was evidence of the Muslim world's dysfunctional political culture?

No: Her message was that "disrespect for the Holy Koran is not now, nor has it ever been, nor will it ever be, tolerated by the United States."

Granted, Rice spoke while the rioting was still taking place and her goal was to reduce the anti-American fever. But what "Muslims in America and throughout the world" most need to hear is not pandering sweet-talk. What they need is a blunt reminder that the real desecration of Islam is not what some interrogator in Guantanamo might have done to the Koran. It is what totalitarian Muslim zealots have been doing to innocent human beings in the name of Islam. It is 9/11 and Beslan and Bali and Daniel Pearl and the USS Cole. It is trains in Madrid and schoolbuses in Israel and an "insurgency" in Iraq that slaughters Muslims as they pray and vote and line up for work. It is Hamas and Al Qaeda and sermons filled with infidel-hatred and exhortations to "martyrdom."

But what disgraces Islam above all is the vast majority of the planet's Muslims saying nothing and doing nothing about the jihadist cancer eating away at their religion. It is Free Muslims Against Terrorism, a pro-democracy organization, calling on Muslims and Middle Easterners to "converge on our nation's capital for a rally against terrorism" -- and having only 50 people show up.

Yes, Islam is disrespected. That will only change when throngs of passionate Muslims show up for rallies against terrorism, and when rabble-rousers trying to gin up a riot over a defiled Koran can't get the time of day.

Witchcraft In The Church
Charles Newbold

Chapter 14 - The Harlot Church System

What could the practice of witchcraft possibly have to do with the church? Much in many different ways. William's experience is one example.

William had been called by the church officials to pastor their little independent fellowship. After much prayer and consultation, he and his wife agreed. They left their home community to face the challenges of this new work. He tells about it this way:

I knew from the beginning that Stella was in control of this church, I guess I ignored the red flags. This little group of people had unanimously decided it was God's will for me to be their pastor and after much prayer, I accepted. It was deceiving at first, because my initial contacts were with her husband and another man. Then it happened. One incident after another. She came against everything I did. She resisted my preaching. She controlled the finances and the Christian school the church ran. She did it all through her husband. He was her voice.

Then the church officials called a meeting with me. I could tell something was wrong when I walked in. They said they wanted me to be at the church every morning by six o'clock to handle the daycare when the children came in.

"I thought you wanted me to pastor the church--to spend time in prayer, study, and ministry. The daycare was never mentioned," I replied.

They answered back, "There's not any men down here. We need somebody down here if light bulbs need to be changed."

"Wait a minute," I said, "I didn't come here to change light bulbs." I knew then they didn't want me around anymore. So I asked them if they believed God had sent me here. I challenged them to think about it before they answered. I asked each one in turn and they each replied, "No." "Then we don't need to carry this meeting on any further," I told them.

Stella's husband said, "Well I'm sure we can work out something."

"Brother," I answered, "you just told me that you didn't think God sent me here. If you don't think God sent me here, then why would you want to work things out?" This was the demise of that relationship. We were fired just one month after we had moved on the field.

Stella wanted William to pastor her church as long as she could control and manipulate him to do what she wanted done. Trouble broke out between them, however, anytime he did anything or said anything that threatened her hold on things.

She operated in the Jezebel spirit and her husband perfectly played out the Ahab role. When they brought their manipulations and control issues into the life and affairs of the church, they practiced witchcraft in the church--witchcraft being: anything we do to manipulate other people to do things against their wills in order to achieve our own self-centered desires. Wherever it is practiced, or however slightly it is practiced, witchcraft is still witchcraft.

WITCHCRAFT IN THE CHURCH

People practice witchcraft in the church as thoughtlessly as they do in everyday life. It is an abomination to God when it is practiced in any arena, but more especially when we practice it among one another in the family of God.

Jesus is the head of His body, the called-out-ones. The Holy Spirit is His administrator. Those who follow Jesus are obedient to His Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit establishes the Kingdom of God. It can never be established by the hand of self-strength and the practice of witchcraft.

When men assume headship over Christ's body and people submit to that false headship, the flesh rather than the Spirit of Jesus is operating. The fact that such terms as ambition, impatience, competition, success, promotion, contention, contrariness, argumentativeness, divisiveness, and unyieldedness are commonplace among those who rule the churches and abide in them is evidence enough that they are operating in the flesh.

The flesh nature of man is controlling and manipulative--thus, it engages in the practice of witchcraft. When what you have is headed by man (or woman), it will always be under the rule of witchcraft--men building their own kingdoms under the pretext of being the Kingdom of God.

The structures of denominations and institutionalized churches are headed by man; therefore, they are out of scriptural order. Those who rule the churches may say that Christ is the head of their church, but He is not. He cannot be the head of many different bodies. He is the head of His body. There is only one body of Christ. If Jesus were in charge of these man-ruled organizations, there would be no need for men and women to politic for positions. If He were the head of the churches, there would only be one church because there is only one body of Christ. On the contrary, the churches are divided one against the other.

It is an alarming thing to realize that this Thing we call church is not ruled by the Holy Spirit, but by witchcraft. In the street-savvy words of Bob Hughey, "Everything that is called Christian and Holy Spirit, ain't. Be warned."

SELF-AGGRANDIZEMENT

Self-seeking people who rule the churches are typically fueled by the need to increase themselves in power, position, riches, and domination. They are Nicolaitans who are prodded by the Jezebel spirit.

They garner large sums of unrighteously gained tithes and offerings to build elaborate edifices for themselves rather than beautifying the Lord of glory and His bride. They seduce others to join them rather than joining others to Jesus Christ. They devise schemes, programs, and marketing plans complete with logos and slogans to entice people to join them. They inspire loyalty and commitment to themselves and their vision rather than to Jesus and His vision for the bride.

They bind people to their own laws and phony doctrines. They guilt-provoke people to sign pledge cards, causing them to make oaths that God has not asked them to make. They build their identities around their names, positions, clerical collars, titles, denominations, traditions, doctrines, and heritage. They deceive people into thinking that busyness is godliness. They use their power to endow other people with power, that they might ally those other people to themselves. They give the more honored seats to the persons who come in wearing the gold rings and costly apparel. James 2:2. People, their money, and their talents are rungs on the ladder they use to climb to the heights of their own ambitions which are fueled by their imaginations.

Personal Hidden Agenda

Self-seeking people who rule the churches have personal agendas. Self-seeking personal agendas conflict with God's agenda. Their agendas are often hidden. Different people have different agendas. Bishop Pete built a new sanctuary out of his need for identity. Father David entered the ministry to please his dad. Reverend Dan earned a doctoral degree to receive recognition and better positions. Dr. Anthony was committed to writing a new book every year just to maintain his popularity.

People with hidden agendas need supporters to carry out their plans. They may want increased church memberships, newer and bigger buildings, inflated reputations, or better salaries. They need noses and nickels to achieve their desired high standings. They know that "bigness" impresses people. They have taught each other that. So the bigger they get, the more impressive they think they will become. The more popular many ministers become, the more riches people lavish upon them.

Their agendas must be kept hidden from their supporters, for the truth would result in a loss of support; therefore, they seek to gain loyalty and support by provoking fear, condemnation, guilt, emotionalism, and by falsifying reports.

APPEALS FOR MONEY

Self-seeking people who rule the churches depend upon other people to make themselves and their churches successful. Naive and unsuspecting "partners" or members are deceived into believing that giving to these ministries or churches ruled by people with personal agendas are "as unto the Lord." These ministries often make people feel guilty if they do not give as much as they might freely choose to give. They extract tithes and offerings from their constituency, deceiving them into believing that they are "seeding" into the Kingdom of God when, in fact, they are empowering the kingdoms of men.

They appeal to their supporters' emotions in order to persuade them to give to their ministry or church. If they are TV personalities, they may promise to send their supporters a free gift for their donation: books, tapes, prayer cloths, anointing oil from Israel, or some other token. Their mail-outs are carefully, professionally designed to tug on the heartstrings of donors, manipulating them into giving money.

They falsely teach that their churches are the storehouses for those members who "belong" to them. Many of them accumulate wealth and lavish it back upon themselves in the building, maintenance, and preservation of their organizations and institutions while the poor around the world go without food, clothing, shelter, and the gospel of the Kingdom of God. Jesus never even slightly suggested that, "Inasmuch as you build your buildings and preserve your institutions, you have done it unto Me." Rather He said that inasmuch as we feed the hungry, give a drink to a stranger, clothe the naked, visit the sick and imprisoned, we are doing these things to Him. Matt. 25:35-40.

ANGER AND RAGE

Some of those self-seeking people who rule the churches may be insecure control addicts who need to maintain a sense of order in their lives to feel safe. They may be perfectionists who impose their standard of perfection upon others. When others fail to meet their standards, they become frustrated and rageful. Rage is part of their arsenal of weapons to manipulate others into conformity. Pastor Daniel was such a one.

Pastor Daniel's church--and I emphasize that it was "his" church--served as a showcase for his drive to perform. He was an accomplished orator, avid reader, and had a winning personality. His setting was exquisite and his staging was professional. He attracted crowds and multiplied members, but he could not keep them. "Why do people go out the back door as quickly as they come in the front?" he asked.

He did not want to hear the truth. He wanted it to be "their" fault, not his. People left because of his misuse of authority. He was spiritually and emotionally abusive. It was, after all, "his" church and no one was permitted to do anything unless invited to do so. His church was his theater, his pulpit was his stage, and he was the show. Those who had the slightest thought of contradicting him, especially if they had been given a place of leadership, became suspect. They had to be dealt with, usually tongue-lashed.

Leaving his church was not a pleasant option. Those who tried were often threatened by the suggestion that they would be out of God's will and bad things would happen to them. The loyalty of many within his membership was based on fear and intimidation.

His Jezebel wife fueled his feverish manipulations with her own. She ruled surreptitiously behind his throne. Most everyone knew that, but no one dared to speak a word. "Hush" was the operative rule in this extended dysfunctional family he called a church.

FLATTERY

Self-seeking people who rule the churches often flatter their prospects in order to win them in. "You two have so much to offer. It's a shame you aren't involved in a church somewhere." That one has been used on my wife and me a few times. We were said to be the poster couple for one church we attended. I think it was meant to flatter us, but it did not.

Flattery is enticing, seductive, and deceitful. When we fail to see what is happening to us, we are taken in by it. It has the deceitful motive of complimenting us in order to win favor from us. A true compliment does not have an ulterior motive, but those who flatter are putting on the charm in order to get something from us for themselves. They are like the adulterous woman in Proverbs 7:4-5 who preys upon believers who lack discernment: "Say to wisdom, You are my sister; and call understanding your kinswoman: that they may keep you from the strange [adulterous] woman, from the stranger who flatters with her words."

Flattery is an appeal to the flesh for greatness, grandeur, sensual pleasure, success, and riches--all having to do with things in the world.

POSSESSIVENESS AND OWNERSHIP

Self-seeking people who rule the churches are typically possessive and claim ownership over their constituency. If they own you, they can control you. If they cannot control you, they will disown you.

Membership in the churches is a claim of ownership that the churches have over a set number of people. All churches and denominations do it. Pick any. In 1997, the Southern Baptist Convention reported 15,891,514 members and 40,887 churches. 3 {22} Why do we need to know how many people belong to us? Why do we need to know how many people were in Sunday School and worship services? Why is it important to compare this figure with "this time last year"? Who are we counting for? We count because we measure our success with numbers.

I was in a meeting as a new believer and decided to count the attendance. A still, small voice in my spirit interrupted and said, "Don't count. You don't know who counts." I found out in time, as people came and went, how right that was. Besides, are we not counting the tares along with the wheat? Jesus told us that the wheat and the tares grow up together. Matt. 13:24-30. We do not always know who they are. If we need to count noses and know that we are including tares in that number, then we need to know that we are not counting as God counts. We are counting something for Self.

Perhaps we count to determine how strong we are. The Bible records three times when a census was taken of Israel. The first two times, God ordered it. God commanded Moses to take a census of all the congregation of the children of Israel from twenty years and older, numbering their armies. Num. 1. The second time, the LORD told Moses and Eleazar to take the sum (census) of "all the congregation of the children of Israel, from twenty years old and upward, throughout their fathers' house, all that are able to go to war in Israel." Num. 26.

The third time is when King David ordered a census on his own. 1 Chronicles 21 tells how Satan stood up against Israel and provoked David to number Israel. 2 Samuel 24:1 reports this story saying, "the anger of the LORD was kindled against Israel, and He moved David against them to say, 'Go, number Israel and Judah.'" The key to what is going on here is found in verse two of both passages. David ordered the census saying, "that I may know the number of people." God was greatly displeased with David and sent a plague upon Israel killing seventy thousand men. David's desire to count his increase resulted in great losses. He put his confidence in the strength of numbers, rather than in God. It was good for God to count Israel. Israel belonged to Him. It was not good for David to count Israel. Israel did not belong to him. David sought ownership of the citizenry for himself. It was something Satan put in his heart to do.

We are fascinated by numbers. We build our significance upon how big we perceive ourselves to be. Size is a matter of opinion. In order to determine how big we are, we have to compare ourselves with others. Comparing ourselves with others is a prideful and competitive spirit which has no place in the Kingdom of God. Church rulers relate to "their" church members as extensions of themselves. They validate themselves by their statistics. They feel they must possess people in order to keep them.

Sonny was at the ball park with his kids one steamy, summer night and saw Pastor Gene. Sonny asked, "Do you have someone here?" "All of mine are here," he answered. Sonny was puzzled by his answer. Sonny knew Pastor Gene did not have children of his own playing ball that night. Pastor Gene explained, "If they are a member of my church, they belong to me." Sonny regretted later that he had not asked him at the time, "Do you really want that responsibility? They are not your sheep. They belong to Jesus."

Taking possession and claiming ownership of God's sheep is a very grievous thing to God.

HYPE

Self-seeking people who rule the churches often hype things up to make themselves look good. Hype in this context is trying to make the Holy Spirit "happen" in self-strength. Hype is what leaders do to pretend the presence of God. These leaders have to make their services look like God is moving in their midst whether He is or not. He is not, so they substitute hype for Spirit. They try to make things happen that are not happening, or try to make it look like things are happening when they are not.

Hype is the practice of witchcraft. We see and hear it in many "charismatic" church services, conferences, and meetings when the praise and worship leader prolongs the energized music for an hour or so, pretending that the Holy Spirit is present or hoping to invoke His presence. When the Holy Spirit chooses not to manifest Himself, the congregation may be brow-beaten for not singing loud enough, clapping their hands long enough, praying hard enough, or dancing in the Spirit wildly enough. "Put your hands together and give the Lord a clap offering." "Somebody give me an amen!" We are manipulated to do and say things that we do not want to do and say--things that are not in our hearts to do and say. We fake it anyway because we do not want to stand out in the crowd, to be thought of as rebellious, or to be accused of quenching the Spirit. When we fake something, that makes us a fake--Pharisees.

Those who practice hype, such as we often witness on so-called "Christian TV", falsely measure the Holy Spirit's presence by the loudness of the music, the emotional fervor of the audience, the fancy footwork of the preacher, the religious prompting of amens from the crowd, or the number of persons slain in the Spirit--"doing carpet time" as they say. Some ministries look to these things to validate themselves.

PERFORMANCE MENTALITY

Many self-seeking people who rule the churches have turned their churches and ministries into entertainment centers and seek ministers who are crowd-pleasing showmen. Their theater-designed church auditoriums and "entertain-me" hungry congregations demand this performance mentality.

"Christian" entertainment is big business today. The self-seeking, secular-owned executives within the so-called "Christian" music industry are driven by the corporate bottom line. If that which we call "Christian" can become an industry, it is not the real thing. Christian "artists" (the big ones are called "stars") are the product of this profit-driven industry and are themselves often driven by the need for popularity, money, and possibly winning the coveted Dove award. I suppose this award is considered Christian because of the dove which symbolizes the Holy Spirit. Why do so-called Christian entertainers even want a trophy? Who are they performing for? Do they have a special cabinet at home in which to display them? Is their motivation to gain fame and fortune the same as those in the world? Or is it a sacrifice of praise to the Lord without regard for personal gain?

Authors, Bible teachers, TV personalities, evangelists: Are your efforts entirely to serve the Lord, or to serve Self? If for the Lord, then they are Holy Spirit inspired. If for Self, then they are driven by witchcraft.

FALSE ASSURANCE OF SALVATION

Self-seeking people who rule the churches dispense a false assurance of salvation.

In spite of the fact that Christians own the churches, many who belong to them are Christian in name only. They have only a religious relationship with God. Their real relationship is with their religion and their church. God is distant to them. They go to these things we call church because it makes them feel righteous. They have performed their religious duty. This gives them a false assurance of salvation. Church leaders foster this sense of false assurance of salvation by making people feel they are okay because they attend and support their church. People are made to feel guilty when they do not.

Dennis Loewen wrote me:

Years ago I heard a tape by Leonard Ravenhill. He told of having lunch with a pastor who was one of the recognized national leaders of the American church. He asked the question, "When will the church start ministering the salvation found in Jesus Christ?" The pastor replied, "We are ministering salvation!" Ravenhill disagreed, "No, you are ministering the assurance of salvation."

Ravenhill had it right. "Assurance" is being dispensed weekly for an hour's attendance and a few dollars in the collection plate. This, by far, is the main product being sold by the present-day church. This is their bread and butter, and nobody better mess with it.

Had Jesus only cleansed the Temple of the selling of merchandise (our present-day Jesus junk, the equivalent), it would have made them mad. However, His ministry threatened to take away their main and most profitable product--that the people had to achieve rightness with God by coming to the Temple.

Jesus capsulated this message to the woman at the well. John 4:20-24. He told her that the hour comes when men will no longer have to go to Jerusalem to worship the Father. We have all seen the ugly jealousy of the modern churches in guarding their self-proclaimed commission as the modern Temple where people have to come to be "right." When the Jews saw and heard Jesus, they knew their scheme was over, so they had to kill Him.

So it is with this message. If we speak against the lesser physical and materialistic implications of the modern shameless merchandising of the gospel, we'll make some enemies and maybe even a few friends. But, if we speak to the spiritual root, look out, because most churches are dispensing assurance, and teaching that their organization is the place to receive it.

Jesus promised we would be hated and despised for the sake of the gospel. He knew the world would not be the main threat any more than it was for Him, but that our enemies would kill us thinking they are doing God a service.

American Christianity is no less apostate than the Babylonian (Talmud) mess Jesus encountered in Jerusalem. It's undeniable. Churches are doing a brisk business in the souls of men dispensing the assurance of salvation and making the process so easy that nobody has a chance to become poor in spirit or mourn for their sins. Paul said, "It is with much tribulation we enter" (Acts 14:22) and "without controversy, great is the mystery of godliness." 1 Tim. 3:16.

When we get into their faces and tell them they can no longer deceive the people with this false assurance of salvation, all of the promises of Jesus about being a persecuted disciple will be made manifest.

Of all of these ways in which we practice witchcraft in the churches--self-aggrandizement, hidden agendas, appeals for money, rage, flattery, possessiveness, hype, performance, and false assurance of salvation--legalism is by far the more cunning enemy to the body of Christ.

What Is Really Going On

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

July 20, 2008

This past week a reader wrote in and expressed astonishment at the level and nature of the accusations coming out against the Lakeland Outpouring. They wrote that some of what is being said is really over the top, even outright lies.

So what is really going on to produce such a surge of criticism? To put it briefly,
The Devil is Hoppin' Mad, that's what.

This year the Jewish Passover took place on April 20, 2008. This was also the time when a major event took place in the heavenlies.

Now many writers are speaking of the church turning a corner, entering a new phase or era, or making a great transition. Here are a couple for example. There are many others.
Lakeland - Transition Church Age To Kingdom Age Clay Sikes Jun 17, 2008

The Kingdom Age The Fulfillment Of The Church Kriston Couchey July 20, 2008

Lakeland And His Kingdom Deborah Cozzetti 05/27/08

In his article posted on the Day of Passover, Revival And Healing In Florida Todd Bentley 04/20/08, Todd had this to say.

> Written April 16, 2008
> Dear Friends,
> As I write this, just two hours ago at 2pm, the Glory fell on me; I've been weeping and praying about what is happening here in Florida. I honestly have never felt such a manifest presence. People are saying they feel the glory 10 miles away from the meetings, it's that tangible.

Bentley also made reference to a Prophetic Word Spoken over Todd Bentley and the Nations by Rob DeLuca of New Zealand from March 8, 2008. Rob said about Todd:

> I see something BIG in Florida. Then I saw the Lord turning you into a human nail, you know, like a spike nail. I saw the hand of God, I saw the Father hit this hammer and it hit you and it went straight into the ground of Florida. I saw a scroll attached to this nail and it said, "The Kingdom of God has now come."

In another posting on the same day, River of Fire being Released Christine Beadsworth wrote this:

> Apr 18, 2008
> Dear saints
> Recently, in worship, I saw a river approaching very fast and it was burning with fire. The outpouring is one of both fire and Spirit-empowered water of the Word in a way never before seen in church as we know it.

She went on to say:

> While watching the meeting on 17th April via the internet (www.freshfire.ca) in Lakeland, Florida with evangelist Todd Bentley, the Spirit of the Lord spoke a message through me to the Body of Christ and His Bride. He is doing a new thing in the earth. We have not experienced this before. Rivers are springing up in the desert, deep hidden reserves of the revelation of Christ and His glory are being released from within the Rock and the latter rain is being released from heaven simultaneously.

She also gave a spoken prophecy that was posted the following week. River Of Fire Christine Beadsworth 04/28/08, which said:

> April 17, 2008
> (This is pertaining to the revival that's happening in FL via Todd Bentley) The Lord says, you call this revival and you call this a new visitation but I say unto you, this is not a visitation, this is habitation! For I the Lord, will dwell in the midst of My people and I shall be a wall of fire round about her and I shall be the glory in the midst of her for I have come on the throne of My glory with My many angels and I am separating the sheep from the goats, says the Lord, and for those who are the sheep who have followed My voice and who know Me. I say to you, inherit the kingdom that was prepared for you from before the foundation of the world

Then in May, Christine wrote the following.

> ## Witness For The Prosecution?
> ## Christine Beadsworth
> May 15, 2008
> > Rev 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.
>
> When the accuser of the brethren is cast down, the kingdom of God comes on the scene in power. This verse tells us that Satan accuses the brethren day and night before the throne. The only way he is able to do that is by finding someone in the Body who is willing to voice his accusation.
> It is time for the unmasking of the accuser of the brethren in the midst of the Body of Christ. He is not wearing horns and a forked tail. He is dressed in the most respectable religious garment and is often heard at prayer meetings saying “thank you Lord that I am not like other men…” He is always praying ‘them versus us’ kind of prayers, pointing fingers at sectors of the Body that are in some way spiritually inferior. Are you willing to cast him down?

Then on July 9 came a very interesting revelation via Mitt Jeffords.

Lakeland - 7 Seals - The Revelation of Jesus Christ Mitt Jeffords 07/09/08

Mitt went to Lakeland to see for himself what was happening. Here are a couple quotes from his article.

> Once I arrived back from Lakeland, I began to seek and ask the Lord for understanding of this dream, and why did he give it to me in Lakeland. The first thing the Lord said to me was this: “Judgment has now begun in the house of the Lord”. I then said: “Judgment? What kind of judgment?” In the three days that I was there in Lakeland, and in the many times that I had watched this revival on God TV since, I did not see or perceive that I was witnessing anything that resembled what I would call “the judgment of the Lord”. Then the Lord said, “Where are my prophets and my apostles who understand judgment, seeing that this is the hour that I have appointed to judge the house of God? This is the hour that my people, from the least to the greatest, are going to be judged on how they see and on what they have believed concerning me; for this is the hour of the “Revelation of Jesus Christ”; the revelation that is going to judge my church. Do you see me? Do you know me? Do you believe on me? Have you seen me in Lakeland?
> This is the hour of fear and dread; for this is the hour that Satan and all his demons have feared and dreaded since the beginning. Satan and his demons have known from the beginning that their kingdom would only be allowed to continue in this fallen world until I returned in the fullness of the glory of my Father’s love; that which the revelation of Jesus Christ > is bringing on earth. This is the hour that the revelation of Jesus Christ is going to judge the kingdom of Darkness, to destroy it. This is the hour that the Darkness of all vanity and lies is going to be revealed by the Light. This is the hour that many will run from my face rather than repent. I tell you that my people may not yet fully understand and comprehend what has started in Lakeland, but Satan and his demons certainly do. It is for this reason that Satan has now been stirred up to come forth against the inhabitants of the earth with wrath, and against the saints to conquer them with deceitful lies. That which I have begun in Lakeland is not just a healing outpouring and neither is it just a revival, but this is the opening of the first of the seven seals, that which will begin to finish the victory that started when my Father's love sent me into this world. The revelation of Jesus Christ brings forth the revelation of God; and the revelation of God brings forth the kingdom of God; and the kingdom of God brings forth the demise and end of the kingdom of this fallen world. Just as light brings forth a demise of the darkness, so also does "seeing" bring forth the demise of blindness, and so also will righteousness bring forth an end to sin. Blessed are all those who will see me, receive me, and believe on me in this hour, for they shall be filled with the glorious revelation of Jesus Christ. Woe to those who see, then reject and scorn the revelation of Father's love that has now begun, for they shall be filled with same fear and dread as their father the Devil is filled with.

All of these articles and prophecies mention several themes that are closely related. The Revelation of Jesus Christ, the Latter Rain, The Kingdom of God and so on.
Notice that Rob DeLucca mentioned "The Kingdom of God has now come." This is just what is said in the verse Christine quoted

> Revelation 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

This puts us squarely in the middle of the Book of The Revelation of Jesus Christ. Lets look at the rest of that chapter.

> Revelation 12:10-17
> 10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.
> 11 And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death.
> 12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.
> 13 And when the dragon saw that he was cast unto the earth, he persecuted the woman which brought forth the man child.
> 14 And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.
> 15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.
> 16 And the earth helped the woman, and the earth opened her mouth, and swallowed up the flood which the dragon cast out of his mouth.
> 17 And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ.

So what is happening now is seen in verse 12.

> Revelation 12:12 Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabiters of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time.

Saying the devil is having great wrath is the same as saying he is hoppin' mad. So what does he do? Check out verse 15.

> Revelation 12:15 And the serpent cast out of his mouth water as a flood after the woman, that he might cause her to be carried away of the flood.

Now remember any thing that comes out of Satan's mouth is going to be a lie. So what is really going on is that he is casting out of his mouth a flood of lies, accusations and slander.

Now it seems that there are some who have issues with Todd Bentley.
Or there are some who have issues with Todd and his mentors Patricia King and Bob Jones.
Then there are some who also have problems with the apostolic elders who have endorsed Todd; Peter Wagner, Bill Johnson, John Arnott, and Che Ahn.
Of Course there are some who have issues with the entire prophetic movement.
And some have issues with the entire Charismatic movement.
Some have a problem with the complete Pentecostal movement.
Others have issues with the whole evangelical movement.
Some have a problem with the protestant reformation.
Some have issues with all of Christianity; Catholic, Protestant, Orthodox and whatever else.
Others have problems with all of the Judaeo-Christian culture; Judaism and Christianity.
And some have issues with all of humanity. This goes back to Genesis 1 when God said this:

> Genesis 1:26 And God said, Let us make man in our image*, after our likeness: and let them have dominion over the fish of the sea, and over the fowl of the air, and over the cattle, and over all the earth, and over every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth.*

So it's no wonder that these same have issues with healing the sick, raising the dead, cleansing the leper and casting out devils.

Starting with Todd Bentley, we have traced back an ever widening group till we see all the human race, with good old Todd at the point of the spear. This means the Todd is God's point man of the hour. And just as in actual ground combat, the point man is the one out front taking the hits. Initials TB could well stand for 'Targeted Big-Time.' Then good old Todd needs prayer covering, big time.

So let us agree with the word of God, that the accuser of our brethren is cast down.

> Ephesians 4:29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace unto the hearers.

Wolves In Sheep's Clothing

Jesse Morrell

Recognizing a false teacher by specific characteristics
www.OpenAirOutreach.com

I am not one to see a legion in every pig or a snake in every garden. But through studying the Word of God and observing many modern preachers I can boldly declare in the full confidence and blessing of God that there are wolves disguised as sheep amongst our flocks!

Though there are many wolves in the woods and fields of secularism and false religions, I am afraid that there are some who have wandered out of those territories looking for food and have entered into our own pastures.

False teachers can be distinctly defined because their characteristics are obvious enough and are clearly outlined in scripture. Yet it seems that so few believers recognize them in these modern times. The True Shepherd spoke much on this issue, yet it seems to be a greatly neglected subject today as though our generation is exempt and our Churches are not in any danger of false teachers.

Many Churches have let down the walls of discernment and thus become spiritually broken down cities being trampled upon by the enemy. Our hearts must become as Jeremiahs who said "My heart within me is broken because of the prophets". (Jer 23:9).

Every single minister must be measured by the Word of God and not by their degrees or popularity. No minister should be exempt from this. No other tool can adequately measure a minister then the Holy Scriptures. We should be so familiar with the truth that when false teaching and false teachers are seen and heard by us they will stick out as black sheep and be automatically recognized. If we do not know the Word of God we will not recognize the lies of Satan. Many modern ministers would certainly be in big trouble if those in the pews actually started reading their Bibles as they should.

Ezekiel's ministry was sure not to be a popular one when he was told to "prophecy against the prophets...who prophesy out of their own hearts." (Ez 13:2). It's time that we also risk our reputations and "prophecy against the prophets" that appear to be helping the body of Christ, but when in actuality they are gravely hurting the body of Christ. This is not a "naming names" article - there would be too many names to name, but it clearly reveals scriptural characteristics to equip every Christian to individually examine ministers.

While working on this message I awoke in the middle of the night after tossing, turning, and even sweating under the fear and torment of the thought that I myself was a heretic for writing a message such as this. Then I realized that this overwhelming fear was the handiwork of the accuser. I began to rest in the fact that all the points made are backed up by the truth of the Word. It is my hope and prayer that this message hits the devil hard and that it becomes a thorn in his side.

Their appearance:

"Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly they are ravening wolves." (Matt 7:15)

"Oh I'm not too worried about false prophets. I'm sure I'll recognize them when I see them" someone might think to themselves. You don't know the nature of deception. Recognizing false teachers is not easily done, considering that they have the appearance of being sheep.

The mission of a deceiver is to deceive. Deceivers will not always appear deceptive, or else they would never be able to deceive anyone. Their lies will always be disguised as truth. Beware because their charm will be enticing and their glamour blinding for those who refuse to be discerning.

The neighbors of caught serial killers always say "I just can't believe that he could commit such a horrendous act. I knew him personally; he was such a nice guy." Likewise when a nice, friendly, commercial smiley preacher teaches doctrines which are contrary to the Word of God, his followers defend him by saying "Oh but he's just so sincere and genuine." Be careful.

Appearance can be quite deceiving. "Never judge a book by its cover" and never judge a man by his outward appearance. (John 7:24). He may look like a fellow believer outwardly, but inwardly he is a wolf who is out for himself and not for the flock. Often they will look better and more successful than everyone else, portraying the image that everyone would want to be like. Their grass many look greener and their water clearer, but they are poisoned with lies and seasoned with deceit.

Their reputation:

"Woe to you when all men speak well of you, For so did their fathers to the false prophets." (Lu 6:26)

It would seem that the very ones that the earth respects and adores are the very ones that Heaven rejects and abhors. You must always be cautious when you hear men highly singing the praises of a certain minister and telling you how wonderful he truly is. There is a problem if all men speak well of him. It seems to be often that those whom everyone speaks nasty of are the ones that I find uncompromisingly preaching the Word of God. The top concern of a false teacher is to please man while the interest of a true and faithful witness is to please God. Those who please man often do not please God, and those who please God often do not please man.

The popular minister is not like Christ who was thrown out of the synagogues, who even foretold to those who follow Him "They will put you out of the synagogues" as well. (John 16:2). All of God's greatest men have been some of the most hated men. Martin Luther who started the Protestant movement, John Wesley and George Whitefield who founded early Methodism and sparked some of the great revivals of history, William & Catherine Booth who formed and led the Salvation Army - were all people who were kicked out of the established Church of their day. If a "good" name or a "good" reputation automatically meant a good preacher, then what about the early Church that was "spoken against everywhere"? (Acts 28:22)

Consider the perception of the people who observed both Jeremiah and the false prophets. While Jeremiah shouted "violence and plunder" (Jer 20:8), the false prophets gently spoke of "peace, peace". (Jer 6:14). How odd, how strange, how abrasive, Jeremiah must have appeared to the onlookers. He was wrongly thought of as being negative, condemning, and judgmental compared to the easy, tolerant, smooth talking prophets of his day. Jeremiahs spoke the words that shattered like a hammer.

The false prophets spoke soft words that couldn't prick even the strongest conscience. Their messages may drip honey and their words are smoother then oil but their feet go down to death and their doctrines lay hold of hell.

I am thoroughly convinced that a minister will be rejected by Heaven if he is accepted by the world, "for what fellowship hath righteousness with unrighteousness? And what communion hath light with darkness?

(2Co 6:14) I can not think of a single minister of God in the New Testament that got along with the world. Most of them ended up being martyred. Those who get along with the world must not be getting along with the God who the world has rejected. A false teacher will be allowed to preach even on the vilest of TV channels.

You can expect to find their books even in secular stores and hear their messages of "How to never be hurt again" and "Walking in the anointing of wealth" on secular channels like I have seen. A false teacher will have the stamp of approval of the devil, the stamp of approval of the world, but will not have the stamp of approval of Heaven. The only thing Heaven will stamp on them will be the words "Depart".

The false teachers will reign high and lifted up on the mountains of acceptance while the true and faithful are forced into the desert of rejection, soon to be imprisoned and beheaded. Even the most bizarre "prophetic" words are being well received while the foundational and biblical message of "repent" is entirely neglected and largely ignored. Rather then being salt we have many candy-land preachers who are serving the never-satisfied bellies of men. "The prophets prophecy falsely, and the priests rule by their own power; and my people love to have it so." (Jer 5:31).

Their message:

"For they have healed the hurt of the daughter of My people slightly, Saying, Peace, peace! When there is no peace" (Jer. 8:11, Eze 13:16)

Jeremiah's message and the message of the other prophets stand in sharp contrast. As Jeremiah shouted his message of "violence and plunder" for Israel if they didn't repent and turn back to God, the other prophets came with a message of peace and prosperity for the wicked and backslidden nation. They became very popular. They gave false hope and false peace... They make those who are in terrible danger of hell feel as though they were in secure safety on a cruise ship to Heaven.

The refreshment which they give is a delusion and the comfort they give is imaginary. They will prophecy lies and deceit to sooth those who are on their way to eternal destruction.

In David Kirkwoods book called "The Great Gospel Deception" he wrote, "Of course, no teacher in the church is going to stand up and declare that what he is teaching is contrary to the New Testament. Rather, he will neglect certain important scriptures and twist others to persuade his constituency that he is teaching the truth."

The deceptive part is that they will appear to be preaching grace, but it's another grace. They appear to be preaching the gospel, but it's another gospel. They appear to be preaching Christ, but it's another Christ. The subtlety is so deceptive that few are able to make the distinction.

A false teacher will tell his people whatever it is that they want to hear. They will play the chameleon and will always be politically correct. They avoid any truth, no matter how important, that could be controversial or could rock the boat. They are peace-keepers, not peace-makers. Their messages keep the peace between themselves and men rather then creating peace between men and God. Their messages are always pleasant and easy to swallow, intentionally avoiding the heavy and hard Scriptures in the Bible.

A false teacher goes with the crowd. God's men, more often then not, go against it! A great preacher once said "heresy is highly exalting one biblical truth over the rest, so that other biblical truths become neglected.

"False teachers speak only of blessing, prosperity, and the favor of God but will not touch on Gods righteous wrath or His holy indignation. They promise an easy life, Christ promises a crucified life. They serve the flesh as opposed to serving The Spirit. They appeal to the greedy heart of man as opposed to the conscience.

The days in which Paul warned about are devastatingly upon us, though few seem to recognize it. "For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine, but according to their own desires, because they have itching ears, they will heap up for themselves teachers; and they will turn their ears away from the truth, and be turned aside to fables. " (2 Ti 4:3-4).

Their messages will manipulate Scriptures to mean the exact opposite of what it was originally for. "Whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap" (Gal 6:7) is often used when a preacher is begging for money. However in context this particular scripture has nothing to do with money but everything to do with death and life.

The following verse says: "For he that sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that sows to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting." (Gal 6:8). Whatever happened to freely giving and expecting nothing back? Modern preachers will teach "give and expect your blessing back!" Giving to get is greedy giving.

How many of these hot-shot prosperity preachers can say with the great Apostle Paul, "To the present hour we both hunger and thirst, and we are poorly clothed, and beaten, and homeless"? (1 Cor 4:11)

So rather then preaching life eternal, many are preaching life enhancement. Rather then preaching deliverance from sin and hell, they preach deliverance from suffering and hurt. Ray Comfort wrote "The modern gospel has degenerated into means of happiness, rather than one of righteousness."

Their audience:

"Then many false prophets will rise up and deceive many." (Mt 24:11)

The pulpit-less street corner preachers are often viewed as being false preachers while those with large mega churches are thought of as having "the blessing and anointing of God". This again is judging by outward appearance and by the worldly standard of success as opposed to judging the content of their message by the Scriptures. If John the Baptist came preaching in the wilderness, or Jesus Christ came preaching on the hill top, or the Apostle Paul came preaching in the market place, I wonder what modern Christianity would think of them? It says that "many" false teachers will "deceive many". This means that they will have many followers, even enough to fill a mega-Church. If we measure a man's anointing or the blessing of God on a ministry by how many people believe in the message and the messenger, then the false prophets in the Old Testament would be from God and men like Jeremiah would be considered a liar.

"For false christ's and false prophets will rise and show signs and wonders to deceive, if possible, even the elect." (Mr 13:22) A false teacher will deceive both the sinful and the uneducated. Their audience will be made up of both sinners and saints. They appeal to the sinner because sinners never are made to feel bad about their lifestyles, but rather are given false hope and false peace.

They appeal to the saint because they appear to be the real deal; they are wearing sheep's clothing though they are wolves. "For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into apostles of Christ. And no wonder! For Satan himself transforms himself into an angel of light." (2 Cor 11:13-14) May this ring in our ears and sting in our hearts!

Their Motive:

"Woe to the shepherds of Israel who feed themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the flocks?" (Ezekiel 34:2)

A false teacher has an eye on people's bank accounts while a true preacher has his eyes on eternity.

False teachers may have the appearance of loving people, yet they are truly only concerned about themselves to further and enhance their own processions and careers. They feed themselves when they need to be feeding the flocks. They skin the sheep alive to clothe themselves, leaving the sheep beaten, battered, and bloody to die. Paul was "poor, yet making many rich" (2 Co 6:10) while these men are rich by making many poor! With their manipulating words and twisting of scriptures they ransack and plunder the pockets of unsuspecting people to line their own.

Leonard Ravenhill wrote: "Preachers who have homes and cottages by the lake, a boat on that lake, and a big bank balance, still beg for more...These dear, doll-like preachers-boys no longer change their suits once a day, but two or three times a day. They preach the Jesus of the stables, but themselves live in swank hotels. For their own lusts they bleed the audience financially in the name of the One who had to borrow a penny to illustrate His sermon. They wear expensive Hollywood suits in honor of One who wore a peasant's robe... How fearful will all this be in the judgment morning?"

A true preacher speaks for God while a false preacher speaks for himself. "There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey; they have devoured souls; they have taken the treasure and precious things; they have made her many widows in the midst thereof." (Ezekiel 22:25). The ingredients that make up their ministries are: greed, covetousness, jealousy, lies, and selfishness. Because they are self seeking and self serving, their followers are the same.

A false teacher may preach a message saturated with truth, but it will be seasoned with lies. They will use the Bible and speak the name of Christ. Their Christian language will be the same as ours, and that is their deception. Even the devil lies with half truths!

These men may encourage people to go after God, but will not convict people of their sin. A preacher is "to exhort and convict those who contradict." (1 Tim 1:9). They never warn people that their sin is destructive to their life, deadly to their soul, and disgusting to a Holy God. A watchman that does not blow the trumpet when the sword is coming must either be sleeping or not love the city!

Their results:

"And He spoke a parable to them: "Can the blind lead the blind? Will they not both fall into the ditch?" (Lu 6:39)

The sad truth is that many modern preachers are empty wells, spoiled milk, and broken bridges. They are captives who promise freedom, slaves who guarantee liberty. "Both prophet and priest are profane; yes, in my house I have found their wickedness' says the Lord." (Jer 23:11) They have a reputation among men for being alive but are just as dead in their sins as the worst of men in the eyes of God.

If they were of God, they would be like God. If they walked with Jesus, they would preach like Jesus. A false teacher will give birth to false converts. "But if they had stood in my counsel, and had caused my people to hear my words, then they would have turned them from their evil way and from the evil of their doings." (Jer 23:22).

They will never, or rarely, speak on the anger and wrath of God because they risks becoming unpopular, so those who sit under these men feel that God accepts them just as they are, and that there is no need for repentance. Many today are being sold forgiveness but not at the cost of repentance. They are promised Heaven yet without holiness. Men need medicine but are receiving candy. "Because with lies you have made the heart of the righteous sad, whom I have not made sad; and you have strengthened the hands of the wicked, so that he does not turn from his wicked way to save his life." (Ezekiel 13:22).

A false teacher will turn the grace of God into licentiousness by teaching that God came to save men in their sin, not from their sin.

"For there are certain men crept in unawares, who were before of old ordained to this condemnation, ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness, and denying the only Lord God, and our Lord Jesus Christ." (Jude 1:4). These men ultimately say "Enjoy your sin and enjoy Jesus too". This is the old destructive lie which says Jesus can be your Savior but doesn't have to be your Lord; God is pleased with you even in disobedience. This truly is the modern heresy which has inebriated many. This is the despicable message of freedom to sin rather then freedom from sin. They speak death disguised as life. They lead to bondage cloaked as freedom.

A true shepherd will lead the flock to the pastures of God's word for nourishment, yet these shepherds lead the flock to the slaughter house of false doctrine. A true preacher will lead people to rivers of eternal life to freely drink. Martin Luther wrote: "Those who preach something else than the gospel... may indeed praise themselves ten times with the name of the Apostles, adorn themselves with the name and title of the Christian Church, and even raise the dead.

Actually they are horrible wolves and murderers that do not spare the flock of Christ, but scatter, torture, and slaughter it."

The Answer

"But you be watchful in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, fulfill your ministry" (2 Tim 4:5).

It was as if Paul was saying "yes, men are preaching lies and will continue to deceive the multitudes. But as for you, preach the truth".

We can constantly judge and condemn other ministries, or we can have ministries of our own. It is the truth that will prevail against lies!

David Wilkerson said "We are in a famine in this land. A famine of hearing the Word of the Lord and it's going to get worse, it's going to rage, and many are going to starve spiritually and fall by the wayside on the right and on the left...Name me one Jeremiah type preacher on television. Name me one man who stands unashamedly, not afraid of his income, not afraid of anything!

Name one in the media now who's standing up like Jeremiah or John the Baptist! Where are they? Where are the voices? ...The pulpit was meant to be a burning bush, where a fire was never to go out. And the man who stood in that sacred pulpit is suppose to be a man shut in with God, a man who waits on God, in God's presence until he hears the Word of the Lord, until he hears from the throne of God. And he comes out before the people with the mind of God. He's to speak with plainness the Scriptures said, his speech not in the wisdom of man. He's to speak with spiritual authority. He's to be absolutely fearless. He's to name sin. He's to be the voice of the living God in these last days! This is a burning bush!"

If you want to be a true and faithful witness, you must seek to serve the glory of God and not the glory of yourself. You must be out to expand the Kingdom of God and not to expand your own wallet with earthly treasure that will perish anyway. You must be a salty preacher causing mouths to thirst for righteousness and cuts to burn with conviction.

Vance Havner said "God's preacher is not popular...The King sent Micaiah to prison with hard fare prescribed, bread and water of affliction. True prophets are not always rewarded with an increase in salary and a Church downtown. Many of God's Micaiahs still eat his fare."

To answer the well known question of, "Can't we all just get along?" The answer is no. The only way that the world will accept you is if you accept the world. Christ came to cause division. (Matt 10:34). We must be completely for Christ, we can not have any side loyalties to the world. If you want to follow in the way of the Master, kiss the world good-bye!

Throw reputation out the window for the sake of the truth. Endure afflictions, overcome any hardship; persevere through any tribulation to recover even one sheep that has wandered off. Count it a blessing and a joy when you are hated, rejected, spoken badly of, persecuted, and even killed. Live your life with your heart for God's glory. Even if people do not care for you or your message, care for people and their souls. So then, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature." (Mk 16:15)

Who IS the 5-Fold Ministry?

Karen Francis

There are many teachings on the order of the Lord, especially relating to the 5-fold ministry. In my deep desire for truth, which can only come from the Spirit of Truth, I have sought the Lord regarding this subject. In doing so, I had to lay down all the various teachings, including my own concepts/ideas and seek the Lord anew.

I sincerely respect and honor the Lord's ordinance, which is what made me want to understand it so, but according to the ways of the Lord. To know that the Lord truly does have an ordinance, that is to be honored, yet see how much this so called 'order of the Lord' has deeply wounded so many, can truly cause one to stay before the Lord for some serious answers. In doing so, I would humbly like to share what the Lord has been teaching me regarding the 5-fold ministry. (Note: emphasis on any Scriptures are my own)

Jesus IS the 5-Fold Ministry!!!

All ministries come from Jesus! He is the Head of HIS body and all functions within leadership are to be recognized, in as much as they follow Christ, Who is the Leader. Paul even said, "that people should follow him inasmuch as he was following Christ." It wasn't due to his title, status or position. The only position we truly should acknowledge is our position IN CHRIST.

Jesus said unto him, "Let the dead bury their dead; but you go and preach the Kingdom of God. (Luke 9:60)

And daily in the temple and in every house, they ceased not to teach and preach Jesus Christ. (Acts 5:42)

For we PREACH NOT OURSELVES, but CHRIST JESUS the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus’ sake. (2 Cor. 4:5)

Everything points us back to Christ. The only message that was preached drawing many to the Lord was "Jesus and the Kingdom of God." That was the message. We are to preach Jesus and His kingdom, not ourselves. I have read and heard more teaching on where leadership fits in the church then I have on Christ and His church.

I have been in this very discussion numerous times and each time I try to take the message back to Christ, they ignore it, continually going back to sharing on the place of leadership in the church. It simply grieves my heart.

I love the way Graham Cooke describes the 'function' of the 5-fold ministry...As Midwives. Following are a few other comments that he made, which I believe worthy of sharing:

"If we are wedded more to the structure than we are to the Lord, then we have made an idol of what we have produced. It will have to come down, for God will be against it! Anything that prevents God from moving amongst His people will be overthrown by the Holy Spirit. This happens when God demonstrates through willing people all that He wants to do and be to His bride. Sadly, these are the very people that are labeled disruptive, unteachable, and rebellious." (Graham Cooke)

"It is clear that the Lord is doing a new thing; He is presenting the Church with more new wineskins." When the Lord says "new," He means exactly that...NEW! When He declares an end to one thing and the beginning of a new order, He is deadly serious. (Graham Cooke)

"The biggest danger to the new move of God is the last move is still working! God obeys His own word. He turns His back on the old things and begins to look and speak into the new thing. The three most maligned people groups in the Church are...prophetic people, intercessors and worshippers. They will be the ones that will immediately cross that line and stand under the smile of God. They have to be where God is looking at and speaking into." (Graham Cooke)

"If we fail to reposition ourselves before the Lord, we will water down the challenge of the new word to make it compatible with what we have already received in times past." (Graham Cooke)

"If we fail to move, then our capacity to understand what God is saying and doing is diminished. Staying on the side of the line with the 'former' things will put us at a disadvantage in receiving the new things that God is releasing." (Graham Cooke)

As I read the comments Graham Cooke made, they fit right in to what the Lord is teaching me. Those of us that have been called out of the "corrupt" church system are seeking truth as the Lord reveals it, not as man perceives truth to be. I recall when I left the system several years ago, that Truth was all I cried out to the Lord for.

Jesus said, "I am THE WAY, THE TRUTH, and THE LIFE! No one comes to the Father, except through ME." (John 14:6) Jesus is Truth! The Holy Spirit always leads us back to Christ, who is the Mediator of the New Covenant. We are now under the 'Law of Christ.'

The Holy Spirit of Truth is Who leads us to ALL TRUTH and Jesus said, that "He is the Truth." Therefore, the Spirit of Truth leads us to Jesus. We are seeking the Way, which is found only in Jesus, Who is The Way.

You never truly realize just what really rely on, including the church, fellowship with other believers, money, etc., until the Lord removes it from your life. Then, you come to know what your true dependence has been in. The Lord wants first place in our lives in everything.

Each member of the body is just as important as those called to the 5-fold ministry. When we truly fear the Lord and recognize the anointing He places on a life, no matter where it fits in the body of Christ, then we will want to recognize each one according to that anointing. Those in leadership will not attempt to touch "any area" the Lord placed on another within the body.

We are only going to be fit together as one body, as each part DOES what they are anointed to do and not what man thinks they are to do. This gives honor to the Lord, Who alone does the anointing.

But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into HIM in all things, which IS the HEAD, [even] Christ: from Whom the whole body, joined and knit together by what every joint supplies, ACCORDING to the effective working by which EVERY PART DOES ITS SHARE, CAUSES GROWTH OF THE BODY for the edifying of itself in love. (Eph. 4:5-6)

As we come to fear the Lord and truly come under His authority as Head of His body, we will begin to understand the ways of the Lord in respect to His ordinance. I really learned a lot from the following Scripture by what king David said, when they were taking the Ark to Jerusalem.

"For because you (priests and Levites) did not do it (carry the Ark of the Lord) the first time, the Lord our God broke out against us, because we did not consult HIM about the proper order (ordinance)." (I Cor.15:13)

They did not CONSULT THE LORD about the proper order. This is the king of Israel that ruled according to the Word of the Lord. David was anointed "by the Lord" to be king, but he feared the Lord so much that he wanted ALL things done in the order "of the Lord." He too was to submit to a proper order, which meant that he did not assume all the important functions as his own. He gave honor to ALL those that the Lord had chosen to anoint in a particular role.

It is not the place of the king to decide a matter, but the Lord's alone. All areas within the body are to be respected as unto the Lord within His body. David did not usurp the place of the priests simply because he was the king; nor did he choose the priest, but he knew to consult the Lord, having the Lord decide all that pertains to His Kingdom.

The following Scriptures are another example regarding another king of Israel:

But when he (Uzziah) was strong, his heart was lifted up to his destruction, for he transgressed against the Lord his God by entering the temple of the Lord to burn incense on the altar of incense. So, Azariah the priest went in after him and with him were eighty priests of the Lord -- valiant men. And they withstood king Uzziah and said to him, "It is not for you, Uzziah, to burn incense to the Lord, but for the priests, the sons of Aaron, who are consecrated to burn incense. Get out of the sanctuary, for you have transgressed! You shall have no honor from the Lord God." Then Uzziah became furious; and he had a censer in his hand to burn incense. And while he was angry with the priests, leprosy broke out on his forehead, before the priests in the house of the Lord, beside the incense altar. (II Chron. 26:16)

Now, the Lord raises up men/women anointed to 'function' within (not over) the body as leaders. Yet, all was to be done as unto the Lord. Anything that we do in the Name of Jesus is to be done in the "Character of Christ."

There are many teachings on the subject of 'resisting those in leadership.' However, upon reading Scriptures relating to the New Testament church, you will find that when others did not listen to the words of those "anointed" to function in a leadership role (apostles, prophets, teachers, etc.), they were rebuked for 'resisting the Holy Spirit,' not man or leadership.

The Lord told the prophets that it was not them that were being rejected, but it was the LORD the people were rejecting and HIS Word.

Stephen, full of the Holy Spirit, right before being stoned said, "You stiff-necked and uncircumcised in heart and ears! You always RESIST THE HOLY SPIRIT; as your fathers did, so do you." (Acts 7:51)

Then Peter said, "Ananias, how is it that Satan has so filled your heart that you have lied TO THE HOLY SPIRIT and have kept for yourself some of the money you received for the land? (Acts 5:3)

Then immediately an angel of the Lord struck him, because he did not give glory to GOD. And he was eaten by worms and died. (Acts 12:23)

But of Him you are in Christ Jesus, who became for us wisdom from God--and righteousness and sanctification and redemption--that, as it is written, "He who glories, let him glory IN THE LORD." (I Cor. 1:30-32)

Thus says the Lord, "Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, let not the mighty man glory in his might, nor let the rich man glory in his riches; But let him who glories glory in this, that understand and knows ME, that I Am the Lord, exercising lovingkindness, judgment, and righteousness in the earth. For in these I delight," says the LORD. (Jer. 9:23-24)

For of Him and through Him and to Him are all things, to Whom be glory forever. Amen! (Rom. 11:36)

The Lord is looking for a place that He can lay His Head. We must come to a place of knowing God and His ways, honoring Him in every area of the body. We must know and understand that He is God, there is NO other and He is ALWAYS in control.

As we come to fear the Lord in a holy reverent fear, then no man will attempt to do as Uzzah did when he put forth his hand (strength) attempting to steady the Ark of the Lord. All that the Lord does cannot be touched by man. As we truly recognize and give the Lord ALL GLORY and HONOR due Him, in ALL things, we will be humbled, knowing that the entire body of Christ functions only because of HIM and through HIM...as THE HEAD of HIS body.

All For His Glory,

What Is The Image Of My Son?

> 9 Do not lie to each other, since you have taken off your old self with its practices 10 and have put on the new self, which is being renewed in knowledge in the image of its Creator. Col. 3
> Now we see but a poor reflection as in a mirror; then we shall see face to face. Now I know in part; then I shall know fully, even as I am fully known. I Cor. 13:12

"I tell you, my Son gave his life as a ransom for all. He paid the price so that you would not have to. He lived His life and gave it up for all. But I ask you, what are you doing with what He did for you? Have you accepted the fact that He died and rose again? If you accepted the fact that He died and rose again, then you would know that you will be raised up. In the coming ages, my sons and daughters will sit as judges in my kingdom. In this life you will have many trials and tribulations, but I will see you through them. "

"I am working on the perfecting of the saints. I am bringing them unto myself so that they would be changed into the image of my Son. It all about being changed from glory unto glory. If you don't come unto Me then you will be changed into the image of the enemy. What is the image that you would want to remain? You look in the mirror each and every day and you see the appearance of your features. But what is the image that you portray unto others? "

"What is the image of my Son? Do you see Him as just the meek and mild Jesus? Do you not know that He is coming back with a sword to judge the world? His appearance will be like the sun and the lightning. Do you know Him as the true and faithful judge? Truly, He is coming back to judge the world, but I tell you that judgment has begun. You have seen the judgment in terms of the wind and other catastrophic events, but you will see it as nations topple. You have entered into a season of divine judgment. You have entered into a season when many will scoff at my name. This is the season when many will wring their hands in fear. For the safety net has been taken away from your country. I tell you, is this the image of the meek and mild Jesus? But I tell you that judgment has come, so that you might come to Me. "

What Is The Latter Rain Anyway

Bill Somers
Mount Gilead Ohio USA

March 4, 2009

> Isaiah 45:11 Thus saith the LORD, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker, Ask me of things to come concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands command ye me.
> John 16:24-25
> 24 Hitherto have ye asked nothing in my name: ask, and ye shall receive, that your joy may be full.
> 25 These things have I spoken unto you in proverbs: but the time cometh, when I shall no more speak unto you in proverbs, but I shall shew you plainly of the Father.

What is the Latter Rain?

Briefly, the Latter Rain is the Holy Spirit coming down, without measure, on God's people in the end times just preceding the Harvest.

The great Pentecostal Movement or revival began in 1901. There have been three teachings or doctrines closely connected with this movement. They are known as the Latter Rain, the Manchild, and the Manifested Sons teachings. Some refer to these as Pentecostal Theology.

We have focused on the Manchild at ETPV lately. Now I want to look at the Latter Rain. I have written a lot about it already, and believe it is more comprehensive and foundational. Later we'll look at the Manifested Sons.

I considered doing a study giving the historical background and development of these teachings. But as I looked into it, most of the material I found was hostile, and confusing. Many sources in the internet consider these teachings to be among the blackest of heresies. While there is some interesting writing available on these topics, making sense of it all was just confusing. So we are just going to look at what the Bible says, and share as the Holy Spirit has given us understanding.

The Harvest

> Matthew 13:39 … the harvest is the end of the world; ….

The first mention of Harvest is found in Genesis.

> Genesis 1:11-13
> 11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth grass, the herb yielding seed, and the fruit tree yielding fruit after his kind, whose seed is in itself, upon the earth: and it was so.
> 12 And the earth brought forth grass, and herb yielding seed after his kind, and the tree yielding fruit, whose seed was in itself, after his kind: and God saw that it was good.
> 13 And the evening and the morning were the third day.

The Last mention is in Revelation 14.

> Revelation 14:15 And another angel came out of the temple, crying with a loud voice to him that sat on the cloud, Thrust in thy sickle, and reap: for the time is come for thee to reap; for the harvest of the earth is ripe.

Hebrew definitions from Strongs show the former rain to mean the autumn showers and the latter rain to be the spring rains. Also the spring harvests are connected with the spring feasts. Passover is the time of Barley harvest and Pentecost is the time of the wheat harvest.

So the idea of latter rain is connected to the harvest as it comes later in the Jewish secular year. It is also linked to the idea of the latter days. Strongs gives last days or end days as synonyms.

To sum this up, the Lord is using a figure of speech here. There is a comparison or analogy between the agricultural harvest and the spiritual harvest. Just as liter rainfall of water is needed for crops to ripen and be ready to harvest, so there is a need for a full pouring out of the Holy Spirit for harvest of souls to be made ready. So any place where the latter rain is mentioned in the bible has a spiritual application to the end time harvest of souls.

First let’s look at the scriptures which directly mention latter rain.

> Deuteronomy 11:14 That I will give you the rain of your land in his due season, the first rain and the latter rain, that thou mayest gather in thy corn, and thy wine, and thine oil.

The Latter Rain enables the harvest.
Here we note first of all that the rain comes in a due season. Secondly the Rain makes it possible to gather in the crops. And thirdly they are said to be corn, wine and oil. The Corn the Oil and the Wine are mentioned together in 18 old testament verses. In other verses, bread of wheat occurs instead of corn which can mean any kind of grain. There is a spiritual meaning to each of these. The clue is found in Psalm 104.

> Psalms 104:15 And wine that maketh glad the heart of man, and oil to make his face to shine, and bread which strengtheneth man's heart.

Oil is a symbol of the Holy Spirit. The application of oil is anointing and forms the meaning of Messiah or Christ, The Anointed. Wine that makes us glad, speaks of the Joy of the Lord. And bread, made from grain, speaks of the word of God, the Lord Jesus who is the bread come down from heaven. So our quote from Deuteronomy 11 is telling us that God will provide us the Joy of the Lord, The Word of the Lord, and the Power [anointing] of the Lord in our harvest time.

> Job 29:23 And they waited for me as for the rain; and they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.

The Latter Rain is the promise of the Father, that all the nations will be blessed.

Luke 24:49 And, behold, I send the promise of my Father upon you: but tarry ye in the city of Jerusalem, until ye be endued with power from on high.

Here God is telling us that to wait on the Lord is to wait on the Latter Rain, which is to say, He is the Latter Rain.

> Proverbs 16:15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; and his favour is as a cloud of the latter rain.

Here God is saying the Latter Rain is having favor with God, and having his face to shine on us bringing life.

Repentance is required.

> Jeremiah 3:1-4
> 1 They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, shall he return unto her again? shall not that land be greatly polluted? but thou hast played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, saith the LORD.

> 2 Lift up thine eyes unto the high places, and see where thou hast not been lien with. In the ways hast thou sat for them, as the Arabian in the wilderness; and thou hast polluted the land with thy whoredoms and with thy wickedness.
> 3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there hath been no latter rain*; and thou hadst a whore's forehead, thou refusedst to be ashamed.*
> 4 Wilt thou not from this time cry unto me, My father, thou art the guide of my youth?

Here God is saying that without repentance there will be no latter rain.

> Jeremiah 5:24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear the LORD our God, that giveth rain, both the former and the latter, in his season: he reserveth unto us the appointed weeks of the harvest.

The Latter Rain Is Fear Of The Lord

And in Jeremiah, he is telling us that Fear of the Lord is to accompany the Latter Rain.

> Hosea 6:1-3
> 1 Come, and let us return unto the LORD: for he hath torn, and he will heal us; he hath smitten, and he will bind us up.
> 2 After two days will he revive us: in the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live in his sight.
> 3 Then shall we know, if we follow on to know the LORD*: his going forth is prepared as the morning; and he shall come unto us as the rain, as the latter and former rain unto the earth.*

Judgment, Then Revival At A Set Time

In Hosea, the Father is saying that judgment will come first, then revival. And that we must follow him to truly Know Him. The phrase his going forth is prepared as the morning speaks of his coming at a set time, a scheduled or appointed time, the fullness of time. Then he will come to us as the Latter Rain.

> Joel 2:23-25
> 23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in the LORD your God: for he hath given you the former rain moderately, and he will cause to come down for you the rain, the former rain, and the latter rain in the first month.
> 24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the fats shall overflow with wine and oil.
> 25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpiller, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.

The Latter Rain Is Harvest Plus Restoration

Here in Joel, we see the Lord speaking of a Harvest of Corn, Oil and Wine; plus a restoration of all the enemy has stolen. And this is associated with the Latter Rain.

> Zechariah 10:1 Ask ye of the LORD rain in the time of the latter rain; so the LORD shall make bright clouds, and give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.

We Need To Ask For The Latter Rain

Zechariah 10 is showing us we need to ask for the rain in the latter days.

> James 5:7-8
> 7 Be patient therefore, brethren, unto the coming of the Lord. Behold, the husbandman waiteth for the precious fruit of the earth, and hath long patience for it, until he receive the early and latter rain.
> 8 Be ye also patient; stablish your hearts: for the coming of the Lord draweth nigh.

The Latter Rain Is The Coming Of The Lord Spiritually.

James 5 gives us a clear link between the Latter Rain, the Harvest and the Coming of the Lord.

Rain in General

Now we'll look at some scripture using just Rain as a figure of the Holy Spirit instead of Latter Rain.

A Rain Of Righteousness.

> Hosea 10:12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap in mercy; break up your fallow ground: for it is time to seek the LORD, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.

First there is a mention of breaking fallow ground. This continues the agricultural parallel speaking of plowing up hard ground. But it is mainly speaking of righteousness and mercy. The rain to come down is not just water but the water of the Word. And the Word is The Lord; one of his names is the Lord our Righteousness.

> Psalms 72:1-7
> 1 <A Psalm for Solomon.> Give the king thy judgments, O God, and thy righteousness unto the king's son.
> 2 He shall judge thy people with righteousness, and thy poor with judgment.
> 3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the little hills, by righteousness.
> 4 He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor.
> 5 They shall fear thee as long as the sun and moon endure, throughout all generations.
> 6 He shall come down like rain upon the mown grass: as showers that water the earth.
> 7 In his days shall the righteous flourish; and abundance of peace so long as the moon endureth.

Righteousness And Peace

This quote from Psalm 72 mentions righteousness and peace, which are aspects of the Kingdom of God. Also it compares the Lord coming down as rain or showers.

Favor Of The King

> Proverbs 19:12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; but his favour is as dew upon the grass.

Here the dew upon the grass, which is another form of water coming down, is compared to the favor of the King.

Showers Of Blessing In His Season

> Ezekiel 34:26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in his season; there shall be showers of blessing.

Here note the mention of the shower to come in his season, again speaking of an appointed time.

> Isaiah 32:15 Until the spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness be a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be counted for a forest.

> Acts 2:17-18
> 17 And it shall come to pass in the last days*, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:*
> 18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:

> Joel 2:28-29
> 28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:

29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.

A New Covenant

Jeremiah 31:31-33
31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:
32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:
33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.

Clothed With Righteousness

The Latter Rain is a rain of righteousness. This is synonymous with Salvation.
Let’s consider some verses relating to being clothed with righteousness or salvation.

Psalms 132:13-16
13 For the LORD hath chosen Zion*; he hath desired it for his habitation.*
14 This is my rest for ever: here will I dwell; for I have desired it.
15 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.
16 I will also clothe her priests with salvation*: and her saints shall shout aloud for joy.*

2 Chronicles 6:41 Now therefore arise, O LORD God, into thy resting place, thou, and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be clothed with salvation*, and let thy saints rejoice in goodness.*

Revelation 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation*, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.*

Psalms 118:21-26
21 I will praise thee: for thou hast heard me, and art become my salvation*.*
22 The stone which the builders refused is become the head stone of the corner.
23 This is the LORD'S doing; it is marvellous in our eyes.
24 This is the day which the LORD hath made; we will rejoice and be glad in it.
25 Save now, I beseech thee, O LORD: O LORD, I beseech thee, send now prosperity.
26 Blessed be he that cometh in the name of the LORD: we have blessed you out of the house of the LORD.

Isaiah 61:10-11
10 I will greatly rejoice in the LORD, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he hath clothed me with the garments of salvation*, he hath covered me with the robe of* righteousness*, as a bridegroom decketh himself with ornaments, and as a bride adorneth herself with her jewels.*
11 For as the earth bringeth forth her bud, and as the garden causeth the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord GOD will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.

Take note of how the mention of righteousness and salvation in these last 5 quotes is accompanied by mention of gladness, rejoicing and praise.

Putting On Christ The New Man

The idea of being clothed with salvation is expressed in the following verses as putting on Christ or the New Man. He is the second man, the second Adam. When you put him on you become a new creation.

> Romans 13:14 But put ye on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfil the lusts thereof.
> Galatians 3:27 For as many of you as have been baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
> Ephesians 4:24 And that ye put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.

There is much more that could be said. The Latter Rain relates to the river of God, the waters to swim in, the wind of the Spirit, and the Baptism of Fire.

First Peter mentions salvation coming in the ‘Last Time’.

> 1 Peter 1:5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

The Latter Rain is that Salvation.

A Tale of Two Spirits
Bill Somers

Two Spirits At Work In The End Times.

There will be two spirits at work in the end times; Spirit of Fear and the Holy Spirit of God. You will either yield to one or the other.

It’s the Spirit of Fear that Satan uses to keep men in bondage.

> Hebrews 2:14-15
> 14 Forasmuch then as the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil*;*
> 15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage*.*

Overcomers in these end times will be those who get the victory over this fear. Others will be subject to it.

> Luke 21:25-26
> 25 And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity*; the sea and the waves roaring;*
> 26 Men's hearts failing them for fear*, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the* powers of heaven shall be shaken.

Consider that men’s hearts fail them for fear because a Spirit of Fear abides in their hearts.

The Holy Spirit of God delivers us from fear.

> Psalms 34:4 I sought the LORD, and he heard me, and delivered me from all my fears.

2 Timothy describes The Holy Spirit, given by God, as He gives the Kingdom. Power, Love and A Sound Mind stand out in great contrast to the Spirit of Fear.

> 2 Timothy 1:7 For God hath not given us the spirit of fear; but of power*, and of* love*, and of a* sound mind*.*
> Luke 12:31-32
> 31 But rather seek ye the kingdom of God; and all these things shall be added unto you.
> 32 Fear not*, little flock; for it is your Father's good pleasure to* give you the kingdom*.*

We mention power as it is the power to obey and do the Lord’s will. The ability to prove what is that good and perfect, will of God is the same as ability to demonstrate the Kingdom of God. For to say, thy kingdom come means the same as thy will be done here on earth as it is in heaven.

> Romans 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God*.*
> 1 Corinthians 4:20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power*.*

Sometimes this is spoken of as grace. The Holy Spirit is Grace or the Spirit of Grace.

> Philemon 1:25 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.
> Ephesians 1:2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
> Hebrews 10:29 … the Spirit of grace ….

We mention Love as it gives the Power to overcome fear.

> Romans 5:5 And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.
> 1 John 4:18 There is no fear in love*; but perfect* love casteth out fear*: because fear hath torment. He that feareth is not made perfect in love.*

How does perfect love cast out fear? The Lord does this by entering your heart, driving out fear and taking it’s place when you yield to him completely. He stands at the door and knocks.

We mention having a Sound Mind. That is to have a mind transformed into the Mind of Christ.

> Romans 12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind*, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.*
> 1 Corinthians 2:16 For who hath known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ*.*

The unsound mind is subject to fear, delusion and self destruction.

> 2 Thessalonians 2:11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:

These are like the swine entered into by unclean spirits, they destroy themselves.

> Mark 5:13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and > entered into the swine [unclean persons]: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

In this verse from Mark 5, the phrase two thousand is a clue to an end time event, something to happen 2000 years later.

Several of the epistles open with a salutation like this one from Ephesians. It’s the Lord’s prayer and will for us.

> Ephesians 1:2 Grace be to you*, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.*

Let’s yield to the Holy Spirit fully in these times. His grace will see us through any storm.

> 2 Corinthians 12:9 And he said unto me, My grace is sufficient for thee: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.

Where Is The Lord God Of Elijah
Debbie Davis

(soundthealarmdd@juno.com)

I believe the prophets and those prophetically gifted are about to receive increase and are now in the place of war over new mantles and increased authority. You may have been sensing intense opposition, discouragement or frustration and even had desires to quit. I have learned that when I get in this season of discouragement and frustration, it is usually an attack on the prophetic gift and sent to distract me from prayer, prophecy and intercession. I encourage you to press in to hear the Word of the Lord, to see what He would promise in this season and to activate what you have been shown. Wait patiently before the Lord. He wants to release revelation and strategy in an increased measure. Don't give up. We are going somewhere!

There is beginning to be a release of seeing and hearing by the Spirit that surpasses anything we have experienced. Many who are prophetically gifted have recently had physical problems in the area of eyesight or hearing. It is an attack in the physical to what God is getting ready to do in the spiritual. Ask and believe for the seer's anointing. Yahweh wants us to hear with precision, to clearly see His purpose, His plans, His revelations and His strategies. He wants us to see beyond the natural into the supernatural. He desires to move us into increased power and authority which requires increased prayer time, faith and complete obedience.

There is a process to mature us. We are a progressive work. Don't become weary in the process. The Word of God tells us that we are being changed from glory to glory, being transformed into His image. We are being trained to reign, learning to be over-comers, and rising to the call to be more than conquerors. We have tests and trials, and possibly scars to show that we are in a process. We are enduring that which is designed to build godly character. God is about to raise up and set in place more prophets who have been in training and have submitted to the building of their character. These will come out to confront sin, idolatry, corruption, and even the corrupt religious systems.

God is awakening watchmen in this hour. There is a release of the seer's anointing and the call to watch is being issued. Because Elijah waited in prayer and communed with God, he was able to see what God was going to do. He spoke with expectation that God would perform His word! Elijah was sensitive to the timing of the Lord God. The watchmen are getting ready to see more clearly than ever before, but they must be prepared to go forth in a pure obedience with what they have seen and heard. God wants us to see as He sees and use it to advance His Kingdom on the earth. He wants us to be prepared by spending time in prayer and fellowship with the Almighty. The watchman has the ability to see approaching trouble and bring warning. The true condition of the church is about to be unveiled to prophetic intercessors and prophets.

The watchmen are to hear what God is saying and speak whatever He commands them to speak. They are to see what is coming, to warn both the wicked and the righteous of sin, and to call people to repentance (Isaiah 62:6-7). God will use His holy watchmen to wake up His people and to cleanse the house of God.

Judgment always begins in the house of God because we are to be an example to the lost and dying world. A cleansing fire is about to be released again. This fire will make the way for the signs and wonders, the miracles, and the power of God to return to the Body of Christ. This is a time when the true prophets of God will emerge and shine. They will not compromise! These will deal with idolatry, with sin, and with pollution. Study how Yahweh used Ezekiel. Read Ezekiel Chapters 1 through 36 to get a deeper understanding of what type of prophet I am referring to. They will not be moved by the opinion of man, by the hardness of men's hearts, or by fears but they will only operate in pure obedience to their God.

We live in a society that is spiritually deaf. We have surpassed Sodom and Gomorrah and the Days of Noah with our wickedness. Sin goes unacknowledged and permeates society from the old to the young. Where is the Lord God of Elijah? Well, where are the prophets who will confront sin and wickedness? Who will destroy idolatry? Who will take on the spirit of Jezebel and the corrupt religious systems so that the power of God will fall on the church? Come out of the cave. It is time for some Mount Carmel showdowns.

The refiner's fire is coming again to the church. The fire of Holy Spirit is coming to burn out impurities. The Spirit of Truth is coming like never before. The hidden will be exposed; and the covered will be uncovered. Get ready. This is to prepare us for the unleashing of the supernatural back into God's people. The power gifts will be restored to the true believers. No longer will people be able to call themselves Christians and not represent the one true God. You will suffer if you call yourself a Christian and continue in adultery, pornography, lusts of the flesh, or other sinful selfish practices. We owe it to Our Beloved to be the glorious church, the spotless bride (Ephesians 5:26-27).

The early church was powerful because they practiced what they preached. They were not tied up with meetings on doctrines, theories, ideas or man's methods. The apostles did not set up meetings to explain the experience of the upper room. They didn't debate the speaking of tongues on the day of Pentecost. They were more interested in the power they had experienced and the fact that they were equipped to do the works of God. After they experienced this move of Holy Spirit, they went to heal the sick, cast out demons, and to see souls saved. They were busy doing the work God had called them to do. They went from house to house spreading the word of God and doing what He called them to do. God wants action. The day of staying in the safe confines of the church building is about to come to an end.

God is about to give honor where honor is due (Romans 13:7). To exalt those who have humbled themselves and bring low those who are proud. We are to honor those in authority but not be controlled by man. It will be dangerous in this season to put any man on a pedestal. God is the only one we worship. Jesus set the example of the relationship with the apostles by living WITH them not above them or separate from them. We should be comfortable around those who lead us. If you are fearful of those you serve under there is a problem. God is dealing with Fear of man and the man pleasing spirit in a big way. The only fear we can afford to have now is The Fear of the Lord!

Holy Spirit is preparing us for more. God wants to advance us into that place of exercising our gifts with power and great faith, expecting Him to move. We need to press in to see the move of Holy Spirit like never before and to see Yahweh's power unleashed again. Signs and wonders, miracles, words of knowledge, etc.

The reason we are feeling opposition so strongly is because increase is very close. The voice of the prophet is going to be heard. God is dealing with the hearts of many leaders who have rejected or neglected the prophets. True apostles will seek out the prophet and honor them. The five fold will be established and in operation before the power will return to the church. This is God's order. Church government is about to change. Pray for and command the church to wake up and to repent. Make declaration, proclamation, speak faith, go to war. We have to deal with lukewarm ness. Cry out for passion for Jesus and everything He represents! The Laodicean church thought they had need of nothing! They were half-hearted about the things of God and their commitment to Him because they had worldly goods. Repent for lukewarm ness, complacency, hypocrisy, coldness, immorality, profanity and worldliness.

God's power will be operating through those who have made a commitment to Holiness. He is looking again for those who are wholehearted with commitment to Him and are free from selfish motives. Many want God to move but have selfish motives. The fire that is coming to the church will separate the true from the false. It will separate the hypocritical, lukewarm Christian from the true follower of Jesus Christ. God is looking for the prophets who will turn the hearts of God's people back to Him. These prophets will be about true Holiness and they will expose the imitation and the false. This will make way for the glory of the Lord. The call to repentance is being issued again.

God is speaking today loud and clear. He speaks through His word, His Spirit and His prophets. He wants to use the prophets in this hour to prepare the church for His Second Coming and to release the church into her destiny. These prophets will call for change, and for shifting. They will exhort, warn, command, rebuke, encourage and correct in the love and because of the love of Jesus. They will not be man pleasers but will be bold to press past man's reward system, popularity, position, titles or man's acceptance. This will release the people to see the true condition of their hearts by bringing forth the Word of the Lord.

Prepare to receive a new prophetic mantle. Are you ready to confront corruption and deception? Can you be used to expose sin, pray for the spiritually blind and deaf, break man's traditions and false doctrines? Without holiness, no one will see the Lord (Hebrews12: 14). Are you prepared to stand against the powers of darkness that have been used to war against the church? Can Yahweh use you for restoration and revival? Can God use you to be a prophetic voice that cries for change? This calls for a bold people filled with courage because they are hearing the Word of the Lord and have hearts of obedience.

We have the choice in this season to become like Eli or like Samuel. Nathan had to confront a King. We have to be willing to speak about the true condition of the church. Remembering always, God looks at the heart. When we acknowledge there is a problem then we can pray concerning the solution. God is getting ready to shake the old, the dead, and the dry in order to bring in the new, the alive, the refreshing. We have to operate in the fear of the Lord and move with passion for Jesus and compassion for the lost. God is about to turn the eyes of the church off of themselves and back to Him and those who need Him. God wants to prepare the church for what is ahead and to get us on a secure foundation.Him! Remember 2 Timothy 3:1, there will be tough times ahead. We have to examine ourselves and make sure we are not the people mentioned in 2 Timothy 3:1-5 but be the Isaiah 61 people of God.

Let us become the people that declare as Elijah did, "Lord God of Abraham, Isaac, and of Israel, let it be known this day that thou God in Israel, and that I am thy servant, and that I have done all these things at thy word." Elijah was not concerned about pleasing people or proving his power as a prophet. He wanted to display the power of God and see His glory manifested to show He is the all-powerful God.

After the altar of the Lord was restored, the fire of God fell from heaven to consume the sacrifice. Elijah had prepared the altar in a fashion that God's power could not be denied. Everything was consumed. The supernatural power of God was displayed for the unbeliever. The response was then and now will be, "The Lord, He is God; the Lord, He is God."

Can you agree in prayer with me for the Spirit of Elijah and for the rebuilding of the Altar of God?

1. Worldliness to be exposed and dealt with and a standard of holiness raised up
2. The fear of the Lord to replace the fear of man
3. Dependence of God instead of leaning on the arm of the flesh
4. Worship in Spirit and in Truth; move past spectatorship and entertainment
5. Die to self and self-centeredness
6. A new burden, passion for the unsaved
7. Passion to replace complacency
8. Show us where we have been half-hearted; replace it with true dedication
9. 100% obedience instead of partial obedience
10. Hatred for sin and the ability to not compromise
11. Humility instead of pride and self-exaltation
12. Unselfishness and a servant's heart
13. The Spirit of Elijah to confront the Spirit of Jezebel

Where is the Lord God of Elijah? Could He be waiting on the prophets who will be bold enough to call down fire from heaven? Could He be calling out the Elijahs, the Samuels, the Nathans for today's generation? Ask!

Walk In The Light Of His Presence

Susan Cummings

These are days of great change and of great decision. All that is true must be decided upon and adhered to. Even the truth will not help you, unless it is applied and allowed to work it's work within you. A knowledge about Me will not save you nor sustain you. You must abide in Me, and know Me. This is the hour to walk in the Light of My Presence.

No longer can a head knowledge or even a heart knowledge be enough. You must intimately know Me. You must be transformed by Me, to fully walk with Me. For My Word must be ingrained and burned into you and allowed to bring you into My Image. I AM the Life of all men, but all men do not want to live or to be Mine. You must be united in Spirit and Truth with Me. For I am the only one that can truly change you and cause you to become one with Me.

Unless My Word abides in you, and I become all things unto you, then you will deny Me in the end. I must be your absolute Source and Lord. I cannot be second place or even an optional way out. I know those who are truly Mine, and many say they are Mine, but are not. The days ahead will sift those out and it will be evident who has My Light and who does not.

Take heed to yourselves and check yourselves.

I must be seen within you and through you. Is it My voice that comes out of your mouth? Is it My eyes that look through yours? Is it My Hands that touch through yours? Is it My Heart that beats within yours? If not, then you have not truly died to yourself and have not fully allowed me to bring you to new life. You must change. If one spot or percent of you is not fully given to Me, then you are not truly fully Mine. You cannot withhold anything from Me and truthfully say that you are Mine. Either I am truly all to you, or I am not.

Walk in the Light of My Presence. Allow My Word to be a lamp unto your feet. Do not go your own way and lean to your own thoughts and understandings. Do not continue to rise up and go throughout your day, and then finally late at night acknowledge Me, if you even remember to. You must commune with Me and abide with Me continually. You must eat My Word and cleave unto it. My ears will not be attentive to those who do not care nor desire to know Me. I will not be mocked.

Fear will prevail and trust will not be seen among the ones who have not My Light. Many will run rampant looking for solidity and will not find it. There will be no stability outside of Me. For I AM the Light and the Life of men, and those who refuse Me, will live apart from Me and from My Truth. Unless a man falls upon the rock and dies and allows it to bring change to them, then it will fall upon them and crush them and over take them and they will be void of understanding and of Light. They will grope about looking for help and find none.

The Black Winds have begun to blow and the hearts of men will fail, but Mine will stand and be sustained by Me, for their delight is in Me and they love the Truth. No darkness is found in them, nor can it over take them, for I Am their Light and Life. All who are not Mine, who do not have My Blood upon them will perish apart from Me. For the Destroyer will reap his fill of the rebellious. Lay aside everything that causes you to stumble and to waver and come to Me now.

My Hand now passes over again, what will you do?

Walk in the Light of My Presence, or walk in the darkness.

What Is The New Covenant

Bill Somers

Recently I saw an article where the writer was commenting on the problems with the modern church. One of these was the ‘clergy vs. lay people’ system. His thought was that the clergy/laity system in an unfortunate carryover from the old covenant to the new. That is the system was part of the practices of ancient Israel erroneously adopted by the early church. This of course assumes that ancient Israel was under the old covenant and the early church was under the new covenant. My thought is that you can just as easily see this as indicating that we are still under the old covenant, not the new. Now I realize that this can sound a bit radical. In fact it represents a great departure from traditional teachings. So for this article we are going to see what exactly the bible says on the new covenant and see if we are under it or not.

The idea that is commonly taught is that the church began on the day of Pentecost in Acts 2. When the Holy Spirit came, the new covenant took effect and we are no longer under the old testament and it’s law. We are said to be under grace. We need to look at that a lot closer to see what’s really involved.

The Millennial Kingdom

Let’s take side trip here; another example of a common teaching that doesn’t hold up too well when closely examined.

> When Jesus returns to earth, he will set up his kingdom in Jerusalem, and reign for the next 1000 years on the earth. This is the beginning of the millennium, which is the 7th millennium and the third day of prophecy.

This is based on the following verse from Revelation 20. [The general context of Revelation 20:1-7 describing things after Jesus’ return also supports this idea.]

> Revelation 20:4 And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands; and they lived and reigned with Christ a thousand years.

To see where this fails to hold up compare it to these following scriptural passages:

> Revelation 1:7 Behold, he cometh with clouds; and every eye shall see him, and they also which pierced him: and all kindreds of the earth shall wail because of him. Even so, Amen.

This is saying his second coming will clearly be visible to all.

> Luke 17:20-21
> 20 And when he was demanded of the Pharisees, when the kingdom of God should come, he answered them and said, The kingdom of God cometh not with observation:
> 21 Neither shall they say, Lo here! or, lo there! for, behold, the kingdom of God is within you.

And now this is saying that the Kingdom of God is not something visible but it’s within a person.

> Revelation 12:10 And I heard a loud voice saying in heaven, Now is come salvation, and strength, and the kingdom of our God, and the power of his Christ: for the accuser of our brethren is cast down, which accused them before our God day and night.

And here it tells us the coming of the Kingdom is tied to events in Revelation 12, the birth of the man child and casting down of the accuser. It’s linked to salvation.

> 1 Peter 1:5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be > revealed in the last time.

And it’s linked to strength and ‘the power of his Christ’; it’s the day of thy power from Psalms 110.

> Psalms 110:2-3
> 2 The LORD shall send the rod of thy strength out of Zion: rule thou in the midst of thine enemies.
> 3 Thy people shall be willing in the day of thy power, in the beauties of holiness from the womb of the morning: thou hast the dew of thy youth.

The kingdom of God, then is not something visible, as the Second Coming of Jesus will be. And it comes at a point in time earlier than the Second Coming. So this common teaching about the Kingdom being set up when Jesus returns in Revelation 20 does not hold to further examination of the scriptures.

Understanding prophecy about the end times depends on your understanding the usage of God’s prophetic week, where the third day is also the seventh millennium, or the millennium. As you search the scriptures you can find there are a great many references to this. [See my article Rethinking the Millennium.] Some are direct and others allegorical. Many of these describe things that must happen in that day or on the third day, before Jesus returns. One of these is the new testament.

Where We Are Going

Now just to make it perfectly clear what we are trying to show here, I’ll spell it out carefully before getting into it any farther.

The Christian church operates under the idea that we are under the New Testament or the New Covenant. And that the old Testament or covenant was only with ancient Israel. We assume that the new testament took effect with the death and resurrection of Jesus. This is based on scripture such as these:

> Luke 22:20 Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you.
> Hebrews 10:12-14
> 12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins for ever, sat down on the right hand of God;
> 13 From henceforth expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.
> 14 For by one offering he hath perfected for ever them that are sanctified.

What we want to show here is that the New Covenant does not take effect until the end times. Therefore the church is still under the old covenant law, not new covenant grace. Of course this depends on what you mean by saying ‘under a covenant’. The basic idea is that under the old covenant means under the law. Under the new covenant means under grace.

Salvation Under The Old Covenant

One problem with our current view is how did someone get saved under the old covenant, since we know that no one can be saved by works of the law as we see by these verses following.

> Hebrews 10:4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.
> Galatians 2:16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.

So knowing this, how could someone be saved in old testament times, before the death and resurrection of Jesus Christ. Under the Law, the old covenant, no one could be saved. And if the new testament has not taken effect, then how can anyone be saved? We read in Romans 4 as follows.

> Romans 4:2-3
> 2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he hath whereof to glory; but not before God.
> 3 For what saith the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted unto him for righteousness.

Salvation By Faith

Abraham was justified or made righteous by faith. He believed God. His faith was in the promises of God. Even though he had no knowledge of Jesus Christ, somehow the 'faith of Jesus Christ' is part of the promises of God. Hebrews 11, the faith chapter, mentions Abraham and the long list of faithful ones. It tells us they had faith in the promises but never received them during their life times.

> Hebrews 11:13 These all died in faith, not having received the promises, but having seen them afar off, and were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.

> Hebrews 11:39-40
> 39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:
> 40 God having provided some better thing for us, that they without us should not be made perfect.

In Genesis 49, Jacob says this.

> Genesis 49:18 I have waited for thy salvation, O LORD.

The word for salvation in Hebrew is Y'shua, the name of Jesus! The same word is used here in Isaiah 56.

> Isaiah 56:1 Thus saith the LORD, Keep ye judgment, and do justice: for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.

The word Christ means the Messiah; that is the anointed or consecrated one. So we are saved by faith in Jesus Christ, the promised Messiah. Or we are saved by faith in the promises of God just as faithful Abraham.

So you can be under the law, but not saved by the law. But you can be under the law, and saved by faith in the promises. We are also told we are saved by grace. Can you be under the law and under grace at the same time? Let's look at what Ephesians 2 say.

> Ephesians 2:5-9
> 5 Even when we were dead in sins, hath quickened us together with Christ, (by grace ye are saved;)
> 6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:
> 7 That in the ages to come he might shew the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.
> 8 For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
> 9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.

Here the idea of salvation, as a gift of God, is conveyed by the key phrase For by grace are ye saved through faith. So there are three ideas here Grace, Faith, and being Saved. They are related but not identical. The relationships between the New covenant, and the promises of God, and being under grace are quite involved and require especially close examination. We will try to lay out the important scripture for you as we go along. You'll find that the new covenant is not always described in exactly the same way whenever it's mentioned. And that there will be places where it's referred to but not expressly called a new covenant yet the idea is the same.

The New Covenant In The Old Testament, The Hebrew Part Of The Bible.

The first place you find it called a new covenant is Jeremiah 31.

> Jeremiah 31:31-34
> 31 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:
> 32 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they brake, although I was an husband unto them, saith the LORD:
> 33 But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel; After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their inward parts, and write it in their hearts; and will be their God, and they shall be my people.
> 34 And they shall teach no more every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the LORD: for they shall all know me, from the least of them unto the greatest of them, saith the LORD: for I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more.

There are several important things to notice here.
Verse 32 is careful to make it clear that this new covenant is clearly different than the one God made after the exodus on Mt. Sinai.
Next the use of the phrase After those days is a clue that he is talking about the end times.
Thirdly he lists several key features of the new covenant. These help us identify and define it.
1. the law will be put into us and written in our hearts
2. He will be our God, and we, his people
3. We all shall know him
4. He will forgive our wickedness and forget our sin.

While the new covenant is first so called in Jeremiah 31, we find mention of the same idea way back in Deuteronomy. You can refer to this article by Barbara Di Gilio who provides some interesting ideas on this subject. Did God Give Moses Two Covenants? Barbara Di Gilio - http://www.mayimhayim.org/Moses2.htm

We said above that God is careful to make it clear that this new covenant is clearly different than the one he made with Israel on Mt. Sinai [Horeb] after they left Egypt. Here is a mention of it in Deuteronomy 5.

> Deuteronomy 5:1-6
> 1 And Moses called all Israel, and said unto them, Hear, O Israel, the statutes and judgments which I speak in your ears this day, that ye may learn them, and keep, and do them.
> 2 The LORD our God made a covenant with us in Horeb.
> 3 The LORD made not this covenant with our fathers, but with us, even us, who are all of us here alive this day.
> 4 The LORD talked with you face to face in the mount out of the midst of the fire,
> 5 (I stood between the LORD and you at that time, to shew you the word of the LORD: for ye were afraid by reason of the fire, and went not up into the mount;) saying,
> 6 I am the LORD thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

He is talking about the old covenant here and makes it clear that this is not the covenant made with the Fathers, i.e. the patriarchs. This covenant was only with those who were at Mt. Sinai when He came down and the mountain burned with fire. Moses is speaking these words to Israel after they have completed their 40 years wandering and are then encamped in Moab. They are just about to cross the Jordan and enter the promised land. At this point God makes a second covenant with them. And this time there are a couple important differences.

> Deuteronomy 29:10-15
> 10 Ye stand this day all of you before the LORD your God; your captains of your tribes, your elders, and your officers, with all the men of Israel,
> 11 Your little ones, your wives, and thy stranger that is in thy camp, from the hewer of thy wood unto the drawer of thy water:

> 12 That thou shouldest enter into covenant with the LORD thy God, and into his oath, which the LORD thy God maketh with thee this day*:*
> 13 That he may establish thee to day for a people unto himself, and that he may be unto thee a God, as he hath said unto thee, and as he hath sworn unto thy fathers, to Abraham, to Isaac, and to Jacob*.*
> 14 Neither with you only do I make this covenant and this oath;
> 15 But with him that standeth here with us this day before the LORD our God, and also with him that is not here with us this day*:*

Let’s make note of some key elements here.
1. Those entering into the covenant include the strangers in the camp, i.e. some gentiles.
2. This is a covenant entered into on that day especially
3. He will be our God, and we, his people
4. This covenant contains the same promises as he swore to the fathers
5. This covenant is not exclusively with just those present there at that time but with others as well.

Then in the following chapter a promise is spelled out.

> Deuteronomy 30:6 And the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

Here he is saying something about operating on our hearts. He promises to put the Law in our hearts. See how the law is expressed here: “love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul”. This is just what Jesus is saying in Matthew 22.

> Matthew 22:37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.

Another aspect of the new covenant is spelled out by the final phrase in verse 6, that thou mayest live. This new covenant imparts life, the old one, only death.

This covenant given in Moab, [seed of the father], is the same new covenant the mentioned in Jeremiah, except that in Jeremiah he says ‘after those days.’ So what is he getting at here? Lets look at the full context or our quote from Deuteronomy 30

> Deuteronomy 30:1-6
> 1 And it shall come to pass, when all these things are come upon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I have set before thee, and thou shalt call them to mind among all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath driven thee,
> 2 And shalt return unto the LORD thy God, and shalt obey his voice according to all that I command thee this day, thou and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soul;
> 3 That then the LORD thy God will turn thy captivity, and have compassion upon thee, and will return and gather thee from all the nations, whither the LORD thy God hath scattered thee.
> 4 If any of thine be driven out unto the outmost parts of heaven, from thence will the LORD thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:
> 5 And the LORD thy God will bring thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt possess it; and he will do thee good, and multiply thee above thy fathers.
> 6 And the LORD thy God will circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seed, to love the LORD thy God with all thine heart, and with all thy soul, that thou mayest live.

Verse 6 here contains the promise of the new covenant. The previous 5 verses put the fulfillment of that promise clearly into the end times. Then Israel will return to him when He gathers Israel from the nations and redeems Jacob from his troubles. This also is clearly an end time context.

There is also some prophetic typology here. Israel’s crossing the Jordan, and entering the promised land is a prophetic picture of the end times. This has been widely recognized. We won’t go into details on that topic here. The key point is that this Covenant given in Moab includes the promise of the New Covenant. And secondly that it comes at time that prophetically speaks of entering the end times.

The promise to the fathers, Abraham, Isaac and Jacob, was a promise of inheriting the Land. And it was a promise of a blessing to all the nations. Prophetically, entering the land of promise speaks of entering the time and place of the blessing. The time is the end times and the place of the blessing is Mount Zion.

In the article we did on the feast of tabernacles, [Tabernacles by Bill Somers] we noted that when Moses came down from Sinai the second time he has the second set of stone tables with him. This is prophetic of the second or new covenant. The same holds true here speaking of the covenant given in Moab. It too speaks of the new covenant given to the Israelites as they enter the promised land, the end times.

Looking ahead in Jeremiah, we see the new covenant described again.

> Jeremiah 32:40 And I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from them, to do them good; but I will put my fear in their hearts, that they shall not depart from me.

Here the key aspects are these.
1. The new covenant is an everlasting one, not one that will pass away
2. The Lord will not turn away from us
3. He will do us good
4. He will impart his fear, the Fear of the Lord into us with the result that
5. We shall not depart from him.

The Fear of the Lord is one feature of the Holy Spirit as spelled out in Isaiah 11.

> Isaiah 11:2 And the spirit of the LORD shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of the LORD*;*

Then in Isaiah 59 the covenant is mentioned again.

> Isaiah 59:19-21
> 19 So shall they fear the name of the LORD from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.
> 20 And the Redeemer shall come to Zion, and unto them that turn from transgression in Jacob, saith the LORD.
> 21 As for me, this is my covenant with them, saith the LORD; My spirit that is upon thee*, and my words which I have put in thy mouth, shall not depart out of thy mouth, nor out of the mouth of thy seed, nor out of the mouth of thy seed's seed, saith the LORD, from henceforth and for ever.*

This passage from Isaiah is the one quoted in Romans 11 which tells us that the promise of this covenant will be fulfilled in the end times when the fullness of the Gentiles comes in.

> Romans 11:25-27
> 25 For I would not, brethren, that ye should be ignorant of this mystery, lest ye should be wise in your own conceits; that blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fulness of the Gentiles be come in.
> 26 And so all Israel shall be saved: as it is written, There shall come out of Sion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
> 27 For this is my covenant unto them, when I shall take away their sins.

So once again the scripture is saying the new covenant takes effect in the end times.

Ezekiel 36 has this to say about it.

> Ezekiel 36:24-28
> 24 For I will take you from among the heathen, and gather you out of all countries, and will bring you into your own land.
> 25 Then will I sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, will I cleanse you.
> 26 A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.
> 27 And I will put my spirit within you*, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my judgments, and do them.*
> 28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.

Lets list the key elements here:
1. The lord gathers his people from all countries
2. He cleanses us from our sin
3, He gives us a new heart and a new spirit
4. He puts his Spirit within us to cause us to obey his law
5. He gives us the promised land
6. He will be our God and we, his people.
Now in this case it’s clearly stated that he puts his Spirit in His people.

Much of this is repeated here in Ezekiel 37.

> Ezekiel 37:19-28
> 19 Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand.
> 20 And the sticks whereon thou writest shall be in thine hand before their eyes.
> 21 And say unto them, Thus saith the Lord GOD; Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the heathen, whither they be gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:
> 22 And I will make them one nation in the land upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all: and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all:
> 23 Neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions: but I will save them out of all their dwelling places, wherein they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.
> 24 And David my servant shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my judgments, and observe my statutes, and do them.
> 25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given unto Jacob my servant, wherein your fathers have dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, even they, and their children, and their children's children for ever: and my servant David shall be their prince for ever.
> 26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them: and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.
> 27 My tabernacle also shall be with them: yea, I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
> 28 And the heathen shall know that I the LORD do sanctify Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.

One added feature is that he will set his sanctuary or tabernacle in the midst of his people forever. This is mentioned in Revelation 21:3, an end time context.

> Revelation 21:3 And I heard a great voice out of heaven saying, Behold, the tabernacle of God is with men, and he will dwell with them, and they shall be his people, and God himself > shall be with them, and be their God.

Ezekiel 39 also pertains to the new covenant, though it’s not specifically mentioned.

> Ezekiel 39:25-29
> 25 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD; Now will I bring again the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel, and will be jealous for my holy name;
> 26 After that they have borne their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they dwelt safely in their land, and none made them afraid.
> 27 When I have brought them again from the people, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations;
> 28 Then shall they know that I am the LORD their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen: but I have gathered them unto their own land, and have left none of them any more there.
> 29 Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel*, saith the Lord GOD.*

So far we have seen several places where the new covenant is linked to imparting the Holy Spirit. This last one from Ezekiel spells it out clearly in verse 29.

Joel chapter 2 also prophesies that the Lord will pour out his spirit in the end times. This was foreshadowed by a partial fulfillment in Acts 2.

> Joel 2:28-32
> 28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
> 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit*.*
> 30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.
> 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.
> 32 And it shall come to pass, that whosoever shall call on the name of the LORD shall be delivered: for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem shall be deliverance, as the LORD hath said, and in the remnant whom the LORD shall call.

Hebrews 8 has a long passage which is quoting from Jeremiah 31.

> Hebrews 8:6-13
> *6 But now hath he [Jesus] obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.*
> 7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.
> 8 For finding fault with them, he saith, Behold, the days come, saith the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:
> 9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, saith the Lord.
> 10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, saith the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:
> 11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbour, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.
> 12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.
> 13 In that he saith, A new covenant, he hath made the first old. Now that which decayeth and > waxeth old is ready to vanish away.

This last verse 13 here mentions that the new covenant makes the first one old and ready to vanish away. But this also carries the idea that the old covenant is still in effect until the new one comes in, which means it’s still in effect now!

The Promise to The Fathers

In Galatians the Lord speaks about the promises to the patriarchs and then relates them to the new covenant. First look back at the promise in Genesis.

In Genesis 12 the Lord makes a multi part promise to Abraham.

> Genesis 12:1 Now the LORD had said unto Abram, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
> 2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
> 3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed*.*

Notice the final part of that promise, the blessing to all the earth. Galatians 3 makes reference to it as follows.

> Galatians 3:6 Even as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.
> 7 Know ye therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
> 8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached before the gospel unto Abraham, saying, In thee shall all nations be blessed.
> 9 So then they which be of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.
> 10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continueth not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.
> 11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, The just shall live by faith.

Here the meaning of the blessing is spelled out. That God would justify the heathen by faith. Also in verse 8, this promise is described as the gospel! [In old testament texts you will find the phrase glad tidings.]

The gospel, then is a promise to the nations that they would be justified and receive this blessing, if they have faith like Abraham. For Abraham believed God and this was accounted as his righteousness, verse 6.

The Blessing Of Abraham

Galatians 3 speaks of the blessing of Abraham as The Promise Of The Spirit in verse 14, a very interesting connection. In verse 17, the Lord refers to the law as the covenant that came 430 years later, saying it could not cancel out the promise.

> Galatians 3:14-17
> 14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
> 15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man disannulleth, or addeth thereto.
> 16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, And to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ.
> 17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of none effect.

Galatians goes on to talk of the promise and relate it to the two covenants.

> Galatians 4:21-26
> 21 Tell me, ye that desire to be under the law, do ye not hear the law?
> 22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.
> 23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.
> 24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which gendereth to bondage, which is Agar.
> 25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answereth to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
> 26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.

Now verse 24 gives us the idea that the promise to Abraham is also related to the new covenant or new testament. The two mountains, correspond to the bond woman and the free woman; the old covenant and the new covenant. Scholars like to make lists of multiple covenants. You hear about the Adamic Covenant, the Noahide [?] covenant, the Abrahamic covenant, the Mosaic covenant, the Davidic covenant, and on and on. This only brings us complication and confusion. Galatians 4:24 tells us that there are just two covenants. They are described and compared in differing ways throughout scripture. Still there are just two, just as there were two trees in the garden. You can see their contrast laid out in Hebrews 12.

> Hebrews 12:18 For ye are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,
> 19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard intreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:
> 20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, And if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:
> 21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)
> 22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
> 23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
> 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

Note that here the mountain that burnt with fire is the Mt. Sinai; and Mount Zion is the heavenly Jerusalem, Jerusalem which is above as mentioned in Galatians 4.

In Mathew 24, this promise is clearly linked with the end times.

> Mathew 24:14 And this gospel of the kingdom shall be preached in all the world for a witness unto all nations; and then shall the end come.

The promise that the nations would be justified is called the gospel of the kingdom. The terms ‘nations,’ ‘heathen,’ ‘Gentiles,’ and ‘families or tribes of the earth’ all mean the same. In Revelation they are spoken of as of every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. Today missionaries speak of them as people groups or ethnic groups.

The promise given to Abraham and the fathers is the gospel of the kingdom. The fulfillment of that promise is the new testament.

In Romans 8 the two covenants are explained as laws. One is the law of sin and death, the other is the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus.

> Romans 8:2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death.

Being free from sin and death is the liberty that comes in Christ. Second Corinthians 3, in talking about the ministration of the spirit, concludes with these verses.

> 2 Corinthians 3:17-18
> 17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
> 18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord.

Colossians 1:13 contrasts the two covenants another way, likening the new covenant as the Kingdom of God.

> Colossians 1:13 Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:

Results

The New Covenant has an end time fulfillment which we have found mentioned or implied in six different places.

What Is The New Covenant?

We have seen so far that the New Covenant means that the law will be put into us and written in our hearts. He will do this by putting his spirit into us, in such a degree that it will give us the Fear of the Lord. This will cause us to obey with the result that we shall not depart from him.

This is like saying we will automatically know his will and it will be impossible for us to sin. Now that’s pretty amazing. The full impact of this will prove to be totally awesome.

So are we under the law, old covenant, or under grace, the new covenant? What does the bible say?

> Romans 6:14
> 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

Here Romans 6 is saying just about what we said above. That is those under grace do not sin. A lot of people want to take this verse, Romans 6:14 and run with it. But if you check out what it says in Galatians 5, you will see that there is a condition for all this, being led by the Spirit. The text in Romans is addressed to those led by the spirit.

> Galatians 5:18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

So the safe conclusion is this: In so far as you are led by the Spirit, you are not under the law. When the Spirit is poured out in the end times, those who walk in it will not be under the law. As the Holy Spirit moves in our lives before that time, we have a foretaste or sample of the New Covenant. That is, insofar as we are led by the Spirit, we have a foretaste of the New Covenant. In the End times when we are to be led by the Spirit on a continual basis, that will be the fulfillment of the New Covenant.

Now to put it another way, for clarity’s sake, the promise of a new covenant has been with us since Genesis 12, the promise to Abraham. We are still waiting in faith on that promise. Let us not confuse the promise with the fulfillment. By faith in that promise, we have a hope of being saved by grace. The fulfillment of the promise, is the confirming of the covenant, the salvation revealed in the last days. This is the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

> 1 Peter 1:5 Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

The New Covenant As Covered In The New Testament!

In the New Testament writings, the Greek part of the bible, the effects of being under the New Covenant are described in a great many more ways. All of these are a part of the new covenant and will be aspects of the end time church.
We are going to summarize these quickly and skip the usual scripture references. This will let you get a quick idea of the many things that are included in the new covenant, which still await their end time fulfillment.

You have hidden the word in your heart. Christ in you, the hope of Glory.
You have reached promised land, the place of the blessing, The Blessing of Abraham, the fulfillment of Psalm 133.

> Psalms 133:1-3
> 1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
> 2 It is like the precious ointment upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard: that went down to the skirts of his garments;
> 3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

One more thing needs to be emphasized pertaining to the New Covenant.

> Revelation 1:1-3
> 1 The Revelation of Jesus Christ*, which God gave unto him, to shew unto his servants things which must shortly come to pass; and he sent and signified it by his angel unto his servant John:*
> 2 Who bare record of the word of God, and of the testimony of Jesus Christ, and of all things that he saw.
> 3 Blessed is he that readeth, and they that hear the words of this prophecy, and keep those things which are written therein: for the time is at hand.

What Is The Spirit Of Elijah?

Jill Austin

It is a prophetic anointing that would come in and shift things to make a difference. It's an anointing that would legislate from the heavens. When I am talking about the Elijah anointing, I really feel that is what God wants to release in this hour on nameless, faceless people with the power and government of God backing them up.

The Power of the Secret Place

Elijah was a man who was formed in a secret place, and then, he suddenly came on the scene. When he suddenly came in (from a place of hiddeness), he came in front of a governmental king, King Ahab, who was married to Jezebel. Both of them had terribly compromised and were worshipping Baal, as well as, being involved in heavy sexual perversion and dealing with sacrificing children. It was all very demonically inspired.

But when Elijah came, it says in 1 Kings 17:1, "Before the Lord God in Israel lives, before whom I stand, there shall not be dew nor rain these years, except at my word." He was a man who was formed in the secret place of intimacy and prayer.

Elijah's Mandate from God

A suddenly of God ushered him into the world scene of dealing with a global mandate! What was Elijah's mandate? It was to turn a whole people group -- Israel -- back to worshipping their God instead of worshipping the rain god, Baal. Elijah stood in his authority and legislated governmentally from Heaven to earth.

What I love about Elijah is that he came from the secret place of standing in the counsel of God, so when he went before King Ahab, it was already done in the Spirit. He was able to say, "There will be no more rain!" He was able to confront an evil power and principality that was working through Ahab.

God's Question to America

It is not a surprise for you to hear me say that America is in a very critical and strategic time right now. We are standing in the balance as the Lord asks us, "Is there going to be righteousness in the land?" How do we deal with perversion? How do we deal with pornography? How do we deal with immorality? How do we deal with the enemy as he comes in and shakes and shifts the very moral fabric of our nation?

The enemy also challenges who we are, which has opened up gateways for the demonic to come in and infiltrate how we think and how we feel. Every arena of our lives -- our education, our medical, our business, and our governmental systems -- is being put on a demarcation line. Are we really willing to stand for righteousness? Will we stand for the place of God? It will cost you to do so, but it will cost you more if you don't!

God's Callings in This Hour

There is a strong call to holiness now, isn't there? There is a call to stand against wickedness and perversion like never before. There is a call to stand in that solidarity of loving the Lord your God with all your heart. There is a call to deep, personal intimacy. Will you come into the secret place and seek His face with 100% of your heart?

Quote from Lou Engle's "Extreme Disciples" CD :

"When we are talking about America, it is very similar to the days where Israel was at that time. The spirit of Jezebel had swept that nation into sexual perversion and immorality. She destroyed all the prophets in the land. Only 10,000 prophets were left; all the other 10 million people had bowed their knee to Baal. The land was under a curse. But you see, this man, Elijah was consumed with a holy jealousy that would return the hearts of the fathers to the children. Therefore, Elijah arose to confront Jezebel.

"We are in a season where we need radical revival. If you look at Ezekiel 37, you see Ezekiel going in to this valley of dry bones. That really is the state of how the church is in many places. We need a fresh wind and a fresh breath of God to blow once again to bring those bones together as a mighty, mighty army.

"The reason we are so excited about Elijah is because Elijah was able to confront things in society and to change a whole society back into following the Lord. We need this throughout the world, not just in America!!!"

Walking In The Wilderness

Deb Okereke

A Word For Those Walking in the Wilderness

"Do not allow yourself to be bound to perceived limitations. Soar above them, refuse to step into that box. Remember you can do ALL things through Me. You have yet to realize that it makes no difference what the limitations of the body are because the spirit has no limitations, the soul can soar as high as its dreams, the heart is not tethered, your vision is not blurred. Set your vision higher, where My grace is needed to take you. Don't settle for crumbs when a feast awaits you. You are not a dog that needs to fight under the table for the crumbs of My affection, or for the bread of My Presence.

I know this sojourn in the wilderness has seemed endless and all you seem to see ahead of you are mountainous sand dunes - one relentlessly following after another. The air seems to be biting, dry and gritty and the farthest thing from a refreshing. But remember the word I gave you. I am in the wilderness with you Dear One. It is only for a season, it is for a good purpose, a great purpose - for you to be made ready - for your faith boots to be tested and tried, for them to feel comfortable, like a second skin. To walk by faith and not by sight, to walk by faith and not by feeling, to walk with a knowing.

You have not been placed on a shelf, though to some it may appear so. Rather, you have been placed in My fire, so the colors of My love can be more perfectly engraved upon your life. They are becoming beautiful. You want to argue with Me, but don't. Your eyes are on the dross, the flaws and imperfections in yourself that you still see. I am not impervious to them but they do not disgust Me as they do you. For I see the potential under the dust and scratches. I call you not marred, but MARVELLOUS!! I have washed you, and day by day as you seek to draw close and as you cry out for Me to change your heart, I am working in your inner being. My Hand will be gentle, for I love you and I would not wound you intentionally, though there will be pain associated with the revelations, as they surface from deep places within. You will walk in a new liberty!

Be encouraged that I have much for you and am proud of you. Truly you are My delight. Everything about you is dear to My heart. I am enamored of you. Do not call unworthy one I chose to die for!! Do not call unworthy the one I have chosen for My Bride, do not call unworthy the one whom I have chosen to be a jewel in my crown. I have raised you up to be seated with Me in the Heavenlies, I am training you to reign with Me throughout eternity. I am preparing a place for you in glory but I am also preparing a habitation for you on the earth below."

(1 Cor 2:9) "However, as it is written: "No eye has seen, no ear has heard, no mind has conceived what God has prepared for those who love him"

What Is This You Are Building

Terri Derocher

The Lord asked...What is this you are building?

Today in a vision I saw myself (as representing the body of Christ) pushing a heavy, fully heaping wheel barrow of nice smooth bricks. I was struggling under this load and seemed to be pushing it up hill. I then heard the Lord say as He walked beside me (notice He wasn't in front of me!)....What is this you are building? I heard the correction in His voice. I was immediately aware of how smooth and polished and man-made the bricks were and at the same time was remembering the Lord's command to only build with unhewn stone. Exodus 20: 24-25

Unhewn stone is wild! Man has not formed it, but only God's hand and the forces he has put into play to chip and break and crack and melt even. Brick can be made even of mud. It starts out loose and has to be put together and worked again and again. In primitive form it is even stomped barefoot--Now man has new ways to build bricks in the developed countries but it is all really the same- still man-made and contrived.

The Lord then continued to speak to me and reminded me of David and Nathan. 2 Samuel 7 David compared his palace to the tent of meeting for the Lord and David was grieved and wanted to build the Lord a "proper" palace for His presence. He asked Nathan what he thought about the whole idea and Nathan said "Whatever you have in mind go and do it for the Lord is with you." Later that night the Lord spoke to Nathan and said go back and tell David you are not to build my house. (Read the whole thing ...wonderful promises for us today!)

Whose blue prints are in your hand? The Lord says give them back to Him because He has a better plan and He wants to give you NEW blue prints. You are trying to build on your own! Your plans are feeble. Your plans are small. Your plans are flawed!!! He has THE PLANS. His plans are without defect or hidden weakness as no man's hand has touched or formed them. No mind has undertaken to construct this thing. Your man-made buildings will fall---and injure many as the foundation they are built upon crumbles. Yes...they crumble and fall apart for your own good!

I had a dream a couple weeks ago. I was at a woman's retreat and was issued a blue gown which I had to pay a deposit on. It kept being stolen from me. It was repeatedly stolen over and over. I would go to the desk and report it and the lady there (authority) would not believe me. She would say each time. "Your robe is not being stolen! No one is stealing your gown! You are just going to have to pay that ten dollar fee again. I paid it over and over in the dream. When I woke and remembered it I thought it was a strange dream and even laughed at the injustice of it all. I then asked the Lord...WHO was that that was stealing my gown? I was shocked when He said..."I stole it!" "I wanted to see how you would react. Would you react in love and patience (I didn't) when there was no way to prove your innocence? Would you continue to love and bless that woman at the desk? (I didn't and even now ask for another chance for my heart to be changed.)
There are unknowns in our lives we must trust the Lord with.

Some reading this have recently had the rug pulled out right from under them. The Lord would say "I am pulling that rug out. I am bringing change which will be good for you because your little dreams and plans are too small. LOOK UP!!!! COME UP...raise your eyes UP HERE for I have new plans for you. Your little rug may have been comfortable and perhaps smelled even sweet to you but to me it has the stench of man-made all over it and I will replace it with priestly, heavenly garments to wrap you in and I will put gold under your feet instead of that dusty old rug!!!! TRUST ME with your future!!!! I don't give you heavy bricks to bear but I give you eagle’s wings to fly with!!!!"

May God Bless Us with His plans and purposes for our lives in the name of Jesus Christ

What Is Violent Praise

Chuck Pierce

Dear Victorious Worship Warriors:

In this fourth year of the seven-year war cycle, this is a year to bring God's victorious sound from Heaven into our atmospheres. How we establish an atmosphere of victory around us sets our course for the next three years. This is a season of victorious sound that will break old cycles, cause us to advance, and enlarge and define our boundaries for days ahead.

But What is VIOLENT PRAISE?

I am getting several questions about Violent Praise!
Violence means "vehement, forcible, or destructive action, often involving infringement, outrage, or assault."
Matthew 11:12-13 says, "And from the days of John the Baptist until now the kingdom of Heaven suffers violence, and the violent take it by force." (NKJV)

In the phrase, "the kingdom of Heaven suffers violence," a share in the heavenly Kingdom is sought for with the most ardent zeal and the most intense exertion. The NIV reads, "The kingdom of Heaven has been forcefully advancing, and forceful men lay hold of it." There is a sound and expression that will help you attain God's best and wrest all of what God has for you from the enemy's hands.

Praise comes from a Latin word meaning "value" or "price."
To give praise to God is to proclaim His merit or worth in every situation that we find ourselves encountering.
You can shout "Glory!" You can release blessing! Your heart can express thanksgiving!

This is the year of Samehk Hei, which embodies the expression of "hallelujah" or "Praise the Lord." In other words, this is a year that we must bring praise and the acknowledgement of God into every circumstance of our life. If we do this, God will enthrone Himself in the midst of our circumstances, and He will take on any strategy the enemy is using to bind, block, and captivate us. This is a time to remove the enemy's upper hand from controlling our inheritance.

WHAT PRAISE INVOLVES - SACRIFICE OR PHYSICAL MOVEMENT OR SILENCE; TESTIMONY, PRAYER, AND A HOLY LIFE

Praise includes offering of sacrifices (Leviticus 7:13), physical movement (II Samuel 6:14), silence and meditation (Psalm 77:11-12), testimony (Psalm 66:16), prayer (Philippians 4:6), and a holy life (I Peter 1:3-9). Each one of these expressions can become violent when you are determined to advance in God's Kingdom plan.

Praise is linked to music, both instrumental (Psalm 150:3-5) and vocal. Praise includes spontaneous outbursts of thanksgiving for some redemptive act of God (Exodus 15; Judges 5; I Samuel 2; Luke

1:46-55, 67-79). Praise also includes formal psalms and hymns adapted for corporate worship (II Chronicles 29:30) and church (Colossians 3:16). Praise should be a heart expression and not only an outward show (Matthew 15:8).

This is Not a Season for the Body of Christ to Be Passive.

Here are some great examples where the Israelites expressed violent praise:

- The Israelites expressed violent praise at Jericho.
- Gideon expressed violent praise over the Midianites.
- Paul and Silas expressed violent praise that shook them out of prison.

Don't worry about what to say -- just let your heart respond to God for He IS Worthy! Psalm 81:10 says, "I am the LORD your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt; open your mouth wide, and I will fill it." (NKJV)

The restoration of David's Tabernacle is advancing in the earth realm in this generation. You should read Amos 9 as well as Acts 15, and then the book of Revelation. One expresses prophetically, another expresses historically, and the latter reveals to us the present expression of the war in the heavens.

When you read more closely, you see how we, as God's army in the earth, will co-labor with the Host of Heaven to express a Holy God's overcoming power throughout the nations of the earth. This will unlock a global harvest. Your violent praise is preparing a storehouse for Kingdom harvest.

As you praise "violently," you are releasing the Roar of the Lord that has been held captive in God's people. Let me explain the "Roar of the Lord." God's sound permeates from Heaven and orders much of what goes on in the earthly realm. When He is ready to bring restoration to Earth, He releases His sound. Judah goes first! Judah roars! The roar of God is within us. Judah means praise Yahweh.

Do not resist the major shift that is recreating the way we worship and acknowledge God corporately. Yahweh signifies the God of covenant. This is a time when God values our worship. Also, this is a time when we begin to value the covenant that He has allowed us to enter into with Him. What a price He paid to give us access to the Throne Room. Our worship will take on great covenant significance at this time. Our worship will release great blessings into the earthly realm. The redeemed of the Lord will say "SO."

This is a time when the burning bush, "I AM" type of worship is coming into the midst of God's people. This is going to release a deliverance call across the Earth. When the ROAR of the Lord goes forth, a prophetic mantle falls (Amos 3). Let the Roar of the Lord loose that which is deep within you. This will enable you to hear clearly for your future. There will be an anointing to open your "ears." You will sense the Lord break hidden grief that has kept your joy capped. Shout "Glory!" Release blessings! Express thanksgiving!

Declare Victory Seven Times!

Declare victory completely in your thought processes. Allow the Lord to draw out old desires; He will remove some and activate others. Your thought-life can be revolutionized during this time. Stick close to the Lord and develop a prayer shield around you.

This is a month for a new level of discernment to be released. Stay in the Word and pray in the spirit. The Lord will uncover some key issues related to the blood of Jesus, the glory, and physical healing. Celebrate, and you will break through the "blood barrier" of old thought processes.

Death strategies and assignments will break. No longer do you have to be hung between two opinions. Break double-mindedness. Bring your faults, failures, and everything about you into the Throne Room. This will be a time to push forward quickly through intersections.

Memorize Psalms 127 and 121.
He will make Himself available in night-seasons through dreams and visions. He will be very near to those who seek Him while He is near. Expect abundant grace and mercy to be poured out, and watch transformation occur.

WHY WAR THROUGH "VIOLENT" PRAISE THE NEXT THREE YEARS?

In seeing what has happened in England over the last month, we must remember that the United States has a very strong covenant with God. This antagonizes the anti-Christ forces in the earth realm. The enemy is plotting and planning to bring terror and destruction that will cause God's people to retreat.

He would love to terrorize us to keep us out of subways, airplanes, malls, and so on. I do not see that smaller cities in our nation are more exempt than the larger cities in our nation.
But God!
God has a violent praising people that are more violent than the enemy. Everywhere you walk, from this day forward, release an atmosphere of praise that will defeat the enemy!

Blessings,

When Judgment Is Mercy

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

June 3, 2009
www.etpv.org.

> Daniel 9:5 We have sinned, ….

This will be a short look at some scriptures dealing with Mercy and Judgment.

Judgment is mercy when:
It leads to people learning righteousness
It brings redemption to God's people
It produces blessings
It makes the Lord better known and understood
It establishes the Kingdom of God here on earth.

Examples
It leads to people learning righteousness

> Isaiah 26:9 With my soul have I desired thee in the night; yea, with my spirit within me will I seek thee early: for when thy judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

It brings redemption to God's people

> Isaiah 1:27 Zion shall be redeemed with judgment, and her converts with righteousness.

It produces blessings

> Haggai 2:17-19
> 17 I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the labours of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, saith the LORD.
> 18 Consider now from this day and upward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, even from the day that the foundation of the LORD'S temple was laid, consider it.
> 19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yea, as yet the vine, and the fig tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive tree, hath not brought forth: from this day will I bless you.

> Psalms 103:6 The LORD executeth righteousness and judgment for all that are oppressed.

It makes the Lord well known and better understood as it the Revelation of Jesus Christ.

> Psalms 9:16 The LORD is known by the judgment which he executeth: the wicked is snared in the work of his own hands.

It establishes the Kingdom of God here on earth.

> Psalms 89:14 Justice and judgment are the habitation of thy throne: mercy and truth shall go before thy face.
> Isaiah 16:5 And in mercy shall the throne be established: and he shall sit upon it in truth in the tabernacle of David, judging, and seeking judgment, and hasting righteousness.
> Isaiah 28:15-17
> 15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with hell are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come unto us: for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:
> 16 Therefore thus saith the Lord GOD, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner stone, a sure foundation: he that believeth shall not make haste.
> 17 Judgment also will I lay to the line, and righteousness to the plummet: and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding place.
> Psalms 133:3 As the dew of Hermon, and as the dew that descended upon the mountains of Zion: for there the LORD commanded the blessing, even life for evermore.

Righteous Judgment

Judgment is Mercy when it is Righteous Judgment.

> John 7:24 Judge not according to the appearance, but judge righteous judgment.
> Revelation 16:7 And I heard another out of the altar say, Even so, Lord God Almighty, true and righteous are thy judgments.

We Love Because He First Loved Us

Francis Frangipane

Do you love Jesus Christ? Is there a part of your heart that not only intellectually accepts Christ's death for you, but actually loves Him for the price He paid?

Do you love His word and appreciate the many times He's rescued you from difficulties and battles, many caused by your own sin or foolishness? Do you love how He accepts you unconditionally when you turn to Him? He has forgiven every sin you have ever committed. How can you not love Him?

For too many people, knowing Jesus goes no deeper than agreeing to the historical fact of His existence. However, loving Him is a distant, almost unnatural reality for them. They take His name in vain or anger and, incredibly, use it as a curse. However, when you say the name of Jesus, its very sound calms the troubling in your heart. They mock His righteousness and delight in lawlessness. Yet, you love righteousness, even if you fall short of your own spiritual aspirations.

The fact that you possess love for Christ, even if your love is imperfect, proves something vital about you. The very existence of your love has been cultivated and awakened by God's love for you. The living Christ has actually approached you and revealed Himself to you. As it is written, "We love, because He first loved us" (I John 4:19).

"Never Wonder if God Loves You. Rather, Look At Your Heart"

Today, Christians argue about doctrines and divide over eschatologies. Yet, let us look at the deeper issue: do we each love Jesus Christ? If so, our love for Him is the result of His love for us. You see, the proof that we truly know Jesus Christ is not measured by the degrees we post on a wall, but the degree of love for Him that burns in our hearts.

Do you love Him? If so, it is because your love is a response to the relentless warmth of God's love for you. His love has proven itself irresistible. He says, "You did not choose Me, but I chose you" (John 15:16). Again, He says that "No one can come to Me, unless the Father who sent Me draws him" (John 6:44). Even our coming to Him is a product of His love for us.

When I say, "I love You, Jesus," it is because, at some point, long before I knew Him, before I could discern His voice or recognize His influence in my life, His love was drawing me to His heart. Yes, I know I am not worthy, but still Christ loved me. True, I have no righteousness of my own, but I imagine there was a moment in heaven when the Son turned to the heavenly Father and said, "I love Francis. I will bring him to Myself, show him My ways and become the strength of his life."

Never wonder if God loves you. Rather, look at your heart. Do you love Him? If so, your love for Him is proof of His love for you. We love, because He first loved us.

Heavenly Father, help us to pause, to absorb into our consciousness the impact of Your purposed love for us. Let this wondrous love influence everything we think and all that we do and become: I am my Beloved's and He is mine. Your banner over me is love. Let my life be flavored by Your unfailing mercy until, with all my heart, I love You, even as You have loved me.

When Love Waxes Cold

Carla Rickard

> Matthew 24:11-13 (King James Version)
> [11]And many false prophets shall rise, and shall deceive many.
> [12]And because iniquity shall abound, the love of many shall wax cold.
> [13]But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved

Why does the love of many wax cold? Clearly it states that it is because INIQUITY SHALL ABOUND! What does that really mean?

It means that there will be contempt and violation of law, iniquity, wickedness that will not only be around but will abound! The law is for the safety of all the society. Israel had laws that protected all of the society and respect was given to the law as a guide to good and acceptable behavior. Their lawgiver was Jehovah.
Today in our society we have seen it creep up on us where more and more the law of the land was disrespected and outright held in contempt. Leaders who have been placed over us to guide us are in held in contempt as the administrators of the law and in some cases the enforcers of the law of the land.

We have heard the term “law abiding citizen”. The law is only good for the masses if there is respect for the law. Otherwise the law will continue to be broken and be held in more and more contempt.

Most of the free world’s laws of the land and over the people have its base in the 10 commandments of the Lord. How those commands were meted out by authorities may vary, but the foundation is there. In Matthew verse 12 it says in the last days INIQUITY (contempt and violation of the law) will abound. That means it will increase and multiply. It didn’t say it would get more orderly.

Because the Law is in place as a schoolmaster to teach right from wrong according to the will of God, many will lose their compassion for one another. They will blame God for the many things that they see being done on the earth. Because of this lawlessness the LOVE of MANY shall be WAXED COLD.

What expression of the word love is being used in this scripture? It is brotherly love, affection, good will. We will see it in manifestation with people less willing to reach out and help others. More people will stop giving where they have been known to give. Others will lock their doors and take in no strangers because they have had a bad experience before and won’t trust enough to have a new one.

> Acts 28:26-28 (King James Version)
> [26]Saying, Go unto this people, and say, Hearing ye shall hear, and shall not understand; and seeing ye shall see, and not perceive:
> [27]For the heart of this people is waxed gross, and their ears are dull of hearing, and their eyes have they closed; lest they should see with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and should be converted, and I should heal them.
> [28]Be it known therefore unto you, that the salvation of God is sent unto the Gentiles, and that they will hear it

We have to be careful as the Church of Jesus Christ that we don’t have dull ears and closed eyes to what is RIGHTEOUS in the Lord. If we do, the Lord will take his salvation elsewhere. Now some will think that he won’t do that because it’s something that is forever. It is. However salvation is for the NOW. It is our healing NOW, our prosperity NOW, our divine protection NOW! Consider making salvation (the Word of God) of no effect. I don’t think that is what anyone would want in these troubled times.

Remember the last verse of Matthew. He that endures until the end the SAME shall be saved. We have to endure the unendurable. That is what separates the sheep from the goats.

> Acts 13:45-47 (King James Version)
> [45]But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming.
> [46]Then Paul and Barnabas waxed bold, and said, It was necessary that the word of God should first have been spoken to you: but seeing ye put it from you, and judge yourselves unworthy of everlasting life, lo, we turn to the Gentiles.
> [47]For so hath the Lord commanded us, saying, I have set thee to be a light of the Gentiles, that thou shouldest be for salvation unto the ends of the earth

As Paul said to those who spake against the things that was spoken by Paul, being contradictory and blaspheming, that they would turn to others who were not of the household of God to bring them the message of salvation and would receive! Why? That sounds so cold and loveless! No. Paul said “you put it from you and JUDGED YOURSELVES UNWORTHY of everlasting life.”

What is the right judgment? It is bringing justice into the earth as God would have it. Not the justice of man. But the GOODNESS of GOD. God judged Jesus as a worthy sacrifice for sin! How are we to judge? We are to judge as Jesus would judge.

> 1 John 1:5
> This then is the message which we have heard of him, and declare unto you, that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all.

Here is JUST ONE of the judgment RULES set out by the Lord God for us to follow. Read all of Leviticus 19 for more understanding. But before considering the below scripture, understand the meaning of judge as applied in the King James.

Judgment, justice, ordinance

a. judgment
    1. act of deciding a case
    2. place, court, seat of judgment
    3. process, procedure, litigation (before judges)
    4. case, cause (presented for judgment)
    5. sentence, decision (of judgment)
    6. execution (of judgment)
    7. time (of judgment)
b. justice, right, rectitude (attributes of God or man)
c. ordinance
d. decision (in law)
e. right, privilege, due (legal)
f. proper, fitting, measure, fitness, custom, manner, plan

When the Lord judges (and we should follow his example), He judges in righteousness.

> Psalm 9
> [8]And he shall judge the world in righteousness, he shall minister judgment to the people in uprightness.
> [9]The LORD also will be a refuge for the oppressed, a refuge in times of trouble.
> Psalm 37:32-34 (King James Version)
> [32]The wicked watcheth the righteous, and seeketh to slay him.
> [33]The LORD will not leave him in his hand, nor condemn him when he is judged.

> [34]Wait on the LORD, and keep his way, and he shall exalt thee to inherit the land: when the wicked are cut off, thou shalt see it.
> Psalm 72:4
> He shall judge the poor of the people, he shall save the children of the needy, and shall break in pieces the oppressor
> 2 Chronicles 19:6
> And said to the judges, Take heed what ye do: for ye judge not for man, but for the LORD, who is with you in the judgment.

How much MUCH MORE could be said about judgment. Judgment is not the same as condemnation. Judgment is the making of a right decision, as God would make it. Condemnation and death and destruction are from the devil. He twists the law of God in the ears and eyes of men. God weighs and decides based on His law for the benefit of the earth and those in it. God did not condemn men to hang on the tree-CURSED. He brought forth a plan of atonement that men could forever be at peace with God. Let us not forget the salvation that has been sealed in Christ for us, for ever.

> Leviticus 19:14-16 (King James Version)
> [15]Ye shall do no unrighteousness in judgment: thou shalt not respect the person of the poor, nor honor the person of the mighty: but in righteousness shalt thou judge thy neighbour.
> [16]Thou shalt not go up and down as a talebearer among thy people: neither shalt thou stand against the blood of thy neighbour; I am the LORD.
> [17]Thou shalt not hate thy brother in thine heart: thou shalt in any wise rebuke thy neighbour, and not suffer sin upon him.
> [18]Thou shalt not avenge, nor bear any grudge against the children of thy people, but thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself: I am the LORD.

Will we judge the poor, the widow, the fatherless, the household of God, the wicked as God would? Do we judge righteously? When the love of many grows cold, will God's love toward us also grow cold? Of course not! We must continue in right judgment to do these acts of God first in our hearts and into the world as He commands us to do. The commandment of love is NOT a suggestion but a requirement to endure through the darkness. I have personally heard much about those who are lazy, who are only seeking to go to church to marry, etc etc. Imagine if we judged rightly the changes that would occur in the earth! However we condemn and fail to bring forth His Justice on the earth. Thinking more highly of ourselves than we should. Any of us can be poor at any time, very quickly. It is not by our strength alone that we have wealth. God gives us the wisdom to get wealth. Are we connected to right judgment to make Godly decisions of giving that it may be given unto us PRESSED DOWN, SHAKEN TOGETHER, AND RUNNING OVER? Remember what ever you decide to judge and the manner of heart you judge it in, you will receive back PRESSED DOWN, SHAKEN TOGETHER, AND RUNNING OVER.

Love covers a multitude of sin. It sure covered mine on the cross!

Remember as dark days fall on the world to continue to speak LIFE into situations of death; speak LIGHT into dark places. Speak MERCY in places of CONDEMNATION; speak RIGHT JUDGMENT into places of CHAOS and DIRE CONDITIONS. Endure until the end that you may be saved.

> MATTHEW 24
> [13]But he that shall endure unto the end, the same shall be saved

What is that which we MUST ENDURE?

- Endure the hate of men for the sake of Jesus (Matt 10:22; 2Tim 2:3)

- Endure until the end of the lawlessness and of hearts waxing cold (Matt 24:13)
- Endure offenses of others because of the Word that is brought (Matt 4:17)
- Endure SOUND doctrine (2Tim 2:4-3)
- Endure afflictions (2 Tim2:4-5)
- Endure fear (Hebrews 11:27)
- Endure the contradiction of sinners (Hebrews 12:3)
- Endure chastening of God (Hebrews 12:7)
- Endure Temptation (James 1:12)
- Endure grief and suffering wrongly if for the conscious toward God (1 Peter 2:9)

> · James 5:11
> Behold, we count them happy which endure. Ye have heard of the patience of Job, and have seen the end of the Lord; that the Lord is very pitiful, and of tender mercy
> Romans 12:21
> Be not overcome of evil, but overcome evil with good
> 2 Peter 2:19
> While they promise them liberty, they themselves are the servants of corruption: for of whom a man is overcome, of the same is he brought in bondage

Do we want good in our world? Then we must overcome the evil in our world by GOOD. Do not let yourself be OVERCOME by cold hard hearts, poverty, despair, ingratitude, doubt, and the like, for what overcomes you, has taken you into captivity and bondage. Remain Free! Over come these with love, giving, hope, thankfulness, faith and their like!

> Revelation 21:7
> He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son.

The Power of Holy Ghost Tears
Carla Rickard

Scriptures
Psalm 6:6
I am weary with my groaning; all the night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.

Psalm 39:12
Hear my prayer, O LORD, and give ear unto my cry; hold not thy peace at my tears: for I am a stranger with thee, and a sojourner, as all my fathers were

Psalm 56:8
Thou tellest my wanderings: put thou my tears into thy bottle: are they not in thy book?

Psalm 126:5
They that sow in tears shall reap in joy.

· 2 Kings 20:5
Turn again, and tell Hezekiah the captain of my people, Thus saith the LORD, the God of David thy father, I have heard thy prayer, I have seen thy tears: behold, I will heal thee: on the third day thou shalt go up unto the house of the LORD.

I have often wondered why it is that when the Spirit of the Lord comes upon me during worship or prayer, why I don’t laugh, or jump, or shout. I weep with deep groanings. I’m personally not sad. But HE is expressing his compassion through me.

Have you ever thought God don’t care? Look into the eyes of a weeping gap stander, you will be looking into the eyes of Jesus in that very moment. You will see that those tears are for you. He still weeps for you. He expresses it through imperfect, emotional deficient, earthen vessels who in a moment are yielded to Him. He’s not always weeping because you are far from Him or unrepentant, or a terrible sinner. He often will weep because HE FEELS YOUR CONDITION.

In a previous study last year we looked at bearing one another’s burden’s and what it meant for any two TOUCHING anything really meant. We found out touching meant, we had to be connected up with it on all levels. We couldn’t be emotionally devoid of the one we are agreeing with in prayer. We must become as one to agree. That is perfect intercession. That is the Holy Spirit bearing, or TOUCHING the “ thing” with you. He is totally engaged in it!

I had a word given to me of the Lord tonight. He said “ Fire. Tidal. Tears of Fire. Tidal Tears of Fire.” Wow I was overcome with the meaning in my heart however I was having difficulty relaying the power of those Holy Ghost Words.

I want to go back to a statement made to me years ago. It was said that our tears don’t move God, only faith moves God. But tonight, I was shown that tears do move God, but they have to be Holy Spirit tears. Tears of Fire truly illustrated that to me. For us to truly see the miracles that we desire to see in the lives of others, we have to get much more “ real” in our intercession. Truthfully we can’t do that, unless the Lord anoints us for that mission. You can’t stir that one out without soon being found out we are a “ fake”. It must be agreement between YOU AND HOLY SPIRIT. You both must be touching the thing. Can these DRY BONES LIVE? Yes. Can I feel the heart of God? Yes, if He trusts you with His heart. He wants to express his deepness. Shut him down, and you wound Him. He will retreat from you. He’ll not depart, but he will move back. Wouldn’t you if you were told to stop it?

Jesus was often MOVED WITH COMPASSION before a miracle occurred. He TOUCHED the THING before he even was physically INVOLVED in the thing. It was the BELIEF in HIS LOVE that rose faith up in those who would receive.

When Jesus wept at the tomb of Lazarus, I believe there was a few things happening. I am sure he wept at the lack of faith in those gathered around. I am sure he was heart broken that they did not understand the promise of God standing before them. There is now a new thing I have discovered through the Holy Spirit. Jesus wept in intercession. He touched the thing. Through His tidal tears of fire, he cried out “ Lazarus come forth”. This tidal wave of tears swept away any care of anything else, any distraction, and purified the moment for total focus IN FAITH to speak LIFE into those bones. A miracle happened. Faith worked by love. Did other’s believe he could raise Lazarus? Not really. How did the faith of Jesus overcome all the doubt in the house this time? Before he had to chase other’s away that their doubt did not stop the healing or rising up from beds of illness. This time it was different. Jesus was given the fullness of intercession through Tidal Tears of Fire. He knew He would face what Lazarus was now in circumstance of: death! He could touch the thing!

Consider these things carefully. Be careful not to mock God with crocodile tears because it may look “ spiritual”. Don’t tempt the Lord in matters of compassion, or any other matter. Ask for this gift of tears. It’s a new thing the Lord is doing. This is His New Thing. More is coming. Perhaps when released I will share on those things as well. The anointing to share that is not fully present as yet. Ask the Lord to give you Tidal Tears of Fire. Watch the anointing BREAK the yoke.

Tempting God

Carla Rickard

What does it mean to Tempt God?

The Word TEMPT means*: try presumptuously, provoke someone to do something through (often false or exaggerated) promises or persuasion.*

What does it mean to TRY PRESUMPTUOUSLY? That is where the word tempt becomes interesting. Try means to:

- put on trial or hear a case and sit as the judge at the trial of
- put to the test, as for its quality, or give experimental use to
- give pain or trouble to
- test the limits of
- take liberties or act with too much confidence, to act without permission,

So in other words when it says in Deuteronomy 6:16 ye shall not tempt the Lord your God. You can understand it this way

YOU SHALL NOT PUT ON TRIAL , PUT TO THE TEST, EXPERIMENT HIS USE, TEST THE LIMITS OF, ACT WITHOUT PERMISSION, OR GIVE PAIN OR TROUBLE TO YOUR GOD THROUGH PROVOKING YOUR GOD WITH EXAGGERATED PROMISES OR PERSUASION(argument, reason or entreaty or on personal belief that is not based on proof).

There are many scriptures regarding temptation. I have just done a short word search on the word tempt itself without its variations.

Exodus 17

[1]And all the congregation of the children of Israel journeyed from the wilderness of Sin, after their journeys, according to the commandment of the LORD, and pitched in Rephidim: and there was no water for the people to drink.

[2]Wherefore the people did chide with Moses, and said, Give us water that we may drink. And Moses said unto them, Why chide ye with me? wherefore do ye tempt the LORD?

[3]And the people thirsted there for water; and the people murmured against Moses, and said, Wherefore is this that thou hast brought us up out of Egypt, to kill us and our children and our cattle with thirst?

What happened here that Moses said the people were tempting God? Chide means to censure sharply or to criticize, rebuke. So the people were speaking very disrespectfully to Moses and were trying God. He had just shown himself strong on their behalf, but now they are grumbling that they were brought out of Egypt to be killed. They were using manipulation and sarcasm to push the Lord and Moses into doing something in their time table.

Numbers 14:22

Because all those men which have seen my glory, and my miracles, which I did in Egypt and in the wilderness, and have tempted me now these ten times, and have not hearkened to my voice;

Deuteronomy 6:16

Ye shall not tempt the LORD your God, as ye tempted him in Massah.

Of course I needed also to know what happened in this place called Massah. Here is the account:

Exodus 17:6-8 (New International Version)

[6] I will stand there before you by the rock at Horeb. Strike the rock, and water will come out of it for the people to drink." So Moses did this in the sight of the elders of Israel. [7] And he called the place Massah and Meribah because the Israelites quarreled and because they tested the LORD saying, "Is the LORD among us or not?"

The Amalekites Defeated

[8] The Amalekites came and attacked the Israelites at Rephidim.

Footnotes:

a. Exodus 17:7 Massah means testing .
b. Exodus 17:7 Meribah means quarreling .

Exodus 17:7
And he called the name of the place Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the LORD, saying, Is the LORD among us, or not?

It really sounds as though these people were determined for God to perform to their liking. It sounded as though they were lacking patience in waiting for the Lord’s deliverance. In the following scripture found in Psalms explains what happened here a little more clearly. Where did they tempt God? In their HEART by asking MEAT for their LUST. They had been provided food. Yet they wanted it their way. This is more that lusting for food. It is a condition of the heart. Do we ask for manifestation for the lust of our heart? Are we expecting God to perform like a dog for a cookie for our approval and acknowledgement?

Let’s look at the word Lust and what it means in our day to day language. Lust means: have a craving, appetite, or great desire for. Now, what can meat mean? It can mean: the choicest or most essential or most vital part of some idea or experience
I believe most of us know the most carnal parts of lust. Lets go deeper. Lets get into the issues of the heart. Do we today have a craving or appetite to be fed the choicest or most essential part of an idea or experience?

Psalm 78:18
And they tempted God in their heart by asking meat for their lust.

Isaiah 7:11-13
[11]Ask thee a sign of the LORD thy God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.
[12]But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt the LORD.
[13]And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David; Is it a small thing for you to weary men, but will ye weary my God also?
This is an interesting scripture from Matthew that gives us relevancy as it pertains to the words of Jesus. Jesus perceived the wickedness in their question. These ones TEMPTED the Son of God.

Matthew 22:17-19
[17]Tell us therefore, What thinkest thou? Is it lawful to give tribute unto Caesar, or not?
[18]But Jesus perceived their wickedness, and said, Why tempt ye me, ye hypocrites?
[19]Shew me the tribute money. And they brought unto him a penny
Tempting can come in the form of lying. You can even agree to tempt the Holy Spirit of the Lord! How many of us are doing this? I’m certainly looking at my own life in the midst of this article and asking myself these questions.

Acts 5:8-10
[8]And Peter answered unto her, Tell me whether ye sold the land for so much? And she said, Yea, for so much.
[9]Then Peter said unto her, How is it that ye have agreed together to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? behold, the feet of them which have buried thy husband are at the door, and shall carry thee out.
[10]Then fell she down straightway at his feet, and yielded up the ghost: and the young men came in, and found her dead, and, carrying her forth, buried her by her husband.
This next scripture in Acts 15 blew me away. It says in verse 10 that we can tempt God by putting a yoke upon the neck of the disciples of Jesus. Those who are learning from Jesus.

Acts 15:9-
[9]And put no difference between us and them, purifying their hearts by faith.

[10]Now therefore why tempt ye God, to put a yoke upon the neck of the disciples, which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear?
[11]But we believe that through the grace of the LORD Jesus Christ we shall be saved, even as they.

We often wonder what happens if we do tempt God. This scripture below speaks of what happens when we tempt Christ. They were destroyed of serpents! I would caution those who would think that serpents in this scripture is literal serpents even though it certainly is that also. If we look at our understanding of Genesis we understand the serpent in the garden was the beguiler. The trickster. Let us not tempt Christ (the anointed one and HIS anointing- even those he anoints) that we be destroyed by the serpents of darkness.

1 Corinthians 10:8-
[8]Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
[9]Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed of serpents.
[10]Neither murmur ye, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed of the destroyer.

Wailing Mourning And Flooding Is Coming To The UK

Obii Pax-Harry

24th October 2005

I write with heaviness of heart, total humility, and fear of God. I urge you to read carefully what I am about to share. On the 9th of October I was awakened by the Holy Spirit, and given several messages, instructions and insight into future world events.

Processing Divine Revelation:

The Lord made clear He is not allowing His “pearls” to be cast before “swine’s”. Prophets will no longer prophesy to the stiff necked, cynical minds destined for destruction; those who have rejected the Lord and His word. As a matter of fact, I was instructed in very clear words by the Lord “You are no longer to warn them of the times”. I was given until 31st of December 2005 to send prophetic words through emails. I know believers in the U.K are not used to this type of word but PLEASE believe that the END OF TIMES IS UPON US! We must now reject enticing words of human wisdom and call for keys to interpret the times.

We are the season of the 5 wise, and 5 foolish virgins (Matt 25).

WARN THEM!

The Lord spoke to me as I prayed last night seeking interpretation of the panic I sensed in the spirit. He spoke of the hour to reveal we are in the season of Luke 17.

Jesus spoke to His disciples about the time you and I are in today in, Luke 17:26-28 “And as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man”.

They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all”.

The Lord revealed His messages must now be processed in four categories because we are in a season of separation. He is now speaking to four categories of people.

1. People that are asleep
2. People awake but stagnant
3. People awake and mobile (moving on with the Lord)
4. People who have accessed a season of fullness of His Spirit living

A Time of Mourning

NIGERIA:

Shortly after speaking with a dear friend last night (22nd October), I suddenly saw (in the spirit) a plane crash. I went into a panic and prayed. I was worried because she had just bored her flight to USA. I had only just said goodbye at the instruction of the pilot of her plane.

About 30mins later, as I spoke this time to a friend local to me (England), I suddenly experienced a panic attack. I quickly shared what I was experiencing with her, and had to go off the line to pray. I needed to know what the Lord was revealing. I later found out a plane had crashed that very moment in Nigeria killing another dear friend and several other government officials.

My friend who had boarded her flight to the USA is married to a top government official. He had also boarded on a flight from Lagos to Abuja. He had taken the earlier flight (from Lagos to Abuja) and had sat on the exact same aircraft that crashed hours later. Incidentally I had given her and another top government official the word of the Lord that “October 2005 would be a month of mourning and to watch over the 22nd October 05”.

Nigeria has now gone into a season of mourning having lost 116 people in a plane crash on the 22nd October 05, along with the wife of President who died following surgery in Spain on the same day. Nigeria is also in season of judgement, another prophetic word that I have been speaking to government officials in Nigeria since 2003.

BRITAIN:

As a result of the tragic events in Nigeria, I am compelled to speak up for fear of coming under judgement myself. Britain appears to be on the same timeline as Nigeria. With the benefit of prophetic signs and strategic natural occurrences, timelines of nations can be read for strategy.

Britain is in a season for:

Wailing:

Whilst in Israel during September 05, the Lord revealed the season that has beset the U.K. He said, “I want you to pull on the ancient anointing that is in My Holy land, the places I prayed, the places I taught, the places I healed, and the places I walked”. From place to place we pulled on the anointing having heeded the warning “you are not to see yourselves as tourists”.

The Lord then spoke clearly, that the strength to intercede for Britain cannot be drawn from Britain in the season that began 16th September 2005.

He said “A season of wailing” has come upon us. The instruction was to:

“Consider and call for the mourning women, that they may come; And send for skilful wailing women, that they may come” (Jer 9:17).

Mourning:

For months I have been unable to beautify my hair or treat my hair. I have also to my dismay been led to wrap my hair in a scarf as the mourning women would do in Africa. I did not know I was living through the sign of the season….mourning! There will be mourning for spiritual and natural deaths in the land. Many will mourn for loss of material things too.

Flooding:

Several prophetic voices including Sue Mitchell, Victor Lorenzo, Martin Scott, and Sharon Stone have been warning of flooding coming to London and the rest of the nation. I had the word given to me on the same subject of flooding cited on the Women Arise web site since 2004. Please see prophecy page (see Flood Alert & also Word for Nation Pt 1& 2 on www.womenarisepray.org).

On Tuesday 18th October, the Lord spoke to me at our church's weekly prayer meeting to watch for 21days from then (18th) for His voice through cosmic sign (i.e. flooding) in the land.

On Wednesday, 19th October 2005, (the very next day) I was informed of citings of rainbows by Deborah Smith (my assistant) who was not aware of the word the Lord revealed to me the day before.

Deborah had visited London for the upcoming 'INTERPRETING THE TIMES' training Sue Mitchell (Co-founder of Passion, U.K) and I felt mandated by the Spirit of the Lord to pursue (11th-12th Nov).

Deborah saw on five different occasions, and locations rainbows appear over London, after seeing the 5th rainbow, her husband called her and mentioned there were two rainbows over Birmingham making 7 in total. The Lord then confirmed the word He gave me earlier on in the month of October that, "You have come into a season of 7's; a time of completion".

COMPLETION OF SIGNS:

With the rainbows of the 19th, the Lord said, "There has now been a completion of signs". (7 is the number for completion). The church and nation must now expect to witness great flooding. The sign of rainbows over the head (London) and heart (Birmingham) of England reveals a message to the righteous in England at least, that the Lord will not destroy the righteous (as was with Noah) nor belongings.

Ephraim Frank

Shalom Fellow Israelite, August 26, 2005

Well, we all have seen the heart renting scenes of families losing their homes and being taken off in buses during the disengagement. Some went peacefully and others put up passive resistance. Then there were those who came in from the outside and gave the world a thrill as they battled the soldiers and police with oil, water bottles, eggs, sticks and fruit and vegetables. But nothing compared to the stones, firebombs and weapons that the Palestinians use when they decide to resist.

All in all the government, police and military declared unanimously that the campaign to rid the Gaza and Northern Samaria of the Jews, in the process of getting it ready for a free and democratic state of Palestine, was a successful one. One commentator said that this was only the first round of the Disengagement. I wonder who will be next. Ariel Sharon, on the other hand, said that there would be no more evacuation of settlements, while his colleague and member of his government, Shimon Peres, had been saying all along that the only reason he was supporting this government was for this purpose. Peres had also said that he and his party would leave the government once the Disengagement is over (although that remains to be seen, as it isn't so easy to give up a cushy seat). Another left-winger, Dr Yosi Beilin (architect of the Geneva Accords), is planning to present the Knesset with a no confidence vote, in hopes of bringing the Sharon rule to an end. In a Fox News interview with a White House representative, the latter categorically stated that Israel is about to have new elections (and who knows better than a White House representative about Israeli politics?) President Bush, of course, is pushing for the "two democratic states" solution.

But this peace process, which is supposed to pave the way for Bush's dream and vision, will come to a standstill if Israel's government disbands (at least until after new elections take place). In the interim Israel will lick its wounds and the Palestinian Authority will have time to try to persuade Hamas to stop its aggressive policies and come together and join a more pragmatic and peaceful political solution. Unfortunately for the PA, Hamas does not recognize their sovereignty, even though the two groups are not really all that different one from the other. In fact, PA leader, Muhammad Abbas, when addressing his own people (including Hamas) was of the opinion that it was because of the persistent armed resistance that Israel withdrew, although he had other things to say to the rest of the world. He even came and shook the hands of Israel's leaders, congratulating them for taking such a courageous step towards peace. Incidentally, Hamas has just come out with a declaration of war against "Christian Zionists". In view of the circumstances they have been bragging that their god, Allah, and the Koran are greater and more powerful than the God of the Bible and His people the Jews and Christians.

We, of the redeemed remnant that are called out through Messiah Yeshua, must understand that "the weapons of our warfare are not carnal but mighty in Elohim for pulling down of strongholds, casting down arguments and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of Elohim, bringing every thought into captivity to the obedience of Messiah and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled" (2 Corinthians 10:4-6).

Two weeks ago I mentioned the religious spirits of Jezebel and her daughter Athaliah. Jezebel was ruling in the House of Joseph, killing the prophets of YHVH and she is still active in that house, doing her best to keep true believers (in the churches) from hearing the voice of YHVH's prophets from of old. Her daughter, on the other hand, is dominant in the House of Judah.

It was during the time of the reign of Athaliah, in the House of Judah, that there was a priest whom YHVH raised up to protect the "royal seed". Jehoiada (Yeho-yada, meaning, "YHVH knows") called for "a third of the priests and Levites that have come in on the Shabbat to be the gatekeepers" (2 Chronicles 23:4). Please note the ones that were chosen for this most important position were those who came in on the Shabbat, that is, those who have entered His rest.

Through the Messiah YHVH has returned the office of the priesthood back to the firstborn (ref. Jeremiah 31:9). You are therefore called to come into His eternal Shabbat and become these gatekeepers or watchmen. Many want to be the watchmen on the wall or gatekeepers in the house, but the priests that took up this position were prepared, tested and found faithful in the little things.

The above quoted scriptures (2 Corinthians 10) describe the marks of a priest of the Most High. Such a one has learned to use his spiritual weapons and bring down every thought (in his own mind) and the fortresses of the enemy that have built themselves into his personality. He overcomes the adversary by obedience to the leading of the Spirit of Holiness, which is the life and nature of the Messiah, as Yeshua came to destroy the works of the devil. "Therefore, my beloved brethren, be steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of Yeshua, knowing that your labor is not in vain in Him" (1 Corinthians 15:58). Thus this "priest" must be found faithful in his service to YHVH

Ephraim cannot protect the "royal seed" in the House of Judah if he has not learned obedience to the "royal seed" in his own house, "and being ready to punish all disobedience when your obedience is fulfilled".

To paraphrase a portion of 2 Chronicles 23: "And these gatekeepers shall surround the king on all sides, every man with his weapons in his hand; and whatever comes into the house that is not of YHVH, let it be put to death. The gatekeepers are to be with the king when he comes in and when he goes out. These priest have been given spears and the large and small shields that belonged to King David and that were in the temple of YHVH."

May it be so in our personal tabernacle and may others in our fellowship be those gatekeepers who would help us guard the "Royal Seed", that He may rule in our hearts.

When, Not If

In the wake of the recent London terrorist attacks a new catch phrase is being heard from the mouths of politicians, authorities and those who are considered experts in such things. "Not if, but when" has become the word of the hour as high profile leaders tell us that terrorist attacks are now inevitable in many of our cities and nations. As the war on terror spreads wider and uglier, our newspapers and T.V.'s daily deliver newer and graver warnings of potential attacks. In Britain, across Europe, in the U.S.A. and here in Australia we are told it's only a matter of time until the next attack takes more innocent lives and leaves us wondering what more can be done to combat this evil. Despite the best assurances of political leaders that they are ready for the next terrorist assault, and regardless of internet websites defiantly proclaiming "We are not afraid", fear IS growing. I've yet to hear anyone seriously stand up and challenge this mindset of "when, not if" now being spoken forth from international halls of power over our airwaves and into our homes.

The scriptures do tell us that in the end times there will be distress of nations with mens' hearts failing for fear, so the fact that fear is rising in the world should not surprise us. However, we who are in Christ are not of the world, and need not receive its mindset. These words, "not if, but when" are indeed prophetic words, but carry a different message entirely for those laying down their lives daily to follow the Lamb. As I have heard this phrase resounding across the world in recent days the Holy Spirit has been birthing a deeper, more significant message hidden within it - a message the waiting Bride has been longing to hear and which I believe is now being trumpeted from Heaven to those who have ears to hear. The Holy Spirit does not imitate the world in any way whatsoever, but the world without realising it often unconsciously gives voice to things of the Spirit. I have waited on the Lord seeking expression of that which I am sensing in the Spirit. No doubt there are many others hearing this same message, and my prayer is that this word will find witness and confirmation in other maturing, prophetic hearts.

I believe the Spirit is calling the Bridal company to stand up. I believe we are entering a day of both apostolic power and apostolic struggle. There are obviously pioneer servants who have been blazing a trail in that realm for some time now. However, for the majority, that is those who have yielded to the Lord's severe fires of refining and forging in recent years, a new day of corporately expressing the fullness of Christ is emerging. The refinement process will continue as the purest oil is drawn forth from the followers of the Lamb. Remember, it is the Lord's practise to keep the best wine for the end and the best wine is that which has been well matured in the winepress.

In nations where the church does not repent of her slothfulness and love of comfort, persecution is set to increase. For those who have lightly esteemed the spiritual freedom bought for them by the Blood of the Lamb, the civil law of the land shall become as a rod to teach them the meaning of grace. By this I mean that the present trend towards extreme political correctness in Western nations will continue to grow, seriously impacting on the western church's freedom to express her beliefs. Many believers will find themselves in a position of choosing between compromise or prosecution by civil authorities. The Cross looms heavily on the skyline and many in the church will flee from it. Those who have already set their faces to the Cross will demonstrate the Spirit's power in signs and wonders, but just as importantly, the Spirit's power will also be demonstrated through the preaching of the Word of Truth with ALL boldness.

The Spirit says we are not to fear, for though persecution will be great, so will grace. The fires that He will start will not be quenched, for when one fire is snuffed out, another will spring up in a different place. There will be so many Holy Spirit fires burning at once that the world and the antichrist system will be at a loss to know how to deal with them. Imprisoning the firestarters will not stop these fires, nor will killing them. These spiritual fires will spread from one servant to another like wildfire, and there will be so many carrying the fire of the Spirit nothing either from earth or from hell will be able to control them.

At the beginning of 2005 this ministry released a word to the Body called Days of the Spirit and the Bride, in which I stated : "In the days ahead the Spirit and Bride together will go forth across the nations, bearing manifested witness to the resurrection life of Christ. The Holy Spirit will unveil an elect company of living sacrifices that are the true Bride of Christ. As the "wife of the Lamb" yields in total submission to the holy governance and sweet fellowship of the Spirit of God, the Spirit will adorn her with the glorious reflection of the Bridegroom, revealing to the world the treasures of the knowledge of Christ that have been hidden within the Bride."

Manifested witness is the tangible power of the risen Christ. And the Spirit and the Bride say "Come". So be it.

Let us hear now what the Spirit says to the Bride:

WHEN, NOT IF
Received 29 July, 2005

Do you hear what the world is saying, Beloved? They do not know the truth they're speaking and they do not know it's meaning. The real question is this: "Do you hear what the Spirit says to the church?" Don't think it strange that the world echoes the Spirit, for the Spirit of God can cause even a dumb animal to speak for Him if He so chooses. In the beginning the Spirit hovered over the waters. The Spirit now hovers over the waters of mankind, brooding, bringing forth the Word of the Father. A Bride is forming in the nations. A Bridal company arises from the waters of humanity. Tribal borders, ethnicity, diverse tongues and customs - these are no barrier to the Spirit Who hovers, brooding, drawing and giving form to the great Bridal company who follow the Lamb.

This is the "when" of the Spirit. This is the "now" Heaven and creation have long awaited. The word of the hour is "when" - there is no longer any place for "if" among you.

Do you hear, My Beloved? I said "when, not if". Now is the hour of our "when" together. Now is the hour the Father has promised Me. Now is the hour I have spoken of to My Bride - first there to my disciples gathered on the shores of Galilee, and in the desert places of solitude, then down through the ages to trusted and faithful servants, forerunners in My great Bridal company, and now to you. I say to you the "now" has arrived. This is the hour of Yes and Amen. You have known My constraining Hand upon you, but no longer. You have groaned to be sent forth to manifest My fullness on the earth, but no longer. You have wept in hidden places of loneliness and sorrow, but now your sorrow is to be turned to joy.

Now there will be a proclaiming to the nations of My Power and My salvation. Now I say that you will demonstrate the Spirit's power - even the little children among you I shall anoint with miracles, signs and wonders to increase My glory on the earth. The power of My Name shall be shown by My Bride to those who sit in palaces and high places of political power, as well as in remote and isolated tribal villages, for I am no respecter of persons.

I say this world is talking about "when, not if", and I will show the world and those who decree such things the true meaning of those words. I say as My Kingdom manifests among them they shall truly know what I mean when I say "when, not if", for together we shall turn those words to herald the breaking forth of My Kingdom and the rising of My glory on My Bridal company. To those in the world who prophesy fear and doom, I shall show a new kind of fear, for the fear of the Lord will be known once more in the hearts of men. Don't think you shall be exempt from that yourself, Beloved, for if you think you can walk in My glory and not in My fear you are already walking in deception.

I said blessed are the servants who are watching when the Master comes. I said I am coming at an unexpected hour. That's a when, not an if. I said the hour would come when true worshipers will worship in the truth of the Spirit. That when is now. I said the hour would come when the dead will hear My Voice and live. I said the hour would come when you will stand before kings and rulers to give witness of Me. I said you will be beaten, betrayed and delivered up so that My Spirit will speak through you. I said there will be those who think they do God a favour by killing you, did I not? I tell you, it is no longer "if" but "when" for those who follow Me to the end.

I said you will see the Son of Man coming with the clouds in all His glory at an hour you think not. I said the hour will come when men will not endure sound doctrine. I said beware the hour when they say "peace and safety" for sudden destruction will fall on them. And I said when that which is perfect shall come, that which is in part will be no longer.

Now understand, Beloved, this is no longer about "if" you are ready. It is about Me being ready. No more "if" you feel like it, or "if" you don't. It is I that determines times and seasons and I say "if " is finished and "when" is here. Therefore gird yourself, beloved. The days of My knocking, imploring you to open to Me are behind.

The days are upon us when we shall go forth to the fields, for My desire is towards you. Too long you have been dreaming of Me - of being with Me, moving with Me, being fulfilled in all My promises to you. Now I speak words of release to you as I call you to follow Me with joyous abandon, unrestrained and unstoppable. You have sung your songs of love to Me, now I sing over you songs of deliverance, songs that will release you into all I have said to you. You will run with the limp of one who has contended with Me and yielded. You will go forth leaning on Me as one who has surrendered even her very identity to Mine. You shall be known by the seal I have placed upon you. No, my beloved, you may think you are not ready, but I am ready. When you hold back you will lose sight of Me, but when you lose Yourself in Me I will show You Who I Am. Do not hold back. It is the "when" of our running together. Let us show the world together what "when, not if" really means.

"Who is she who looks forth as the morning, fair as the moon, clear as the sun, awesome as an army with banners?" Song 6:10

We Need Some Kind Of Warning

Robert I Holmes

January 6th, 2004
I can still recall where I was sitting, on the morning of September 11, 2001. I was in Kansas City, Kansas, watching the impact of two aircraft on the world trade towers, the aircraft plummeting into the Pentagon, another seemingly on it's way to Camp David crashing into western Pennsylvania. As the day unfolded my heart was deeply moved.

I felt the same frustration, that same whispering in my spirit as I did on Christmas day, 2004 - after the Asian Tsunami. The voice of the church had been almost totally silent prior to this national tragedy. Why was there no warning of the events? Or indeed, the tidal waves that hit P.N.G. in 1998, or of the explosion of Mt St Helens the first time?

The nation of Canada has an early warning defence system. It was constructed in the 1940's to ready the people for incoming attack aircrafts. The sirens, air horns, warning systems and wiring still stand today. You can go to any major city in Canada and see these massive horns on stands, street corners, roofs and shopping centres. This system was tested in late 2002 and guess what they found? Less than 10% of the system is still functional. For the most part, these air raid sirens have become nesting places for birds, squirrels and other animals.

An early warning system

Tornadoes are a really good example, of an event that we are naturally able to give warning about. Whilst we still do not understand them, we can predict their coming fairly accurately.

Some years ago there was a movie in the box office called "Twister". In one scene a town was destroyed by a tornado. A woman was talking to her 'twister chasing' niece and she remarked, "Jo, we just didn't have any warning. No broadcast, no phone call, nothing! The sirens went off and seconds later we were hit... you've got to do something to give us more time!" When I first saw the movie, this line made me weep. I was grieved and deeply moved - in the same way as the events of Christmas Day moved me.

The eyes of the body

It is the glory of God to conceal a matter, and the glory of men to seek it out (Prov. 25:2). Why is it then that so much of what God has concealed remains concealed? Consider Christ's warning that: "The eye is the lamp of the body. If your eye is healthy, your whole body is full of light; but if it is not healthy, your body is full of darkness" (Luke 11:34). If the gift of prophetic insight is not alive and well in the church, the whole body will be in the dark, or at least partially blind.

We see a perfect example of the way an early warning system functioned well in the New Testament, in the ministry of Agabus. Agabus came from Jerusalem to Antioch and warned them of a coming famine - he blew the trumpet, he said what he saw and they listened. Thankfully they also responded. Everywhere the disciples went they took up offerings for the church in that region, preparing them financially for the famine that came just as Agabus had declared (Acts 11:27-30).

In the church, our early warning system is the ministry of the prophetic. Just as in the movie, our 'systems' are not providing warning of real danger. God lamented so long ago to His servant that, "I sought for anyone among them who would repair the wall and stand in the breach before me on behalf of the land, so that I would not destroy it; but I found no one" (Ezek. 22:30).

The prophetic is not completely non-functional. It has provided good insight to the Scriptures, it has been leaned upon in matters of church government in some quarters and it has been thoroughly overused in the realm of personal prophecy. But the prophetic should provide some warning of national and impending disaster. The Lord told Ezekiel, that the people should take one of their number as a sentinel, it was his job to look for judgment coming, for impending incidents.

That sentinel had two options if he saw something. He could blow the trumpet, or decide not to if he was unsure of what he had seen. Should the trumpet be blown, the people had two options when they heard the trumpet. They could respond or decide not to (Ezek. 33:2-6).

Why is our warning system, why are our watchmen largely silent?

1. Cry wolf syndrome

Sadly the prophetic has done itself a great disservice in crying wolf. Consider the history of prediction, the track record with episodes like this:

- Y2K and the predictions of destruction that filled the church; - 9/11 and proclamations that this was not judgement; - Iraq and Afganistan being invaded by the USA, with many in the prophetic movement supporting war.

Leaders learn to ignore the constant warnings given them by messengers because they have failed to get it right in the past. We must take responsibility for this, repent and endeavour to get it right in the future. Immature, untrained, self appointed or eager ministries have also discredited the prophetic with much 'doom saying' and 'date-setting' that again and again turned out to be wrong.

2. We do not want to hear bad news

In the church today many have swung out to an excessive or extreme position in the prophetic. Many today will not receive a 'bad report'. We seek only positive confession, only good news and therefore lean toward those messengers who tickle our ears. In Jeremiah's day the Lord said "Blow the trumpet through the land; shout aloud and say, "Gather together, and let us go into the fortified cities!" Raise a standard toward Zion, flee for safety, do not delay" (Jer. 4:5). Sadly the leaders of Israel at the time took Jeremiah's report rather poorly, and did not respond to the warnings.

3. Abuse

In some quarters we have abused our watchmen. Many of them have either been asked to leave, or have left voluntarily. There are good reasons behind asking some to leave, as outlined above. There are also some good reasons why valid prophetic ministries would decide to leave and remain silent. Men like Jeremiah, who gave true warning to the leaders, was abused by his 'church'. "Pashur struck the prophet...and put him in stocks"! (Jer. 20:2). To the warning of danger, they retorted, "You shall die! Why have you prophesied like this?" (26:9). Jeremiah earnestly wanted his city to be prepared, but they continued in their unbelief.

Conclusion

The Body of Christ functions best when it's eyes and ears function. We not only need to restore the watchmen to their place on the walls, but to also heed their advice rather than rejecting them. The report they bring to us may not always be a good report. But still we should not stone the messenger for the message they bring. We should take careful note, get further confirmation and then take action.

The other side of the coin is for prophetic individuals to understand that without the Body, they are nothing. Their ministry is without effect unless they are rightly attached to Christ- and His Body. The watchmen need to take care and only say what they see, endeavoring not to manipulate leadership with 'a word' and not falling into despair when things do not work out the way they had anticipated.

I look forward to the time when the congregation of the saints can say, "We are in fear of nothing for the Lord has appointed watchmen for our walls, and they provide good testimony of the coming of God and the movements of our enemies." Leaders, servants, prophetic persons and all the Body must work together in this effort if it is to succeed. We should pray that eye salve be brought, that we may restore sight to the blind, and that we remove our hands from over the eyes and respond willingly to what the eyes are seeing.

Word And Witness

Bill Somers

In this essay we will look at a couple of major sources of error and confusion in biblical teaching.

One is the failure to have two witnesses, another is the failure to see the timing of a scripture's fulfillment, a third is the failure to see multiple fulfillments in prophetic scripture. These are not exclusive but usually interrelated.

The Need for Two Witnesses
Let's look at the idea of having 2 witnesses.

> De 17:6 At the mouth of two witnesses, or three witnesses, shall he that is worthy of death be put to death; but at the mouth of one witness he shall not be put to death.
>
> De 19:15 One witness shall not rise up against a man for any iniquity, or for any sin, in any sin that he sinneth: at the mouth of two witnesses, or at the mouth of three witnesses, shall the matter be established.
>
> Mt 18:16 But if he will not hear thee, then take with thee one or two more, that in the mouth of two or three witnesses every word may be established.
> 2Co 13:1 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.

Here we have 4 verses relating to the idea that 2 or more witnesses are needed to prove something. In the old testament verses, they are witnesses in a case of a capital crime. The 2 witnesses are needed to establish the guilt of a guilty party when there is a death sentence possible.

In the case of the new testament verses, capital punishment is not the issue; the principle is applied much more broadly. It covers any situation where positive proof is needed.

Early in my Christian walk, I was taught that these verses were the foundation of a principle of Bible Study. That is they are generalized to means that in order to prove or establish a teaching or doctrine, you needed to find 2 verses of the bible that said roughly the same thing to support whatever you were trying to prove.

Well this made some sense, and nobody questioned it at the time. It was one of those things you were taught as a baby Christian and never gave much thought to. So what's the problem with it, you ask? Well, everyone gave this principle 'lip service' but nobody really applied it for real. It's one of those things that you can use for emphasis when you have 2 verses that support what you're trying to say. But when you don't have 2 verses, well, 1 will do just fine. That is to say, everyone said they agreed with the 2 witness, 2 verse theory. But nobody actually applied it in any honest way. I have never heard any teaching challenged because the teacher failed to supply 2 verses to make his point. We all operate on the basis that if you can find it in the word of God, then that's enough proof. God only needs to say something once. After all the word is considered infallible and without error. So if God said something, even if only once, it's still something that God said, and has to be true. After all do we go through the bible and rip out every verse that doesn't have a backup somewhere else in the bible? Of course not! So what's wrong with this picture? Why does God say to establish every word by two witnesses. Is this meant to apply only to specific situations where witnesses are called to testify? Is it a mistake to apply this to the word of God itself? Does the Word of God need 2 witnesses before we believe it? Or rather does the Word of God require 2 witnesses before we can understand it?

We find the 2 witness idea repeated several times in the bible, so it must be important; yet we're not sure how to apply it. The reason is we are looking at the matter in an entirely wrong way.

Just recently, I got some new revelation on the matter. We were in a discussion with a skeptical young man about some issues of the bible and faith. I had challenged him to puzzle out the events in John 8: 1-11 on the basis of some background info about the Pharisees, and some verses from the law of Moses. One of these was De 17:6 quoted above. His comment about it really opened my eyes to what the real issue was here. And I found it tied in perfectly with my thinking in preparing this essay.

What he said was: Moses is calling for 2 or three witnesses here. But the only witness that I have that this is really the word of God is Moses. Well, I had never thought about it that way! It's like we take it for granted that the words in the Bible are the words of God which the Holy Spirit spoke to the various authors. Then these authors, like Moses, went and wrote them down. So Moses is the witness. When we read the word of God at the hand of Moses, Moses is the witness that this is what God said. Even if we find 3, 4 or 5 verses that support one of our ideas, there is still only 1 witness! And that witness is Moses. So my friend says, here I am taking Moses word that this is what God said. But Moses is still just one witness!

So I explained to this young man how I understood the inspiration for the bible works. As I did so, the understanding came to me, even while I was talking, that the second witness has to be the Holy Spirit! Here is how I presented it.

The Bible says that 'all scripture is given by inspiration of God. '[i.e. the Holy Spirit]

> 2 Timothy 3:16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, ….

Now this works two ways. Like in the case of Moses, the Lord said to him, take and write these words in a book. Well the Lord appears to Moses and tells him, or he speaks the words directly into his mind. And Moses writes down exactly what God says. He doesn't need to understand what God means by any of it. All he has to do is write it down exactly as given to him. That's the first way that scripture is given by the Spirit.

A witness is someone who gives testimony. A biblical writer is giving his testimony that he has written what God told him to write. And a testament is another word for testimony. So the bible, new and old, is just a series of testimonies. It's one witness, the Spirit is the second one!

The second way the Spirit gives scripture is by giving it to the reader! As the reader is reading in the bible, the Spirit will give him bits and pieces of it. He opens the understanding of the reader so that it makes sense. If you're reading parts of the bible without the guidance of the Spirit, you just won't get it. Get it?

So in reading Moses or Matthew or any book of the Bible, the first witness is the bible itself. You're reading a long, confusing, vague and sometimes boring and sometimes puzzling book that claims to be the word of God. That's your first witness, the book claims to be the word of God. Now along comes the Spirit and takes the long, confusing, vague and sometimes boring book, and brings it to life by showing you what things mean. That's your second witness. And with these 2 witnesses you can prove things. The written word by itself is just a dead letter. The letter kills but the Spirit Gives Life. So the letter plus the Spirit gives life. That's two witnesses. That's the word mixed with faith!

So the implication of this is that without the Spirit, no word can be established. The Spirit is our proof, not man's wisdom. It don't mean a thing if it ain't got the Spirit behind it.

False Witnesses

Well so far, so good. But what if you have false witnesses? When Jesus was brought to trial there were many false witnesses against him. The odd thing was that none of them agreed with each other. Here is a case where false witnesses were used that makes an interesting allegory.

> 1 Kings 21:7-15
> 7 And Jezebel his wife said unto him, Dost thou now govern the kingdom of Israel? arise, and eat bread, and let thine heart be merry: I will give thee the vineyard of Naboth the > Jezreelite.

> 8 So she wrote letters in Ahab's name, and sealed them with his seal, and sent the letters unto the elders and to the nobles that were in his city, dwelling with Naboth.
> 9 And she wrote in the letters, saying, Proclaim a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people:
> 10 And set two men, sons of Belial, before him, to bear witness against him, saying, Thou didst blaspheme God and the king. And then carry him out, and stone him, that he may die.
> 11 And the men of his city, even the elders and the nobles who were the inhabitants in his city, did as Jezebel had sent unto them, and as it was written in the letters which she had sent unto them.
> 12 They proclaimed a fast, and set Naboth on high among the people.
> 13 And there came in two men, children of Belial, and sat before him: and the men of Belial witnessed against him, even against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. Then they carried him forth out of the city, and stoned him with stones, that he died.
> 14 Then they sent to Jezebel, saying, Naboth is stoned, and is dead.
> 15 And it came to pass, when Jezebel heard that Naboth was stoned, and was dead, that Jezebel said to Ahab, Arise, take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Jezreelite, which he refused to give thee for money: for Naboth is not alive, but dead.

Now the allegorical part of this is found by looking at names and symbols. Naboth means fruit, and the vineyard is a symbol of the church, and or Israel. Jezebel is a wicked spirit who aims to hinder or halt the flow of the prophetic word. What this story is saying points to the church in the end times. The spirit of Jezebel will use various false accusations to try and take over the church and kill off the fruit. But we also know this;!

> Isaiah 59:19 …. When the enemy shall come in like a flood, the Spirit of the LORD shall lift up a standard against him.

Faithful Witnesses
What we need in seeking out two witnesses are faithful witnesses. Jezebel used false witnesses and got away with it. Proverbs has this to say.

> Proverbs 14:5
> 5 A faithful witness will not lie: but a false witness will utter lies.

This is the underlying idea in courtroom tactics when an attorney will attempt to undermine the character of a witness. Once the integrity of the witness is removed, their testimony can be discounted. The kind of witness we need to have is one whose integrity is unquestionable. Note these verses from John chapter 5.

> 1 John 5:6-10
> 6 This is he that came by water and blood, even Jesus Christ; not by water only, but by water and blood. And it is the Spirit that beareth witness, because the Spirit is truth.
> 7 For there are three that bear record in heaven, the Father, the Word, and the Holy Ghost: and these three are one.
> 8 And there are three that bear witness in earth, the Spirit, and the water, and the blood: and these three agree in one.
> 9 If we receive the witness of men, the witness of God is greater: for this is the witness of God which he hath testified of his Son.
> 10 He that believeth on the Son of God hath the witness in himself: he that believeth not God hath made him a liar; because he believeth not the record that God gave of his Son.

> John 5:36-37
> 36 But I have greater witness than that of John: for the works which the Father hath given me to finish, the same works that I do, bear witness of me, that the Father hath sent me.

> 37 And the Father himself, which hath sent me, hath borne witness of me. Ye have neither heard his voice at any time, nor seen his shape.

> John 8:17-18
> 17 It is also written in your law, that the testimony of two men is true.
> 18 I am one that bear witness of myself, and the Father that sent me beareth witness of me.

So the witness you need if you are to handle the Word properly is not a fallible human witness.

> Romans 3:4
> 4 God forbid: yea, let God be true, but every man a liar; as it is written, That thou mightest be justified in thy sayings, and mightest overcome when thou art judged.

> 1 Peter 4:11
> 11 If any man speak, let him speak as the oracles of God; if any man minister, let him do it as of the ability which God giveth: that God in all things may be glorified through Jesus Christ, to whom be praise and dominion for ever and ever. Amen.

The witness you need if you are to handle the Word properly is the witness of the Spirit If the word being preached is not backed by the Spirit of God, it will not be mixed with faith in the listener. And therefore it will not do them any good.

> Hebrews 4:2
> 2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

Could this be why so much preaching is ineffective?

Can the word preached be a lie?
Take a look at this passage from first Kings. Elijah had been staying at the home of this woman, and one day her son dies. Elijah then prays and raises the dead son to life.

> 1 Kings 17:23-24
> 23 And Elijah took the child, and brought him down out of the chamber into the house, and delivered him unto his mother: and Elijah said, See, thy son liveth.
> 24 And the woman said to Elijah, Now by this I know that thou art a man of God, and that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth.

Here is a case where the power of God was demonstrated and it became a witness to the integrity of the Prophet.

> 1 Corinthians 4:20
> 20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.

The important point for our study is this: that the word of the LORD in thy mouth is truth. What this implies is that there can be times when the Word of the Lord can be spoken, yet not be the truth. If the word is misused, misunderstoon, or misapplied, there will be no truth in it. It will just be a case where the word, i.e. the letter of the law, kills.

Are we saying the bible is untrue? No, of course not. We are pointing out that in specific cases at certain times some one can be teaching or preaching from the bible and there will be no truth in it. These are times when there is no witness of the Spirit to back up the word being shared.

When you hear someone tell you, “The bible clearly teaches such and such” be careful. You could even say the bible doesn’t teach anything! Man teaches from the bible, and the Holy Spirit teaches from the bible. If a man’s teaching is not by the Spirit, there just might be no truth in it. The word of the Lord in his mouth will not be truth! This applies to more than just teaching.

> 2 Timothy 3:16
> 16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:

It also applies to exhortation, intercession, praise, worship and spiritual warfare.

The Timing Of A Scripture's Fulfillment
Let's look at a famous text that mentions the Timing of Fulfillment.

> Luke 4:16-21
> 16 And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up: and, as his custom was, he went into the synagogue on the sabbath day, and stood up for to read.
> 17 And there was delivered unto him the book of the prophet Esaias. And when he had opened the book, he found the place where it was written,
> 18 The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised,
> 19 To preach the acceptable year of the Lord.
> 20 And he closed the book, and he gave it again to the minister, and sat down. And the eyes of all them that were in the synagogue were fastened on him.
> *21 And he began to say unto them, This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears.

This day is this scripture fulfilled in your ears. What is going on here? What did it mean to say the scripture is fulfilled? It meant that at the time Jesus stood up and read it, the word of the Lord in His mouth was truth. For anyone else, at any other time, to get up and read those verses would have been a lie. More exactly, the reader would have only been reading what it said, with no idea or intention of being taken seriously or having any truth. If you or I got up and read those words aloud, and the Holy Spirit was not leading us, it would just be a lot of noise.

> 1 Corinthians 13:1
> 1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not charity, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.

One of the special things about the bible is that you cannot draw any conclusions based on the tense of a scripture. The example from Isaiah above was written in present tense, but from Isaiah's viewpoint, it pointed to something to happen in the future. From our viewpoint, it points to something that happened in the past.
When John wrote I saw it's past tense but points to the future. Here he is seeing into the future, but it is written in past tense.

> Revelation 21:2
> 2 And I John saw the holy city, new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride adorned for her husband.

Here's an example of something written in present and future tense, but has already past.

> Genesis 6:17
> 17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

The quote from Revelation has not been fulfilled yet. The one from Genesis has. Now look at this one.

> Hosea 11:1
> 1 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.

The quote from Hosea was fulfilled in Exodus, yet according to Matthew it was fulfilled centuries later in the life of Jesus. This is a case of double fulfillment.

> Matthew 2:15
> 15 And was there until the death of Herod: that it might be fulfilled which was spoken of the Lord by the prophet, saying, Out of Egypt have I called my son.

Here's a case where it's not so clear as to fulfillment.

> 1 John 3:2
> 2 Beloved, now are we the sons of God, and it doth not yet appear what we shall be: but we know that, when he shall appear, we shall be like him; for we shall see him as he is.

Suppose someone preached and based a teaching on the 'fact' that Now we are the sons of God. After all, they could claim, the bible says Now and that means now! Right. Well is this scripture 1 John 3:2 fulfilled or not. See what it says in Romans.

> Romans 8:14-16
> 14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.
> 15 For ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, Abba, Father.
> 16 The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:

There is a catch here isn't there. You have to be led by the Spirit. And the Spirit has to bear witness with us. A teaching based on the 'fact' that Now we are the sons of God, depends on the teacher and the listeners being led by the Spirit. If that's not the case, then there is no truth in it. We're not talking about being able to hear from the Spirit, or having a Gift from the Spirit. We're talking about being led by the Spirit on a full time basis; 24 by 7 by 365. You can't be a Son of God one day and revert back to your old self the next. That's not being led by the Spirit.

> John 3:5-8
> 5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.
> 6 That which is born of the flesh is flesh; and that which is born of the Spirit is spirit.
> 7 Marvel not that I said unto thee, Ye must be born again.
> 8 The wind bloweth where it listeth, and thou hearest the sound thereof, but canst not tell whence it cometh, and whither it goeth: so is every one that is born of the Spirit.

To be a Son of God, you have to be dead to the flesh, and born of the Spirit; This is the Kingdom of God.

So the verse that says Now we are the Sons of God is not yet fulfilled. You may find as you look through First John, that it is written in present tense, yet it speaks of a future condition or time.

Another good example is those who say we are not under the law, we're under grace. What does the bible say?

> Romans 6:14
> 14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace.

A lot of people want to take this verse, Romans 6:14 and run with it. But if you check out what it says in Galatians 5, you will see that there is that same condition, being led by the Spirit.

> Galatians 5:18
> 18 But if ye be led of the Spirit, ye are not under the law.

So are we under the Law or not? Perhaps Romans 6 has not been fulfilled yet.
Here is another passage in present tense that is not yet fulfilled.

> Hebrews 12:22-24
> 22 But ye are come unto mount Sion, and unto the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
> 23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
> 24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaketh better things than that of Abel.

Multiple Fulfillments
New testament scriptures taken at face value, speak of things in the present tense. We take them on faith, but do not see them in reality. The catch is that the New Testament church in the writings of the New Testament is primarily a type of the end time church. And many of the scriptures describing New Testament happenings are only partial fulfillments, or not fulfilled at all. These scriptures will not be finally fulfilled till the end time church comes into being. The chiefest of these is in Acts 2.

> Acts 2:16-20
> 16 But this is that which was spoken by the prophet Joel;
> 17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, saith God, I will pour out of my Spirit upon all flesh: and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, and your young men shall see visions, and your old men shall dream dreams:
> 18 And on my servants and on my handmaidens I will pour out in those days of my Spirit; and they shall prophesy:
> 19 And I will shew wonders in heaven above, and signs in the earth beneath; blood, and fire, and vapour of smoke:
> 20 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before that great and notable day of the Lord come:

The gift of the holy Spirit on that day was only a partial fulfillment of Joel, and obviously they did not see the wonders in heaven or signs in the earth. The Day of the Lord did not come in their time. The gift of the Spirit on that day was only a measure of foretaste of the spirit. These next quotes speak of the earnest of the Spirit. This means a partial payment or token.

> 2 Corinthians 1:22 Who hath also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.

> Ephesians 1:13-14
> 13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise*,*
> 14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

Notice that Ephesians 1:13-14 mentions the promise and looks ahead to time of the redemption. The fullness of the Spirit will come with the complete fulfillment of Joel 2.

> Joel 2:28-31
> 28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
> 29 And also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days will I pour out my spirit.
> 30 And I will shew wonders in the heavens and in the earth, blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.
> 31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and the terrible day of the LORD come.

Our problem comes when we assume that the partial fulfillment is the one and only fulfillment. Then we get into preaching and teaching on scripture that is not yet fulfilled. And people wonder ‘What’s wrong with this picture?’

So if you hear claims that :
we are a new testament church
we are under grace, not the law
we are the sons of God
we are spirit filled and spirit led we belong to the kingdom of God we are crucified with Christ we are walking in newness of life we are a new creation
we have the fullness of the five fold ministry and so on, look for the witness of the Spirit. Because although those making these claims mean well, there may be no truth in them.

Winds Of Change

Judith Grobelny

April 9, 2005

This morning as I prayed, I felt the Lord both showing and saying the following:

STRONG WINDS

Strong winds blew across St. Peter’s Square in Rome as the Pope’s funeral took place.
They were the winds of change and they will continue to blow. Great things will result from this grain that has gone into the ground. I felt the Lord saying that this man had answered His call, and had learned the secret of humility even when exalted by the Lord.

HUMILITY

Humility remains the key to survival in this time. I see heat sun, wind, rain – rapidly changing spiritual seasons. Previously there were long periods of time for seasons in our lives. These will now change rapidly.

FLEXIBILITY

Flexibility will be the key to survival. It will be important to remain flexible in the Lord’s hands.

NO ISLANDS

The battles in the heavenly realms are becoming intense and widespread. Nowhere is far enough removed so as not to feel this. We will no longer look at a battle taking place ‘over there’. We will know we are at war.

BEAMS OF REVELATION

I saw beams of clear light coming to specific places on the earth, as when the sun breaks through cloud. There will be times and places of amazing revelation. This will be notable for its clarity and purity. The Lord will not be speaking with symbols or parables, but with extreme clarity.

THE LORD IS BUILDING

I saw well dressed people in business suits. They had shovels and were trying to dig and build, but were barely able to turn a clump of earth. ONLY those who dig for God’s heart and desire intimacy with Him will see movement and fruit. The season has changed and the Lord is now the builder of His House. The grace has lifted off the attempts of man.

TUMULTUOUS WEATHER

I saw strong winds and rough seas, very tumultuous weather patterns. It felt like the earth being ‘tossed to and fro’ as a result of double-mindedness. I felt this had been brought about by nations of people who say one thing but do another, who speak strongly but are weak in faith and belief. The conditions will REQUIRE change in order to survive, and the outcome will be good.

TENDERNESS OF THE LORD

I saw the Lord with His arm around the shoulders of a young girl. He was stroking her hair with love, tenderness and reassurance. So it will be for those who are truly His. He draws near and watches over those who are His.

NEW ZEALAND

I saw the nation covered in a pink haze – I believe the Lord was indicating that those who are digging for His heart are moving closer to Him.
I saw people digging with great energy and they were in a furrow so deep now that it was impossible to see over the sides.
He indicated the need to climb up onto the dug out earth from time to time and look around to see what else was happening out there. There was a need to be aware of both areas. He was indicating that great progress had been made.

I found myself, in the spirit, lying in the finely tilled earth. It was crumbly and quite warm. There was a feeling of totally belonging here. It is good to be in the land.

I felt great heat on the land. The digging has been good preparation. The Lord reminded me that desert creatures go underground to stay cool. This was a time to:
Keep digging
Stay low
Stay down.

The Lord is stirring over the nation. This will break through apathy and will not allow settling, which will cause discomfort to some.

At the end of showing and speaking what is above, the Lord gave the following scriptures for reading and consideration:
Isaiah 24:6 Matt. 23:11 Psalm 118 Revelation 10-12 Joshua 6:10

Winds of Change

Beverly Juelsgaard-Fischer

September 5, 2005

Again I say get ready, get ready, get ready for great change is coming to the earth realm. Great change is coming to My people all over the earth.

For I have dispatched the angels of change, both large and small and the wheels are turning faster and faster (I saw angels in the Heavenlies standing by wheels that they had pushed to gently start turning and as the Lord commanded they would push on them again and the speed would accelerate each time they pushed on them.) Even now they watch with anticipations the events that are unfolding both below and before them. For they have seen Me patiently waiting and brooding over the welfare of man. Were it not for those who pray after My heart, I surely would not have waited this long. But time now grows short and the enemy continues to use every means possible to gain access to My throne and My people. For he seeks to gain all he can before the end. Thus, he will not give up and to ignore him and his minions or to think that if you do not bother him, he won't bother you - is foolish and ignorant. For he is the enemy of your soul, and he will use that, which you so foolishly believe, against you to destroy you. You have been put on this earth for a time such as this to be part of the end-time battle and to be a warrior for My kingdom. Do not believe otherwise.

You say that you are tired and weary of battling. I say, "RISE UP MIGHTY WARRIOR! Know that I AM GOD, that you only need to call on Me and you will not be tired or weary , but have the strength and courage to go forth in battle as I've called you to.

Come, spend time with Me, that you would rest at My feet to gain strength, wisdom, knowledge and understanding for the days ahead, for what is coming.

For the whirlwind of Katrina is nothing compared to the wind of God that will begin to blow over this nation and the world. Again I say, Mountains will fall, the ground will shake and the sea will roar, with a force that is incomprehensible by man's standards.

Pray for wisdom, mercy, and understanding. That you will change, as I change the earth, that you will come forth into what I have called each of you. For the shofar has blown. Can you not hear the call to battle?

Can you not hear the thundering hooves of the horses and the shouts of the warriors as they cry out in anticipation of the battle that is coming? (I looked up and could see millions of riders on horses, in full battle armor, milling around in anticipation – some were thundering across the ground practicing battle maneuvers and several were on horses on the hillside blowing their shofars. Angels were standing on the ground, mounted on horses and some were flying overhead, as they'd been dispatched to different parts of the earth with messages or to fight.

Again I say, do not fear this time of battle. Do not fear. For I, will not abandon or forsake you. I have your back and I know your future. I have no plans for you to perish but many plans for you to live and prosper, for I take care of what is Mine and love that you are willing to sacrifice yourself for My cause.

Now rest in the folds of My garment. Spend time with Me that I might fully prepare you for the days ahead.

Word For 2005

Get ready for the storm of glory and the wave of His presence and of souls. They can bring either great blessing or great destruction depending on whether or not we are ready. The storm will bring great blessings, the wind of the Spirit, an outpouring of knowledge, and great enlightenment. Your house must be ready to withstand what is to come. Make sure that all things are in their proper place. Seal all leaky places of your life. Prepare a place to contain the rain of my blessings when it falls. The wind of My Spirit will blow away all that has not positioned itself on a firm foundation.

A wave is coming! A wave of souls - they are coming hungry for Me. Get your structure in place. This is vital for your survival. Waves of finances, waves of direction, waves of wisdom and waves of favor are all coming for my people. It will be felt all over the world. Everyone will know. Miracles! Dig the wells of faith lest you be overtaken. The time is now - don't wait.

Father, show me how I must prepare.

Let My words dwell in you richly. Be bold and courageous. Be instant in season and out of season. Know my voice and be obedient.

I will send those who will help you to fulfill the vision. They will have everything you need. They will be from far and near. Be alert to recognize them as they come. They will have my heart and yours. Don't worry. Trust Me. This is what you have waited for.

You shall write much this year. Last year caused you to put things in order for production. The word shall get out and will be in demand far and near.

A wave and a rain cloud are both releases of what has been collected and stored up. The wave represents what comes from the natural - people, finances. I have held back and stored up for a time such as this. Don't fear what your eyes see in the natural for it is coming.

The clouds are the things that come from My throne room - an outpouring from "above". It is every spiritual blessing from the high places - My presence, My Word, My Spirit. They will cause supernatural growth.

A Visit from the Wolf;

A Word for the Pastors

Bill Somers

> The test of the true shepherd is how he reacts when the wolf comes.

During a recent worship service, one of our songs was This Joy That I Have. The lyric includes the lines, "The world didn’t give it to me and the world can’t take it away."

As we worshipped with this song, the Lord gave me a word for Pastors.

First I imagined that Jesus was singing the song. This is fitting since He endured the Cross because of the Joy He saw ahead. Then the lyric changed to This Church that I have, the world didn’t give it to me, and the world can’t take it away.

This brought to mind a passage from scripture:

> My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me:
> And I give unto them eternal life; and they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them out of my hand.
> My Father, which gave them me, is greater than all; and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand. John 10:27-29 (KJV)

Now the sheep are the church, and they are given to Jesus by the Father and no one can pluck them out of His hand. So He can say the world didn’t give it and the world can’t take it away!

Next thing is to apply this to each pastor in the church. His flock is given to him by the Lord, not the world, not his own efforts. And the world can’t take them away. They may leave on their own, but if they are hearing the voice of Great Shepherd through their pastor, they will follow.

The test of the true shepherd is how he reacts when the wolf comes.

> But he that is an hireling, and not the shepherd, whose own the sheep are not, seeth the wolf coming, and leaveth the sheep, and fleeth: and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the sheep.
> The hireling fleeth, because he is an hireling, and careth not for the sheep. John 10:12-13 (KJV)

The hireling flees while the true shepherd remains faithful.

What else does the bible have to say about hirelings?

> And if thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poor, and be sold unto thee; thou shalt not compel him to serve as a bondservant:
> But as an hired servant, and as a sojourner, he shall be with thee, and* shall serve thee unto the year of > jubilee:

> And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall return unto his own family, and unto the possession of his fathers shall he return. Leviticus 25:39-41

This tells us that a hired servant shall serve until the year of jubilee, and then he shall depart. In other words the hireling will depart during the year of jubilee.

> And I will give you pastors according to mine heart, which shall feed you with knowledge and understanding. Jer 3:15 (KJV)

Now jubilee is a time of great rejoicing and celebrating. It speaks of End Time Revival and Harvest. But as we read in the passage from John above, The Hireling only flees when he sees the Wolf coming.

In other words The Hireling doesn't flee till he sees the Wolf coming.!

Now put two and two together and you will see that in the jubilee {Revival] you can expect a visit from the wolf [Judgment].

This idea of joy in the midst of judgment is expressed in many various ways in scripture. For instance.

> But many of the priests and Levites and chief of the fathers, who were ancient men, that had seen the first house, when the foundation of this house was laid before their eyes, wept with a loud voice; and many shouted aloud for joy:
> So that the people could not discern the noise of the shout of joy from the noise of the weeping of the people: for the people shouted with a loud shout, and the noise was heard afar off. Ezra 3:12-13 (KJV)

And

> He that goeth forth and weepeth, bearing precious seed, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him. Ps 126:6 (KJV)

This last verse is a picture of the true and faithful pastor.

Word of Promise, Spirit of God, Hope of Man
John Piper

Romans 15:7-13

Therefore welcome one another as Christ has welcomed you, for the glory of God. 8 For I tell you that Christ became a servant to the circumcised to show God's truthfulness, in order to confirm the promises given to the patriarchs, 9 and in order that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy. As it is written, "Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name." 10 And again it is said, "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people." 11 And again, "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples extol him." 12 And again Isaiah says, "The root of Jesse will come, even he who arises to rule the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles hope." 13 May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

The question I posed last time from Romans 15:9-13 was how the awakening and strengthening of hope happens. I argued that the main point of verses 9-13 was indeed to produce overflowing hope in the church, and that this hope was based on Jesus Christ, the root of Jesse, the ruler of the nations (v. 12), and that this Christ-based hope is for the glory of God (5:2), a new heavens and a new earth (8:20-21), and new bodies (8:23) with no pain and no sin. Then I asked: How does it work? How does God, through the apostle Paul, bring about abounding hope? That is today's question.

Seasons of Suffering and Relief

As I prepared this message on Friday I took time out to pray through the pastoral email I got about some of the suffering in our church. A mom of six dealing with chemotherapy for breast cancer, another mom having abdominal surgery this Wednesday and in the hospital over Christmas, a couple trying to adopt two children from Russia and needing thousands of dollars, a woman recovering from radiation therapy at home, a young wife with unexplained fever for weeks, a woman recovering from painful inner ear surgery, a family whose son may have surgery in January for seizure activity (in fact, we have two families like that), and a 92 year old saint who is hospitalized with pneumonia. And of course there are the hundreds of others who have more or less pain that just happen not to be on the list this time.

What made this more immediately relevant for me as I prepared this message on hope was that I was sick a couple days this week. And as I lay there shivering under the covers for only 12 hours I was thinking how this message would work for someone in that condition or any of these conditions—especially if it lasted for weeks or months or years—and if it turned out that this was the terminal illness and that the doctors said: We don't think there is anything we can do. I tried to be utterly realistic. How would hope feel in this sickness, and how would it rise in my heart?

A couple things were clear: There were hours when I could not read—all I could do was close my eyes, hold still and try not to throw up. I hate to throw up. Therefore, reading the Bible at that moment was not going to happen. Neither my mind nor my body in those hours were able to read or think anything extended. But there were thoughts. They would come and they would go, and they made a difference in how I felt emotionally and spiritually, not physically. Physically, I was nauseated, feverish and miserable. But the thoughts that Christ died for me, and that my sins are forgiven, and this misery was not the wrath of God, and that Christ has all authority over sickness and Satan, and that he has promised to work everything together for my good, and to die is gain—those thoughts preserved my hope. They did not make me feel good physically. But they were like an anchor to keep my boat from being swept out into the sea of despair while I was seasick on board. I knew I would not perish in the abyss. And that made a great difference.

The reason I mention this is so that when I show you how God causes hope to abound you will not think me—or him—naïve. I am going to make a great deal out of the word of God as the ground of hope, knowing that often, when we need hope most, we have the least ability to read the Bible. For most of us God gives us seasons of relief and seasons of suffering. The seasons of relief are the times when you should use all the means God has given to prepare you for the seasons of suffering. Those hope-giving thoughts were in my head because during the seasons of relief I have savored the preciousness of God's promises. I hope you will do the same.

So please know that what we are about to see in this message is God's method to give you hope in the seasons of suffering if you will embrace the method in seasons of relief.

How God Produces Hope: Six Steps

There are six steps in this passage of Scripture that describe the way God produces hope in our lives.

1. The first and most fundamental is God himself identified as the God of hope.

Verse 13: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope." Everything starts with God. If there is hope for joy that is deep and eternal it will be hope that is founded on God. Any other foundation will fail. God is, and God is a God of hope. This we must believe. Hebrews 11:6 says, "Whoever would draw near to God must believe that he exists and that he rewards those who seek him." That is, we must believe God exists, and that he exists as a God of hope. That's the first and most fundamental step toward hope. God.

2. Second, the God of hope speaks words of promise.

There are four of them in verses 9-12. After Paul says in verse 9a that Christ became a servant so that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy, he says in the middle of verse 9, "As it is written . . ." Then he quotes Psalm 18:49 (=LXX 17:50) in verse 9b: "Therefore I will praise you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name." Then he quotes Deuteronomy 32:43 (LXX) in verse 10: "Rejoice, O Gentiles, with his people." Then he quotes Psalm 117:1 in verse 11: "Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles, and let all the peoples extol him." And finally he quotes Isaiah 11:10 in verse 12: "The root of Jesse will come, even he who arises to rule the Gentiles; in him will the Gentiles hope."

What's remarkable about these four Bible quotes is that only the last one is an explicit promise. Verse 12: The root of Jesse will come. He does arise to rule the Gentiles. In him will the Gentiles hope. The middle two quotes in verses 10 and 11 are commands or exhortations to the Gentiles: "Rejoice with God's people . . . Praise the Lord . . . Extol him." And the first one in verse 9b is a testimony of a Jewish king standing in the midst of Gentiles, "I will praise you among the Gentiles." But Paul quotes all four of these divine words to give hope. Evidently, once Paul knows the big picture of what God's going to do in history—namely fold the Gentiles into the covenant people—he sees hope for the Gentiles wherever God witnesses to them or woos them.

But the most important thing to see here is that Paul is quoting Scripture. When he is on his way to pray for the abounding hope of the church he precedes that prayer with God's word of promise. Don't miss that. It is going to prove absolutely essential when we get to step four.

So step one: the God of hope. Step two: God's word of promise.

3. The third step is the Spirit of power—the Holy Spirit, God's Spirit.

Verse 13: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope." Hope that is based on Christ and has the glory of God for its hoped-for treasure is not the product of the unaided human will. If you hope in Christ today and not in money and health and friends and joy and government, that hope is the work of the Holy Spirit. You did not create it.

By nature our will is at enmity with God. We are born depraved. And the essence of our depravity is self-exalting, self-reliant self-determination. Therefore, if the glory of God is going to become our highest hoped-for treasure, and if we are going to hope on the basis of Christ's righteousness and not ours, we must be born again by the power of the Holy Spirit.

Romans 8:6-7 says (literally), "The mind of the flesh is death, but the mind of the Spirit is life and peace. For the mind of the flesh is hostile to God." In other words, the way we are by nature—by mere flesh—is hostile to God. Only the Spirit of God can change that. Or Paul says it another way in 1 Corinthians 2:14, "The natural person does not accept the things of the Spirit of God, for they are folly to him, and he is not able to understand them because they are spiritually discerned." Or he says it another way in Ephesians 2:5, "We were dead in our trespasses."

Therefore the third step in awakening hope is the Holy Spirit—the Spirit of power. First, the God of hope. Second, the word of promise. Third, the Spirit of power. These first three steps are all objective realities different from ourselves. They are not our experience: God, Word, and Spirit exist whether we do our not. They do not depend on us. We depend on them. They are not shaped by us. We are shaped by them. Now come three more steps and all three of these are experiential steps inside of us.

4. Step four: Faith.

I put it that simply because that is how simply Paul says it in verse 13: "May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope." The God of hope works joy and peace leading to abounding hope as we are believing. Here's the key question: How does the power of the Holy Spirit connect us to the word of promise so that it produces joy and peace and abounding hope? Answer: the Holy Spirit does it by creating faith.

Picture it this way. Before we are converted there is our spiritually dead heart. Then by God's grace, in some way, our spiritually dead heart is presented with the word of promise—the gospel of Christ. What happens? Maybe nothing. But if the Holy Spirit comes and gives new birth—new life, new spiritual perception—to our heart, suddenly we see Christ in the word of promise for who he really is. And when our born again heart sees Christ for who he really is faith receives him, embraces him, closes with him, links with him, unites with him. And this link, or union, with Christ in the word of promise is the conduit—the channel, the connection—through which the joy-giving, peace-giving, hope-giving power of the promises flows to us.

So you can see the crucial connection between step two and four: The word of promise and faith. Saving, hope-giving faith is never a vague positive attitude in the Bible. It is very focused trust in God's blood-bought words of promise. It is what happens when you read verse 12 and the Holy Spirit awakens a sense of the truth and beauty and reality and value of what God says: "The root of Jesse will come (Yes! Praise God my King has come!), even he who arises to rule the Gentiles (Yes! My King rules over all the nations!); in him will the Gentiles hope (Yes! I will hope in him. He is my Savior, and my Lord and my God!).” That is the work of the Holy Spirit as he awakens faith in the word of promise.

5. Step five we have already mentioned, namely, the awakening in our hearts of joy and peace.

Verse 13: “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing.” Joy and peace flow from the word of promise through the connection of faith by the power of the Spirit into the soul of the believer. Which leads finally to the surprise step six.

6. Step six is abounding in hope.

Verse 13: “May the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.” The reason I say this is a surprise is that surely hope is what prompted the joy and peace. Surely when we saw the word of promise what it awakened in us, coming from the God of hope, is hope. And hope gave rise to joy and peace. But now Paul ends by saying that joy and peace result in hope. God fills you with joy and peace in believing “so that . . . you may abound in hope.”

The point is surely this: the fullness of hope never reaches a limit in this life. It can always grow and always abound more and more. And Paul is pointing out that one of the ways it grows is by feeding off its own fruit. Hope in the promises of God produces the fruit of joy and peace. But joy and peace in the promises of God are glorious evidences that we are born again, and every evidence that we are born again stirs up more hope (see Romans 5:3-5), and more hope wakens more joy and peace, and so the graces of God continue to “abound” more and more.

O Bethlehem, in this advent season, give yourself to the word of promise. Pray to the God of hope that he will pour out his Holy Spirit and enable you to see the truth and beauty and preciousness of Christ there, and be filled with joy and peace so that by the power of the Holy Spirit you may abound in hope.

Wounded Or Corrected?

There are times when you bare your soul before men that you receive backlash. Accusation, misunderstanding and judgment leaves you feeling naked and shot. Worse yet, in your wounded state, it leaves you feeling like a bad person. This erodes and seeps down into your soul to further your decay of failure into self rejection. Precious One, listen to ME. This is not My good gift.

Yes, I feed tenderhearted correction into your life as you need it. Yes, I use circumstances to form you into My image. And, yes, I bring everything into your life and turn it for good. But do not think that I AM judging you, stripping you naked and shooting you over your failures. I AM not rejecting you, dear one, and neither do I ever point a finger to condemn you. I weep with you as you mourn over your mistakes, I weep even before you know you make them.

My beloved child, would I severely discipline a child who earnestly wants to please Me and seek My way? I AM only stern to the rebellious who defiantly turn from My loving and gracious heart. I AM full of compassion over you who fall and tremble at My Word. And how it moves My heart to wild rejoicing as I see you willing to stand up and try again! How proud of you I AM, dear one, to see you keep on keeping on. Now, let My love wash and cover you. You are not naked, you are clothed in My forgiving and pure white garment of righteousness.

Christ is the end of the law so that there may be righteousness for everyone who believes.

What Goes Around Comes Around

Plant a seed and reap a harvest. Always know that My mercy covers you when you continually humble yourself and seek Me concerning your failures of flesh. If My people were to truly reap the crop of what their flesh has planted, no one would be able to endure it, let alone you.

So trust Me, dear heart. I may grant you a small portion of reaping in order to help you break free from a continual fleshly pattern that has been stuck in the rut. Sometimes this has to be a learning process through experience. You may know the right way, but until you live it, you remain blind and only fool yourself. There are times when I allow you to stay blind and walk through a painful experience, just for that climaxing moment of revelation. It is that moment when suddenly you see the way you were treated are the seeds you, yourself. have planted in your flesh. When the blinders are taken from your eyes and the moment of revelation impacts you, it is in that place of learning that you will be able to stay committed to resist your flesh and make a different decision to stay out of the rut.

Gal 6:7-10 NKJV
Do not be deceived, God is not mocked; for whatever a man sows, that he will also reap. For he who sows to his flesh will of the flesh reap corruption, but he who sows to the Spirit will of the Spirit reap everlasting life. And let us not grow weary while doing good, for in due season we shall reap if we do not lose heart. Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all, especially to those who are of the household of faith.

Teach Me To Pray
Sandy Warner

Jan 23, 2005

Oh Lord, when I give You little time,
Tell me, how can I expect Your prime?
Yet waiting to listen from afar,
Faithful as always, yes, there You are.

My life blurs before me in a hurry.
How can I pray when I am unworthy?
That is just the point that You try to say.
It's not what I deserve, it's what I pray.

You long to give me the desires of my heart.
Yet wounded from delay I'm unable to start.
I've learned to cope with a limp in my walk.
I've learned to withhold my heart from deep talk.

Teach me to pray and to become really real.
You said to believe and I'd have what I will.
So please still remind me always to ask.
As I learn to lean and take off my mask.

You said to confess to one another,
Our weakness, our need, to our brother.
The prayers of the righteous do avail much.
Teach me to receive their gracious touch.

Draw to the surface what needs to discuss.
Lance all the wounds and draw out the puss.
It hurts, this I know, to be real and raw
But that is grace, the other side of law.

Oh to be free to tell it like it is!
This is not a test, this is not a quiz.
It's just simple sharing what I need most,
And then You dispatch Your glorious host.

Either from my requests or from my brother.
You hear it all as we tell one another.
Thank You, dear Lord, as You teach me to pray.
As I lean and unveil my heart this day.

James 5:16 TLB
Admit your faults to one another and pray for each other so that you may be healed. The earnest prayer of a righteous man has great power and wonderful results.

Worsted Weight
Priscilla Van Sutphin

Sept 7th, 2005
Main Entry: 4worst Function: transitive verb : to get the better of : DEFEAT

Heb 12:1-6 NKJV The Race of Faith
Therefore we also, since we are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which so easily ensnares us, and let us run with endurance the race that is set before us, 2 looking unto Jesus, the author and finisher of our faith, who for the joy that was set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.

3 The Discipline of God (Prov 3:11,12)
For consider Him who endured such hostility from sinners against Himself, lest you become weary and discouraged in your souls. 4 You have not yet resisted to bloodshed, striving against sin. 5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks to you as to sons: "My son, do not despise the chastening of the LORD, Nor be discouraged when you are rebuked by Him;
6 For whom the LORD loves He chastens, and scourges every son whom He receives."

" I AM the Alpha and Omega, the Beginning and the End. I am the One Whose name is above all names. I AM the KING of KINGS and the Lord of LORDS. Am I now not able to chasten My own ? Am I not the KING of the UNIVERSE ? Am I a weakling and permissive God ? Do you not see that My judgments are My love that is greatly provoked and jealous for My creation to know that there is but ONE GOD in the universe ? Have I not said that when My judgments are in the earth, the people will learn righteousness ? Those who are stubborn & hardened will not learn anything. They are unteachable idolaters. But those who do not have reprobate hearts will learn to lean on ME."

Isa 26:9 NKJV With my soul I have desired You in the night, Yes, by my spirit within me I will seek You early; For when Your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world will learn righteousness.

Ps 119:20-21 NKJV My soul breaks with longing for Your judgments at all times. 21 You rebuke the proud — the cursed, Who stray from Your commandments.

Ps 10:5-7 NKJV His ways are always prospering; Your judgments are far above, out of his sight; As for all his enemies, he sneers at them. 6 He has said in his heart, "I shall not be moved; I shall never be in adversity."
7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and oppression; Under his tongue is trouble and iniquity.

"The winds have been loosed, and the earth groans. Judgments will bring righteousness and healing and yet many will still scoff and fight with their Maker ! Mockery grows strong and the antichrist spirit pervades the lands, but I have said, that the knowledge of the Lord will cover the earth, like the water covers the seas. STAND in the midst of battle My people. For I AM a JUST JUDGE. I stand at the door and knock ! I AM the DOOR OF SALVATION to all Who come to Me. As it is with the world it is with prophet and priest, pastor and teacher ! Some think that the prophets speak much ado about nothing. But I tell you the truth: Every knee will bow or be broken. Fall on the ROCK or it will fall on you."

Rom 9:33 AMP As it is written, Behold I am laying in Zion a Stone that will make men stumble, a Rock that will make them fall; but he who believes in Him [who adheres to, trusts in, and relies on Him] shall not be put to shame nor be disappointed in his expectations. [Isa 28:16.]

" As I remove the worsted weight of this nation I will pour out MY weight in GLORY upon those who are My bride. I will exchange ashes for beauty. I will pour out LOVE that casts down all fear. I will break off the chains of bondage and religion and a new church will emerge from the ash-heap of society where people will know that they are their brother's keeper. They will know that LOVE is the greatest. They will have learned the TRUTH of what is important is people, not things. Idolatry will flee, and all wickedness will be purged from the earth in the coming days. I have a controversy with the nations. I will not relent until I fulfill My goal in making My bride spotless and pure of heart.

You think you know what methods I will have used. But when judgment comes, then comes righteousness. Have I not been convicting My own and bringing cleansing to all who will press in for it ? It is only in MY PRESENCE that you will find what you need. It will not come in the abundance of things.
It will not come with power, and position and titles. It will not come with WORLDLY ways of “success”. Real success comes to those who become smaller in their own eyes. To go higher in My kingdom, you must bow lower and become more humble for to the humble it is granted to be lifted up.”

James 4:10 NKJV Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and He will lift you up.

Mark 4:18-19 TLB "The thorny ground represents the hearts of people who listen to the Good News and receive it, 19 but all too quickly the attractions of this world and the delights of wealth, and the search for success and lure of nice things come in and crowd out God's message from their hearts, so that no crop is produced.

John 3:28-30 TLB The crowds will naturally go to the main attraction — the bride will go where the bridegroom is! A bridegroom's friends rejoice with him. I am the Bridegroom's friend, and I am filled with joy at his success. 30 He must become greater and greater, and I must become less and less.

2 Cor 3:4-5 TLB We dare to say these good things about ourselves only because of our great trust in God through Christ, that he will help us to be true to what we say, 5 and not because we think we can do anything of lasting value by ourselves. Our only power and success comes from God.

“The earth is about to cough up salvation. Are you ready for harvest ? Because it will come like a flood when I bring this final blow to bring down the pride of America: it’s arrogance and hatred towards Me. Complacency will be removed. Greater problems however will ensue. You must be strong in the power of MY MIGHT – NOT YOUR OWN MIGHT ! DEPEND ON ME for advice and opinions. I AM WISDOM. I AM LOVE. I KNOW all things.
I AM the Creator of heaven and earth and nothing is hidden from My view.
I love mankind but I will not continue to allow him to destroy each other without consequence. The highest form of witchcraft is to disdain human life. Know that MY GLORY is coming and you will be transformed, even as My glory sanctified the first temple. It will sanctify the temple of those who are My church. Pray for your shepherds.”

Luke 4:32 AMP And they were amazed at His teaching, for His word was with authority and ability and weight and power.

2 Cor 4:17 AMP For our light, momentary affliction (this slight distress of the passing hour) is ever more and more abundantly preparing and producing and achieving for us an everlasting weight of glory [beyond all measure, excessively surpassing all comparisons and all calculations, a vast and transcendent glory and blessedness never to cease!],

Rev 16:21 NKJV And great hail from heaven fell upon men, each hailstone about the weight of a talent. Men blasphemed God because of the plague of the hail, since that plague was exceedingly great.

Wind Of The Spirit

Kathie Walters

Urgent Call to Parents and Church Leaders

When I was recently in Australia, I was awakened up by a wind in my hotel room. I sat up in bed, and I immediately saw this same wind come upon many children all over the world. I saw them laying in bed, just as I was, and then this same wind woke them up. They were immediately wide awake.

These children heard the voice of the Lord and began to prophesy and see visions of things that were to come. I saw adults look their way, but not take them seriously. The adults continued with what they were doing. Many revivals have started with children.
Over the last 35 years, we have seen many thousands of children with a powerful anointing, prophesying, praying for the sick, and many miracles happening. So in a sense, what I saw was not new, but the wind that came began to touch children and youth who were not so familiar with the anointing and power of God.

I have seen judgments released, as children have prophesied. You do know that God's judgments lead to life? I have been with children who have prophesied about the closing of a church. They prophesied that the church had rejected a move of God, which they had actually prayed for. They prophesied that the pastor was about to leave his wife and family, and that the church would close in three weeks. They prophesied that someone would take the money. When they were through, they asked if they could "go and play now." Let me tell you, within three weeks, it (had) all happened.

The religious spirits doesn't like to hear these things. "Oh, let the children play; they can get serious about God when they are older." I wish the devil would see it that way. Well he doesn't; he is after your children before they are born. The enemy has an abortion program in place, and if that doesn't work, he will use demonic activity through toys, games, TV, and movies. Don't get me wrong, I am not advocating paranoia, but we as parents have to be watchful. God doesn't see age.

As my husband David says, "Children do not have a baby or junior Holy Spirit; they have the same sized Holy Spirit as you or anyone else." God is not interested in age. There is no age, time, or distance in the Spirit realm.
Someone got upset recently because my husband mentioned "hell" in a children's meeting. "Don't tell them about things like that; it will give them nightmares," they said. Well you know what? God has given children visions of Heaven and visions of hell. It dramatically changes their lives. If you had a vision of hell, it would make you a lot more concerned about the unsaved. Often in the meetings, when the kids have seen such things, an anointing comes strong, and there is strong intercession for the souls of the lost.

So now is the time to prepare them. Children and youth, prepare your church, the parents in your church, and the children's pastors. When the children are anointed (and you are supposed to bring them into the anointing), it's no use giving them a few coloring books.
How many more times do they need to hear about Daniel in the lion's den? Daniel is a great inspirational story, but they also need to be equipped in the power of the Spirit. Make sure they have their own experience of the power and presence of God; get them filled with the Holy Spirit. Teach them about the gifts of the Spirit. Teach them how to pray in the Holy Spirit -- with power and anointing.

A child's dream saves a village. A man we knew, years ago, had a great prophetic ministry. He lived in the US, but in his dad's village, in Europe, a young boy had a dream. In the dream, God told him to tell the Christians in the village to move out of Romania, as there was severe persecution coming. The church elders listened to the young boy, and they left, somehow managing to get to England. Well you know the story of Romania under communist rule; very severe persecution came, and many Christians were imprisoned and killed.
I have thought sometimes, "Suppose those elders had not listened. Suppose they were like many church leaders who want to keep the kids in the playroom and give them little stories and coloring books and think they were not spiritually relevant because they were children." But what did Jesus say?

"I thank You, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, You have hidden these things from the wise and the prudent and have revealed them unto babes." (Matthew11:25).
"Let the little children come to Me and forbid them not, for of such is the kingdom of Heaven. Assuredly I say to you, whosoever shall not receive the Kingdom of God as a little child, he shall not enter therein." (Mark 10:14-15)

Children Need to be Equipped and Anointed

The enemy's army is being trained. When my husband David first began to bring children into the anointing, he had a vision. He saw in this vision, young Muslim boys 8-years-old and up, being trained with weapons, grenades, guns, explosives, etc. Then, he saw western church children -- especially American children and teens -- hanging out, being entertained with videos, games, pizza parties, etc. The Lord spoke to him and said, "The enemy is training his army, and My church is entertaining her children."
These children he saw in the vision are today's terrorists. As most of you know, David has spent over 15 years endeavoring to give a vision to churches about God's destiny on the Children.

Children need their own encounter with God. Children need to be Equipped in the Anointing. Children need to be filled with the Holy Spirit and move in the Gifts of the Spirit. Children need to be taught to be powerful and strong in the Spirit.

These children are God's arrows, which we are to sharpen. The Bible says that the arrows are to be fired into the city gates. The city gates represent the places of authority, for it was where the elders sat.

"As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are children of the youth. Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them; they shall not be ashamed, but they shall speak with the enemies in the gate" (Psalm 127: 4,5)

God's answer has always been a baby. When the Children of Israel were in bondage, under Pharaoh, God did not send a mighty army to deliver them, but He sent a mighty deliverer in a little basket -- Moses -- who led them out of captivity. When Israel was captive under Rome, God didn't send a mighty army, but He sent a mighty babe in a manger -- Jesus!

Jesus was anointed and appointed to bring deliverance to the captives. We must learn to see as God sees. When Pharaoh's daughter saw Moses, she saw a cute little baby. But when God saw Moses in the little basket, He saw Genesis, Exodus, Deuteronomy, and Leviticus. God has a big vision.

When Adam sinned, God didn't go back to the drawing board and build a bigger and better Adam, did He? He brought forth a baby -- Jesus. That's why the devil tried to destroy Him, through Herod's "slaughter of the innocents."

Well Mom, Dad, Children's Pastors, and Senior Pastor, what do you see when you look at the kids in your church? Do you see sweet, bothersome little kids, who can't do much? Do you see a cute little kid who needs to be put in another room, with a coloring book and a cookie, so they don't disturb anyone? Or do you see what God sees?

God has a replacement program. God's answer to that ungodly TV anchor women is one of His arrows, one of His replacements. That ungodly Congressman will be replaced by one of God's arrows that is being sharpened in the Spirit, even now. God always has a replacement program, if only we can see it.

Children do not have a junior Holy Spirit. They have the same Holy Spirit as in anyone else. Sure they can't do much in the natural, but under the anointing, they are just as powerful as anyone else. They can prophesy the word of the Lord, they can lay hands on the sick, and they can cast out devils. Oh yes, we have seen children cast devils out of people. We have witnessed kids being caught up into Heaven many times, powerful intercession happening through them, and many miracles.

Move over, Church, God wants His church back; and that includes the children. Some of the most powerful intercession meetings I have ever been in (and I have been in some pretty wild ones) have been with children and youth.

My own young daughter saw in a vision, the downing of an American plane in the Gulf war. She saw the pilot parachute out; she saw him in the desert, looking for somewhere to hide from the enemy troops nearby. She was praying in the spirit for him the whole time. She saw an American plane coming, looking for him. As she prayed, she saw the plane locate his beeper and pick him up. This pilot's testimony was in Readers Digest 2 years later. God is placing kids in the ranks of His army, some of them on the front lines.

God told me He is placing the young people -- those who are trained and sharpened -- in the ranks of His army. I saw some of them being placed in the front row. God has used my daughters in intercession and in visions to save the life of someone. God doesn't think the children are too young to be used. The devil doesn't either. The devil doesn't say, "Oh, they are so cute; I won't bother them now. I will wait until they are older."
No! He is after them before they are born. The enemy has a good program going called abortion. If that doesn't work, he will try and overtake them with occult cartoons and ungodly teachers.

I am not saying there is not time for coloring or playing; of course, there is. But I am saying, that can't be all. They need to be equipped in the power of God and walk in their spiritual inheritance. Their inheritance is not religion but the supernatural realm of the spirit.

So, let me ask you, what are you believing for in the children? I always believed that God was very interested in my children. I believed that He wanted to make Himself known to them, so I released my faith and believed it.
When my oldest daughter Faith was four years old, two angels came and took her into Heaven for several hours. She saw and heard things that there was no way she could know in the natural. She came back speaking in tongues and prophesying and seeing visions. Jesus baptized her in the Spirit in Heaven.
My youngest daughter Lisa had supernatural experiences of her own, when she was very young. It has never been a question of only her "Mom and Dad's" God. God spoke to our kids and showed them the realm of Heaven. We taught them it was normal.

Miracles and the laying on of sticky fingers, is how my spirit is stirred up today. Don't be blind to the purposes of God and ignore one of the most powerful weapons God has made available to your church. Through the laying on of sticky fingers, as David calls it, you will see more miracles happen in your church, than ever before.
As you let the kids be equipped in the anointing, the prophetic word will reach a new level. We want to help you train your mighty young (and older) warriors and bring them into the anointing. Maybe you will host a conference for youth in the area. We need people who will catch the vision and step out in faith to facilitate what God is doing, right now. It is God's time for this!

Word Of The Lord 2005

Miles Ford

http://www.carpenterstouch.org/index.html

And the hand of the Lord shall do mighty things as I walk through the land in this season. For the work is great and that which I will establish, I will quickly establish. For I have sent forth angels even sent from my presence that all my counsel and my purpose may be set in place.

And I shall develop and I shall build and I shall train my army and I shall set forth men and women, both, that shall not look to the left nor the right, but they shall be focused on the task at hand.

For my work and the work of the kingdom which must be accomplished shall be accomplished. I will let all men know and see that the very hand of the Lord is moving in this season.

That which the enemy has robbed, that which the enemy has stolen I shall restore in this month of January says the Lord. For I will not leave my sons or my daughters without a witness.

Their light shall shine forth in this day and there shall be a mighty cleansing and my compassion shall go forth in the land and many shall turn to me and I will work a work of the heart says the Lord. I shall change the hearts of men. And they shall turn towards me by the multitudes says the Lord.

For I am raising up even out of the camp of the Lord, those that will march forward and do battle in my name. And they shall not be ashamed says God. But I will establish their goings and I will go before them and I will make the crooked places straight for them and I shall make rough places smooth and the high places shall be brought low and the valleys shall be exalted in this season says the Lord.

Look up, look up my sons, look up my daughters. For I will do great things and I come quickly and you shall see many signs and wonders, for I come quickly.

I shall bring my people into a new place. Even a place, that they have not been before and they shall worship me from that place. For as I have spoken so shall I bring it to pass and the Words from my mouth shall not be hindered.

I will place in the hand of my key ones even the plan which comes from heaven. And I shall release strategies, in this month and plans that will cause there to be a great shaking and a great awakening amongst my people.

So I say my sons and my daughters. Go forth, conquer, build, develop, work. There shall be many that shall come forth in this month of January, to be released.

I say unto my children release them and move forward. For all I have planned for you and all that I have ordained for you, eyes have not discovered.

I will reveal my secrets unto my servants the prophets. And I will raise up a prophetic voice and I will raise up a prophetic flow, even a prophetic move that shall not be hindered and can not be stopped.

And I will bless and pour out blessings and I will change the raiment, and those who have come out shall move into position and they shall go in to possess the land that I have ordained.

And so I say unto you, look up, look up, for the life that I release in this month of January comes from above. Look up for the life which I impart is imparted from your God.

In this month I shall erase your debt and many shall have their debt paid, for I will provide abundance and I will provide an overflow and as you shall seek me I shall prosper you says the Spirit of God and I will reveal to you secrets even the secrets to my wealth says the Lord.

And there shall arise challenges from the west and out of the west shall come clamor and out of the west shall come a boisterous voice against the children of God but I shall cause it to be silenced and I shall galvanize my people even in that region and they shall stand united and they shall stand as one says the Spirit of God.

For as the stream begins to flow and is dried by the heat of the sun so shall I dry up the flow of all of those that shall stand against my people. And I walk in their midst to establish them in that hour and my hand will reach forth, and I will rearrange political leadership and I will change even the complexion of cities in that region says the Lord.

For I have set forth my hand and I will visit that land even the land of New Mexico, California and Nevada in the days ahead says the Lord. And I will cause there to be a stirring and a moving upon my people like they have not seen and there shall be a buzz concerning the things of God. There shall be an excitement as they prepare themselves for the harvest that I will release.

And so yes there will be challenges coming from the west but I say unto you, hold fast, stand your ground for the harvest of the Lord shall come quickly and shall be sure.

For in this month I shall release a new anointing upon many and crowns shall be released over them. There shall be a set of parameters that I will establish with my people and the voice of my leaders and those that I have raised up shall cry forth and one shall cry in one place and in another place another shall cry and his words shall be exactly as the words cried by the one.

War Of The Worlds
Ron Wood

www.touchedbygrace.org

Thoughts have origins. They come from a spiritual realm, either the human spirit, or the Holy Spirit (or God's angels), or from unholy spirits (demons) who hate God and want to destroy mankind which is made in God's image. Thoughts may come as arrows fired from a distance. If we are not fortified with God's Word and faith in Jesus our Savior, poisoned thoughts may become lodged in our mind and make us thing wrongly about ourselves, about God, or about our purpose.

Unsaved people have no shield of faith or bedrock of true knowledge to protect their minds. Church-going people have the Bible, unless they have weakened the Scriptures with man's traditions.

Wrong thinking produces chronic doubt, which is ingrained unbelief. Evil spirits especially like to pervert holy truth and gut the gospel of its sacred anointing. We are in a war for how we are to think or to live. That's why Jesus came: to destroy the devil's works, starting with saving us from our sins; to deliver people from the devil's grip on their minds or their emotions or their families, and to invoke the power of his kingdom to transform nations.

What manner of enemy would thwart such a holy cause? What methods might he use?

Like birds of a feather flocking together, demons congregate. They are attracted toward authority; they gather for greed; they linger around lust; they covet control. Wherever the carcass is, there the vultures are. Whenever civil or spiritual authority becomes corrupted by carnally-minded men, flesh-eaters find a feast. Flying in to feed, they unpack their bags, invite their friends, and set up house for a very long stay.

Arriving at church, Jesus found foul spirits infesting the flock. "And Jesus entered the temple area and drove out those who were buying and selling in the temple…" (Mt. 21:12). He turned the tables on the merchants of mercy. He knocked over the seats of those who had enthroned themselves as arbiters of Moses' wisdom (vs. 12). He scolded them all saying, "My house shall be called a house of prayer!" (vs. 13)

In anger, Jesus displayed genuine emotion against usurpers whose presence defiled worship and kept his kingdom from coming in power. Their behavior mocked the holy nature of a generous Father. Like a surgeon removing a tumor, Jesus delivered the temple by removing the diseased parts. The cure wasn't just to drive them out (Greek, ekballo, as in "expel unclean spirits"), but to replace the stale air that smelled of death with a fresh breeze of spontaneous praise. Even the children danced for joy!

After canceling their franchise to merchandise salvation, Jesus reasserted the rights of grace over law, sonship over structure, holy presence over empty performance, by doing something that had never before been done in the temple: he healed people. "And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them." (vs.14) God's kingdom had come in power to the temple.

Of course, never to be outdone, the senior pastors and theology professors were properly indignant about this departure from orthodoxy, this deviation from tradition. By claiming offense at the children's boisterous praise, they cleverly disguised their jealousy that this unknown outsider, this non-ordained, non-clergy, non-minister, (a carpenter, of all things) this itinerant street preacher, had done something they couldn't do: he healed people. Moreover, he did it on their church property. Who authorized this outburst?

What was he thinking? They didn't know him. He didn't get their permission. Nor did he allow them to bask in the glory. I mean, surely he knew that religion wasn't about results, didn't he? It was about the effort, not the effect. It was about form, not substance. It was about the temple's dignity, the crowds of people, the appearance of religious decorum, the sacred traditions, not about seeing the reality of God's power displayed, wasn't it?

It was like their religious world was invaded by someone raised in the marketplace where real results counted, not someone trained in seminary where eloquent sermons counted. The scribes and Pharisees thought good intentions were enough; not quantifiable, measurable, demonstrable testimonies of grace that could stand up under scrutiny.

This was upsetting to their status quo. Their place of honor was being threatened! Their share in the temple offerings was being threatened! Their lifestyle was being threatened! This was not good! Surely, God would justify their anger at such disorderly conduct.

Since the time of Augustine, the orthodox church of modern history right up until today has turned away from thinking that prayer has a purpose, that is, to affect change and deliver people. Now, we assume prayer is merely a pious discipline. It sounds right to say, "Prayer doesn't change God, it changes us." That's true, but it isn't all the truth. "The primary purpose of prayer as illustrated throughout Scripture is precisely to change the way things are. Crucial matters, including much of God's own activity, are contingent upon our prayer." (God at War, Gregory Boyd, Intervarsity Press, 1997, page 204)

When Jesus entered the temple, a war between worlds erupted. Jesus displayed spiritual assertiveness. He went in to take back what the enemy had stolen. He didn't fit the religious mold of his day but rubbed religious fur the wrong way. Prophets do that. It is a dynamic of the tension that always exists between what is and what should be, between order and liberty, between Word and Spirit.

This was the clash of spiritual realities where invisible agents of an evil domain were exposed and expelled. These spirits had become quite comfortable in a religious setting where men's extra-biblical rules had become common substitutes for faith in God and obedience to the Lord's revealed word. People had quit obeying Father's voice and had started obeying the dictates of men. These evil entities had insinuated their thoughts, their motives into good people, putting blinders on the leaders and leading the flock into confusion. That is, until Jesus walked in the door.

To this day, lying spirits are deceiving misguided people into thinking that bad things come from the providential hand of a distant God, while if anything good happens— like something beyond human explanation, a miracle or an answer to prayer— it must be occult or more likely, a coincidence. The devil has made us afraid of God or caused us to doubt his mercy, all the while robbing us of our birthright; the power of his holy kingdom displayed on earth to praying people who love his name.

Watcher Over Men

Kathleen Pirl

Because you are precious in my sight I jealousy guard over you!
I will not give you to just anyone for I have set you apart for my purposes!

WATCHER OVER MEN
Watch Me do this!

The leadership I am about to overthrow.
They have until Yom Kippur to repent.
The Houses of Saul if they do not repent I will shut them down.
I will throw them away like a bloody foreskin.
If they repent I will humble them.
I will cause them to have the great privilege of serving those that have served them for thereby will I work my salvation into their hearts.
I am about to change the order of my house.

Watch Me do this!

I am the Watchman!
I place those in their positions of watchmen.
I place them in their watches.
I remove them from their watch.
I remove them as watchmen.
I AM the Watcher Over Man!
I can raise up one and humble another!
There is no one like me!

Watch Me do this!

Wonder Of Wonders
Ephraim Frank

Dec. 16 2005

Again we want to thank all those who have been praying for Rimona, our two soldiers, and myself while I was away. A couple of weeks ago, I mentioned that a door was open to go into Great Britain to share in the life of our Redeemer, and to preach the message of the “Gospel of the Kingdom” from the Torah and the Prophets. I was greatly blessed to meet those who gathered in homes, and were engaged in intercession for the land and for the restoration of all Israel. YHVH poured out His Spirit and thus there were ears to hear and hearts to understand the mysteries of His Kingdom, His redemptive plan for Israel and the creation. I am very grateful for His grace, as He moved before me to prepare the way. I am also thankful to those who hosted me so graciously in their homes.

Everything went so smoothly and purposefully, that I was in awe at the answers to prayers. Just to cite one of those examples: When Stafford, a dear brother and true intercessor with whom I had initially stayed, looked at my train schedule for the journey down to my next destination, he said that it would take a miracle if I were to get there as planned. I had four trains to catch, with the arrivals and departures being within ten minutes of one another. Stafford added that he and the others with him would be in prayer, and wonder of wonders, all of the transportation ran on schedule and I arrived safely and amazingly on time.

At one point Rimona called and said that YHVH had started answering a prayer that has been on our hearts for a long time (years), but which recently has occupied a few of us with a greater intensity. As a result, we have been feeling that the Father was authorizing us to establish a center in Jerusalem. But even so, we still did not have a solid and clear word as to His precise intent regarding this place, until at one of the last meetings He gave us the following scriptures: "The Spirit of the YHVH is upon Me, because YHVH has anointed Me to preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to those who are bound; to proclaim the acceptable year of YHVH, and the day of vengeance of our Elohim; to comfort all who mourn, to console those who mourn in Zion, to give them beauty for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of YHVH, that He may be glorified" (Isaiah 61:1-3). In light of this word, we realized that it was more than a center solely for Ephraimites, but for preparing for the reunification of both houses of Israel (Ephraim and Judah). Others, who had also been seeking Him, confirmed that scripture too. At the same time we also realized that this was the portion that Yeshua read in the synagogue in Nazareth, after He was filled with the Spirit of Holiness and was tested by Satan (ref. Luke 4: 1-20). We reasoned that since He indwells us, He would be using us, the redeemed remnant, to do that which He had been anointed for.

While I was away, some from this little group went to look for a place, and as it turned out, did not have to look long. Upon examining the very first house that was on the real-estate list, they immediately knew that it was “it”. By the way, the number of the house is 12 and the street name is also prophetic. In addition, when approaching the house one sees a large sticker on the garage door which reads: “Moked Tehila”, and even though this is the name of a security company, its literal meaning is “focus of praise”. Interestingly, during prayer time, just before signing the contract, the scripture, “You shall call your walls Salvation” came up. The next day, when checking that scripture for its full context, this is what Rimona read: “You shall call your walls Salvation, and your GATES – PRAISE” (Isaiah 60:18). On Tuesday, after unpacking my suitcase, we drove up to Jerusalem to meet one of our friends at the house. We walked through the gate and on the sidewalk there was a large yellow cardboard sign (advertisement) that someone threw over the fence. It read: “No Compromise Please”!

Interestingly, the Swiss fellowship, which helped us take care of most of the initial rental expenses, is called “Stand Up”. This is what Yeshua did that Shabbat in the synagogue, when He read from Isaiah (Luke 4: 16). It is also what the dry bones of Ezekiel do when breathed upon by YHVH:
“Prophesy to the breath, prophesy, son of man, and say to the breath, 'Thus says YHVH Elohim: "Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe on these slain, that they may live.” So I prophesied as He commanded me, and breath came into them, and they lived, and stood upon their feet, an exceedingly great army” (Ezekiel 37:9-10).

We are all very thankful to our Heavenly Abba for His “wonder of wonders,” and we look forward to what He will do next.

Shabbat Shalom
Ephraim

Why Prophetic People Get Different Words

Kathie Walters

Why Do Prophetic People Get Different Kinds Of Words -- All At The Same Time?"

This is a letter I wrote to a friend because a lot of people were asking me why I and some other internet ministries were not giving "judgment" words -- so here is an explanation that may help people understand why every prophet or prophetic-type ministry does not say exactly the same thing. This is a letter I wrote to a good friend who didn't understand why God didn't tell me exactly what He told her -- I hope it helps YOU.

UNITY BRINGS POWER

When I was writing this letter last night (Jan. 6, 2005), I got little pieces of diamond specks on my left hand. When I asked Bob Jones about it today, he said it had to do with writing. I have had this diamond thing before, several times, when I had been praying under a strong anointing, but have never had it on my hands.

We must understand one another to have unity. In my room last night, a very huge angel came and stood at the foot of my bed (he was dressed like a Roman soldier); he reached out and touched my right foot. I asked a prophet friend of mine what this was all about.

The answer I received was, "He is inviting you to join his battle and he is reaching for the righteousness and justice within you."

It's time to reach out in faith and take the kingdom. Jesus said, " . . . the violent take it (the kingdom) by force" so the warrior within must arise now -- it's time to have an understanding and maturity in the realm of the Spirit. Via a copy of this letter, here's my offering to all the friends of the prophetic.

"THE BODY OF CHRIST HAS MANY PARTS"

Dear Joan (not her real name),

Thanks for your note! I appreciate your heart so much. I appreciate getting your words and revelations and I believe they are from God.

The Body of Christ has many parts, but let me explain further. God has put many parts in the Body and we don't all have the same ministry and impartation. The Body of Christ would look very weird if it did, wouldn't it?

Let's say we all had a burden for evangelism and everything we saw had to do with evangelism -- the Body would have a great three foot arm and the other arm would be shriveled up! If the Body had 97 eyes all over the Body, it would look very weird. If the Body had 62 ears that would look very weird, too.

You are an "ear" (and an awesome ear), and you are called to listen in certain areas and to let people like me know, because I have so much outside contact around the world with the Body of Christ.

You can only do what God has called you to do; we only have anointing for that which God has called us to. You can't operate in my anointing, and I can't operate in yours, but you need me and I need you -

- that's what the Body of Christ is all about. All the different members working together and edifying itself (the Body) in love.

MY FUNCTION IN THE BODY

The Lord has called me to bring liberty and to break off religious Spirits who are interfering with the revelation of God's love and grace. The Body of Christ has very little revelation of the grace of God, and that in itself is keeping people in bondage and control and religious mindsets, robbing them of that intimate relationship with Christ. How can you have a very intimate relationship with Jesus if you are not sure of His love and grace?

Still, people feel they have to "qualify" to be accepted by God and to be used by God. That's what He's called me to do and impart -- break bondage and show His love and grace.

Often, before judgments come to a place, there is revival and an outpouring of the glory of God. That's to keep God's people secure in Him.

God's Glory sometimes falls before persecution. Did you ever read the book about the revival in Cambodia? It was about an awesome outpouring of the Spirit in a land where fierce persecution came shortly afterwards. People had such an encounter with the glory of God, that they had an incredible manifestation of God's power and glory in the midst of the persecution and death.

Whatever our callings are, we aren't supposed to lose our joy in God. I was delivered, years ago, from several religious spirits. One of them was a spirit of false responsibility. This spirit makes you feel responsible for things and people you can do nothing about. It put me under a heaviness that wasn't from God and I lost all my joy. False Burdens is also a spirit, and it does the same thing, only heavier. It makes God's people sour and heavy.

OUR RESPONSIBILITY

Regarding intercession, my responsibility when I pray is to stay in the anointing and yield to the Holy Spirit. He knows what to pray and when. So, when I yield to Him, He takes over. I might weep, I might speak in tongues, I might do some declaring; I might do some warfare, I might laugh (God looks at His enemies and laughs). One thing I know, the power of God shows up and things happen and peoples' lives are changed forever, when I obey Him.

But, I can't make people do anything; it's not my responsibility to try. He is the one who changes hearts. Our responsibility is to offer what we have, that's all. You and I can't change anyone's heart -- only God can do that.

Do you know that Jesus only ever did three things? He did what the Father told Him to do, He went where the Father told Him to go, and said what the Father told Him to say -- and that's ALL HE EVER DID. He was not need-oriented, and He didn't run around Jerusalem trying to meet everyone's needs. He ministered to the Father and, as a by-product, many needs were met.

Jesus stayed in the power of the Holy Spirit, but the power of God did the work -- and it was released by His staying in the anointing. The devil doesn't care how many prayer meetings and Bible studies we go to, as long as they keep us busy and as long we don't get into the anointing. It's only the anointing that breaks the yoke.

The devil's kingdom is not affected by our religious information, nor is God's kingdom affected by our good religious information. The devil's kingdom and God's kingdom are affected by the ANOINTING OPERATING IN OUR LIVES; and the anointing comes when it's not us, BUT HIM, when we rest and yield to the Spirit, and get out of striving and trying.

YOU AND ME . . . WE AREN'T GOD

The famous Welsh revival of 1904, when the glory and power of God fell on Wales, was an incredible and marvelous event of history -- but it only really lasted nine months. Why? Because the young man, Evan Roberts, who was so powerfully used to bring that glory of God into Wales, got into a spirit of false responsibility, and when people didn't respond how he thought they should, then he would close the meetings or scold people or just leave.

But, you see, He wasn't God and the people's response was not his responsibility. He couldn't change anyone's heart, nor make anyone do anything. THAT IS UP TO GOD. When we try and take the place of God, everything gets out of whack.

We are to be led by the Spirit -- not by anything outside. You can't manufacture the anointing.

WHAT THE LORD TOLD ME . . . AND DIDN'T TELL ME

A strange thing happened to me on September 11, three years ago. The night before, I had had a powerful meeting in Philadelphia and the power of God was flowing and people were getting delivered.

The next day, this terrible thing happened and I was stuck in a hotel room in Philadelphia. I was sitting on the bed, watching in horror, the news on the TV. All that devastation! I started praying, and then, all of a sudden, my back felt like it had been crushed. The Lord spoke to me, "Leave it alone."

I was a bit stunned, but I shut up praying. After a while, because of what I saw with my eyes, I started praying again. I felt the same crushing sensation on my back (like I had in Wales, when the Lord showed me about Evan Roberts). The Lord said to me, again, "Leave it alone."

Well, I don't understand that wholly. I'm not God and I can't do everything; if I try, I'll end up with a nervous breakdown, so I have to be Spirit led, even if I don't fully understand -- at least my mind doesn't.

WHAT SOME OTHERS WERE EXPERIENCING AND HEARING THE SAME DAY . . .

That same day, September 11th, a Pastor friend of mine in Atlanta told me his wife, awake at 5 a.m., was walking around the bedroom with her hair in curlers, saying, "Get up, we have to pray. Something terrible is going to happen."

He told her to go back to bed, but she kept on, saying, "Get up, something terrible is going to happen."

Another lady had her little grandchild staying with her -- she was three years old. The child came to her room and shook her about 6 a. m.: "Nana, it's a bad day today."

"No," the grandma said, "It's going to be a great day! We are going out."

"No, Nana, its very bad day. A very bad day today."

Some other friends were in an airplane on an early flight, about 7:30 a.m. For no reason that they knew, they both started weeping.

Well, God certainly had the Spirit moving on people all over the world. Why didn't He give something to me? I don't know -- I'm not God, I can't tell Him what to do. He gives me lots of other things -- words, visions, etc. He allows me to bring His glory. He has called me to set His people free, so they can be truly Spirit-led and not oppressed by religious spirits, whose desire is to take them OUT OF THE ANOINTING.

You have to do what God tells YOU to do.

I wanted to send money to the victims of the flooded areas, but when I got up, I started weeping for Kenya and God told me to send money there. So, as my good friend, John Scotland, says, "What can you do?"

GOD'S PERFECT PLAN

If we are all Spirit-led, and we all do what God is calling us to do, the BODY WILL WORK AS IT SHOULD AND ALL THE NEEDS WILL BE MET, and it will be HIM. You aren't called to do what I do, but if you were in some of my meetings, you would sure appreciate the manifest Presence of Jesus. I appreciate the words and revelations that you have, and I take them to heart. In fact, you sent me a confirmation about being in the right place. We had been seeking the Lord on that issue.

Love to see you - I can only be what He called ME to be and do what He called ME to do. Remember, the angel came to my house and gave me honey and, for three hours, I was lifted up in the Spirit realm over Ireland, Wales, and Scotland and saw the call of God come back to Wales. Jesus said He was going to pour honey (revelation) on the Body.

Blessings! Our God is an awesome God, is He not?

Your very appreciative and loving friend,

Which Path Will You Choose

Beverly Juelsgaard-Fischer

7/10/05
For even in the days ahead there will be great light and great darkness – yet there will also be that place of compromise, that place where man travels much to keep those around him happy or satisfied.

But those who walk in My truth and righteousness will refuse to walk there. They will see the mist and shadows that cover the evil. They will know and recognize evil for what it is. For they already know that there is no room for even a small amount of evil in My kingdom. For they know and have seen a small amount of evil grow into something much larger.

For they will have walked in darkness, they will have known and been delivered so that they too can reach into darkness to pull others out. For they even now see darkness around them and in the eyes of man. Yet they know and are learning discernment more clearly day by day. For they have asked for wisdom. They have asked to see through My eyes, and they have asked for understanding and great grace.

For they have stood before judgment many times, and it is not their heart to judge man; rather to free man so that man might walk in greater truth and righteousness. For they know what it is like to have been captured by evil, for they have been freed from it by My grace and mercy.

The path is wide before many now; yet I say to you, there are two paths. Choose the narrow path, for My Name's sake. Choose the narrow path that you might walk with Me, that you might talk with Me, that you might commune with Me. Did I say it would be easy? No, rather to choose My way is more difficult. For once you have chosen My way or the narrow way, the enemy will seek to have you compromise in some way to divert you off the narrow path, so that suddenly you look down and see that it has widened, that it has changed. Seek Me then, that you will know what needs to be changed, what needs to be altered, so that you might again traverse the narrow path.

Choosing Me and My ways will not be easy. But it will be the best thing you ever do for yourself.

So which path will you choose?

Seek Me

Beverly Juelsgaard-Fischer

July 16, 2005

This day again I speak to you of the future: of mountains falling and seas roaring, of rivers overflowing. For without this coming forth on the land, My people will perish. For it will take these things to cause them to realize that they need Me. For you are a proud people and, even though there is gratefulness in your hearts, there is not heartfelt thanksgiving to Your Father. For I have given you everything, yet many want more, more, MORE. Do you not know I will supply your needs and, yes, I will even give you more than that? For I take care of what is Mine. Yet, I say, many have become greedy and gluttonous. For where is it in My Word that one should keep everything, and not share? For have I not given to man freely? Yet freely, too, I will take it away.

Man has become needy. “I want, I want, I want” is heard in My courts. Yet My heart is oftentimes not in the “I wants”. My heart has been abandoned or set aside that man would be able to keep up with their friends and family, so that, instead of what a man may need, or what your Father wants, it becomes your perception of what you want. When will you put your wants aside and ask Me what I want for you? When will you take your time to spend with Me, to seek My heart for your life? When will you stop what you are doing to spend time with Me, Your Heavenly Father?

For I want you to spend time with ME. I want you to know Me as you never have before. I do not want to cause destruction and disaster to come against you. Yet, for many of you, that is the only thing that causes you to come running to Me, to seek Me for My grace and mercy. Why do so many persist in being hard-headed and hard-hearted?

WAKE UP, AMERICA! WAKE UP, PEOPLE OF THE EARTH! For time grows short. Come to Me, Your Heavenly Father. Seek Me for everything, for there is nothing too small that I would not take great delight in counseling you. For I see and know everything, even before it happens. Though you may not be prepared, I have already made a way. I have prepared and I am waiting for you. I am waiting for you to seek Me and to know Me for who I am.

Will you do this for Me? Will you begin to seek Me daily? Will you begin to spend time with Me, that I might share My heart with you? Will you quit putting Me on the shelf, so that you can do what you think is “more” important? Am I not important to you?

Know this: The enemy does not have an open hunting season on you. Much of what happens is the consequence of you own actions, or you are reaping what you have sown. There have also been times that I have allowed him to interfere in your life, for did I not allow him to interfere with Job’s life, who was righteous before Me? There is so much you do not know. There is so much I want to teach you and reveal to you. Yet, how can I, when you continue to put your things / thoughts ahead of Me / Mine?

I call again to this nation and to all nations. You must begin to seek Me as you never have before. For I AM the way, the truth, and light to all who come to Me. Come to Me, that My light might begin to shine in you more clearly. Come to Me, that I can teach you and prepare you for the days ahead. For much is coming forth in the days ahead. Should you not have a relationship with Me that is deep and true, you will run and hide. I am the “cure” for all that ails man. I am the one who is in control, for I AM GOD.

We Shall All Be Changed In A Moment

Vincent Xavier

We Shall All Be Changed In A Moment, In The Twinkling Of An Eye

12-16-05

The Lord has been speaking to my heart lately concerning the “MOMENT.” He has made it clear that we do not have tomorrow. All we have is right now, this very moment. The purpose of God for His people is for them to have joy and gladness in their hearts so that they may be Glad and Rejoice fearing nothing. This joy and gladness cannot be put off until tomorrow when the promotion comes, the newborn babe comes, the mate comes, the money comes, the car comes or the health, but must be received right now. The purpose of the enemy is to push each one outside of the moment. Consider each moment to be a bubble. As long as you are within that bubble everything is like the Garden of Eden, like a land flowing with milk and honey. Once you are moved outside of that bubble everything becomes like a land with thorns and thistles, filled with curses, pain and brokenness. As long as you are within the bubble you are prepared for the great moment that we have all waited for which is the CHANGE IN A MOMENT. If the enemy can push us outside of each moment and get us into fear, doubt, anxiety and the like he has succeeded in keeping us from experiencing what God has intended. Every second that is spent outside the moment is an opportunity to miss it. Seconds, minutes, hours, days, weeks, months, years, decades, centuries and millenniums are all spaces of time in the earth realm, but the MOMENT is eternal, never ending. We are called to live in the realm of the moment wherein the presence and power of God is. If we live in the realm of earthly time we will be subject to delays, disappointments and distractions. We will always be looking to some future time when everything will be just right. The truth is tomorrow never comes. Also, everything you have ever desired is contained within the moment you have right now and if you will walk into it you will find the peace and joy and contentment you have always longed for. We find moments within moments, or bubbles within bubbles. We all remember the soap toy where you would blow bubbles into the air; the trick was to get a bubble into a bubble. This is the same principle in the realm of the moment. There are moments within the moment, much like there are levels of glory; FROM GLORY TO GLORY. Within each moment there is an open door to another experience with God. As we REMAIN within the MOMENT we no longer look for things to come or events because within each moment are events and things that God desires to give or reveal to us. The ultimate effect of living within the moment is that IN A MOMENT, WE SHALL BE CHANGED! So let us, each one be sure to LIVE within each moment that we have, for there is no promise of tomorrow, even as our Lord has declared; Take therefore no thought for the morrow: for the morrow shall take thought for the things of itself. Sufficient unto the day [is] the evil thereof.

The Scripture declares that there will be TIME NO MORE! This truth can be received as we learn to walk in the moment NOW! What is the moment? The Greek definition for Moment in 1Corinthinas 15 is ATOMOS. It means; CANNOT BE CUT IN TWO. INDIVISIBLE. UNDIVIDED. A moment is a whole that fills up all time and space and gathers in all things both which are in heaven and upon the earth. It is said that “That in the dispensation of the fulness of times he might gather together in one all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; [even] in him: The phrase FULNESS OF TIMES means;

a) a fixed and definite time, the time when things are brought to crisis, the decisive epoch waited for
b) opportune or seasonable time
c) the right time

The right time is right now! The opportune time is right now! The fullness of times is that moment which is available right now to whosoever will. Another way of saying this is that we are called to walk in the Spirit. As we walk in the Spirit we are subject to divine activity, spiritual activity. The Spirit is a person who leads us into a realm called the spiritual realm. As we are led by the Spirit we are the sons and daughters of God. Each MOMENT in the Spirit is an opportunity for an encounter with God, yet even without an experience it is still the realm of God. The difference between walking in the Spirit and the flesh is that the walk in the flesh is filled with anxiety while walking in the Spirit, even while there seems to be no present activity, provides peace and Joy in the Holy Spirit. We are moving in the Spirit to a Moment, even though we are already walking in a moment to moment experience. We are traveling through time and space having an experience with God and will suddenly, in a moment, experience the greatest of all known experiences which is the complete transformation of our beings, the outworking of the metamorphosis that has been at work within us since the day we believed. While there is so much more to say and we could turn this short teaching into a book, I would close with this thought and exhortation to all those who are alive and remaining at this Moment; Let us all be diligent to be found of Him in PEACE! There is nothing more that a believing man or woman could do in this present moment than to rest, count it all Joy, and be glad and rejoice, for this is the will of God for all of His people. Everything that needed to be said concerning the times we are in has already been said, and now we are left to this moment wherein the grace and bounty of Almighty God is expressive and unrestrained for those who would enter in and receive it. We are, no doubt being called to ENTER INTO HIS REST at this very moment. If this moment passes with us at complete rest and peace, and we here the voice of the Spirit calling us and leading us into another moment before that great moment, then we shall be obedient to His voice and leading and do what he say’s. However, we know now that this moment is a place of peace and rest, so may each one of us receive the blessing of rest and peace at this very moment and may God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ richly bless you with His presence and fullness of joy

Merry Christmas

Where's The Double Portion?

Sep 2, 2005
I have heard much in the praises of men (prophets) and their prophetic insight concerning New Orleans. Well, everybody and their brother (and sister) has known that New Orleans was doomed sooner or later if a moderately strong hurricane came ashore. I personally do not believe that New Orleans suffered this tragedy and devastating losses due to God's judgment. Look, we are all sinners saved by grace, lest one should boast. This event is a by product of what was spoken by judgmental men and women and these words were possessed in the spirit realm by the enemy and his hordes. Likewise, the words that have NOT been spoken have allowed the enemy to lay siege to a city and oppress its people to the point of insane activities.

The power of life and death is upon the tongue of mankind...Especially God's people. I am still hearing words of "works" and words of "judgment", but I am not hearing a prophetic voice arise with a sound of faith and ABUNDANCE at the "city gates." New Orleans and the spiritual forces, both good and bad; that are over the city are activated to move upon the words of God's people. The question we must ask ourselves is: Are they words of self-righteous "We told you so?" Or, are we (as a prophetic voice declaring the Lord's heart and best for New Orleans and the rest of the Gulf coast?

The Biblical story below illustrates the Word of Lord for this hour and the posture we must take as a prophetic generation and church.

"And it happened after this that Ben-Hadad king of Syria gathered all his army, and went up and besieged Samaria. And there was a great famine in Samaria; and indeed they besieged it until a donkey's head was sold for eighty shekels of silver, and one-forth of a kab (about a half of a cup) of dove droppings for five shekels of silver." (2 Kings 6:24-25)

This is one of the most DESPERATE situations that I have ever read or heard about. Ben-Hadad was waging war on Israel and had finally pushed to the capital of Samaria. What is interesting is that some time prior to this (2 Kings 6:8-22), Ben Hadad attempted to conquer Samaria -- only to have his band of raiders blinded by the prophet Elisha. These blind men were led into Samaria and instead of being killed, they were given GRACE in the form of a meal and sent home! This is incredible -- considering these were enemy combatants! Why did Elisha direct the king to let the Syrian raiders go? I personally do not know and can only speculate. However, there IS a prophetic word for the body as we continue in this story.

First of all, we need to understand what a siege is. A siege is when nothing gets IN and nothing gets OUT. (I am sure you can see the parallel in the church) Your enemy camps outside your walls and essentially starves you to death or surrender. Nothing or nobody is allowed to get into the city and nothing or nobody is allowed to leave. You are put into a DEFENSIVE POSTURE. I would assume that this famine was much more severe than your "average" famine. The Bible says that this famine was "great." The situation concerning this great famine within the city walls was so DESPERATE that to buy a donkeys head for food would have cost you about $10,000.00! And a half a cup of bird droppings would have cost you a mere $800.00. I can only speak for myself, but I am not real found of "head cheese." Carole and I have horses here at the farm and know that there is not a lot of meat on a horse's head. As for the bird dung, I cannot even imagine! This was a DESPERATE situation; however, it gets even MORE DESPERATE!

"Then, as the king of Israel was passing by on the wall, a woman cried out to him, saying, "Help my lord, O king!" And he said, "If the Lord does not help you, where can I find help for you? From the threshing floor or from the winepress? Then the king said to her, "What is troubling you?" And she answered, "This woman said to me, 'Give your son, that we may eat him today, and we will eat my son tomorrow.' And I said to her on the next day, "Give your son that we may eat him"; but she has hidden her son."

The situation had become so DESPERATE that there was not even a morsel left on the threshing floor. The granaries were empty and the winepresses were dry. Water at this time was being cut off from the city and people were moving into areas of insanity. People were actually eating their own children for survival. I know this is hard to digest or even read, but it is in God's Word. We need to understand what the Holy Spirit is speaking to us and why Father chose to put this desperate and almost unbelievable situation in His Word. What is amazing is that this woman, even after having an entire day to reflect upon her actions, did not show remorse or repentance! I see many times in society this same mindset. People, and even believers, are willing to "DEVOUR" others for their own perceived survival. Humanity's greatest weapon in killing or devouring the hope and dreams of another are the WORDS that are spoken against them. The church and the media are crying out words of despair and starvation and the enemy of our souls is possessing these words of "faith."

"Now it happened, when the king heard the words of the woman, that he tore his clothes; and as he passed by on the wall, the people looked, and there underneath he had sackcloth on his body. Then he said, "God do so to me and more also, if the head of Elisha the son of Shaphat remains on him today!" (2 Kings 6:30-31)

We can see that the situation is becoming worse and more and more DESPERATE! We read that the prophet Elisha, the one who may have had the words and answers from God to save the city, was a marked man! The king most likely was recalling back to when he had the Syrian army within his city walls, blind and at his will to be killed. We recall that Elisha commanded they be released. This must have angered the king to the point of rage, especially after witnessing what he just heard from this woman who along with another ate her own child. Beloved, this is an incredibly desperate situation. But it gets even MORE DESPERATE!

Elisha prophetically knew that the king was on his way with an officer to take his head off! Elisha in his DESPERATION had to come up with something quick! "Then Elisha said, "Hear the word of the Lord. Thus says the Lord: 'Tomorrow about this time a seah of fine flour shall be sold for a shekel, and two seahs of barley for a shekel, at the gate of Samaria.'" (2Kings 7:1) Elijah (Elisha's spiritual father and mentor) prophesied both drought and rain. So here we are in a famine with no rain, no food, and people eating each other under a siege by a pagan nation. Elisha's prophetic gifting was still intact in that he knew the king was coming to take his head off, but where was the "double portion" of Elijah's mantle to bring rain and relief? I believe it is clear. It wasn't until Elisha became DESPERATE that he brought the true word of the Lord! It wasn't until he was desperate that God took ownership of his words. I believe like most of us, Elisha became complacent until he truly realized how desperate the situation really was. Is it today?

It is interesting that Elisha was just casually sitting with the "elders" of the church while people were desperately eating themselves (both in word and deed). Is the prophetic voice today striving for approval by speaking elementary words of self righteous judgment? When will the prophetic voice mature to speak the heart of God and proclaim the acceptable year of the Lord and lead humanity to their Redeemer and Savior? We would rather prophesy about angels doing "cartwheels" over the capital than prophesying the Lord's purpose and mandate over the capital. It is no wonder the world thinks we are a bunch of flakes and hypocrites. Where is our relevancy and application to a real and starving world that is existing with ETERNITY in the balance? Where is our priority? It is locked within our words and actions!

The story continues with the officer's rebuttal to Elisha's prophetic word: "So an officer on whose hand the king leaned answered the man of God and said, "Look, if the Lord would make windows in heaven, could this thing be?" And he said (Elisha), "In fact, you shall see it with your own eyes, but you shall not eat of it."(verse 2) This man obviously did not believe the words of the prophet and his fate would be sealed by his lack of FAITH. As I have stated in another article, your chances of seeing a prophetic word fulfilled in your life can be as much as 100% or as little as 2 in a million. Only 2 out of a million coming out of Egypt (Joshua and Caleb) would witness the prophetic word of a promised land fulfilled in their lives. Two men, regardless of the situation or what they saw in the natural, believed God and had faith that He would fulfill His promises! God has promised an abundant life to every individual in New Orleans. It is our position to prophetically PROCLAIM it and believe it by faith. The story does not end here, it gets even more DESPERATE!

"Now there were four leprous men at the entrance of the gate; and they said to one another, "Why are we sitting here until we die? If we say, 'We will enter the city,' the famine is IN the city, and we shall die there. And if we sit here, we die also. Now therefore, come , let us surrender to the army of the Syrians. If they keep us alive, we shall live; and if they kill us, we shall only die." (2 Kings 7:3-4)

What we have here are four pitifully desperate leprous men. They cannot go into the city for there is nothing or nobody there to help sustain them. Beside that, they were considered "unclean" and would have to beg in their desperate condition which was no different from those inside the city. So, here we have these pitiful men standing with their backs against the city walls with the Syrian army facing them as if they were "sitting ducks." These men were at a point of such DESPERATION in their lives that they felt they had nothing to lose and everything to GAIN! (These desperate men went right into the heart of the enemies camp!) It would be this mind-set that the Lord would use to bring to pass the words of the prophet! God would use the most DESPERATE of the DESPERATE to fulfill His purposes. God would use four desperate leprous men who were completely reliant and broken to extend His grace and kindness to a disobedient and rebellious people.

These four leprous men arose at TWILIGHT to go to the Syrian camp. As they came to the outskirts of the camp, they were surprised that no one was there. The Lord had caused the army of the Syrians to hear the noise of chariots and horses of a great army. The sound was so tremendous that the Syrian army thought that it was not only one, but two of the greatest armies of the world in that time - the Hittite and Egyptian. (see 2 Kings 7:5-8)

The Bible continues saying that the Syrians fled in haste and fear -- leaving food, clothing, and provisions at "TWILIGHT!" You see, for every step that those desperate leprous men took at twilight, their steps were as the sounds of a GREAT ARMY! It would be through these desperate and reliant men that the words of a desperate prophet and the purposes of God would be fulfilled. Sure enough, just as the prophet spoke -- the officer saw the abundance of food at the city gate, but was trampled to death by the people and would not partake of it because of his lack of faith in what God could do. (2 Kings 7:17-18)

The situation in Samaria as described in 2 Kings was a terrible time in history. Many prophetic lessons are to be gleaned from this story. Israel (and New Orleans)was warned prophetically that national disobedience would reduce the people to these terrible acts (see Leviticus 26:29 and Deuteronomy 28:53, 57). We learn from these leprous men that good news and good fortune are meant to be shared (see Proverbs 15 and 21). We witnessed tragedy unfolding and continuing to worsen as the prophet sat in a comfortable position. We see that it is through desperate and reliant men and women that the Lord delights and fulfills His purposes on the earth -- through their WORDS.

A Response To "Where's The Double Portion"
Danny Korakas

Sep 4, 2005
Dear friends,

I normally do not post responses to our articles, however, I sense the need to post a letter that I sent to a list member's response to our article, "Where's The Double Portion." Although all of the responses have been wonderful and well thought...some did not entirely agree with my position. This is wonderful in itself! It shows that God's people are becoming "Berean" in nature and seeking the Lord's Word and voice for themselves upon hearing the "words of man."

We all see through a glass dimly and prophesy in part. I believe that the prophetic ministry is vital to God's plan that we see more clearly...A more clearer image of the heart and mind of Christ. Please read below my response to what has captivated both the nation and the church. Again the purpose and prophetic declaration of "Where's The Double Portion" was a clarion for the church to check her true heart condition and her propensity for "judgment." Especially one another!

Jesus Christ is the Spirit of prophecy and prophecy should therefore reflect the heart of Christ. To prophesy judgment without a prophetic declaration of intercession beforehand...Is "flesh" at best. dk

Yes, I understand your reply and I appreciate it. I knew that this was going against the grain somewhat, but I must post what I believe that I am hearing from the Spirit of God. My first response would be "judgment" based on a biblical model. The hurricane that came ashore devastated an area over 4 states. With that said, were all 4 states being judged? Many communities suffered greater losses than New Orleans per capita...Does this make these communities more sinful, thus, the sin and judgment must have been greater?

If we are looking at the gambling boats, Mardi Gras, homosexuality, ect. as the means of what propagated what many to believe as divine judgment exercised by God; then we must ask ourselves several questions:

Did Jesus come to condemn the world or to save the world? What is His heart for humanity? It seems that the church's true personality comes out at the slightest natural disaster. We simply love JUDGING others...Even our own within the church. I believe that we need to get our hypocritical house in order before we self-righteously proclaim what can only come from the hand of God. Until I hear the "prophets" have the guts to confront the church's sins and grossly religious and irrelevant system, I simply cannot believe that Father would reveal such matters (if it were true) because we have not been faithful in addressing our own junk with a repentant heart. (In the smaller things)

As long as today's prophetic movement continues to "sell resources" that are prophetic (Words that are from the Father Himself) I account them as slanted and mixed. God has never put a price on the grace of His words. It has always been freely given and a gift lest anyone should boast. The gall to "send $15.00 to hear the rest of this prophetic word and teaching" voids the credibility of this individual and prophetic ministry in my eyes. Again, the only price that Father requires to receive His words is simple faith to believe. Real prophets need to get a real job and support themselves and their ministry. To rely on God's people is a definite conflict of interest...Prophesying to those who are paying your light bill is ridiculous at best. To summarize, I take a prophet's word with a grain of salt if supported by selling what he or she states to be "prophetic" (A genuine word from the mouth and heart of God).

Note: I love and adhere to the offering of resources to enhance our Christian walk of faith. These are necessary in the continued financial support of those called to these ministries. However, when we take and move (and many times casually) within the prophetic calling, we have come under an ordination of grace and reliance to God because we have chosen to speak the words that have already been purchased.

Secondly, most of the sin that is coming out of New Orleans is corporately based and has its ROOTS in Las Vegas and California. Why would God spare the real perpetrators of gambling and decadence and destroy the common person just trying to make a living? Was it a sin to be born and raised in New Orleans? Was the entire city's inhabitants sinful? I seriously doubt it. I believe God would have spared it from judgment if there were just 10 righteous people. It seems to me that these were the type of people that Jesus liked to hang out with and speak the good news. It was the self righteous that Jesus had a hard time with.

Yes, the prophets spoke words of impending judgment. However, there is a biblical model that we must adhere to. Hurricanes and typhoons are normal events that are happening all over the world as we speak. Are we going to proclaim judgment over the entire coasts of the earth? I believe we need to stand in the gap and intercede for the kingdom of God to manifest on Earth as it is in Heaven. The Lord spoke to the prophet Ezekiel and said, "I have not found anyone (INCLUDING EZEKIEL HIMSELF!) who would (build a wall) pray and stand in the gap for humanity. If the church and prophets were so knowledgeable about a divine judgment coming to the gulf states -- then why wasn't there a proclamation and season of intercession (the building of spiritual levies) proclaimed for its inhabitants? Again, it simply shows our true heart condition.

I look forward to your response. We appreciate your very dear friendship and love for our Lord.

Rags To Riches

But Ruth replied, "Don't urge me to leave you or to turn back from you. Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God." (Ruth 1:16)

Many times our hearts are warmed by stories that end in a "Cinderella" type way. What is so neat about this story is that it is true. It is an exciting story of hope and provision. It is a story told by God Himself to give us assurance and confidence that He will meet our needs. The story of Ruth takes place in the time of the Judges in biblical history. As I stated in another article, this was not a time in history in which we see much spiritual growth. Actually, it was quite the opposite. We see the nation of Israel backsliding as it partook of the worldy influences of its neighbors.

The first step in this wonderful story is that Ruth chose to follow Naomi and the God she served. There was something in Naomi's life that must have been attractive and inspiring to Ruth, even the midst of all the tragedy that they would have to endure. Before we go any further, I feel it is important to understand the prophetic "types" that Boaz, Naomi, and Ruth (the main characters of this story) represent. Boaz - the "kinsman redeemer", represents Christ our - Redeemer. Naomi, represents the Holy Spirit in that she led Ruth (a gentile, to her redeemer), and Ruth who represents you and I.

"Now it came to pass, in the days when the judges ruled, that there was a famine in the land. And a certain man of BETHLEHEM, Judah, went to dwell in the country of Moab, he and his wife and his two sons. The NAME of the man was Elimelech, the name of his wife was Naomi, and the names of his two sons were Mahlon and Chilion. And they went to the country of Moab and REMAINED there. (Ruth 1:1-2)

One thing interesting about the book of Ruth is the precision in listing everyone by name. There seems to be a concerted effort to mention every person in this story by personal name except one, whom we will read about later. Another, is that the name "Elimelech" means: "he who trusts in God." Bethlehem means: "House of Bread." So here we have a man who's name means to literally "Trust in God", moving from the "House of Bread" to the pagan land of Moab! Even in the midst of famine conditions (both naturally and spiritually) we can have assurance that God will meet our every need. He has PROMISED in His Word to not only teach and comfort us by His Holy Spirit, but to feed, clothe, and to provide shelter to all who TRUST in Him. (spiritual and natural provision)

Elimelech did not live up to his name and moved his family to a land that was founded on sin and rebellion. Moab as you may remember was the product of incest and deceit. After Lot and his daughters escaped Sodom, the daughters spoke amongst themselves and the firstborn said to the younger, "Our father is old, and there is no man the earth to come into us as is the custom of all the earth. Come, let us make our father drink wine, and we will lie with him and preserve the lineage of our father." (see Gen. 19) The fruit of this incestuous act of deceit would give birth to Moab, the son of the eldest daughter, and Ammon to the younger. The ancestors of these two brothers would plague the Israelites and the people of God to this very day.

The bible goes on to say that the sons of Elimelech and Naomi took for themselves Moabite women as wives. It wasn't long before Naomi's husband and two sons died within the ten years that they were living in Moab. Naomi arose with her two daughters in-law to tell them that she was going to return to Bethlehem because the Lord had visited His people by giving them bread. Naomi spoke to her daughters in-law to, "return each to your mothers house. The Lord deal kindly with you, as you have dealt with the dead and with me. The Lord grant that you may find rest, each in the house of her husband." So she kissed them and they lifted up their voices and wept. And they said to her, "Surely we will return with you to your people." But Naomi said, "Turn back, my daughters, why will you go with me? Are there still sons in my womb, that they may be your husbands? Turn back my daughters, go - for I am too old to have a husband. If I should say I have hope, If I should have a husband tonight and should also bear sons, would you wait for them till they were grown? Would you restrain yourselves from having husbands? No, my daughters; for it grieves me very much for your sakes that the hand of the lord has gone against me!" Then they lifted up their voices and wept again; and Orpah kissed her mother-in-law, but Ruth clung to her. And she (Naomi) said, "Look, your sister-in-law has gone back to her people and to her gods; return after your sister-in-law... (Ruth 1:3-17)

Ruth chose to follow Naomi. a "type" of the Holy Spirit to her God and home. Ruth was confident that the Lord, in whom she had come to trust through Naomi's witness , would take care of her future. Orpah. on the other hand, returned to the "world" around her including her "gods." Ironically, we never read or hear of Orpah again. Naomi tested the commitment of both of these young women as the Holy Spirit will with us. It is of tremendous importance to understand that God WILL test us. This validates our commitment and confirms VICTORY in our lives. It was only after Ruth was DETERMINED to FOLLOW after Naomi, that she was permitted to enter into the House of Bread. The decision of Ruth to follow after God would change her life forever as well as ours as we will see later!

"The Lord repay your work, and a full reward be given you by the Lord God of Israel, under whose wings you have come for refuge." (Ruth 2:12)

As soon as Ruth arrived in Bethlehem (House of Bread), she went out into the field of Boaz to glean for herself and Naomi among the reapers. Boaz, upon meeting Ruth in "his" field instructed Ruth not to glean from another field and to, "stay close by MY young women." Boaz assured Ruth that as long as she was in HIS field and among HIS people, that nobody would harm her. This is a wonderful picture of Father's PROVISION and PROTECTION. Ruth would respond to Boaz, "Let me find favor in your sight, my lord; for you have comforted me, and have spoken kindly to your maidservant..."

Ruth returned to Naomi with an abundance of provision and purpose! Ruth told Naomi of all the wonderful news of her day, and Naomi would respond, "Blessed be he of the Lord, who has not forsaken His kindness to the living and the dead!" And Naomi said, " This man is RELATION of ours, one of our CLOSE RELATIVES." Chapter 3 continues with Naomi telling Ruth, "Now Boaz, whose young women you were with, is he not our relative? In fact He is WINNOWING barley tonight at the THRESHING FLOOR. Therefore wash yourself and anoint yourself, put on your best garment and go down to the threshing floor..." (Ruth 3:2-3). Ruth obeyed and said, "All that you say to me I will do." The Holy Spirit in our lives is continually giving us direction to go to the threshing floor to meet our kinsman-redeemer.

The "Cinderella story" begins here, with Ruth's OBEDIENCE to follow the direction of Naomi. The bible says that Ruth obeyed without a second thought! This really is what PURPOSE and destiny is all about. We read and hear so much today about a "purpose-full life." We have books, resources, and conferences attempting to tell us what our purpose is. This generation more than any other in history is searching for its identity and purpose. Most are going through the only LIFE they will ever have, just to hang on. Nothing eternal to live or die for. The answer for purpose WILL NOT be found in a book or a conference. The formula has always been the same - They are the words of Jesus to "Follow Me." Those who choose to follow Jesus in obedience to the leading of the Holy Spirit will find destiny and purpose!

"Now it happened at midnight that the man (Boaz) was startled, and turned himself; and there, a woman was lying at his feet. And he said, "Who are you?" So she answered, "I am Ruth, your maidservant. Take your maidservant under your WING, for you are a close relative." Then he said, "Blessed are you of the Lord, my daughter! For you have shown more kindness at the end than at the beginning, in that you did not go after young men, whether poor or rich. And now my daughter, do not fear. I will do for you all that you request...Now it is true that I am a close relative; however there is a relative CLOSER than I. (Ruth 3:8-12)

This "closer relative" is the one I was talking about earlier. Out of all the names mentioned in this book along with the importance of this individual as one who might perform the duty of the "CLOSE RELATIVE"(vs.13), you would think a name would be mentioned. Prophetically, the name does not belong to a person! This "close relative" is RELIGION! In Chapter 4 the book closes with Boaz going to the city gate, "and behold, the close relative of whom Boaz had spoken came by."(4:1) This "close relative" was willing to redeem Ruth as long as there was something in it for him (religious system). But as soon as the RELATIONSHIP was offered with Ruth, a rejection quickly came. This is exactly what religion desires! It want's and desires what you can GIVE it financially, in attendance and in dead works without RELATIONSHIP. This close relative said, "I cannot redeem it for myself. (religion can never redeem) Buy it for yourself. (see Ruth 4:5-8) And this is what Jesus, our Redeemer did.

He PAID the ultimate price with His life. It was Boaz that desired Ruth stay the night at His feet. It was here at the THRESHING FLOOR that Ruth would sit at the feet of one who would redeem her without condition. Boaz covered her with his shawl and generously provided and blessed her. The question of why a wealthy man like Boaz would sleep on the threshing floor is easy to answer: It was a priority for Boaz to watch and protect His HARVESTED crop! Boaz was protecting his harvest and the labor of those who "worked in the field." Boaz stayed CLOSE to what was His, so that no THIEF of robber would steal any part of it!

"So Boaz took Ruth and she became his wife..." Ruth, a gentile (you and me) in a far and away pagan land followed Naomi (a type of the Holy Spirit) to Boaz, her kinsman-redeemer (a type of Christ) where she found purpose and destiny at his feet. As her bridegroom he imparted into her a future that would effect every preceding generation up to this day. Ruth would give birth to Obed, who was the father of Jesse, who would be the father of King David. Out of whose lineage the Christ, Messiah would be born. This should give us tremendous hope, for we now realize that this poor and widowed woman from Moab would be brought into the Messianic lineage. This is the picture of God's grace -- to take us as sinners from rags to riches!

Any of you who may be reading this, who are widowed or have been abandoned by a spouse: I have given you Ruth as an example and model of My desire for your life. I know your pain and have walked with you as I reached for your hand. All I ask is that you close your hand in mine, and allow Me to lead you into the life that I have laid out for you. There are many like Ruth who need to came back to the House of Bread. Lie at My feet and I will cover you and give you rest. I will comfort you and call you My own. I will give you hands full of purpose and provision - this is My promise.

This is a tremendous story of "rags to riches" through a woman's desire to sit at her redeemers feet. It was here that the "alabaster box" of a broken life was broken at the feet of Jesus by a broken woman. Religion has been a close relative for many, for to many years now. This close relative will demand much from you and give you little in return. This IS a close relative if you find yourself striving for spiritual approval. Religion will have you in program after program, singing in the choir and every function there is to sing in, committee after committee, teaching class after teaching class and so BUSY that you have no personal and intimate RELATIONSHIP with Jesus.

Everything is DEAD WORKS without a love relationship with Jesus. The bible says that many will come to Him in the last of days and proclaim all of their great "WORKS," only to hear, "Depart from Me. I never KNEW you." Our Redeemer is desiring an intimate relationship with you today. He desires to give us purpose and provision, just as he did Ruth. The word for you who are seeking their purpose in life is simple. "Follow Me!" No man, book, or formula can give you purpose in life - it comes from Him who designed it and He desires to lead you into it!

When the Lord Builds His House

Francis Frangipane

It is possible for Christ's church to be so properly aligned with heaven that the Spirit of the Lord actually displaces the powers of darkness over our cities. To the degree that the church is so joined to God, the Lord's Presence guards the city: crime and immorality proportionally decline; revival begins to spontaneously break out. But be forewarned, only if the Lord builds His house will He then guard our cities (Psalm 127:1).

The Corporate, Citywide Church

"And the house, while it was being built, was built of stone prepared at the quarry, and there was neither hammer nor axe nor any iron tool heard in the house while it was being built" (I Kings 6:7).

During these past years God has had His church "at the quarry," shaping the leaders, preparing their hearts to become part of the house of the Lord. Under the hammer of the Word, many pastors and lay people have had their rock-hard religious and doctrinal opinions shattered. God has been reducing their definition of Christianity to the biblical proportions of simplicity, purity and devotion to Christ (see 2 Cor 11:3). At the same time, the Lord has also laid His axe to the root system of jealousy and selfish ambition (see James 3:16).

All across the world holy men and women of God are being fitted together into a living temple for the Lord. Burning in their hearts is a new vision for a united, citywide church. Together with their congregations, these servants of God are building their churches, not upon the typical American base of self-promotion and human enterprise, but upon a substructure of corporate, citywide prayer and Christian love. With great passion and deep humility, their singular goal is to see Christ Himself formed in the church (see Gal 4:19). In so doing, they are laying the foundation for the house of the Lord. It is a testimony to Christ's wisdom and power how graciously these "living stones" accept one another and fit together. The Scriptures tell us that when Solomon built the house of the Lord, "there was neither hammer nor axe nor any iron tool heard in the house while it was being built" (I Kings 6:7).

These men and women, often of very different church backgrounds, are finding themselves kneeling in one another's buildings and praying at each other's side. Their common prayer is that the Almighty might unite them in Christ and finish the house of the Lord - that Christ Himself might heal their cities.

God will answer their prayers. The house of the Lord is beginning to emerge upon the building site of the praying, citywide church. The time of devastation and shaping, of being hammered and cut to size, is nearly over. The day of power is at hand.

The Obedience Of Christ

This is not a work born out of compromise. It would be an error to assume the goal of this moving of God was unity. No, our objective is obedience. Out of obedience to God in prayer and true desire to be Christlike, a new meaning to unity has come.

Our focus is upon Christ. Paul instructed the church to take "every thought captive to the obedience of Christ" (2 Cor 10:5). The areas of our thought-life which are not captive to Christ, are the areas where we are losing our battle against hell. But when our vision is focused upon the Lord and becoming like Him in obedience, the conclusion of what Paul spoke shall be fulfilled: "And we are ready to punish all disobedience whenever your obedience is made complete" (2 Cor 10:6).

It would be presumption to speculate on all that this verse means. We know that Paul was not referring to flesh and blood; he was not warring according to the flesh (see Eph 6:12). The implication here is that when the obedience of the church is made complete there will be an unleashing of the mightiest display of spiritual power the world has ever seen.

This revelation of power was not attained in Paul's day. The provision was there in that the prince of the world was "judged," "rendered powerless" and "disarmed" at the cross, but obviously, "all disobedience" was not punished in the first century.

Let us ask the Lord Himself: Is there something yet to come forth through the obedient church that will bring judgment upon spiritual wickedness and disobedience, which will also deliver many cities?

When The Lord Guards The City

"Unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build it; unless the Lord guards the city, the watchman keeps awake in vain" (Psalm 127:1). Before we discuss this verse, it is important to explain a particular characteristic often found in the Hebrew Scriptures. Often the Old Testament writers communicated truth by repeating two views of the same thought. We see this especially in Psalms and Proverbs. An example would be: "With the fruit of a man's mouth his stomach will be satisfied; He will be satisfied with the product of his lips" (Prov 18:20). The same concept is presented twice in two ways. Another example is, "I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old" (Psalm 78:2). Truth is conveyed utilizing a poetic rhythm that is both beautiful and functional - a way to compress two corresponding thoughts into one idiom.

In this regard, when the Psalmist admonishes, "Unless the Lord builds the house, they labor in vain who build it; unless the Lord guards the city, the watchman keeps awake in vain," he is saying the same truth in two ways. The work of the Lord is a bridge connecting these two thoughts: the house He builds will stand; the city He guards will be protected.

How can the Lord guard the city? The house of the Lord is a house of prayer; intercession brings the presence of God into the city. Let me say this another way: When the Lord builds the house, then the Lord will guard the city. The specifications of His building plans require His people to be praying, loving and investing themselves into their cities, empowered by His anointing. The house of the Lord will change our communities!

Jesus confirms this in His promise that "I will build My church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it" (Matt 16:18 KJV). He is stating that when His house is built in obedience to His Word the strongholds of evil over individuals and cities will be broken.

When there is revival in a city, what happens to the powers of darkness in the heavenly places? Where do they go? The answer is: they are displaced by the fullness of God's Spirit in the regional church! Paul tells us that it is "through the church" that the manifold wisdom of God is revealed "unto the principalities and powers in the heavenly places" (Eph 3:10). And what is happening in the spirit realm? The church is blessed with "every spiritual blessing in the heavenly places in Christ" (Eph 1:3)! The prevailing influence upon society in this case comes from heaven; the Lord guards the city!

When the church is not built according to Christ's directives but remains selfish and divided, the principalities and powers have access in a greater degree to the souls of men. In such cities, spiritual wickedness guards the city.

One does not have to be very discerning to see this is true. On your next drive from the country into a city, you will notice a distinguishable cloud of oppression as you enter the city. That invisible barrier is the range of influence of the ruling spirits which weigh on the community. The demonic power of that area is the "strong man, fully armed," who "guards his own homestead"; whose "possessions are undisturbed" (Lk 11:21).

But when the church is obedient to Christ, it will be united with other believers and unstoppable by the powers of hell. Through the church - its prayer, love and action - the Lord will guard the city.

Whatever You Bind Will Be Bound

Let me explain the interaction between the spirit world and the thoughts and actions of men. As I see it, the spirit realm can be accessed and occupied by either angels or demons, depending upon the attitude of man upon earth. Although the earth is the Lord's, He put all things under man's feet; that is, under man's responsibility.

When Satan tells Jesus that all the world and its glory "has been handed over to me" (Lk 4:6), he is speaking a half-truth. The world has indeed been given to the devil, not by God, but by man!

We have wrongly assumed that the devil has divine approval to attack our neighborhoods and cities. Satan has access to the domain of darkness, but he can only occupy those areas where mankind, through sin, has allowed him.

Thus, Jesus tells the church, "whatever you shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven" (Matt 16:19; 18:18KJV). Notice that Jesus gave the same instruction for two seeming different situations. The context of Matthew 16:18-19 deals with the devil, while the focus of Matthew 18:15 is sin. These realms are interconnected. The sinfulness of mankind, his evil thoughts, words and actions, is itself the very shelter of the devil over our cities! Since this is true, then righteousness in the church proportionally displaces the devil in the spirit realm, offering Satan no hiding place. He may tempt, but he cannot abide. Indeed, when the church truly draws near to God, the devil flees.

A New Vision

If we work together to build the house of the Lord, our strengths will be amplified rather than diminished. One of the pastors in my city has been used by God to picket abortion clinics and stores which sell pornography. Before the churches began to pray together, the most people he ever mustered for a protest was 120. However, because a larger number of churches united with him in prayer, over 4,000 people came to stand against abortion! Since that time, the local television and newspapers have been far more sympathetic to the cause of the unborn.

Where the churches are united, the benefit upon teens will be wonderful. Imagine how it would be if there were a citywide youth group where large numbers of Christian teens could meet and unite. Older teens could develop leadership skills and pastoral care over younger teenagers.

Without limiting their overseas missions, pastors are realizing the first mission field they need to support is local. Ministers in churches are beginning to build together, training individuals from their congregations to go to other churches in the city where together the entire local Christian community is being built up.

Ultimately, how will the house of the Lord differ from current Christianity? Although the Lord has visited the church with revival in the past, He will dwell in power in His house! Healing and deliverance will be commonplace; holiness and grace will fill the atmosphere. Where the house of the Lord is built, the protection of the Lord will be felt.

A Living Testimony

Our ministry is located in Cedar Rapids, Iowa. When we first started praying together with other pastors and intercessors in the city, the state of Iowa was experiencing an 11 percent increase in violent crime. During this same time, however, in Cedar Rapids violent crime decreased 17 percent. FBI files confirm that Cedar Rapids became the safest city of over 100,000 people in the United States in 1988-89. In spite of the enemy's counterattack, Cedar Rapids remains one of the safest cities in the nation. We continue to experience many wonderful and significant breakthroughs in our city.

To the degree that the Lord's house is established in our cities, lawlessness will proportionally decrease. The time is soon upon us when, unless we are building the Lord's house, our labors may actually be in vain. But the Holy Spirit's encouragement to us is unwavering: When the Lord builds the house, then the Lord will guard the city!

Lord, thank You for Your dealings in my life. Thank You for shaping my heart to fit in with other believers in my city. O God, increase Your work in this region until Your entire church is one body, one force, one weapon in Your hand against evil! Build and then enter Your house, Lord Jesus. Open the door of Your house, and step onto our streets. Guard our cities with power. In Jesus' name, amen.

Worship Teams Report For Duty

Chad Taylor

We Need Worship Teams And Prayer Warriors To Report For Duty Now!

QUOTE OF THE WEEK: "I returned, and saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to men of understanding, nor yet favour to men of skill; but time and chance happeneth to them all... - Eccl 9:11

Jan. 1st 2006 will be a landmark in America as 3 more 24/7 prayer and worship locations are birthed and come to fruition making a total of four 24/7 tents up and functioning in the Gulf Coast region marked forever by Hurricane Katrina and Rita. New Orleans, LA., Bay St. Louis, MS., Port Arthur, TX., and finally Thomasville, GA. which lastly will operate as a staging ground and preparedness for revival training and sending teams. This Sunday morning as we ministered in the host church appropriately named Hebron in Thomasville, GA. people literally jumped into the baptismal during the service! It was unprecedented as the entire congregation cried out to God for His Person and presence with vehemence and resolve. It has begun! Mark it down the lines and boundaries of revival have been marked by God and the gates of hell cannot prevail.

One Pastor in California summed it up nicely when he commented, "Chad we don't hear anything about New Orleans and the Gulf Coast anymore, as if everything is ok now, is it?" It's not, it's far from it as hundreds of thousands are still displaced and cities are completely demolished and far from recovery. Really the opportunity is more strategic now as families begin the journey home to find devastation and hopelessness; we need to fill the vacuum with praise and worship and be ready to receive them into a atmosphere charged with God's presence versus hopelessness and despair. Will you and your church or ministry team/group come and help in this massive endeavor? The plan is to circulate teams through the 4 locations of 24/7 prayer and worship starting at Thomasville, GA. when feasible and then move down through the I-10 corridor to Bay St. Louis, New Orleans and finally Port Arthur, TX. We are already scheduling teams as far in the future as March of 2006.

We have seen a very real response to the 24/7 prayer and worship opportunity but it's also alarming how many churches and Christians are simply unwilling to take 2 or 3 days from their hectic schedules and come to a historical crossroads and lift up Jesus. It only goes to prove that we are often so entangled and engaged with other things that when such a divine opportunity arises we are completely unable or unwilling to respond. We are extending a nation wide invitation to any worship team, healing team, evangelism team, counseling team, outreach team, or facet of ministry to come to the Gulf Coast. Will even make it easier than that, we can accommodate any number and house you, feed you and give you a complete platform to minister. Each tent is equipped with a sound system, PA, instruments and a steady flow of people in crisis. The question is, will you answer the call?

There is also endless opportunities to serve in the distribution area, serve hot meals, go into neighborhoods to minister and even help rebuild. You are not under qualified! If you have a heart to serve and pray then you are indispensable my friend. Don't procrastinate, maybe you have been reading these reports for months now from the front lines and have been asking yourself how you could help? Make contact with us RIGHT NOW and let's begin to plan! If you are simply unable to travel here then at least email us and we can give you creative ideas how you can help. Presently we are in great need of any kind of running operational vehicles to accommodate the teams that are overseeing these 24/7 tents and outreaches. I can stress this enough, we need vehicles for team leaders that have come as far away as Canada to serve indefinitely. If you have any kind of vehicle please, please contact us today! chadtaylor@consumingfire.com or 229-672-1008

Please visit our Operation Rescue page at Consuming Fire dedicated to continue to lift up and maintain awareness for the Gulf Coast and the ongoing revival we are experiencing.
www.consumingfire.com/operationrescue.htm
We need continued financial support to sustain this 24/7 effort. Yesterday another team left from our home town in Thomasville, GA. from Hebron church. Please don't hesitate to donate and help supply the frontlines. We need you...

List of immediate and critical needs:

1) Generators for outdoor music equipment
2) Vehicles to transport our teams
3) We need one more outdoor tent for Port Arthur, TX even if we only use
4) Any kind of musical equipment i.e., keyboard, guitars, PA, speakers, monitors etc. please NOTHING is too small contact us now
5) RV/camper/5th Wheel for Port Arthur, TX. location. We don't need to keep just use.

INTERCESSORS TAKE HOLD OF THESE NEEDS WITH US AND LETS BRING THEM INTO THE REALM OF REALITY! THERE ARE MANY UNLISTED BUT GOD KNOWS BEFORE WE EVEN MAKE REQUEST.

Watershed
Roy Resh

The ocean side of the mountains, where rain and river waters are abundant, is favored by many people. The shortsighted exploit the lowlands with little thought of tsunami threats, unprepared to survive a tidal wave. Seaward land is often divided from an inland plateau by hills or mountains. The rivers in the seaward lowlands and the upland plateaus often flow in opposite directions, creating two watersheds separated by a divide, such as in the American Rocky Mountains. The few people who opt for the more challenging life in the tsunami-safe uplands of less plenteous rainfall and smaller rivers grow in strength and persistence.

There is a spiritual principle that horrendous natural divine interventions (such as tsunamis, earthquakes, hurricanes…) are often followed by colossal spiritual developments in the heavenlies. (1 Cor 15:44-50) Before Christmas '04, world-wide there was an abundance of Holy Spirit watering of flesh-pleasing 'Churchianity.' Many people lived carelessly in the isles and on near continents In these low lands of human desire and abundant fellowship.

Water is good, people need it to survive, so many settle where it is plentiful. On the other hand, a flood of 'good' water drowns an unprepared, unwarned people. (Remember Johnstown, PA 1889?) Some tried to warn on the internet of the 2004 Indonesian tsunami, but no one was listening. Thousands of doomed people partied on the beaches.

A parallel tsunami from Heaven now spills over the earth to bless the upland remnant, but lowland 'Churchianity' failed to prepare or recognize the threat of God's judgment. Great suffering will come upon the myriad who have failed to make the strenuous climb to higher spiritual ground before the waters become too strong to leave. There is still a little time before complete judgment falls upon God's house. This message of warning is for those who haven't yet cleaved to their holy Bridegroom, to Jesus Christ, who saves us from calamity if we obey Him.

Jesus calls for uncompromising righteousness to fuel unconditional love He told us to come out of her (The Whore, Mystery Babylon, Churchianity, Institutionalization), to flee to the mountains when we see the abomination of desolation stand in the holy place. The holy place today resides in the spirits of Jesus' Bride, the holy Temple of God that is even now filling the earth with His glory. (Mat 25:15) Compromise between the Bride and the world is the abomination, the sacrilege that makes the Holy Temple desolate of God's Spirit. To come out is to leave the denominational and non-denominational institutions who all compromised with world economic powers to together become Mystery Babylon. This whore is even now riding the seven-headed, soon to be ten crowned horned beast, believing that she will never see sorrow. (Rev 17,18)

Just as sorrow came suddenly to Indonesia and the surrounding lands, so will the institutionalized be suddenly drowned by the coming outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The same spiritual tsunami will only serve to invigorate the remnant already in the uplands of life, the holy Bride of the King of Heaven and Earth. Those who are praying for revival in their low land 'Churchianity' will get what they ask for, but like when Israel demanded a King, the results of God's coming powerful anointing on their chosen leaders will destroy their denomi-nation. May your spiritual eyes and ears be open to what the Lord is doing today! Cross the divide into your inheritance in the uplands and offer a message of joy and hope.

Jeremiah's failure to find one righteous man among God's Chosen People in Jerusalem should be a solemn lesson for all of us. After searching among the poor, he went to the spiritual leaders of the day, but all had turned to self-serving lowland works. At the end of the Chapter (5) Jeremiah recognizes an appalling and horrible thing. The prophets were false, the priests ruled without God's authority, and God's people loved it this way. Jeremiah asked: What will you do in the end of this? No one listened, and Jeremiah was imprisoned. Not long after Israel ceased to be sovereign nation!

Have we imprisoned the true prophets of today? Are they not shouted down by myriad seminary trained pastors who preach 'all is well" to large congregations who love their messages? Modern 'Churchianity' errors include: {having a form of godliness 2 Tim 3:5}; {proudly denominating and employing a professional clergy who claim that they are rich spiritually and in need of nothing more Rev 2:6; 3:15]; {fleshly worship/preaching/teaching Jude 10-13}. Many more errors could be cited that have produced the carnal/demonic mixture which will soon come to sorrow.

It seemed right to me that God would choose Christmas '04 as the wastershed moment. Tradition has made Christmas a celebration of fleshly appetites rather than recognition of the world's most significant single event, the birth of Jesus Christ. Many years of warnings and gentle divine interventions into 'Churchianity' affairs have only served to strengthen the will of its advocates to build in the flesh. Yes, there have been moments of blessing for many, but overall things are about as dismal spiritually as they were 100 or even 1900 years ago [See John's messages to the churches in Rev 2 & 3].

Jesus is asking each Bride member: "What will you do now that the end has come?" Will you cling to fleshly, self-serving works, or will you cleave to Him if love and obedience? The natural tsunami is past, but the spiritual tsunami is forming. Tsunamis are preceded by earthquakes, by great dislocations in the earth. There will likewise be great spiritual dislocations in us, because we are made of earth. The earth never returns to its pre-earthquake structure. Likewise, we will be permanently changed if we come out to Jesus, or drowned when the spiritual tsunami comes if we remain among 'Churchianity'.

Where is out of her? It is in the world-encompassing fellowship of the Bride of Jesus, among the obedient ones who know no other King. Jesus won't accept anyone who expects another person to speak for them, or joins some group to get control of their flesh. Marriage to the King of Heaven will be a One-to-one relationship that honors Him in all of His glory. His betrothed on earth today should constantly practice listening to His voice and obeying His guidance in His great upland watershed. This is a personal matter that at times may include relationships with other people. Let the Lord fill the earth with knowledge of His glory through you! I pray that you will hear and obey His voice!

Warning To The Remnant

Melinda O'Dea

You’ve gone thru a severe breaking at the hands of our Lord. This breaking was necessary for ridding you of garbage that would hold you back, trip you up and exalt itself before your king. To say it’s been hard is undermining the process. It’s been a hell on earth.

Many of you have lost family, jobs, health, homes and other worldly possessions, identities. You felt as though every fiber in your being was being ripped apart, and it was. God has dug deep, way deep, untangling cords of strongholds in your life getting to the root to pull out cancers. All to prepare you for his anointing, prepare the vessel to house his glory and power.

And in this breaking you learned humility, great humility. Of course you have, you’ve been broken not only in the spiritual realm, but broken before all man. This breaking was not a private matter; you went thru it with the world watching. You were on stage during this time with all the spotlights on you as you stood completely naked. This painful experience is still fresh in your mind.

And it is with this breaking the Lord has gotten you ready for this last great outpouring of his spirit.

Joel 2: 27 Then you will know that I am in Israel, that I am the LORD your God, and that there is no other; never again will my people be shamed. 28 "And afterward,
I will pour out my Spirit on all people. Your sons and daughters will prophesy, your old men will dream dreams; your young men will see visions. 29 Even on my servants, both men and women, I will pour out my Spirit in those days.

But where you are now is a very tenuous place, a place where you can get tripped up if you drop your guard.

We tend to think in the natural mind that we have somehow ‘arrived’. Most all that needs to be changed has been changed. All that needs healing has been healed. All darkness now must run and flee screaming in terror from us because of the anointing that the Lord has given us. So we start relaxing thinking the enemy is at bay. And for a season he does back off. But do not underestimate your enemy. He is calculating and very serious about tripping you up.

1Peter 5: 8 Be self-controlled and alert. Be sober, be vigilant; because your adversary the devil walks about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour.

We need to remember though we are getting deeper into the things of God, the enemy will still try and seduce you with lies. It is pride that says you can’t be tricked or seduced by the enemy because you have so much of the Lord in you. That you completely understand your adversary and his ways. Scripture tells us the devil even tried to trip up Jesus and he’s God!

Matthew 4:1 Then Jesus was led by the Spirit into the desert to be tempted by the devil. 2After fasting forty days and forty nights, he was hungry. 3The tempter came to him and said, "If you are the Son of God, tell these stones to become bread."

Luke 4:1 Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan and was led by the Spirit in the desert, 2where for forty days he was tempted by the devil. He ate nothing during those days, and at the end of them he was hungry.

The enemy was here long before mankind, and has had a long time to study us, generation after generation. He knows our inherent weaknesses. So he sits and watches us, waiting for the time to subtly slip in.

Going deep in the Lord means you will be experiencing many things new to you. These gifting and anointing will be unlike anything seen.

Acts 2:17 And it shall come to pass in the last days, says God, That I will pour out of My Spirit on all flesh; Your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, Your young men shall see visions, Your old men shall dream dreams.

John 14:12 I tell you the truth, anyone who has faith in me will do what I have been doing. He will do even greater things than these, because I am going to the Father.

All the while the enemy will try to take the focus off of the Lord whispering to you thoughts like, “Whoa, look what you just did!” “You’re really something to receive this power, why look how humble you must be, no pride in you.” “Wow, did you see what he just showed you? That really makes you special, not everyone gets the experiences you get.”, and thoughts of this nature. Subtle seduction, Most of the time we do not recognize who‘s planting these thoughts, we assume it‘s us .

It’s what we do with these thoughts that leads down a road. Sometimes we may dismiss them, but then again there are times we entertain them, and that is when pride can creep in.

2 Corinthians 10:5 We demolish arguments and every pretension that sets itself up against the knowledge of God, and we take captive every thought to make it obedient to Christ.

There are many faucets of pride; the deception is so slick and slippery. Pride in being part of the remnant. Pride in ‘your’ gifting, power and supernatural experiences with God. Pride in making it thru the breaking. Pride in even being part of the body of Christ. Once you relax and think you have ‘arrived’ you open yourself up to that old temptation to look at ones self and exalt yourself, the gifting or experiences, not the one who supplies all.

I see in the body a rising faucet of pride. But this pride has slipped in unnoticed among many of his chosen ones.

We need to remember we are merely vessels, mere vessels that by the grace of God have been put in this place and time. Nothing we did. We are a work in progress and still susceptible to the cunning ways of the enemy. You cannot figure out the enemy’s way in your natural mind, and when you believe you can and have you’ve opened yourself up for pride and impending disaster at the hands of your adversary.

All thru scripture we are warned about our adversary and PRIDE. Do not think any of us are immune from either. Remember that God gives the anointing and he can remove it also. He will protect your soul from even yourself , for those submitted to him and his will. If the anointing will cause you to err and fall into a deception, God will deal with you to get you back in the place he wishes for you, many times removing the anointing

Daniel 5:18 "O king, the Most High God gave your father Nebuchadnezzar sovereignty and greatness and glory and splendor. 19 Because of the high position he gave him, all the peoples and nations and men of every language dreaded and feared him. Those the king wanted to put to death, he put to death; those he wanted to spare, he spared; those he wanted to promote, he promoted; and those he wanted to humble, he humbled. 20 But when his heart became arrogant and hardened with pride; he was deposed from his royal throne and stripped of his glory. 21 He was driven away from people and given the mind of an animal; he lived with the wild donkeys and ate grass like cattle; and his body was drenched with the dew of heaven, until he acknowledged that the Most High God is sovereign over the kingdoms of men and sets over them anyone he wishes.

Yes, we have been thru a great shaking, fire and breaking. But this is just the beginning. Humility is a must, don't forget the lessons you have learned. For lesson learned and forgotten will be repeated. It's is and always will be all about Jesus!

Lord Jesus Christ, we want to be a 'it's all about you Jesus' people, not 'it's all about you Jesus and what you can do for us' people.

We ask you keep us humble, and alert us to the slick sly deception of the enemy. We admit king, we are powerless without you, powerless without your knowledge and wisdom and guidance. Our little minds cannot even try and fathom you. We in ourselves have no wisdom.

We fall on our faces before you Jesus, broken and submitted and give you permission to do whatever you need to do to keep us humble before you. For our only goal is to be pleasing onto you. Guard our minds Lord, guard our hearts and guard our souls, they belong to you and you alone.

Your will be done Jesus in our lives, may we please you king.

Wake Up Arise And Possess The Kingdom

Ron McGatlin

If you are reading this, you are privileged to live in one of the most dynamic times of change upon this planet. The core of reality as has been practiced in the church is changing. In 1990 God spoke clearly to me, one of His nobodies, and said, "Church is over." I replied, "What does this mean". I quickly heard, "Church as you have known it is over". Fifteen years ago that was an astonishing word to me and did get me into a heap of trouble when I dared to share it with a few others. I do remember being preached at from at least a few pulpits.

This word was preceded several years earlier by a life changing response to another question that I had asked God in 1985. I had simply asked, after beginning again to read the gospels, "God what does this word kingdom really mean? Why did Jesus speak of it so much?" I was quickly within an open heaven as God poured revelation of His Word into my astonished soul. Many of my religious views and formulas began to dissolve as truth became reality.

My grave concern of being the only person I knew who was hearing this (though there were others unknown to me) was soothed by an assurance that He was also giving this revelation of kingdom truth to others around the world and eventually it would "come up like grass in a field". The resulting rejection by all religious organizations, friends, and family was most painful but there was no possible turning back from the revelation and call of God.

Today we are alive in a day when the gospel of the kingdom is being preached widely and the great transition of the church from the church emphasis age to the church of the kingdom emphasis age has begun. Many have seen and are moving into the experience of the reality of the manifest presence of God changing the people of God (the church) to change the world. Religious pomp and ceremony are, over time, being replaced by the reality of the joy, power and love of intimate relationship with God and with one another. The focus on "me" and "my needs" is becoming a focus on God and His desires. Our will is fading into His will. Our ways are beginning to transcend into His way.

We must fully awaken from the soul sleep of religion to the purposes of God to establish the kingdom of God as a practical reality; eventually ruling and reigning over all the earth. God has not sent angels or any other beings other than mankind to possess the kingdom of God. Only man is made in the image of God and today can be filled with the life of the Spirit of the resurrected Christ. Only man has the God-given place to rule and reign with Christ on earth.

Sons must arise from the limitations of fallacious doctrines of demons and traditions of men to the reality of Almighty God and His truth. All things are possible to him who believes. Believe false limitations and it is possible to limit the life of God in and through you. Believe the truth and it is possible to become as Christ in the world. The question is not whether you will believe or not. The question is "Whose report will you believe?"

The world is in great darkness. And sadly many people of God who are called by His name are in much darkness as well. Many leaders are stumbling in darkness even in the noon day of the light of God coming forth. Spiritual blindness will be broken as the people sitting in darkness see and begin to move toward the great light of the gospel of the kingdom manifesting in the holy humble servants of God filled with the power and love of the resurrected Christ. Christ living within them is beginning to possess that which was created for God and redeemed by Christ at the cross and now must be possessed by the life and power of the resurrected Christ living through mature sons of God.

It is not going to happen some other way. There is no plan B. Sons and daughters of the most High God fall on your face before Him. Let His manifest presence of ultimate fire burn everything from your life and refill you with only His life, His love, His ways, His power, and His wisdom - pass through the dark night of the soul of death and then ARISE IN HIS GLORY! ARISE IN HIS LIFE AS CHRIST IN THE WORLD. Speak carefully, speak only His words from His Spirit within. Speak with the authority of Christ. Destroy the works of the enemy. Instruct and bless your brothers and sisters.

Light come! Will of God be done! In the name of Jesus.

Walking Uprightly and Steadily

Betty Heimbach

Oct. 13, 2005

Jude 24; “…Him that is able to keep you from falling.”

Ro. 4:20 “Abraham staggered not at the promise of God.”

“I not only keep you from falling but from stumbling and staggering. If you yield to Me, get in the yoke with Me – connected by the yoke to Me – walking in unison with Me, keeping in step with me – I will keep you from stumbling. I will keep you from staggering.

“Don’t think you cannot do what is to be done. Don’t consider it as too hard. No! Those thoughts will overwhelm and cause staggering. Rest in the knowledge that we are yoked together. I am here to hold you up. I am here supporting you. I will carry the load. You are not alone.

“As you walk in greater maturity, as you accept more responsibility, as you accept more assignments you will be held to a higher and higher standard. It is a growth process. As you mature and experience what your faith can accomplish, as you walk yoked to Me you will learn to become more watchful, more alert to the stones in your path that could cause you to stumble. I will teach you to watch what you hear, to listen for words that could cause you to stagger. Keep your focus on Me, but keep an eye on the path for the banana peels of temptation, the potholes of discouragement, and the stones in the path of relationships. Be alert and on guard against the all the snares of the adversary.

“I will always be here - right beside you, to guide you and to carry the load. Lean into Me. Train your eyes to watch for those things that could hinder and stay yoked to Me. Watch even as you talk to Me.”

"... that the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of Him, the eyes of your understanding being enlightened, that you may know what is the hope of His calling, what are the riches of the glory of His inheritance in the saints..." Eph. 1:17-18

White Unto Harvest

Sandy Brunson

Dec 2, 2005

Across the nations of the earth, people are nearing the time Jesus prophesied about in John 4:34-38 concerning the End Time Harvest! Those who have been "listening" to the Holy Spirit over the last twenty years have known this as a sobering reality...but as current global events have heated to the point of drawing the nations of the world into the boiling controversy concerning the Middle East, few Christians can deny that the "time of the end" has drawn critically closer. There is no more time to slumber spiritually! God's people are called to the front lines of the Spirit to be AWAKE and ALERT in these perilous times! We have a job to complete, and it is a glorious one!

Jesus spoke to his disciples in John 4:34-38 saying: "My food is to do the will of Him who sent Me, and to finish His work! Do you not say, 'There are still four months and then comes the harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes and look at the fields, for they are already white for harvest! And he who reaps receives wages and gathers fruit for eternal life, that both he who sows and he who reaps may rejoice together. For in this the saying is true: 'One sows and another reaps.' I sent you to reap that for which you have not labored, others have labored, and you have entered into their labors.'"

My heart is clearly "hearing" the phrase "white unto Harvest". The scriptures from Mark 4:26-29 continue to confirm this information to listening hearts.

"And Jesus said, 'The kingdom of God is as if a man should scatter seed on the ground, and should sleep by night and rise by day, and the seed should sprout and grow, he, himself, does not know how. For the earth yields crops by itself; first the blade, then the head, after that the full grain in the head. But when the grain ripens, immediately he puts in the sickle, because the harvest has come!"

The signs of the head are evident...and the full grain is about to be revealed! When the grain ripens, we will see a "short harvest time" that will happen immediately by the Hand of the Lord.

This was confirmed to me recently through an internet article by a present day minister named Bobby Connor from Moravian Falls, NC. He wrote some insights called "Harvest Time is Short" and they were inspired by the well-known evangelist, Billy Graham. The two men were sharing a return flight from Moscow, after being together in a recent Moscow Crusade as they talked some 33,000 feet above the earth! As they spoke together about this time of global harvest, Bobby said, "I will never forget the love and compassion streaming from the voice and eyes of this great man of God as he placed his weathered hand upon my shoulder and looked so deeply into my eyes. His words shot to the very depths of my soul, saying, "Son, I was reared on a farm, and one thing I have learned about harvest time is that it is short! Never forget: Harvest time is a short time!"

Then Dr Graham quoted the words of warning concerning delay given from the lips of the Master Harvester, our Lord, in John 4:35 where He spoke of the fields as being white unto harvest! We do not have time to waste, nor is there any excuse for waiting!

The Scriptures declare, "Behold, NOW is the accepted time; behold, NOW is the day of salvation," 2 Corinthians 6:2

The reason we are still here on earth is to share the gospel. Look at what we have to tell: GOOD NEWS! Do not be deceived into thinking that people do not want to hear what we have to report. We have good news to share with them! The Holy Spirit will anoint YOU to be a real witness of Jesus and His marvelous power and grace to save!

"For whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved!" Romans 10:13 The word "whosoever" includes everyone and excludes no one! Through the cross of Christ, the door of salvation is open wide for all to come to new life in Jesus. The problem with the harvest is not in the invitation, but in the proclamation! If people are going to be saved, they must "hear" the gospel. We have been given a commission by the Lord Jesus to "Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, teaching them to observe all things, that I have commanded you!" Matthew 28:18-19.

The Apostle Paul reminds us that we should always be ready to tell others about Jesus, "Preach the word! Be ready in season and out of season! " 2 Timothy 4:2. God's heart is to see a great harvest saved! We are to give a clear message about Christ, yet with a humble and right attitude.

We must make certain the gospel we share points to Christ and to Him alone. "Nor is there salvation in any other, for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved," Acts 4:12. Christ is ready and able to save any and all who will, by faith, come to God by Him. "Therefore, He is also able to save to the uttermost those who come to God through Him, since He always lives to make intercession for them," Hebrews. 7:25. Jesus has made the way!

The harvest is not just coming...it has begun! People are NOW hungry to hear about Him though they are rightfully skeptical of those who come peddling man-made programs with puffed-up personalities. People want to hear about Christ and His power to save, heal, and restore!

We must pray for the power of the Holy Spirit to fall upon our hearts and give us compassion for the lost. "Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy. He who continually goes forth weeping, bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless come again with rejoicing, bringing his sheaves with him," Psalm 126:5. Glory, hallelujah!!!

Have you wept recently over souls? Have you poured out your soul in prayer and intercession for the lost? Will you answer the call, saying, "Lord, here am I. Send me!" Jesus declares that the harvest is ready! The harvesters are what is lacking. "Then He said to His disciples, 'The harvest truly is plentiful, but the laborers are few.' Therefore, pray the Lord of the harvest to send out laborers into His harvest," Matthew 9:37-38.

We must be about the work that God has left us here to do..., planting precious seed, witnessing to a lost world. Jesus said, "You did not choose Me, but I chose you and appointed you that you should go and bear fruit, and that your fruit should remain, that whatever you ask the Father in My name, He may give you," John 15:16. Ask for souls for Jesus!

Harvest time is short! It is urgent that we ask the Father to help us bear good fruit, the fruit of increase for His kingdom. Let it not be said concerning our generation, "The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved," Jeremiah 8:20.

We are to "be doers of this word...and not hearers only," James 1:22. The full grain is ripening in the head of the wheat. When the sickle swings...it will be an immediate move, and we will see the harvest gathered in before our very eyes! We are the generation that will not only see it...but experience it as well! This is not a new message...but it is a message whose time has come! Go forth proclaiming!

Wake Up And Shake It Off

12/11/05 -

Listen to My heart - listen not to the heart of man, for it rings falsely in your ear. But listen to My heart that I have placed within you - faithful and true; for the battle is about to heat up greatly about and around the world; for Leviathan is about to rise up greatly in the nations, that it will cause division among nations, churches and families.

Beware of those who speak with a forked tongue, as the serpent is slithering among many who know not that he even exists. For many do not acknowledge he is able to do what he does and pass it off to bad luck. But I say to you that he ever schemes to destroy those who I have chosen to draw closer to Me, so that they would be able to see more clearly and fight more precisely. For precision and marksmanship will be highly valued in the days ahead, for it will be those who work in these gifts and use them who will be successful in the fight that is ahead.

Oh, My children, do not think that the enemy ever sleeps. For know you not that, even while you sleep, he is prowling, plotting, and planning his next moves? Do not think that he rests a minute; for just as I never rest, neither does he; for though I have won the battle, he does not believe it and seeks to ever destroy you and to pull you to his side.

For though many believe they are righteous, they have surely walked into Leviathan's trap. (I saw Leviathan with his mouth open and groups of people were walking right into his mouth as if they didn't know what they were doing - some in ignorance, some in a stupor, some oblivious to what was going on around or before them. As they went further in it got darker and darker, but they didn't know it. It was as if they were full after a heavy meal, or satisfied, and they didn't know it, and they just fell to sleep in his belly, not knowing what they were doing. There were hideous forms in the darkness that I couldn't see clearly, but I could see their forms and knew they were evil and very much there in the belly of Leviathan with the ones who had just walked in and fallen asleep.)

Oh wake up, My children - see what is around you that you have embraced. Wake up, that you would know what is of Me and what is not. Wake up, that you would see what is before you, that you would not walk blindly into a trap. Wake up and shake loose the shackles of religion and legalism that have been placed on you by man and the world. WAKE UP!

Do not sit idly by while others around you sleep. Do not let the enemy catch you unaware. Be ever watchful, be ever ready to fight. Be waiting and be ready so that you would know what comes before you - even before it comes. Seek Me, seek Me, seek Me.

Do not wait for someone else to do it for you. Do not think that you cannot hear from Me, for you have heard from me before and can do it again - PRESS THROUGH - PRESS THROUGH - PRESS THROUGH; for the enemy seeks to put up roadblock after roadblock to stop/delay you so that you would get distracted or diverted from My plans and purposes for you.

I say to you FIGHT - DO NOT GIVE UP - FIGHT - for it is your very life that the enemy seeks to have and to destroy. FIGHT - DO NOT GIVE UP - FIGHT. Shake off the shackles that bind you so tightly that they restrict you from moving forward into MY glory. Shake off the grave clothes of the past that cover your eyes - that keep you in past glories, but do not let you move into My future now. SHAKE IT OFF! SHAKE IT OFF! SHAKE IT OFF!

Then praise Me with all your might. Praise Me and give Me the glory. Praise Me, and step forward into My Light, and declare to the enemy that he won't have you - that you have been chosen by Me to be My servant, and that you won't be his.

Know this - that the enemy ever seeks to destroy you. Know also there are times that you walk in your own consequences of what you have said or done, and that I allow these times so that you would learn from your mistakes. Learn that you would not have to repeat this lesson, for time grows short, and I need you to be fully armed and dangerous - not to just know enough to be dangerous, so that you walk into a trap unknowingly because you didn't take the time to finish the lesson and learn everything there is to learn from it.

Know again, My children, I want ALL of YOU - not just some, ALL, that you would walk in my glory and fulfill My destiny for you, not the enemy's.

December 15, 2005

Oh, My people, know that the time is coming for great change, for again I say the mountains will shake and fall, and the sea will roar as I show My power to the peoples of the earth. For though there are many that believe - there are many more unbelievers, many of whom are hard of heart and mindset. For they believe not and say, "Show me this God of yours. Show me His power and His might, for I believe it not." For they have walked in ignorance, pain, and great hurt from the hands of those around them, that they do not feel that there is anything that can help them. They have felt so helpless and desperate at times, not knowing what to do - they have let anger and bitterness settle deeply in their hearts. For they feel that everything and everyone is against them, and that they can only depend on themselves. Thus they have become their own savior. Woe to those who worship themselves. Woe to those, even more, who know Me, yet worship themselves. For have I not said, "Thou shall have no other gods before Me?"

I say to those who have placed themselves above Me - woe to you who seek fame and fortune. Woe to you who would step on others so that you would feel more important yourself. Woe to you who have let pride into the doors of your heart. Woe to you who judge without Me, for you have built your own monument stand under you. You have called yourself important - you have held yourself up high and said, "Look at me, look at ME." Woe to you, for you have not seen the plank in your own eye. Woe to you.

Listen to the cry of Your Father's heart. Listen and know I weep for you, even now that you have turned your back to Me; that you refuse to listen, because you already know you are right. Do not let pride speak for you. Listen to My cry.

To those who have not known Me, who have built a wall of granite and steel around themselves and have embraced the ways of the enemy through their hurt and pain, I say, "You too, will fall as the mountains fall and the sea rises up over you." For you shall see and feel My might and power - you shall know who is God as you see your empire that you have built destroyed around you, for you are hard-hearted and hard-headed.

But I say to all, even now, I have not turned My back on you. Cry out to Me, your Abba Father, for forgiveness, mercy and grace. Cry out to Me that My heart will be softened toward you, that what you have opened the door to and welcomed will not have its full consequence against you. For even though you have opened the door to it through your own deeds, I can and will hold some of it back, were you to repent of your ways, were you to ask for My grace and mercy. Do not think that you have embraced so much evil that I could never forgive you - for did I not forgive the thief on the cross beside My Son, as He was crucified for your sins?

To all I would say, let go of the ways of man and turn to My ways, that you may more fully know Me for who I AM. Turn your hearts to Me and let go of the things and people of the past who have hurt and rejected you through their own ignorance and pride. Turn to Me, that we might walk as one in the Spirit, that I may begin to reveal Myself to you even more fully, that you would let go of the things of man and walk in My ways. Let go of that which you hold so tightly, so there is nothing for pride, hurt, pain, or independence to hang on to; that you become dependent on Me and Me alone.

Come to Me as your Abba Father. Crawl up into My lap and whisper in My ear. Let Me hold you in My arms as My child - let Me comfort you. Let Me pour My strength into you. Let Me hold you while you rest - for the battle is not over yet. Let Me become your Abba Father as I have to many others. Come, let Me hold you close - that I might whisper in your ear of My love for you and My heart for you - that I would reveal what it is you need for your future, so that you could walk with Me always. Come - let Me pick you up and gather you into My arms. Come, let Me hold you as I long to hold you and love you, as only I can provide and give you all the love and everything that you will ever need. For I AM God and I AM the one who provides everything that is good for you - for I love you more than any man or woman, regardless of what you have done.

Let go of the things and people from the past, that you might come closer to Me - that the hurt, pain, bitterness, unforgiveness, pride, and independence that you hold so tightly will no longer be between us. [I saw a person holding onto all these presents in boxes, but the boxes/presents had labels. Some of them read: hurt, pain, suffering, self-indulgence, self-pity, pride, unforgiveness, bitterness, independence, etc. The boxes/presents were brightly wrapped with beautiful paper and ribbons to be disguised, so that the person didn't recognize what they were. And, thinking they had something wonderful in them, the person didn't want to give them up to anyone - because the packages looked so "good/inviting.] Beware of that which you hold on to so tightly; it may be the snake that bites you. [Truly, the person held so many packages before them, they couldn't see the Lord's arms reaching for them; so they turned away from Him, thinking they weren't going towards Him, but going someplace else. The brightly packaged boxes were void of anything from the Lord and deceived the person so that they went away from the Lord, rather than drawing closer to Him.]

I say again, let go of the past, that you can come forward into My future - into My plans and purposes for your life. LET GO.

Wake Up Church!

Julie Volby

January 28, 2005
John 5:8-9 – Jesus saith unto him, “Rise, take up thy bed, and walk.” And immediately the man was made whole, and took up his bed, and walked; and on the same day was the Sabbath.

I don’t know how it is for you, but it seems that as I walk with the Lord, the seasons change as He takes me from glory to glory and faith to faith. Within these seasons there seems to be different ‘themes’ that He highlights or brings to my attention. In most cases, these ‘themes’ seem to go along with what is manifesting in my own life. Perhaps this is His way of getting my attention or opening my eyes. I do know the power of the word of testimony, so I understand that to become the message is much more powerful than to simply be a messenger.

With that said, I have been ‘fighting’ some sort of flu bug along with another strange infirmity that has been plaguing my body off and on throughout the years. I have found that in times of suffering God is usually trying to get my attention and reveal something more of Himself. So in these times, He has trained me to look to Him for peace, comfort and understanding, rather than dwell on the infirmity, which only brings discouragement. I am learning to do as Paul said in 2 Corinthians 12:10, “Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in needs, in persecutions, in distresses, for Christ’s sake. For when I am weak, then I am strong.” However, this time, in my prolonged discomfort, I found myself crying out for healing. What I heard in response was what I have been hearing over and over in my spirit in this current season. The response was “REST”. Now of course this can be taken as an outward meaning of Him saying to rest my body physically, which is what I have been doing as well.

But as I continued to struggle with the infirmity inwardly, the Lord opened my eyes and I realized that the ‘theme’ in this moment was not only REST, but also HEALING. In recent days, many of my close friends have also been dealing with sicknesses and infirmities in their physical bodies. I have found myself praying for their healing, along with my own. Suddenly, the light bulb went on and the Lord gave me John 5 to study. I realized that it was the same Scripture my friend, Christine Beadsworth, had been given recently. From it she wrote an excellent article exhorting the church, “It’s time to get up.” I do not intend to repeat the truths Christine has already laid out, but feel the Lord desiring to add another layer or dimension of understanding to this passage for our growth together in Christ.

In John 5 we have the story of the man lying at the Pool of Bethesda. The Word tells us in verse 3 that, “there lay a great multitude of sick people, blind, lame, paralyzed, waiting for the moving of the water” near the Pool. This Pool was by the Sheep Gate and had five porches. The people that lay here were waiting for an angel or messenger to come at a certain time to stir the water, so that whoever stepped in first would be made well or receive healing.

So, we see from the beginning that this man was not alone in his desire to be healed. He laid in wait at the Pool of Bethesda. Bethesda in the Greek means “site (house) of mercy”. It is no surprise that he and the others waited at the ‘house of mercy’ to receive deliverance from that which tormented them. In theory, this man was no different than the others as he waited at the pool for some type of relief. He shared in the commonality that they were all suffering in some shape or form. However, there was one problem. Verse 4 tells us that ‘whoever stepped in first, after the stirring of the water, was made well of whatever disease he had.’ Because of this man’s infirmity or weakness, which is not fully described, this man was not able to make it into to the pool first. The Scripture does not tell us that he was lame or not able to walk. It only tells us that he had an infirmity for thirty-eight years. So, it is clear that he had been suffering for an extended period of time.

It is apparent that suffering is a part of life on earth. One does not have to look far to see death and destruction all around them. If not directly in their lives, just a flip of the TV switch will bring the evidence of the fruit of sin, which is death, right into one's living room. So, the idea of the suffering of humanity is nothing new. Therefore, I believe it is safe to say that this great multitude lying near the Pool of Mercy could represent you and I, the Church, and all of humanity for that matter. All are waiting for healing and restoration, but sadly, many are too blind to even know they are in need of it.

With that said, let's take a look at what happens next. Day in and day out the people lie in wait for the stirring of the water. The Greek word for stirred is 'tarasso'. It means to trouble, disturb, throw into confusion, to be disturbed, terrified or confused. Already in a state of suffering, it seems they are waiting for or expecting some type of confusing or terrifying disturbance to bring them to life. They had the right idea that something needed to be stirred up, but unfortunately only the 'first' made it into the pool in time to receive their blessing. Meanwhile, the rest continued to sit in agony, dying a little more each day as they lie in their state of misery. Many may have been tormented with worry, anxiety, fear and condemnation wondering what they were doing wrong that they could not seem to be the first to enter in at the appointed time to receive their healing.

One day something new and different happened. Someone named Jesus came on the scene. In John 5:6, we read that Jesus had already seen the man lying there and knew that he had been in that condition for a long time. Jesus asked him, "Do you want to made well?" Or in the KJV He asked, "Do you want to be made whole?" Notice how different Jesus' approach to healing was compared to the 'stirring of the waters' in the Pool. He didn't ask the man how he had acquired the infirmity. He did not stir up condemnation or cast blame on him for being ill, causing confusion or terror. He also did not say that the quickest, brightest, smartest, or most gifted would make it in. He simply asked if the man wanted to be made whole.

And what was the sick man's response? Instead of the resounding 'yes' that we might expect, the man proceeded to tell Jesus why he could not make it into the pool first. Some would say his answer was an excuse and that he really did not want the healing and that Jesus was testing him. I would like to take a different approach to this and say that the man must have wanted healing in some way or he wouldn't bother coming to the Pool in the first place. He said in verse 7, "Sir, I have no man to put me into the pool when the water is stirred up; but while I am coming, another steps down before me." Perhaps he somehow inherently knew that 'faith without works is dead' (James 2:17). So, he activated his faith as he tried to make it to the Pool by himself. He tried to get to the place of healing in the only way he knew how, by relying on his own physical strength to get there. However, his failed attempts eventually brought him to understand that he was not able to enter the Pool on his own. This brought him to a place of humility and surrender. The man had been doing the best he could to make it down to the Pool first, but even in his best efforts to abide by the prescribed method of healing, he sadly fell short. In his current state, he would never make it into the Pool of Bethesda first. At least not by the old, designated methods.

When all hope seemed lost, Jesus stepped onto the scene. He came not to destroy the old methods or FIRST COVENANT or law, but He came to fulfill it! The truth was that Jesus was the ONLY MAN qualified to be the FIRST to enter into the waters of mercy, because He was the living, breathing HOUSE OF MERCY, which triumphs over judgment. Matthew 5:17 summarizes this well as Jesus said, "Do not think that I came to destroy the Law or the Prophets, I did not come to destroy but to fulfill." Because love is the fulfillment of the law (see Romans 13:10) and God is love (see 1 John 4:8), it is clear that Jesus is the walking, breathing fulfillment of the law.

While others waited for the appearing of the messenger to stir up the waters or an outward sign of God's presence, this man instead had a Divine personal encounter with God Himself! The presence of God in the human vessel of Jesus stirred up this sick man's faith and he was able to see that in his current state he could not enter into the fullness of God without help. This was his appointed day of deliverance. And who better to usher him in to the Father's presence, than the Son of God Himself?

Now let's look at how the man was healed.

John 5:8-9 – 8 Jesus said to him, "Rise, take up your bed and walk." 9 And immediately the man was made well, took up his bed and walked. And that day was the Sabbath.

The Greek word for 'rise' is egeiro, which means to arise, to stand from a prone or sleeping position, to wake from sleep, to restore from a dead or damaged state; to heal, raise to life; to cause something to exist; raise up (give birth to) a child. Notice the first word Jesus spoke was "RISE" or "ARISE AND COME TO LIFE". It reminds me of God's first words in Genesis 1:3, "Then God said, 'Let there be light'; and there was light.'" God divided the light from the darkness. This is very similar to Jesus speaking life into this man's being. When Jesus spoke, "Rise", He was not only saying, "Get up from your lying down position and be healed from your physical infirmity." He was saying, "WAKE UP! COME TO LIFE! BE BORN! BE AWAKENED! RISE UP IN YOUR SPIRIT! PASS FROM DEATH INTO LIFE!" It was like a Trumpet blast from heaven saying, "NOW IS THE DAY OF SALVATION" (see 2 Corinthians 6:2) for "YOUR SOUL HAS BEEN RESTORED" (see Psalm 23:3).

Notice that in verse 9 it does not say that the man took up his bed and then was healed and walked. It says that IMMEDIATELY the man was made well or whole, THEN he took up his bed and walked. The reality is that the man was already made whole the moment Jesus spoke into him the word "RISE" or "WAKE UP" out of your spiritual slumber (death). Jesus was basically speaking RESURRECTION POWER into this man's soul. To be healed does not only mean to display an outward manifestation of wholeness in one's physical body, which is merely an earthly vessel, though that is a facet of it. To be made whole is a healing or resurrecting of one's soul from the grave of sin and death, being brought to LIFE by the Creator Himself who speaks those things that are not as though they were! The man taking up his bed and walking was simply an outward manifestation of what had ALREADY taken place WITHIN HIM by placing his faith in Jesus!!! This is the fullness of the Gospel of the Cross of Jesus Christ! We are already made whole in Him! Those who have placed their faith in Jesus Christ no longer need to wait for a messenger to come and stir the waters of the Pool, but we have the Pool of Mercy, Jesus, living in us through His Holy Spirit! If that's not good news, I don't know what is!

And what was the timing of these healing events? Was it the 'end times'? Was it in a time of war, a time of tribulation, a time of world famine? Well, yes and no. It may or may not have been an earthly time of war, tribulation or famine in the natural world. But it was certainly a time of death, destruction and decay inwardly as these people lay near the Pool in hope of deliverance and salvation. The Word tells us exactly what time the healing took place. It occurred on the Sabbath Day!!!

And what does that mean to us? Well, we know that the Sabbath prophetically represents the rest of God as spoken of in Hebrews 4. What does the rest of God entail? Without going into great detail, it can be summarized in verse 10, "For he who has entered his rest has himself also ceased from his works as God did from His." Am I saying that we should sit around waiting for something to happen and not walk by faith? NO! What I am saying is that resting in God involves deep trust in Him, knowing, understanding and believing that all the work for our redemption was already completed in Jesus Finished Work on the Cross. When Jesus said, "It is finished", He was speaking the truth because He is the Truth. Hebrews 9:13-14 explains this further, "For if the blood of bulls and goats and the ashes of a heifer, sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies for the purifying of the flesh, how much more shall be the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered Himself without spot to God, cleanse your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?"

The only thing that stands between us and walking in the fullness of the promises of God's rest is one man, the man of sin, also known as the flesh or Adamic nature we were born with out of our earthly mother's womb. It is the consciousness of dead works that must be left behind. However, because "we do not have a High Priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but was in all points tempted as we are, yet without sin" (see Hebrews 4:15), we have the hope that we too can walk in the place of victory over sin, death and the devil. Jesus, the Divine Forerunner, already demonstrated the walk of victory as He walked the earth in the form of a man. It is on the Sabbath or by entering into the rest of God that we recognize the wholeness we ALREADY HAVE IN CHRIST. This is the purpose and promise of the NEW COVENANT Jesus made in HIS OWN BLOOD.

Hebrews 8:13 says, “In that He says, ‘A new covenant,’ He has made the first obsolete. Now what is becoming obsolete and growing old is ready to vanish away.” What is vanishing away my friends in this moment of time? It is the old Adamic mindset that relies on the First Covenant or law to perform fleshly works to gain entrance into heaven. We must understand that the First Covenant was only a type or shadow of what was to come in the spiritual through the indwelling of the Holy Spirit, made possible by Jesus Finished Work on the Cross. It is the law that strengthens the flesh to act on its own behalf to cause one to believe that they have any kind of righteousness of their own (see 1 Corinthians 15:56). The good news is that we are living in the dispensation of time when the understanding, that the veil of flesh has already been removed, has become and is becoming a living reality for a generation who has heard the call to WAKE UP, RISE UP AND COME UP HIGHER. These are those willing to not only hear the Word of God, but are willing to keep it, thus taking up their beds and walking!

What is the significance of Jesus commanding the man to take up his bed and walk? The Greek word for ‘take up’ is ‘airo’, which meant to take up, take away, remove, carry, borne, loosing, to put away. This same Greek word is used in Luke 5:24, where Jesus heals a paralyzed man. Even before the manifestation of his physical healing, Jesus tells the man his sins are forgiven him, signifying that the spiritual healing that Jesus manifested was foundational and much more important than the physical or outward appearance of healing that was to follow. Surprisingly, the word for ‘take up’ can also be found in Luke 9:23-24 which says, “Then He said to them all, ‘If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow Me. For whoever desires to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for My sake will save it.’”

So, what exactly is being ‘taken up’? Is Jesus saying, “Come to life! Be awakened, so that you can carry the weight of the sins of the world and your own personal sin upon your own back to be reminded daily of what I did for you.” Is He saying, “Give up your life, your dreams, everything you hoped and wished for and carry the weight of the world upon your shoulders, just as I did, so that humanity can be set free.” Or is He yet saying, “Run away with Me from temptation, by hiding out alone, shut in from the world around you. Stay away from anything and anyone that you do not see as holy, that would cause you to fall into sin.” The answer is no, no, and no!

What He is saying is this, “Come to Me, all you who labor and are heavy laden, and I will give you rest. Take My yoke upon you and learn from Me, for I am gentle and lowly in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For My yoke is easy and My burden is light” (Matthew 11:28-30). When He says ‘take up your cross’, He does not mean for anyone to take it upon themselves to overcome sin or the flesh life on their own. What He is saying is, “Wake up to your new identity in ME! Be BORN AGAIN, not of the flesh, but of the SPIRIT! Take up your cross, which is the Cross I already bore on your behalf. Because WE ARE ONE, the victory that I WON is ours to share! You are holy because I am holy. You are found hidden in Me and My righteousness is now yours. Do not give up your hopes and dreams that I have given you. But let go of all that was birthed out of the carnal, fleshly desires of your old man (Adamic nature). Lose your carnal life and gain my ETERNAL LIFE!” If that does not describe a life of FREEDOM and WHOLENESS and HEALING, I don’t know what does!

Now that we have been AWAKENED by the trumpet blast and correctly understand our identity in Christ, so we can properly take up our cross, what else are we commanded to do? WALK! We are called to walk according to the Spirit in complete liberty, free from the condemnation of the flesh (see Roman 8:1). Continuing with the prophetic picture in John 5, the first thing the man encountered after picking up his bed and walking was an accusation. The accusation in verse 10 was, “It is the Sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your bed.” Ah, that old religious spirit comes back to haunt us. It comes as an angel of light, containing a piece of the truth, for it is indeed the Sabbath or day of rest in God, which we were given access to the day Jesus died on the Cross and the veil of the Temple was torn from the top to the bottom. However, it lacks correct understanding and we are confronted with the law that we are not to carry our beds. Hmmm…. our first test.

What was the healed man's response? He reiterated to his accusers Jesus' words after speaking life into him, to take up his bed and walk. He was simply obeying the One who had healed him. Though the man did not fully understand who Jesus was, the Word tells us that Jesus later found the healed man in the temple and told him to sin no more. This is God's same exhortation to those have entered into His rest and commune with Him in His Temple. To cease from one's own fleshly works is to sin no more. To live is Christ, having one's mind purged of sin consciousness by realizing we already have the mind of Christ (see 1 Corinthians 2:16). To die is gain, having died to the old carnal way of thinking. To live in God's eternal presence is to have a continual consciousness of His holiness and His righteousness. I am not saying this gives anyone the license to sin, but to be in His presence continually does not involve 'sin management' as my friend Doug Fortune puts it. Instead it involves experiencing the fullness of God's grace as we sit with Him on His throne of grace as joint heirs in Christ!

Because the lamp of the body is the eye (see Matthew 6:22), if all we see is God's glory before us, then this is what we will manifest within our own lives. Blind eyes made whole in Jesus see how glorious life really is because He has become their life! In John 10:10 Jesus says, "The thief does not come except to steal, and to kill and to destroy. I have come that they may have life, and that they may have it more abundantly." Jesus came to give us life! He came to give us His life in exchange for Adam's life or our flesh life. That was the purpose of the Cross! He came that we would no longer have to let the thief or the Adamic nature steal our joy and peace. We are made alive because the old man was crucified at the Cross through Jesus, that the body of sin might be done away with, that we should no longer be slaves to sin (see Roman 6:6-14). We have been offered eternal life through the indwelling Spirit of Jesus Christ.

After the man's healing, the religious continued to persecute the Son of Man and the persecution has continued throughout the history of the Church to the present time. They continue to accuse the One who fulfilled the Sabbath of breaking it, just as those who have tasted of God's fullness throughout history have been accused of blasphemy, hypocrisy and the like as these pioneers have moved outside of what is 'normal' in the religious church. These peculiar ones seemingly break all Church laws, bylaws or what have you. Surely, this cannot be of the Lord!

But I say to you that there is a generation that God has been nurturing and feeding straight from His throne that is alive and well on earth today. They have learned to come directly to His banqueting table for nourishment and fellowship. These have not passively sat in the organized church pew waiting for the stirring of the waters by the messenger. They are also not interested in the latest trends or craze in the Church or the latest stirring of the waters. Rather than sit around and wait for someone to tell them about their experience watching and waiting at the Pool, these are those who have desired to personally meet with the House of Mercy Himself. Table scraps and second hand knowledge are not enough for them anymore. They want to taste, touch, feel and know the Lord of glory for themselves! Knowing Him is their greatest pleasure and desire! To bring Him glory is their life purpose! Their heart beats with the words of Paul to the Philippians.

Philippians 4:7-11, "7 But what things were gain to me, these I have counted a loss for Christ. 8 Yet indeed I also count all things loss for the excellence of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord, for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and count them as rubbish, that I may gain Christ 9 and be found in Him, not having my own righteousness, which is from the law, but that which is through faith in Christ, the righteousness which is from God by faith; 10 that I may know Him and the power of His resurrection, and the fellowship of His sufferings, being conformed to His death, 11 if, by any means, I may attain to the resurrection from the dead."

Therefore, it is time for the Church to WAKE UP! It is time to awaken from sleep and slumber for the Bridegroom cometh. “And do this, knowing the time, that it is high time to awake out of sleep; for now our salvation is nearer than when we first believed. The night is far spent, the day is at hand. Therefore let us cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armor of light” (Romans 13:11-12). It is time to be filled with the Spirit and not drunk with the cares of the world. It is time for the Church to fully enter into the Sabbath rest of God in wisdom and understanding as a Corporate Body. When she does this, the following promises will manifest fully in her life both individually and Corporately.

Isaiah 58:13-14

13 “If you turn away your foot from the Sabbath,
From doing your pleasure on My holy day,
And call the Sabbath a delight,
The holy day of the Lord honorable,
And shall honor Him, not doing your own ways,
Nor finding your own pleasure,
Nor speaking your own words,

14 Then you shall delight yourself in the Lord;
And I will cause you to ride on the high hills of the earth,
And feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father.
The mouth of the Lord has spoken.”

WAKE UP BRIDE OF CHRIST! TAKE UP YOUR CROSS! WALK IN THE SPIRIT! GO FORTH INTO THE NEW DAY THAT HAS DAWNED! THE TIME IS NOW!

To The Church In The Hebrides And The Church At Large: "Get Prepared For The 'Wedding Supper Of The Lamb'"

Over the last few years I have had a stirring in my heart about being prepared for the "wedding supper of the Lamb," spoken of by Jesus in one parable about the end of the age.

It all started with a recurring dream about going to Scotland. I asked the Lord about a year and a half ago, if He really wanted me to go, where was He sending me, and what was the message or purpose? To my surprise, I heard a clear word that He was sending me to the Hebrides Islands and the message was "preparation for the wedding supper of the Lamb." Both of these were unfamiliar to me.

It is much too long of a story for an email post to describe the process of how I came to the understanding and timing of at least some of this message . . . but I know that this is the year He is sending me to the Hebrides and this is the time to prepare for the wedding supper of the Lamb. I gave a detailed prophetic word to our community of faith about this in March this year. The following is a summary of what I believe the Lord is saying to the church in the Hebrides, and also to the church at large.

"BRIDAL LOVE"

This is a year the Body of Christ will see an acceleration of being prepared as a bride for the Bridegroom. Many will be awakened and fall in love with Jesus in a radical way. Not only will this love cause people to come to an abandonment in following the Lord, but it will set people free from fears and the identity crisis so many have had that has kept them from loving obedience to Christ.

There is a love called "Bridal Love" that is supernatural, which God gives the church for the Son of God. It is a passionate, pursuing, radical love and devotion that nothing can stop. We have seen this kind of love and abandonment in forerunners and heroes of the faith in the past, and in some today. But I believe God is releasing this like a fire that will spread and cannot be put out in this lifetime. It will start with an awakening of the church to who she is as the Bride -- even a future queen. It will survive testing and, in the end, give way to a company of people who will follow the Lamb wherever He goes in life or death.

"WAKE UP, SLEEPING BEAUTY"

Much like the Sleeping Beauty in the childhood story, the church has been asleep and unaware of her destiny. Our immaturity and lack of identity and purpose in Christ has kept us from seeing the greatness that is upon us and how near our lover is to coming for us.

In the childhood story, the prince, her future husband and king, woos her and comes to her rescue when she falls asleep. He kisses her and she awakens, finding her true love. Get ready for a big kiss from Jesus this year. Get ready to fall head over heals in love with Him. And get ready to be united with Him in life and death in these crucial last days of both trouble and harvest. God is about to open portals of Bridal Love and glory in many places this year.

Part #2:
A Word for The Pacific NW -- Opening a Gateway in the Heavenlies Over the Columbia River Basin and the Northwest Region

Denny Cline:

"[In a vision, I was shown] There was an exchange, in the past, of grain (like corn) for guns that created an unholy alliance in the spirit realm. [This had to to do with the Native Americans in the NW Columbia River Basin]. This alliance clouded the spiritual atmosphere, and still does to this day, in the Columbia River Basin.
"The Columbia River Basin is -- I believe I was shown again by the Lord -- a gateway in the heavenlies for the Northwest region, and this issue is important concerning revival.
"It needs to be cleared up somehow so the gateway can be open again in this region."

Woe Unto You Lawyers

Bill Somers

Mount Gilead Ohio USA

> Woe unto you, lawyers! for ye have taken away the key of knowledge: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. Luke 11:52

In 2004 I posted an article titled The Key of Knowledge which used this same scripture for an opening quote. The ‘lawyers’ are the legalists or literalists. And there we focused on the idea that Literalism was how The Key of Knowledge is withheld from believers. At that time we wrote as follows.

> Literalism Is The Problem
> A great number of bible scholars and teachers tell us that the proper way to understand the bible is through consistent literal interpretation. This is expressed as The Law of Literal Interpretation. This law says:
> > Always interpret scripture literally wherever possible.
> > "If the literal sense makes sense, seek no other sense."
> Now what’s most unusual about this is that there is never any scriptural justification offered for adopting this principle. You will find many reasons offered, and all of them sound logical, but no bible verses. It’s not so much what they are telling us to do, but what this law is telling us not to do? It’s telling us not to seek; seek no other sense. That is not to seek any further than the literal meaning of scripture. But what does the bible say? It says just the opposite. It tells us to seek, long, hard and diligently. We must seek after wisdom with a passion.

Other problems with literalism.

Now I would like to focus on another part of that verse which says: ye entered not in yourselves, and them that were entering in ye hindered. What exactly is the Lord speaking of in saying ye entered not in. They entered not into what?

A quick glance at similar verse from Matthew easily clears this up for us. It is speaking of entering into The Kingdom Of God.

> Matthew 23:13 But woe unto you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! for ye shut up the kingdom of heaven against men: for ye neither go in yourselves, neither suffer ye them that are entering to go in.

So how does this happen? We can see from the discussion in John 3 that entering the Kingdom is a matter of being led by the Holy Spirit.

> John 3:5 Jesus answered, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born of water and of the Spirit, he cannot enter into the kingdom of God.

If you hold to the law of literal interpretation, it will stop you from seeking deeper meanings in God’s word. And what does it take to seek these deeper meanings? In first Corinthians 2, we see that it requires the Holy Spirit.

> 1 Corinthians 2:11-14
> 11 For what man knoweth the things of a man, save the spirit of man which is in him? even so the things of God knoweth no man, but the Spirit of God.
> 12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.
> 13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
> 14 But the natural man receiveth not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness unto him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.

And in Genesis 40 we are told that interpretations belong to God.

> Genesis 40:8 And they said unto him, We have dreamed a dream, and there is no interpreter of it. And Joseph said unto them, Do not interpretations belong to God? tell me them, I pray you.

Literalism will tell you not to use the Key of Knowledge, which is to seek for it. It's this same key that can open your way into the Kingdom of God!

Consider that the bible gives one of the names of God as The Lord Our Righteousness.

> Jeremiah 23:5-6
> 5 Behold, the days come, saith the LORD, that I will raise unto David a righteous Branch, and a King shall reign and prosper, and shall execute judgment and justice in the earth.
> 6 In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely: and this is his name whereby he shall be called, THE LORD OUR RIGHTEOUSNESS.

To seek the Kingdom is to seek the King
Now look at Matthew 6:33.

> Matthew 6:33 But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and his righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you.

What all this means is that to seek the Kingdom of God is to seek his righteousness. And since Jesus is our righteousness, you can conclude that to seek the Kingdom is to seek the King or to seek the Lord.

Since Literalism will keep you from seeking the Lord, then it will keep you from entering into the Kingdom Of God and being led by the Spirit of the Lord.
Selah.

The Holy versus the Profane.
We hear a lot of talk in certain circles about keeping God's Law or as some say, Keeping Torah. Unfortunately this is usually accompanied by a literal understanding of Torah, or Literalism. To some legalists, keeping Torah means making a big issue of not eating pork. The notion is that the gentile church is profaning themselves by eating 'swine's flesh'.

A literal understanding of Torah is that it means The Law of Moses. There we read that the swine is unclean.

> And the swine, because it divideth the hoof, yet cheweth not the cud, it is unclean unto you: ye shall not eat of their flesh, nor touch their dead carcase. Deuteronomy 14:8

To go beyond the literal meaning of this you can check out what it says in Ezekiel 44.

> And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and profane, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean. Ezekiel 44:23

There the Lord makes it clear that the terms clean and unclean are types of what is holy and unholy, or profane.

What the Lord is doing here it to contrast Holy and Profane with Clean or Unclean. Seeking The Kingdom and it's righteousness can also be contrasted with self justification and self righteousness, which are filthy rags in the sight of the Lord, unclean and speaking of sin. Leprosy speaks of sin, and is used as a type of sin. The leper is considered unclean.

> And the leper in whom the plague is, his clothes shall be rent, and his head bare, and he shall put a covering upon his upper lip, and shall cry, Unclean, unclean. Leviticus 13:45

Eating 'Swine's Flesh'

I found it hard to accept that some people were making a big issue of eating pork. Can they be serious? Was it such a big deal to have a piece of bacon or a Bob Evans bratwurst? After all, didn't Jesus say in Matthew 15:

> Not that which goeth into the mouth defileth a man; but that which cometh out of the mouth, this defileth a man. Matthew 15:11

Then the Lord showed me that I had profaned myself by eating 'swine's flesh'. But it was not from having a ham sandwich. First of all, eating can mean consuming or partaking of, or enjoying something. And swine's flesh can mean anything unholy. Watching certain kinds of movies or reading certain kinds of books fit the bill perfectly. I had just recently read a 'political action thriller' novel that was filled with violence and brutality. Now you can justify this to your self by calling it harmless entertainment, but when you are enjoying something unholy, you are becoming unholy! So the legalists can keep kosher and still be partaking of swine's flesh.
Selah

An End Time Application

Here's another example of swine used to mean unholy.

> Mark 5:9-13
> 9 And he asked him, What is thy name? And he answered, saying, My name is Legion: for we are many.
> 10 And he besought him much that he would not send them away out of the country.
> 11 Now there was there nigh unto the mountains a great herd of swine feeding.
> 12 And all the devils besought him, saying, Send us into the swine, that we may enter into them.
> 13 And forthwith Jesus gave them leave. And the unclean spirits went out, and entered into the swine: and the herd ran violently down a steep place into the sea, (they were about two thousand;) and were choked in the sea.

Something in this story does not add up. These unclean spirits seek some place to dwell.

> When the unclean spirit is gone out of a man, he walketh through dry places, seeking rest, and findeth none. Matthew 12:43

If the unclean spirits seek a home to dwell in once they are cast out, why would they enter into the swine and immediately cause the destruction of their new home? This kind of puzzling feature is one of the things the Lord puts into the bible to cause the curious to seek for deeper meaning. Here is one the Lord showed me.

In this story of the devils entering the swine the number of swine, 2000, becomes an important clue. The 2000 speaks of the 2000 years of the so called church age, and gives it an end time context. What God may be saying here is at the end of the 2000 years, he will allow the heathen, represented by the unclean swine, to become thoroughly demonized leading to their destruction in the tribulation. This is analogous to the 'gross darkness' coming on the people spoken of in Isaiah.

> Isaiah 60:2 For, behold, the darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the people: but the LORD shall arise upon thee, and his glory shall be seen upon thee.
> Revelation 16:10 And the fifth angel poured out his vial upon the seat of the beast; and his kingdom was full of darkness*; and they gnawed their tongues for pain,*

For the legalist, the death of the swine would be the end of the story. They would never seek the Lord for greater understanding, and remain in darkness [clueless] themselves.

> 2 Corinthians 6:17-18
> 17 Wherefore come out from among them, and be ye separate, saith the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you,
> 18 And will be a Father unto you, and ye shall be my sons and daughters, saith the Lord Almighty.

Who Wants A Piece Of Holy Spirit Pie?

Geoff Sadler

Nov 7, 2005
Everybody loves a piece of pie. Come on admit it, if you didn't have to worry about your waistline you'd be helping yourself to as much of it as you could. If someone invented a pie that was sugar free, and instead of making you fat, made you healthy, full of joy and was the ultimate source of strength and vitality, was absolutely free and the more you ate of it the healthier you became, then you would eat as much of it as you could wouldn't you? On top of this, if you could get this pie in unlimited supply, didn't have to pay for it and knew that the more you gave away the more you would get, then you wouldn't be afraid of giving as much of it away as you could would you? Well here's the good news, God has baked such a pie. It's called "Holy Spirit pie." In fact God has made so much of it that He doesn't know what to do with it (He does really obviously, because He's God). He's going to have to start giving it away to everyone because the storehouses of heaven are overloaded with it. He said "In the last days I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh."

It's the same with bread. Jesus said "I am the bread of life." In the building I live in, we have been getting an unlimited supply of bread because there is a warehouse that can't sell it all and someone in the building knows someone who has access to it. It's good healthy bread. Do you know anyone who has an unlimited storehouse of bread that He wants to give away? I think you do don't you, you little tinker. :) His name's God.

Last night I was at a meeting and during the ministry time as we were waiting on the Lord, I heard the words "Holy Spirit pie." Then I saw a big hand reach into it, grab a load of it and start throwing it all over the place into peoples faces. As it hit them, they started laughing hysterically and pretty soon a food fight started. People were throwing pie all over the place and the room was filled with joy and laughter. Every time I though about this I started laughing and the anointing of the Holy Spirit came upon me even stronger and I knew He wanted me to give it away. Then, this morning it happened again. As I yielded to the Holy Spirit, it became more and more intense and I couldn't stop laughing. I'm sure at the wedding supper of the lamb, at the end of it, Jesus will say, OK let's have a big food fight. I can't wait.

Did you know that Jesus is the least religious person in the universe? He really is. A few years ago I was sitting in my living room waiting on the Lord and I heard His audible voice. He said to me "Don't be scared my child." I'd been asking Him to come and sensed that He was going to appear to me in the room. So when I got to thinking about it I thought to myself, "What if he really did appear to me in the room? I'd probably jump through the ceiling." When he spoke though, it was like the very words went through my entire being. At the same time I had an incredible revelation of what He was really like. It was like He could travel anywhere in the world at the speed of light. He was also the most joyful, carefree and least religious person you could ever wish to meet, while at the same time being totally in control and having full authority over the universe. It was great. After I got over the shock of it all I just sat there 'gobsmacked' as we say in England, and all I could say was "I didn't know you were like that.

I didn't know you were like that." It was amazing.

The Holy Spirit is the same. He's full of joy also and He has the function and ability of spreading Himself all over the world en masse, as well as in and through you.

The pharisees and religious people of the day didn't recognise Jesus as the Messiah, because they expected Him to come as a legalist like them. They had tremendous zeal for the law, but it made them blind to what He was really like as a person. It's the same today with some of us. We either ignore the Holy Spirit all together or we've been taught to mix grace with religious legalism and so miss out on a lot of what He wants to give us. Our pride and false sense of guilt cause us to think we have to earn something from Him, that really, He wants to give us for free.

Question : How much religious legalism is good for you? Answer: NONE!

One of the reasons the world and even some of the church look for joy and pleasure in other things is because they don't know there is a better alternative. Anyway enough of that.

The lord wants to freely give to you the joy of the Holy Spirit so that you can freely give it away to others today. So here's what I want you to do. Sit quietly for a while if you need to and wait on the Lord. Then ask Him to hit you in the face with a piece of "Holy Spirit pie." Then ask Him for more. Then when you've received it go and hit someone else in the face with a piece. He'll tell you when and what to do. Pretty soon it will spread. You don't have to live in fear and sorrow all the time. If you ask Him, He will come. He promised us "In the last days, I will pour out My Spirit on all flesh."

Prayer.
Lord I pray right now that you would anoint these words and touch people with the power of your Holy Spirit. Ignite our faith and quicken our spirits so that we can receive what you want to give us for free. Lord you said "It's not by might and it's not by power, but by My Holy Spirit" so release it to us right now. Break off pride, break off fear and break off deception that might stop us from believing and receiving from you. Let there be a transferable anointing released again today. Do it now and spread it to others through us. Multiply yourself through us. In Jesus mighty name. Amen.

More pie anyone?

Wrestling With Demons
Sandy Warner

Sep 14, 2005

WRESTLING WITH DEMONS
So often you are unaware that the lack of peace you have in your relationships is actually that you are actually wrestling with demons. There are demons that take up resident in lives even in the womb and have lived out their personalities within people. They so masquerade themselves that even the person does not understand that the nature of their true personality and what they are feeling is not really their own. I see these things, dearest. I understand the wars that go on.

Your highest calling is to love, forgive and pray for those you love. As you learn to love those who are captive to demons, it releases them to overcome and become like Me. When you judge, criticize and argue with them, it only wounds their already wounded soul and brings them into worse captivity.

Lay down your contention. Lay down your striving and bring all soul wrestling to a close. Pray and take authority over the demonic, but do not use the weapons of flesh with people. Do not allow the demonic to steal your own peace. When you wrestle in our own soul over someone else's demons, you lose your peace. So repent of your ways, come into alignment with My heart so that you may find your peace and release others to find theirs.

Rom 16:20 NKJV

Perfect Faith Quenches Backlash

PERFECT FAITH QUENCHES BACKLASH

I have taught you so much about demonic backlash and how to avoid this in following your conscience. These issues are much deeper than disobedience and sin. When you do not suffer backlash and yet nurture doubt and fear, it is only because of My grace that you do not suffer backlash. When you do experience painful backlash, I have allowed this teaching to draw you to another place where you can war safely. It is called the harmless room.

Yes, there is a harmless room that I would like you dwell in. It is a room of innocent faith where your simple child like trust in Me quenches the fiery darts of the wicked one. In that room, you may war and stretch your boundaries in perfect safety. In that harmless room, fear, doubt, unbelief, and wavering do not dwell. You will learn that each of these open a revolving door into backlash. Loved one, how I long for you not to go in and out but just stay in that harmless room.

Matt 10:17 NKJV
"Behold, I send you out as sheep in the midst of wolves. Therefore be wise as serpents and harmless as doves.

Who Will Go For Me?

Lanna Perry

24th November, 2005

I have been deeply grieved the past few days because of what the Lord has shown me.

Jesus came to me in a dream, and spoke to me. The sadness He expressed was indescribable. He came to me, and said to me:

"Who will go for me? Who will stand in the gap?"

Those words continued to just be repeated over and over in my dream. The voice of the Lord booming in a way that I had never heard.

I then awoke with a sadness and longing for the body of Christ to rise up like never before, that I have not experienced.

I felt the Lord's heart in this. The Lord's heart is grieved for so many within the body of Christ are busy doing other things. Burying the dead, building a house etc. Matthew 8:20-21

I believe the Lord is calling His church to re-examine their hearts and priorities. Church, what are we really living for? What are we really desiring in our lives?

Are we on guard ready to go for the Lord when He says? Or are we too pre-occupied with things of our own lives?

It's time for the church to rise up. It's time for the church to make a decision, "who will you serve? Will you forsake all for Christ? Will you stand in the gap?"

I believe this is a challenge for us all. The Lord is grieved. I cannot express to you the burden placed upon me through this visitation. The Lord has not spoken this to bring about condemnation, but to bring about conviction and repentance from the body of Christ.

The church has become so distracted with other things, that we have lost our focus. The focus of being completely dedicated to Jesus, and placing Him above all. We have become complacent as a church – and it's time to repent church.

The Lord has so many wonderful treasures and plans awaiting each of His children, all of us, if we just take the step forward and be willing to go for Him, and to stand for Him.

Fear, insecurity, doubt keeps us from our destinies. We are not called to live in the 'what if's', we are called to live in 'obedience'.

The Lord is wanting to move in great and mighty ways but are we as a church being faithful in interceding for our leaders, for nations, for churches? Do we really want to see a mighty move of God?? Then we need to get on our knees and stand in the gap.

The Lord is not condemning us, for the Lord does not condemn, but the Lord is grieved.

Church, we really need to take our stand. Will we go for God? No matter where He calls, or what He asks us to do? No matter what He asks us to leave behind? We need to continue to ask the Holy Spirit to cultivate this attitude within our hearts.

Are we REALLY desperate to see a move of God in our churches, our towns, our cities, our nations? Are we desperate enough to stand in the gap?

It's time for us church, to stop being distracted and mucking around and start focusing on what really matters. We need to get our priorities right. The church has shamed God for too long. It's time to stand up and let the Glory of the Lord been seen in greater ways than ever before.

The Lord wants to usher forth His Spirit in greater ways than we could ever dream of, but are we willing to pay the price to usher His heart in?

Let us not find the Lord speaking of us as He did in Ezekiel 22:30

Let us not grieve His heart anymore and truly seek Him and serve Him, and we will see Him move in ways we've never dreamed of.

As we repent He is going to restore in amazing ways.

Weakened Warriors - How To Inherit His Promises

Rick Joyner

How To Inherit His Promises

As we study how the church will cross over and begin to possess its Promised Land, we will look at the first great event after crossing the Jordan, which we see in Joshua 5:2: "At that time the Lord said to Joshua, 'Make for yourself flint knives and circumcise again the sons of Israel the second time.'" (NASB)

Circumcision was a ritual performed that speaks of the removal of the flesh or carnal nature. As we read in this chapter, this was done because those born in the wilderness had not been circumcised. This was a basic ritual that distinguished God's people from all others.

As we discussed previously, one of the ways we know the church is indeed crossing over to inherit its Promised Land will be the re-emphasis of the cross or the crucified life. Immediately after this we can expect a re-emphasis of the removal of the carnal nature or the deeds of the flesh, which is described in Galatians 5:19-21:
"Now the deeds of the flesh are evident, which are: immorality, impurity, sensuality, idolatry, sorcery, enmities, strife, jealousy, outbursts of anger, disputes, dissensions, factions, envying, drunkenness, carousing, and things like these, of which I forewarn you, just as I have forewarned you, that those who practice such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God." (NASB)

Spiritual Circumcision

The children of Israel could not possess their Promised Land until this was done just as Paul wrote, "those who practice such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God." Think about that! We will not inherit the kingdom of God as long as we practice these things. As the Word of God is also clear, those who are indeed in the Lord's will behave like it. They are different. They have the fruit of the Spirit, and they are devoted to living godly, righteous, holy lives. Again, those who do not walk in this way will not inherit the kingdom of God.

In our times, righteousness has often been associated with legalism or even having a religious spirit, but those who have overreacted to this have usually fallen to another evil that is just as deadly -- lawlessness. There is a ditch on either side of the path of life. If we live as reactionaries, we will likely end up in one of them or going from one to the other most of our lives. Let us take a look at spiritual circumcision and how it is accomplished in our lives, as we read in Romans 2:28-29, 7:18, 8:5-9:

Romans 2:28-29
"For he is not a Jew who is one outwardly; neither is circumcision that which is outward in the flesh.

"But he is a Jew who is one inwardly; and circumcision is that which is of the heart, by the Spirit, not by the letter; and his praise is not from men, but from God." (NASB)

Romans 7:18
"For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh; for the wishing is present in me, but the doing of the good is not." (NASB)

Romans 8:5-9
"For those who are according to the flesh set their minds on the things of the flesh, but those who are according to the Spirit, the things of the Spirit.

"For the mind set on the flesh is death, but the mind set on the Spirit is life and peace, because the mind set on the flesh is hostile toward God; for it does not subject itself to the law of God, for it is not even able to do so; and those who are in the flesh cannot please God.

"However, you are not in the flesh but in the Spirit, if indeed the Spirit of God dwells in you." (NASB)

Made Weak, For A Greater Purpose

Recent studies have shown that of those who claim to be born again, evangelical Christians are no longer distinguishable in their general behavior than with non-Christians -- including basic issues of morality and integrity. This is why the heathen continue to refer to Christians as hypocrites.
Certainly a good case could be made that in the church's wilderness journey there has not been much emphasis on the spiritual circumcision that is required to inherit our promises. However, we can count on this becoming a major emphasis in the immediate future. We will not go any further until the flesh or the carnal nature has been cut away from the lives of those who will inherit the kingdom.

Like it or not, the works of the flesh are going to be exposed and cut away from all who want to be numbered with the household of faith. It is noteworthy that for Israel this was the first thing which was done immediately after they had entered the land, and it was done right in the sight of the people on the walls of Jericho. This was not something the Lord had done secretly in the wilderness, but they were humiliated and made weak, right within sight of their enemies!

Our Humility In This Is Preparing Us To Be Able To Receive The Grace Of God

One lesson we can learn from this is that the Lord is not nearly as concerned about our reputations as we tend to be. In fact, we can count on Him dealing with that pride very quickly. We think if our problems are waved in front of the world we will lose our "witness," but the Lord cares very little about that. In fact, such a witness will not lead anyone to the Lord, but is what we try to use to lead people to us.
The only thing that will truly lead people to the Lord is the conviction of their sin by the Holy Spirit, and the comprehension of the atonement that Jesus made for that sin, which is the only remedy for our guilt. It is about Him, not us.

If we are indeed coming to this time, we can expect the carnal problems of the church to start being exposed very openly. This is going to be done so that they can be done away with. Of course, this has been going on for sometime now, but it is obvious that the job has not yet been completed. We can count on our enemies seeing this and probably gloating over it, but our humility in this is preparing us to be able to receive the grace of God, which He will only give to the humble. The victory over our enemies will come in due time, but for now the best thing we can do is embrace the humility and let the evil ways that we have clung to be cut away.

For this reason we will also examine these works of the flesh in a bit more detail. This is going to be painful, but we can do some things that will greatly lessen the pain. As we are told in I Corinthians 11:31, "But if we judged ourselves rightly, we would not be judged" (NASB). If we would deal with these things, the Lord would not have to do it. If we will humble ourselves, He will not have to humble us.

"No Pain, No Pain"

As I have shared before, my motto is "No pain, no pain." I do not like pain, so I want to make this as painless as I can. It is far better for us to fall on the Rock to be broken than to have to have Him fall on us and crush us into powder! So if we deal with these things ourselves now, we can in fact escape the more painful and public humiliation.

Even so, there is a more righteous motivation that we should have, and hopefully we will mature into this. We must do this for the Lord's sake -- in order to please Him. However, until the flesh or carnal nature is cut away, it is hard to have such godly motives. So even if we want to rid ourselves of the flesh or carnal nature from a selfish motive of wanting to get out of this pain as easily as possible, this reason is still better than not doing it at all. But know for sure that it will be done before we can go any further. We can also know for sure that the pain will result in gain for us.

What Would Jesus Do?

Ron Wood

www.touchedbygrace.org

If you wear the bracelet, you get off easy. If you walk the talk, you'll stir up a hornet's nest.

Years ago as a young believer, naïve and full of zeal, I came to think that being like Jesus meant we should battle in prayer to heal, deliver, and encourage hurting people. That's what my ministry beginning was like. Somehow I've gotten away from it and I confess that I miss it greatly.

I assumed then that everyone who claimed to be a Christian   and certainly every pastor   would be delighted to see more people becoming more like Jesus and doing more of his works. Before I became a paid professional pastor, that's what I used to do. Then I found out that doing the works of Jesus had a lower priority in the religious world than having big crowds, fancy buildings, and keeping every body under control of the system of our unspoken expectations.

It's not the written expectations that hold us back   nobody would dare put on paper what is wordlessly communicated. For example: Don't get too passionate for Christ or too burdened for souls, it may become emotionalism. Don't hold small prayer meetings in your home, it may get out of order if an elder isn't there. Don't prophesy out of turn, it may be imperfect or you might miss the mark. Don't pray for the sick, only the elders are authorized to do that. Don't attend other meetings across town, they may have error. Don't plant another church or preach elsewhere unless we've sent you, or else you will be in rebellion.

How can obeying Jesus be rebellion? To this day, the seat of Moses has not lacked a Pharisee to sit in it and issue new decrees.

There's something about the clerical collar that chokes the spiritual life out of good men who used to be spiritual sponges. All of a sudden they know everything. The spirit of adventure, of learning, of lowering themselves to admit their need, departs. They quit humbly spreading the kingdom to small circles of intimate acquaintances and start managing the crowds, building the facilities, raising the money, holding advertising campaigns to reach the world. I'm saddened by this outcome of our success.

We've become "professional clergy" instead of men who simply follow and imitate Jesus. Our prayers get pious; our demeanor gets cynical; our preaching gets hard; our family life suffers. People around us feel used instead of treasured. How do we get out of this trap? We turn and we bow down at the feet of Jesus. He hasn't changed… we have.

The road back to reality is the road of repentance. It is the way of honesty and humility that first gave us our taste of salvation.

As I read the New Testament concerning the life of Jesus, it seems to me that he led a fully balanced life. Yes, he went to temple when he was young, but he also preached in the streets to the unsanctified throngs, mingled with sinners, and held small meetings frequently with confidants who followed him to learn his ways.

They knew what Jesus would do because they watched him, shared life with him, and knew that he walked his talk. That's the definition of integrity: it is the same through and through. Even the traitor Judas would later confess, "I have betrayed innocent blood."

One of Jesus' ways was secret prayer. He was always moving from one prayer meeting to another. He talked with God like He was his Father. Why, he even prayed with his eyes open! In between times of prayer, he was fellowshipping with real people. And along the way, he stopped to heal people, to forgive sin, and to break oppression off of them. Sounds like fun to me. Does it to you?

This company of un-churched, un-bathed non-religious pioneers ate together, drank together, sat around the fire talking, rode through storms on rough seas, and then worked miracles outside the sanctuary under the noses of the Pharisees. "Hypocrites, white-washed tombs, murderers of the prophets," Jesus named them and shamed them.

Those same ordinary men watched Jesus demonstrate God's kingdom through the power of the Holy Spirit. He demonstrated it by driving out demons, forgiving sins, curing diseases, and encouraging beaten-down people. Why, he even prophesied to blatant sinners! That, my friends, is the kingdom of God in a nutshell. We need it today.

The food, fun, and fellowship along the way turned out to be the icing on the cake. A bond of covenant love knitted their hearts together. No formality, no religious piety, no rigid rules, no legalistic "thou shalt nots." Just men and women being progressively liberated and becoming whole, and in the process, doing real damage to Satan's realm as many victims were set free. I like the thought of it, don't you?

This band of brothers also saw Jesus get roaring mad at religious leaders who burdened people with rules but never lifted their loads. In church circles, honest emotion isn't allowed. It isn't sweet. You can't do that here. Not right, you know.

Later, after training by doing (not lectures), Jesus sent his disciples out to do what he had been doing. "You go do it, too," he was saying. He didn't keep the authority to himself. He delegated to them the power to drive out devils and heal diseases. He shared his anointing with them. He made every person who believed in him an agent of his kingdom. He didn't create a new elite priesthood who alone had the franchise; instead, he distributed gifts freely to his whole body.

Recently I had a conversation with an experienced supervisor at one of the world's largest and fastest growing companies. He told me that his purpose was to help the people under his care develop, to use all of their gifts and talents, and to be promoted beyond where he was. He said if they succeeded, then he was a success.

My heart cried silently inside. This secular manager knew more about God's ways than most preachers. I said in my heart, "If only every pastor viewed every person on every pew as a soldier in the battle and would not rest until everyone under his (or her) influence was equipped to wage war and to win in the name of our King!"

My brother Don was recently sharing fond memories of us growing up in Carpenter's Home Church in Lakeland, Florida. He said Pastor Strader fostered the attitude of "Go do the works of Jesus. If you mess up, we'll clean up your mistakes after you." In that kind of healthy atmosphere, young laborers in God's work could experiment and could learn to stretch their wings and soar.

War With My Enemies

Barbara Lynch

May 19, 2005, 3:53 AM

I am going to rend the heavens and the earth. I am going to make war with My enemies at this given time. I have come to set the captives free and to bring liberty to the poor. I am the Alpha, Omega, the Beginning and the End. I am the Almighty One and I fail not. Hinder! There will be no one that will hinder this move of mine. Absolutely no one! I have spoken so many things and very few have listened. I have come after My people many times, but My people were not ready. Now I must move! Now I must do the mighty works that I have foreordained to do. There is a great works for My people to do, if only they will stand up and be counted among the worthy. But My people still have not chosen whom they will serve. My people are still playing with their false idols. For some it is too late. For others, this will be an event they will never forget. This life is all about choices and I allow My people to choose whom they will serve. The antichrists are all around and My people are blinded to this fact. The false prophets have already arisen on the scene and My people cannot discern true from false. Woe be unto those who have chosen the path of Baal, for their lot has already been cast. I am calling My true body to come up hither and sit with me in the heavenly places and be instructed by Me at this given time.

Who Will Really Trust Me

tesjoeva@zonnet.nl

I Am That I Am, I am a righteous God. My eyes are going over the earth searching for those who will really trust me. I see many of you, my children, pointing your fingers at the rest of the world, there where bad things are going on…. You are judging other people and you think you know why these bad things happen. You are telling others, "This is the judgment of the LORD." BUT I Am The I Am. Although I love my children very much, I must tell you "aren't you forgetting something?" Does it not say in My Holy Word that judgment will begin in My own house first? So why are you telling each other what is wrong in the world, although you are not listening to My voice telling you that you must arise, shine and stand up? So I, your Father, am asking you now—where are you? Where is My body being one with each other? Instead you are fighting, and striving with each other. Where are you in being pure and worshipping Me instead of building your own kingdoms? In fact, you are the ones to blame. Have the ones that are living in sin seen My body? Have they heard my message? Have they felt my love? Many of you are worshipping My wonders and my signs and I tell you satan can do all of these things too! But he has no love at all only darkness. I Am is telling you that many people can remain living in sin is because My body is still sick, or not working in the proper way. I ask you again, I Am is asking you again, give me EVERYTHING. Let Me be the center of your life, of your congregation, your conference and let Me do what I want to do—that is reaching for souls. Stop striving with each other! You are hurting the heart of your Father! Stop building your own kingdoms my dear children, it is not about you, it is about ME!

Where you there when I created the world? Did you hang on the cross? Did you drink from my cup? You know the answer. Stand up, repent, ask each other for forgiveness, stop striving, and let me send you instead of sending yourselves. Let Me have your little kingdoms and instead I will give you Mine. I promise you My children, the choice is yours today, come with Me and I will make you a fisher of men and you will be serving Me. If you continue building your own kingdoms, having your own miracles, striving with each other doing your own business, you will be serving yourselves and out of your own heart and not serving me Me, and ministering to my heart. Remember there is coming a time very soon you will stand before Me. Do you want to hear, "Depart from Me, I never knew you?" The choice is yours.

Study from Susan Vannice
Judges 8:24

Yet Gideon said to them, "I would request of you, that each of you give me an earring from his spoil." (For they had gold earrings, because they were Ishmaelites.) [25] They said, "We will surely give them." So they spread out a garment, and every one of them threw an earring there from his spoil. [26] The weight of the gold earrings that he requested was 1,700 shekels of gold, besides the crescent ornaments and the pendants and the purple robes which were on the kings of Midian, and besides the neck bands that were on their camels' necks. [27] Gideon made it into an ephod, and placed it in his city, Ophrah, and all Israel played the harlot with it there, so that it became a snare to Gideon and his household.

Here in the book of Judges our beloved brother Gideon has gone in the power of the Spirit and strength of the LORD and defeated the kings of Midian. Wow! What a great celebration that must have been. Most of us have read the story about how Gideon won this battle with 300 men against a great host of Midianites.

I read in earlier verses that there were two kings of Midian. Midian means strife and contention. Was one named strife and the other contention? I believe that is exactly what these men represent. Gideon fought against much strife and contention and by the Spirit of the LORD, he prevailed. Are any of you battling against these guys? These are not actual people today, but evil spirits sent by our enemy. He sends these spirits to us so that we will put our focus on them instead of the great commission.

How did Gideon defeat these evil men? He followed the directions that God gave him. He had a 300 man army that God selected for him. Then he was instructed to take only a trumpet, a pitcher, and a lamp. What does this mean? How can you defeat the kings of strife and contention in your life?

The trumpet is the shofar of your spirit—your voice. Use your voice to sound the battle cry. Use your voice to shout to the LORD. The Israelites blew the shofar of their spirits when they shouted down the walls of Jericho. Shout from the north, south, east and west. Shout! Where are the intercessors to cry aloud and weep for God's people? Where are those who will pour out their hearts like water before the LORD with weeping and wailing?

The pitcher is the vessel of your body. When Gideon's army surrounded the Midianites, they broke their vessels and created a great noise. When was the last time you broke your vessel? If you want to defeat the strife and contention in your life, you must break your own vessel. Have you fasted? Have you prayed? Have you offered up a sacrifice of praise unto the LORD? Or like most people do you stay focused on the strife and contention? Our brother Paul said that if we mortify or kill the deeds of the flesh we shall live. We must put to death every earthly desire and fleshly intention. Only those with clean hands AND a pure heart shall come to the Holy Hill of the LORD. Break your vessel.
What happened when the vessels were broken? It made a great noise that confused the enemy. Can we as a body, break our vessels and confuse the enemy? Can we die to self long enough to will this battle of contention and strife in our Fathers house? There is an enemy encamped in the land our Father gave us—His land. Let's face it, there is strife and contention in the church. Not only strife and contention but a host of other ungodly, unholy spirits as well.

The light or lamp that Gideon took is a picture of the Holy Spirit and the Light of God's Word. We must not fight with our own words, sending ourselves, but fight with the Word of God. The light confused the darkness and where the light is, the darkness must flee! Are things a little dim around you? Get more oil in your lamp and light it up! Let the Light arise and shine forth! Are you lighting up the darkness? Does the room brighten up when you walk in? Are you penetrating the darkness with the light that is within you? Can they see your light? If you are contentious or have strife in your heart, you are a part of the darkness. Darkness and light have no fellowship.

The enemy awoke out of their sleep to an explosion of sound, light and movement coming at them from every side. Strife and contention thought they were surrounded by an army even bigger than they were! Even though Gideon's army were just a few, they followed the directions of the Holy Spirit and prevailed. The purple robes of royalty that rested upon the shoulders of strife and contention were stripped and laid at the feet of their conqueror.

What was the error of Gideon's ways here? He erected a monument or a memorial to remember the battle. He should have built an altar and offered up a sacrifice of praise, but instead he chose to remember what was behind. The Israelites began to worship the emblem of the battle instead of the Deliverer. God's directions for building an altar are simple –make a pile of rocks and sacrifice there. The focus is not to be on the altar, but on the receiver of the sacrifice. Let's keep our focus totally on HIM! Do not get caught up in the past—move on to your future in God!

What Will The Citywide Church Look Like

David Orton

When Christ ascended, "He gave some as apostles, and some as prophets, and some as evangelists, and some as pastors and teachers for the equipping of the saints for the work of service, to the building up of the body of Christ; until we all attain to the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, to a mature man, to the measure of the stature which belongs to the fullness of Christ" (Eph 4:11-13 NASB).

The ascension-gift ministries of apostles, prophets, evangelists, pastors, and teachers are given to bring the body of Christ to the fullness of Christ's stature to a corporate maturity, manifesting all Christ's character, authority, and power culminating in the 'transfiguration' of redeemed humanity.

This is where God is heading. Therefore, the true measure of an Ephesians 4 ministry is the degree to which they are releasing the whole church toward the whole purpose of God "the full stature of Christ" to maturity.

God is raising up a citywide church for a citywide revival - a global church for a global revival. True Ephesians four ascension-gift ministries are not given to a particular church or denomination for their own aggrandisement, but to the entire body of Christ for its edification. They are called to the universal church to the church of a city, a region, a nation, or nations, according to their sphere of God's sovereign assignment and their measure of grace, serving the whole church, "preparing God's people" (v 12), regardless of denominational tag. The reaching of the goal is reserved for the whole church, not just a part, or a spiritual elite. The coming worldwide awakening will be so extensive, and so intensive, that one group will not be able to handle it. In fact, it will demand a new wineskin the emerging city-church.

But what will this look like? The emerging city-church will simultaneously become larger and smaller. It will not only gather for massive citywide celebrations filling the largest sports arenas and public parks, but from house to house where they will break bread and fellowship. There will be a restoration of both temple worship and house fellowship. Vast urban populations will be harvested through 'a church without walls'.

Institutional and denominational definitions of the church will become obsolete as only geographical ones stand. Civil and local government jurisdictions will determine the church's boundaries, not schismatic or sectarian ones. This is already occurring, embryonically, in many cities around the world as pastors and intercessors transcend denominational loyalties to pray and intercede for citywide revival and transformation.

In my city of Melbourne, for example, God is raising up a citywide movement of pastors and intercessors committed to praying for an outpouring of the Spirit. With a population of 3.4 million the city is divided into 31 municipalities in each of which, at the date of writing, there is a trans-denominational praying group of pastors. Through a process of prayer and relationship, facilitated through an annual prayer summit, a servant-leader team has been recognised and released to nurture the unity of the pastors and the emerging city-church.

Paul exhorted the church of the city of Ephesus to both maintain and attain unity. First, to "maintain the unity of the Spirit" (Eph 4:3), and secondly, to "attain the unity of the faith" (Eph 4:13). In our pursuit of city-church catholicity it is important to distinguish between things that differ. In this case between two dimensions of unity, unity of the faith and unity of the Spirit.

Unity, first of all, is of the Spirit. It is both a sovereign and supernatural gift and therefore cannot be attained it cannot be organised or manufactured. It can only be recognised and maintained. No citywide strategy, event, or formula can produce it. It has already been given to the church and only a sovereign relational process led by the Spirit will bring the gift of unity to full expression. He will lead the church of a city on its own unique journey of learning to live in love.

We tend to forget that Paul's exhortation to maintain the unity of the Spirit is introduced by his exhortation to "be completely humble and gentle… bearing with one another in love" (v 1-2). True unity can only flow from a heart of humility - a heart conquered by the love of God. So when the gatekeepers of the city, the pastors and spiritual leaders, humble their hearts before the Lord and toward one another human agendas will no longer matter. Their hearts will become one as God's presence, and therefore his purpose, invade not only the councils of the church but entire cities and nations. In the light of his glory our offences and opinions will fade into insignificance.

And with the unity of the Spirit, the way will be made for the unity of the faith for the emergence of a truly catholic and apostolic church. Through a revival of the love of God, of the unity of the Spirit, we will ultimately come to the unity of the faith, to one apostolic church. Because of broken and purified hearts God will finally be able to entrust his people with the apostolic authority to pastor whole cities and nations.

God will not ignore a broken and contrite spirit. When we embrace brokenness on earth God will release openness in heaven. Across our cities a new apostolic church will emerge. Just as Jesus prophesied, "there shall be one flock and one shepherd" (Jn 10:16 NIV). His high priestly prayer "that all of them may be one" will be answered. There is only one reason we refuse to believe this - fear - "Don't you know that it's been like this for 2,000 years! How do you think you're going to change the entrenched attitudes of millennia? Have you any idea what this will cost us? What about our program …my ministry… my position…. my salary … I might even have to humble myself and be reconciled with Pastor…!"

Joshua and the Angel

Let's take a look at a short but very interesting passage from the Book of Joshua.

> Joshua 5:13-15
> 13 And it came to pass, when Joshua was by Jericho, that he lifted up his eyes and looked, and, behold, there stood a man over against him with his sword drawn in his hand: and Joshua went unto him, and said unto him, Art thou for us, or for our adversaries?
> 14 And he said, Nay; but as captain of the host of the LORD am I now come. And Joshua fell on his face to the earth, and did worship, and said unto him, What saith my lord unto his servant?
> 15 And the captain of the LORD'S host said unto Joshua, Loose thy shoe from off thy foot; for the place whereon thou standest is holy. And Joshua did so.

So our question is who was that man?
Some commentators say it was an angel, some say it was the Lord himself, others have no clue at all. These days having a clue speaks of knowledge, and being clueless speaks of ignorance.

So what is a clue? Encarta says this:

clue [kloo] (plural clues) noun
1. aid in solving mystery: something that helps to solve a mystery or crime

> Encarta® World English Dictionary ©

So a clue is not the answer, but an aid to finding the answer. Something that points to the answer is a clue.

In our example there are several clues for those who notice them.
1. Speaking of Joshua, it says he lifted up his eyes.
2. Also in verse 13, Joshua goes up to the man and speaks to him as someone he already knew. He does not ask who he is but what is he doing there. With a drawn sword.
3. Next in verse 14 the man gives an answer that reveals something about himself and just who he is.
4. Upon receiving this revelation Joshua does three things, he falls face down to the ground,
5. he worships and
6. he addresses the man as Lord, and the one who he serves.
7. The man tells him to loose his shoe
8. and the man tells him he is on holy ground.
9. Joshua instantly obeys.

To support the idea that this man is the Lord, lets look at each clue from the viewpoint of a believer.
1. He was looking up, speaks of being mindful of heavenly things, and seeking the Lord.
2. He knows the man, but only somewhat, after all Joshua spent a lot of time in the tabernacle in the Lord's presence so he knew him up to a point. Joshua knew the Lord already.

3. He asks what the man is doing, because he held a drawn sword. The Lord was preparing for battle against Jericho.
3. The man reveals something more of his nature, he is a war leader! This is like the Revelation of Jesus Christ.
4. Joshua falls on his face in awe at the new revelation. John in the final book of the bible, the revelation of Jesus Christ knew Jesus very well. But in the first chapter of Revelation, Jesus appears in a totally unfamiliar form. John is awestruck, and falls over.
5. Joshua worships this man. Only the Lord is to be worshipped.
6. Joshua acknowledges him as Lord. So this identifies the man as the Lord.
7. He is told to loose his shoe just as Moses was before the burning bush, this also identifies the man as the Lord.
8. He is told he is on holy ground, also as Moses was in Exodus when the Lord spoke to him.
9. Joshua's obedience is the expected behavior of someone receiving such revelation.

Now let's look at the clues from a skeptical point of view.
1. Joshua was looking heavenward: All this means is Joshua was wondering about the weather.
2. Joshua knew lots of men,
3. he was just wondering why the sword was drawn.
4, 5, and 6. Joshua here is really worshipping an angel by mistake. It's some warrior angel, that is no proof that he was the Lord.
7, 8. and 9. In Exodus, Moses was only worshipping an angel too. So none of this really proves beyond a doubt that the man was the Lord.
To be even more skeptical you could say this.

And besides that it doesn't prove the man was an angel either. If the Bible says it was a man, then is has to be a man. As for Joshua's actions, he could have been drunk or high on loco weed.

OK so what's the difference between the believer and the skeptic. The believer takes the clues which are not really proof, just aids in solving a mystery, and then he gets a revelation from the Holy Spirit. And it's the revelation that makes all the difference. The skeptic has the same clues available to him, but he is not looking for clues, not really paying attention to what he reads, and so the written word of the Lord doesn't sink in because of lack of Faith.

> Hebrews 4:2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

The skeptic is a victim of spiritual blindness. Is it any wonder that someone can study the bible for years, and still not be able to answer Jesus' question, Who do you say that I am?

Part Two

Joshua Meets The Man or
What's It All About Alfie

Bill Somers

> Exodus 3:8 And I am come down to deliver them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them up out of that land unto a good land and a large, unto a land flowing with milk and honey; unto the place of the Canaanites, and the Hittites, and the Amorites, and the Perizzites, and the Hivites, and the Jebusites.

Picking up from Who Was That Masked Man, let's ask ourselves the next logical question. What is he doing here?

One way of inquiring of the Lord when it comes to bible study, is to keep asking questions.

Our first question is why is he here? To get to an answer, there are some intermediate things we can ask.

Why does this take place before Jericho?
Why does he have his sword drawn?
If Joshua knows him, why does he ask him, whose side are you on?
If Joshua approaches him as an old buddy, why does he suddenly fall on his face and worship at his feet?

The book of Joshua on the surface tells of how the Children of Israel entered the Promised Land and drove out their enemies and claimed their inheritance. The deeper meaning of the book relates to the end times and the church entering the promised kingdom of God.

The 40 years wandering in the desert represent 4000 years since Abraham, the 2000 cubits in Joshua 3:4, speak of the 2000 years since the time of Jesus. Crossing the Jordan represents death to self. The circumcision of the people is the cutting off of the flesh. This story of Joshua Meets The Man expresses some of the same ideas in a condensed form.

Why does this take place before Jericho?
This takes place before Jericho because it illustrates what must happen before we become ready to fight the end time battles.

Why does he have his sword drawn?
The sword is the word of the Lord. Seeing that the sword is withdrawn from it's holster tells of the revelation of the Word. You don't really know what a sword looks like while it's still in the scabbard. It's the same with the word of God. You won't know the inner meaning till the Spirit reveals it. This is seen figuratively as the opening of the sealed book, mentioned in Revelation 5. It speaks of The Revelation of Jesus Christ.

What is the significance of him holding the drawn sword in his hand?
We have a similar scene in 1 Chronicles 21 that gives the meaning. In this context the Lord is bringing judgment upon his own people at Jerusalem. So this relates to Judgment beginning at the house of God, and the fact that God's people are witnessing these judgments being carried out. Notice where David and the elders fall on their faces, once they see this, like Joshua did. The sackcloth here is a sign of repentance.

> 1 Chronicles 21:16 And David lifted up his eyes, and saw the angel of the LORD stand between the earth and the heaven, having a drawn sword in his hand stretched out over Jerusalem. Then David and the elders of Israel, who were clothed in sackcloth, fell upon their faces.

If Joshua knows him, why does he ask him, whose side are you on?

There are two ways to answer this.

One speaks of division in the church where the denominations are at war with each other. [Civil War in the Church] So the question becomes what denomination are you with? And the Lord's answer, Nay, but as captain of the host of the LORD am I now come, is a way of saying I'm not here to take sides, I'm here to take over. It is also a way of saying I'm not for any denomination, I'm here to take charge and eliminate the denominations to bring my body into unity.

Two is the idea that God's judgments against his own house will be severe like they were against Jerusalem in David's time. This will be to the point where we will wonder if in fact God is for us or against us.

Fear of the Lord
If Joshua approaches him as an old buddy, why does he suddenly fall on his face and worship at his feet?

Joshua now sees the Lord in a completely new way, and acquires a profound Fear of the Lord. That is Joshua [as the church] receives a deep and profound revelation of the Lordship of Jesus. It is this Lordship of Jesus which is the rock upon which the church will be built. The revelation of Jesus Christ.

But how can we talk about the church, and turn around and say the church has yet to built? It's one of those elements they call paradoxical truths.

Here are other questions that express similar problems.
How can we talk about the Kingdom of God, when the King is not around and everybody does just what they feel like? Or How can we claim to be the Family of God, when we're just an episode of Family Feud? And how can we be the Sons of God, when we do not honor the Father's name or reveal his nature to the lost world? Or can we fight the battles as the army of God, when nobody in hearing the General's voice? How can we be the body of Christ when the parts are not assembled and not attached to the head? Or how can we be the temple of the Holy Ghost, when we ignore or reject him? And how are we to be the spotless, chaste Bride when we will do anything for money? All of these have one answer. We must receive the Fear of the Lord and this comes with presence of the Lord.

All these elements are basically the same. The Church, The Kingdom, The Family, The Army, The Body, The Bride, The Temple, The Sons of God, The congregation of the Lord, the Called out ones, the chosen generation, the Holy race, the peculiar people, the new Jerusalem, the spiritual Israel, the heirs of the promise. It's looking at different aspects, or expressing truth in different terms. Each one is connected to another like a side of a polygon, or facet of a jewel.

Why does Joshua say What saith my lord unto his servant?
Here Joshua's immediate reaction to the New Revelation is a desire to serve the Lord. Paul had the same reaction on the road to Damascus when he says Lord, what wilt thou have me to do?.

Why does Joshua worship at his feet? And why is that holy ground?
The bible speaks of worshipping at his feet, a place of holiness.

> Psalms 99:5 Exalt ye the LORD our God, and worship at his footstool; for he is holy.

Exodus 3 tells of Moses seeing the Lord and being told to loose his shoe because he is on holy ground. Also see Exodus 3:8 quoted above which mentions that the Lord is now come down. .

Why does the Lord say am I now come when we know he is always with us?

Here it means the Lord is coming in a new and powerful way. This is not just a visitation but the beginning of the habitation. This is the start of a permanent manifest presence. It’s the Latter Rain coming, that must happen before Jericho, the end time battles. He comes to judge, purge and purify his people to make them ready by dwelling among them. This is the beginning of the Kingdom here on earth. He will use the fear of the Lord and the revelation of his love to eliminate all the paradoxes we mentioned.

This is how he will put his family in order.
This is how he will muster his army.
This is how he will build his church on the rock.
This is how he will take back his Kingdom and reign as King.
This is how he will assemble his body.
This is how he will inhabit the Temple, his place of rest.
This is how he will make his bride holy and pure.
This is how he will make us become the Sons of God.
This is how he will conform us to the image of Jesus.
This is how he will get us to where we delight to do his will.
This is how he will bring in the harvest and redeem his people Israel

Recap

Before God’s people can fulfill their destiny in the end times certain things will have to happen.
When [and only when] the Church sees God’s judgments actually being carried out, she will begin to truly inquire of the Lord. Then the Lord will reveal himself with awesome power and irresistible holiness. This brings the church into the Fear of the Lord. This is a place of repentance, worship, holiness, joy and obedience. It’s the true beginning of the Kingdom of God on earth, and the millennial reign.

When Will You Go?

My precious, precious people, how I adore you and love you so much. How much I loved the day when you came to Me, and you sought Me. The day you confessed with your mouth, and believed in your heart that I, the Lord your God, is the One and Only Living God.
What great blessings I have brought to each of you. What a great love I have brought to each of you, that has truly set your hearts on fire, that has given you a reason to live, a reason bigger than yourself. My precious people, I adore you, I love you.
I died so we may have relationship. I died so that you may spend eternity with Me. I died so that you may be forgiven of all your sins and your name written in My book of life. I have called each of you My own, and have loved each of you with an everlasting love. I knocked, and you answered. I love you My people. I treasure the relationship I have with each of you, for I am the God of relationship.

Time is running out My people. Time is getting short, and many still do not know Me. Many still do not know My matchless name. Many have turned from Me from once knowing Me, and many have not truly heard.

Each of you, I have called to proclaim My message, My Gospel, My Good News.

My Spirit is crying out to each of you, when will you go? When will you go? How long will you wait? When do you feel is the right time to share My message, My Gospel?

Do not be ashamed of Me, and do not allow fear to stop you from proclaiming My truth. Many of you are waiting to be ‘sent out’ yet look around you. Look at those around you that still need to hear My message. Look around you.

In your everyday life speak My message. Do not wait any longer My church. When will you stop sitting in your seats on a Sunday, and get out into your everyday lives and proclaim My message?

You are living in a dying world. Those who do not know My name are going to face an eternity of death. I do not want this.

Many of you say "but Lord, I know not what to say!", My precious children, I say unto you, I will give you the words. As you listen to My Spirit, I will show you what to say, and how to love. Yes, how to love. Not with your love, with My love, the everlasting love and penetrates all areas of a persons heart.
As My church steps up to the plate, and takes the church to this world, signs and wonders will follow

you. You will prophesy to the unsaved, you will speak healing to the unsaved in My name.

You must step up My church. For I will hold everyone accountable for not speaking My Gospel.

So many of you My people have your eyes on yourself. Your eyes are on your lives, and what your hearts desire, My church, step out. Place your eyes on others. Love others.

Ask Me to give you My heart for the lost and I will. Ask Me to give you My compassion for the lost, and I will.

No more excuses My church. No more excuses. There are no excuses for not sharing My Gospel.

Many are dying without hearing the Word. You are not to proclaim My Word out of fear or condemnation for that is not of Me, but proclaim My Gospel out of LOVE, out of COMPASSION for those around you who do not know Me. Proclaim My Gospel out of wanting to give to others what you have received.

You have been blessed so you may bless others.

I am calling many to prepare the path for My return. Go out My church. My people, go out into your lives and proclaim My Word. Do not walk on eggshells anymore, but out of love, proclaim My truth to your circle of influence.

The captives will be set free, the blind will see, the oppressed will be lifted, the lost will be found. This is My heart church. Partner with Me. Fulfill My commission. I love you.

Will You Be Ready?

I tell you the truth, he will dress himself to serve, will have them recline at the table and will come and wait on them. "I tell you that the time has come for my people to prepare for the days that are to come. You have seen the devastation that has come to the people of the south. You have seen the tsunami that hit the people of Malaysia and other areas as well. But I say that you will see other things like this come in the coming months. I say, to watch California. Watch and wait. You have heard some say that the big one is coming. I tell you that a big one is coming. A time will come when the entire state of California will be cut off from the rest of the United States. Beware and get ready. You have seen the plates move but they will move further than they have ever moved! You will see the signs of these things intensify."

"Woe to those who extort funds and take advantage of the needy. For the money that you take from them will be taken from you. The state of the economy will fall. The balancing scale will be tipped. Your Appointment Awaits You

Appointed Times

In spite of escalating turmoil in our world, there still remains one last, great outpouring of mercy before the time of the end (Matt 24:14; Acts 2:17). This supernatural season is not something for which we must beg God. No, its coming has been predetermined. It is the "appointed time" of the Lord.

For those unaware, an "appointed time" is, in truth, an open display of the sovereignty and power of God. In it we discover with absolute certainty that nothing is impossible for God. It is a season when God fulfills the hopes and dreams of His people. The Psalmist wrote, "But You, O LORD, abide forever, and Your name to all generations. You will arise and have compassion on Zion; for it is time to be gracious to her, for the appointed time has come" (Ps 102:12-13).

During an "appointed time" it's as though the Lord physically rises and moves in unfailing compassion on behalf of His people. It is the time when divine promises, dreams and spiritual hopes are fulfilled. Recall: Abraham and Sarah had waited in faith for a quarter century for the promise of God. Finally, as they neared one hundred years of age, the Lord told Abraham, "At the appointed time I will return to you . . . and Sarah will have a son" (Gen 18:14). One year later, "at the appointed time" (Gen 21:2), Isaac was born to aged parents!

While there are, indeed, appointed times of judgment (Mk 13:33), the phrase most frequently represents a time, preset by God, when He invades mankind with "wonders, plans formed long ago, [that unfold] with perfect faithfulness"(Isa 25:1).

Demons may stand arrayed against the Lord; nations may align themselves to fight Him. It does not matter. He who sits in the heavens laughs. For He makes all things His servants (Ps 119:91), even His enemies' plans for evil are reversed and made to serve the purpose of God (Gen 50:20; Rom 8:28; Acts 2:22-24).

If God gave you a vision, a spiritual hope or dream for your future, there will be an appointed time when that which God spoke comes to pass. Thus the Lord assures us, "Record the vision and inscribe it on tablets, that the one who reads it may run. For the vision is yet for the appointed time. It hastens toward the goal and it will not fail. Though it tarries, wait for it; for it will certainly come, it will not delay" (Hab 2:2-3).

If you have a vision or promise from God, that vision also has a time of fulfillment. Though it tarries, wait for it. For it will certainly come to pass at the appointed time.

Appointed Servants of God

Prior to the unveiling of an appointed time, God has, of course, been actively working in hiddenness. When He rises and moves, He is moving the power grid He laid in secret. The work manifests suddenly, but the preparation may have taken years. Likewise, the Lord also appoints people. He predestines the time of their breakthrough in advance, even as He works silently within their hearts in preparation.

Consider the Lord's word to His disciples. He said,

"You did not choose Me but I chose you, and appointed you that you would go and bear fruit, and that your fruit would remain" (Jn 15:16).

I'm sure the disciples felt that they had chosen Christ. Yet, the deeper truth is that God chose us before the foundation of the world and predestined us to come to Christ (Eph 1:3-5). We could not even come to Christ had not the Father drawn us (Jn 6:44). So, let us make no mistake: God chose us. Yet, He who chose us also appointed us to bear fruit. The same power that worked in us surrender and then inspired our faith continues to work in our hearts throughout our days, appointing us to bear fruit.

You may look at your life and feel unfruitful. But God is not done with you yet. Do you believe God has chosen you? Then believe also that He has appointed you to bear fruit. The same power that drew you to Christ is now working to conform you to Him as well.

The Enemy's Work

One may argue, "But I know people who were good Christians who have fallen away." Yes, but in most cases you will find that, at some point, they fell into deep disappointment about some failed spiritual expectation. Disappointment is not just a sad emotional state of mind; deep disappointment actually can sever our hearts from faith. It can "dis-appoint" us from our appointed destiny.

I have known many who were doing well, moving toward their appointed destiny. The future God had for them seemed almost close enough to taste. Then they became disappointed in someone or something. By accepting dis-appointment into their spirits, a bitter cold winter took over their souls and their faith turned dormant.

When one is dis-appointed, he is cut off from his appointment with destiny; the appointment remains in the heart of God, but the individual is isolated. It is here, even in the throes of disappointment, that the righteous must learn to live by faith (see Hab 2:1-4).

I, too, have been through disappointment. Indeed, the promise of God was so distant that it seemed like a foolish spiritual fantasy. For nearly three years I had not been involved in pastoral ministry. No doors would open. God was doing a work in my soul to cause me to trust Him, but I felt abandoned and cut off from my calling. In a moment of abject honesty, I prayed, "Lord, you promised that those who believed in You would not be disappointed. Master, You know all things. Look at my heart. I am full of disappointment."

The Lord simply replied, "You're life is not over." Of course, I knew that. I was a healthy young man not older than forty. Yet, the spell of disappointment had flooded my soul with darkness, causing me to conclude erroneously that God was done with me.

Listen well my friend: Satan can stop our destiny if we accept the power of disappointment into our lives. Once we accept the heaviness of a deep dis-appointment, backsliding is often not far away. You see, dis-appointment cuts us off from our vision and without a vision people perish.

Therefore, let me ask you: are you carrying disappointment in your heart? Renounce it. Forgive those who have let you down. Have you personally or morally failed? Repent deeply and return to your Redeemer. Right now, I ask the Holy Spirit to remove disappointment's paralyzing sting! Beloved, the Spirit of God has come to release you of the effect of the dis-appointment. He reminds you, "Your appointment with your destiny is still set.

Holy Spirit, I confess that disappointment has crept into my soul. I forgive those who have disappointed me and release them back to You. I also forgive myself for accepting disappointment. I renounce unbelief and submit again to Your call on my life. Lord, prepare me again to move into the future You have appointed for my life. In Jesus' name. Amen.

You Are Coming To A New Day
Musa Opiyo

Apr 28, 2005
My people you are coming to a new day. You are turning a corner this day says the Lord and it is the passing of one season to the next. In this season you shall hear My voice with greater clarity than before because it is My desire to speak to My people and show them the mysteries that have been hidden from them. It shall be a time of great seeking, for many shall desire to know what I am saying to My church at this hour and at this time.

I see many of you running to and fro asking what I am saying, and while I have anointed and placed before you Apostles and Prophets who shall bring strategic revelation to move My church forward, it is also a time of grace where I have given you the Holy Spirit who shall speak to you and show you of the things that are to come. Many of you believe that I am silent yet I am speaking to My people to come to Me while there is time.

You are also coming to a time when you will see great natural disasters occurring in different places across this earth. I have said before that I would shake the heavens and the earth, and this is when I am pulling My people together to pray and intercede for My people in these areas. To those prophets who would use these natural disasters to say 'I told you so' to elevate themselves as hearing from Me and who would cry 'judgment' and speaking from a critical and bitter spirit, I say, do you know not what spirit you are of? It is true that I am bringing judgment to the earth, but judgment begins first at My house, then does it proceed to the nations of the earth. While some have cried judgment, where are those that would stand between the porch and altar and weep for what is to come? Did not Jeremiah weep at the foreseeing of the destruction of Jerusalem?

Yet in this age of grace I bring judgment that repentance and a change of heart would follow. Truly in this day I am moving in My church across the nations and bringing into alignment that which was out of place. I am speaking to My people and causing you to walk in a new level of holiness and faith. To those of mine that fear My name, the Sun(Son) of righteousness shall rise with healing in his wings. To those that are walking away from Me or opposing My ways, I will bring a humbling that I may gather you together even as a hen gathers her chicks.

You are indeed coming to a new day. A day where you will walk and not stumble. Where you shall run and not faint. For as you walk with Me, you will hear My voice saying 'This is the way, walk in it'. This is also a time of reckoning. The seeds that you have planted are coming to fruition. Remain in Me and let My Word remain in your hearts. Turn your ears to Me and listen, for I am indeed speaking to My people says the Almighty.

Blessings, Musa Opiyo http://mannaword.no-ip.com

Return To Your First Ministry
Musa Opiyo

May 23, 2004

I hear the Lord asking many to return to their first ministry: intimacy and true relationship with His Son Jesus Christ.

Many people, especially ministers the Lord says, have become so engrossed and involved in their own ministries and all that entails it that they have forgotten their first and foremost ministry; intimacy with their Lord and Saviour. Because of this they have experienced frustrations and problems to which have dialed 911 to Heaven's throne asking what is going on.

I hear the Lord replying: "Many have forsaken drawing from the well that is found in My presence that by the time you go and minister to My children you are dry because you cannot give what you yourself have not received. Lean on Me. I am the one who anointed and gifted you in your area of ministry and service to My children. I will equip you and I will give you the tools and resources you need. When you give time devoted to Me, I will extend time as I did with My servant Joshua so that you can and will accomplish that which I have sent and commissioned you to do."

"And yet there are some of My children who have forsaken the ministry because of discouragement and weariness brought on from the enemy. When you said yes for Me to use you I did not promise you a smooth road. In fact, if anything I promised that you would have tribulation moments where your faith would be tested and tried. It would be the enemy's delight to see you throw in the towel and give up, yet I say give him no quarter. Pick up again your mantle and go forth knowing that the I AM who called and anointed you shall go forth accompanying your words with signs and wonders. I AM with you."

Philippians 1:6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ.

Child of God, the Almighty has not given up on you. Don’t give up on him. What he has spoken shall come to pass for his word shall not return void.

Blessings,
Musa Opiyo

You Are Now Moving Into My Day

Jeremy Lopez

"You Are now moving into My day, says the Lord. The day that I have longed for you to see. The day that I have prepared for you My people. The Sabbath day has now come upon you. On the Sabbath is when I performed many unlawful things for those that were hungry for Me. Those that asked of Me for healing in there body and a miracle in there life did not care what day of the week it was. For they had come to a place of desperation to see Me move. What was unlawful for man to do on the Sabbath is lawful for Me, says the Lord. For I am the Lord of the Sabbath. For I will bring forth a demonstration of My power that the earth has never seen. This is the day where much possibility awaits you.

The movings and shiftings are coming to My church.

You will begin to see My glory reside in your presence like the glory cloud of old did for the children of Israel. I will begin to bring forth, like a child from the womb, the Elisha Ministry into the earth to crush the power of the Jezebel spirit.

Take Heed

My prophets will begin to see a pattern change in there vocabulary. For I will breathe a word from My throne that will come forth like a rod in their mouths. This word will not bring forth peace but will bring forth a sword! For I did not come to bring peace but I came to bring a sword to cut asunder between soul and spirit. This cutting will begin to penetrate the very soul of your being. This is the day where My prophets will begin to declare righteousness and holiness back into the earth. For I will cause My prophets to begin speaking into the lives of individuals in governmental positions and those that hold power over nations.

Those From The Fire

I am moving suddenly and quickly to establish My kingdom in the four corners of the earth. For I would say there shall be a violent people arising in the midst of My church. A people that will put AIDS to flight. For as you see many deadly diseases arise; I will call out those from the fire of tribulation and give them an impartation to combat the spirit of infirmity that the world has never seen before.

Mysteries are Beginning To Unfold To Us

I will cause My prophets to speak mysteries beyond the natural understanding of man and My sons and daughters to possess My mind again. Yes, says the Lord, My day is at hand! Even as the man of old stretched forth his hand to be made whole again. I will begin to stretch forth My hand into the earth and unfold purpose and success to My people that will bring divine healing to there instabilities.

Global Move Upon The Internet

For I am beginning to pour forth My anointing on the Internet and birth forth strategic global plans in My people to reach the masses of those who have not yet heard of Me. Was it not I who said that I would cover the earth with My Word even as the waters cover the sea? You will notice global ministries arising in this day like never before. Passion for the nations will begin to swell up in the hearts of My people. Did I not say that I would give you the nations of the earth as your inheritance? Take note My people that the Lord of the Sabbath is arising. For the process has already begun to gather My harvest in the earth."

You Are Not The Defeated One

Sherie Trahan

My precious children, don’t you know you have a Father that loves you so much that I withhold nothing from you? Don’t you know that it is I who causes you to walk in complete victory in every fiery trial of you life? Am I a God that lies? Does a mother forget to nurse her child? I sent my beloved Son to embrace evil, lies, curses, illness, deception, all forms of rejection, fear, anger and confusion and completed the work at Calvary’s cross so that you will have everything necessary to be the victor, not the defeated.

Thus says the Lord God - your Lord God, that “FEAR IS FALSE EVIDENCE APPEARING REAL!” This fear will destroy and bring utter destruction to you. What you fear you will serve. I am a jealous god and I say unto thee that I WILL have a people that serve Me only. I tell you that there is NOTHING impossible for me that I won’t do for those whose hearts are truly mine. Hear my word today that you are not defeated! Satan is the defeated one. You have not fallen, Satan has. I myself - The Lord God Almighty kicked him out of heaven, stripped him naked, and disarmed him. Yea, I have raised you up, clothed you in robes of fine linen, armed you for battle, crowned you in My glory and given you all authority to conquer and push back the enemy through the name of My Son and through the power of My Holy Sprit.

Listen and you will hear, receive My teaching and My word and not another’s. You are precious to me and I am jealous for your heart. I say unto you this day that Satan has caused some of you to believe the lie that the darkness you are facing will remain dark. I speak to you now - Hear My heart and heed My words for they will bring life to you. For with me there is no hopelessness, for I am the God of all hope. Satan has deceived you into thinking that I have not heard your prayer, that I will not turn your trials around, that I will not speak to you, and that I am far away. I say to you this day that I have heard your cries, and am very near to those with a humble heart. I will turn your turmoil and torment around and all will know that your Father is faithful and true and I keep my promise to My children. I will turn your weeping into joy and all will know that no human flesh could do such mighty wonders, that YEHEW - Jehovah God - The ONE true God is able to scatter your enemies with one blast of My nostrils this day. I say only for you to turn from the lies, doubt and unbelief. Today let go of all bitterness, fear, oppression and know that this thing is from me. I will purify you and raise you up in the midst of your darkness. You shall not be defeated or fail if you TURN your eyes on ME. Embrace the cross for which My Son willingly laid himself down to die that you may rise up and live. Let faith arise in your soul and know that I am an unchanging God and My arm is not short that I cannot save.

My children, I know you are weary and the dark clouds surround you. When you come to the end of yourself and recognize that you cannot overcome or endure any longer on your own arm of flesh, you will then surrender your will under the blood of my Son, THEN you will see victory and receive the answers to which you seek and you WILL hear my voice. I tell you this that I do not delight in the strength of the horse. So turn from your circumstances that hold you in bondage, turn from the lies the enemy has told you, turn from your own understanding. I am the GREAT I AM.

I declare to you this day that I desire to see into your eyes and hear your lovely voice. I desire to reveal the mysteries of my heart. I DO have a plan and a future for you and it is good. So look up to Me and turn your eyes away from the raging storms.

I speak the truth today that some have forsaken spending time with Me, and shifted your time and your heart to another. Look to Me and I will draw you into myself. It is time, yea the time is very short to not let the lies of the enemy and the cares of this life steal you away from My presence any longer. For it is in My presence that you will receive strength for the battles now and afar. I love you with an everlasting love. Come to Me where in my presence every demon has to flea, the darkness turns into light, mourning turns into gladness, and problems vanish. In My presence I will direct you and give you understanding. I will give you wisdom, revelation, and endurance to overcome. I will show you my heart in this that you face and I will fill you with Myself like you've never known possible. Turn to Me with ALL your hearts and I will show you what has separated us. I am gentle, compassionate and longsuffering, not harsh. I sent My Son to bind up your broken hearts, I beseech you to come today and do not be afraid. I will answer! I will help!

I tell you again, that time is short. You must learn to battle and to stand or you will be consumed by the fires. I say to you that these trials you face are not as they seem. I have a greater purpose that you know not of. This is a battle that is not of flesh, yea, as My Word says, it is a battle of wicked rulers and principalities in high places. Turn to Me and I'll drop the scales from your eyes and will train your hands for war and your fingers for battle. I will cause your enemy to scatter and to be no more. I will confuse and confound your enemy and he will raise up for his own destruction. I will cast down every proud thing and lift up the humble.

Turn, do not be consumed, but be purified. Break up the follow ground of your heart and do not be stiff-necked. Wipe away the dross and receive My truth. Put on discernment and recognize error. I will lead you by my right hand and nothing will harm you. For I the Lord take pleasure in My people and will beautify the humble with salvation this day. Trust with an abandoned trust and though you go through the fires, you will not even smell of smoke. You will come through to the other side and you shall not be cast down any longer. You will be My glorious bride clothed in sparkling white garments and we shall finally be together for all eternity.

I PET 2:25 For ye were going astray like sheep; but are now returned unto the Shepherd and Bishop of your souls.

IS 30:15 For thus said the Lord Jehovah, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength.

IS 43:1-3 But now thus saith Jehovah that created thee, O Jacob, and he that formed thee, O Israel: Fear not, for I have redeemed thee; I have called thee by thy name, thou art mine. When thou passest through the waters, I will be with thee; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow thee: when thou walkest through the fire, thou shalt not be burned, neither shall the flame kindle upon thee. For I am Jehovah thy God, the Holy One of Israel, thy Saviour; I have given Egypt as thy ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in thy stead.

Zep 3:17 Jehovah thy God is in the midst of thee, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over thee with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over thee with singing.

You Are Not Rowing Alone!

Judy Bauman

In regard to your prayers: You may feel that you're isolated and in a boat rowing in circles. The enemy has tried to influence you into thinking that you are ineffective and all alone. But take heart! There are others on the boat rowing with you. Even if you can't see them, they are there. God's intercessor's are praying the Father's heart and taking the boat in the same direction. You will reach the same destination because it is He who is directing the boat. The Holy Spirit is with you!

A few years ago I was at a woman's conference, and out of the 9000 women, there was a large group of 900 who had gone to one specific break-out session. It was on prayer and intercession. Just before the speaker took the platform, the Lord spoke to my heart and said, "Look around at this large number of women." I turned around and looked from the front of the room to the back and was surprised to see the room had become totally packed with standing room only. He said, "When you are in your prayer closet, you think you are all alone and that you are only one voice trying to make a difference. You feel like you are not breaking through the darkness and reaching Me. Know that if I have you praying for something I have others praying for the same thing too. So don't feel you are alone - as you are all seated together in Christ right now. When you go home you will feel alone, but you won't be. Understand that if you are the only one who obeys My command to pray, I will hear your voice even if it is the only one speaking My heart. The prayers of the righteous avail much."

I pray this encourages you today!

The Little Girl by the Pool'

Judy Bauman

This vision came to fruition as I was relaxing in my room. We had a swimming pool at our Florida home where I saw this. That whole week I had 'seen' this little girl, but hadn't recognized she was a vision. I would look out at the pool and not see anyone (in the natural) sitting there, so I disregarded it. As I was resting one afternoon, in my mind's eye I saw the girl again. I looked out at the pool and no one was there, but that is when I realized the Lord was trying to reveal something to me. So I shut my eyes and let the Holy Spirit teach me. This is what I saw and heard:

A little girl was sitting on the steps by the side of the swimming pool. In the palm of her left hand she was carefully holding a pile of sand. In her right hand she was meticulously and painstakingly picking one grain of sand at a time between her forefinger and her thumb, and placing it in the pool. She looked so sad and lonely just sitting there dropping the sand into the pool one grain at a time. In the water there was a much smaller pile of sand than the one in her hand. Her sad eyes glanced at me briefly, but she continued to methodically take a grain of sand and drop it into the pool.

As I wondered why she was doing this, I intently watched her sway forward, bent over the warm water with a grain in between her fingers, drop it in the same place as the last, and then lean back again to look up and glance at the pool. The tiny grains of sand were so insignificant that as she dropped them into the pool there was not even the slightest hint of a ripple. With a disappointed look on her face, she would reach back into the mound in her left hand and cautiously pull out another speck of fragmented stone and bend forward once again and toss it in the water. Each time the results were the same.

I heard a voice ask me, "Do you see what she is doing?"

"Yes," I replied, "but I don't understand why is she putting the sand in the pool?"

"The sand is not really sand. The sand is symbolic of things."

"What do you mean?" I asked.

"Each grain of sand represents a possession -- like a dream home or a fulfilling job. The sand can be relationships with different people like a spouse, a lover, a friend, a parent, or a child. It could be a boat or a car, a plane, a yacht, or it could even a pet. The sand is also symbolic of anything a person tries to use or to do to fill a hole in their heart. It could be jewelry, furniture or clothing. It could be food, drugs or alcohol -- or even good deeds or works of charity. There are many things each grain of sand can represent, as numerous as the sand on a beach."

"Well, I still don't understand why she is putting them in the pool." I questioned further.

"The pool is also symbolic. The pool is like a big hole in each person's heart. There is only one way to fill it, and 'things' will never work."

I felt I was beginning to understand. "So you mean each grain of sand is something significant in her life? Is she trying to fill a hole in her heart that she can never fill?"

"That is exactly what she is trying to do. Because each grain can be something that takes much time, effort and expense, she could spend her entire life placing grains of sand in the pool. However, as you can clearly see, when she looks up after dropping the grain of sand in the pool, the water has not even moved. She could even try to take handfuls of sand at a time and throw them into the pool, but she will not ever fill the hole in her heart with things."

The explanation continued, "I show you a pool, as it is easier for you to envision, but the hole in each person's heart is as vast as all the seas on earth put together. No 'thing' can fill the immense void that is in every human soul."

As I pondered this further I concluded that no person wants sand in their pool! I also realized that the pool was already filled -- with water. Water in a pool is there to enjoy, to swim in and to relax. The water is there to bring pleasure. Sand in a pool only brings aggravation. I wondered why she would want to put sand in a pool of refreshing water, and why her thoughts were fixated on the sand and filling the hole her heart that way. The little girl was not enjoying the pool as was intended. She was also frustrated with her inability to control it.

Then I heard, "I Am the only One who can fill that hole, for it is a God-sized hole. I fill the hole with Living Water! I have come to give her life and give it to her in abundance. ... Go tell her!"

Now I clearly understood the meaning of the vision and it is my prayer that it speaks to you too. Jesus is the Living Water and we will only be satisfied when we are full of Him.

The Cat and the Mockingbird

Judy Bauman

RivermistLighthouse1@comcast.net

The cat lay lazily on a warm summer’s day
A peace all around him was there on display
As the mocking bird chattered, scolded and squawked
The cat lay there without a care or a thought

The bird angrily swooped and tried to distract
But the furry little feline did not react.
Louder the bird clamored as he tried to persuade
The cat merely blinked and ignored his charade

"God is that You?" I exclaimed with a start!
The cat ignored my query as he played his part
He lay on the driveway enjoying the sun
Noise all around him the racket he shun

Not that the cat was God you do see,
But his lesson of peace was the missing key.
We let life's distractions lead us astray,
Yet here was a cat not rubbed the wrong way.

Are distractions -- some that even seem right
Merely to keep us from God's perfect sight?
Do things look so fuzzy that we do not see
God’s plans are such that we need not flee?

His plans are often hidden from view
Distractions keep us out of balance too
But if we take life as does this cat
Then we will find peace... and that is a fact!

You Are The Starting Point!

Judy Bauman

Rivermistlighthouse1@comcast.net

This word was spoken to me during worship on Sunday and is humbly submitted for your consideration. For several months I have been sensing a ‘breaking’ coming to the Church (universal). Understand this, it is not something that is going to happen somewhere else. This is going to happen in you. This is going to happen in me. The breaking must start in each of us!

6/5/05

“My heart is grieved at the division in My Church.”

“Striving [for position], gossip, jealousy, and division plague My Body.”

“You cry out to Me to revive the church, but yet I strive and wrestle with you to get you to obey My written Word. Even My Rhema Word is quickly overlooked and forgotten.”

“Do you want revival? YOU ARE THE STARTING POINT! Ask for the breaking to start in you. Ask Me to reveal your areas of weakness and sin. Let Me break you! Let Me cause your heart to break.”

“It is too easy for you to see this in others and forget it is still in you.”

“I Am Holy and I Am not going to strive with you forever. I will not strive with flesh forever. You are My servant and you must not strive.”

“Come to Me all of you who are weary with religion and works, who are called by My name. Rend your hearts, repent and turn away from your sin and I will heal you, your church, your land. Thus says the Lord your God.”

Because of the widespread misuse of this statement, I hesitated to write, “Thus says the Lord your God.” So I stopped and asked the Lord if He really wanted me to end this word in this manner and He said, “Yes, write down, “Thus says the Lord your God.” I tell you this because it is not something I take lightly.

Upon reflection of this word I have become acutely aware of the Lord’s broken heart over His Body’s disunity. We say we want to see people saved, but then we strive with one another. How can this be?

Why would anyone want to become a part of Christ’s Body, when the Body is at war with itself? We need to stop the internal fighting and come into unity by being obedient to God’s Word, His will, and His ways.

Gal 5: 13 For you have been called to live in freedom – not freedom to satisfy your sinful nature, but freedom to serve one another in love. 14 For the whole law can be summed up in this one command: "Love your neighbor as yourself." 15 But if instead of showing love among yourselves you are always biting and devouring one another, watch out! Beware of destroying one another. 16 So I advise you to live according to your new life in the Holy Spirit. Then you won't be doing what your sinful nature craves.

25 If we are living now by the Holy Spirit, let us follow the Holy Spirit's leading in every part of our lives. 26 Let us not become conceited, or irritate one another, or be jealous of one another.

If you would like to pray, let us now go boldly to the Throne of Grace. Father God, we come to You in the matchless and mighty name of Your Son, Jesus. Reveal in us where there is both hidden and known offenses. Reveal the thorns in our hearts and remove them. We know that this cannot be done without repentance, so we willingly repent of holding bitterness and resentment towards our brethren. [Speak specifically to the Father about whom and what has offended you, or whom you have offended.] We ask You, Holy Spirit, to remove the infection that these thorns have caused, and for You to apply Your healing Balm of Gilead to these wounds. Break our hearts of stone! Graft the skin of Your heart over our hearts, Lord, so that what is imperative to You will be transplanted into us. May areas of weakness become areas of strength and unity. Let us cast our care upon You, for You care for us. Vengeance is Yours, not ours. Let us be reconciled to You and to one another! Let us cry to You, “Not my will, but Your will be done, Father!” Amen

Psalm 133:1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!

In His great love,
Judy

Just wait on him, trust in him and he will see u thru. Remember he is fighting your battle. Shalom

Your Fruit Is Fully Ripe

Judy Curmi

11-9-2005

I received this message almost two weeks after rioting begun by North African immigrants rocked the whole of the French countryside with violence. Cars, busses and buildings burned in the fiery milieu.

Those who fight against me have no idea whom they are dealing with. I am not a weak and wimpy God. I am not weak kneed. I am not a patsy you can push around at will. I AM the Great I AM, the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and Ending of all things. Without me man would cease to exist. The earth would cease to exist. Even the universe itself would cease to exist!

I have given man plenty of time to change his ways and repent. I have given plenty of time for restoring that which man has broken, but instead, man's rebellion against me continues to harden.

As it was in the days of Noah so it is again. The earth is full of violence and the earth is full of wickedness.* The good is mocked and evil is elevated and idolized.

Your fruit is now fully ripe, Oh earth, and you have begun to eat of it. It is not from the Tree of Life, because you have rejected my teachings and my life. You have chosen death and destruction instead, so this is what you will receive.

Every tree bears fruit of its own kind in its season and the season for eating is here. I have proclaimed it. Your fruit stands as a testament or a testimony to what you have chosen to replace MY Truth. The birth pangs have begun and will continue to intensify. Your King is coming and you are not ready, Oh earth!

Daddy

Gen. 6:11-13 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence. So God looked upon the earth, and indeed it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted their way on the earth. And God said to Noah, "The end of all flesh has come before Me, for the earth is filled with violence through them; and behold, I will destroy them from the earth."* [NKJ]

Prov. 10:16 The labor of the righteous tends to life; the harvest of the wicked to sin.*

Isa. 3:10-11 Say to the righteous that it shall be well with them; for they shall eat of the fruit of their doings. Woe to the wicked! It shall be ill with him, for the reward of his hands shall be given him.

Jer. 17:10 I the Lord search the heart and try the reins, and give every man according to his ways and according to the fruits of his doings.

Jer. 32:19 Great in counsel and mighty in work, whose eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men, to give everyone according to his ways and according to the fruit of his doings.

Your Manna-Fest Destiny

Danny Korakas

Jun 25, 2005

SCRIPTURE VERSE

I have read and heard many wonderful teachings on the revelatory significance of "Manna." The word "manna" is primarily an Old Testament word or symbol associated with the Lord's provision and one of three items that were placed within the Ark of God's presence. Today, you and I are the fulfillment of the ark that carries the presence and Spirit of God in fulfilling His purposes in the earth. The Lord in His great majesty and power has incredibly chosen man for the most part to work through in touching the lives of humanity. This is why it is essential that we understand that our relationships with each other is a true reflection of our relationship with God. The most awesome judgment that I can find in scripture (Matthew 25) other than the Apocalypse will center and focus not so much on what we "did", (the sin of commission) but what we "didn't" (the sin of ommision. How we met the emotional and physical needs of each other and those in need will be laid out and proclaimed from the rooftops.

Destruction and even death occurred when the Ark of God's presence was carried upon the work and creation of man's hands (an ox drawn cart). The Lord designed that His presence be carried upon the shoulders of those called to the priesthood of all believers. (You and I – the creation of His hand). The commandments held within the Ark represent the fruit of obedience to God's Word in the life of a born again believer. The Staff or rod of Aaron represents the authority and power of God that He has empowered us with through the infilling of His Holy Spirit. What is locked within the jar of "manna" is what I believe has been overlooked and holds a prophetic key to an abundant and victorious life.

First of all, we know that the manna "came" from heaven. Those who choose to walk with God, whether we are in a season of doubt, trial, or even suffering -- The Lord has promised to always supply us our daily BREAD. As a believer in Christ you have this eternal promise of nourishment to meet both of your natural and spiritual needs.

Therefore, I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat or what you will drink; not about your body and what you will put on...Look at the birds of the air, for they neither sow or reap nor gather into barns; yet your heavenly father feeds them. Are you not of more value than they? So why do you worry about clothing? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow...Now if God so clothes the grass of the field, which today is, and tomorrow is thrown in the oven, will He not much more clothe you...For all these things the Gentiles seek. For your heavenly Father knows that you need all these things. But seek first the kingdom of God and His righteousness, and all these things shall be added to you." (Matthew 6:25-34 abbrev.)

Likewise, Jesus, the bread or manna of life "came" from heaven to be our source of health and healing – naturally, emotionally, and spiritually. You are not reading this by accident. Whatever your needs are this day, whether it be provision of food, shelter, companionship (Lonliness is rampant in the body of Christ. I pray that this message will be a source of hope and confirmation that the Lord is drawing you ever closer to your covenant partner or even restoring your marriage to Christ centered intimacy), and finances in general – Your Father has promised to provide you the means of an abundant and fulfilling life from heaven. He gave the best that heaven could offer in His very own, our Lord Jesus Christ to pay the price of your needs. It only requires a mustard seed of faith and a commitment to live a life worthy of that price.

This means that we have a RESPONSIBLE part to play if we are to receive God's best for an abundant life. For instance, many have preached, taught, and received that if you just sow a "seed offering" in faith…The lord will "open up the windows of heaven and pour you out a blessing." However, the Bible also states that if we are LAZY, both naturally and spiritually – We will go hungry and be in need or want. It requires both faith in God's Word and promises, and also a responsible and well stewarded lifestyle (according to God's Word) on our part.

The manna also "came" at night. Although the desert nights were cold and dark, God's people could rest assured that the manna from heaven would be there in morning. At least 12 million pints of manna everyday would be waiting for the children of Israel at the start of each day. This paints us a picture of the abundance that is in Jesus Christ. The fires of revival and the tremendous growth of the church in third world countries is fanned by a people who are RELIANT upon the Lord for their very existence. It is within reliant faith that the Lord provides the greatest and most abundant of all gifts to mankind – eternal life or the salvation of our family members and neighbors souls in the night-time hours of their lives.

"Our fathers ate manna in the desert; as it is written, 'He gave them bread from heaven.'" Then Jesus said to them, "Most assuredly, I say to you, Moses did not give you bread from heaven, but My Father gives you the true bread from heaven. For the bread of God is He who comes down from heaven and gives life to the world."

Likewise, Jesus "came" as a gift from heaven at night in the small town of Bethlehem. Jesus – The Light of the world came to expose the works of darkness in the world and in our own individual lives. An essential ingredient to living an abundant and prosperous life is allowing the light of God's truth to invade the dark or night-time areas of our own heart. True and genuine humility, and the power of grace moves through our lives when we allow the Lord to draw to the surface the dark areas that we hide in the recesses of our soul.

Sanctification hinges upon our "willingness" to allow the Lord to shine the light of His love upon the dark and hidden areas of our heart. Our willingness to move into righteous obedience and to have a teachable spirit is proportionate to our willingness of allowing our hidden sins to surface for the purpose of healing and forgiveness. Human nature from the very beginning in the Garden of Eden, was to run, cover, and hide from the Lord in our shame and guilt of being exposed. The Lord is truly faithful to forgive us if we confess our sins and shortcomings with an exposed heart.

In my own life, I went for years hiding the embarrassment of my past. I always presented a spiritual front that portrayed no weakness or hurt. The truth is that I was simply hiding years of rejection and did my best to be affirmed and approved by man rather than resting in my position and acceptance as a son of the Father. I have found freedom and an increased anointing in allowing the Lord to use my weaknesses and willingness to be more transparent. I have also found healing and deliverance by not walking away from the mirror of who I really am and my willingness to expose my struggles and shortcomings to His light and even others.

The manna from heaven was provided to a people who were walking in a wilderness experience. The children of Israel were delivered from the bondage of oppression and were set on course through the wilderness to a promised land that flowed with provision and abundance. A prophetic declaration and promise of an abundant life was prophesied through the prophet Moses. Once again, I must stress "our" part that we must possess and act upon if we are to live in the fullness of God promises of an abundant life.

At least 2 million people received the prophetic word and promise of an abundant life flowing with milk and honey. However, this Word only came to pass and was experienced in the lifetime of two men (Joshua and Caleb). We could say that this Word had a "two in a million" chance of happening at the time it was proclaimed. The Word was for all 2 million. But only two men "really" believed God's Word and promises. If you are in a wilderness place – whether it's natural, financial, emotional, or spiritual; our Father desires to meet you and provide manna from heaven to sustain you if you will simply believe. Like the children of Israel, we are pilgrims or aliens passing through the wilderness of a sin soaked and stained world. The Lord desires that today would be the day that you allow Him to lead you by a pillar of fire by night and the cloud of His glory by day. It is by His Spirit that moves and guides us toward our "promised" land that soon awaits us.

As the bread of life, Jesus was led into a wilderness experience as well. It was here that the battle of temptation became a source of tremendous victory and an eternal testimony of the power of God's Word. It is no mistake that Satan would "first" tempt Jesus with turning the stone into "bread." However, the "real" first temptation in the wilderness was very subtle and the same one that the enemy attempts to pulls us down with today: "If you are the Son of God…" If the enemy gets us to doubt this, we, like the unbelieving and doubting children of Israel, forfeit our inheritance as children of God. If you are in a wilderness place in your life; the Lord has already given us the armor and weapon for success – His Word and a birthright to it!

The manna "came" to Jews (God's people). The Lord, in His love and care for His people would provide for their needs on a daily basis. Those who followed the Lord would receive clothes, shoes, shelters and nutrition that would never wear old or spoil. It was only when the people (yes, God's people) began to complain and rebel did the Lord's best for abundant life become a shade of grey in their sight.

The Lord in His mercy and compassion would hold true to His Word and provide for their daily basic needs. However, the promise of God's best would never be realized in their generation because of their constant complaining, criticism, backbiting, and unbelief. I believe that the Joshua's and Caleb's (an older generation) are arising to lead a younger and prophetic generation into their promised inheritance by the example of unwavering FAITH and the power of God's Spirit exhibited in their lives.

The Bible says that you and I are Jews inwardly and that we have been grafted in as God's children and a people called by His name. Jesus is still coming to us as His people. The manna of the Old Covenant sustained and nourished a living people from dying. Jesus, the bread from heaven came to us when we were dead to give us life. Those who ate the manna of old died in their wilderness season. Those of us who partake of the bread of life will live forever.

And finally, the manna "came" to where they were. It didn't matter where the people were on their journey through their wilderness experience - The Lord's provision would never fail to "manna"fest.

"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears My voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him, and he with Me." (Revelation 3:20)

If you are in a wilderness place or have tremendous needs, I want you to know that I have already prayed for you and I am believing with you that in the morning a new day will shine forth with the glory of God's provision upon you to meet your every need. God sent Jesus Christ, the Bread of Life to meet all of our every need. If you do not know Jesus Christ as your Lord and Savior, Please say this simple prayer and you will experience the eternal and abundant life of salvation through Jesus Christ. You will also have the love of a God and Father who cares deeply for your every need and well-being.

Lord Jesus, I ask you to come into my life this day to be my Lord and Savior. Please forgive me of my sins and trying to walk through life in my own strength. Lord, fill me with your Spirit and empower me to live a life that will make a difference in the lives of others by the example I now choose to live. Lord, I surrender all, and give you control of my life from this day. In Jesus name, Amen.

Please e mail us if you would like to talk more about the abundant and eternal life in Jesus Christ -- The "Bread of Life."

You Faced The Devils Now Enter New Levels

Carla Rickard

2004-12-27

You have heard it said that when I bring you to new levels you must face new devils. In 2004 I promised you more, and you did have more. You were faced with great challenges that tested your faith. You were tried and found faithful. Those who did not faint although there was much trouble and adversity, you will be reaping the rewards of your faith in this coming year of Grace. This is not true of all, but to those who have been obedient to Me. Those who would not let go of the vision. You have become Israel. You have struggled with both God and man and you have prevailed. Now it is time to begin to receive the blessing that was spoken into you.

The year 2004 was a time wherein I created within you a new heart. You were faced with ME recreating My image in you. You were faced with overcoming all those false thoughts of who you were according to the sayings of your families, your churches, and your friends. You came into a greater understanding of who you are In Me and although you looked bad to others for many reasons, you never left Me for long. You examined yourselves and found that you were wanting. You came to me in humbleness and asked me to change you. You received more than you thought you could handle. At times it seemed that you would lose faith altogether, but I knew you. I knew that you would examine yourself in the midst of the shaking. You found out what was of vain imagination, and what was Truth. You now are ready to move on from Creation to being Blessing.

There were many things that you had sown in 2004 that you are unaware of at this moment. You will see the reaping of those seeds in 2005. To those who have said, even if God doesn’t deliver me, I will still worship God: I tell you I walk through the fires with you and you will not be harmed. I HAVE walked through those fires with you. The plan has been established. Set your face like flint and act as I tell you for your will have your deliverance. You will have those things which I promised you. I AM FAITHFUL.

Many of you are now understanding what it means to be called You are now understanding that it is more blessed to give than to receive. For it is more blessed to give ME your problems than to receive them. It is more blessed for you to give up rather than to give in! For you will reap Peace for your mind and Body. There are many ways to give and you have discovered through Me those ways which are not your ways.

To those who were not obedient in 2004, fear not, for I will use what the enemy intended for harm and turn it to your advantage. I AM always willing to show forth mercy. You have been given another chance to be obedient. I know your heart breaks within you because you desired obedience but failed in attaining it. So now will you let go of your religion and let me lead you by my Peace? Will you NOW REST in me and let me lead you by the still waters? In your striving to obey, you have failed to obey for you did so by works without faith, and some by faith without works. You deserve nothing but I have provided everything. You cannot work you way into the arms of God, it must be because you desire me because you have known Me and My Ways. Use the lessons of 2004 to enter of time of spiritual blessing which shall strengthen you. Those areas you failed in last year, you will abound in this year if you will cease to strive and to only listen and obey without pomp and glamour. Look for your reward from me. If you are actively willing, I will turn this around for you and get you to the next level, but you must be prepared for the trial by fire this time. You must stay in the knowledge that my Grace is sufficient for you.

Boldness, Courage And Confidence
Carla Rickard

December 21 2004
Scripture taken from Amplified

Psalm 138:3
When I called, you answered me; you made me bold and stouthearted.

Proverbs 28:1
The wicked man flees though no one pursues, but the righteous are as bold as a lion.

2 Corinthians 3:12
Therefore, since we have such a hope, we are very bold.

Proverbs 14:26
[26]In the reverent and worshipful fear of the Lord there is strong confidence, and His children shall always have a place of refuge.

Hebrews 13:6
[6]So we take comfort and are encouraged and confidently and boldly say, The Lord is my Helper; I will not be seized with alarm [I will not fear or dread or be terrified]. What can man do to me?

Bold means fearless and daring. It is not another word for arrogance. For to be fearless and daring implies there must be danger of some form present! There must be a real or perceived risk for one to assume to be fearless and daring. If there is no danger, there needs to be no boldness.

Often times courage and confidence is exchanged for the word bold in scripture. Courage means : a quality of spirit that enables you to face danger of pain without showing fear

Courage is the ability to confront fear in the face of pain, danger, uncertainty or intimidation. As stated in the encyclopedia. In many New Testament scripture the Lord spoke against those who were cowards.

Revelation 21:8
But as for the cowards and the ignoble and the contemptible and the cravenly lacking in courage and the cowardly submissive, and as for the unbelieving and faithless, and as for the depraved and defiled with abominations, and as for murderers and the lewd and adulterous and the practicers of magic arts and the idolaters (those who give supreme devotion to anyone or anything other than God) and all liars (those who knowingly convey untruth by word or deed)--[all of these shall have] their part in the lake that blazes with fire and brimstone. This is the second death. [Isa 30:33]

I thought this subject would be good to cover right now, mostly for my own learning as I have recently been experiencing a boldness like I have never experienced in a very long time. It's a boldness which speaks " no turning back"; it speaks, " I'm not putting up with lies and games". At first this newness of being bold concerned me as I thought perhaps I was losing my ability to remain patience and steadfast. When I began to consider it more closely, I realized that it is the Holy Spirit within me that is rising up and taking control of a situation wherein the enemy may have put a stumbling block in front of me. What I find most interesting, and I am sure that the reader will as well, is before this boldness took form, I was struggling with the desire to faint. As we seen the scripture quoted from Revelations, that is not what the Lord would have us do!

Have you ever felt like you don't have the time or desire to play children's games? This is likely due to the fact that you are maturing in the Lord. I believe that Paul reached this stage in his maturing as a Christian. He said,

1 Corinthians 13:11
When I was a child, I talked like a child, I thought like a child, I reasoned like a child; now that I have become a man, I am done with childish ways and have put them aside.

A child will remain in an argument until he gets his way. A child will pout when he is denied his desire. A child will use emotional manipulation to get his need or desire met. This is not boldness but rather tactics. Boldness comes with knowing our authority and most of all the Love of God which is shed abroad in our hearts. Boldness requires that we face down anything that threatens us without showing fear. Not as a bully would, but as someone who is confident in the Lord taking care of us. The battle is the Lord's. If the Lord is for us , who can be against us?

When do we lose confidence in the Lord not taking care of our problems? This usually occurs when we are too sin conscious. We must confess our sin. Yet the Word says that when we do so, He is faithful and just to forgive us our sin! Knowing His love for us produces boldness!

Ephesians 3:17
May Christ through your faith [actually] dwell (settle down, abide, make His permanent home) in your hearts! May you be rooted deep in love and founded securely on love,

Therefore we should OPERATE in boldness at all times. Boldness tells the enemy " BACK OFF". Boldness tells sickness " OUT OF MY HOUSE NOW". Boldness works together with authority. For when fear is present, it is boldness that must respond!

Some believe that boldness is shouting, yelling, screaming, etc. However God's kind of boldness is one such as found in Jacob.

Genesis 32
[24]And Jacob was left alone, and a Man wrestled with him until daybreak.
[25]And when [the Man] saw that He did not prevail against [Jacob], He touched the hollow of his thigh; and Jacob's thigh was put out of joint as he wrestled with Him.
[26]Then He said, Let Me go, for day is breaking. But [Jacob] said, I will not let You go unless You declare a blessing upon me.
[27][The Man] asked him, What is your name? And [in shock of realization, whispering] he said, Jacob [supplanter, schemer, trickster, swindler]!
[28]And He said, Your name shall be called no more Jacob [supplanter], but Israel [contender with God]; for you have contended and have power with God and with men and have prevailed.
[29]Then Jacob asked Him, Tell me, I pray You, what [in contrast] is Your name? But He said, Why is it that you ask My name? And [the Angel of God declared] a blessing on [Jacob] there.

Boldness is not letting go of the Truth. Boldness IS steadfastness. It is not about an emotional reaction. Its about “ standing” fearlessly against the pressure to bend other wise. It is not about being rude. It is about being decided, determined, settled with the issue.

Sometimes emotions will seem to rise up with boldness as the gas needed to be taken seriously. However emotions are not the source of boldness. The source of boldness is the Truth of God. Knowing that you know that you know, will produce this boldness. Knowing you are to be and are, dead center in the will of God will produce this boldness.

Ephesians 5:17
Therefore do not be vague and thoughtless and foolish, but understanding and firmly grasping what the will of the Lord is Nothing and no one will deter you. You will not need to convince others of your conviction, for the purpose of boldness is to bulldoze down all those obstacles that are places in your way. Faith is the fore runner of Boldness. Once faith is established it must then incubate until boldness is birthed to get the job done.

Boldness is the took needed to overcome factors of fear such as intimidation, rejection, physical and emotional danger of all types and sorts. Fear paralyzes, boldness energizes!

The Lord has not called us to be cowards. The Lord has called us to be bold. For the Lord fears nothing, for the spirit of fear does not come from God!

May the Lord increase you in boldness, teaching you all things through His Spirit who knows all things.

Your Hour Is Now

Luz Cintron

This is for the people who have been at the end of the line for a long time. They have always stepped back so that others may get blessed, they have interceded for others even laying aside their own needs, they have pushed forth the kingdom until they feel they had no strength left. They have given without expecting and they have embraced loss for the love of Christ when they could have won. They are well seasoned believers mainly intercessors that have placed themselves on the gap without romanticizing what that means, paying the price in silence and obscurity. To those I speak today in the name of Abba.

This is what He says to you. "Your hour is now and not a minute later. I have seen, I have heard, I have noticed. You are established in a place that no one can take away from you because you have persevered without expecting rewards." Listen to what He says, "I am your shield and your great reward." Remain humble because His glory is about to pass your way and all that is lifted in the land will be brought to naught. Your day of visitation will be in consolations and strength." Lift up your head, you are beloved and His love waves upon you as a banner through the battles you have endured. He sees, He knows and He beholds your history with Him as precious, holy you are unto Him, for Him you are holy because you have become His treasure. You are Beulah unto Him. (Isa 62:4) An increase in discernment is being assigned to you, Remain in the heart of the Lord.

Your Hour Of Triumph

Father is there something you would say to the church in this hour?

Rise up church! Rise up in My Might and My Power. Never allow the enemy to see you defeated. You have ALL power and authority to overcome the enemy at every turn. Now is the hour and the time to use the authority I have given you Church to rise above the ash heap and conquer on all sides. Now is the time of My complete Glory to be seen throughout the earth through My church. Church, you are victorious. Go forth as that victorious church. My Holy Angels have been given charge over thee and they shall come to your assistance and they shall prevail.

Kingdom shall rise against kingdom, but My church will be the victorious one. She shall go forward clothed in My glory and My honor and she shall prevail at every turn. This is your hour of triumph children, walk yea in it. For I am the creator of all things and I have created you for such a time as this.

Many shall walk the path of righteousness at this given time and many shall call upon the name of the Lord and many shall see My Glory being shed abroad all across the land. You church, you rise up and you spread this Glory for Me, for I have a great and mighty works for you to do at this given hour. Oh, you shall be victorious and you shall go forth with the joy of the Lord and you shall slay the giants in the land and you shall know what it is to wield the sword and come forth more than a conqueror.

The enemy has had his day, but now it is the day of the church arising up out of the ash heap and revealing the Glory of the Lord to a lost and dying land. You shall eat of the honey and you shall drink of the living waters. Go forth church! Go forth and conquer on all sides.

You Have Turned A Corner

You Have Turned A Corner! Now Is The Time!

BIBLE: Genesis 19: 17
17 When they had them outside, Lot was told, "Now run for your life! Don't look back! Don't stop anywhere on the plain--run for the hills or you'll be swept away."

Isaiah 41: 17
17 "The poor and homeless are desperate for water, their tongues parched and no water to be found. But I'm there to be found, I'm there for them, and I, God of Israel, will not leave them thirsty.

Isaiah 32: 17-19
17 And where there's Right, there'll be Peace and the progeny of Right: quiet lives and endless trust. 18 My people will live in a peaceful neighbourhood-- in safe houses, in quiet gardens. 19 The forest of your pride will be clear-cut, the city showing off your power levelled.

John 17: 1
1 Jesus said these things. Then, raising his eyes in prayer, he said: Father, it's time. Display the bright splendour of your Son So the Son in turn may show your bright splendour.

YOU HAVE TURNED A CORNER!

"Beloved ones, know that now, from this day, you have turned a corner! You have heard of the day coming, of a new day, a day where My life, and My grace and power will flow and overflow in the lives of those who are called after My name. It is a day in which YOU HAVE TURNED A CORNER!

"Beloved you need to grasp the reality of "turning a corner"! Many in My Kingdom have been looking back as far as their heart can see! They see the failures! They see the pain and the sorrow in their wake! They see the rejection! They see the brokenness! They see the heartache of their past! All of this holds them back from fully embracing the "NEW DAY" and the "NEW PLACE" I am placing them into!

"When you "TURN A CORNER" you cannot look back other than to the place where which you have just turned. When you look back, ALL you see is that corner where you turned. All you see in the spirit is that place where you had that encounter in Me, where you turned a corner in the spirit. When you turn a corner, you can only see as far as that corner! You cannot go any farther back!

"Now beloved, forsake that which has held you back! Forsake the pain and the sorrow and the anguish! Don't become paralyzed by your past, but bring it to My feet, and let it go! Turn the corner on that which has held you back from your destiny in Me!

"I declare over you! I declare that you have now, by faith, "TURNED A CORNER"! You have removed yourself from the bondage of the past! You have embraced the present, the TURNING, to now embrace a fresh new future in Me! Come beloved ones, "TURN THE CORNER"! Move into that place I have for you!

NOW IS THE TIME!

"Beloved ones, "NOW IS THE TIME"! The Son spoke to the Father and said, "Father, it's time. Display the bright splendour of your Son So the Son in turn may show your bright splendour."

"The Father desires to display the splendour of the glory of the Son in the Son's Bride! He desires to see Son manifest in those who are called by His name! "NOW IS THE TIME"! beloved ones! NOW IS THE TIME!

"The Father desires to see the coming of all things together for the advancement of the Kingdom in your hearts, lives, and communities! You must seize the moment!

HARMONY OF THE HEART OF THE FATHER WITH THE SAINTS

"There is a DIVINE HARMONY and UNION of hearts and minds taking place in the Kingdom! There is now a great realization of the TIME and SEASON that the Body is in harmony with the heart of the Father!

"Embrace this moment! TURN THE CORNER! IT IS TIME! COME IN ALIGNMENT AND HARMONY with the heart of the Father! Come beloved! Come unto Me! Embrace Me! Embrace your destiny!"

You Have the Advantage

Terry Suggs

No matter what situation brings, you still have the advantage. The Lord Jesus has give us His Word that all things will work together for our good. Things that look like a disaster, and things that make us feel terrible, and hopeless and lost for a solution will work together for our good.

They make us come to God. God is the single source of all of our needs.

God heard us pray the prayers we prayed today before we were born. He has heard your cry for help before you were born. God is in the eternal realm that covers the past presence and future.

There is already an answer and the help you need to handle your situation.

You won’t see or feel it in the natural. You have live by faith. Faith says that God shall supply all of my needs according to His riches in glory. Faith says that No weapon that is formed against me shall prosper. Faith says that by His stripes I am made whole. Faith says that I am made righteous and accepted by God through Christ Jesus.

The one called satan is a liar and a deceiver, no matter what was said about you or what has happened to you.

Your earthly record is what you have done and are doing in this world. The new creature that you are is perfected and completed in Christ Jesus. God has great plans for your life that He has created for you and you alone.

He knows where you are now. He knows every thought that you will think from the beginning of your life until the end of this earthly life.

He knows how many hairs are on your head.

Some things that happen to us are to bring chaos to separate us from the thing that may stand between us and God.

Now you must know that every Christian is a city set upon a hill, and it cannot be hid. The light of the world is you in Christ. The Lord said that you are peculiar and Holy (separate from the common) royal.

You work and live out of your spiritual life which is an extension of Christ Himself.

You have the victory!

Your prayers are heard through the perfect blood of Jesus. God sees you through the perfect God blood of Jesus. You are in the family. You are a true son and daughter.

There is nothing between us to separate us from God. Jesus was the One that sealed our relationship with God the Father.

He will not hold anything back. You have the greatest parent in the universe and so much more.

God says that you are engraved on the palms of His hands.

There is no changing His mind about you, He loves you with an everlasting love. Don’t become anxious and don’t worry. He sees you. Come to God with your uncertainty, with your doubts, fears, anger, frustration, pain, and guilt, and He will cleanse and help you. He doesn’t want you to run the other way.

Your Inheritance is Available Now
Terry Suggs

The word inherit means: to receive from a person by legal succession or will. To receive genetically from an ancestor.

Property can be passed down as an inheritance. Something handed on from past generations or legacy. To accept as true and correct, to fulfill or obtain.

Galatians 4:1-7
Now what I mean is that as long as the inheritor (heir) is a child and under age , he does not differ from a slave, although he is master (lord) of all the estate; You are lord of all with Christ, the Lord of lords.
But he is under guardians and administrators or trustees until the date fixed by his father.
So we also when were minors, were kept like slaves under the rules of the Hebrew ritual and subject to the elementary teachings of a system of external observations and regulations.
But when the proper time had fully come, God sent His Son, born of a woman, subject to the regulations of the Law.
To purchase the freedom of (to ransom, to redeem, to atone for) those who were subject to the Law, that we might be adopted and have sonship conferred upon us (and be recognized as God’s sons).
And because you really are His sons, God has sent the Holy Spirit of His Son into our hearts, crying, Abba or Father!
Therefore you are no longer a slave (a bond servant) but a son; and if a son then it follows that you are an heir (an equal heir or co-owner, a co-ruler) by the aid of God, through Christ.

I John 5:13-15
I write this to you who believe in (adhere to, trust in , and rely on) the name of the Son of God (in peculiar services and blessings conferred by Him on men), so that you may know (with settled and absolute knowledge) that you already have life, yes eternal life.
And this is the confidence (the assurance, the privilege of boldness) which we have in Him: (we are sure) that if we ask anything (make any request) according to His Own plan (His last will and testament, His final written and spoken will for us the benefactors), He listens to and hears us.
And if (since) we (positively) know that He listens to us in whatever (anything, that covers anything), we ask, we also know (with settled and absolute knowledge) that we have (granted us as our present possessions) the requests made of Him.

He hears us through the God blood type of Christ Jesus. The blood that is uncorrupt and perfect and sinless.

Hebrews 2:11-12
For both He Who sanctifies (making men Holy) and those who are sanctified all have one Father. For this reason He is not ashamed to call them brethren;
For He says, I will declare Your (the Father’s) name to My brethren; in the midst of the (worshiping) congregation I will sing hymns of praise to You.

You are a brother of Jesus through His blood.

John 17:22-23
I have given to them the glory and honor which You have given Me, that they may be one (even) as We are One: I in them and You in Me, in order that they may become one and perfectly united, that the world may know and (definitely) recognize that You sent Me and that You have loved them (even) as You have loved Me.

Philippians 3:20-21
But we are citizens of the state (commonwealth, homeland) which is in heaven, from it also we earnestly and patiently await (the coming of) the Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah) (as) Savior,

Who will transform and fashion anew the body of our humiliation to conform to and be like the body of His glory and majesty, by exerting that power which enables Him even to subject everything to Himself.

Galatians 3:8-9
And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify (declare righteous, put in right standing with Himself) the Gentiles in consequence of faith, proclaimed the Gospel (foretelling the glad tidings of a Savior long beforehand) to Abraham in the promise, saying, In you shall all the nations of the earth be blessed.

BLESSED MEANS:

To Honor, to make Holy, to sanctify, to help, to call divine favor upon, to confer well being or prosperity upon, to prefer and hold in superior regard, to bestow an act of kindness upon, to approve.

Galatians 3:18-19
For in the inheritance (of the promise depends on observing) the Law (as these false teachers would like you to believe), it no longer (depends) on the promise; however, God gave it to Abraham (as a free gift solely) by virtue of His promise.
So then, those who are people of faith are blessed and made happy and favored by God (as partners in fellowship) with the believing and trusting Abraham.

Acts 17:28

For in Him we live and move and have our being; as even some of you own poets have said, for we are also His offspring.

Ephesians 1:3, 5-6, 7-8, 11

May blessing (praise, laudation, and eulogy) be to the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ (the Messiah) Who has blessed us (already done, already completed the bestowment of favor) in Christ Jesus with every (every, all the total number of blessing we have allotted to us) (given by the Holy Spirit) blessing in the heavenly realm!
For He foreordained us (destined us, planned in love for us) to be adopted (revealed) as His Own children through Jesus Christ, in accordance with the purpose of His will (because it pleased Him and was His kind intent-
So that we might be to the praise and the commendation of His glorious grace (favor and mercy), which HE so freely bestowed on us in the Beloved. (The family membership of God Almighty).
In Him we have redemption (deliverance and salvation) through His blood, the remission (forgiveness) of our offenses (shortcomings and trespasses), in accordance with the riches and the generosity of His gracious favor,
Which He lavished upon us in every kind of wisdom and understanding (practical insight and prudence),
In Him we also were made (God’s) heritage (portion) and we obtained an inheritance; for we had been foreordained (chosen and appointed beforehand) in accordance with His purpose, Who works out everything in agreement with the counsel and design of His (Own) will,

Colossians 3:24
Knowing (with all certainty) that it is from the Lord (and not from men) that you will receive (and have received) the inheritance which is your (real) reward. (The One Whom) you are actually serving (is) the Lord Christ (The Messiah).

I Peter 1:3-6
Praise (honored, blessed) be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ (The Messiah)! By His boundless mercy we have been born again to an ever-living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

Born anew into an inheritance which is beyond the reach of change and decay (imperishable), unsullied and unfading, reserved in heaven for you.
Who are being garrisoned by God's power through your faith (till you fully inherit that final) salvation that is ready to be revealed (for you) in the last time.
You should be exceedingly glad on this account, though now for a little while you may be distressed by trials and suffer temptations.

John 8:36
So if the Son liberates you (makes you free men), then you are really and unquestionably free.

Galatians 3:26, 29
For in Christ Jesus you are all sons of God through faith.
And if you belong to Christ (are in Him Who is Abraham's Seed), then you are Abraham's offspring and (spiritual) heirs according to promise. You have the same inheritance as Jesus as well as Abraham. You have all the same benefits and the right standing of the Lord Jesus Himself.

Jesus Is The King of kings (us), and the Lord of lords (us).

Genesis 17:2, 6
And I will make My covenant (solemn pledge) between Me and You and will multiply you exceedingly.
And I will make you exceedingly fruitful and I will make nations of you, and kings will come from you.

Genesis 18:17-18

And the Lord said, shall I hide from Abraham (My friend and servant) what I Am going to do
Since Abraham shall surely become a great and mighty, nation and all the nations (all, all the nations) of the earth shall be blessed through him and shall bless themselves by him?

Philippians 4:6, 19
Do not fret or have any anxiety about anything, but in every circumstance and in everything, by prayer and petition (definite requests), with thanksgiving, continue to make your wants known to God.
And my God will liberally supply (fill to the full) your every need according to His riches in glory in Christ Jesus.

According to the standard of God's riches which are far beyond the standard of man's estimation of riches. God's standard and measures are much greater and more glorious than man's standards. There is a no comparison.

II Corinthians 1:20
For as many as are the promises of God, they all find their Yes (answer) in Him (Christ). For this reason we also utter the Amen (so be it done or accomplished) to God through Him (in His Person and by His agency) to the glory of God.

Job 22:28
One of God greatest promises to us as heirs with Jesus is this one:

You shall also decree a thing, and it shall be established for you; and the light of God's favor shall shine upon your ways.

The word decree means:

An authoritative order having legal force, (when a king makes a decree, it becomes law),

It means to establish, to ordain, to set, to decide, to divide, a judicial judgment, to set in a secure position, to found, to create, to prove, to cause to be recognized or accepted, to fix, to hold in place, to settle, to set a direction of a thing.

Hebrews 11:1
Now faith is the assurance (the confirmation, (the title deed) of the things we hope for, being the proof of things we do not see with the physical eye and the conviction of their (faith perceiving as real fact what is not revealed to the senses.

Hebrews 6:17-18
Accordingly God also, in His desire to show more convincingly and beyond doubt to those who were to inherit the promise the unchangeableness of His purpose and plan, intervened (mediated) with an oath.
This was so that, by two unchangeable things (His promise and His oath) in which it is impossible for God ever to prove false or deceive us, we who have fled (to Him) for refuge might have mighty indwelling strength and strong encouragement to grasp and hold fast the hope appointed for us and set before us.

II Timothy 2:13
If we are faithless (do not believe and are untrue to Him), He remains true (faithful to His word and His righteous character), for He cannot deny Himself.

John 10:35
So men are called gods (by the Law), men to whom God's message came-and the Scripture cannot be set aside of cancelled or broken or annulled.

Romans 4:16-17
Therefore, inheriting the promise is the outcome of faith and depends entirely on faith in order that it might be given as an act of grace (unmerited favor), to make it stable and valid and guaranteed to all his descendents- not only to the devotees and adherents of the Law, but also to those who share the faith of Abraham, who is thus the father of us all.
As it is written, I have made you the father of many nations. (He was appointed our father) in the sight of God in Whom he believed, Who gives life to the dead and speaks of the nonexistent things that He has foretold and promised as if they already existed.

Your Just Like Your Father
Danny Korakas

Jul 22, 2005The often heard "God is in control" is a both a statement and a belief. What I have found to be interesting, is that most of time when this sentence rolls off the lips of a believer, it is in the midst of some type of adversity or a "comfortable" source of council from another who has no clue what you are going through. However, this statement of faith holds tremendous truth even though it may seem like everything is out of control.

As a natural father, I will certainly experience my children making decisions at some point that are in their own strength, immaturity, inexperience, or just plain bad. But you know, sometimes the best thing a father can do is to let their child feel the heat and learn the principle, "you will reap what you sow." Understanding this with clarity is vital to a life of maturity and integrity.

It is the same with our heavenly Father. God is in control of your situations as His child. However, He will allow us to walk into difficult circumstances or encounter difficult people for the purpose of growth and the learning of spiritual principles. (His ways are not our ways…His desire is that they would be) As a natural father, I desire that my children do things right not "because I said so." But because I desire that they reason for themselves that it is wrong or a bad choice. God is in control, but if God keeps us from suffering the consequences of our choices, we will never mature to walk in the spirit and truth of godly discernment and accurate decision making on our own.

As a natural father, I must admit that it is often times difficult not to discipline my 2 and 4 year old out of anger. It seems that many of us make the mistake of take…take…take until we explode or discipline in a state of anger. I must constantly remind myself that discipline is not a type of "punishment" although it might involve the rod of pain. Discipline designed by God is for the purpose of loving and caring CORRECTION.

Correction is vital in the life of a natural child and a child of God. Sometimes, the greatest punishment isn't physical but having certain privileges taken away. It is biblical that the Lord does not take away or rescind a spiritual gift. (This verse has been greatly abused to justify many warped and perverted doctrinal viewpoints) Nonetheless, the verse is God's Word. However, the Lord can take away our privileges by taking away the people and opportunities that the gift is intended for. The Lord brings correction in our lives in the same way that we should for our children – so that they will not suffer in a much greater measure the behavioral patterns that would have developed without correction if these behaviors or choices continued.

One of the greatest "strengths" that a father can exhibit is his ability to express and admit "weakness." The greater degree of humility in our life equates to a greater degree of grace in our life. When we walk in the anointing and power of grace, we walk in the favor of both God and man. Great grace provides us a life of forgiving others and the reciprocation of being forgiven. In other words we move into the BLESSING aspect of reaping what we sow. So much of the time this eternal and spiritual principal (reaping and sowing) is conveyed in a negative connotation. However, our humility and openness to our weakness allows the Lord to become strong in our lives for the purpose of blessing.

Jesus set the standard or model for natural and spiritual fatherhood in the humbling of Himself to the point of death and hanging on the cross for our sins and weaknesses. He counted Himself of no reputation and gave glory to His Father. Simply put, Jesus became "weak" that we would grow and move in the "strength" and power of His Spirit. Our ability to be vulnerable and transparent will be the hallmark of our true character as fathers and a witness of Christ as the days become darker before us. Our light will shine bright and haloed in humility as we live before our wives, children and the world in our willingness to admit our weaknesses and that we might have been wrong.

Our Father came to earth in the person of Jesus Christ. And with that coming came a mission that was focused and steadfast. Besides the saving work through the shedding of His blood, the Lord came to present His church, children and bride to the world. So often we fail to look at ourselves (the church) as a gift to the world from heaven – after all, this is our commission. Likewise, as natural fathers, we are to present our families to the world as a witness and gift of the love and grace from God.

Sadly, most men put so much effort, time, and energy in the work place or hobbies of interest that they have little left at the end of the day for their children. It is difficult to present something of value and beauty if we spend little time molding and shaping it. Children know and understand at a very young age that we spend time on what is most important to us. Come on, let's face this truth and reality head on and get our priorities right as fathers. If we have children at home, it is our primary ministry to spend time and take an interest in their life. If we are going to "die to ourselves for another", there is no better place to start than to your children. Please remember that you are never too old to be great father. As long as you have children (regardless of their age) you are still their father and the Lord has given you time for redeeming your fatherhood.

Moses received a tremendous calling, commission, and anointing to speak liberty and freedom to God's people under the yoke of bondage in Egypt. All seemed well as Moses and his family were traveling to Egypt to fulfill the purposes of God. However, the Bible states that Moses was just about to be struck dead by the Lord, and most likely would have if not for the discernment of his wife Zipporah. Moses had become so consumed with the "ministry" that God had called him to in Egypt that he neglected the greater calling and ministry to his family. Moses was so consumed with the needs in Egypt that he failed to circumcise his own son. Moses' wife would go on to save his life by performing what he should have done as a father and threw the foreskin of his son at his feet. Real fathers understand and know their real MISSION.

When the heart of God is manifested in the father / husband, he will place his wife as the apple of his eye. Our children will value the relationship of marriage through what they experience in their parents relationship with one another. The husband / father is to initiate and set the tone of the covenant and commitment within the marriage relationship. If the husband truly meets the needs of his wife as the head of the home, she will in turn meet his needs. With this said, it is imperative that men understand that they have no claim as the head of their home if they are not willing to be "first" in the meeting of his wife's needs. It is not a 50-50 deal. It is 100% of the man's responsibility to "first" meet the needs of his wife and family. They, in turn, will "then" meet his. It is not the other way around like so many men seem to believe abd expect.

Divorce is running rampant through the church and on par with the world because of a man and a woman feeling that their needs are not being met. I know that there are exceptions, however, the majority of divorces are based on the expectations and failure of having our needs met. Sadly, I must say that this has been the greater fault of men in their selfishness and conditional love. In other words, "I will meet your needs when you meet mine." Or, "I will meet you half way." Is this the condition that our Husband and the lover of souls places upon us as His bride? No, He initiated an everlasting covenant of love by sacrificing His own life for the life and well-being of His bride.

The are many good books on "fatherhood", but I believe the best fatherhood learning experience is simply looking at the Father through the life of Jesus Christ -- our eternal and loving Husband. We have a tender and loving God that no other false religion can claim. We have a Father and Husband who speaks affectionately and passionately to us. Studies have proven that children starved of a father's love will search for it...many times in destructive ways. The Father is sharing and speaking His love for us today. How about you dad? Have you told your children that you love them today? Better yet, have you shown them?

Your Life Will Come Alive
Miqua Miles

"2005...Things in Your Life Will Come Alive"

2005 will be the year where things in your life will come alive. I am breathing on dead situations, dead dreams, dead hopes plans and desires, yes even breathing new life into areas you thought forgotten.

I am doing a new thing, now it will spring forth, I am making streams in your desert, I am sending my life to influence your life. I give waters in the wilderness, rivers in your desert, to give drink to you, My chosen.

I, I am He who blots out your sins for My own sake, and will not remember your sins.

But now so says the Lord who created you, and He who formed you, Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name; you are Mine.
When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you.
When you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned; nor shall the flame kindle on you.

For I am the Lord your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Savior; I gave Nations for your ransom,
Since you were precious in My sight, you have been honored, and I have loved you; therefore I will give men for you, and people for your life.
Fear not; for I am with you. I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west.
I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Do not keep back; bring My sons from far and My daughters from the ends of the earth; everyone who is called by My name; for I have created him for My glory, I have formed him; yea, I have made him.

Bring out the blind people who have eyes, and the deaf who have ears.
You are My witness, says the Lord, and My servant whom I have chosen; that you may know and believe Me, and understand that I am He.
Before Me no God was formed, nor shall there be after Me.
I, I am the Lord; and there is none to save besides Me.

I have declared, and have saved, and I have shown, when there was no strange god among you; therefore you are My witnesses, says the Lord, that I am God.
Yes, before the day was, I am He; and no one delivers out of My hand;
I will work on your behalf, and who will reverse it?
I speak life into your life.
Your Father

Year of The Benjamite Portion

Cindye Coates

2005 - Year of The Benjamite Portion

2005 is The Year of The Benjamite Portion. The Lord will generously bestow upon those who answer to the name He gave them, 5 times more in this season. It will be very obvious. For example: those who earn $5 per hour could very well see $25 per hour. What takes 5 hours to complete will only take 1 hour. There will be a very definite manifestation of a 5 -fold blessings in the basics.

The Lord is saying some will be shifting out of "survival mode", in to "abundance mode" as He is our source of all that pertains to life and godliness. This dynamic will thrust the kingdom forward and much ground will be gained in 2005. For far too long highly gifted and anointed people have been held back due to their own mentality of self-preservation and coping skills with lack. This year marks a release of this mental and emotional stronghold. This does not hinge on the economy. This Benjamite portion hinges on the heart of God toward those who are called by the name He has given them in spite of the economy.

Benjamin was the only one of the twelve sons who was named by his father not his mother. He was born during the journey that Jacob and his family took from Padan Aram to Canaan. His mother Rachel named him "Ben-oni" meaning "Son of my sorrow," before she died during childbirth, but Jacob called him Benjamin. The name Benjamin means "Son of my right hand." Sound familiar?

Jesus now sits at the right hand of The Father, on the throne. (Romans 8:34) As He is, so are we in the world. (1 John 4:17) Benjamin means a covenant position!

This explains the authority that is being given in this season. Benjamin is a type of emerging leadership who is not named by its mother-"the ministry who birthed you in pain and died", but rather directly by the Father; receiving both calling and commissioning from above. There are men and women who have refused to receive their titles & commissioning from a system, which was weak and bleeding. These people are not rebellious and illegitimate. They are obedient and viable, with ears to hear their Father-God in a still small voice. Deep within they hear " This is my son in whom I am well pleased. Come now and rule together with me in the third heaven, far above all powers and principalities."

When Jacob blessed his 12 sons, in Genesis 49:27, he describes Benjamin as a wolf that prowls, devouring his enemies in the morning and dividing up the spoils in the evening. King Saul, and Judge Ehud, were descendants of Benjamin, as was Paul and the prophet Jeremiah. In the days to come we will see kings, judges, apostles and prophets rise up from the results of The Benjamite Portion.

THE BENJAMITE PORTION

Genesis 43:34 When portions were served to them from Joseph's table, Benjamin's portion was five times as much as anyone else's.

Genesis 45:22 To each of them he gave new clothing, but to Benjamin he gave three hundred shekels of silver and five sets of clothes.

Notice in these scriptures, we see provision is made through Joseph to support Benjamin with food, clothing and money. Joseph is often seen in scripture as a type of Christ.

Most believers have learned that Christ is our Eternal Healer. This year many will also discover him as "their Joseph"; they're Provider, liberating them from anxiety and lack in order to build and increase!

One of Jesus' names is the "Everlasting Father" (Is. 9:6) when we've seen Jesus; we've seen the Father. This year, those who understand their sonship will see "the Father" through Jesus. He is our Healer and Provider! Know it!

Luke 12: 22- 34 Then Jesus said to His disciples (apprentices): " Do not worry about your life, what you will eat; or about your body, what you will wear. .Consider the birds .God feeds them. And how much more valuable you are than birds!.. "Consider the lilies.. how much more will he clothe you, O you of little faith!

BENJAMITE SIGNIFICANCE

Paul belonged to the elite of Israel. The tribe of Benjamin had a special place in the history of Israel. Benjamin was the child of Rachel, the wife of Jacob, and of all the twelve sons he alone had been born in the Promised Land (Genesis 35:17-18). It was from the tribe of Benjamin that the first king of Israel had come (1 Samuel 9:1-2), and it was no doubt from that very king that Paul had been given his original name of Saul.

Under Rehoboam, the kingdom had been split up, ten of the tribes went off with Jeroboam and Benjamin was the only tribe which remained faithful with Judah (1 Kings 12:21). When they returned from the exile, it was from the tribes of Benjamin and Judah that the nation of Israel was formed (Ezra 4:1).

The tribe of Benjamin had the place of honor in Israel's battle-line (Hosea 5:8). In the book of Esther the central male figure of that story was Mordecai, a Benjaminite. When Paul said that he was of the tribe of Benjamin, it was a claim that he was not simply an Israelite belonged to the highest aristocracy of Israel.

The first king of the Jews was Saul a Benjamite. A close alliance was formed between this tribe and that of Judah in the time of David ((2 Sam. 19:16, 17), which continued after his death (1 Kings 11:13; 12:20). After the Exile these two tribes formed the great body of the Jewish nation (Ezra 1:5; 10:9), and to this day the other ten are referred to as the lost tribes of Israel.

The tribe of Benjamin was famous for its archers (1 Sam. 20:20, 36; 2 Sam. 1:22; 1 Chr. 8:40; 12:2) and slingers (Judges 20:6).

The gate of Benjamin, on the north side of Jerusalem (Jer. 37:13; 38:7; Zech. 14:10), was so called because it led in the direction of the territory of t tribe of Benjamin. It is called by Jeremiah (20:2) "the high gate of Benjamin"; also "the gate of the children of the people" (17:19). (Comp. 2 Kings 14:13.)

The High Priests would were an breastplate with 12 stones for each tribe. The opal was the stone for the Tribe of Benjamin. This is the only stone which possess all colors. Just as Bejamin was the only son of Jacob born in the Promise Land. This stone of many colors exemplifies the spectrum of splendor which awaits us 2005. The splendor of the Benjamite Portion!

Your Running Days Are Over

Bill Hernandez

My glory is about to burst upon you and you will know freedom and joy and healing. I am about to open you up and lay open the darkness and disease of your soul. And you will be healed and set free and walk in a new light and new revelation after the cleansing of your soul. I will expose roots of madness and lies. I will expose everything that's not of Me and when I'm done you will be a new person for all to see. Do not be afraid for I am a skillful surgeon. Weeping may last for a night but a shout of joy comes in the morning. You will not have to bear more than you can handle. I hold your hand and I comfort your brow. I dress your wounds, but know this that the advent of pain is the advent of victory. It's the precursor to joy.

I am come upon a steed swiftly to your side and I bring a banner of love and life eternal. I come with the wind and with the dawn. I ride out of the mists to you and for you for I am King and Lord and God and Father. My ministers come riding with Me - myriads of angels - to take the ground that was given to Me. You are mine oh watered and fragrant garden. The time is near and the battle is ready. None can stop Me. None can have their way save Me. I have apprehended you and surrounded you. You cannot run. Your running days are over.

You Thought I Was Just Being Poetic?

Carla Rickard

To the Prophets and Prophetesses of the God of Israel who have been called in the Name of Love to the Nations Who know where and to whom they have been called to effect that purpose that God Almighty has placed in their hearts to bring forth His Kingdom Come.

JEREMIAH 1

[3]It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah the son of Josiah king of Judah, unto the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.
[4]Then the word of the LORD came unto me, saying,
[5]Before I formed thee in the belly I knew thee; and before thou camest forth out of the womb I sanctified thee, and I ordained thee a prophet unto the nations.

As I spoke in my own tongue yesterday the Spirit of the Lord fell upon me with fire and great authority. " What I have said, that I will do". Let no man deceive you for I am the GOD of the NATIONS. Whom I will send, the same shall go!"

[6]Then said I, Ah, Lord GOD! behold, I cannot speak: for I am a child.
[7]But the LORD said unto me, Say not, I am a child: for thou shalt go to all that I shall send thee, and whatsoever I command thee thou shalt speak.
[8]Be not afraid of their faces: for I am with thee to deliver thee, saith the LORD.

And the Lord said to me, " I have heard the prayers of the people who have cried out for their country and their inheritance of children. You have asked for the healing of your land from foreign gods and I tell you now IT IS SO."

[9]Then the LORD put forth his hand, and touched my mouth. And the LORD said unto me, Behold, I have put my words in thy mouth.
[10]See, I have this day set thee over the nations and over the kingdoms, to root out, and to pull down, and to destroy, and to throw down, to build, and to plant.

" I have commissioned you by faith and prayer and knowing my righteousness and holy judgment to root out the wicked, pull down the principalities, destroy the face of other wooden idols and vain imaginations, throw down every thing that exalts itself above the NAME OF THE LORD, YOUR GOD, and BUILD and PLANT the seed of righteousness in this nation. But first must come the rooting out, pulling down, destroying and throwing down. This is what I have commissioned THEE to do. I have set YOU over this nation and the nations within this nation, and kingdoms within this kingdom. THEN will I build my house and plant my vineyard and you will see the goodness of the husbandman."

[11]Moreover the word of the LORD came unto me, saying, Jeremiah, what seest thou? And I said, I see a rod of an almond tree.
[12]Then said the LORD unto me, Thou hast well seen: for I will hasten my word to perform it.

"Do not doubt what you have heard! For what I have said, that I am doing. I know the hearts of men and their plans and devices for wickedness. There is work to do. Everything is in its proper place. I am GOD, I cannot lie, nor can I fail. I laugh at the derision of the wicked for I see their end!"

[13]And the word of the LORD came unto me the second time, saying, What seest thou? And I said, I see a seething pot; and the face thereof is toward the north.
[14]Then the LORD said unto me, Out of the north an evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.
[15]For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, saith the LORD; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entering of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.
[16]And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, who have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.

The Lord commands the wickedness in high places found in the hearts of men to kneel down and worship at the feet of the righteous for He has loved them! The plans of the wicked fail now! Evil intentions and plans are rooted out says the Lord and cast into the fire of condemnation! Their plans and purposes over the livelihood, well being, peace, and kingdom purposes of God's people are CUT OFF now for they are under a curse. REPENT of your evil doing NOW before you are destroyed in your doings!

[17]Thou therefore gird up thy loins, and arise, and speak unto them all that I command thee: be not dismayed at their faces, lest I confound thee before them.
[18]For, behold, I have made thee this day a defenced city, and an iron pillar, and brasen walls against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.
[19]And they shall fight against thee; but they shall not prevail against thee; for I am with thee, saith the LORD, to deliver thee.

I asked the Lord, but what do you mean? Shall I pray? What is it that I am to do? The Lord said to me:

"Do as I say to do when I say to do it. Listen to me always. Look neither to the right nor to the left. For I have SET you OVER the nations and the kingdoms. You are positioned. Now is the time when you will fight, but not only with words or with prayer but with faith, that I AM who I AM, will deliver you from evil. It is My Kingdom. Did you think I was just being poetic when I say these things to you? Real men, and real women, are placed in real positions in the earth outside of the walls of the church to bring righteous judgment into the earth. You are MY government on the earth. It is you I charge with KNOWING MY WILL and executing the decree, and obeying the charge to GO. These are not pretty words of someday, but are real meat for real situations that are happening around you right now. You will encounter in the flesh real faces that have set themselves against you. They will use every means at their disposal to fight against the change that is being brought forth in the earth by My Prophet the DOERS of the Word. Why would I tell you they will not prevail? Because they will attempt to stop what I HAVE DETERMINED TO DO through the prayers of MY righteous. When they look you in the eye and you are hit with the spirit of fear attempting to weaken you at the knees and cause you to flee, remember, if you are not dismayed, THEY WILL NOT PREVAIL AGAINST YOU!"

and furthermore

JEREMIAH 18:8-10

[8]If that nation, against whom I have pronounced, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do unto them.
[9]And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;
[10]If it do evil in my sight, that it obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, wherewith I said I would benefit them.
BUT IF THEY DO NOT!

JEREMIAH 22
[13]Woe unto him that buildeth his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by wrong; that useth his neighbour's service without wages, and giveth him not for his work;

Your Window Has Now Become A Door

Susan Cummings

Greetings,

The Lord has given me a word for Gods' people, through experiences that have happened to us this week.

We have come through a time of testing, sickness, and waiting. During this time, the Lord brought forth circumstances that we could not stop nor alter, but had to acknowledge that we were in His Hands. We just had to trust and leave the outcome to His Plans.

Our house is over 100 years old in the main part, and has been in need of much repair, but we have had to wait and see what the Lord would bring. It seems that our lives have mirrored the house, as we have waited for years for the promise to come forth. This is the hour that God is opening the door for the long awaited repairs, the new births, the restorations of the waste places, and the Glory to break forth.

We have had a huge bay window that has been literally falling out of its frame, torn out two days ago and a huge sliding glass door put in. It is so big that the installers said, that it is the biggest they have ever put in. Only God knew why He made it that way, but in this word you will see the Lords reasons and see yourself in His Plans.

This whole scenario came about by Gods miraculous provision, and His Grace. As the Lord has aid, our lives are an open book for all to read and for all to grow by, and may our lives be the mirror through which He is seen!

This whole week has been one of trials and struggle, but through which this word is birthed forth, will be the answer to many who will read this.

Your Window Has Now Become A Door

Your window which has been torn out today, has now become a great door through which I will enter but also through which you will now go forth. For you have stood waiting upon Me, and have watched and waited and longed for this hour in which lies before thee. You have many times, became despondent over the seeming slowness of My response, but you never walked away from Me.

That is why through the tests, you have stood, because of your love for Me. It is that love that has kept you until this hour. It is that love that is your foundation and your strength. It is that love that has brought you each day, further into understanding. I take note of this. For I look to see who is searching for Me. I look to see who is calling after Me and who reaches out in spite of their failures and humanness.

What you thought was only a dream or a fantasy is actually what I have brought you into. I told you that I would bring you forth. I told you that you would stand and see this day come. I told you that I AM more than enough for you. It is I that lives within you. It is I that has brought you up to this point, even in the darkness that has been your constant buffeter. I know what you suffer and what you endure, for I laid your course.

The time has come to change your direction. The window has now become a door of opportunity for you. My Word is true, and I will do through you all that I have shown you. It is time. It is the hour for you to stand. It is the day of your release, but not only that, it is the day of new understandings. I AM opening your eyes and your ears.

I will show you what you have not discerned, and you will see why I have taken this long to break forth through thee. I AM always moving. I AM always perfecting that which concerns you. I AM always working out My Promises in your life, as you follow Me. Do not doubt, but believe. Do not think that all will remain as you see it now, for suddenly it will be new, for the old is passing away, even as surely as this night that I come to you.

For I have said that I am breaking forth. It is true. I am breaking forth, and you must boldly walk forth into the new areas that will open before you. Do not fear the path, but fear Me. For I Am the Lord your God, that keepeth thee. I AM faithful to you, you see. Nothing is impossible for Me. For I hold time and eternity, and have wrought all things and birthed them forth from Me.

Give Me your hand, and move now. Reach forth, and take the handle of the door and step forth. What was barred and latched closed, is now opening for thee. For I have determined My Justice for thee. I have already given you the scroll and the keys. It is time for you to begin to speak as I direct thee. All is in readiness, all is in order, all is laid out before thee.

What I have shown you through this event, is what I am doing within you and to those who are to be sent. You are an example for all to read, as your life has been given to those who are in need. What I work within you, is what I will bring forth through them, and all that is seen is what I have ordained. For you are included in My Body, and what I do in you, I do in them, and all that is yours, have I also given unto them. For all partake of Me, and all partake of each other, as I AM formed within the brethren.

Transparency is what I desire and truth on the inward hearts. It is the key to the door that lies before thee. That which you have laid before Me, I have both seen and have heard, and what you have given to Me, I will surely birth. Take no thought for these offerings, for I will surely move, trust Me with your course, and now onward move.

Within My hands are the offerings you have given, and all that is within them is seed sown for the nations. For every sacrifice that you sow, comes forth from within, and is issued forth from My Spirit that resides within. Life begets life. What is given will go forth. What has been sown will now live again.

Each vision that dies is sown unto Me, when given with a heart of humility. My eyes have seen the deaths that you have endured and have allowed to consume the root and the fruit. For I placed that desire within your heart, for I knew this day that has now come, would only come as you walked this course. For all that is given and left upon My altars, is held in My Hands, and given to My Father.

The vision will no longer tarry, nor will it falter, for the time has come for the vision to live. The window that you have stood before for so long, has now become the door through which you will now be flung. Do not fear, that pace at which you will now run, for it is ordained by the Father and the Son. You will run upon the heights and run with the Son, and in your hands will be the fire of the Lord. Your heart will break with the passion of My Heart, as the issues pour forth, it will set many fires a start. Do not fear the day, for this is the hour for which you were born. Many will run with you, as you follow My Son.

Suddenly, it will come, as one day dawns upon the other, but you will be bold, and will not care as the path narrows. For your eyes are set upon the course and you will run with the Fiery Hosts. Chariots of Fire have been released in the earth, for my servants to ride, as they ascend to My Throne. Come up Here, and receive! For now, will I surely release My Word through thee, which has been tempered and refined in the fires of My Holiness. Great fires will be ignited as you obey My Voice, and touch My people, and give your life away. For I have called you to pour forth all that is within you, and to see My People raised up and awakened to their destinies.

Great trials are already begun, in this hour of travail. Men are awakening to the shaking and the changing world, but have not chosen to acknowledge that I AM. My People will reveal Me, as they run with My Word, and men will know that it is Me that they have withstood. For I require blood for all that has been shed. Justice has cried out and will be repaid. All that is not given unto Me will now be weighed and reaped.

This is the day to which you are called. I am raising up many who will stand as you do, and who will not bend nor bow, but who will run with My Word, and freely give to those who hunger after Me. Great darkness will envelop the lands and the seas, but all who trust in Me, will stand in My Light and will see. All that is Mine, is hidden In Me.

My Word is the lamp that will go before thee, and cause you to burn and run with My Fire ignited within thee, and great will be the fields through which I will pass through, as My Vessels of Glory shine forth with My Glorious Hues.

Look, with new eyes, and trust what I show thee. Do not doubt, but trust Me. For surely this Word will be heard and seen, as My Own stand up across the Land, and move forth as I have spoken unto thee. For the eyes of My Spirit hath rested upon thee, and have caused you to now walk in new liberty. For the Spirit of Truth will now illuminate thee. And all who hunger and thirst after Me. For that is the door that now stands open before thee.

My Truth is the only Door through which men can walk and truly enter into Me. For My Blood atoned for all who would seek, and all who would cry out for liberty. Great now, is the Door that is fully released and through which I will come forth, as a Fire burning upon those who have bent their knees. For I come to those who have tarried and have obeyed Me.

Listen, and look, and mark what I have said, for even in the dreams which I have spoken to you upon your bed, are nothing compared to what I will now do, for all is in readiness, for those who will choose. This is the time to step through that door and never look back, or remember the score. For all is removed and accounted to you as faith, if you will say yes, and embrace your race.

So, arise, with My wind upon your face, and cast yourself into My embrace, and run with Me, as I show forth My Grace. I am removing the veil from your face, and with open eyes you will behold My Face, and will reflect My Glory, as you step into My day. It is the day of My Voice and My Works, as I show Myself through my handiworks. The heavens do declare My Glory, and so do the seas, but all that I have held back will be seen through My Jewels who are now thrown forth from Me.

“That which was, and that which is, and that which is to come, now shall be, for now the Father will be glorified through thee.” These words have I spoken unto thee. These words have I burned into thee. These words are what I will do, and what men will see. For I will be seen in the earth and in My Vessels in this hour, and I will be Glorified and will reap that which is Mine. For it is time.

You Will Know Me

Bill Burns

August 1, 2005: Are you not My children? I have spoken it to you, and it is written in the Holy Scriptures. You, My Beloved, are about to enter a new season of divine restoration in which you will experience great joy and absolute liberty of My peace. In the days ahead, I shall continually lift you into the heavenly place and set your feet in the Valley of Vision, and I shall cause you to walk in the cool of the Garden with Me again. It is My desire that you know Me, that you know My voice, that you know My touch, that you know My love, My peace, and My joy. A father loves his children, and I have loved you with a heart that burns with zeal, for I am a jealous God who is jealous for you. Would you now become jealous for Me, says the Lord? In these days, I shall walk with you as never before, and I shall speak to you with greater clarity than before, and I shall open your eyes wider than before, for these are the days of revealed glory as I manifest among My children the greatness of My kingdom. I have desired this Day and the coming of the Day of Christ that I might pour out My Spirit upon you in such a magnitude of glory that you will no longer be troubled by the things of the world or abide in anxiety or fear. You will know Me to such an extent that nothing will hinder you, says the Lord. Rise up now in faith and enter in to My throne room.

Marsha Burns

August 1, 2005: My children, you have come to My table where I have supplied the great delicacies of the revelation of My word, and you have hungrily eaten and yet have not become full. You are still hungry for new delights. But, now is the time to indulge again in things you have already tasted. You did not eat to the full satisfaction or get the full revelation of some of what I have given you. I will take you back to places that you need to reconsider. Do not think of this as regression, but know that there is more understanding to be gleaned in this place of greater maturity.

Beloved, do not become mired in regret for things that might have been or could have been that were not. Refuse to allow the hopelessness and sorrow that follows regret to gain a stronghold in your life. Today is a new day in which you will move forward. You cannot fix that which has caused you to grieve. Rise up, put off the sackcloth and ashes of mourning, and move bravely and boldly into the future. Jeremiah 29:11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says the LORD, thoughts of peace and not of evil, to give you a future and a hope.

August 2, 2005: The sound of your praise will set up a spiritual atmosphere that will make the enemy flee. You underestimate the power of your worship. Rise up in the power of praise and declare the glory of your God! Rejoice in the benefits of the kingdom and in your eternal destiny. Be done with grumbling and complaining and, instead of looking at what is wrong in your life, express thanksgiving in all things. Philippians 4:6 Be anxious for nothing, but in everything by prayer and supplication, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God.

August 3, 2005: Do not be dismayed or lose heart at the breakdowns you are experiencing. Your tendency is to get overwhelmed with trying to repair all that is broken, but I tell you, take one thing at a time and be led by My Spirit, says the Lord. There are things that need to be dealt with before you can go progress. There is spiritual significance to what is happening to you in the physical realm. Come away from the turmoil and confusion and quiet your soul in My presence to receive instruction. Ecclesiastes 3:3b A time to break down, And a time to build up.

August 4, 2005: Don't be surprised when you suddenly gain insight and clarity that will help you make decisions that have heretofore evaded you. You are being released into greater understanding and vision, which will actually remove hindering elements that have kept you from taking the next step. Don't be afraid to make decisions, for I am with you to give you wisdom and to guide you, says the Lord. Be bold!

August 5, 2005: When breakthrough begins it will be sudden and will be like a dam breaking allowing the flow of the Spirit to once again have His way in your life. And, I say, that breakthrough is imminent. You will be greatly relieved and refreshed like a great rain ending the drought. It will also be like waking up from a dream, and difficult days will soon be forgotten. This iniquity shall be to you like a breach ready to fall, a bulge in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly, in an instant. (Isaiah 30:13). Believe and rejoice. Liberty is yours!

Zacchaeus Come Down to Love

At such time as this, Christians cannot spiritually survive without humility! In His Sermon on the Mount, Jesus encouraged blessed are the meek and in many other places, the Holy Scriptures wisely advise to walk humbly with your God, even to seek lowliness, and be clothed with humility towards others. Now our Lord was famed for His matchless strength of character, so similarly humility is not being like a doormat, nor is it about repetitive self-degradation. True humility, an unequivocal necessity for a Christian, is demonstrated by practicing utter reliance on our Almighty! Living in a constant awareness of one's own need for His unconditional mercy! Goes without saying, what spiritual paupers we all are without the daily grace of God extended to each of us! I will divulge three secrets for remaining humble, for not being wise in one's own eyes: remembering one's very breath is sustained from above; living not by bread alone, but by every Word that proceeds from the mouth of God; and continual asking our Omniscient One for wisdom!

A Divine light of insight illuminated the account of Zacchaeus as one such exhortation about humility and the perils of pride. In Luke 19, we read...

Luke 19:1-10 Jesus entered Jericho and was passing through. A man was there by the name of Zacchaeus; he was a chief tax collector and was wealthy. He wanted to see who Jesus was, but being a short man he could not, because of the crowd. So he ran ahead and climbed a sycamore-fig tree to see Him, since Jesus was coming that way. When Jesus reached the spot, He looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today." So he came down at once and welcomed Him gladly. All the people saw this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a 'sinner.' " But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount." Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost."

Zacchaeus the zealot for Jesus, been a common recollection. Indeed, his admirable eagerness to meet Christ be a powerful lesson in itself and should spur us to seek His face with such ardor! Really wanting to see someone is akin to saying that they well worth getting to know better! What an understatement of our Lord and how true! In preparation for a bird's eye view, Zacchaeus expending valiant energy was rewarded, as he won personal attention from the God Almighty of the universe! However, upon reflection, surmising it was more than just curiosity and even more than his small stature that drove Zacchaeus up the sycamore tree. I offer for further consideration that possibly pride may have fueled his fire, fanning the flame of his ulterior motivation to make sure he stood out in a multitude of onlookers!

In this passage of Scripture, what we first learn of Zacchaeus is his occupation as a chief tax collector, which indicates he held a place of influence and wielded authority. With him being described as wealthy. we are also given a glimpse into his well-to-do lifestyle. And since tax collectors of that day were known to be extortionists, we can assume Zacchaeus had long lived deluded into believing that true prosperity meant getting richer and richer at the unjust expense of others and even by oppressing the poor! As was he extremely deceived to presume he could carry on in his cunning ways without any form of retribution, be it from earth or from above. He understood not that his fraudulent tenure was a premonition for his eventual deposing and of looming constraints on his own coffers! Living on a shoestring budget may be to keep the believer humble and dependent on God, however some, not all, financial troubles are because of carnal living. Sin will lead to a thin pocketbook! Zacchaeus' seeming success and increasing luxury had enshrouded his morals, blinded him with greed, and made reverting to more honorable, but less lucrative business procedures totally unenticing. His good judgment was dulled to the fact that candor counts much higher in God's book than Zacchaeus' fudged collection ledger could ever number. Even though character holds far more everlasting value than fleeting mammon, for some the love of money, the mountain of materialism, and the vivaciousness of vainglory override the eternal treasure of maintaining one's integrity.

Zacchaeus' riches could also have referred to an overabundance of self-righteousness which was what erroneously railroaded him in attempting to re-establish his tarnished creditability. As dubbed in the community gathering, the people already had lowered the disdaining societal status boom upon him calling him a sinner and even he himself implied that he had cheated unsuspecting citizens. Incidentally, the consequences of willful sinning against God and others be manifold. Two certain, swift results include a convicted, guilty conscience and a bad reputation! In dealing with both issues, one would feel very downcast, depressed, and defensive. Unconfessed sin, not to mention continual and intentional rebellion would drag one spiritually low, deflating one's self-esteem and squelching one's self-respect. Brokenness and reverent repenting obviously the wise and only right responses. Though in a futile last ditch effort, some do take the high-minded road of pride, attempting to justify themselves and prove they are indeed righteous, despite the blatantly bad fruit in their life that been witnessed. They want to feel better about themselves, so In order to save face, they scheme to raise themselves up in the eyes, in the estimation of others somehow, even if only by physical elevation. Exactly what Zacchaeus did! As the townspeople would have watched him shinny up and perch himself above them, he climbed atop a fig tree trying to redeem himself in their sight! Knowing that in public he had a bad name, he was more than likely weighted down by heavy burdens of personal shame and disrepute. So his being higher up in altitude than the crowd would have given him a false sense of superiority, of a superficial liberty! Striving to regain the favor of men, forced him to go to vicarious heights to do such vanity and almost prevented him from meeting his Savior!

Same goes for those in the world and even for some believers who deem themselves to be wealthy in righteousness, while at the same time, they deflect the spotlight to the sins of neighbors and to a diversity of supposedly grandiose injustices. All to distract from taking responsibility for their actions. They claim to be Christian, yet in superficial piety they flee from cultivating a deeper personal, life-transforming relationship with Jesus and from meeting Him face-to-face in the secret place of prayer! Rather than racing to see Christ, they run in the opposite direction to avoid His piercing eyes of conviction that compel them out of their spiritual complacency and self-sufficiency. These carnal states of mind only cement their unwillingness to change habitual ways and entrench their obstinate refusal to come down from their self-exalted tree. They chafe at any correction, instead of responding in gratitude for being shown the truly Higher road. They balk at humbly asking for forgiveness and buck being upheld by the victory of our Lord's crucifixion on the Tree of all trees, the Cross of Calvary!

Having surely heard Jesus' standards of righteousness, am certain Zacchaeus was already feeling Divine pressure and thus viewed the tree as his scapegoat of albeit brief relief to get out from under such persistent prodding to reform. Zacchaeus wanted to see Jesus, though seemingly only at a comfortable, non-confrontational distance! As our Lord Jesus taught, the Kingdom of righteousness is within the human spirit, yet Christians and non-Christians alike try to elude our Omnipresent God who can speak absolutely anywhere to their very hearts!

While probably much to Zacchaeus' surprise, he gained the indescribable blessing and privilege of fellowship with the King of kings, he actually first garnered more of a rebuke! Though at a quick glance and because of the grace in Christ's words, it may not seem like a reprimand at all! In Luke 19:5 we read:

Luke 19:5 When Jesus reached the spot, He looked up and said to him, "Zacchaeus, come down immediately. I must stay at your house today."

This sounds more like a stern command of Jesus than a congenial invitation to supper! Am deducing His calling down Zacchaeus was urgently necessary, as pictures of gangly looking sycamore trees boast only lofty branches. The law of gravity requires no testing, guaranteeing that the higher one climbs, the harder and more life-threatening their earthy spread-eagle would be. So it is feasible to assume that Christ clearly recognized the completely unaware Zacchaeus to be in imminent danger of physically tumbling from his self-promoted position. Prideful people surely do raise themselves to proverbial places for which they have neither God's anointing, nor spiritual maturity, nor experiential knowledge to support themselves and their shallow roots. In their craving for the spotlight, they end up out on a shaky limb, seeing not that their folly is openly revealed. So as pride goes before a fall, would certainly seem Jesus was speedily trying to spare Zacchaeus both personal harm and unnecessary public humiliation. Had a branch broken or in his overconfidence he lost his footing, sending him in the blink of an eye to the ground, Zacchaeus could have incurred serious injury and possibly hurt those standing nearby. Plus him landing with a noisy thud in a groaning, bewildered heap, as such a prominent Visitor passed through, would have earned him more ridicule and been further embarrassment in front of a crowd who already despised him! Hence, if a rebuke seems rather authoritative and directive, heed it at all costs! Remember that obedience to our Omniscient God is not optional! Reproofs are Providentially timed, sent to preserve your person, your peace, and your prize of Divine presence!

Maybe the intensity with which our Lord spoke to Zacchaeus was to ensure he got the seriousness of His message in that moment! Christ's word of choice "immediately" and am sure His tone of voice would have implied instant adherence or else dire consequences! Jesus had been specifically sent to minister to Zacchaeus, so now that He was right there, no time would be wasted. Zacchaeus could either obey and be brought closer to King Jesus or he could rebel and be left fending his own battles. Christ Jesus would not linger with someone unreceptive, so He gave Zacchaeus His undivided attention to help him make the most of his appointment!

Even of more significance, our Lord would have keenly discerned that in the fig tree, highfaluting Zacchaeus was actually exalting himself in defense of his being conscience-stricken and bearing the stigma of a bad reputation. Jesus would have also known that Zacchaeus probably foolishly thought if he put himself out of reach, he could then at least temporarily escape even the Most High's Hand of discipline and the subsequent need for a complete overhaul of his ethics. Now to Zacchaeus' credit, his instant obedience, reaffirms and even overshadows his renown zeal! The Holy Scriptures forever record that...

Luke 19:6 So he came down at once and welcomed Him gladly.

Practicing to joyfully obey God Most High is surely another winsome nugget to well remember from this account! Zacchaeus' quick humble submission shows his reverence that Christ was One who spoke to him with true unquestionable authority from on High! A majestic regality not to be resisted, nor challenged in the least. Fears of manipulation and ill will did not appear to cross his mind, as they would have been completely unfounded anyhow. Zacchaeus' intuition must have told him he could trust such commanding instruction from this Jesus. Obviously, insubordination to our Lord of the universe should be rightly unthinkable and this was certainly what Zacchaeus needed to learn, as do multitudes in the world and in the church today, especially in positions of leadership! To comprehend that power and the facade of control through riches do not give them unlimited license to live above any and all laws, but rather they should uphold them. True authority comes only as bestowed from heaven and is maintained through good stewardship and close-knit Divine communion! Zacchaeus' placement was to be a trustworthy overseer, helping to prevent and punish any fraud, not to be a gloating perpetrator of extortion. So just as Zacchaeus, as a chief tax collector, was suppose to supervise and discipline those he led, he arrogantly forgot that Someone greater than he, the Sovereign Almighty, could and would dethrone his racketeering reign. Zacchaeus' loveless rebellion would have wreaked havoc and seemingly was causing a bitter uprising that was heard in the high skyward courts! Be forewarned those at the church helm and in ministries, when God's People grieve under legalistic pastor-ships, He surely tunes His ear to their pleas!

In his sycamore tree solitude Zacchaeus could have been actually taking refuge from the crowd that was probably loudly nattering against his presence. Hence, his making such a compelling descent from his lonely perch! Zacchaeus was gladly coming down to the neighbourly love that Jesus had expressed towards him! Our Lord acknowledged him personally by name and demonstrated a sincere willingness to fellowship with him, which must have astonished him! Though Zacchaeus was a shady tax collector, he still had an as yet unsatiated thirst for love and more so due to his proud, insolent induced alienation! In any case, Christ knew that Zacchaeus needed a huge outpouring of unconditional acceptance. All the more, to follow our Lord's selfless example in how He altruistically interacted with people. He affirmed their very person and got into eye-to-eye contact with them in their trying circumstance. He was, what I describe as confrontationally compassionate! Jesus didn't mince words, giving stern admonishments, where essential, meant to promote His ultimate abundant life that will flow profusely with wholehearted adherence to Him! Whether it be because of sin or situation, to those that were downtrodden, Christ surely showed gracious kindness and mercy, as He did to a solitary, seeking Zacchaeus.

Notice that in obeying Jesus, Zacchaeus hesitated not one iota! He didn't procrastinate, nor formulate good excuses, nor respond with a deluge of catty remarks, nor suspicious questions of his own, such as why did Jesus choose him and not someone else? or what would He of him once Zacchaeus disembarked from his tree house? Pride will make some people combative, belligerent, and resistant to love, but not Zacchaeus, his heart was too thirsty! He didn't indifferently brush off a sincere invitation to love, and nor did he pretend to ignore an unfathomable privilege of a lifetime! Zacchaeus instinctively knew that there was something radically different about this poignant Stranger! Instead of proud and negative retorts, with simple, yet wise submission, Zacchaeus gladly and respectfully received the King of kings, who had accepted him unconditionally. In doing so, am certain Zacchaeus had already realized that Jesus wasn't just inviting Himself for a mere supper, but was beckoning and urging him to a whole new way of truly righteous and fulfilled living! Our Lord's love is what made Zacchaeus so willing to bow to a reformation that would do him good!

So duly recognize that putting off repentance and obedience to Divine leading will postpone the manifest jubilant Presence, favor, and freedom of our Almighty for one to readily enjoy! Untold blessings left unwrapped, undiscovered, and restored self-worth made elusive, all because of ego. How much better to put off the shackles of pride, than senselessly avoiding such bliss and liberating release, awaiting in the wings!

Was only right for the townsfolk to be bitter towards Zacchaeus. He being the community criminal, who won the audience of the All Wise God! We read of these perplexed people:

Luke 19:7 All the people saw this and began to mutter, "He has gone to be the guest of a 'sinner.'"

Though they had good reason to mutter, their murmuring actually indicates they were as self-righteous as Zacchaeus started out to be! The people seemingly presumed themselves to be less sinful than him and esteemed themselves more worthy to host this prestigious, miracle-performing Christ! As they were openly grumbling about Zacchaeus being such a lowly sinner, their evident envy and offense spotlighted their own sanctimony! Rather they should have rejoiced that Jesus was going to meet with him and set his crooked ways aright! Yet blinded by their own snobbery, they knew not that they were in as much desperate need of the true Savior, as Zacchaeus was! Am certain our Lord well discerned the vain gloriousness of the crowd. Many, like the Pharisees, would have welcomed Him into their home only for notoriety's sake with absolutely no intention of wholeheartedly following Him, nor continuing to obey His teachings after He had left. They selfishly sought a societal momentary praise of men, being oblivious to beholding the enduring glory of the Messiah in their midst! Their complacency in temporal pleasures made them dull to truly hearkening unto eternal truths and timeless treasures!

This next verse implies that Zacchaeus could hear his jealous jeerers muttering that he was without question a sinner. We read in...

Luke 19:8 But Zacchaeus stood up and said to the Lord, "Look, Lord! Here and now I give half of my possessions to the poor, and if I have cheated anybody out of anything, I will pay back four times the amount."

The word "But" seems a sharp and double-edged sword. One side cutting to the very core of the contention, Zacchaeus' fraudulent business practices of which his God-given conscience had already perceived as unethical. In my opinion, this word "But" is Zacchaeus' unspoken acknowledgment that what the communal jury said about him was indeed true. To the captive people, he didn't contest, but confessed to having lorded financial oppression over them and was identifying with the hardship he had caused them. Then on the other side of the sword, Zacchaeus boldly stood up to defend himself, as if to say he really did know the difference between right and wrong. This begs the question why? Since Zacchaeus had a sense of morality to begin with, why did he stray from higher ethics? Suffice it to say that maybe because of his small stature, he felt insecure within himself. In his life, he had probably been provoked a lot and mistreated by condescending people, which would have magnified his inferiority, thus spurring him into power tripping and the limelight of the wealthy and maybe even into legalistic politics. He may have experienced much unjust rejection. So in his wounded ness and to feel better about himself, even to make others think more highly of him, Zacchaeus turned to the love of money and materialism to obtain substitutes for what he was missing. He could have been trying to fill the deep relational void in his heart with money and trying to impress his counterparts with wealthy accolades. His recourse for being mocked because of his height that he could do nothing about, may have been manipulation of the tax system. As multitudes do with similar and many other physical fixes, vain activities, and vengeful schemes, Zacchaeus could have been attempting to get redemption for past hurts. Perhaps, his emotional need for gaining approval and vindication overcame his scruples. He erroneously assumed that power and wealth gave him opportunity to be his own judge, living by his own rules, and fulfilling his own interests. Yet instead of finding greater self-worth and true love, the corruption of his morals ate away at his community connections and made him even more despised and an empty hearted outcast, feeling invisible. This goes to show that whether in Bible times or in present day, obviously, breaking the laws of the land and the Divine law of love isn't the right way to go about seeking justice, nor quenching one's thirst for social acceptance and meaningful relationships.

Again, why did Zacchaeus stray away from what he knew to be truly right? The answer I believe is because of his identity that seemed rooted in the variance of the temporal, such as on his finite self and his fickle feelings, on the vainglory of society, on his outward appearance, and on his wealth. Zacchaeus based his personal value so heavily on what others thought of him, that he would do anything, even going to unjust monetary lengths to increase his showmanship. This put him on a worrisome, stomach-turning, nonstop rollercoaster ride finding only fleeting superficial highs and disorienting lonely lows. Many others like Zacchaeus need to know that their significance does not come from people, nor from the abundance of what one may possess, nor should it be affected by what one doesn't have. Zacchaeus didn't find acceptance, so he conformed to the elite world around him, which wasn't working either.

Jesus surely appeared on the scene to enlighten all that every person is a priceless good gift despite the bad choices they may have made. One's identity comes from being made in the very image of God to carry out His loving goodness! Each one of us is created in Christ Jesus to do good works that God has prepared in advance for us to do. People lose their self-respect and the respect of others when they don't do the good that they were foreordained to do! Zacchaeus may well have been a sincere do gooder yet still been rejected, which may have hardened him and made him think that he could rise above the law too, even though Divine good is the highest road to stay on! His insecurity about his personal value led to his shifty moral standards. He let self and society's vain measuring stick override his God-given conscience!

Nonetheless, we find Zacchaeus defending his obvious change of heart. He could have jumped up to try and downplay, even deny his cunning tax customs. He was quick on his feet, so could have made a run for it, instead of taking responsibility for the grief others endured at his hand. Yet since meeting his loving Lord, Zacchaeus now too, was filled with the same kind mercies and was no longer controlled by his selfish ambition, nor hiding behind his hurt and vain pride! In his bid to prove his renewed benevolence and more importantly to please the present Christ, Zacchaeus was eager to show his inward, truly indelible transformation and did even better by leaping into immediate action, repaying generous restitution to those he had swindled. Thus, redeeming and vindicating himself in front of his reproachers!

Under the mighty Hand of God, Zacchaeus had humbled himself by coming down from his self-righteous tree and because of his repentance he was lifted up, being regrafted into the True Vine of approval. The dignity that he had strived for was instantly granted to him, as Zacchaeus' obedience helped restore his reputation among these very people in his hometown. Now not just deeds brought him back into the favor of God and men, but also and more significantly, it was his kind heart that re-warmed others up to him! They and Jesus could see that Zacchaeus was motivated by neighbourly love! Self-righteous deeds are done for the promotion of self and bear the fruit of pride and folly, whereas Divinely applauded good deeds are done for the benefits of others and bear the fruit of wisdom and love to the glory of God! Glorifying Him is our purpose in life and is certainly redemptive!

In the last verse of this humility parable, the Scriptures exhort...

Luke 19:9-10 Jesus said to him, "Today salvation has come to this house, because this man, too, is a son of Abraham. For the Son of Man came to seek and to save what was lost."

Again to his credit, Zacchaeus continued to immediately obey Jesus, drawing His personal and direct commendation, plus much needed spiritual reaffirmation. In the verse above, Christ saying "this man, too,..." strongly implies that the infamously and supposedly incorrigible Zacchaeus had been previously deemed beyond salvation by the crowd. Take this to dear heart that, generally speaking, no one is ever out of the reach of Jesus, of His love, and of His saving power! As in one moment, a malevolent Zacchaeus was miraculously reconfigured from a dejected sinner into a son of Abraham in whom all nations would be blessed! Oh what an indescribable promotion!

Our Lord discerned He could trust a new-hearted Zacchaeus in his financial post with his true authority restored. Zacchaeus would not only conduct his business in a way that would bring bliss to the people of the land, but also he would share his faith of eternal salvation, transcending peace, and fullness of life that he had discovered in Christ! His now honest tax collecting procedures would be Divine in the sense that his integrity would promote trust within his township. As other tax collectors followed suit after their chief and reformed their shady practices too, rippling effects of tranquility would as well be experienced in nearby areas. Certainly, our Lord Most High commands His blessing where brethren dwell together in unity!

As a chief tax collector, Zacchaeus was Providentially and specifically given a leadership position with the potential, whether positively or negatively, to influence multitudes. However, instead of doing good by upholding the laws of the land, he blatantly abused the power that had been bestowed upon him and took advantage of others, most likely including the poor. In addition, he probably corrupted his subordinate tax collectors, making money off them. In doing so, he lost a lot more than what he thought he was profiting, as without him noticing, his Divine favor was revoked for good reason. Zacchaeus' ethical compass had gone awry and long left callously unadjusted. Him being his own navigator hardened by sin, pride, and mammon. This led to the waning and eventual evaporation of both his self-respect and public dignity. He held a place of authority to bless many people, yet he did the opposite, so he was reaping just repercussions, especially social ostracizing! To a community that had lost its camaraderie, one might say that Jesus showed up just in the nick of time to avert a town mutiny against their chief tax collector! Christ finding Zacchaeus in the sycamore tree was no small coincidence, but was a foreordained appointment for a lost man in his miserly monopoly!

Jesus calling Himself the "Son of Man" conveys His compassionate identification with humankind when indeed they strive to regain their lost self-respect and struggle to re-establish their peer dignity, especially in their moral decline, ostentaciousness, social alienation and overall spiritual depravity. Christ sees through their pretentious smokescreens and flaky facade, understanding that they thirstily seek for unconditional love; sincere, meaningful relationships; and the truly high life found in Him! Our Lord also certainly knew what it felt like to do good yet even still to be mocked, rejected, scourged, and forsaken! People persecuting us with their cantankerous words is only a taste of Jesus' sufferings as He was crucified to bear our very griefs and sorrows! Look into those passionate eyes of Christ Jesus who seeks you out and allow Him to melt your pride that is well worth losing! A great exchange for being ushered more closely into His powerful presence! Whatever you have lost, be it love, liberty, lowliness and or loftiness, you will surely find at the feet of our Lord Jesus!

Zion Ablaze

God called Abraham out of Ur, in the Chaldees and gave him a promise. He called him to leave one place in search of another. The transition thus involved two elements - a promise and a cost. All promises involve cost. Abraham went searching "for a city whose builder and maker is God" (Heb. 11:10). His eyes were on Zion.

Zion, though being an actual hill in Jerusalem and the location of David's tabernacle, also became analogous to the City of God. It was a poetic term, a point of focus in the Old Testament for promises fulfilled. It was the "code word" for the Church. John says the Bride is the City of God descending from above (Rev. 21:9). What about the Bridegroom?

Pictures of Jesus

What is your view, what is your image of Jesus? Gentle Jesus, meek and mild, holding a lamb over His forearm. or crucified Jesus, weeping on the cross for your sins. or religiously clad Jesus preaching a sermon from the hillside. ? All these are valid, reasonable and far short of the Jesus you and I will meet in heaven.

John knew Jesus better than anyone. In his old age, he met the resurrected and glorified Jesus. His eyes are full of fire, His feet were like burning bronze. He looked like He had been "refined in a fire" (Rev. 1:7). John the Baptist introduced Him that way - as a Man who would baptise us in the Holy Spirit and with fire! (Matt. 3:11,12), and in Whose hand a winnowing fork is grasped.

So we are Zion, the City of God, the Bride and here is our flaming lover, with fire in His eyes. Look! Here comes the Father of the Bridegroom, what do you imagine Him to be like? The One who will preside over the wedding of the Lamb? He will shake the heavens, and the earth. Everything that can be shaken will be shaken, for He (also) is a consuming fire (Heb. 12:26-29). Sounds like a "hot" wedding!

Understanding Zion

There are 160 references to Zion in Scripture. Many of them are literal references to the Mount in Jerusalem. But about half are allegorical. They speak of the City of God, the Church resplendent, and waiting for the coming King. Scripture adjures us to consider her, to look for her.

"Your eyes will see the King in his beauty; they will behold a land that stretches far away. In that day your mind will muse on the terror" (Isa. 33:17,18). The day of terror - that's our day. Your eyes will see a land far off and there you will. "Look on Zion, the city of our appointed festivals!" (Isa. 33:20). In this day of terrorism, in this day of war and rumor of war, our eyes should be straining for Zion. Yes in the midst of battle God prepares a banquet for his beloved.

On the way to worship

Baca is the name of a valley near Jerusalem. It was the 'valley of weeping' for it was lined with tombs of the deceased. Psalm 84 gives us a very powerful description of a person forced to go through a time of weeping, of dryness, of thirst who finds God. His tears are turned to pools or wells to draw water from. He goes from strength to strength, until he comes to Zion. "Happy are those whose strength is in you, in whose heart are the highways to Zion" (Psa. 84:5-7).

Happy are those who pass through weeping. Secure are those who see terrorism. Their hearts are established on Zion. They can be sustained in the place of dryness because they have found the Source. They are on a journey, they are heading for the promise, they are paying the price. They are embracing the cost, and sing, "Great is the LORD and greatly to be praised in the city of our God. His holy mountain, beautiful in elevation, is the joy of all the earth, Mount Zion, in the far north, the city of the great King" (Psa. 48:1,2).

But there is more to that story than first meets the eye. Keep reading, and a disturbing connection is made. "Let Zion be glad, let the towns of Judah rejoice because of your judgments" (Psa. 48:11). Wait a minute! The destination is the wedding, the object, Zion. now here is the price paid by those on this pilgrimage. They must endure judgment. Remember Jesus, "who looked like he had been refined in a fire". So does His bride!

Rejoice because of judgment

There enters now, a very difficult thought. Judgment is something to be rejoiced about. Judgment is a good thing. Just read that sentence again - the word judgment and the word good should not be in the same sentence! Yet there they are.

David wrote something more difficult, "The fear of the Lord is clean, enduring forever; the judgments of the Lord are true and righteous altogether. More to be desired than gold, yea than much fine gold; sweeter also than honey and the honeycomb" (Psa. 19:9,10 NJKV).

Judgment is to be desired more than fine gold. It refines the soul of a man, and that is more valuable than riches. God sits as a refiner, and takes us through the fire again and again, until we shine like burning bronze - just like His Son (Mal. 3:3).

He wants a perfect Bride

God's eye is on us, and our eye is on Him, seated in Zion. Our vision, like Abraham's, is cast upon a City whose builder and maker is God. We are sojourning, on a pilgrimage. On this journey we will face bitterness, walk the valley of Baca, and be refined.

"Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God will shine forth. Our God shall come and not keep silent; a fire shall devour before Him, and it shall be very tempestuous around Him" (Psa. 50:2,3 NKJV). God is in the house, a devouring fire and a mighty tempest. It is hard to stand in such an environment - but it creates the perfection of beauty, the beloved out of whom God shines forth!

Remember the Father of the Bridegroom? He is a "consuming fire", and here Isaiah tells us He is a "devouring fire". Devouring what, pray tell? "Therefore thus says the LORD of hosts: I will now refine and test them, for what else can I do with my sinful people?" (Jer. 9:7). He is devouring sin, He is stripping away flesh; He is making perfect.

Keep your eyes on the prize

There is one member of the Trinity we have not considered yet. Is He too, like these others? What is the Holy Spirit doing during all of this? "Whoever is left in Zion. will be called holy. the Lord has washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion and cleansed the bloodstains of Jerusalem from its midst by a Spirit of judgment and by the Spirit of burning." (Isa. 4:4,5). Oh dear, He's fire too!

He is the Spirit of judgment, refining His people; the Spirit of burning, removing bloodstain and sickness. It is this Spirit with which we are baptised. As John clearly said, Jesus brings a baptism of fire! As an aside, have you ever wondered why there are three baptisms? The water for death of the flesh, the Spirit for making alive the spirit of a man and the fire. the fire is for the soul of a man.

Here then, is the cost. "Whoever does not take up the cross and follow me is not worthy of me. Those who find their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake will find it." (Matt. 10:38,39). The word "life" translated here is psuche - otherwise translated soul. We must take up the cross, and die, losing our soulish life and rights.

But keep your eye on the reason we are doing this. "Then the LORD will create above every dwelling place of Mount Zion and above her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day and the shining of a flaming fire by night. Over all the glory there will be a covering [canopy]" (Isa. 4:5 NKJV). In Zion, there is glory.

Over every home, a manifest God, presented in glory. Over every assembly, every congregation there will be a canopy of glory. There will be a glorious, triumphant Church in the midst of the darkness of the end times. Yes, eating from the banqueting table, in the midst of her enemies.
